Chapter 187

1955 REPLACEMENT PART

Holidays; Standard Time

187.010 Legal holidays; acts deferred to next business day
187.020 Additional legal holidays
187.025 Days of commemoration
187.030 Banks closing on Saturdays and holidays; negotiable instruments payable on holidays, effect on time of payment
187.110 Standard time

CROSS REFERENCES

Arbor Day, 336.350
Frances E. Willard Day, 336.370
School holidays, 336.010

187.010

Legal holidays as non-judicial days, 1.060
Property taxes, payment not deferred, 311.505

187.030

Acts required by Negotiable Instrument Law to be performed on day which is holiday, 71.190

Banks closing on Saturdays, 707.430

187.010 Legal holidays; acts deferred to next business day. (1) The following days are legal holidays in this state:

(a) Each Sunday.

(b) New Year's Day on January 1.

(c) Memorial Day on May 30.

(d) Independence Day on July 4.

(e) Labor Day on the first Monday in September.

(f) Veterans Day on November 11.

(g) Thanksgiving Day on the fourth Thursday in November.

(h) Christmas Day on December 25.

If any of such holidays, other than Sunday, at any time fall on Sunday, the succeeding Monday shall be a holiday in that year.

(2) Any act authorized, required or permitted to be performed on a holiday as designated in this section may be performed on the next succeeding business day; and no liability or loss of rights of any kind shall result from such delay. [Amended by 1955 c.4 §1]

187.020 Additional legal holidays. In addition to those specified in ORS 187.010, the following days are legal holidays in this state:

(1) Lincoln's Birthday on February 12.

(2) Washington's Birthday on February 22.

(3) Every day on which an election is held throughout the state.

(4) Every day appointed by the President of the United States or by the Governor as a holiday.

If any of such holidays at any time fall on Sunday, the succeeding Monday shall be a holiday in that year.

187.025 Days of commemoration. The following days shall be days of commemoration but not legal holidays and shall be suitably observed in schools:

(1) Admission of Oregon into the Union on February 14.

(2) Columbus Day on October 12. [1953 c.260 §2]

187.030 Banks closing on Saturdays and holidays; negotiable instruments payable on holidays, effect on time of payment. (1) Any bank which elects to close on Saturdays under any Act permitting such closure shall not remain closed on any holiday enumerated in ORS 187.020 when such holiday occurs on Friday or the observance of which occurs on Monday.

(2) Any bank, which term, for the purposes of this section, includes any state bank, national bank, federal reserve bank, trust company, safe deposit company, mutual savings bank and savings and loan association, doing business in this state, may, at its sole option, remain open for business on any holiday as designated in ORS 187.020; but any act authorized, required or permitted to be performed at or by or with respect to any bank, as herein defined, may be performed on the next succeeding business day, and no liability or loss of rights of any kind shall result from such performance of business on such holiday.

(3) Negotiable instruments falling due on any holiday designated in ORS 187.010 or 187.020 shall be due and payable on the next succeeding business day.

187.040 to 187.100 [Reserved for expansion]

187.110 Standard time. The standard of time for any given area of the State of Oregon shall be the United States standard of time as established by the Congress of the United States for that particular area. No department of the state government and no county, city or other political subdivision, shall employ any other time or adopt any statute, ordinance or order providing for the use of any other standard of time.

CERTIFICATE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Pursuant to ORS 173.170, I, Sam R. Haley, Legislative Counsel, do herebv certify that I have compared each section printed in this chapter with the original section in the enrolled bill, and that the sections in this chapter are correct copies of the enrolled sections, with the exception of the changes in form permitted by ORS 173.160 and other changes specifically authorized by law.

Done at Salem, Oregon, on October 15, 1955.

Sam R. Haley
Legislative Counsel

CHAPTER 188

[Reserved for expansion]