STATE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES GENERALLY

182.010 Nonattendance of member of board or commission at meetings as forfeiting office; appointment of successor. Any member of a state board or commission appointed by the Governor who fails to attend two consecutive meetings of the board or commission, whether regular, adjourned or special, shall forfeit his office unless he is prevented from attending by the serious illness of himself or his family or for any other cause that in the judgment of the Governor constitutes a valid reason for failing to attend. The Governor shall immediately appoint a successor.

182.020 Notice of meetings of boards and commissions; reporting of absences. The secretary or clerk of every state board and commission shall:

(1) Give the members of the board or commission at least 10 days' notice, in writing, of the date and place of each regular, adjourned or special meeting.

(2) Report to the Governor the names of all members who fail to attend any meeting of the board or commission.

182.030 Employment of persons advocating violent overthrow of the Government of the United States or Oregon prohibited. (1) No state department, board or commission shall knowingly employ any person who either directly or indirectly carries on, advocates, teaches, justifies, aids or abets a program of sabotage, force and violence, sedition or treason against the Government of the United States or of the State of Oregon.

(2) Any person employed by any state department, board or commission shall immediately be discharged from employment when it becomes known to the appointing employer that such person has, during the period of his employment, committed any offense set forth in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Any person denied employment or discharged pursuant to this section shall have a right of appeal in accordance with the provisions of the State Civil Service Law.

182.040 Boards and commissions to pay counties for services. (1) All state boards and commissions which are supported by fees, fines, licenses or taxes or other forms of income not derived from a direct tax on tangible property shall pay the various counties of the State of Oregon the same fees required of others for services rendered.

(2) ORS 182.040 to 182.060 do not apply to:

(a) Services rendered for the Bureau of Labor on wage claims assigned to it for collection.

(b) Any of the provisions or requirements of ORS 21.030, 21.110, 21.310, 21.560, 21.570, 21.590, 21.600, 46.240, 52.410 to 52.440, 156.150, 156.160, 205.360 and 205.370. [Amended by 1965 c.619 §35]

182.050 Time and manner of payment to counties. No state board or commission affected by the provisions of ORS 182.040 and 182.060 shall be required at the time of ordering the performance of any services for which a fee or charge may be collected by the county to pay the collectible fee or charge in advance or at the time the services are rendered. The county clerk or recorder or other officer performing the service, upon request made by the board or commission, shall charge to the board or commission the amount of the fee or charge, and thereafter on the first days of January, April, July and October of each calendar year supply to the board or commission an itemized statement of all services performed upon order of the board or commission for the three months preceding, together with the legal charge collectible therefor. The board or commission, upon receipt of the statement, promptly shall pay the amount due the county.

182.060 County clerk or recorder to file instruments affecting realty for state boards and commissions. When requested by a state board or commission, the county clerk or recorder, as the case may be, shall file or record, or both, in his office any instrument affecting real property and immediately shall return to the board or commission a receipt for the instrument, aptly describing it and showing the legal charge for the filing or recording of the instrument.

182.070 Publications of state agencies to be furnished to State Librarian. (1) Unless a greater or lesser number is agreed upon by the State Librarian and the issuer of the publication, the person responsible for distribution of a publication issued by, or by authority of a state officer, agency or institution not under the control of the State

Board of Higher Education shall make available to the State Librarian for distribution and exchange purposes, 25 copies of each technical publication so issued and 75 copies of all other publications so issued in multiple form, other than interoffice memoranda or forms.

(2) The term "publication," as used in this section, does not include:

(a) Oregon Revised Statutes or any edition thereof.

(b) Legislative bills, calendars and interim committee reports made available under ORS 171.215.

[1953 c.527 §2; 1961 c.167 §21]

182.080 Effect of repeal of statute authorizing state agency to collect, receive and expend money. (1) In the event of repeal of a statute or a part thereof which granted or conferred power to any state officer, board, commission, corporation, institution, department, agency or other state organization to collect, receive and expend money for or on behalf of the state or for any purpose authorized by law, such repeal shall not affect or impair any act done, or right accruing, accrued or acquired, or liability, or obligation to pay the state a license or other fee, or payment exacted or required by law to be made or authorized by said repealed statute and the rules, regulations and orders, if any, promulgated thereunder and in effect at the time of such repeal, unless otherwise specifically provided by law. In the event of such repeal of a statute, the Secretary of State shall have the authority to determine, collect and disburse any moneys due the state, or payable by or through the state, representing such license or other fee, or payment exacted or required by law in accordance with the provisions of such repealed statute and such rules, regulations and orders promulgated thereunder, and as otherwise provided by law, in order to secure the full force, effect and operation of such statute up to the time of its repeal, but not thereafter.

(2) Upon repeal of a statute or a part thereof as described in subsection (1) of this section, there hereby is appropriated for the payment of all expenses incurred by the Secretary of State in winding up and concluding administration of such repealed statute, as authorized in subsection (1) of this section, so much as may be necessary, and no more, of the balance in the General Fund theretofore appropriated for the use, operation and function of such state officer, board, commission, corporation, institution, department or other state organization or agency. Should the balance of such unexpended appropriation be insufficient to cover said costs and expenses of the Secretary of State in administering and concluding the operation of such repealed statute, then, in addition thereto, such amount as may be necessary, and no more, hereby is appropriated out of any funds, accounts and receipts belonging to the state in the custody or control of such state officer, board, commission, corporation, institution, department or other state organization, to cover in full the costs of winding up and concluding the administration of such statute.

Two members shall serve for a term of one year and shall be executive or administrative officers, or board or commission members, required by law to be appointed by the Governor. Before the expiration of the one year term of a member, the Governor shall appoint his successor to assume his duties on July 1 next following. In case of a vacancy for any cause, the Governor shall make an appointment to become immediately effective for the unexpired term.

(2) The members of the board shall annually elect one member as chairman. The Governor shall appoint a state officer or employe to serve as secretary of the employe suggestion program. The board members and the secretary shall serve without compensation.

(3) The board shall formulate, establish and maintain an employe suggestion program to encourage and reward meritorious suggestions by state employes that will promote efficiency and economy in the performance of any function of state government.

(4) The secretary, with the approval of the Employe Suggestion Awards Board, shall prepare rules and regulations necessary or appropriate for the proper administration of ORS 182.310 to 182.360 and for the accomplishment of the purposes of ORS 182.310 to 182.360.
[1957 c.616 §2; 1965 c.9 §1]

182.330 Board's determination final. The board shall make the final determination as to whether an employe suggestion award will be made; and, subject to the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to subsection (4) of ORS 182.320, the board shall determine the nature and extent of the award.
[1957 c.616 §3]

182.340 [1957 c.616 §5; repealed by 1965 c.9 §2]

182.350 Administrative expenses of board. Administrative expenses of the board in administering ORS 182.310 to 182.360 may be paid from the Civil Service Department Account in the General Fund, and an amount sufficient to pay such administrative expenses hereby is continuously appropriated out of the Civil Service Department Account for such purpose.
[1957 c.616 §4; 1961 c.197 §3]

182.360 Collection and payment of cash awards and administrative expenses. (1) The amount of the cash awards and administrative expenses under ORS 182.310 to 182.360 which are paid from the Civil Service Department Account shall be in addition to the administrative expenses and costs of operating the Department of Civil Service and shall be added to and collected with the administrative expenses and costs of operating the Department of Civil Service collected under ORS 240.165.

(2) Vouchers for the payment of cash awards and administrative expenses under ORS 182.310 to 182.360 shall be prepared by the Director of the Department of Civil Service payable from the Civil Service Department Account upon certification of the chairman or secretary of the Employe Suggestion Awards Board of the amount of the cash award and the person to whom the award has been made or the amount of the administrative expenses.
