(2) In a proceeding by the corporation, whether acting directly or through a receiver, trustee or other legal representative, or through shareholders in a representative suit, against the incumbent or former officers or directors of the corporation.

(3) The right to the exclusive use of a specified corporate name so reserved may be transferred to any other person or corporation by filing in the office of the Corporation Commissioner a notice of such transfer, executed by the applicant for whom the name was reserved, and specifying the name and address of the transferee. A corporation which has in effect a registration of its corporate name may renew such registration from year to year by annually filing an application for renewal setting forth the facts required to be set forth in an original application for registration and a certificate of good standing as required for the original registration and by paying a fee of $10. (2) Such statement shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president, and verified by him, and delivered to the Corporation Commissioner. If the Corporation Commissioner finds that such statement conforms to the provisions of this chapter, he shall file such statement in his office, and upon such filing the change of address of the registered office, or the appointment of a new registered agent, or both, as the case may be, shall become effective.

(3) Any person who has been designated by a corporation as its registered agent for service of process may file with the Corporation Commissioner a signed statement that he is unwilling to continue to act as registered agent of such corporation for the service of process. Upon the expiration of 30 days after the filing of such statement with the Corporation Commissioner, the capacity of such person as such registered agent shall terminate. Upon the filing of such statement, the Corporation Commissioner forthwith shall give written notice, by mail, to such corporation of the filing of such statement and the effect thereof, which notice shall be addressed to such corporation at its principal or home office as shown by the records of his office. [1953 c.549 §12]

57.075 Service of process on corporation. (1) The registered agent so appointed by a corporation shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served.

In the event any such process, notice or demand is served on the Corporation Commissioner, he shall immediately cause one of the copies thereof to be forwarded by registered mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office. Any service so had on the Corporation Commissioner shall be returnable in not less than 30 days.

(3) The Corporation Commissioner shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon him under this section, and shall record therein the time of such service and his action with reference thereto.

(4) Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law. [1953 c.549 §13]

57.080 Authorized shares. (1) Each corporation shall have power to create and issue the number of shares stated in its articles of incorporation. Such shares may be divided into one or more classes, any or all of which classes may consist of shares with par value or shares without par value, with such designations, preferences, limitations and relative rights as shall be stated in the articles of incorporation. The articles of incorporation may limit or deny the voting rights of the shares of any class to the extent not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(1) If the articles of incorporation so provide, the shares of any preferred or special class may be divided into and issued in series. If the shares of any such class are to be issued in series, then each series shall be so designated as to distinguish the shares thereof from the shares of all other series and classes. Any or all of the series of any such class and the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between different series may be fixed and determined by the articles of incorporation, but all shares of the same class shall be identical except as to the following relative rights and preferences, as to which there may be variations between different series:

(a) The rate of dividend.

(b) The price at and the terms and conditions on which shares may be redeemed.

(c) The amount payable upon shares in event of involuntary liquidation.

(e) Sinking fund provisions for the redemption of purchase of shares.

(f) The terms and conditions on which shares may be converted if the shares of any series are issued with the privilege of conversion.

(2) If the articles of incorporation shall expressly vest authority in the board of directors, then to the extent that the articles of incorporation shall not have established series and fixed and determined the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series, the board of directors shall have authority to divide any or all of such classes into series and within the limitations set forth in this section and in the articles of incorporation, fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established.

(3) In order for the board of directors to establish a series, where authority so to do is contained in the articles of incorporation, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the designation of the series and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof, or so much thereof as shall not be fixed and determined by the articles of incorporation.

(4) Prior to the issue of any shares of a series established by resolution adopted by the board of directors, the corporation shall file in the office of the Corporation Commissioner a statement setting forth:

- (a) The name of the corporation.
- (b) A copy of the resolution establishing and designating the series, and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof.
- (c) The date of adoption of such resolution.

(d) That such resolution was duly adopted by the board of directors.

(5) Such statement shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, and shall be delivered to the Corporation Commissioner. If the Corporation Commissioner finds that such statement conforms to law, he shall, when all fees and charges have been paid as in this chapter prescribed:

(a) Indorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

(b) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(c) Return the other duplicate original to the corporation or its representative.

(6) Upon the filing of such statement by the Corporation Commissioner, the resolution establishing and designating the series and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof shall become effective and shall constitute an amendment to the articles of incorporation. [1953 c.549 §15]

57.090 Subscriptions for shares. (1) A subscription for shares of a corporation to be organized shall be irrevocable for a period of six months, unless otherwise provided by the terms of the subscription agreement or unless all of the subscribers consent to the revocation of such subscription.

(2) Unless otherwise provided in the subscription agreement, subscriptions for shares, whether made before or after the organization of a corporation, shall be paid in full at such time, or in such instalments and at such times, as shall be determined by the board of directors. Any call made by the board of directors for payment on subscriptions shall be uniform as to all shares of the same class or as to all shares of the same series, as the case may be. In case of default in the payment of any instalment or call when such payment is due, the corporation may proceed to collect the amount due in the same manner as any debt due the corporation. The bylaws may prescribe other penalties for failure to pay instalments or calls that may become due, but no penalty working a forfeiture of a subscription, or of the amounts paid thereon, shall be declared as against any subscriber unless the amount due thereon shall remain unpaid for a period of 20 days after written demand has been made therefor. If mailed, such written demand shall be deemed to be made when deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope, addressed to the subscriber at his last postoffice address known to the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. In the event of the sale of any shares by reason of any forfeiture, the excess of proceeds realized over the amount due and unpaid on such shares shall be paid to the delinquent subscriber or to his legal representative. [1953 c.549 §16]

57.100 Consideration for shares. (1) Shares having a par value may be issued for such consideration expressed in dollars, not less than the par value thereof, as shall be fixed from time to time by the board of directors.

(2) Shares without par value may be issued for such consideration expressed in dollars as may be fixed from time to time by the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation reserve to the shareholders the right to fix the consideration. In the event that such right be reserved as to any shares, the shareholders shall, prior to the issuance of such shares, fix the consideration expressed in dollars to be received for such shares, by a vote of the holders of a majority of all shares entitled to vote thereon.

(3) Treasury shares may be disposed of by the corporation for such consideration as may be fixed from time to time by the board of directors.

(4) That part of the surplus of a corporation which is transferred to stated capital upon the issuance of shares as share dividend shall be deemed to be the consideration for the issuance of such shares.

(5) In the event of a conversion of shares, or in the event of an exchange of shares with or without par value for the same or a different number of shares with or without par value, whether of the same or a different class or classes, the consideration for the shares so issued in exchange or conversion shall be deemed to be:

(a) The stated capital then represented by the shares so exchanged or converted, and

(b) That part of surplus, if any, transferred to stated capital upon the issuance of shares for the shares so exchanged or converted, and

(c) Any additional consideration paid to the corporation upon the issuance of shares for the shares so exchanged or converted.

(6) Nothing contained in this section shall be taken or construed as in any wise impairing or restricting the powers or authority of the Corporation Commissioner under the provisions of the Oregon Securities Law, as amended. [1953 c.549 §17]

57.105 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138]

57.106 Payment for shares. (1) The consideration for the issuance of shares may be paid, in whole or in part, in money, in other property, tangible or intangible, or in labor or services actually performed for the corporation. When payment of the consideration for which shares are to be issued shall have been received by the corporation, such shares shall be deemed to be fully paid and nonassessable.

(2) Future services shall not constitute payment or part payment for shares of a corporation.

(3) In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the board of directors or the shareholders, as the case may be, as to the value of the consideration received for shares shall be conclusive. [1953 c.549 §18]

57.111 Determination of amount of stated capital. (1) In case of the issuance by a corporation of shares having a par value, the consideration received therefor shall constitute stated capital to the extent of the par value of such shares, and the excess, if any, of such consideration shall constitute capital surplus.

(2) In case of the issuance by a corporation of shares without par value, the entire consideration received therefor shall constitute stated capital unless the corporation shall determine as provided in this section that only a part thereof shall be stated capital. Within a period of 60 days after the issuance of any shares without par value, the board of directors may allocate to capital surplus not more than 25 percent of the consideration received for the issuance of such shares. No such allocation shall be made of any portion of the consideration received for shares without par value having a preference in the assets of the corporation in the event of involuntary liquidation except the amount, if any, of such consideration in excess of such preference.

(3) The stated capital of a corporation may be increased from time to time by resolution of the board of directors directing that all or a part of the surplus of the corporation be transferred to stated capital. The board of directors may direct that the amount of the surplus so transferred shall be deemed to be stated capital in respect of any designated class of shares. [1953 c.549 §19]

57.116 Expenses of organization, reorganization and financing. The reasonable charges and expenses of organization or reorganization of a corporation, and the reasonable expenses of and compensation for the sale or underwriting of its shares, may be paid or allowed by such corporation out of the consideration received by it in payment for its shares without thereby rendering such shares not fully paid and nonassessable. [1953 c.549 §20]

57.120 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138]

57.121 Certificates representing shares.

(1) The shares of a corporation shall be represented by certificates signed by the president or a vice president and the secretary or an assistant secretary of the corporation, and may be sealed with the seal of the corporation or a facsimile thereof. The signatures of the president or vice president and the secretary or assistant secretary upon a certificate may be facsimiles if the certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent, or registered by a registrar, other than the corporation itself or an employe of the corporation. In case any officer who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon such certificate shall have ceased to be such officer before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer at the date of its issue.

(2) Every certificate representing shares issued by a corporation which is authorized to issue shares of more than one class shall state upon the face or back thereof, in full or in the form of a summary, all of the designations, preferences, limitations and relative rights of the shares of each class authorized to be issued, and, if the corporation is authorized to issue any preferred or special class in series, the variations in the relative rights and preferences between the shares of each such series so far as the same have been fixed and determined and the authority of the board of directors to fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of subsequent series.

(3) Each certificate representing shares shall also state upon the face thereof:

(a) That the corporation is organized under the laws of this state.

(b) The name of the person to whom issued.

(c) The number and class of shares, and the designation of the series, if any, which such certificate represents.

(d) The par value of each share represented by such certificate, or a statement that the shares are without par value.

(4) No certificate shall be issued for any share until such share is fully paid. [1953 c.549 §21]

57.125 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138]

57.126 Issuance of fractional shares or scrip. A corporation may, but shall not be obliged to, issue a certificate for a fractional share, and, by action of its board of directors, may issue in lieu thereof scrip in registered or bearer form which shall entitle the holder to receive a certificate for a full share upon the surrender of such scrip aggregating a full share. A certificate for a fractional share shall, but scrip shall not unless otherwise provided therein, entitle the holder to exercise voting rights, to receive dividends thereon, and to participate in any of the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation. The board of directors may cause such scrip to be issued subject to the condition that it shall become void if not exchanged for certificates representing full shares before a specified date, or subject to the condition that the shares for which such scrip is exchangeable may be sold by the corporation and the proceeds thereof distributed to the holders of such scrip, or subject to any other conditions which the board of directors may deem advisable. [1953 c.549 §22]

57.131 Liability of subscribers and shareholders. (1) A holder of or subscriber to shares of a corporation shall be under no obligation to the corporation or its creditors with respect to such shares other than the obligation to pay to the corporation the full consideration for which such shares were issued or to be issued.

(2) To the extent full consideration has not been paid to the corporation, the holder of or subscriber to shares of a corporation shall be liable therefor to all creditors, after corporate insolvency or failure of satisfaction from corporate assets. Payment of such consideration may also be enforced by any trustee, assignee for the benefit of creditors, receiver or other liquidator of the corporation.

(3) Any person becoming an assignee or transferee of shares or of a subscription for shares in good faith and without knowledge or notice that the full consideration therefor has not been paid shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its creditors for any unpaid portion of such consideration.

(4) An executor, administrator, conservator, guardian, trustee, assignee for the benefit of creditors or receiver shall not be personally liable as a holder of or subscriber to shares of a corporation; but the estate and funds in his hands shall be so liable.

(5) No pledgee or other holder of shares as collateral security shall be personally liable as a shareholder. [1953 c.549 §23]

57.135 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138]

57.136 Shareholder's preemptive rights.

(1) Except as hereinafter provided, existing shareholders of a corporation shall have the first right to subscribe to a new issue of stock, or to treasury stock offered for sale, in proportion to their respective holdings wherever such issue or sale will adversely affect their proportionate voting power.

(2) The preemptive right of a shareholder to acquire additional or treasury shares of a corporation may be limited or denied to the extent provided in the articles of incorporation.

(3) Unless otherwise provided by its articles of incorporation, any corporation may issue and sell its shares to its officers or employees or to the officers or employees of any subsidiary corporation, without first offering such shares to its shareholders, for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions as shall be approved by the holders of two-thirds of all shares entitled to vote thereon or by its board of directors pursuant to like approval of the shareholders. [1953 c.549 §24]

57.140 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138]

57.141 Bylaws. The initial bylaws of a corporation shall be adopted by its board of directors. The power to alter, amend or repeal the bylaws or adopt new bylaws shall be vested in the board of directors unless reserved to the shareholders by the articles of incorporation or bylaws existing on December 31, 1953. The bylaws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the corporation not inconsistent with law or the articles of incorporation. [1953 c.549 §25]

57.145 Meetings of shareholders. (1) Meetings of shareholders may be held at such place, either within or without this state, as may be provided in the bylaws, but no amendment to the bylaws changing the place of meeting shall be effective unless approved by a majority vote of shareholders entitled to vote. In the absence of any such provision, all meetings shall be held at the registered office of the corporation.

(2) An annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held at such time as may be provided in the bylaws. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work a forfeiture or dissolution of the corporation.

(3) Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the president, the board of directors, the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting, or such other officers or persons as may be provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. [1953 c.549 §26]

57.150 Notice of shareholders' meetings. Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than 10 nor more than 50 days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the president, the secretary or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer books of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. [1953 c.549 §27]

57.155 Closing transfer books and fixing record date. (1) For the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or in order to make a determination of shareholders for any other proper purpose, the board of directors of a corporation may provide that the stock transfer books shall be closed for a stated period but not to exceed in any case, 50 days. If the stock transfer books shall be closed for the purpose of determining the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, such books shall be closed for at least 10 days immediately preceeding such meeting.

(2) In lieu of closing the stock transfer books, the bylaws, or in the absence of an applicable bylaw, the board of directors may fix in advance a date as the record date for any such determination of shareholders, such date in any case to be not more than 50 days and, in case of a meeting of shareholders, not less than 10 days prior to the date on which the particular action, requiring such determination of shareholders, is to be taken. If the stock transfer books are not closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, or shareholders entitled to receive payment of a dividend, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the board of directors declaring such dividend is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for such determination of shareholders.

(3) When a determination of shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders has been made as provided in this section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof except where the determination has been made through the closing of the stock transfer books and the stated period of closing has expired. [1953 c.549 §28]

57.160 Voting list. (1) The officer or agent having charge of the stock transfer books for shares of a corporation shall make, at least 10 days before each meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof, arranged in alphabetical order, with the address of and the number of shares held by each, which list, for a period of 10 days prior to such meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Such list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or transfer books or to vote at any meeting of shareholders.

(2) Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at such meeting.

(3) An officer or agent having charge of the stock transfer books who shall fail to prepare the list of shareholders, or keep it on file for a period of 10 days, or produce and keep it open for inspection at the meeting, as provided in this section, shall be liable to any shareholder suffering damage on account of such failure, to the extent of such damage. [1953 c.549 §29]

57.165 Quorum of shareholders. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of shareholders, but in no event shall a quorum consist of less than one-third of the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the shareholders, unless the vote of a greater number or voting by classes is required by this chapter or the articles of incorporation.

(2) The shareholders present at a duly organized meeting may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough shareholders to leave less than a quorum. [1953 c.549 §30]

57.170 Voting of shares. (1) Each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, except to the extent that the voting rights of the shares of any class or classes are limited or denied by the articles of incorporation as permitted by this chapter.

(2) Neither treasury shares, nor shares of its own stock held by a corporation in a fiduciary capacity, nor shares held by another corporation if a majority of the shares entitled to vote for the election of directors of such other corporation is held by the corporation, shall be voted at any meeting or counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares at any given time.

(3) A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after 11 months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy.

(4) At each election for directors every shareholder entitled to vote at such election shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares owned by him for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election he has a right to vote, or, if the articles of incorporation specifically permit cumulative voting, to cumulate his votes either by giving one candidate as many votes as the number of such directors multiplied by the number of his shares shall equal or by distributing such votes on the same principle among any number of such candidates.

(5) Shares standing in the name of another domestic or foreign corporation may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provision, as the board of directors of such corporation may determine.

(6) Shares held by an administrator, executor, guardian or conservator may be voted by him, either in person or by proxy, without a transfer of such shares into his name. Shares standing in the name of a trustee may be voted by him, either in person or by proxy; but no trustee shall be entitled to vote shares held by him without a transfer of such shares into his name.

(7) Shares standing in the name of a receiver may be voted by such receiver, and shares held by or under control of a receiver may be voted by such receiver without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do be contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver was appointed.

(8) A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred. [1953 c.549 §31]

57.175 Voting trust. Any number of shareholders of a corporation may create a voting trust for the purpose of conferring upon a trustee or trustees the right to vote or otherwise represent their shares, for a period of not to exceed 10 years, by entering into a written voting trust agreement specifying the terms and conditions of the voting trust, by depositing a counterpart of the agreement with the corporation at its registered office, and by transferring their shares to such trustee or trustees for the purposes of the agreement. The counterpart of the voting trust agreement so deposited with the corporation shall be subject to the same right of examination by a shareholder of the corporation, in person or by agent or attorney, as are the books and records of the corporation, and shall be subject to examination by any holder of a beneficial interest in the voting trust, either in person or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time for any proper purpose. [1953 c.549 §32]

57.180 Board of directors. The business and affairs of a corporation shall be managed by a board of directors. Directors need not be residents of this state or shareholders of the corporation unless the articles of incorporation so require. The articles of incorporation may prescribe other qualifications for directors. The board of directors shall have authority to fix the compensation of directors unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation. [1953 c.549 §33]

57.185 Number and election of directors. The number of directors of a corporation shall be not less than three. Subject to such limitation, the number of directors shall be fixed by the bylaws, except as to the number constituting the first board of directors, which number shall be fixed by the articles of incorporation. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to the bylaws, but no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. In the absence of a bylaw fixing the number of directors, the number shall be the same as that stated in the articles of incorporation. The first board of directors shall be elected by the shareholders at their first meeting and such directors shall hold office until the first annual meeting of shareholders, and until their successors shall have been elected and qualified, unless removed in accordance with the provisions of the bylaws. At the first annual meeting of shareholders, and at each annual meeting thereafter the shareholders shall elect directors to hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting, except in the case of classification of directors as permitted by this chapter. Each director shall hold office for the term for which he is elected and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified, unless removed in accordance with the provisions of the bylaws. [1953 c.549 §34]

Note: Section 34 of House Bill No. 142 of the Forty-seventh Legislative Assembly (now ORS 57.185) was amended by Senate amendments dated April 20, 1953, to provide that the first board of directors be elected by the shareholders at their first meeting instead of being named in the articles of incorporation. However, sections 48 and 52 (now ORS 57.311 and 57.331), which were consistent with the original section 34, were not amended to harmonize their provisions with the amended section 34.

57.190 Classification of directors. In lieu of electing the whole number of directors annually, the bylaws may provide that the directors be divided into either two or three classes, each class to be as nearly equal in number as possible, the term of office of directors of the first class to expire at the first annual meeting of shareholders after their election, that of the second class to expire at the second annual meeting after their election, and that of the third class, if any, to expire at the third annual meeting after their election. At each annual meeting after such classification the number of directors equal to the number of the class whose term expires at the time of such meeting shall be elected to hold office until the second succeeding annual meeting, if there be two classes, or until the third succeeding annual meeting, if there be three classes. No classification of directors shall be effective prior to the first annual meeting of shareholders. [1953 c.549 §35]

57.195 Vacancies in board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum of the board of directors, unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office. Any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors shall be filled by election at an annual meeting or at a special meeting of shareholders called for that purpose unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation. [1953 c.549 §36]

57.200 Quorum of directors. A majority of the number of directors fixed by the bylaws, or in the absence of a bylaw fixing the number of directors, then of the number stated in the articles of incorporation, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws or unless a lesser number is specified by the articles of incorporation. The act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. [1953 c.549 §37]

57.205 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138]

57.206 Executive committee. If the articles of incorporation or the bylaws so provide, the board of directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the number of directors fixed by the bylaws, or in the absence of a bylaw fixing the number of directors, then of the number stated in the articles of incorporation, may designate two or more directors to constitute an executive committee, which committee, to the extent provided in such resolution or in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws of the corporation shall have and may exercise all of the authority of the board of directors in the management of the corporation; but the designation of such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the board of directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by law. [1953 c.549 §38]

57.210 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138]

57.211 Place and notice of directors' meetings. (1) Meetings of the board of directors, regular or special, may be held either within or without this state.

(2) Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held with or without notice as prescribed in the bylaws. Special meetings of the board of directors shall be held upon such notice as is prescribed in the bylaws. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting unless required by the bylaws. [1953 c.549 §39]

57.216 Dividends. The board of directors of a corporation may, from time to time, declare and the corporation may pay dividends on its outstanding shares in cash, property or its own shares, except when the corporation is insolvent or when the payment thereof would render the corporation insolvent or when the declaration or payment thereof would be contrary to any restrictions contained in the articles of incorporation, subject to the following provisions:

(1) Dividends may be declared and paid in cash or property only out of the unreserved earned surplus of the corporation, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) If the articles of incorporation of a corporation engaged in the business of exploiting natural resources so provide, dividends may be declared and paid in cash out of the depletion reserves created out of earned surplus, but each such dividend shall be identified as a distribution of such reserves; and the amount per share paid from such reserves shall be disclosed to the shareholders receiving the same concurrently with the distribution thereof.

(3) Dividends may be declared and paid in its own shares out of any treasury shares that have been reacquired out of surplus of the corporation.

(4) Dividends may be declared and paid in its own authorized but unissued shares out of any surplus of the corporation upon the following conditions:

(a) If a dividend is payable in its own shares having a par value, such shares shall be issued at not less than the par value thereof and there shall be transferred to stated capital at the time such dividend is paid an amount of surplus equal to the aggregate par value of the shares issued as a dividend. If such shares are issued at more than par value there shall be transferred from earned surplus to capital surplus an amount equal to the value, exceeding par value, for which such shares are issued.

(b) If a dividend is payable in its own shares without par value, such shares shall be issued at such value as shall be fixed by the board of directors by resolution adopted at the time such dividend is declared, and there shall be transferred to stated capital at the time such dividend is paid an amount of surplus equal to the aggregate value so fixed in respect of such shares; and the amount per share so transferred to stated capital shall be disclosed to the shareholders receiving such dividend concurrently with the payment thereof.

(5) No dividend payable in shares of any class shall be paid to the holders of shares of any other class unless the articles of incorporation so provide or such payment is authorized by the affirmative vote or the written consent of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of the class in which the payment is to be made.

(6) A split-up or division of the issued shares of any class into a greater number of shares of the same class without increasing the stated capital of the corporation shall not be construed to be a share dividend within the meaning of this section. [1953 c.549 §40]

57.221 Distributions in partial liquidation. (1) The board of directors of a corporation may, from time to time, distribute to its shareholders in partial liquidation, out of stated capital or capital surplus of the corporation, a portion of its assets, in cash or property, subject to the following provisions:

(a) No such distribution shall be made at a time when the corporation is insolvent or when such distribution would render the corporation insolvent.

(b) No such distribution shall be made unless the articles of incorporation so provide or such distribution is authorized by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the provisions of the articles of incorporation of the corporation.

(c) No such distribution shall be made to the holders of any class of shares unless all cumulative dividends accrued on all preferred or special classes of shares entitled to preferential dividends shall have been fully paid.

(d) No such distribution shall be made to the holders of any class of shares which would reduce the remaining net assets of the corporation below the aggregate preferential amount payable in event of voluntary liquidation to the holders of shares having preferential rights to the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation.

(e) Each such distribution, when made, shall be identified as a distribution in partial liquidation and the amount per share disclosed to the shareholders receiving the same concurrently with the distribution thereof.

(2) The board of directors of a corporation may also, from time to time, distribute to the holders of its outstanding shares having a cumulative preferential right to receive dividends, in discharge of their cumulative dividend rights, dividends payable in cash out of the capital surplus of the corporation, if at the time the corporation has no earned surplus and is not insolvent and would not thereby be rendered insolvent. Each such distribution, when made, shall be identified as a payment of cumulative dividends out of capital surplus. [1953 c.549 §41]

57.225 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138]

(2) The board of directors of each corporation shall, by resolution adopted by each such board, approve a plan of merger setting forth:

(a) The names of the corporations proposing to merge, and the name of the corporation into which they propose to merge, which is hereinafter designated as the surviving corporation.

(b) The terms and conditions of the proposed merger.

(d) A statement of any changes in the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation to be effected by such merger.

(e) Such other provisions with respect to the proposed merger as are deemed necessary or desirable. [1953 c.549 §65]

57.460 Procedure for consolidation. (1) Any two or more domestic corporations may consolidate into a new corporation pursuant to a plan of consolidation approved in the manner provided in this chapter.

(2) The board of directors of each corporation shall, by a resolution adopted by each such board, approve a plan of consolidation setting forth:

57.465 Approval by shareholders. (1) The board of directors of each corporation, upon approving such plan of merger or plan of consolidation, shall, by resolution, direct that the plan be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than 20 days before such meeting, in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders, and shall state the purpose of the meeting, whether the meeting be an annual or a special meeting. A copy or a summary of the plan of merger or plan of consolidation, as the case may be, shall be included in or enclosed with such notice.

(2) At each such meeting, a vote of the shareholders shall be taken on the proposed plan of merger or consolidation. Each outstanding share of each such corporation shall be entitled to vote on the proposed plan of merger or consolidation, whether or not such share has voting rights under the provisions of the articles of incorporation of such corporation. The plan of merger or consolidation shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each such corporation, unless any class of shares of any such corporation is entitled to vote as a class thereon, in which event, as to such corporation, the plan of merger or consolidation shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon and of the total outstanding shares. Any class of shares of any such corporation shall be entitled to vote as a class if the plan of merger or consolidation, as the case may be, contains any provision which, if contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation, would entitle such class of shares to vote as a class.

(3) After such approval by a vote of the shareholders of each corporation, and at any time prior to the filing of the articles of merger or consolidation, the merger or consolidation may be abandoned pursuant to provisions therefor, if any, set forth in the plan of merger or consolidation. (1) The several corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation shall be a single corporation, which, in the case of a merger, shall be that corporation designated in the plan of merger as the surviving corporation, and, in the case of a consolidation, shall be the new corporation provided for in the plan of consolidation.

(2) The separate existence of all corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation, except the surviving or new corporation, shall cease.

(3) Such surviving or new corporation shall have all the rights, privileges, immunities and powers and shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities of a corporation organized under this chapter.

(4) Such surviving or new corporation shall thereupon and thereafter possess all the rights, privileges, immunities and franchises, as well of a public as of a private nature, of each of the merging or consolidating corporations; and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due on whatever account, including subscriptions to shares, and all other choses in action, and all and every other interest, of or belonging to or due to each of the corporations so merged or consolidated, shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in such single corporation without further act or deed; and the title to any real estate, or any interest therein, vested in any of such corporations shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of such merger or consolidation.

(5) Such surviving or new corporation shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all the liabilities and obligations of each of the corporations so merged or consolidated; and any claim existing or action or proceeding pending by or against any of such corporations may be prosecuted as if such merger or consolidation had not taken place, or such surviving or new corporation may be substituted in its place. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of any such corporation shall be impaired by such merger or consolidation.

(6) In the case of a merger, the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation shall be deemed to be amended to the extent, if any, that changes in its articles of incorporation are stated in the plan of merger; and, in the case of a consolidation, the statements set forth in the articles of consolidation and which are required or permitted to be set forth in the articles of incorporation of corporations organized under this chapter shall be deemed to be the original articles of incorporation of the new corporation.

(7) The net surplus of the merging or consolidating corporations which was available for the payment of dividends immediately prior to such merger or consolidation, to the extent that such surplus is not transferred to stated capital by the issuance of shares or otherwise, shall continue to be available for the payment of dividends by such surviving or new corporation. [1953 c.549 §70]

57.485 Merger or consolidation of domestic and foreign corporations. (1) One or more foreign corporations and one or more domestic corporations may be merged or consolidated in the following manner, if such merger or consolidation is permitted by the laws of the state under which each such foreign corporation is organized:

(a) Each domestic corporation shall comply with the provisions of this chapter with respect to the merger or consolidation, as the case may be, of domestic corporations and each foreign corporation shall comply with the applicable provisions of the laws of the state under which it is organized.

(b) If the surviving or new corporation, as the case may be, is to be governed by the laws of any state other than this state, it shall comply with the provisions of this chapter with respect to foreign corporations if it is to transact business in this state, and in every case it shall file with the Corporation Commissioner of this state:

(A) An agreement that it may be served with process in this state in any proceeding for the enforcement of any obligation of any domestic corporation which is a party to such merger or consolidation and in any proceeding for the enforcement of the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any such domestic corporation against the surviving or new corporation;

(B) An irrevocable appointment of the Corporation Commissioner of this state as its agent to accept service of process in any such proceeding; and

(C) An agreement that it will promptly pay to the dissenting shareholders of any such domestic corporation the amount, if any, to which they shall be entitled under the provisions of this chapter with respect to the rights of dissenting shareholders.

(2) The effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations, if the surviving or new corporation is to be governed by the laws of this state. If the surviving or new corporation is to be governed by the laws of any state other than this state, the effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations except in so far as the laws of such other state provide otherwise. [1953 c.549 §71]

57.490 Rights of dissenting shareholders in mergers or consolidations. (1) If a shareholder of a corporation which is a party to a merger or consolidation shall file with such corporation, prior to or at the meeting of shareholders at which the plan of merger or consolidation is submitted to a vote, a written objection to such plan of merger or consolidation, and shall not vote in favor thereof, and such shareholder, within 10 days after the date on which the vote was taken, shall make written demand on the surviving or new corporation, domestic or foreign, for payment of the fair value of his shares as of the day prior to the date on which the vote was taken approving the merger or consolidation, then, if the merger or consolidation is effected, the surviving or new corporation shall pay to such shareholder, upon surrender of his certificate or certificates representing such shares, the fair value thereof. Such demand shall state the number and class of the shares owned by such dissenting shareholder. Any shareholder failing to make demand within the 10-day period shall be bound by the terms of the merger or consolidation.

(2) Within 10 days after the merger or consolidation is effected, the surviving or new corporation, as the case may be, shall give notice thereof to each dissenting shareholder who has made demand as herein provided for the payment of the fair value of his shares.

(3) If within 30 days after the date on which such merger or consolidation was effected the value of such shares is agreed upon between the dissenting shareholder and the surviving or new corporation, payment therefor shall be made within 90 days, or such longer time as shall be mutually agreed, after the date on which such merger or consolidation was effected, upon the surrender of his certificate or certificates representing such shares. Upon payment of the agreed value the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares or in the corporation.

(4) If within such period of 30 days the shareholder and the surviving or new corporation do not so agree, then the dissenting shareholder may, within 60 days after the expiration of the 30-day period, file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of such shares, and shall be entitled to judgment against the surviving or new corporation for the amount of such fair value as of the day prior to the date on which such vote was taken approving such merger or consolidation, together with interest thereon to the date of such judgment. The judgment shall be payable only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the surviving or new corporation of the certificate or certificates representing such shares. Upon payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares, or in the surviving or new corporation. Unless the dissenting shareholder shall file such petition within the time herein limited, such shareholder and all persons claiming under him shall be bound by the terms of the merger or consolidation.

(5) Shares acquired by the surviving or new corporation pursuant to the payment of the agreed value thereof or to payment of the judgment entered therefor, as in this section provided, may be held and disposed of by such corporation as in the case of other treasury shares.

(6) The provisions of this section shall not apply to a merger if on the date of the filing of the articles of merger the surviving corporation is the owner of all the outstanding shares of the other corporations, domestic or foreign, that are parties to the merger. [1953 c.549 §72]

(1) The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending such sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge or other disposition and directing the submission thereof to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

(2) Written or printed notice shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders and, whether the meeting be an annual or a special meeting, shall state that the purpose or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the proposed sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge or other disposition.

(3) At such meeting the shareholders may authorize such sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge or other disposition and may fix, or may authorize the board of directors to fix, any or all of the terms and conditions thereof and the consideration to be received by the corporation therefor. Each outstanding share of the corporation shall be entitled to vote thereon, whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the provisions of the articles of incorporation. Such authorization shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of the corporation, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote as a class thereon, in which event such authorization shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon and of the total outstanding shares.

If the sale, lease or exchange is effected, the corporation shall pay to such shareholder, upon surrender of his certificate or certificates representing such shares, the fair value thereof. Such demand shall state the number and class of the shares owned by such dissenting shareholder. (2) Within 10 days after the sale, lease or exchange is effected, the corporation shall give notice thereof to each dissenting shareholder who has made demand as herein provided for the payment of the fair value of his shares.

(3) If within 30 days after the date on which the sale, lease or exchange was effected the value of such shares is agreed upon between the dissenting shareholder and the corporation, payment therefor shall be made within 90 days, or such longer time as shall be mutually agreed, after the date on which the sale or exchange was effected, upon the surrender of his certificate or certificates representing such shares. Upon payment of the agreed value, the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares or in the corporation.

(4) If within such period of 30 days the shareholder and the corporation do not so agree, then the dissenting shareholder may, within 60 days after the expiration of the 30-day period, file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of such shares, and shall be entitled to judgment against the corporation for the amount of such fair value as of the day prior to the date on which such vote was taken approving such sale, lease or exchange, together with interest thereon to the date of such judgment. The judgment shall be payable only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the corporation of the certificate or certificates representing such shares. [1953 c.549 §85]

57.575 Articles of dissolution. If voluntary dissolution proceedings have not been revoked, then when all debts, liabilities and obligations of the corporation have been paid and discharged, or adequate provision has been made therefor, and all of the remaining property and assets of the corporation have been distributed to its shareholders, articles of dissolution shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, which statement shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) That the Corporation Commissioner has theretofore filed a statement of intent to dissolve the corporation, and the date on which such statement was filed.

(3) That all debts, obligations and liabilities of the corporation have been paid and discharged or that adequate provision has been made therefor.

(4) That all the remaining property and assets of the corporation have been distributed among its shareholders in accordance with their respective rights and interests.

(5) That there are no suits pending against the corporation in any court, or that adequate provision has been made for the satisfaction of any judgment, order or decree which may be entered against it in any pending suit. [1953 c.549 §86]

57.580 Filing of articles of dissolution.

(1) Duplicate originals of such articles of dissolution shall be delivered to the Corporation Commissioner. If the Corporation Commissioner finds that such articles of dissolution conform to law, he shall, when all fees and charges have been paid as in this chapter prescribed:

(a) Indorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

(c) Issue a certificate of dissolution to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

(2) The certificate of dissolution, together with the duplicate original of the articles of dissolution affixed thereto by the Corporation Commissioner, shall be returned to the representative of the dissolved corporation. Upon the issuance of such certificate of dissolution the existence of the corporation shall cease, except for the purpose of suits, other proceedings and appropriate corporate action by shareholders, directors and officers as provided in this chapter. [1953 c.549 §87]

57.585 Involuntary dissolution. (1) A corporation may be dissolved involuntarily by a proclamation of the Governor when:

(a) The corporation has failed for two consecutive years to file its annual report or to pay any license fee; or

(b) The corporation has failed for 30 days to appoint and maintain a registered agent in this state; or

(c) The corporation has failed for 30 days after change of its registered office or registered agent to file in the office of the Corporation Commissioner a statement of such change.

(2) (a) On or before the first Monday in January in each year the Corporation Commissioner shall report to the Governor a list of all corporations delinquent in any of the matters mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (1) of this section, and the Governor shall forthwith issue his proclamation declaring such corporations dissolved and their articles of incorporation revoked and repealed.

(b) The proclamation of the Governor shall be filed in the office of the Corporation

Commissioner, and published in such newspapers and for such length of time as the Corporation Commissioner shall designate.

(c) Any corporation named in or dissolved by the proclamation referred to herein may be reinstated by proclamation of the Governor at any time within 10 years from the date of the proclamation declaring such corporation dissolved whenever it is established to the satisfaction of the Governor that in fact there was no cause for the dissolution, or whenever the neglect, omission or delinquency resulting in dissolution has been corrected and payment made of double the amount delinquent, if no other corporation of the same or deceptively similar name has been incorporated in this state.

(d) Nothing herein contained shall relieve any such reinstated corporation from penalty of forfeiture of its powers as a body corporate in case of failure to pay subsequently accruing licenses and taxes imposed by any law of this state.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect any suits now pending by or against any corporation which has been dissolved by proclamation, nor any suit now pending or hereafter brought for any liability against the stockholders or officers thereof, or to revive any charter or corporations previously dissolved or annulled, nor to make valid any defective organization of any corporation.

(f) Suits and actions upon choses in action arising out of contracts sold or assigned by any corporation dissolved pursuant to this section may be brought or prosecuted in the name of the purchaser or assignee. The fact of sale or assignment and of purchase by the plaintiff shall be set forth in the writ or other process; and the defendant may avail himself of any matter of defense of which he might have availed himself in a suit upon the claim by such corporation, had it not been dissolved pursuant to this section.

(3) In addition to any other remedies provided by law a corporation may be dissolved involuntarily by a decree of the circuit court in an action filed by the Attorney General when it is established that:

(a) The franchise of the corporation was procured through fraud; or

(b) The corporation has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon it by law. [1953 c.549 §88]

57.590 Venue and process. Any action by the Attorney General for the involuntary dissolution of a corporation shall be commenced either in the circuit court of the county in which the registered office of the corporation is situated, or in the Circuit Court of Marion County. Summons shall issue and be served as in other civil actions. If process is returned not found, the Attorney General shall cause publication to be made as in other civil cases in some newspaper published in the county where the registered office of the corporation is situated, containing a notice of the pendency of such action, the title of the court, the title of the action, and the date on or after which default may be entered. The Attorney General may include in one notice the names of any number of corporations against which actions are then pending in the same court. The Attorney General shall cause a copy of such notice to be mailed to the corporation at its registered office within 10 days after the first publication thereof. The certificate of the Attorney General of the mailing of such notice shall be prima facie evidence thereof. Such notice shall be published at least once each week for two successive weeks, and the first publication thereof may begin at any time after the summons has been returned. Unless a corporation shall have been served with summons, no default shall be taken against it earlier than 30 days after the first publication of such notice. [1953 c.549 §89]

57.595 Jurisdiction of court to liquidate assets and business of corporation. (1) The circuit courts shall have full power to liquidate the assets and business of a corporation:

(a) In an action by a shareholder when it is established:

(A) That the directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs and the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, and that irreparable injury to the corporation is being suffered or is threatened by reason thereof; or

(B) That the acts of the directors or those in control of the corporation are illegal, oppressive or fraudulent; or

(C) That the shareholders are deadlocked in voting power, and have failed, for a period which includes at least two consecutive annual meeting dates, to elect successors to directors whose terms have expired or would have expired upon the election of their successors; or

(D) That the corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted.

(b) In an action by a creditor:

(A) When the claim of the creditor has been reduced to judgment and an execution thereon returned unsatisfied and it is established that the corporation is insolvent; or

(B) When the corporation has admitted in writing that the claim of the creditor is due and owing and it is established that the corporation is insolvent.

(c) Upon application by a corporation which has filed a statement of intent to dissolve, as provided in this chapter, to have its liquidation continued under the supervision of the court.

(d) When an action has been filed by the Attorney General to dissolve a corporation and it is established that liquidation of its business and affairs should precede the entry of a decree of dissolution.

(2) Proceedings under paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) hereof shall be brought in the county in which the registered office or the principal office of the corporation is situated.

(3) It shall not be necessary to make shareholders parties to any such action or proceeding unless relief is sought against them personally. [1953 c.549 §90]

57.600 Procedure in liquidation of corporation by court. (1) In proceedings to liquidate the assets and business of a corporation the court shall have power to issue injunctions, to appoint a receiver or receivers pendente lite, with such powers and duties as the court, from time to time, may direct, and to take such other proceedings as may be requisite to preserve the corporate assets wherever situated, and carry on the business of the corporation until a full hearing can be had.

(2) After a hearing had upon such notice as the court may direct to be given to all parties to the proceedings and to any other parties in interest designated by the court, the court may appoint a liquidating receiver or receivers with authority to collect the assets of the corporation, including all amounts owing to the corporation by shareholders on account of any unpaid portion of the consideration for the issuance of shares. Such liquidating receiver or receivers shall have authority, subject to the order of the court, to sell, convey and dispose of all or any part of the assets of the corporation wherever situated, either at public or private sale. The assets of the corporation or the proceeds resulting from a sale, conveyance or other disposition thereof shall be applied to the expenses of such liquidation and to the payment of the liabilities and obligations of the corporation, and any remaining assets or proceeds shall be distributed among its shareholders according to their respective rights and interests. The order appointing such liquidating receiver or receivers shall state their powers and duties. Such powers and duties may be increased or diminished at any time during the proceedings.

(3) The court shall have power to allow from time to time, as expenses of the liquidation, compensation to the receiver or receivers and to attorneys in the proceeding, and to direct the payment thereof out of the assets of the corporation or the proceeds of any sale or disposition of such assets.

(4) A receiver of a corporation appointed under the provisions of this section shall have authority to sue and defend in all courts in his own name as receiver of such corporation. The court appointing such receiver shall, for the purposes of this chapter, have exclusive jurisdiction of the corporation and its property, wherever situated. [1953 c.549 §91]

57.605 [Amended by 1953 c.549 §138; renumbered 57.809]

57.606 Filing of claims in liquidation proceedings. In proceedings to liquidate the assets and business of a corporation the court may require all creditors of the corporation to file with the clerk of the court or with the receiver, in such form as the court may prescribe, proofs under oath of their respective claims. If the court requires the filing of claims it shall fix a date, which shall be not less than four months from the date of the order, as the last day for the filing of claims, and shall prescribe the notice that shall be given to creditors and claimants of the date so fixed. Prior to the date so fixed, the court may extend the time for the filing of claims. Creditors and claimants failing to file proofs of claim on or before the date so fixed may be barred, by order of court, from participating in the distribution of the assets of the corporation. [1953 c.549 §92]

57.611 Discontinuance of liquidation proceedings. The liquidation of the assets and business of a corporation may be discontinued at any time during the liquidation proceedings when it is established that cause for liquidation no longer exists. In such event the court shall dismiss the proceedings and direct the receiver to redeliver to the corporation all its remaining property and assets. [1953 c.549 §93]

57.615 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138]

57.616 Decree of involuntary dissolution. In proceedings to liquidate the assets and business of a corporation, when the costs and expenses of such proceedings and all debts, obligations and liabilities of the corporation shall have been paid and discharged and all of its remaining property and assets distributed to its shareholders, or in case its property and assets are not sufficient to satisfy and discharge such costs, expenses, debts and obligations, all the property and assets have been applied so far as they will go to their payment, the court shall enter a decree dissolving the corporation, whereupon the existence of the corporation shall cease. [1953 c.549 §94]

57.620 Filing of decree of dissolution. In case the court shall enter a decree dissolving a corporation, it shall be the duty of the clerk of such court to cause a certified copy of the decree to be filed with the Corporation Commissioner. No fee shall be charged by the Corporation Commissioner for the filing thereof. [1953 c.549 §95]

57.625 Deposit with State Land Board of amount due certain shareholders. Upon the voluntary or involuntary dissolution of a corporation, the portion of the assets distributable to a creditor or shareholder who is unknown or cannot be found, or who is under disability and there is no person legally competent to receive such distributive portion, shall be reduced to cash, and within six months after the final dividend in such liquidation or winding up is payable, deposited with the State Land Board. The receiver or other liquidating agent shall prepare in duplicate and under oath a statement containing the names and last known addresses of the persons entitled to such funds. One of such statements shall be filed with the State Land Board and another with the Corporation Commissioner. Said funds shall thereupon escheat to and become the property of the State of Oregon and shall become a part of the irreducible portion of the Common School

Fund of the state. The owner, his or her heirs or personal representatives, may reclaim any funds so deposited in the manner provided for estates which have escheated to the state. [1953 c.549 §96]

57.630 Survival of remedy after dissolution. (1) The dissolution of a corporation shall not take away or impair any remedy available to or against such corporation, its directors, officers or shareholders, for any right or claim existing, or any liability incurred, prior to such dissolution if action or other proceeding thereon is commenced within five years after the date of such dissolution. Any such action or proceeding by or against the corporation may be prosecuted or defended by the corporation in its corporate name. The shareholders, directors and officers shall have power to take such corporate or other action as shall be appropriate to protect such remedy, right or claim. If such corporation was dissolved by the expiration of its period of duration, such corporation may amend its articles of incorporation at any time during such period of five years so as to extend its period of duration.

(2) Whenever any such corporation is the owner of real or personal property, or claims any interest or lien whatsoever in any real or personal property, such corporation shall continue to exist during such five-year period for the purpose of conveying, transferring and releasing such real or personal property or interest or lien therein, and such corporation shall continue after the expiration of such five-year period to exist as a body corporate for the purpose of being made a party to, and being sued in any action, suit or proceeding against it involving the title to any such real or personal property or any interest therein, and not otherwise and any such action, suit or proceeding may be instituted and maintained against any such corporation as might have been had prior to the expiration of said five-year period. This section shall not be construed as affecting or suspending any statute of limitations applicable to any suit, action or proceeding instituted hereunder.

(3) In any action, suit or proceeding instituted following such dissolution, summons may be served upon the corporation by delivering to the Corporation Commissioner, by registered mail or otherwise, at his office at Salem, Oregon, a certified copy of the summons or other process in the suit, action or other proceeding, together with a true copy of the complaint or petition. Both the summons and complaint must be certified to by the clerk of the court where the suit, action or other proceeding is pending, or by the attorney for the moving party. Upon receipt by the Corporation Commissioner of the copy of the summons and the complaint, he shall forthwith, by registered mail, forward them to the corporation at its last known postoffice address, as shown by its last report on file in his office. If there is no report on file, he shall forward them to the registered office of the corporation. The corporation shall appear in the action, suit or proceedings, and there answer the same within 15 days from the date on which the commissioner mailed the copy of the summons and the complaint to the corporation. If it fails to appear and answer within that time, default shall be entered against it. At the expiration of 15 days after the date of mailing the copy of the summons and complaint by the commissioner, the court in which the action, suit or proceeding is pending shall acquire jurisdiction of the corporation. The commissioner shall forthwith, after mailing the copy of the summons and the complaint, transmit to the clerk of the court where the suit, action or proceeding is pending, his certificate certifying the date upon which he received for service the copy of the summons and complaint, and the date on which he deposited them in the registered mail to the corporation, and the postoffice address to which he transmitted them. This certificate of the commissioner, when so filed in the cause, shall establish therein that the summons and complaint were duly and regularly served upon the corporation on the date on which the copies were mailed by the Corporation Commissioner. The certificate made in accordance with this provision shall establish that the service was duly and regularly had in the county to which the copy of the summons and complaint were so transmitted by the commissioner to the corporation. [1953 c.549 §97]

57.635 to 57.650 [Reserved for expansion]

57.655 Admission of foreign corporation. (1) No foreign corporation shall have the right to transact business in this state until it shall have procured a certificate of authority so to do from the Corporation Commissioner. No foreign corporation shall be entitled to procure a certificate of authority under the Oregon Business Corporation Act to transact in this state any business which a corporation organized under such Act is not permitted to transact. A foreign corporation shall not be denied a certificate of authority by reason of the fact that the laws of the state or country under which such corporation is organized governing its organization and internal affairs differ from the laws of this state, and nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed to authorize this state to regulate the organization or the internal affairs of such corporation.

(2) Without excluding other activities which may not constitute transacting business in this state, a foreign corporation shall not be considered to be transacting business in this state, for the purposes of this chapter, by reason of carrying on in this state any one or more of the following activities:

(3) Shall not be the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state or any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved in the manner provided in this chapter, or the name of a corporation which has in effect a registration of its name as provided in this chapter. [1953 c.549 §100]

57.670 Change of name by foreign corporation. Whenever a foreign corporation which is authorized to transact business in this state shall change its name to one under which a certificate of authority would not be granted to it on application therefor, the certificate of authority of such corporation shall be suspended and it shall not thereafter transact any business in this state until it has changed its name to a name which is available to it under the laws of this state. [1953 c.549 §101]

57.675 Application for certificate of authority. (1) A foreign corporation, in order to procure a certificate of authority to transact business in this state, shall make appli-

(b) If the name of the corporation does not contain the word "corporation," "company," "incorporated" or "limited," or does not contain an abbreviation of one of such words, then the name of the corporation with the word or abbreviation which it elects to add thereto for use in this state.

(2) Such application shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the Corporation Commissioner and shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such application. [1953 c.549 §102].

57.680 Filing of application for certificate of authority. (1) The foreign corporation shall deliver to the Corporation Commissioner duplicate originals of the application of the corporation for a certificate of authority, and a copy of its articles of incorporation, if any, and all amendments thereto, or of the provisions thereof then in effect duly authenticated by the proper officer of the state, territory or country wherein it is incorporated.

(2) If, according to law, a certificate of authority to transact business in this state should be issued to such corporation, the Corporation Commissioner shall, when all fees and charges have been paid as in this chapter prescribed:

57.685 Effect of certificate of authority. Upon the issuance of a certificate of authority by the Corporation Commissioner, the corporation shall be authorized to transact business in this state for those purposes set forth in its application, subject, however, to the right of this state to suspend or to revoke such authority as provided in this chapter. [1953 c.549 §104]

57.690 Registered office and registered agent of foreign corporation. Each foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state shall have and continuously maintain in this state:

(1) A registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its place of business in this state.

(2) A registered agent, which agent may be either an individual resident in this state whose business office is identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, having a business office identical with such registered office. [1953 c.549 §105]

57.695 Change of registered office or registered agent of foreign corporation. (1) A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may change its registered office or change its registered agent, or both, upon filing in the office of the Corporation Commissioner a statement setting forth:

- (a) The name of the corporation.
- (b) The address of its then registered office, including street and number, if any.
- (c) If the address of its registered office be changed, the address to which the registered office is to be changed, including street and number, if any.

Service on the Corporation Commissioner of any such process, notice or demand shall be made by delivering to and leaving with him, or with any clerk on duty in the office of the Corporation Commissioner, duplicate copies of such process, notice or demand. In the event any such process, notice or demand is served on the Corporation Commissioner, he shall immediately cause one of such copies thereof to be forwarded by registered mail, addressed to the corporation at its principal office in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated. Any service so had on the Corporation Commissioner shall be returnable in not less than 30 days. The provisions of this subsection shall also apply to service of process upon any foreign corporation which transacts business in this state without being authorized as provided in this chapter, except that copies of the process, notice or demand shall include on the face thereof the principal office or place of business of said corporation and the Corporation Commissioner shall immediately cause one of such copies to be forwarded by registered mail to such principal office or place of business.

(3) The Corporation Commissioner shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon him under this section, and shall record therein the time of such service and his action with reference thereto.

(4) Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law. [1953 c.549 §107]

57.706 Amendment to articles of incorporation of foreign corporation. Whenever the articles of incorporation of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state are amended, such foreign corporation shall, within 30 days after such amendment becomes effective, file in the office of the Corporation Commissioner a copy of such amendment duly authenticated by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated;

but the filing thereof shall not of itself enlarge or alter the purpose or purposes which such corporation is authorized to pursue in the transaction of business in this state, nor authorize such corporation to transact business in this state under any other name than the name set forth in its certificate of authority. [1953 c.549 §108]

57.710 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138]

57.711 Merger of foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state. Whenever a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state shall be a party to a statutory merger permitted by the laws of the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated, and such corporation shall be the surviving corporation, it shall, within 30 days after such merger becomes effective, file with the Corporation Commissioner a copy of the articles of merger duly authenticated by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which such statutory merger was effected; and it shall not be necessary for such corporation to procure either a new or amended certificate of authority to transact business in this state unless the name of such corporation be changed thereby or unless the corporation desires to pursue in this state other or additional purposes than those which it is then authorized to transact in this state. [1953 c.549 §109]

(e) A postoffice address, including street and number, if any, to which the Corporation Commissioner may mail a copy of any process against the corporation that may be served on him.

(f) Such additional information as may be necessary or appropriate in order to enable the Corporation Commissioner to determine and assess any unpaid fees or charges payable by such foreign corporation as in this chapter prescribed.

(2) The application for withdrawal shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the Corporation Commissioner and shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing the application, or, if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver or trustee, shall be executed on behalf of the corporation by such receiver or trustee and verified by him. originals the word "Filed," and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

(c) Issue a certificate of withdrawal to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

57.730 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138]

57.731 Cause for revocation of certificate of authority. (1) The certificate of authority of a foreign corporation to transact business in this state may be revoked upon the conditions prescribed in this section when:

(a) The corporation has failed for two consecutive years to file its annual report or to pay any license fee; or

(b) The corporation has failed to appoint and maintain a registered agent in this state as required by this chapter; or

(c) The corporation has failed, after change of its registered office or registered agent, to file in the office of the Corporation Commissioner a statement of such change as required by this chapter; or

(d) The corporation has failed to file in the office of the Corporation Commissioner any amendment to its articles of incorporation or any articles of merger within the time prescribed by this chapter; or

(e) A misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit or other document submitted by such corporation pursuant to this chapter.

(2) No certificate of authority of a foreign corporation shall be revoked unless:

(a) The Corporation Commissioner shall have given the corporation not less than 60 days' notice thereof by mail addressed to its registered office in this state, and

(b) The corporation shall fail prior to revocation to file such annual report, or pay such license fee, or file the required statement of change of registered agent or registered office, or file such articles of amendment or articles of merger, or correct such misrepresentation. [1953 c.549 §113]

57.735 Procedure for revoking certificate of authority. (1) On or before the first Monday in January in each year the Corporation Commissioner shall report to the Governor a list of all foreign corporations which have given cause for revocation of their certificates of authority. The Governor shall forthwith issue his proclamation declaring the right of such foreign corporation to do business in this state revoked.

(2) No person shall exercise or attempt to exercise any power under the authority given to any foreign corporation after the issuance of the proclamation revoking its authority to transact business in this state.

(3) All powers conferred by law upon such foreign corporation are thereby void unless the Governor shall, for good cause shown to him, give further time for the filing of the statement and the payment of the license fee, in which case a certificate thereof shall be filed by the Governor in the office of the Corporation Commissioner stating the reasons therefor.

(4) The proclamation of the Governor shall be filed in the office of the Corporation Commissioner and published in such newspapers and for such length of time as the Corporation Commissioner designates. The commissioner shall endorse on the declaration of each foreign corporation that its right to transact business in this state has been revoked.

(5) Whenever it is established to the satisfaction of the Governor that any foreign corporation named in the proclamation referred to herein has not in fact given cause for revocation of its certificate of authority, the Governor shall correct such mistake by filing his proclamation to that effect in the office of the Corporation Commissioner.

(6) If any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state has such right to transact business revoked in the manner hereinabove provided for, the Governor, by and with the advice of the Attorney General, may at any time, upon payment by such foreign corporation to the Corporation Commissioner of the sum fixed by the Governor, reinstate the organization and restore it to all its franchises and privileges. The sum fixed by the Governor shall in no case be less than the amount delinquent and interest, nor more than double the amount delinquent. Upon such payment the Corporation Commissioner shall issue his certificate entitling the foreign corporation to resume its business and its franchises.

(7) The reinstated foreign corporation is not by reason of such reinstatement, relieved from any penalty of forfeiture of its powers as a body corporate in case of failure to pay subsequently accruing licenses and taxes imposed by any law of this state.

(8) Nothing hereinabove contained shall be construed to affect any suit brought for any liability against the stockholders or officers of any foreign corporation, nor to revive any charter of foreign corporations previously dissolved or annulled, nor to make valid any defective organization of any foreign corporations.

(9) Suits and actions upon choses in action arising out of contracts sold or assigned by any foreign corporation whose right to transact business has been revoked as hereinabove provided may be brought or prosecuted in the name of the purchaser or assignee. The fact of sale or assignment and of purchase by the plaintiff shall be set forth in the writ or other process. The defendant may avail himself of any matter of defense of which he might have availed himself in a suit upon the claim by the foreign corporation, had its right to transact business not been revoked. [1953 c.549 §114]

57.740 Application to corporations authorized to transact business in this state on December 31, 1953. Foreign corporations which are duly authorized to transact business in this state on December 31, 1953, for a purpose or purposes for which a corporation might secure such authority under this chapter, shall, subject to the limitations set forth in their respective certificates of authority, be entitled to all the rights and privileges applicable to foreign corporations procuring certificates of authority to transact business in this state under this chapter, and from December 31, 1953, such corporations shall be subject to all the limitations, restrictions, liabilities and duties prescribed herein for foreign corporations procuring certificates of authority to transact business in this state under this chapter. [1953 c.549 §115]

57.745 Transacting business without certificate of authority. (1) No foreign corporation transacting business in this state without a certificate of authority shall be permitted to maintain any action, suit or proceeding in any court of this state, until such corporation shall have obtained a certificate of authority. Nor shall any action, suit or proceeding be maintained in any court of this state by any successor or assignee of such corporation on any right, claim or demand arising out of the transaction of business by such corporation in this state, until a certificate of authority shall have been obtained by such corporation or by a corporation which has acquired all or substantially all of its assets.

(2) The failure of a foreign corporation to obtain a certificate of authority to transact business in this state shall not impair the validity of any contract or act of such corporation, and shall not prevent such corporation from defending any action, suit or proceeding in any court of this state.

(3) A foreign corporation which transacts business in this state without a certificate of authority shall be liable to this state, for the years or parts thereof during which it transacted business in this state without a certificate of authority in an amount equal to all fees and charges which would have been imposed by this chapter upon such corporation had it duly applied for and received a certificate of authority to transact business in this state as required by this chapter and thereafter filed all reports required by this chapter, plus all penalties imposed by this chapter for failure to pay such fees and charges. The Attorney General shall bring proceedings to recover all amounts due this state under the provisions of this section. [1953 c.549 §116]

Corporations required to pay this increased annual license fee shall pay it for that portion of the remaining fiscal year.

57.767 License fees payable by domestic corporations. (1) Every domestic corporation shall pay an annual license fee in proportion to the amount of its authorized capital stock. This fee shall be equal to the filing fee prescribed in this chapter. The amount of the authorized capital stock of every corporation shall be determined by its articles of incorporation, or amendments or supplementary articles of incorporation filed with the Corporation Commissioner. The annual license fee required by this section shall be paid in advance for the fiscal year beginning July 1 of each year. In case of new corporations formed during the fiscal year, the first year's fee shall be proportionate to such fraction of a year.

(2) Every corporation formed or organized under the laws of the State of Oregon, for the purpose of engaging in the business of mining for any of the precious metals, coal or prospecting or operating for oil or operating an oil well and whose business it is to engage in that business in Oregon only, shall during the month of June and on or before August 1 of each year, furnish to the Corporation Commissioner, upon blanks to be supplied by him for that purpose, a correct statement sworn to by one of its officers before some officer authorized to administer oaths, setting forth in detail the name of the corporation, the location of its principal office, the names of the president, secretary and treasurer thereof, with the postoffice address of each, the amount of the authorized capital stock, the number of shares and the par value of each share, the amount of capital stock subscribed, the amount of capital stock issued, the amount of capital stock paid up, and the amount of its properties in this state and where they are located. The

Any such mining or oil corporation whose annual output or products do not exceed in value the sum of $1,000 shall, if the above provided statement is properly filed within the prescribed time, be exempt from the payment of the annual license fee as provided by subsection (1) hereof; but in lieu thereof shall pay an annual license fee of $10. However, no such corporation shall be required to make such statement if it files the statement required by ORS 57.755 and pays the annual license fee required by subsection (1) hereof.

(3) Every corporation shall pay to the Corporation Commissioner by August 15 of each year, the annual license fee for the fiscal year beginning July 1 of that year. If the fee is not so paid, then interest at the rate of 6 percent per annum shall be collected by the Corporation Commissioner from said August 15 until payment is received. [1953 c.549 §121]

57.769 License fees payable by foreign corporations. Every foreign corporation, joint stock company or association doing business in this state, except those formed or organized for an educational, literary, scientific, religious or charitable purpose, shall between July 1 and August 15 of each year pay in advance to the Corporation Department an annual license fee of $200. When a foreign corporation enters the state during any fiscal year for the purpose of transacting business therein, the first year's fee shall be proportionate to the fraction of the year and

57.775 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138]

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

57.776 Powers of Corporation Commissioner. The Corporation Commissioner shall have the power and authority reasonably necessary to enable him to administer this chapter efficiently and to perform the duties therein imposed upon him. [1953 c.549 §125]

57.778 Appeal from Corporation Commissioner. (1) If the Corporation Commissioner shall fail to approve any articles of incorporation, amendment, merger, consolidation or dissolution, or any other document required by this chapter to be approved by the Corporation Commissioner before the same shall be filed in his office, he shall, within 10 days after the delivery thereof to him, give written notice of his disapproval to the person or corporation, domestic or foreign, delivering the same, specifying the reasons therefor. Such person or corporation, in addition to any other legal remedy which may be available, shall have the right to appeal from such order to the Circuit Court of Marion County by filing with the clerk of such court a petition setting forth a copy of the articles or other documents sought to be filed and a copy of the written disapproval thereof by the Corporation Commissioner and by executing a bond in the penal sum of $500 to the State of Oregon, with sufficient surety, to be approved by the court, conditioned upon the faithful prosecution of such appeal to final judgment and the payment of all costs as shall be adjudged against the appellant. Such petition shall stand as appellant's complaint and be served upon the Corporation Commissioner in the manner provided by law. The court shall either sustain the action of the commissioner, or direct him to take such action as the court may deem proper.

(2) This section shall likewise be applicable if the Corporation Commissioner shall revoke the certificate of authority to transact business in this state of any foreign corporation pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. In such event the petition of such foreign corporation shall set forth a copy of its certificate of authority to transact business in this state and a copy of the notice of revocation given by the Corporation Commissioner.

(3) The judgment of the circuit court as provided herein may be appealed to the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon in the same manner as an appeal from a suit in equity. [1953 c.549 §126]

57.779 Sanctions and disabilities imposed on delinquent corporations. (1) Each corporation, domestic or foreign, which fails or refuses to pay any tax or fee required by this chapter, or which fails or refuses to file any annual statement, at the times provided for in this chapter, or fails to amend same when required to do so by the Corporation Commissioner in case it is incomplete, irregular or unsatisfactory, shall be liable to a fine of $100. This amount shall be recovered, together with any license fee and interest due, by an action at law in the name of the state to be instituted by the Attorney General at the request of the Corporation Commissioner.

(2) No domestic or foreign corporation delinquent in any of the respects as set forth in subsection (1) hereof, unless an appeal is pending with respect thereto under the provisions of this chapter, shall be permitted to maintain any suit, action or proceedings in any court while such delinquency continues. A plea that the corporation has not paid the tax or fee which is then due and payable, or has failed to file the annual statements, may be interposed at any time before trial upon the merits, and if issue is joined upon such plea, it shall be tried first. Such a plea cannot be made by the delinquent corporation. The certificate of the Corporation Commissioner under the seal of the Corporation Department that any corporation is in default in the payment of any tax or license fee or in the filing of any annual statement shall be prima facie evidence of such delinquency in any court of justice or before any board, commission, magistrate, officer or inferior tribunal. Such evidence may be overcome, however, by a like certificate that any delinquency theretofore existing has been corrected and cured since the issuance of the certificate of delinquency.

(3) While such delinquency of any corporation continues the right of the corporation to transact business is deemed to be in abeyance and shall be suspended, but this delinquency shall not operate to impair or delay the right of any other person, firm or corporation. In all cases of suspension of such right to transact business, the directors or managers of the affairs of any delinquent organization mentioned above whose right to do business may be suspended, or any other person who may be appointed by any court of competent jurisdiction to perform that duty, are deemed to be trustees of the corporation and of the stockholders or members of the corporation. They are also deemed to have full power to settle the affairs of the corporation and to maintain or defend any action or proceeding then pending in behalf of, or against it, or to take legal proceedings necessary to fully settle its affairs. These trustees may be sued in any court of this state after such suspension, by any person having a claim against any of such corporations. However, no suit or action pending against any such corporation at the time of such suspension shall abate; but it may be prosecuted to final judgment, and may be enforced by execution with the same effect and in like manner as though no delinquency or suspension had occurred; provided further, that where judgment has been entered against such corporation prior to the delinquency or suspension, an execution may be issued thereon, and its property, or property that may come into the hands of any trustee for it, may be levied upon, seized and sold to satisfy the judgment with like effect as though the suspension had not occurred. [1953 c.549 §123]

57.780 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138]

57.781 Certificates and certified copies to be received in evidence. All certificates issued by the Corporation Commissioner in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and all copies of documents filed in his office in accordance with the provisions of this chapter when certified by him shall be taken and received in all courts, public offices and official bodies as prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. A certificate by the Corporation Commissioner under the seal of the Corporation Department, State of Oregon, as to the existence or nonexistence of the facts relating to corporations which would appear from the presence or absence of documents filed in his office or the compliance or noncompliance with provisions of this chapter, shall be taken and received in all courts, public offices and official bodies as prima facie evidence of the existence or nonexistence of the facts stated therein. [1953 c.549 §127]

57.783 Forms to be furnished by Corporation Commissioner. All reports required by this chapter to be filed in the office of the Corporation Commissioner shall be made on forms which shall be prescribed and furnished by the Corporation Commissioner. Forms for all other documents to be filed in the office of the Corporation Commissioner shall be furnished by the Corporation Commissioner on request therefor, but the use thereof, unless otherwise specifically prescribed in this chapter, shall not be mandatory. [1953 c.549 §128]

57.785 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138]

57.786 Greater voting requirements. Whenever, with respect to any action to be taken by the shareholders of a corporation, the articles of incorporation require the vote or concurrence of the holders of a greater proportion of the shares, or of any class or series thereof, than required by this chapter with respect to such action, the provisions of the articles of incorporation shall control. [1953 c.549 §129]

57.788 Waiver of notice. Whenever any notice is required to be given to any shareholder or director of a corporation under the provisions of this chapter or under the provisions of the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. [1953 c.549 §130]

57.791 Action by shareholders or directors without a meeting. Any action required by this chapter to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders or directors of a corporation, or any other action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders or directors, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by all of the shareholders or directors entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of such shareholders or directors, and may be stated as such in any articles or document filed with the Corporation Commissioner under this chapter. [1953 c.549 §131]

57.793 Liability for unauthorized assumption of corporate powers. All persons who assume to act as a corporation without the authority of a certificate of incorporation issued by the Corporation Commissioner, shall be jointly and severally liable for all debts and liabilities incurred or arising as a result thereof. [1953 c.549 §132]

57.795 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138]

57.796 Application to corporations existing on December 31, 1953. (1) The provisions of the Oregon Business Corporation Act shall apply to the fullest extent permitted by the laws and Constitution of the United States and of the State of Oregon, to all existing corporations organized under any general Act of this state.

(2) Nothing contained in the Oregon Business Corporation Act shall be construed to repeal or to amend the present statutes relating to banks and trust companies, insurance, casualty and surety companies, cooperative associations, industrial loan companies, credit unions, building and savings and loan associations, nonprofit corporations, and other corporations for which special regulation, different from the general private business corporation laws of this state, has existed prior to December 31, 1953. [1953 c.549 §133]

57.797 Corporations incorporated prior to December 31, 1953, under special Acts may incorporate under Oregon Business Corporation Act. The stockholders of any private incorporation heretofore incorporated by any special Act of the legislature may at any time hereafter, while such corporation exists, incorporate themselves under the Oregon Business Corporation Act, in the mode herein prescribed, for the purpose of carrying on the enterprise, business, pursuit or occupation for which they may have been specially incorporated; and the filing of the articles of incorporation shall be deemed a surrender of such special incorporation, but not of any vested right thereunder, and thereafter such corporation shall have the powers and privileges, and be subject to the liabilities and limitations, provided by the Oregon Business Corporation Act, and not otherwise. [1953 c.549 §140]

57.798 Effect of amendment or repeal of Oregon Business Corporation Act. The Oregon Business Corporation Act may be amended, repealed or modified, but such amendment, repeal or modification shall not affect any vested rights or take away or impair any remedy for any liability which shall have been previously incurred. [1953 c.549 §134]

57.799 Effect of repeal of prior Acts. The repeal of a prior Act by chapter 549, Oregon Laws 1953, shall not affect any right accrued or established, or any liability or penalty incurred, under the provisions of such Act, prior to the repeal thereof. [1953 c.549 §135]

57.800 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138]

57.805 Issuance of one certificate to certain owners of capital stock. At the request of any holder of two or more certificates of the capital stock of any corporation organized under the laws of this state, such corporation shall, upon the surrender of the certificates, issue to the holder of such capital stock one certificate for all shares of stock of any one class in such corporation owned by the stockholder if the number of such shares owned by the stockholder in the particular class equals or exceeds 100. [Formerly 57.540]

57.807 Sales of stock; purchaser's rights; unpaid subscription; issuance of stock for property and reports as to stock so issued. All sales of stock, whether voluntary or otherwise, transfer to the purchaser all rights of the original holder or person from whom the stock is purchased. It also subjects the purchaser to the payment of any unpaid balance due, or to become due, on such stock; but if the sale is voluntary, the seller is still liable to existing creditors for the amount of such balance, unless it is paid by the purchaser. Any corporation formed under the laws of this state may purchase real or personal property, including the stock of any other corporation, and may issue stock to the amount of the value thereof in payment; and the stock so issued shall be fully paid stock and not liable to any assessment. In the absence of actual fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the directors as to the value of property purchased shall be conclusive. In all statements or reports of the corporation to be published or filed, the stock so issued shall not be stated or reported as being issued for cash paid to the corporation, but shall be reported in this respect according to the fact. [Formerly 57.545]

57.809 Offices or principal place of business of certain corporations; meetings of directors or trustees outside the state. Any corporation, including nonprofit corporations incorporated under ORS 61.010, which is organized under the laws of this state may establish one or more offices or its principal place of business in any of the several states, the United States and its dependencies, and in any foreign countries. Any corporation may, by the filing of supplementary articles in the manner prescribed by ORS 57.115 or, in the case of a nonprofit corporation, by ORS 61.080, change its principal place of business from this state to any such place, and the meetings of its directors or trustees may be held without the state. [Formerly 57.605]

Note: ORS 57.115 [Repealed by 1953 c.549 §138] was as follows:

(1) A majority of the directors of any corporation may execute, acknowledge and file supplementary articles of incorporation with the Corporation Commissioner. This may be done at any time:

(a) When a three-fourths vote of all the stock subscribed shall so determine at a stockholders' meeting called for any of the following purposes: Changing the corporate name, its principal office or place of business, the amount of its capital stock, the amount of shares thereof, the par value of its shares or engaging in any business cognate or germane to the original objects or primary purpose of said corporation not in violation of law, or for the purpose of providing for the issuance of two or more classes of stock or of shares of stock with or without nominal or par value; or,

(b) When a seven-eighths vote of all the stock subscribed shall so determine at a called stockholders' meeting, for the purpose of engaging in any new enterprise or pursuit not in violation of law, or for the purpose of changing any part of their road, or canal, or either terminus, or both, when not in violation of law, or any contract entered into by the corporation.

(2) One executed counterpart of the supplemental articles shall be filed with the county clerk in the county where the corporation has its principal office, and shall be recorded by him in the same manner as other articles of incorporation are recorded.

57.811 Certain de facto corporations made legal corporations. Any corporation organized under the laws of this state prior to August 2, 1951, which has maintained its corporate existence, and is now a de facto corporation engaged in the pursuits for which it was organized, and which has filed and recorded its articles of incorporation with either the Corporation Commissioner or the clerk of the county of its organization, but not with both; or which has filed and recorded its articles as provided by law but has not had them properly acknowledged, hereby is declared to be a legal corporation having the same status as though it had complied with such requirements of law.
