326.010 Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction; time of election and taking office. A Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be elected at the general election every four years, beginning as of the year 1950. He shall qualify and enter upon the duties of his office on the first Monday of January following his election. He shall be provided with an office at the state capital.

236.020 Superintendent's duties. (1) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall exercise a general superintendence of the county and district school officers and the public schools.

(2) He shall visit, as far as practicable, every county in the state, annually, in the interest of education.

(3) He shall attend county institutes within the state, and educational meetings out of the state, when practicable, and shall assist in the organization and development of institute work in each county. He shall visit, as often as practicable, the principal schools of the state for the purpose of inspection and supervision. He shall keep statistics of the condition of schools, buildings, appurtenances, apparatus, libraries, the conduct and standing of pupils, methods of instruction and the discipline and government of schools.

(4) He shall visit, when practicable, all the chartered educational institutions of the state, and shall secure such statistical information relative to the number of students, teachers, value of property, libraries, salaries and courses of study, as he may deem advisable for the advancement of education and for the information of the legislature.

(5) He shall prepare and distribute to the various county school superintendents such a uniform series of blanks, registers, forms, rules and regulations as he may deem necessary for the administration of the school laws. County school superintendents shall receipt to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for all supplies received, and distribute them to the various district clerks, taking their receipts for the supplies.

(6) He shall annotate and compile all school laws ordered published by the State Board of Education.

(7) He shall, whenever he may deem the same expedient, issue printed letters and circulars to school officers pertaining to any subject relative to the duties of teachers, directors, pupils, parents, guardians, the management of schools and all other questions of interest to the cause of education.

(8) He shall decide, without cost to the parties, all questions of doubt that may be submitted to him, and all disputes that may be appealed to him from the county school superintendents, concerning the proper administration of the school laws, the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education and the ministerial duties of school officers and teachers. He may, however, in his discretion, submit any such question or dispute to the State Board of Education, who shall then decide it. The state superintendent, or the State Board of Education, may require the opinion, in writing, of the Attorney General concerning such questions or disputes, whose duty it shall be to give the same. The State Board of Education shall adopt reasonable rules of procedure to govern the submission of such questions and the trials and appeals provided for in this section. The decision of the state superintendent, or of the State Board of Education, shall guide school officers and teachers in the discharge of their duties in respect to the matters so decided; but this section shall not be construed to deprive any person of his ordinary remedy in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(9) He shall cause to be prepared state courses of study for the public schools. Upon approval of the courses of study by the State Board of Education he shall cause them to be printed and distributed to the schools.

(10) He shall be allowed the necessary traveling expenses incurred in the discharge of his duties; and he shall receive no other salary or fees or prerequisites for the performance of any duties required by law as superintendent or member of any board, except as provided in this subsection and in ORS 292.326.

326.030 Superintendent's biennial report. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall report to the Legislative Assembly, biennially, in the same manner and at the same time that other state officers make their reports. His reports shall contain: The general condition of the public schools of the state; the sources and amount of school money apportioned among the several counties; the amounts raised by county and district taxes, and the amounts paid for teachers' salaries, buildings, furniture and other items; the series of text books authorized in accordance with the provisions of the law;

the rules and regulations prescribed by the state board for the government of public schools; the number and grade of the schools in each county; the number of persons between the ages of 4 and 20 years, the number attending public schools, the number attending private schools and the number not attending any school; all information that in his judgement may be useful to the public, or for the advancement of the educational interests of the state.

326.040 Sale of publications. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may, except as otherwise provided by law, charge and collect fees for supplies and publications compiled and furnished by the Department of Education and distributed or sold to other persons or groups. Such charges shall not exceed costs of production plus mailing and other distribution costs.

326.050 Disposition of receipts from sale of publications. All moneys or fees received by the Superintendent of Public Instruction under the provisions of ORS 326.040 shall be turned over to the State Treasurer and by him deposited to the credit of the General Fund, in an account thereof to be designated the Department of Education Miscellaneous Receipts Account. All moneys or fees so deposited hereby are appropriated for use solely in the payment of operating expenses of the Department of Education.

326.060 State Board of Education; members; terms. (1) There is created a State Board of Education consisting of seven members appointed by the Governor, subject to confirmation by the Senate

(2) In making these appointments, the Governor shall select from resident citizens of Oregon not engaged in school teaching, administration or operation one member from each congressional district and the remainder from the state at large.

(3) The term of office of each member shall be seven years, except that the terms of the first members shall be from one to seven years, respectively.

326.063 Removal of members. The Governor may remove members of the State Board of Education for cause at any time after notice and public hearing.

326.065 Vacancies; interim appointments. (1) Appointments made to fill vacancies or made in the interim between legislative sessions are subject to confirmation by the Senate in the manner and by the committee provided by ORS 351.030. Senators attending such committee meetings are entitled to the expenses allowed senators attending interim committee meetings under that statute.

(2) Appointments made to fill vacancies occurring prior to expiration of a term shall be for the remainder of the unexpired term. If such vacancy occurs in appointments made from a congressional district, the successor shall be appointed from the congressional district in which the vacancy occurs

326.070 Meetings; member's expenses.

(1) The board shall meet at the state capital in March, June, September and December of each year on a date determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction which is agreeable to a majority of the board, at such other times as the Superintendent of Public Instruction may designate or at the call of its chairman upon the written request of a majority of board members. The member whose term expires the earliest shall be chairman of the board.

(2) Each member shall be allowed actual traveling and other expenses incurred in performing the duties of his office.

326.080 Board powers. In addition to such other powers as are conferred by law, the State Board of Education may:

(1) Use a common seal.

(2) Authorize and supervise the development of regional centers for instructional material and regional film libraries.

(3) (a) Formulate plans for the promotion of vocational education in public schools.

(b) Make studies, investigations and reports relating to vocational education.

(c) Promote and aid in establishment by communities of schools, departments or classes giving vocational training and cooperate with such communities in maintenance of such vocational training activities.

(d) Establish and maintain classes for preparation of teachers, directors and supervisors of such subjects or cooperate in maintenance of such classes which are supported and controlled by the public.

(e) Prescribe qualifications for persons training vocational teachers and for persons preparing to become vocational teachers; and prescribe certification requirements for vocational education teachers, directors and supervisors.

326.090 Board duties. In addition to such other duties as are prescribed by law, the board shall:

(1) Authorize textbooks adopted by the textbook commission to be used in the public schools.

(2) Authorize state courses of study for the public schools.

(3) Prescribe, publish and distribute rules and regulations for the general government of public schools, for the maintenance of discipline therein and for the performance of the board's functions.

(4) Establish state standards for public schools.

(5) Cooperate with the Federal Security Agency in the administration of federal legislation authorizing state and federal cooperation in promotion of vocational education; administer any Oregon legislation enacted pursuant thereto and administer funds provided by the Federal Government and this state for the promotion of vocational education.

(6) Upon recommendation of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, appoint the professional staff and fix their compensation.

(7) Upon change from an elective to an appointive office, appoint the incumbent Superintendent of Public Instruction to serve as the first appointee for the remainder of his elected term.

326.100 Administrative officer of board; duties. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be administrative officer of the State Board of Education. As such, he shall:

(1) Designate a member of his staff to act as secretary to the board.

(2) Maintain an office for the board at the state capital and keep all the board records in that office.

(3) Put into effect such rules and regulations as the board requires.

326.110 Board stationery and printing. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall provide necessary stationery for the board. Printing authorized by the board shall be done by the State Printer.

326.120 Joint meetings of board of higher education and board of education. (1) The State Board of Higher Education and the State Board of Education shall hold at least one joint meeting annually for the purpose of coordinating their activities and facilitating the solution of problems of mutual concern. The annual joint meeting shall be held in September at the state capital on a date to be fixed by the chairman of the joint meeting.

(2) A majority of the members of the State Board of Higher Education and of the State Board of Education shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of joint meeting business.

(3) The president of the State Board of Higher Education and the chairman of the State Board of Education shall serve alternately, in so far as possible, as joint meeting chairman.

(4) Each board member attending the joint meeting shall receive, from an appropriation made for that purpose, his reasonable and necessary expenses in connection with such attendance.

326.130 Superintendent and chancellor as consultants. Whenever considering problems of mutual concern the Superintendent of Public Instruction, as a consultant, shall meet from time to time with the State Board of Higher Education; and the person serving in the capacity of chancellor, as a consultant, shall meet from time to time with the State Board of Education.

326.140 Department of Education; creation; composition; functions. (1) A Department of Education is created, to function under the direction and control of the State Board of Education, and of which the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be the executive head.

(2) The Department of Education shall consist of the State Board of Education, the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, the State Board of Textbook Commissioners, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Department of Americanization, the Commission of Americanization, the State Director of Americanization, such other agencies and officers as are added by law to the Department of Education and the administrative organizations and staffs required for the performance of their functions.

(3) All administrative functions of the State Board of Education and of the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be exercised through the Department of Education, and the department shall exercise all administrative functions of the state relating to supervision, management and control of schools not conferred by law on some other agency.

(4) Establishment of the Department of Education shall not affect the exercise of any educational function now conferred by law upon any other state agency or officer.

326.150 Duties of department executive. As executive head of the Department of Education, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall perform duties prescribed by law and also:

(1) Execute, direct and supervise all administrative and technical activities of the department in accord with the policies prescribed by the State Board of Education.

(2) Employ such personnel as is approved by the State Board of Education and as is necessary for efficient operation of the department.

(3) Organize the department in a manner which will assure efficient operation and service.

(4) Maintain liaison and coordinate activities with other state agencies exercising educational functions.
