(3) It is unlawful to take, catch, fish for, deal in or handle any salmon, shad, sturgeon or other anadromous, food or shell fish in this state, in any waters of this state or in any waters over which this state has concurrent jurisdiction, except during the times, in the manner and by means of the appliances provided by law.

(1) In addition to the penalty prescribed by subsections (5) and (6) of ORS 506.990, any person convicted of violating ORS 509.010 shall forfeit the boat, vessel, truck, automobile, motor vehicle or other vehicle, fish trap, weir, poundnet, gillnet, setnet, fish wheel, seine or any other device so unlawfully used.

Upon such seizure, the seizing officer may file an action in rem before any justice of the peace or magistrate of any district court. If satisfied by an examination of the seizing officer at a hearing to be held at any time after such action is filed, that the fish were taken, caught, sold, transported or possessed in violation of ORS 509.010, the justice of the peace or magistrate forthwith may order the confiscation of the fish by the fisheries director or game warden of the State of Oregon and shall adjudge the same to be condemned or sold by the fisheries director or game warden. The proceeds of the sale of any such fish shall be applied first, to the payment of the expenses of seizure, condemnation and preservation of the property, and the balance to be paid to the State Treasurer, to be placed in the General Fund in the State Treasury.

Except as otherwise provided in ORS 506.170 and 508.005, it is lawful to take with hook and line, commonly called angling, any salmon, shad, striped bass, sturgeon or other anadromous, food or shell fish, except trout of all species including steelhead trout, at any time in waters over which the state has jurisdiction, concurrent or otherwise.

509.030 Incidental taking of steelhead trout. Any steelhead trout taken as an incidental catch in the operation of any lawful gear during any lawful open fishing season, by any person, firm or corporation having in possession a legal commercial fishing license issued by the fish commission, is regarded as having been lawfully taken. Steelhead trout so taken may be bought, sold, disposed of or otherwise dealt in, and canned, cured, processed, manufactured or otherwise converted into fish products or by-products, as provided for in ORS 508.005 in relation to the various species of fish over which the fish commission has exclusive jurisdiction.

509.035 Injuring or taking fish near fishway. It is unlawful for any person to wilfully or knowingly destroy, injure or abstract from a fishway mentioned in ORS 509.605, or to take or catch any salmon or other food fish within 600 feet below any fishway; provided, that fishing with hook and line only is permitted 200 feet below any fishway.

509.040 Salmon protected. (1) (a) Any person who catches or takes any salmon of any variety less than 20 inches in length by any means other than hook and line, commonly called angling, shall immediately return such salmon alive to the water.

(b) No person shall buy, sell, offer for sale, have in his possession or custody any such salmon.

(c) However, this subsection does not prevent the taking of mature salmon between 15 and 20 inches in length.

(2) It is unlawful to:

(a) Take, fish for or have in possession or custody the young of salmon, under 20 inches in length, taken or caught in any waters of the state or in the waters of any of the rivers or bays over which the state has concurrent jurisdiction, at any time or in any manner except with hook and line, commonly called angling.

509.055 Steelhead trout; when commercial and when game fish. In the Columbia River, and other tidewater streams of the state, steelhead trout of more than 15 inches may be taken as a commercial fish, except that in all waters of the Rogue River and its tributaries and within a radius of three miles from the center of the mouth of the Rogue River, the steelhead trout, regardless of age or size, is a game fish and may not be taken as a commercial fish.

it deems fit, to kill, trap, net or capture alive, sea lions for scientific or exhibition purposes, the number allowed to be killed or captured to be specified in the permit, or may designate specific areas wherein sea lions may be killed whenever the fish commission deems the killing of sea lions necessary for the protection and preservation of fish. However, no such permission shall be granted so as to permit the killing of any sea lions on the coast of Lane County.

509.065 Wasting food fish. It is unlawful for any person wantonly to waste or destroy salmon or other food fish taken or caught in any of the waters of the state or over which the state has concurrent jurisdiction.

509.070 Selling or preserving fish out of water over 60 hours. It is unlawful to sell or offer for sale, can or preserve for food any salmon, striped bass, shad, sturgeon or other anadromous, food or shell fish that have been removed from the water for a longer period than 60 hours, unless such fish have been artificially chilled.

509.075 Selling or preserving fish unfit for human consumption. The fish commission, or its authorized representatives, whenever it or they find that salmon, shad or sturgeon about to be packed, canned, preserved in ice or sold in the open market are unfit for human consumption, shall notify the packer or possessor of such fish of the fact. If, in spite of any warning which may be given to such packer or possessor, such fish are packed, demand shall be made upon the packer to keep such fish separate and apart from the balance of his output or pack, and a full report shall be made of the matter to both the state and the federal health authorities.

509.080 Possessing, selling or transporting fish taken during closed season. It is unlawful for any person to receive, have in his possession or custody, sell or offer for sale or transportation, or transport, during the closed season on or of any stream, river, bay, inlet or other waters of the state or over which it has jurisdiction, concurrent or otherwise, any salmon, striped bass, shad, sturgeon or other anadromous, food or shell fish caught or taken during such closed season.

(2) For the purpose of proving the laws of such other state any authorized compilation thereof or code or sections thereof purporting to be an authorized compilation of the laws of any other state in the custody of the Librarian of the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon at Salem, Oregon, or of any county law librarian, is sufficient proof of such law or statute. A copy thereof certified to by the Librarian or Clerk of the Supreme Court of Oregon or county law librarian is admissible in evidence in any criminal prosecution or civil action.

509.115 Placing in waters fish harmful to other fish. It is unlawful for any person, without written authority from the fish commission, to place in any of the waters of this state any species or variety of fish whatsoever which are inimical to or destructive of salmon, shad, sturgeon or other anadromous or food fish.

509.120 Using electricity which disturbs fish; permit. No person shall use or permit to be used in any of the waters of the state any electrical device, appliance or current which in any manner has a tendency to retard, scare, frighten or obstruct any salmon or food fish in their migrations or movements in such waters without first having obtained the consent of and a permit from the fisheries director.

509.125 Placing substances in water to drive fish from closed areas. It is unlawful for any person to place in any stream of this state where salmon or other food fish run or exist, within the distance from any dam, fishway or object in which the taking of salmon is prohibited by law, any blood or offal of salmon or fish, or any other substance, matter or contrivance that will frighten or drive salmon or other food fish, or with intent to drive or frighten, out of that part of the waters of any stream in which it is unlawful to fish for or take such fish.

509.130 Placing substances in water to take or kill fish. It is unlawful for any person to throw, cast or pass, or cause or permit to be thrown, cast or passed, in any waters of the state in which salmon of any kind or other food fishes are wont to be, any lime, drug, powder, medicated bait, gas or cocculus indicus, or any other substance deleterious to fish, or to explode or cause to be exploded in any waters of this state, any powder, hercules powder, giant powder, dynamite, nitroglycerine or any other explosive substance whatever; for the purpose of catching, killing or destroying any salmon or other food fish.

509.135 Placing explosives and poisons in water and taking or killing fish by means thereof; permit. It is unlawful to explode or cause to be exploded any dynamite or other explosives, or to place, cast or pass, or allow to be cast, thrown or passed any gas, lime, cocculus indicus or extract therefrom, or any other substance poisonous to salmon, shad, sturgeon or other anadromous, food or shell fish, or to take, kill or injure any such fish by means of dynamite or other explosives or by means of lime, cocculus indicus or extract therefrom, or other poison within any lake, river, stream, pond, bay or other waters within the boundaries of the state, without first obtaining an order permitting it to be done from the fish commission or its authorized representatives.

509.140 Placing explosives and poisons in waters in course of construction work and other businesses; permit. (1) Whenever in the course of removing any obstruction in any waters within the boundaries of the state, or in constructing any foundations for dams, bridges or other structures, or in carrying on any trade or business, any person desires to use explosives or gas, lime, cocculus indicus or extract therefrom, or other poison, such person shall make application to the fish commission for a permit to use same in such waters.

(2) If the fish commission approves the necessity for using the same it may make an order granting such person the right to use the explosives, gas, lime, cocculus indicus or extract therefrom, or poison, and shall designate the places and period within which the explosives, gas, lime, cocculus indicus or extract therefrom, or poison may be used, and shall prescribe such precautions as will save such fish from injury.

(3) No person shall disregard such order or fail to obtain such order or permit.

509.150 Use by commission of substances to eradicate predatory fish or carry out fish laws not affected. Nothing in ORS 509.125 to 509.155 prevents the fish commission from using any such explosives or gas, or other substances for the purpose of getting rid of, destroying or eradicating German carp or any other predatory fish inimical or salmon, shad, sturgeon or other anadromous, food or shell fish, or from carrying out any of the laws for the protection, preservation and propagation of salmon, shad, sturgeon or other anadromous, food or shell fish.

509.155 Possession of fish killed by explosive or poison justifies arrest; burden of proof on possessor. Having in possession or custody any salmon or other food or shell fish under circumstances which make it reasonable to believe that they were taken or killed by means of lime, cocculus indicus or extract therefrom, or other poison, or by giant powder, dynamite or other explosives, justifies the arrest of the person having the fish in his possession. It is then incumbent upon such person to prove and show that the fish were taken or killed by lawful means.

509.160 to 509.200 [Reserved for expansion]
