PRICE DISCRIMINATION IN COMMERCE AND FOOD COMMERCE

646.010 Designation and scope of ORS 646.010 to 646.180. ORS 646.010 to 646.180 shall be known and designated as the Anti-Price Discrimination Law; and the inhibitions against discrimination in those sections shall embrace any scheme of special concessions or rebates, any collateral contracts or agreements or any device of any nature whereby discrimination is, in substance or fact, effected in violation of the spirit and intent of ORS 646.010 to 646.180.

646.020 Definitions and explanations.

(1) When used in ORS 646.010 to 646.180, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Commerce" means trade or commerce within this state, exclusive of food commerce.

(b) "Food commerce" means trade or commerce within this state in articles of food for human consumption and such other articles as usually are sold in food stores in connection with articles of food for human consumption. In the case of persons selling items other than items of food commerce, the term "food commerce" is restricted solely to such items of food commerce as are defined in this paragraph.

(c) "Person" means individual, corporation, partnership, association, joint stock company, business trust or unincorporated organization.

(d) "Price" means the net price to the buyer after the deduction of all discounts, rebates, or other price concessions paid or allowed by the seller.

(e) "Replacement cost" means the cost per unit at the retail outlet at which the merchandise sold or offered for sale could have been bought by the seller at any time within 10 days prior to the date of sale or the date upon which it is offered for sale by the seller, if bought in the same quantities as the seller's usual or customary purchase, of such merchandise, after deducting all discounts, rebates or other price concessions.

(f) "Retailer in food commerce" means any person engaged in food commerce who sells directly to the consumer for use.

(g) "Wholesaler in food commerce" means any person engaged in food commerce other than a retailer or producer, manufacturer or processor.

(2) As used in ORS 646.010 to 646.180, "vendor" includes any person who performs work upon, renovates, alters or improves any personal property belonging to another person.

646.030 Application to cooperative associations. ORS 646.010 to 646.180 shall not prevent a cooperative association from returning to its members, producers or consumers the whole, or any part of, the net earnings or surplus resulting from its trading operations, in proportion to their purchases or sales from, to or through the association.

646.040 Price discrimination prohibited; price differentials. (1) It is unlawful for any person engaged in commerce or food commerce, or both, in the course of such commerce, either directly or indirectly, to discriminate in price between different purchasers of commodities, or services or output of a service trade, of like grade and quality or to discriminate in price between different sections, communities or cities or portions thereof or between different locations in sections, communities, cities or portions thereof in this state, where the effect of such discrimination may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce, or to injure, destroy or prevent competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination, or with customers of either of them.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not prevent:

(a) Differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale or delivery, resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which the commodities are sold or delivered to purchasers.

(b) Persons engaged in selling goods, wares or merchandise, or service or output of a service trade, in commerce from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions and not in restraint of trade.

(c) Price changes from time to time where in response to changing conditions affecting the market for or marketability of the goods concerned, such as but not limited to actual or imminent deterioration of perishable goods, obsolescence of seasonal goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in the goods concerned.

646.050 Establishing prima facie case of discrimination; justification of discrimination. Upon proof being made, in any suit or other proceeding in which any violation of ORS 646.010 to 646.180 is at issue, that there has been discrimination in price, or in services or facilities furnished, or in payment for services or facilities rendered or to be rendered, the burden of rebutting the prima facie case thus made by showing justification is upon the person charged with the violation; but this section does not prevent a seller rebutting the prima facie case so made by showing that his lower price, or the payment for or furnishing of services or facilities to any purchaser or purchasers was made in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor or the services or facilities furnished by a competitor.

646.060 Commissions and allowances.

No person engaged in commerce or food commerce, or both, in the course of such commerce, shall pay, grant, receive or accept anything of value as a commission, brokerage or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, except for services rendered in connection with the sale or purchase of goods, wares, service, or output of a service trade, or merchandise. In all such transactions of sale and purchase, neither party to the transaction shall pay or grant anything of value as a commission, brokerage or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, to the other party to the transaction or to any agent, representative or other intermediary therein, where such agent, representative or other intermediary is acting for or in behalf of or is subject to the direct or indirect control of the other party to the transaction.

646.070 Special payments to customers.

No person engaged in commerce or food commerce, or both, in the course of such commerce, shall pay or contract for the payment of anything of value to or for the benefit of a customer of such person in the course of such commerce as compensation or in consideration for any services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the processing, handling, sale or offering for sale of any products or commodities manufactured, service or output of a service trade, sold or offered for sale by such person, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the distribution of such products or commodities, or service, or output of service trades.

646.080 Special services to customers.

No person engaged in commerce or food commerce, or both, in the course of such commerce, shall discriminate in favor of one purchaser against another purchaser or purchasers of a commodity, or service, or output of a service trade, bought for resale, with or without processing, by contracting to furnish or furnishing, or by contributing to the furnishing of any services or facilities connected with the processing, handling, sale or offering for sale of such commodity, or service, or output of a service trade, purchased upon terms not accorded to all purchasers on proportionally equal terms.

646.090 Inducing or receiving price discrimination prohibited. No person engaged in commerce or food commerce, or both, in the course of such commerce, shall knowingly induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by ORS 646.040 to 646.080.

646.100 Sales below cost; advertising goods vendor not prepared to supply. (1) Except as otherwise permitted under ORS 646.120, no person engaged in commerce or food commerce, or both, in the course of such commerce, shall:

(a) Sell, offer for sale or advertise for sale, any article, product or commodity, or service or output of a service trade, at less than cost thereof to such vendor, or give, offer to give or advertise the intent to give away any article, product or commodity or service or output of a service trade, where the effect of such action may lessen, injure, destroy, prevent, hinder or suppress the competition of competitors of such person engaged in business within this state.

(b) Advertise brands or types of goods he is not prepared to supply.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) "Cost," as applied to production, includes the cost of raw materials, labor and all overhead expenses of the producer; as applied to distribution, "cost" means the replacement cost of the article, product or commodity to the distributor and vendor, plus the cost of doing business by the distributor and vendor; and, as applied to a wholesaler in food commerce, "cost" means the price paid.

(b) "Cost of doing business" or "overhead expense" is the average of all costs of doing business incurred in the conduct of such business during the 12 months immediately preceding any alleged violation of ORS 646.010 to 646.180; or, if any person was engaged in business within the state for a shorter period of time, the average cost for such period immediately preceding any alleged violation of ORS 646.010 to 646.180 must include without limitation the following items of expense: Labor (including salaries of executives and officers), rent, interest on borrowed capital, depreciation, selling cost, maintenance of equipment, buildings and fixtures, transportation and delivery costs as fixed under tariffs approved by the Public Utilities Commissioner of Oregon, light, heat, power and water, credit losses, all types of licenses, taxes, insurance and advertising.

(c) "Cost of doing business" or "overhead expense" of a retailer in food commerce is six percent of replacement cost or is the average monthly cost incurred in the conduct of such business during the 12 months immediately preceding any alleged violation of ORS 646.010 to 646.180, or whichever is lower. If any person was engaged in business within this state for a shorter period of time than one year, the average cost for such period that such person has been in business immediately preceding any alleged violation of this section shall be the monthly average for the purpose of this section. In computing such cost, it shall include, without limiting, all items of expense set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection.

646.110 Cost of goods bought at forced sale. Except as otherwise provided in ORS 646.120, in establishing the cost of a given article, product or commodity to the distributor and vendor, the invoice cost of an article, product or commodity purchased at a forced, bankrupt, close-out sale or other sale outside of the ordinary channels of trade may not be used as a basis for justifying a price lower than one based upon the replacement cost as of date of the sale of the article, product or commodity replaced through the ordinary channels of trade, unless:

(1) The article, product or commodity is kept separate from goods purchased in the ordinary channels of trade; and

(2) The article, product or commodity is advertised and sold as merchandise purchased at a forced, bankrupt, close-out sale, or by means other than through the ordinary channels of trade; and

(3) The advertising states the conditions under which the goods were so purchased, and the quantity of such merchandise to be sold or offered for sale.

646.120 ORS 646.100 and 646.110 not applicable to certain sales. The provisions of ORS 646.100 and 646.110 do not apply to any sale made:

(1) In closing out in good faith the owner's stock or any part thereof for the purpose of discontinuing his trade in any such stock or commodity if he does not sell new stocks of the discontinued commodity or merchandise within 90 days after the close-out, and in the case of the sale of seasonal goods or to the bona fide sale of perishable goods to prevent loss to the vendor by spoilage or depreciation, if prior notice is given to the public thereof.

(2) When the goods are damaged or deteriorated in quality and prior notice is given to the public thereof.

(3) By an officer acting under the orders of any court.

(4) In an endeavor made in good faith to meet the legal prices of a competitor selling the same article or product in the same locality or trade area.

646.130 Cost surveys as evidence. Where a particular trade or industry, of which the person, firm or corporation complained against is a member, has an established cost survey for the locality and vicinity in which the offense is committed, such cost survey is competent evidence to be used in proving the costs of the person, firm or corporation complained against within the provisions of ORS 646.010 to 646.180.

646.140 Enjoining violations and recovering triple damages. Any person injured by any violation, or who will suffer injury from any threatened violation, of ORS 646.010 to 646.180 may maintain an action in any court of general equitable jurisdiction of this state, to prevent, restrain or enjoin the violation or threatened violation. If in such action, a violation or threatened violation of ORS 646.010 to 646.180 is established, the court shall enjoin and restrain or otherwise prohibit such violation or threatened violation, and the plaintiff in the action is entitled to recover three-fold the damages by him sustained, and the costs of suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

646.150 Action for damages. If no injunctive relief is sought or required, any person injured by any violation of ORS 646.010 to 646.180 may maintain an action for damages alone in any court of general jurisdiction in this state. The measure of damages in such action shall be the same as that prescribed by ORS 646.140.

646.160 Presumption of damages. In any proceedings instituted or action brought in pursuance of the provisions of ORS 646.140 or 646.150, the plaintiff, upon proof that he has been unlawfully discriminated against by the defendant, shall conclusively be presumed to have sustained damages equal to the monetary amount or equivalent of the unlawful discrimination; and, in addition thereto, may establish such further damages, if any, as he may have sustained as a result of the discrimination.

646.170 Requiring defendant to testify. Any defendant in an action brought under the provisions of ORS 646.140 to 646.160 may be required to testify under the provisions of ORS 45.050, 45.140 to 45.170, 45.210 to 45.240, 45.310 and 45.380. In addition, the books and records of any such defendant may be brought into court and introduced, by reference, into evidence. No information so obtained may be used against the defendant as a basis for a criminal prosecution under subsection (1) of ORS 646.990.

646.180 Illegal contracts. Any contract, express or implied, made by any person in violation of any of the provisions of ORS 646.010 to 646.180 is an illegal contract and no recovery thereon shall be had.

646.190 to 646.200 [Reserved for expansion]

646.210 Definitions. As used in ORS 646.210 to 646.230:

(b) The sale of a limited quantity of goods, wares and merchandise, when the advertisement thereof does not specify the quantity and number of items offered for sale.

(c) The sale, or offering for sale of goods, wares or merchandise of a different quality or brand, or bearing a different trade mark, as the merchandise advertised for sale.

646.220 Fake sales prohibited. No person shall conduct, maintain, operate or advertise at retail any fake sale of goods, wares or merchandise within Oregon.

646.230 Continuation of sale as daily offense. Each person violating ORS 646.220 is guilty of a separate offense for every day during any portion of which any violation of any provision of ORS 646.220 is committed or continued or permitted by such person.

646.240 to 646.250 [Reserved for expansion]

UNFAIR GASOLINE SALES

646.260 Definitions; unfair discrimination, preferences, and price fixing agreements in gasoline sales prohibited. (1) As used in this section:

(a) "Person" means a person, firm, company, association or corporation, foreign or domestic.

(b) "Section" includes community, town, village or city in this state.

(c) "Wholesale" means the sale or consignment of gasoline in quantities of 50 gallons or more at a time to a purchaser.

(2) No person, who is engaged in the business of selling gasoline within the state and who is selling gasoline in more than one section shall, with the intent to suppress competition or create a monopoly, discriminate by direct or indirect methods between different sections by selling gasoline at a lower rate in one section, or any portion thereof, than such person charges for gasoline in another section, after making due allowance in the grade or quality and the cost of transportation from the refinery.

(3) No person engaged in the business of selling gasoline shall, with the intent to suppress competition or create a monopoly:

(a) Discriminate by direct or indirect methods in the sale of gasoline at wholesale between purchasers in any section.

(b) Make or carry into effect any contract, understanding or agreement with any person, corporation, partnership or association of persons in this state to fix prices with respect to the sale or distribution of gasoline so as to prevent or obstruct competition in the purchase, sale or distribution of gasoline.

(4) The conduct prohibited by subsections (2) and (3) of this section is unfair discrimination.

646.270 Contracts violating ORS 646.260 void. All contracts or agreements made in violation of any of the provisions of ORS 646.260 are void.

646.280 Exclusive contracts for gasoline sales; remedies for breach. In the event of any breach or threatened breach of any contract providing for the sale or consignment of gasoline to be sold or distributed by the vendee or consignee at retail, which provides that only the gasoline sold, manufactured, distributed or marked by the vendor or consignor shall be sold by the vendee or consignee, either party to the contract shall be entitled either to an injunction, mandatory or otherwise, to prevent a further breach of such contract or to a decree of specific performance thereof, or to both. Pending the adjudication of such suit either party to the contract shall be entitled, in a proper case, either to a restraining order or to a preliminary injunction, mandatory or otherwise, or to both.

646.290 Exclusive contract for gasoline sales embodying lease of real property; remedies. In the event of any breach of any lease upon real property, which is a part of or in any way connected, directly or indirectly, with any contract within the purview of ORS 646.280 by any party who is the vendor, consignor, vendee or consignee of gasoline covered by such contract to be sold or distributed at retail on such leased premises, the vendee, consignee, vendor or consignor of such gasoline shall be entitled either to an injunction, mandatory or otherwise, to prevent a further breach of the lease or to a decree of specific performance thereof, or to both. Pending the adjudication of such suit, the vendee, consignee, vendor or consignor shall be entitled, in a proper case, either to a restraining order or to a preliminary injunction, mandatory or otherwise, against the vendor, consignor, vendee or consignee, or to both.

646.330 Sales exempted from ORS 646.340. No contract containing any of the provisions enumerated in ORS 646.310 to 646.370 shall be deemed to preclude the resale of any commodity covered thereby without reference to such contract in the following cases:

(1) In closing out the owner's stock for the bona fide purpose of discontinuing dealing in any such commodity and plain notice of the fact is given to the public, if the owner of such stock gives to the producer or distributor of the commodity prompt and reasonable notice in writing of his intention to close out the stock and an opportunity to purchase the stock at the original invoice price.

(2) When the goods are altered, second-hand, damaged, defaced or deteriorated and plain notice of the fact is given to the public in the advertisement and sale thereof; the notice shall be conspicuously displayed in all advertisements and shall be affixed to the commodity.

(3) By any officer acting under an order of court.

646.340 Authorized provisions in contracts affecting prices. A contract relating to the sale or resale of a commodity which bears, or the label or container of which bears or the vending equipment through which the commodity is sold bears, the trade-mark, brand or name of the producer or distributor of the commodity and which commodity is in free and open competition with commodities of the same general class produced or distributed by others is not in violation of any law of Oregon by reason of any of the following provisions which may be contained in the contract:

(1) That the buyer will not resell the commodity at less than the minimum price stipulated by the seller.

(2) That the buyer will require of any dealer to whom he may resell the commodity an agreement that he will not, in turn, resell at less than the minimum price stipulated by the seller.

(3) That the seller will not sell the commodity:

(a) To any wholesaler, unless the wholesaler will agree not to resell the commodity to any retailer unless the retailer will in turn agree not to resell the commodity except to consumers for use and at not less than the stipulated minimum price, and unless the wholesaler will likewise agree not to resell the commodity to any other wholesaler unless the other wholesaler will make the same agreement with any wholesaler or retailer to whom he may resell; or

(b) To any retailer, unless the retailer will agree not to resell the commodity except to consumers for use and at not less than the stipulated minimum price.

646.350 Persons authorized to establish prices. No minimum resale price shall be established for any commodity, under any contract entered into pursuant to the provisions of ORS 646.310 to 646.370 by any person other than the owner of the trade-mark, brand or name used in connection with the commodity or a distributor specifically authorized to establish the price by the owner of the trade-mark, brand or name.

646.360 Acts constituting evasions. For the purpose of preventing evasion of the resale price restrictions imposed in respect of any commodity by any contract entered into pursuant to ORS 646.310 to 646.370, except to the extent authorized by the contract, the following are violations of the resale price restriction, for which the remedies prescribed by ORS 646.370 are available:

Willfully and knowingly advertising, offering for sale or selling any commodity at less than the price stipulated in any contract entered into pursuant to the provisions of ORS 646.330 to 646.360, whether the person so advertising, offering for sale or selling is or is not a party to the contract, is unfair competition and is actionable at the suit of any person damaged thereby.

646.380 to 646.400 [Reserved for expansion]

646.440 Threat to compel financing through designated person; manufacturer presumed responsible. Any threat, expressed or implied, made directly or indirectly to any dealer by any manufacturer, or by any person who is engaged in the business of financing the purchase or sale of motor vehicles and is affiliated with or controlled by any manufacturer, that the manufacturer will cease to sell, or will terminate or refuse to enter into a contract to sell motor vehicles to the dealer unless the dealer finances the purchase or sale of any such motor vehicle only with or through a designated person, is presumed to be made at the direction of and with the authority of the manufacturer and is prima facie evidence of the fact that the manufacturer has sold or intends to sell such motor vehicle on the condition or under the agreement prohibited in ORS 646.430.
