DISTRICT COURTS GENERALLY

46.010 Creation of Multnomah County District Court. There shall be in every county of 300,000 population, or more, a court which shall be styled "The District Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of _____" (insert the name of the county in which the court is located). The court shall consist of four judges.

46.020 Creation of district courts in counties of 50,000 to 200,000. There shall be in every city which is a county seat of any county having over 50,000 and less than 200,000 population, a court which shall be styled "The District Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of _____" (insert the name of the county in which the court is located). The courts shall each consist of one judge.

46.025 Creation of district courts in counties of 31,000 to 50,000 and in counties of less than 25,000 having a county seat of 11,000 or more population. There shall be in every city which has a population of 11,000 or more and which is the county seat of a county having a population of less than 25,000, and in every city which is a county seat of any county having over 31,000 and not over 50,000 population, a court which shall be styled "The District Court of the State of Oregon for the County of _____" (insert the name of the county in which the court is located). However, the establishment and organization of a district court in any city meeting the requirements of this section is postponed until the expiration and termination of the elective term of the justice of the peace in office in the city at the time it first meets the requirements of this section, unless the justice of the peace is legally qualified to be a district judge for such court. In the case of a postponement of the establishment and organization of a district court for the reason specified in this section, a person to serve as district judge when the court is established and organized shall be nominated and elected, in the manner provided by law for district judges, at the primary and general elections next preceding the date of the expiration of the elective term of the justice of the peace in office in the city where the new district court is to be established and organized pursuant to this section. Each court shall consist of one judge. [Amended by 1953 c.563 §7]

46.030 Territorial limits of district courts. The territorial limits of a district court, over which the court shall have jurisdiction, shall be coextensive with the boundary of the county in which the court is located; however, in civil cases the territorial jurisdiction of the court shall be the same as that of a circuit court, subject to the same conditions and restrictions as apply to circuit courts and subject to the laws relating to venue of actions. [Amended by 1953 c.112 §2]

46.040 Jurisdiction, criminal. Except as is otherwise provided in ORS 3.150, district courts shall have the same criminal and quasi criminal jurisdiction as justices' courts, and shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit courts of all misdemeanors committed or triable in their respective counties where the punishment prescribed does not exceed one year's imprisonment in the county jail or a fine of $3,000, or both such fine and imprisonment.

46.050 District judges to be magistrates. The judges of district courts shall be magistrates. It shall be the duty of one of the judges of a district court organized under ORS 46.010 to sit as committing magistrate, in a manner to be determined among them.

46.060 Jurisdiction, civil, generally. (1) The district courts shall have jurisdiction, but not exclusive, in the following cases:

(a) For the recovery of money or damages only when the amount claimed does not exceed $1,000. When in such a case arising out of contract the ends of justice demand that an account be taken or that the contract or contracts be reformed or canceled, the district court shall have jurisdiction to decree such accounting, reformation or cancellation.

(b) For the recovery of specific personal property when the value of the property claimed and the damages for the detention do not exceed $1,000.

(c) For the recovery of any penalty or forfeiture, whether given by statute or arising out of contract, not exceeding $1,000.

(d) To give judgment without trial upon the confession of the defendant for any of the causes of action specified in this section, except for a penalty or forfeiture imposed by statute.

(e) To hear and determine actions of forcible entry and detainer.

(f) To enforce, marshal, and foreclose liens upon personal property where the amount claimed for such liens does not exceed $1,000, and to render personal judgment therein in favor of any party.

(g) Actions and proceedings of interpleader and in the nature thereof, when the amount of money or the value of the property involved does not exceed $1,000.

(h) Actions and proceedings, whether legal or equitable, to preserve the property or rights of any party to an action of which the court has jurisdiction, and to enforce the collection of its own judgments, including all actions and proceedings in the nature of creditor's bills and in aid of execution, to subject the interest of a judgment debtor in personal property to the payment of such judgment, in the same manner and to the same extent as in like cases in the circuit court, except that district courts shall not have jurisdiction to appoint receivers.

(2) Whenever an action or proceeding is properly brought in a district court, the court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine, preserve and enforce all rights involved therein, including all cases in equity when pleaded as defensive matter, and to exercise all legal and equitable remedies necessary or proper for complete determination of the rights of the parties, subject to the limitations imposed by this section.

(3) Wherever in this chapter reference is made to actions or proceedings, it includes any equitable proceeding of which a district court has jurisdiction.

(4) Whenever it shall appear from the pleadings in any cause that the title to real property is in dispute, the court shall order the pleading raising that question stricken unless within five days the party who has raised such issue shall file with the clerk of the district court a written request for the transfer of the cause to the circuit court, accompanied by the tender of the costs of such transfer. In the event of such request and tender, the clerk of the district court shall, within 10 days thereafter, file with the clerk of the circuit court of the county a transcript of the cause, to contain a copy of all the material entries in the docket of the district court, together with all the original papers relating to such cause, whereupon the district court shall proceed no further, but such cause shall thenceforth be considered as transferred to the circuit court, which shall then have jurisdiction and shall proceed to hear, try and determine the same. All costs incurred in the transfer of such cases, including the filing fee in the circuit court, shall be borne by the party raising such issue and must be tendered to the clerk of the district court at the time of filing the written request, and such costs may be recovered by him in the event he prevails. In the event of the failure of the clerk of the district court to file the transcript in the circuit court within the time specified, the circuit court may make an order upon the clerk to comply within a specified time with the provisions of this subsection.

46.070 Jurisdiction of counterclaims. In all actions instituted in a district court a defendant shall have the right to plead a counterclaim in excess of the jurisdiction of the court, whereupon the clerk shall, upon order of the court and within 10 days thereafter, file with the clerk of the circuit court of the county a transcript of the cause, containing a copy of all the material entries in the docket of the district court together with all the original papers relating to such cause. Upon the filing of the transcript with the clerk of the circuit court, the district court shall proceed no further, but the cause shall thenceforth be considered as transferred to the circuit court, which shall then have jurisdiction and shall proceed to hear, try and determine the same. In the event of the failure of the clerk of the district court to file the transcript in the circuit court within the time specified, the judge of the circuit court may make an order upon the clerk to comply within a specified time with the provisions of this section. The plaintiff in such action shall have 10 days after the filing of such transcript in the circuit court in which to move against, demur or reply to the defendant's answer. All costs incurred in the transfer of such case, including the filing fee in the circuit court, shall be borne by the defendant, and must be tendered by him to the clerk of the district court at the time of filing the counterclaim, and such costs may be recovered by the defendant in the event he prevails. On failure of the defendant to pay the required fee at the time of filing the counterclaim, the district court shall strike the counterclaim and proceed to try the cause as though it had never been filed. In any action instituted in a district court wherein the amount claimed by the plaintiff is not in excess of its jurisdiction and the amount claimed by the defendant by way of counterclaim is not in excess of its jurisdiction, the district court shall have jurisdiction of such cause notwithstanding the combined amounts of such claim and counterclaim exceed the sum of $1,000.

46.080 Jurisdiction in ancillary, supplemental and incidental proceedings. In civil actions the district courts shall have jurisdiction, as in like cases in the circuit courts and to be exercised in the same manner, in every ancillary, incidental and supplemental proceeding, before and after judgment, including the provisional remedies of arrest, attachment and delivery of personal property claimed in the action as well as interpleader, trial of rights of personal property, and exemption, aid of execution, revival and renewal of judgment, the direction of references, and the taking of accounts where necessary to preserve the property or rights of any party to an action of which the district court has jurisdiction. All affidavits, orders and undertakings for such provisional, ancillary or supplemental proceedings are to be filed with the clerk of the district court, and such process is to be issued by him and may be made returnable before the judge of the court, or, where the court has more than one judge, before any of the judges. A writ of arrest or of attachment or an order for the delivery of personal property claimed in the action may be served and executed by any person authorized to serve a summons.

46.090 Jurisdiction where real property involved. (1) ORS 52.250, 52.590 and 52.690 shall apply to actions at law in district courts organized under ORS 46.010.

(2) ORS 52.250, 52.590, 52.620 and 52.690 shall apply to civil actions and suits in district courts organized under ORS 46.020 or 46.025. [Amended by 1955 c.664 §1]

46.092 Transfer of probate jurisdiction of certain county courts to district courts. (1) All probate jurisdiction vested in the county court is transferred to the district court in those counties having, on or after January 1, 1956, an established and organized district court, the offices and courtrooms of which are located and the functions of which are carried on in the county courthouse.

(2) The probate jurisdiction transferred to a district court from a county court under subsection (1) of this section shall not be disturbed if, subsequent to such transfer, the offices or courtrooms of the district court are located or any of the functions of the district court are carried on at a place other than the county courthouse. [1955 c.540 §1]

46.094 Transfer of pending probate matters. All matters, causes and proceedings relating to probate matters pending in the county court when the probate jurisdiction is transferred to the district court under ORS 46.092 are transferred to the district court. [1955 c.540 §2]

46.096 Application of laws governing county courts to district courts exercising probate jurisdiction formerly vested in county courts. The district courts and the judges thereof to which probate jurisdiction is transferred under ORS 46.092 shall be governed by the existing laws relating to the transferred jurisdiction, in so far as they may be applicable, as though the district courts and judges thereof had originally been referred to in such existing laws. [1955 c.540 §3]

46.098 Circuit court exercising probate jurisdiction of district court while district judge unable to act. If at any time the district judge is by reason of illness, or other good cause, absent or unable to exercise the probate jurisdiction transferred from the county court to the district court under ORS 46.092, such probate jurisdiction may be exercised during such time by the circuit court for the county in which the district court is located. [1955 c.540 §4]

46.120 Service of process. (1) The summons of a district court shall be served by the sheriff of the county or his deputy, or any constable of the county or his deputy, or by a marshal or chief of police of any incorporated city within the limits of such city, or by any competent person over the age of 21 years who is a resident of the State of Oregon and is not a party to or an attorney in the action. The summons shall be returned to the clerk with whom the complaint is filed within 60 days after its delivery to the person for service, with proof of such service; provided, however, that a person, other than an officer, making such service shall make an affidavit of service in the same manner as provided in ORS 15.110, or that the defendant cannot be found. When served out of the county in which the action is commenced the summons may be returned by mail. The person to whom the summons is delivered for service shall indorse thereon the date of such delivery.

(2) Service of all processes of a district court, other than the summons, shall be made by one of the officers named in ORS 52.120.

(3) Compensation to such persons serving the summons and processes shall be as provided in subsection (2) of ORS 15.060. [Amended by 1953 c.479 §4]

In a district court organized under ORS 46.010, the original process shall be returnable, and the party summoned required to appear before the presiding judge, but any of the judges shall have authority to hear and determine any action or proceeding instituted in the court, and which may be assigned or transferred to him, or any motion, application or issue therein, and to make any necessary and proper orders therein.

46.140 Affidavit of prejudice, in Multnomah County District Court. No judge of a district court organized under ORS 46.010 shall sit to hear or try any action or proceeding when it is established by motion supported by affidavit that the judge before whom the action or proceeding is pending is prejudiced against any party or attorney, or the interests of any party or attorney, so that such party or attorney cannot, or believes that he cannot, have a fair and impartial trial before such judge, and that such motion is not filed for the purpose of delay. Upon the filing of such motion, supported by affidavit, the presiding judge shall forthwith transfer the action or proceeding to another department of the same court. Such affidavit to be effective must be filed not later than one day after the case is at issue upon a question of fact or within such further time as the court may allow.

46.150 Findings and conclusions, in Multnomah County District Court. In cases tried without a jury by a district court organized under ORS 46.010, the court shall not be required to make any written findings of fact and conclusions of law where the matter involved is $50 or less, exclusive of interest and costs, and in all other cases written findings of fact and conclusions of law shall be deemed to be waived unless they shall be expressly requested by one of the parties at the time of the trial.

46.160 Questions of law, authority of district courts to pass upon; instruction of juries. The district courts shall have authority to pass upon and determine all questions of law arising in the trial of a cause, including motions for nonsuit and directed verdict, and motions for a new trial and to vacate judgment; and the judges shall, at the request of either party, or may, in their discretion without request, charge and instruct the jury as to the law applicable to the issues involved in the trial of any cause.

46.170 Jury in Multnomah County District Court. On the day of the trial in the district court, the clerk of the circuit court shall draw the names of not less than 12 persons from the trial jury box of the regular circuit court jury panel and direct said persons to appear at the time and place of trial in the district court. The required fee of $6 for each such jury shall be paid to the clerk of the district court in advance on the day of the trial. The jurors shall receive the same compensation provided for jurors of the circuit court and be paid in the same manner. [Amended by 1953 c.398 §2]

46.190 Challenges of jurors. In civil actions, each party is entitled to take challenges for cause, and shall be entitled to two peremptory challenges and no more. When there are two or more parties plaintiff or defendant they must join in the challenge or it cannot be taken. The manner in which challenges may be taken shall be the same as provided for in the circuit court.

46.200 Reporters for civil cases in district courts for counties other than Multnomah County. The judge of a district court organized under ORS 46.020 or 46.025 may, upon request of the plaintiff or defendant in any civil proceeding, appoint a stenographer for the same purpose and in the same manner, and who shall take the same oath and perform the same duties respecting the district court, as is provided by statute respecting the circuit court reporter. The reporter's fee shall not exceed the sum of $10 per diem, nor the sum of $5 for one-half day or less, which fee shall be paid by the party and recovered as disbursements as provided for the reporter's fee in the circuit court.

46.210 Witness fees, costs and disbursements. In district courts the amount of witness fees shall be the same as in circuit courts.
