(3) The term of eligibility of such candidates shall be determined by the commission, but shall not exceed two years from the date of their separation from the service in which they earned reemployment rights.

(4) The commission may strike the name of a person from a divisional reemployment list or a reemployment list, if it finds, after giving him notice and an opportunity to be heard, that such person is not qualified to perform satisfactorily the necessary duties.

240.320 Promotion and employment lists. (1) Promotion lists and employment lists for the various classes of positions in the classified service as are found necessary or desirable to meet the needs of the service, shall contain the names of persons who have been found qualified for appointment to a particular position by test.

(3) The commission may consolidate or cancel promotion lists and employment lists as the needs of the service may require and as authorized by the rules. A promotion list or employment list which has been in force for six months or more shall be deemed canceled upon the establishment of a new promotion list or employment list, as the case may be, for the same class of positions.

240.325 Extending eligibility of lists. The commission may extend the period of eligibility of any list by order made before the expiration of the list, but the eligibility of a list shall not be extended to a total of more than two years.

240.335 Character of tests. (1) The entrance and promotion tests shall be competitive and shall be of such character as to determine the qualifications, fitness and ability of the persons tested to perform the duties of the class of positions for which a list is to be established.

(2) The tests may be written, oral, physical or in the form of a demonstration of skill, or any combination of such types.

(3) The tests may take into consideration education, experience, aptitude, capacity, knowledge, character, physical fitness and other qualifications as enter into the determination of the relative fitness of the applicants.

240.340 Limitations on inquiries in application or test; discrimination based on race, religion or political opinions prohibited. (1) No question in any form of application or in any test shall be so framed as to elicit any information concerning the political or religious opinions or affiliations of any applicant, nor shall any inquiry be made concerning such opinions or affiliations and all disclosures thereof shall be discountenanced. No discrimination shall be exercised, threatened or promised by any person in the employ of any division or the commission against or in favor of any applicant, eligible or employe because of his race or religious or political opinions or affiliations.

(2) However, the limitations of subsection (1) of this section shall not prevent any inquiry as to whether the applicant, employe or eligible has any beliefs inimicable to the government or who advocates or is a member of an organization which advocates the overthrow or resistance by force of our form of government.

240.345 Admission to tests. The commission shall establish rules specifying the qualifications for admission to any test. Subject to the rules, admission to tests shall be open to all persons who appear to possess the required qualifications and may be lawfully appointed to a position in the class for which a list is to be established and who pay the fee, if any, prescribed by the rules.

Each person competing in any test shall be given written notice of his final earned rating and of his relative standing on the list, or of his failure to attain a place on the list. Each person competing in a test may, not later than one month after the establishment of the list and in accordance with the rules adopted by the commission, have his rating in any and all parts reviewed and corrected if manifest errors are found. No such correction shall invalidate any appointment previously made from such a list.

240.360 Order in which eligibles are certified. (1) Upon written notice of an appointing authority that a position in the classified service is to be filled, the director shall certify the names of highest ranking eligibles who are willing to accept appointment from lists for the class to which the position is allocated, or a comparable class.

(2) Divisional reemployment lists which contain only those names of employes laid off in good standing shall be used first in filling any vacant position. The order of priority of all other lists shall be governed by rules of the commission. [Amended by 1955 c.140 §1]

- (c) Other lists shall be three in the case of one vacancy, four in the case of two vacancies and, for more than two vacancies, five-thirds of the number of vacancies.
- (2) The detailed condition and provisions for certification and appointments shall be prescribed by rule of the commission.
- (3) If the appropriate lists do not contain the names of a sufficient number of eligibles willing to accept appointment to make possible the certification provided for herein, the names of all eligibles on such lists who are willing to accept appointment shall be certified.

240.370 Removal of eligibles from list. The names of persons who have been certified for appointments three times to the same appointing authority and who have not received appointment, and the names of persons who have expressed unwillingness to accept appointment may, in the discretion of the director, be removed from a list.

240.375 Provisional appointments. If there is no appropriate list available, the director may authorize a provisional appointment of a person meeting the minimum prerequisites for the class to which the position is allocated. No position shall be filled by provisional appointment for longer than 90 days unless the commission declares an emergency until an appropriate employment list is established, nor more than once in any fiscal year. No one person shall be appointed as a provisional employe more than once in any fiscal year.

240.380 Temporary appointments. Whenever there is need of an employe for a temporary period the director may authorize a selection from the five highest ranking available eligibles on the appropriate employment, promotion or reemployment list. Successive temporary appointments of the same person to the same position shall not total more than 90 days in any one year.

240.385 Emergency appointments. To prevent the stoppage of work or inconvenience to the public in case of an emergency, any appointing authority may appoint any person to any position for the duration of the emergency but not to exceed 60 days. A vacancy of which the appointing authority has had reasonable notice, or an employment condition of which he had previous knowledge, shall not be considered an emergency under this section. The appointing authority shall report each emergency appointment to the director forthwith. No emergency appointment shall be renewed.

240.390 Procedure for selecting unskilled, semi-skilled and part-time employes. (1) For positions involving unskilled or semiskilled labor, or domestic, attendant or custodial work, or part-time positions, when the character or place of the work or other conditions of employment make it impracticable to supply the needs of the service by appointments made in accordance with the procedure prescribed by this chapter, the director, subject to the rules, may adopt, or authorize the use of, such other procedures as he determines to be appropriate in order to meet the needs of the service, while assuring the selection of such employes on the basis of merit and fitness.

(2) Such procedures may include the testing of applicants and maintenance of lists of eligibles by localities; the testing of applicants, singly or in groups, at periodic intervals, at the place of employment or elsewhere, after such notice as the director considers adequate; the registration of applicants who pass a noncompetitive test or submit satisfactory evidence of their qualifications; or any variation or combination of the foregoing, or other suitable method.

240.395 Suspension of merit system in emergencies; reinstatement. (1) In the event of emergency or abnormal employment conditions due to disaster, national defense, war or conflict in which the Armed Forces of the United States are participating and because of which Oregon citizens are subject to induction into such Armed Forces, if a critical shortage of persons available and employable to fill positions and discharge duties in the classified service should result, and the Civil Service Commission so finds and the Governor so certifies, the examination, certication and appointment procedures required by law shall be suspended for the duration of such emergency as to all or any classes of positions in which there is a shortage of employes.

(2) When the commission determines that the emergency or abnormal condition no longer exists, and the Governor so certifies, the regular examination, certification and employment procedures shall be reestablished. # TRIAL SERVICE AND REGULAR STATUS: MERIT RATINGS

240.405 Trial service period. Every person appointed to a position in the classified service after certification of his name from an employment list shall serve a trial service period of six months, or shall satisfactorily complete a period of in-service training, standards of which are satisfactory to the commission. At such times during the trial service period and in such manner as the director may require, the appointing authority shall report to the director his observation of the employe's work, and judgment as to the employe's willingness and ability to perform his duties satisfactorily, and as to his habits and dependability.

240.410 Removals during trial period. (1) The appointing authority may remove an employe within the first two months of his trial service period only with the approval of the director.

- (2) At any time during his trial service period, after the first two months thereof, the appointing authority may remove an employe if, in the opinion of the appointing authority, the trial service indicates that such employe is unable or unwilling to perform his duties satisfactorily or that his habits and dependability do not merit his continuance in the service. Upon such removal, the appointing authority shall forthwith report to the director, and to the employe removed, his action and the reason therefor.
- (3) No more than three employes shall be removed successively from the same position during their trial service periods without the approval of the director.
- (4) The director may remove an employe during his trial service period if he finds, after giving him notice and an opportunity to be heard by the commission, that such employe was appointed as a result of fraud or error.
- (5) If any employe is removed from his position during or at the end of his trial service period, and the director determines that he is suitable for appointment to another position, his name may be restored to the list from which it was certified. If any such employe was a regular employe in another position in the classified service immediately prior to his appointment, he shall be reinstated to his former position unless charges are filed and he is discharged as provided in this chapter.

240.415 Regular employe status upon satisfactory completion of trial service period. The employe shall be deemed to have served his trial service period satisfactorily, and to be a regular employe, unless at least 10 days prior to the expiration of the trial service period the appointing authority has notified the director in writing that the employe's services have not been satisfactory.

240.420 Additional methods of attaining regular employe status. (1) As of the date of establishment of the first eligible list for each class of position, those employes with at least six months' service in such class and who are recommended for regular status by their respective appointing authorities shall be accorded regular status and shall be deemed regular employes from that date. Employes with less than six months' service in the class and who are so recommended shall be accorded trial service status and shall receive regular status only after completion of the remainder of the trial service as provided by this chapter and the rules of the commission.

(2) Employes having status in the classified service as regular employes, under the provisions of chapter 400, Oregon Laws 1945, shall continue to hold such status.

240.425 Regular seasonal employes. Positions which occur, terminate and recur periodically and regularly regardless of the duration thereof shall be designated by rule of the commission as seasonal positions, and employes regularly certified for and serving satisfactorily in such positions through one seasonal service period shall be entitled to permanent status as regular seasonal employes.

240.430 Merit ratings. (1) In cooperation with appointing authorities, the commission shall establish standards of performance for employes in each class of position in the classified service or for groups of classes, and a system of merit ratings based upon such standards.

(2) In such manner and with such weight as shall be provided in the rules, merit ratings shall be considered:

- (a) In determining salary increases and decreases within the limits established by law and by the compensation plan.
  - (b) As a factor in promotion tests.
- (c) As a factor in determining the order of lay-off when forces must be reduced because of lack of funds or work, and the order in which names are to be placed on reemployment lists.
- (d) As a means of discovering employes who should be promoted, demoted, transferred or dismissed.

Upon expiration of the leave the employe shall be reinstated to the position held before the leave was granted. Failure of the employe to report promptly at the expiration of the leave shall be cause for dismissal.

(2) Leaves of absence shall be automatically granted all regular employes who have entered the service of the United States or its allies, since September 14, 1940, or who hereafter enter such military service. Such employes who are honorably discharged at the expiration of their military service, and who report for duty within six months following discharge, shall be returned to their last held position and at the salary rates prevailing for such positions on the date of resumption of duty, without loss of seniority or other employment rights. Term of military leave shall be counted in computing seniority according to rules established.

Upon termination after one year of service for reasons other than disciplinary, an employe may receive cash remuneration for accrued vacation time earned up to the end of the last full month of employment. [Amended by 1953 c.353 §2]

240.520 Sick and disability leave. Sick and disability leave shall be granted with pay to employes in accordance with rules adopted by the commission.

240.525 Lay-offs. (1) Whenever a reduction in employes is required because of a shortage of funds or work or a material change in duties or organization, employes shall be laid off by appointing authorities and under rules, which shall take into account length of service and merit rating.

(2) In every case of lay-off of a regular employe, the appointing authority shall, 15 days before the effective date thereof, give written notice to the employe and the director. In any case where an appointing authority refuses, or fails to certify before the effective date thereof, that the lay-off was for reasons not reflecting discredit on the employe, it shall be deemed a dismissal and shall be subject to the provisions concerning dismissals in this chapter.

240.535 Transfers within a division. An appointing authority may at any time assign an employe from one position to another position in the same class or rank in his division. 240.550 Transfer to lower class. Any change of an employe from a position in one class to a position in a class of lower rank shall be considered a demotion and shall be made only in accordance with the procedure prescribed for dismissal, except when an employe submits to the director a written request for change to a class of lower rank, and the request is granted, such change shall be termed a "voluntary demotion."

240.555 Suspension, reduction, demotion or dismissal. (1) The commission, by rule, shall establish a procedure in accordance with this chapter whereby the appointing authority in any division may suspend, reduce, demote or dismiss such employe for misconduct, inefficiency, incompetence, insubordination, indolence, malfeasance or other unfitness to render effective service, and for the investigation and public hearing of appeals of such suspended, reduced, demoted or dismissed employe.

(2) The appointing authority for disciplinary purposes may suspend without pay a regular employe for a period not exceeding 30 days in any 12 months.

If such final decision is in favor of the employe the appointing authority may reinstate him.

240.570 Classified employe filling position in unclassified or exempt service. Positions in the unclassified and exempt service may be filled by classified employes upon request of the appointing authority. Any classified employe so appointed shall, after termination of service in an unclassified or exempt position, be restored to his status in the classified service. [1955 c.738 §6]
