336.010 School month; holidays; teachers' holiday pay. The common school month shall consist of 20 days. No school shall be open in any district for the purpose of ordinary instruction on any Saturday, or on any legal holiday, or in any county during the time of holding the annual county institute therein. Days on which an election is held throughout the state shall be school holidays for such schools only in which the schoolroom is used for election purposes. The twelfth and twenty-second days of February, the first Monday in September, and the twelfth day of October shall not be school holidays, but a portion of said days shall be set apart and observed in the public schools of the state by appropriate exercises. When holidays occur during a session of school, teachers shall be allowed full pay for such holidays.

336.020 Days of institute to be counted as days of school attendance. (1) A school district may count up to a maximum of five teaching days a year as actual days of school attendance of pupils for those days the district school is not in session because of a county or local institute or meeting held jointly by the county school superintendent and Superintendent of Public Instruction for the inservice training of teachers. The total of days of actual attendance on the first day school is in session subsequent to such an institute or meeting shall be used as the basis for counting attendance for each day the institute or meeting is in session.

(2) A school district may submit a curriculum improvement plan to be completed while school is in session. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall develop criteria for such plans and shall approve any plan which meets the requirements in lieu of and as equivalent to not more than one of the five days of institute or meeting authorized in subsection (1) of this section for the inservice training of teachers. [Amended by 1955 c.384 §1]

336.030 Rules for school government. Each district school board may establish rules and regulations for the government of the schools and pupils consistent with the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education.

336.040 Noon intermission during rainy season. Any district school board may shorten the noon intermission during the rainy season to 30 minutes, and close the school at 3:30 p.m.

336.050 Grade placement of pupils. Each district school board shall require each teacher to determine the grade placement of their pupils in conformity with the school board's directions.

336.060 Nursery schools and extended school day services. Any district school board, under rules, regulations, standards and teacher certification requirements established by the State Board of Education, may sponsor, maintain, operate and supervise nursery schools for children between the ages of two and six years, and extended school services for children of school age. The full cost for nursery schools shall be borne by fees, grants in aid or gifts from sources other than regular district revenues. The district school board may establish the hours of operation of such nursery schools and extended school day services for children of school age.

336.070 Admission of pupils. District school boards shall admit free of charge to the schools of their district all persons between the ages of 6 and 21 residing therein. All other persons may be admitted on such terms as the district may direct. A child entering school for the first time during the fall term shall be deemed to be six years of age if his sixth birthday occurs on or before November 15, and in schools organizing a beginning first-year class in midwinter a child entering school for the first time shall be deemed to be six years of age if during the midwinter term his sixth birthday occurs on or before March 15. School boards may rule that a child eligible to enter a beginning first-year class at the opening of the fall term or midwinter term, but who does not enter within the first four weeks of such term may be denied entrance for the remainder of the school year or until another beginning first-year class is organized during that year.

336.075 Admission of children living in area under exclusive jurisdiction of Federal Government; effect on distribution of state and county school funds. (1) Children of school age who are living in any area within which the United States Government has exclusive jurisdiction shall be admitted free of charge at adjacent public schools. They may be placed on the census of the school district in which they attend such schools. Credit for days' attendance of such children shall accrue to the school attended for the purpose of distributing state school funds.

(2) Exclusive jurisdiction shall mean those areas over which the United States Government exercises exclusive legislation as designated in Article 1, section 8 of the Constitution of the United States. [1955 c. 103 §1, 3]

336.080 Refusal of admission in districts with over 20,000 school age population. At the option of the city superintendent of any school district having more than 20,000 children of school age, primary pupils of the first grade may be refused admission to the schools after the first month of each term and until the beginning of the succeeding term. The decision of the city superintendent in each case shall be final.

336.090 Exclusion of children mentally unable to benefit from further instruction. Any district school board may exclude permanently from the public schools of its district any child over 10 years of age found to be mentally unable to benefit further from the instruction offered in such schools, in the manner provided in ORS 336.100 to 336.140.

The administrative head shall promptly notify the person having legal custody and control of such child of such determination and that unless such person demands a hearing in the manner and within the time specified in ORS 336.120, an order will be made by the board permanently excluding such child from school.

If no notice is given to the school clerk within said 15-day period, an order shall be made which shall be final. If notice is given as provided in this section, the district school board shall set a time and place for hearing thereon and shall give the person demanding such hearing not less than 10 days' advance written notice of the time and place thereof.

336.130 Conduct of hearing; witnesses; record. (1) At the time and place fixed for the hearing provided for in ORS 336.120, the district school board shall conduct a full and fair hearing upon the question of the child's mental ability to benefit further from the instruction offered in the public schools of such school district. Both the board and the complaining party shall be entitled to be represented in person or by attorney, and adduce any competent evidence relevant and material to the issue.

(2) The board shall have full power to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses at such hearing. At the complaining party's request, all witnesses desired by said party shall be subpoenaed by and at the expense of the board except that the board shall not be accountable for the witness fees and mileage of more than 10 of such witnesses so subpoenaed on behalf of the complaining party. Subpoenas for witnesses to testify either in support of such exclusion or on behalf of the complaining party shall, as requested, be issued in blank by the board over the signature of its chairman or clerk and the seal of the district, and such witnesses shall be entitled to receive the same mileage and per diem as witnesses called in civil cases in the circuit courts of the state. Witnesses so subpoenaed shall be compelled to appear and submit to examination and shall be subject to the same penalties for perjury or contempt as are provided in ORS 33.020 and 162.120. All witnesses shall testify under oath or affirmation to be ad-

(3) The board shall employ a competent person to report the full proceedings, which record shall be available without charge for the use of the complaining party in the event he wishes to apply to the courts for a writ of review.

336.140 Board action after hearing. At the conclusion of the hearing, the board shall render its decision on the evidence submitted at such hearing and not otherwise. In all such hearings the findings and order of the board shall be in writing, and a copy shall be served upon the complaining party.

336.150 Review by circuit court. If the decision of the board, after hearing, orders the permanent exclusion of the child, the complaining party may apply to the circuit court for the county in which the school district is situated for a writ of review within the time provided by law for applications for writs of review. The circuit court thereupon shall review the proceedings before the board in the manner provided by ORS 34.010 to 34.100. In counties having a department of domestic relations the proceedings shall be reviewed by the department of domestic relations of said court.

336.160 Duty of pupils; cause for suspension or expulsion. (1) Public school pupils shall comply with lawful regulations for the government of such schools, pursue the prescribed course of study, use the prescribed textbooks and submit to the teachers' authority.

(2) Wilful disobedience, open defiance of a teacher's authority or the use of profane or obscene language are sufficient cause for suspension or expulsion from school.

336.170 Injury of school property by pupil. (1) No pupil shall, in any way cut, deface or otherwise injure any schoolhouse, fences or school outbuildings.

(2) Violation of subsection (1) of this section shall render the pupil liable to suspension and punishment. On complaint of the teacher, the parents of such pupil shall be liable for damages to the amount of the injury as determined by the district school board and for costs if the district school board brings a successful action for the recovery of such damages.

336.180 School hours of pupils under eight years of age. Pupils under eight years of age may be dismissed after a four hours' session. They shall be taught

(2) The certificates shall be executed by the county school superintendent of the pupils' respective counties. A certificate so granted shall entitle the holder thereof to entrance into any ninth grade in the state without further examination.

(3) The Superintendent of Public Instruction may accept an organized plan of supervision and testing when proposed by the county school superintendent of any county in lieu of the state eighth grade examination for that county.

(4) This section does not compel district school boards to admit nonresident pupils without tuition charge.

Such dentist must supply the pupil with a certificate attesting that the work was performed in accordance with the inspection provided by the school board, and the certificate shall be made a matter of record by the school board.
