ELECTION CONTESTS

251.010 [Repealed by 1957 c.217 §9]

251.015 Definitions. As used in ORS 251.015 to 251.090, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Contestant" means any person who files a petition of contest under ORS 251.045.

(2) "Contestee," in the case of a contest of the nomination or election of any person for or to any office, means such person, and, in the case of a contest of the approval or rejection of any measure, means any person involved in the cause of the contest.

(3) "Measure" means any proposed law, Act or part of an Act of the Legislative Assembly, amendment to the Oregon Constitution or local, special or municipal legislation voted upon by the people at any primary, general or special election. [1957 c.217 §1]

251.020 [Repealed by 1957 c.217 §9]

251.025 Grounds for contest; persons authorized to contest. The nomination or election of any person for or to any office or the approval or rejection of any measure at any primary, general or special election may be contested as provided in ORS 251.015 to 251.090 by any elector entitled to vote for such person or measure at such election, or by any person who was a candidate at such election for the same nomination or office, for any of the following causes and no other:

(1) Deliberate and material violation of any provision of the election laws in connection with such nomination, election, approval or rejection.

(2) Ineligibility of the person elected to the office to hold the office at the time of the election.

(3) Illegal votes.

(4) Mistake or fraud in the canvass of votes.

(5) Fraud in the count of votes. [1957 c.217 §2]

251.030 [Repealed by 1957 c.217 §9]

251.035 When election results may be set aside on account of illegal votes or mistake or fraud. (1) In no case shall the nomination or election of any person for or to any office be set aside under ORS 251.080 on account of illegal votes or mistake or fraud in the count or canvass of votes unless it appears that:

(a) The person nominated or elected had knowledge of or connived in an illegal vote or a mistaken or fraudulent count or canvass; or

(b) The number of votes taken from the person nominated or elected by reason of such illegal votes or mistake or fraud in the count or canvass of votes would reduce his legal votes below the number of legal votes given to some other person for the same nomination or office.

(2) In no case shall the approval or rejection of a measure be set aside under ORS 251.080 on account of illegal votes or mistake or fraud in the count or canvass of votes unless it appears that the number of votes taken from the approval or rejection by reason of such illegal votes or mistake or fraud in the count or canvass of votes would change approval to rejection or rejection to approval. [1957 c.217 §3]

251.040 [Repealed by 1957 c.217 §9]

251.045 Petition of contest. Not later than 10 days after the final canvass of votes or other final compilation of the result of any primary, general or special election or the completion of a recount of votes cast in connection with such nomination, office or measure under ORS 251.510 to 251.610, any person authorized by ORS 251.025 to contest the nomination or election of any person for or to any office or the approval or rejection of any measure at such election may file a petition of contest with the clerk of the circuit court for the county in which the certificate of nomination, certificate of election or proclamation, as the case may be, is or will be issued or in which any contestee resides. The petition shall specify with particularity the cause of the contest, shall name the contestees and shall be verified by the contestant in the manner required by law for the verification of complaints in civil cases. [1957 c.217 §4]

251.050 [Repealed by 1957 c.217 §9]

251.060 Contestant's bond; costs, disbursements and fees. (1) Before any proceeding on a petition of contest filed under ORS 251.045, the contestant shall furnish a bond, conditioned upon the payment of all costs, disbursements and attorney's fees that may be awarded against the contestant if he does not prevail and with not less than two sureties, who shall justify in the manner required of sureties on bail bonds. The circuit court shall determine the amount of and approve the bond. The amount of the bond shall not exceed $2,000. If judgment is rendered against the contestant, it shall also be rendered against the sureties on the bond.

(2) The prevailing party in the contest proceeding shall recover his costs, disbursements and reasonable attorney's fees against the losing party, except that if the cause of the contest is mistake in the canvass of votes and the contestant prevails, the cost of any recanvass of votes necessary in connection with such cause shall be paid by the county in the case of a contest of a state or county nomination, office or measure, by the city in the case of a contest of a city nomination, office or measure or by any other political subdivision or public corporation in the case of a contest of such a subdivision or corporation nomination, office or measure. [1957 c.217 §5]

251.070 Notice and hearing on contest.

(1) Upon the filing with him of a petition of contest under ORS 251.045, the clerk of the circuit court shall cause a notice to be served in the same manner as a summons issued out of the circuit court on all contestees named in the petition, directing them to appear and answer not less than three nor more than seven days after the date of the filing of the petition.

(2) The circuit court shall fix a time, not more than 20 days after the return date fixed in the notice, for the hearing by the circuit court of the contest proceeding, and shall give written notice of such hearing at least five days prior thereto to each party to the proceeding. The contest proceeding shall take precedence over all other business on the circuit court docket, and shall be disposed of with all convenient dispatch.

(3) Each party to the contest proceeding is entitled to subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum, as in civil cases. The circuit court shall hear and determine the proceeding without a jury, and the practice and procedure otherwise applicable to civil cases shall govern the proceeding. [1957 c.217 §6]

251.080 Judgment of circuit court. Upon the conclusion of the contest proceeding hearing under ORS 251.070, the circuit court shall render a judgment affirming or setting aside the nomination or election of the person for or to the office or the approval or rejection of the measure. If the judgment sets aside the nomination or election of a person, it shall also declare as nominated or elected for or to the office in question the other person who received the highest number of votes at the election and whose nomination or election does not appear to be subject to being set aside under ORS 251.015 to 251.090, or, if there is no such other person, that the nomination or office is vacant. If the judgment sets aside the approval of a measure, it shall also declare the measure rejected. If the judgment sets aside the rejection of a measure, it shall also declare the measure approved, unless it appears that such approval is subject to being set aside under ORS 251.015 to 251.090, in which case the judgment shall declare the measure rejected. [1957 c.217 §7]

251.090 Appeal to Supreme Court. Any party to the contest proceeding may appeal from the judgment rendered by the circuit court under ORS 251.080 to the Supreme Court in the same manner as appeals in civil cases are taken. The appeal shall take precedence over all other business on the Supreme Court docket, and shall be disposed of with all convenient dispatch. [1957 c.217 §8]

RECOUNTS

251.510 Definitions. As used in ORS 251.520 to 251.610:

(1) "Candidate" means a candidate for nomination or election to any elective office.

(2) "Measure" means any proposed law, Act or part of an Act of the Legislative Assembly, amendment to the Oregon Constitution or local, special or municipal legislation voted upon by the people. [1955 c.498 §1; 1957 c.218 §1]

251.520 Filing demand for recount with Secretary of State; deposit. (1) Any candidate or any officer of a political party on behalf of any candidate may file a demand requiring the Secretary of State to direct that a recount be made in every precinct in which votes were cast for the particular public office for which the candidate's name appeared on the ballot at any primary, general or special election.

(2) A registered elector may file a demand requiring the Secretary of State to direct that a recount be made in every precinct in which votes were cast for any measure which appeared on the ballot at any general or special election.

(3) The demand shall be accompanied by a cash deposit of $10 for each precinct to be recounted up to a maximum of $8,000 for a recount of all the precincts in the state for any particular measure or public office for which a recount may be demanded as provided in subsection (1) or subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The demand shall be in such form and shall set forth such information as is prescribed by the Secretary of State, including the names and addresses of all persons and organizations providing any part of the cash deposit under subsection (3) of this section and the amount provided by each. The demand shall be sworn to or affirmed by the person filing it.

(5) The demand shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State not later than 10 days after the date of the completion of the canvass of votes for the candidate or measure. As used in this subsection, "canvass of votes" means:

(a) In the case of a candidate for a state public office or a state measure, the canvass of votes by the Secretary of State under ORS 249.460, 250.840 or 254.120.

(b) In the case of a candidate for a county public office, the making of abstracts of votes by the county clerk under ORS 249.410 or 250.810, or in the case of a county measure, the canvass of votes by the county clerk under ORS 254.320 or 254.340.

(c) In the case of a candidate for a city public office or a city measure, the final canvass of votes or other final compilation of the result of the election by the official or officials who conduct such final canvass or compilation.

(d) In the case of a candidate for any other political subdivision or public corporation public office or any other political subdivision or public corporation measure, the final canvass of votes or other final compilation of the result of the election by the official or officials who conduct such final canvass or compilation. [1955 c.498 §2; 1957 c.218 §2]

251.530 [1955 c.498 §3; repealed by 1957 c.218 §11]

251.540 One recount only; two or more recount demands. (1) Only one recount shall be made for any measure or public office for which a recount may be demanded pursuant to ORS 251.520.

(2) If two or more demands for the recount of the same measure or public office are filed with the Secretary of State the demand first received by the Secretary of State is the demand for a recount for the purposes of ORS 251.510 to 251.620. [1955 c. 498 § 5]

251.550 Secretary of State ordering recount and notifying candidates. Upon the filing of a demand for a recount under ORS 251.520, the Secretary of State shall direct the county clerk of any county in which are located the precincts in which ballots were cast for the particular state or county measure or public office specified in the demand for a recount, or shall direct the official or officials who conducted the final canvass of votes or other final compilation of the result of the election in which ballots were cast for the particular city or other political subdivision or public corporation measure or public office specified in the demand for a recount, to conduct a recount of such ballots. If the demand for a recount is filed pursuant to subsection (1) of ORS 251.520, the Secretary of State shall, not later than three days after the filing of the demand, notify the affected candidates by certified or registered mail that a recount is to be made in all precincts in which ballots were cast for the particular public office specified in the demand for a recount. [1955 c.498 §4; 1957 c.218 §3]

251.560 Counting boards; appointment; compensation. (1) Upon receipt of notice from the Secretary of State that a recount is to be made, the county clerk or other official or officials directed to conduct the recount shall appoint from the list of registered electors who voted in the election for which the recount is demanded, as many counting boards as may be necessary to complete the recount within 10 days after the date the demand is filed. No member of the counting boards shall have been a candidate for any office voted upon at the election. The members of any counting board shall not all be members of the same political party.

(2) Each member of the counting board shall be compensated at a rate of not less than $1 per hour and not less than $6 per day. The specific compensation shall be fixed by the county court or board of county commissioners and paid by the county in the case of a state or county public office or measure, by the city in case of a city public office or measure, by any other political subdivision or public corporation in the case of such a subdivision or corporation public office or measure or from the deposit made pursuant to ORS 251.520 in accordance with ORS 251.610. [1955 c.498 §6; 1957 c.218 §4]

251.570 Opening ballot boxes. The county clerk or other official or officials directed to make the recount under ORS 251.550 shall open the ballot boxes containing the ballots to be recounted, and only in the presence of the counting board appointed pursuant to ORS 251.560 and the persons referred to in subsection (2) of ORS 251.580. [1955 c.498 §7; 1957 c.218 §5]

251.580 Making recount and return of results. (1) The counting board shall conduct the recount and return the result thereof in the manner provided by law for the counting and tallying of ballots and returning the result thereof:

(a) In a primary election, if the recount is demanded for ballots cast at a primary election.

(b) In a general election, if the recount is demanded for ballots cast at a special or general election.

(2) The counting board shall, if requested, permit, in the case of a public office, any affected candidate or one person authorized in writing by such candidate and one person authorized in writing by each political party, or, in the case of a measure, one person advocating and one person opposing the measure, to be present to watch the recount. [1955 c.498 §8; 1957 c.218 §6]

251.590 Completion of recount; certifying votes; notification of person demanding recount. (1) The recount shall be completed not later than 10 days after the date the demand is filed.

(2) The county clerk or other official or officials directed to conduct the recount shall not later than two days after the date of completion of the recount:

(a) Certify the abstract of votes recounted and the cost of the recount to the Secretary of State.

(b) Certify the abstract of votes recounted to the official issuing certificates of nomination or election in the case of a public office or to the official responsible for issuing a proclamation in the case of a measure. The official shall then issue certificates of nomination or election to the persons entitled thereto by such recount or shall issue a proclamation, as the case may be.

(c) By mail notify the person who filed the demand for the recount of the result of the recount and the cost of the recount. [1955 c.498 §9; 1957 c.218 §7]

251.600 Recount is official return of election. The abstract of the vote resulting from the recount shall be the official return of the primary, general or special election, as the case may be. [1955 c.498 §10; 1957 c.218 §8]

251.610 Payment of cost of recount. (1) Notwithstanding ORS 162.630 and 291.436, or any other provision of law, the Secretary of State may retain any deposit made pursuant to ORS 251.520, for not more than 60 days after the election for which the recount was demanded, without depositing such deposit in the State Treasury.

(2) If the abstract of the vote resulting from the recount shows that the measure for which the recount was demanded received a majority of the votes or that the candidate for whose benefit the recount was demanded received a plurality of the votes for the particular public office for which his name appeared on the ballot, the deposit required by ORS 251.520 shall be refunded by the Secretary of State to the person who filed the demand.

(3) If the abstract of the vote resulting from the recount shows that the measure for which the recount was demanded did not receive a majority of the votes or that the candidate for whose benefit the recount was demanded did not receive a plurality of the votes for the office for which his name appeared on the ballot, the Secretary of State shall remit the deposit required by ORS 251.520 and any additional amount paid pursuant to subsection (5) of this section, to the State Treasurer who shall credit the amounts so received to a special account in the State Treasury. All such moneys deposited in such special account hereby are appropriated for the purpose of reimbursing the county, city or other political subdivision or public corporation, as the case may be, for the cost of the recount.

(4) Upon receipt from the county clerk or other official or officials directed to conduct the recount of a signed certificate itemizing the cost of the recount, the Secretary of State shall issue his warrants for the amount so certified. Any portion of the deposit required by ORS 251.520 remaining after the cost of the recount has been paid shall be refunded by the State Treasurer to the person who filed the demand upon receipt of a warrant from the Secretary of State showing the amount of the refund to which such person is entitled.

(5) If the cost of the recount exceeds the amount of the deposit required by ORS 251.520, and if the measure for which the recount was demanded or the candidate for whose benefit the recount was demanded did not prevail in the recount, the person who filed the demand shall pay to the Secretary of State the amount of the excess cost. [1955 c.498 §11; 1957 c.218 §9]

251.620 Duties of counting board members. No member of a counting board shall:

(1) Wilfully neglect his duty.

(2) Engage in any corrupt conduct in the discharge of his duty.

(3) Alter or destroy any official ballot cast at any election and recounted pursuant to the provisions of ORS 251.510 to 251.610. [1955 c.498 §14; 1957 c.218 §10]

251.630 to 251.980 [Reserved for expansion]

PENALTIES

251.990 Penalties. Violation of ORS 251.620 is a misdemeanor. [1955 c.498 §15]
