SHORT TITLE; DEFINITIONS; APPLICABILITY

61.005 Short title. ORS 61.005 to 61.950 shall be known and may be cited as the "Oregon Nonprofit Corporation Law." [1959 c.580 §1]

61.010 [Repealed by 1959 c.580 §104]

61.011 Definitions. As used in ORS 61.005 to 61.950, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Anniversary" means that day each year exactly one or more years after:

(a) The date on the certificate of incorporation issued under ORS 61.315, in the case of a domestic corporation.

(b) The date on the certificate of authority to transact business in this state issued under ORS 61.680, in the case of a foreign corporation.

(2) "Articles of incorporation" includes the original or restated articles of incorporation, special laws or charters corresponding thereto, all amendments thereto and articles of merger.

(3) "Board of directors" means the group of persons vested with the management of the affairs of the corporation irrespective of the name by which such group is designated.

(4) "Bylaws" means the code or codes of rules adopted for the regulation or management of the affairs of the corporation irrespective of the name or names by which such rules are designated.

(5) "Corporation" or "domestic corporation" means a nonprofit corporation subject to the provisions of ORS 61.005 to 61.950 except a foreign corporation.

(6) "Foreign corporation" means a nonprofit corporation organized under laws other than the laws of this state.

(7) "Member" means one having membership rights in a corporation in accordance with the provisions of its articles of incorporation or bylaws.

(8) "Nonprofit corporation" means a corporation no part of the income of which is distributable to its members, directors or officers. [1959 c.580 §2]

61.015 Applicability. The provisions of ORS 61.005 to 61.950 relating to domestic corporations shall apply to:

(1) All corporations organized hereunder.

(2) All nonprofit corporations heretofore organized for a purpose or purposes for which a corporation might be organized under ORS 61.005 to 61.950 which were organized under or were otherwise subject to the provisions of any Act hereby repealed, subject to the following limitations:

(a) A corporation subject to ORS 61.310, 61.320, 61.330, 61.340, 61.350, 61.360, 61.470, 61.480, 61.490, 61.500, 61.580, 61.590 or 63.060 shall continue to be subject thereto as though the provisions thereof applicable to such corporation were included in its articles of incorporation. The corporation shall have the power to amend or eliminate such provisions in the manner provided in ORS 61.005 to 61.950 for amendment of articles of incorporation. The corporation may, but shall not be required to, amend its articles of incorporation immediately to set out such provisions. If the corporation desires in the future to amend its articles in any respect, it must restate its articles in a form consonant with the provisions of ORS 61.005 to 61.950. After such amendment, the provisions of this paragraph shall no longer apply to the corporation.

(b) Any corporation subject to the provisions of ORS chapter 63 and having authorized capital stock shall elect whether to be governed by ORS 61.005 to 61.950, by ORS chapter 57, or by ORS chapter 62. Such election shall be made by the adoption and filing of a statement of election. Such statement shall be adopted and filed in the manner provided in ORS chapter 57 for amending articles of incorporation. The corporation shall, at the time such statement is adopted, designate a registered office and appoint a registered agent whose office shall be the registered office. In addition to the information otherwise required by law, there shall be filed with the statement of election the address, including street and number, of the registered office, and the name of the registered agent at such address, and the names and addresses, including street and number, of its officers and directors, and a statement of the number of authorized shares of stock, the number issued, and the number outstanding, and, if the corporation elects to be subject to ORS 61.005 to 61.950, a statement that all issued and outstanding shares will be canceled when the election becomes effective, and that after such date the authority of the corporation to issue shares or declare dividends shall cease. Upon issuance by the Corporation Commissioner of the certificate of election, the election shall become effective and the corporation shall be subject to the elected statute in all respects as though organized thereunder. The holders of any shares of stock who surrendered them pursuant to an election to accept ORS 61.005 to 61.950 shall become members of the corporation with one vote each or the number of votes they previously were entitled to cast as stockholders, whichever is greater, until the corporation by proper corporate action pursuant to the provisions of ORS 61.005 to 61.950 shall otherwise prescribe. In the event a corporation subject to ORS chapter 63 and having capital stock shall fail to make the election required by this section within one year after December 31, 1959, it shall automatically be subject to the provisions of ORS chapter 57. Prior to the issuance of a certificate of election, or the expiration of one year from December 31, 1959, whichever shall first occur, such corporation shall be subject only to the provisions of ORS chapter 63.

(c) Not later than 120 days after December 31, 1959, the Corporation Commissioner shall mail to each corporation organized and existing under or subject to any repealed sections, at the last address shown on his records for each such corporation, the following: A copy of the repealed sections apparently applicable to the corporation as such sections existed at the time of repeal; and a copy of the provisions of ORS 61.005 to 61.950 concerning the applicability of such repealed sections to such corporation; and a letter of instructions calling the attention of the corporation to the effect of ORS 61.005 to 61.950, the steps, if any, immediately required by it to conform hereto, and the consequences, if any, from its failure to take such steps. The Corporation Commissioner shall file in the permanent file of the corporation a copy of the material sent to the corporation as herein provided. If it is impossible from the commissioner's records to determine the repealed sections applicable to any corporation, a copy of all sections, with suitable explanation, shall be sent. If the corporation has no officers, such individual may perform any act, including, but not limited to, the execution of any instrument, as required under ORS 61.005 to 61.950 or otherwise, in the same manner and with the same effect as though such act were performed by one or more officers of the corporation. (15) To cease its corporate activities and surrender its corporate franchise.

(16) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized. [1959 c.580 §6]

61.065 Assertion of ultra vires. No act of a corporation and no conveyance or transfer of real or personal property to or by a corporation shall be invalid by reason of the fact that the corporation was without capacity or power to do such act or to make or receive such conveyance or transfer, but such lack of capacity or power may be asserted:

(1) In a proceeding by a member or a director against the corporation to enjoin the doing or continuation of unauthorized acts, or the transfer of real or personal property by or to the corporation. If the unauthorized acts or transfer sought to be enjoined are being, or are to be, performed pursuant to any contract to which the corporation is a party, the court may, if all of the parties to the contract are parties to the proceeding and if it deems the same to be equitable, set aside and enjoin the performance of such contract, and in so doing may allow to the corporation or the other parties to the contract, as the case may be, compensation for the loss or damage sustained by either of them which may result from the action of the court in setting aside and enjoining the performance of such contract, but anticipated profits to be derived from the performance of the contract shall not be considered by the court as a loss or damage sustained.

(2) In a proceeding by the corporation, whether acting directly or through a receiver, trustee, or other legal representative, or through members in a representative suit, against the officers or directors or former officers or directors of the corporation for exceeding their authority.

(3) In a proceeding by the Attorney General to enjoin the corporation from performing unauthorized acts. [1959 c.580 §7]

(2) An annual meeting of the members shall be held at such time as may be provided in the bylaws. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work a forfeiture or dissolution of the corporation.

(3) Special meetings of the members may be called by the president or by the board of directors. Special meetings of the members may also be called by such officers or persons or number or proportion of members as may be provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. In the absence of a provision fixing the number or proportion of members entitled to call a meeting, a special meeting of members may be called by members having one-twentieth of the votes entitled to be cast at such meeting. [1959 c.580 §14]

(2) A member may vote in person or, unless the articles of incorporation or the bylaws otherwise provide, may vote by proxy executed in writing by the member or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after 11 months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Where directors or officers are to be elected by members, the bylaws may provide that such elections may be conducted by mail.

(3) The articles of incorporation may provide that in all elections for directors every member entitled to vote shall have the right to cumulate his vote and to give one candidate a number of votes equal to his vote multiplied by the number of directors to be elected, or by distributing such votes on the same principle among any number of such candidates. [1959 c.580 §16]

61.115 Quorum. (1) The vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the members present or represented by proxy at a meeting at which a quorum is present, shall be necessary for the adoption of any matter voted upon by the members, unless a greater proportion is required by ORS 61.005 to 61.950, the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

(2) Those members present at any annual or special meeting of members constitute a quorum at the meeting, unless the bylaws of the corporation provide that a greater number constitutes a quorum. [1959 c.580 §17]

61.121 Board of directors. The business affairs of a corporation shall be managed by a board of directors. Subject to such limitation, the number of directors shall be fixed by the bylaws, except as to the number of the first board of directors which number shall be fixed by the articles of incorporation. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to the bylaws, unless the articles of incorporation provide that a change in the number of directors shall be made only by amendment of the articles of incorporation. No decrease in number shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. In the absence of a bylaw fixing the number of directors, the number shall be the same as that stated in the articles of incorporation.

(2) The directors constituting the first board of directors shall be named in the articles of incorporation and shall hold office until the first annual election of directors or for such other period as may be specified in the articles of incorporation. Thereafter, directors shall be elected or appointed in the manner and for the terms set forth in the articles of incorporation, provided that the bylaws may permit such elections to be conducted by mail. In the absence of a provision fixing the term of office, the term of office of a director shall be one year.

(3) Directors may be divided into classes and the terms of office of the several classes need not be uniform. Each director shall hold office for the term for which he is elected or appointed and until his successor shall have been elected or appointed to take office.

(4) A director may be removed from office pursuant to any procedure therefor provided in the articles of incorporation. [1959 c.580 §19]

61.130 [Repealed by 1959 c.580 §104]

61.131 Vacancies in board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors and any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum of the board of directors, unless the articles of incorporation or the bylaws provide that a vacancy or directorship so created shall be filled in some other manner, in which case such provision shall control. A director elected or appointed, as the case may be, to fill a vacancy shall be elected or appointed for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office. [1959 c.580 §20]

61.135 Quorum of directors. (d) Nothing herein contained shall relieve any such reinstated corporation from penalty of forfeiture of its powers as a body corporate in case of failure to pay subsequently accruing licenses and taxes imposed by any law of this state.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect any suits now pending by or against any corporation which has been dissolved by proclamation, nor any suit now pending or hereafter brought for any liability against the stockholders or officers thereof, or to revive any charter or corporation previously dissolved or revoked, nor to make valid any defective organization of any corporation.

(g) Such additional information as may be necessary or appropriate in order to enable the Corporation Commissioner to determine whether such corporation is entitled to a certificate of authority to transact business in this state.

(2) Such application shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the Corporation Commissioner and shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such application. such statutory merger was effected. It shall not be necessary for such corporation to procure either a new or amended certificate of authority to transact business in this state unless the name of such corporation be changed thereby or unless the corporation desires to pursue in this state any purposes other than those which it is then authorized to pursue in this state. [1959 c.580 §74]

(e) A misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit or other document submitted by such corporation pursuant to ORS 61.005 to 61.950.

(2) No certificate of authority of a foreign corporation shall be revoked unless:

(a) The Corporation Commissioner shall have given the corporation not less than 60 days' notice thereof by mail addressed to its principal office, and 61.735 Procedure for revoking certificate of authority. (1) On or before the first Monday in January in each year the Corporation Commissioner shall report to the Governor a list of all foreign corporations which have given cause for revocation of their certificates of authority. The Governor shall forthwith issue his proclamation declaring the right of such foreign corporation to do business in this state revoked.

(2) No person shall exercise or attempt to exercise any power under the authority given to any foreign corporation after the issuance of the proclamation revoking its authority to transact business in this state.

(3) All powers conferred by law upon such foreign corporation are thereby withdrawn unless the Governor, for good cause shown to him, shall give further time for the filing of the statement and the payment of any fee or penalty required, in which case a certificate of such extension of time shall be filed by the Governor in the office of the Corporation Commissioner stating the reasons therefor.

(4) The proclamation of the Governor shall be filed in the office of the Corporation Commissioner and published in such newspapers and for such length of time as the Corporation Commissioner shall prescribe. The Corporation Commissioner shall indorse on the application for certificate of authority of each foreign corporation that its right to transact business in this state has been revoked.

(5) Whenever it is established to the satisfaction of the Governor that any foreign corporation named in the proclamation referred to herein has not in fact given cause for revocation of its certificate of authority, the Governor shall reinstate such corporation by filing his proclamation to that effect in the office of the Corporation Commissioner.

(6) If any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state has such right to transact business revoked in the manner hereinabove provided for, the Governor, by and with the advice of the Attorney General, may at any time, upon payment by such foreign corporation to the Corporation Commissioner of the sum fixed by the Governor, reinstate the corporation and restore it to all its franchises and privileges. The sum fixed by the Governor shall in no case be less than the amount delinquent. Upon such payment the Corporation Commissioner shall issue his certificate entitling the foreign corporation to resume its business and its franchises.

(7) The reinstated foreign corporation is not by reason of such reinstatement, relieved from any penalty of forfeiture of its powers as a body corporate in case of failure to pay subsequently accruing fees and taxes imposed by any law of this state.

(8) Nothing hereinabove contained shall be construed to affect any suit or action brought for any liability against the members or officers of any foreign corporation, nor to revive any certificate of authority of a foreign corporation previously revoked, nor to make valid any defective authorization of any foreign corporation to transact business within this state.

(9) Suits and actions upon choses in action arising out of contracts sold or assigned by any foreign corporation whose right to transact business has been revoked as hereinabove provided may be brought or prosecuted in the name of the purchaser or assignee. The fact of sale or assignment and of purchase by the plaintiff shall be set forth in the writ or other process. The defendant may avail himself of any matter of defense of which he might have availed himself in a suit upon the claim by the foreign corporation, had its right to transact business been revoked. No action, suit or proceeding shall be maintained in any court of this state by any successor or assignee of such corporation on any right, claim or demand arising out of the transaction of business by such corporation in this state, until a certificate of authority shall have been obtained by such corporation or by a corporation which has acquired all or substantially all its assets.

(2) The failure of a foreign corporation to obtain a certificate of authority to transact business in this state shall not impair the validity of any contract or act of such corporation, and shall not prevent such corporation from defending any action, suit or proceeding in any court of this state. [1959 c.580 §81]

61.750 [Reserved for expansion]

CEMETERIES AND CREMATORIES

61.755 Lands of cemetery or crematory corporation; exemption from execution, taxation and condemnation. A nonprofit corporation organized and existing solely for the purposes of either owning and operating a cemetery or cremating dead bodies and burying and caring for incinerate remains, may purchase or take, by gift or devise, and own and hold lands for the sole purpose of either a cemetery or a crematory and burial place for incinerate remains. Such lands shall be exempt from execution and taxation, and from any appropriation for public purposes, and lots or portions of such land and space in any buildings thereon may be sold, if intended to be used exclusively for burial purposes, and in no wise with a view to the profit of the members of such corporation. The land so held for cemetery purposes shall not exceed 600 acres, but if the land already held for such purpose by the corporation is all practically used, the amount thereof may be increased by adding thereto not more than 20 acres at any one time. The land so held for the purposes of a crematory and the burial of incinerate remains shall not exceed 30 acres, but if the land already held for such purposes by the corporation is all practically used, the amount thereof may be increased by adding thereto not more than 10 acres at any one time. [1959 c.580 §95]

61.760 Revenues; restrictions on uses thereof. (1) A nonprofit corporation organized or existing solely for the purposes of either owning and operating a cemetery or cremating dead bodies and burying and caring for incinerate remains may, by its bylaws, provide that a stated percentage of the money received from the sale of lots and burial space, cremation of bodies, donations, gifts or other sources of revenue shall constitute an irreducible fund. This fund may be invested in such manner or loaned upon such securities as the corporation or its directors deem proper. The interest or income arising from the irreducible fund provided for in this section or by any bylaws, or so much thereof as is necessary, shall be devoted exclusively to the preservation and embellishment of the grounds, buildings and property of the corporation and the lots and space in buildings or grounds sold to the members of the corporation, or to the payment of the interest or principal of the debts authorized by subsection (2) of this section for the purchase of land, erecting buildings, and improvements. Any surplus thereof not needed or used for such purposes shall be invested as provided in this section and shall become part of the irreducible fund. Any bylaw enacted for the creation of the irreducible fund cannot thereafter be amended, except for the purpose of increasing the fund. After paying for the land and the erection of the original buildings and improvements thereon, all the future receipts and income of the corporation subject to the provisions in this section relating to the creation of an irreducible fund, whether from the sale of lots and burial space, cremation of bodies, donations, gifts and other sources, shall be applied exclusively to laying out, preserving, protecting, embellishing and beautifying the cemetery or the crematory and grounds thereof, and the avenues leading thereto, and to the erection of such buildings and improvements as may be necessary or convenient for cemetery or crematory purposes, and to pay the necessary expenses of the corporation.

(2) No debts shall be contracted by such corporation in anticipation of any future receipts, except for originally purchasing the lands authorized to be purchased by it, laying out and embellishing the grounds and avenues, erecting buildings and vaults on such land, and improving them for the purposes of the corporation. The corporation may issue bonds or notes for debts so contracted and may secure them by way of mortgage upon any of its lands, buildings, property and improvements excepting lots or space conveyed to the members. [1959 c.580 §96]

61.765 Selling land unsuited for burials. If in the board of directors' opinion, any portion of the lands of a nonprofit corporation organized and existing solely for the purposes of either owning or operating a cemetery or the cremation of dead bodies and the burial and care of incinerate remains is unsuitable for burial purposes or other purposes of the corporation, the board of directors may sell such portion and apply the proceeds to the general purposes of such corporation in the same proportion and manner as provided by ORS 61.005 to 61.950. [1959 c.580 §97]

61.770 Burial lots, or space; use, exemption from taxation, execution and liens; lien for purchase price of gravestone. Burial lots or space for burial of incinerate remains in buildings or grounds sold by a nonprofit corporation organized and existing solely for the purposes of either owning and operating a cemetery or cremating dead bodies and burying and caring for incinerate remains shall be for the sole purpose of interment or deposit and safekeeping of incinerate remains. Such lots or space shall be exempt from taxation, execution, attachment or other lien or process, if used as intended by the purchaser thereof from such corporation, or his assigns or representatives, exclusively for burial purposes, and in no wise with a view to profit. The vendor of any gravestone, however, shall not be prevented from having and enforcing a lien thereon for all or part of its purchase price. If a suit is brought to enforce such a lien, the decree therein is enforceable thereafter; and, for the purpose of enabling the lien to be had and enforced, the gravestone shall be deemed personal property and may be severed and removed, under execution and order of sale, from the lot where it is situated and may be sold in the same manner as any other personal property. [1959 c.580 §98]

61.775 Recording plan; power to improve and regulate grounds. A nonprofit corporation organized and existing solely for the purposes of owning and operating a cemetery or cremating dead bodies and burying and caring for incinerate remains shall cause a plan of its land and grounds and of the lots laid out by it and of the niches or burial space in the buildings erected thereon to be made and recorded in the county in which such grounds and land are located, such lots or spaces to be numbered by regular consecutive numbers. Such corporation may inclose, improve, and adorn the grounds, buildings, and avenues, prescribe rules for the designation, improvement and adorning of lots and burial spaces and for erecting monuments, and prohibit any use, division, improvement or adornment of a lot or burial space which it may deem improper.
