The Secretary of State shall audit all duly approved claims incurred in pursuance of law governing child-caring institutions receiving state aid and draw his warrants on the State Treasurer in payment thereof out of the respective appropriations from which the same may be determined to be payable. Before the Secretary of State audits any claim for state aid by any child-caring institution or agency or issues any such warrant, the State Public Welfare Commission shall investigate the claimant institution and records for the period covered for the purpose of determining whether or not it is in fact entitled to state aid as authorized by law for any or all of the persons included in the institution's statement and claim. If as a result of said investigation it is determined that the institution is not entitled to state aid for any of the persons named in or included in the statement of claim, the amount claimed therein and the warrant to be issued thereon shall be reduced accordingly. The State Public Welfare Commission, through its administrator, shall issue an appropriate certificate showing the result of its findings upon the claim of each institution investigated and shall file it with the Secretary of State. The requirement of this section is in addition to the examinations and certifications now required by law of any child-caring institution which receives state aid under any provision of law.

418.570 Refusal of institution to receive child committed to it. No institution that receives state aid for its maintenance shall refuse to accept any child committed to it, unless in the judgment of its governing board the child would materially interfere with or hamper the general work and purpose of the institution. When proper showing is made to the Secretary of State that such an institution refuses to receive the child, he shall withhold state funds appropriated for its maintenance until such time as the institution complies with the order of the court.
