[Amended by 1957 c 408 §1; 1961 c 585 §1]

671.020 Practice of architecture without certificate of registration prohibited; use of stamp; architect to practice under his own name, exceptions. (1) In order to safeguard life, health and property and to eliminate unnecessary loss and waste in this state, no person shall practice the profession of architecture or assume or use the title of architect, or any title, sign, cards or device indicating, or tending to indicate, that such person is practicing architecture or is an architect, or represent in any manner that he is an architect, without first qualifying before the board or obtaining a certificate of registration as provided by ORS 671.010 to 671.220.

[1961 c 585 §3]

671.030 Activities not considered as "practice of architecture." (1) ORS 671.010 to 671.220 shall not be construed to affect or prevent the practice of naval or landscape architecture or of engineering by a registered professional engineer or to any person engaged in architecture or engineering work as an employe of an architect or registered professional engineer; nor shall it prevent draftsmen, clerks of the work, superintendents and other employes of registered architects and registered professional engineers, under provisions of ORS 671.010 to 671.220, from acting under the instructions, control or supervision of their employers. Upon the expiration of this time or upon any change, alteration or addition to the old firm name, the name of the deceased or retired member or partner shall be dropped.

Upon failure to have his certificate renewed during the month of July of each year, the holder thereof shall be deemed to have forfeited his right to practice architecture within Oregon, but the failure to renew his registration in proper time shall not deprive him of his right to renew the certificate either before October 1, without penalty, upon payment of renewal fees or after October 1, upon payment of renewal fees plus a penalty of $1 for each month or fraction thereof during which the default continues after October 1. Any person who fails to pay the renewal fee, with accrued penalties, for a period of one year, shall forfeit the right to practice architecture in this state and may be reinstated as an architect only upon passing the examinations and paying the fees required for securing an original certificate of registration as an architect. A registered architect, giving up his practice in this state while he is in good standing with the board, may resume his

(8) Upon proof that the holder of the certificate of registration received, unbeknown to a party for whom he is doing work, rebates, commissions, grants of moneys or favors which he is not entitled to or justified in receiving.

(9) Upon proof that the holder of the certificate is practicing contrary to the provisions and requirements of ORS 671.010 to 671.220.

671.100 Revocation of certificates or disciplinary action by board. (1) The board may revoke, suspend or annul the certificate of registration to practice architecture in this state of an architect, or reprimand, censure or otherwise discipline an architect, as provided in this section.

(2) Any person may prefer charges against a holder of a certificate of registration to practice architecture. The charges shall be in writing and sworn to by the complainant. They shall be forwarded to the board which shall act on the charges at its next regular meeting. Any person who is a holder of a certificate of registration, or who is an applicant for a certificate of registration, against whom any of the grounds for revoking or refusing a certificate of registration set forth in ORS 671.090 is presented to the board with a view of having the board revoke or refuse to grant a certificate of registration, shall be furnished with a copy of the complaint and shall have a hearing before the board in person or by attorney. The secretary shall, within 10 days after the service of the notice of appeal and the filing and approval of the appeal bond, transmit the record to the clerk of the circuit court, together with the bond and notice of appeal. The clerk of the court shall thereupon docket the appeal cause, and it shall stand for trial in all respects as an ordinary civil action, and proceedings be had thereon as in a suit in equity. The court may affirm or reverse the decision of the board or may remand the cause to the board for further proceedings.

(3) Either party may appeal from the judgment of the circuit court to the Supreme Court in like manner as in civil actions. No costs shall be adjudged or taxed against the board.

671.130 Board members; appointment; terms; oath; filling vacancies; removal. Annually, upon the expiration of the term of a board member, the Governor shall appoint one architect possessing the qualifications prescribed in ORS 671.120 as a member of the board to serve for a period of five years. Each member of the board shall take and subscribe an oath of office calling for the faithful performance of duty and shall file the oath with the Secretary of State. The Governor, by appointment, shall fill any vacancy on the board caused by death, or otherwise, the appointee to serve for the unexpired term. The Governor may remove at will for inefficiency, or neglect of duty, any member of the board.

The mileage and other incidental expenses necessarily connected with the board shall be paid only out of the funds of the board

[Amended by 1957 c 408 §6]

671.200 Bond of treasurer. The treasurer of the board shall give bond in such sum and with such sureties as the board may deem proper. The bond shall be approved by the Attorney General and filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

(2) If the board decides that any person has or is about to engage in an activity that is or will be a violation of any provision of ORS 671.020 or 671.040, the board may institute a proceeding in an appropriate circuit court to restrain the activity or proposed activity. An injunction may be issued without proof of actual damages, but does not relieve the defendant from criminal prosecution for violation of ORS 671.010 to 671.220. The board may employ special counsel for the proceeding or, upon request of the board, the district attorney for the county in which the proceeding is to be brought shall enforce this subsection.
