A prosecution for the crime of adultery may only be commenced upon the complaint of the husband or wife, or if the crime is committed with an unmarried female under the age of 20 years, upon the complaint of the wife, or of a parent or guardian of the unmarried female. The complaint shall be filed within one year from the time of committing the crime, or the time when the crime comes to the knowledge of such husband, wife, parent or guardian. When the crime of adultery is committed between a married woman and an unmarried man, the man shall be deemed guilty of adultery also, and be punished accordingly.

A subsequent marriage of the parties is a defense to a violation of this section.
