Every state bank or trust company in this state shall be under the supervision and subject to the inspection of the Superintendent of Banks. The Superintendent of Banks or a duly appointed examiner shall visit every such bank or trust company at least once in every calendar year and whenever the Superintendent of Banks deems it necessary or expedient, and make a complete and careful examination of the condition and resources of such bank or trust company, the mode of managing its business and conducting its affairs, the action of its officers and directors in the investment and disposition of its funds, the safety and prudence of its management, its policy of transacting business, the security afforded to those by whom its engagements are held, whether such bank or trust company is complying with the laws of this state and such other matters as the Superintendent of Banks may prescribe. Any trust company which does not transact a banking business, or a corporation transacting a trust business, may be examined once each year by the Superintendent of Banks or any duly appointed examiner, or at such other times as may be designated or determined by the Superintendent of Banks.

706.510 Special examination of banks and trust companies. Whenever, in the judgment of the Superintendent of Banks, the condition of any bank or trust company renders it necessary or expedient to make an extra examination or to devote any extraordinary attention to its affairs, the Superintendent of Banks may make any extra or necessary examinations and devote any necessary extra attention to the conduct of its affairs. Such bank or trust company shall pay for all such extra services rendered by the Superintendent of Banks at the actual per diem cost and expenses of each man who may be engaged in such special service at the direction of the Superintendent of Banks.

706.520 Request by directors or stockholders for examination. When requested in writing upon authority of the board of directors or stockholders owning a majority of the capital stock of any bank or trust company, the Superintendent of Banks shall, if in his opinion such examination is desirable, make or cause to be made an examination into the affairs and conditions of such bank or trust company. For such examination such bank or trust company shall pay the same fees as provided for other examinations.

706.530 Fees and percentages for examination of banks and trust companies. (1) The Superintendent of Banks shall collect from each bank or trust company for each examination thereof, or for any special

(2) In addition to the fees set forth in subsection (1) of this section, such bank or trust company shall pay at the same time an amount equal to one one-hundredth of one percent of its total resources, excepting the deposits of the state made by the State Treasurer in the designated active depository of the state.

706.540 Fees and percentages for examination of trust departments and trusts held by banks and trust companies. The Superintendent of Banks shall collect for each examination of the trust department or trusts held by any bank or trust company, an amount regulated by the amount of bonds or securities pledged with the Superintendent of Banks under the provisions of ORS 709.030, 709.040, 709.310 and 709.320, according to the schedule set forth in ORS 706.530 for capital and surplus of banks, and, in addition thereto, an amount equal to one one-hundredth of one percent of its total trust resources, excepting real estate held in trust. In determining the total trust resources all trust assets shall be figured at the reasonable or market value. In addition to the fees and percentages set forth above in this section, the Superintendent of Banks shall collect an amount equal to one five-hundredth of one percent of the total bonds or notes outstanding under corporate bonds or note issues for which the bank or trust company is acting as trustee. Trust companies organized prior to June 3, 1913, which do not deposit cash or securities with the Superintendent of Banks shall pay such a fee as would be required if incorporated after June 3, 1913.

706.550 Reduction of examination fees. The Banking Division may, from time to time, as it may appear to the division advisable, fix the fees to be collected for the examination of banks or trust companies at a lesser sum than provided in ORS 706.530 and 706.540.

[Amended by 1963 c.580 §80]

Note: The 1963 amendment to ORS 706.550 becomes operative not later than July 1, 1964.

706.560 Appraisal of securities and audit by superintendent. (1) When a bank or trust company has been examined by an examiner and he finds securities therein which are, in his judgment, of doubtful value, he shall report the same to the Superintendent of Banks, who thereupon may, at the expense of such bank or trust company, investigate and appraise the securities.

(2) The Superintendent of Banks may, in his discretion, or whenever requested to do so by any bank or trust company, make an audit of the affairs of such bank or trust company. The compensation for making such audit shall be paid by the bank or trust company at the same per diem and expenses as allowed examiners.

706.570 Requiring bank or trust company to keep proper records and accounts; civil penalty. (1) If upon examination of any bank or trust company it appears to the Superintendent of Banks that such bank or trust company does not keep books and accounts in such a manner as to enable him or his examiners to readily ascertain the true condition of such bank or trust company, he may require any officer of such bank or trust company to open and keep such books or accounts as he, in his discretion, may determine and prescribe for the purpose of keeping accurate and convenient records of the transactions and accounts of such bank or trust company.

(2) Any bank or trust company that refuses and neglects to open and keep such books and accounts as may be prescribed by the Superintendent of Banks is subject to a penalty of $10 for each day it neglects or fails to open and keep such books and accounts after receiving notice from the Superintendent of Banks. Such penalty shall be paid by such bank or trust company upon receiving notice and demand for the amount of the penalty from the Superintendent of Banks. If the bank or trust company delays or refuses to pay any such penalties upon demand by the Superintendent of Banks, the Superintendent of Banks may maintain an action in his name against the delinquent bank or trust company for the recovery of the penalty. All sums collected by such action for penalties imposed by this section shall be paid into the State Treasury for the account of the State Banking Fund.

706.580 Illegal or unsafe practices; ordering discontinuance. When it appears to the Superintendent of Banks from any examination or report that any bank or trust company has committed any violation of the law, or is conducting its business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner, he shall, by an order in writing, direct the discontinuance of such illegal or unsafe or unauthorized practices and enforce strict conformity to the requirements of the law.

706.590 Refusal to obey orders or submit records; action taken by superintendent. If any bank or trust company neglects or refuses to observe any order of the Superintendent of Banks, as provided in ORS 706.580, or refuses to submit its books, papers and concerns to the inspection of any examiner, or if any officer thereof refuses to be examined upon oath touching the affairs of any such bank or trust company, the Superintendent of Banks may forthwith take possession of the property and business of such bank and retain such possession until such bank or trust company resumes business or its affairs are liquidated in the manner provided in ORS chapter 711 in the case of insolvent banks.

706.600 Taking possession and control of bank or trust company by superintendent. Whenever it appears to the Superintendent of Banks that it is unsafe or inexpedient for any bank or trust company to continue to transact business, or that extraordinary withdrawals of money are jeopardizing the interests of remaining depositors, or that any director or officer has abused his trust or has been guilty of misconduct or malversation in his official position injurious to the institution, or that such bank or trust company has suffered a serious loss by fire, floods, burglary, disaster, repudiation or otherwise, he may, in his discretion, take immediate possession and control of the property and affairs of such bank or trust company and take such action as, in his judgment, will best protect the interests of its creditors.

706.610 Insolvency; failure of examiner to report. No examiner of the Banking Division, having knowledge of the insolvency or unsafe condition of any bank or trust company, under the provisions of the Bank Act, and that it is unsafe and inexpedient to permit such bank or trust company to continue business, shall fail to forthwith report such fact in writing, over his signature, to the Superintendent of Banks.

The Superintendent of Banks may call for special reports from any bank or trust company whenever, in his judgment, the same are necessary to fully inform him of the condition of the bank or trust company. Such penalty shall be paid by the bank or trust company upon receiving notice or demand for the amount of the penalty from the Superintendent of Banks. 706.670 Report of dividend declaration. Within 10 days after the declaration of any dividend, every state bank or trust company shall forward to the Superintendent of Banks a report of such dividend declared. This report shall also be again included in the report of earnings, expenses and dividends of December 31 of each year.

706.680 Failure to make reports of earnings and dividends and dividend declarations. Failure of any bank, banker or trust company to make and submit any report required by ORS 706.660 or 706.670 shall subject the bank, banker or trust company to a penalty of $10 for each day such reports are delayed beyond the time allowed by ORS 706.660 or 706.670, such penalty to be collected in the manner provided in ORS 706.570.

706.690 Transfer of stock or controlling interest; notice to and approval by superintendent. (1) Whenever, in the opinion of the Superintendent of Banks, the condition of any bank or trust company is such that any transfer of the capital stock of such bank or trust company would jeopardize the interest of its depositors, the Superintendent of Banks shall require that when any shares of the capital stock of the bank or trust company are to be transferred on the books or records of the bank or trust company, the officer or officers proposing to make the transfer shall report in writing to the Superintendent of Banks such proposed transfer of stock. No transfer thereof shall be made without first obtaining the written consent thereto of the Superintendent of Banks.

(2) Whenever stock representing the controlling interest in any bank or trust company is to be sold, exchanged or otherwise disposed of, the Superintendent of Banks immediately shall be notified in writing by the vendor. No transfer of such stock shall be entered upon the books of the bank or become effective until 30 days after notice has been received at the office of the Superintendent of Banks or until such sale, exchange or other disposition has been approved and consented to in writing by the Superintendent of Banks.

The responsibility and liability of such officer for the proper conduct of such bank or trust company shall continue in all respects for a period of 30 days after the notice has been received at the office of the Super-
