(2) The request for approval shall be made by filing a registration statement, as provided in ORS 59.065, with a detailed statement of the plan. The commissioner shall set the plan down for hearing and require the proponents of the plan to give notice of the hearing to all persons to whom securities are to be issued in such exchange. All such persons shall have the right to appear at the hearing.

(3) The commissioner shall, after the hearing, consider the fairness of the terms and conditions of the plan, and, if he finds that the plan is fair, just and equitable and free from fraud, he shall approve it, subject to such conditions, limitations and restrictions as he may impose. If he finds that the plan is unfair, unjust or inequitable or not free from fraud, he shall deny the request, and give notice of the denial, at the expense of the proponents, to all persons who were entitled to receive or received notice of the hearing.

Any person held liable under this section shall be entitled to contribution from those jointly and severally liable with him.

(4) Any tender specified in this section may be made at any time before entry of judgment.

(1) Neither the fact that an application for registration under the Oregon Securities Law has been filed nor the fact that a person or security is effectively registered constitutes a finding by the commissioner that any document filed under the Oregon Securities Law is true, complete and not misleading. Neither such fact nor the fact that an exemption or exception is available for a security or a transaction means that the commissioner has passed in any way upon the merits or qualifications of, or recommended or given approval to, any person, security or transaction.

(2) It is unlawful to make, or cause to be made, to a prospective purchaser, customer or client a representation inconsistent with subsection (1) of this section.

59.175 Application for registration; examination; bond; fees. (1) A broker-dealer or investment adviser may register or renew a registration by filing an application. A salesman shall be registered or his registration renewed by the filing of such an application by the broker-dealer, investment adviser, issuer or owner of securities desiring to employ the salesman.

(2) The application shall contain such information and exhibits as the commissioner may require upon forms furnished or approved by the commissioner and shall be accompanied with the fees required by subsection (8) of this section. (3) The commissioner may require an applicant for registration as a broker-dealer or investment adviser, including the applicant's partners, directors, officers or any person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, and any person directly or indirectly controlling such applicant and a person for whom application for registration as a salesman is made, to pass an examination on such person's knowledge and understanding of the Oregon Securities Law and the securities business.

(4) The commissioner may make such further examination of the applicant and its affairs as he deems advisable and may require by rule or order that the applicant publish an announcement of the application in such manner as the commissioner may specify.

(5) Every applicant for registration as a broker-dealer or investment adviser shall file with the commissioner a corporate surety bond satisfactory to the commissioner running to the State of Oregon in the sum of $10,000.

(6) If the application, surety bond and fees are in order and the commissioner is satisfied that the application should not be denied upon one or more of the grounds specified in ORS 59.205 to 59.225, the commissioner shall issue an order of registration or renewal.

(7) Registration of a broker-dealer, investment adviser, or of a security automatically constitutes registration as a salesman of any person who is actively engaged in the management of the business of the registrant and who is specified in the order of registration.

(8) The Corporation Commissioner shall charge and collect for:

(a) Registration of a broker-dealer or investment adviser, an examination fee of $50 and an initial registration fee of $5 for each month or fraction thereof from the time of registration until the following July 1, up to a maximum of $50;

(1) Unless renewed, every registration of a broker-dealer, salesman or investment adviser shall expire on the June 30 following the date of registration. The commissioner shall renew each such registration for the ensuing year upon the filing of a renewal application not later than the date of expiration. No renewal of registration pursuant to this subsection shall bar action by the commissioner under ORS 59.205 to 59.225.

(2) The registration of a salesman shall terminate when the broker-dealer, investment adviser, issuer or owner of securities who registered the salesman files with the commissioner written notice of termination.

(3) If there is a change in the partners, directors, officers, persons occupying similar positions or performing similar functions, or persons directly or indirectly controlling a broker-dealer or investment adviser, written notification of such change shall promptly be filed with the commissioner. No fee shall be required for such notification. An examination may be required of any such individual who is newly connected with or interested in the registrant.

All such records shall be preserved for three years unless the commissioner by rule prescribes otherwise. The commissioner may examine all such records within or without this state at any reasonable time or times and may, without subpoena require the production of such records at the office of the commissioner as often as is reasonably necessary and, in any event, during consideration of any application for registration or during any proceeding under ORS 59.205 to 59.225.

The provisions of this section and of any section of the Oregon Securities Law relating to the examination of any such person shall extend to any broker-dealer, salesman or investment adviser whose registration has expired or has been withdrawn, canceled, suspended or revoked, if, in the judgment of the commissioner, such person may have violated any condition of an order of registration, any provision of the Oregon Securities Law, any rule or order of the commissioner or may have committed a fraud, or is insolvent. (3) If the deficiency in assets or capital has not been made good or the unsound condition remedied within 60 days from the date when the commissioner or receiver took possession, the property, business and assets of such person located in this state shall be liquidated. If a receiver has not been appointed, the commissioner shall apply for such appointment by the court in which the inventory was filed. The liquidation shall proceed as provided by law for liquidation of a private corporation in receivership.

(4) The expenses of the receiver and compensation of counsel, as well as all expenditures required in the liquidation proceedings, shall be fixed by the commissioner, subject to the approval of the court, and, upon certification by the commissioner, shall be paid out of the funds in his hands as such receiver.

59.305 Judicial review of orders. (1) A person aggrieved by an order of the commissioner which has been the subject of a timely application for hearing before the commissioner shall be entitled to judicial review of the order under ORS 183.310 to 183.510.

(2) No decree of a reviewing court under ORS 183.310 to 183.510 shall bar the commissioner from thereafter vacating or modifying an order involved in the proceeding for review, or entering any new order, for a proper cause which was not decided by the reviewing court.

Each witness who appears before the commissioner under a subpoena shall receive the fees and mileage provided for witnesses in civil cases.

(2) If a person fails to comply with a subpoena so issued or a party or witness refuses to testify on any matters, the judge of the circuit court of any county, on the application of the commissioner, shall compel obedience by proceedings for contempt as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a subpoena issued from such court or a refusal to testify therein.

(1) The commissioner shall keep a register of all registrations and all denial, suspension or revocation orders entered under the Oregon Securities Law. The register and all applications, registration statements and other information received by the commissioner in connection with the Oregon Securities Law shall be open to public inspection, except for information which, in the opinion of the commissioner, would result in injustice if made public.

(2) The commissioner shall furnish to any person, upon payment of the appropriate fee, copies (certified under seal of the Corporation Division if requested) of any document which is a matter of public record. In a proceeding or prosecution under the Oregon Securities Law, a copy so certified shall be prima facie evidence of the contents of the entry or document certified.

(b) Acceptance is communicated to the offeror in this state, whether or not either party is then present in this state, when the offeree directs it to the offeror in this state reasonably believing the offeror to be in this state and it is received at the place to which it is directed (or at any post office in this state in the case of a mailed acceptance).

(3) An offer to sell or to buy is not made in this state solely because:

(a) A publisher circulates or there is circulated on his behalf in this state any bona fide newspaper or other publication of general, regular, and paid circulation that is not published in this state, or that is published in this state but has had more than two-thirds of its circulation outside this state during the past 12 months; or

59.355 Corporations subject to other laws. Nothing in the Oregon Securities Law relieves a corporation from making reports required by law to be made to the commissioner or to any other state officer, or from paying the fees to be paid by corporations. The Oregon Securities Law:

(1) Does not repeal any law regulating the organization of corporations in this state or the admission of any foreign corporation.

(2) Is additional to any provisions regulating the organization of a corporation under the laws of this state or the admission of a foreign corporation to do business in this state.

59.365 Common-law and statutory rights not limited. Nothing in the Oregon Securities Law limits any statutory or common-law right of a person to bring an action in any court for an act involved in the sale of securities, or the right of the state to punish a person for a violation of any law.

59.375 Validating provisions. (1) The repeal of statutes by chapter 397, Oregon Laws 1939, or by chapter 537, Oregon Laws 1967, does not invalidate any deposits in escrow or contracts entered into by an issuer of securities for the benefit or security of any person. The commissioner shall proceed in all respects touching those contracts and escrows, as though such statutes had not been repealed.

(2) Rights of action conferred or duties, restrictions, liabilities or penalties imposed or required by or under such repealed statutes upon or of any person subject to such repealed statutes before the repeal thereof are not impaired or abrogated by such repeal. However, every person, as to all actions thereafter performed, is subject to the Oregon Securities Law.

(3) The right of a person to institute any action, suit or proceeding for a recovery based upon a violation of, or noncompliance with, any provision of such repealed statutes is barred upon the expiration of a period of three years immediately following the violation or noncompliance.

(4) All effective registrations under such repealed statutes, all administrative orders relating to such registrations and all conditions on such registrations remain in effect so long as they would have remained in effect if ORS 59.005 to 59.375 had not been passed. They are considered to have been filed, entered or imposed under ORS 59.005 to 59.375 but are governed by prior law.

REGULATION OF SALE OF BURIAL SHARES

59.660 Definition of "share." As used in ORS 59.670 and 59.680, "share" includes certificate, right or interest.

59.670 Sale of burial shares; seller's bond. No person shall sell or offer for sale, or otherwise dispose of for value, any share granting or purporting to grant to the purchaser or holder, or to his heirs, children, dependents, members of his family, administrators, survivors, executors or assigns, any right to funeral or burial services contingent upon the death of the purchaser, holder, children, dependents, or members of his family, at a price or cost less than the price or cost open to any person not having such share unless the person selling, offering for sale, or otherwise disposing of any such share shall first file, and keep in force, a bond running to the State or Oregon. This bond shall be in the penal sum of $50,000, with a surety company licensed to do business in this state as surety. The bond shall be approved by and filed with the Corporation Commissioner and conditioned to indemnify the purchaser or holder of the share from any loss sustained or occasioned by any misrepresentation or fraud on the part of the person selling or offering it for sale, or by the failure of any such person to comply with the terms and conditions of the share or any representation made at the time of, or as an inducement for, its purchase or acquisition. In case the purchaser or holder of the share sustains damage or loss from any cause specified in this section, such purchaser or his executors or administrators shall have a cause of action against the principal and surety upon the bond for all damages or loss sustained, together with the costs provided by law and, in addition, a reasonable sum as attorney's fees to be fixed by the court. However, the recovery against the surety shall not exceed the amount of the bond.

59.680 Statement of seller; deposit of cash or securities for purchaser's protection. In addition to the filing of the bond required under ORS 59.670, every such person shall file with the Corporation Commissioner, on or before the tenth day of each month, a sworn statement showing the total amount of money received by him on account of the sale of outstanding and unredeemed shares theretofore issued by him and which were in force on the last day of the preceding month. This statement shall also set forth the name and address of every person who during the preceding month became a purchaser of any such share, together with the amount of money collected thereon and paid or to be paid therefor. The statement shall not be a public record, but shall be only for the information of the Corporation Commissioner and shall not be divulged by him or by anyone having access thereto except in court proceedings involving violation of ORS 59.670 or 59.680. At the time of filing this sworn statement, such person shall also deposit with the State Treasurer cash or securities specified as authorized investments for domestic insurance companies under the insurance laws of this state, in a sum at least equal in value, when added to the securities previously deposited by any such person with the State Treasurer, to 50 percent of the total amount theretofore received by such person on account of such shares. If at any time the securities so deposited are in excess of 50 percent of the amount received on account of the then outstanding and unredeemed shares such person may withdraw the excess, and the State Treasurer is directed to return the excess to the person depositing it. The securities so deposited shall be for the protection of all purchasers, or holders, of any such shares from the respective persons making the deposit, but a deposit by any such person hereunder shall be security only for the performance of his own contract as evidenced by the share sold and disposed of by him. The cash or securities, together with all accrued interest or dividends, shall be held and disposed of in the manner provided by law in respect to cash or securities deposited with the State Treasurer, and he shall be entitled to collect the fees authorized pursuant to state law pertaining to and regulating title insurance.

59.690 Corporation Commissioner may examine books of seller. The Corporation Commissioner is authorized to examine the books and accounts of any person doing business within the purview of ORS 59.670 whenever in his judgment it is necessary to insure a proper enforcement of ORS 59.670 or 59.680, but not more often than once in any six-month period. The reasonable and necessary cost of making the examination shall be borne and paid to the State Treasurer on demand by the persons whose books and accounts are to be examined, to be disposed of as provided by law in similar cases.

59.700 Exemptions from ORS 59.660 to 59.690. ORS 59.660 to 59.690 shall not apply to any funeral or burial right or benefit issued or granted as an incident to membership in any fraternal or benevolent association or society, not organized for profit, or incident to any insurance policy or provision issued by any person authorized to do business in this state. ORS 59.660 to 59.690 shall not apply to anyone engaged only in the furnishing of burial receptacles, nor to anyone participating in the burial of dead human bodies, or conducting funerals without compensation for such services or participation.

PROHIBITION OF CERTAIN SECURITY TRANSACTIONS

59.710 Definitions for ORS 59.710 to 59.830. As used in ORS 59.710 to 59.830, unless the context indicates otherwise:

(1) "Security," "securities" or "securities or commodities," mean and include all evidences of debt or property and options for their purchase, shares in any corporation or association, bonds, coupons, scrip, rights, choses in action, and other evidences of debt or property, and options for their purchase, or anything movable that is bought and sold.

(2) "Broker" means and includes every person who in this state engages, either for all or part of his time, in the business of selling any securities or commodities, or purchasing, or otherwise acquiring securities or commodities from another for the purpose of reselling them or offering them for sale to the public; or in the business of offering, buying or selling, or otherwise dealing or trading in securities or commodities, as agent or principal, for commission or at a profit; and every person who deals in futures or differences in market quotations of prices or values of any securities or commodities, or accepts margins on purchases or sales, or pretended purchases or sales of securities or commodities.

(3) "Bucket shop" means any building, or any room, apartment, booth, office or store therein, or any other place where any contract prohibited by ORS 59.710 to 59.830 is made or offered to be made more than once and in the course of continuing or repeated transactions.

(4) "Bonds" includes the bonds or other evidences of debt of a corporation, company or association.

59.720 Application of ORS 59.710 to 59.830 to real estate contracts and brokers. The provisions of ORS 59.710 to 59.830 shall not apply to any contract, agreement, sale, purchase, lease, conveyance or mortgage pertaining to real estate situated in this state, nor to the business of real estate brokers and salesmen, as defined in ORS 696.010, in so far as such business pertains to real estate located in this state.

59.730 Making contract involving securities without intending a bona fide sale or purchase. No person, whether acting in his own right, or as the officer, agent, servant, correspondent or representative of another, shall, as broker make or offer to make, assist in making or offering to make, perform or take part in any contract respecting the purchase or sale, either upon credit or margin, of any securities or commodities more than once, and in course of continuing or repeated transactions:

(1) Intending that the contract shall be terminated, closed or settled according to, or upon the basis of the public market quotations of or prices made on any board of trade or exchange or market which deals in such commodities or securities, and without intending a bona fide purchase or sale of the same; or

(2) Intending that the contract shall be deemed terminated, closed and settled when the market quotations or prices mentioned in subsection (1) for the securities or commodities named in the contract reach a certain figure, without intending a bona fide purchase or sale of the same; or

(3) Not intending the actual bona fide receipt or delivery of such securities or commodities, but intending a settlement of the contract based upon the difference in the public market quotations or prices, mentioned in subsection (1), at which the securities or commodities are, or are asserted to be, bought or sold. The prosecution, conviction and punishment of a corporation for violation of this section shall not be deemed to be a prosecution, conviction or punishment of any of its officers, directors or stockholders.

59.740 Conducting bucket shop or repeatedly making forbidden contracts. No person shall as owner, keeper, proprietor or person in charge of, or as officer, director, stockholder, agent, servant, correspondent or representative of any person, keep, conduct or operate any bucket shop, or knowingly permit or induce any person, whether acting in his own right or as officer, agent, servant, correspondent or representative of another, to make, offer to make therein, or assist in making or in offering to make therein, any of the contract specified in ORS 59.730, more than once and in the course of continuing or repeated transactions.

59.750 Receipt or communication of prices for purpose of forbidden contract. No person shall receive, communicate, exhibit or display in any manner any statement of quotations or prices of securities or commodities with an intent to make or offer to make, or to assist in making, or offering to make any contract prohibited by ORS 59.720 to 59.810.

59.760 Reporting false sale of securities with intent to deceive. No person shall, with intent to deceive, report or publish, or cause to be reported or published as a purchase or sale of stocks or bonds, any transaction whereby no actual change of ownership or interest is effected.

59.770 Manipulating market by pretended sales. No person shall inflate, depress or cause fluctuations in, or attempt to inflate, depress or cause fluctuations in, or combine or conspire with any other person to inflate, depress or cause fluctuations in, the market prices of stocks or bonds, or of an issue or any part of an issue of such stocks or bonds, by means of pretended purchases and sales, or by any other fictitious transactions or devices, for or on account of any person, whereby either in whole or in part a simultaneous change of ownership of or interest in such stocks or bonds or of such issue or part of an issue thereof, is not effected. A pretended purchase or sale of any stocks or bonds whereby, in whole or in part, no simultaneous change of ownership or interest therein is effected, is prima facie evidence of the violation of this section by the person taking part in the pretended purchase or sale.

59.780 Broker's trading against customer's order; violation of ORS 59.780 to 59.800 by member of broker's firm. (1) No broker, employed by a customer to buy and carry upon margin stocks or bonds, while acting as broker for the customer in respect to such stocks or bonds, shall sell for his own account the same kind or issue of stocks or bonds, with intent to trade against the customer's order.

(2) No broker, employed by a customer to sell stocks or bonds, while acting as broker for the customer in respect to the sale of such stocks or bonds, shall purchase for his own account the same kind or issue of stocks or bonds, with intent to trade against the customer's order.

(3) Every member of a firm of brokers who either does, or consents or assents to the doing of, any act prohibited by this section, ORS 59.790 or 59.800 is guilty of violating the section prohibiting the act.

59.790 Insolvent broker receiving securities from customer. No person engaged in the business of purchasing and selling stocks or bonds as a broker, knowing that he is insolvent, shall accept or receive from a customer ignorant of his insolvency, money, stocks or bonds belonging to the customer, except in liquidation or as security for an existing indebtedness, and thereby cause the customer to lose in whole or in part such money, stocks or bonds. A person shall be deemed insolvent within the meaning of this section whenever the aggregate of his property is not, at a fair valuation, sufficient in amount to pay his debts.

59.800 Pledge or sale by broker of customer's securities. No person engaged in the business of purchasing and selling stocks or bonds as a broker shall:

(1) While having in his possession, for safe keeping or otherwise, stocks or bonds belonging to a customer, without having any lien thereon or any special property therein, pledge or dispose thereof without the customer's consent; or

(2) While having in his possession stocks or bonds belonging to a customer on which he has a lien for indebtedness due to him by the customer, pledge the same for more than the amount due to him thereon, or otherwise dispose thereof for his own benefit, with or without the customer's consent, and without having in his possession or subject to his control, stocks or bonds of the kind and amount to which the customer is then entitled, for delivery to him upon his demand therefor and tender of the amount due thereon, and thereby cause the customer to lose, in whole or in part, such stocks or bonds, or the value thereof; or

(3) Fail, on demand, to deliver to any customer, stocks or bonds owned by the customer, and in the possession of such broker, upon payment or tender of the amount the same was pledged to secure.

59.810 Delivery to customer of true statement of purchase or sale made by broker. No person engaged in the business of purchasing or selling stocks or bonds as a broker shall refuse to deliver to each customer on whose behalf a purchase or sale of such securities is made by him, within five days after written demand therefor made within six months following the purchase or sale, a statement or memorandum of the purchase or sale which is true in all material respects and which contains a description of the securities purchased or sold, the name of the person from whom the securities were purchased or to whom they were sold, and the day and hours between which the transaction took place.

59.820 Actions against corporation for second violation. (1) If a domestic corporation is convicted of a second offense under ORS 59.730 to 59.810, the circuit court has jurisdiction over an action by the Attorney General, in the name of the people, to dissolve the corporation.

(2) If a foreign corporation is convicted of a second offense under ORS 59.730 to 59.810, the circuit court has jurisdiction in an action brought as provided in subsection (1) to restrain the corporation from doing business in this state.

59.830 Self-incrimination by witness; immunity from prosecution. No person shall be excused from attending and testifying, or producing any book, paper or other document before any court or magistrate, upon any trial, investigation or proceeding initiated by the district attorney, grand jury or court for a violation of any of the provisions of ORS 59.730 to 59.810, upon the ground that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to convict him of a crime or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture. However, no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, and no testimony so given or produced shall be received against him in any criminal action, suit or proceeding, investigation, inquisition or inquiry.
