STATE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

184.010 State development program; consulting and coordinating with other agencies. The Governor shall:

(1) Prepare a comprehensive and general state development plan and program, in guide form, with recognition of needs and resources and of major geographic areas and economic segments and with delineation of significant program elements and of purposes, objectives and goals for development of the state.

(2) Consult and advise with, and bring together and review pertinent data, plans and programs and budgetary proposals of, state agencies, as pertinent to the comprehensive plan and to a coordinated program of action in carrying it out.

(3) Provide a center of coordination and clearing house for research, planning and programing, basic data, public information, progress control and reporting in the field of state development and for stimulation and guidance in the use of the planning and programing processes.

(4) Conduct conservation and development research, and coordinate research by state agencies in the field of state development, using when feasible the resources and potentials of the state institutions of higher learning, and encouraging the cooperation of other research and developmental organizations.

(5) Consult and advise with and assist the localities and subdivisions of the state in their developmental planning, using when feasible the resources and potentials of the state institutions of higher learning.

(6) Provide contact and liaison with state agencies, municipalities and other public entities, other states and interstate bodies, industrial, commercial, educational, research and civic groups and others, in connection with state, local, regional and national planning and development.
[Formerly 184.150]

184.020 Biennial report by Governor. The Governor shall submit to each biennial regular session of the Legislative Assembly a report and recommendations with respect to executive and legislative requirements for the improvement of economic, financial and administrative conditions for state development and for improvement of content, organization and procedure in the state development program.
[1967 c.397 §14]

184.030 Advisory and technical committees. To aid and advise the Governor in the performance of his duties under ORS 184.010 to 184.050, the Governor may establish such advisory and technical committees as he considers necessary. Such committees may be continuing or temporary. The Governor shall determine the representation, membership, terms and organization of the committees and shall appoint their members. The Governor shall be an ex officio member of each committee. Members of the committees appointed pursuant to this section shall receive no compensation, but in the discretion of the Governor may receive payment for their actual and necessary travel and other expenses while engaged in the performance of their official duties.
[1967 c.397 §15]

184.040 Acceptance and use of federal aid and other money and property. (1) The Governor may apply for, receive from the United States or any of its agencies, and disburse or supervise the disbursement of federal aid for planning and development in this state as authorized by ORS 184.010, 184.020 and 184.030. The Governor may also disburse or supervise the disbursement of funds provided by the State of Oregon for expenditure as a condition of receiving the federal aid.

(2) The Governor may take by gift, devise or bequest or in any other lawful manner, money or property for planning and development as authorized by ORS 184.010, 184.020 and 184.030.

(3) The Governor shall deposit money received pursuant to this section in a special fund with the State Treasurer as provided in ORS 293.265 to 293.275. The money shall be expended by the Governor for the purposes for which it is received.
[Formerly 184.195]

184.050 Federal Planning Revolving Fund. There is continued in the General Fund of the State Treasury a revolving fund known as the Federal Planning Revolving Fund. All moneys in the Federal Planning Revolving Fund are appropriated continuously and, pending receipt by the State Treasurer of federal funds for the payment of federally financed planning projects administered by the Governor, shall be used by the Governor to pay the costs of completing such planning projects. Upon notice that such federal funds have been received by the State Treasurer, the Governor shall prepare a claim against such funds for the amount advanced from the Federal Planning Revolving Fund for the purposes of this section, and the Secretary of State shall issue a warrant in payment of such claim, for credit to and reimbursement of the Federal Planning Revolving Fund.

[Formerly 184.220]

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT DIVISION

184.105 Definitions for ORS 184.105 to 184.210. As used in ORS 184.105 to 184.140, 184.160 to 184.190, 184.200 and 184.210, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Administrator" means the Administrator of the Economics Development Division.

(2) "Division" means the Economics Development Division of the Department of Commerce.
[1963 c.580 §17; 1967 c.397 §2]

184.110 [1957 c.624 §2; repealed by 1963 c.580 §103]

184.120 Purpose of Economic Development Division. The Legislative Assembly recognizes that the welfare of the state and its people and its institutions depends upon a unified and coordinated program for the wise conservation, development and management of its interrelated and interdependent resources and for its efficient economic development, and that the full cooperation of state, local and national agencies is necessary to those ends. It is the purpose of ORS 184.105 to 184.210 to provide for such unified and coordinated management in the state through the creation of the Economic Development Division.
[1957 c.624 §1; 1967 c.397 §3]

184.125 Economic Development Division established; authority. (1) The Economic Development Division is established within the Department of Commerce.

(2) The division shall formulate and direct a program of economic development for the state. Through research, promotion and coordination of activities in the state, the division shall foster the most desirable growth and diversification of resources, agriculture, industry and commerce in the state. The division shall serve as a central coordinating agency and clearinghouse for activities and information concerning the resources and economy of the state.

(3) The division has no regulatory power over the activities of private persons, but its functions are solely of an advisory, coordinative and promotional nature.
[1963 c.580 §18; 1967 c.397 §4]

184.130 [1957 c.624 §3; repealed by 1963 c.580 §103]

184.135 Administrator; appointment; bond. (1) The Economic Development Division shall be under the supervision and control of an administrator who shall be appointed by the Director of Commerce with the approval of the Governor. The administrator shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Director of Commerce and shall be responsible for the performance of the duties imposed upon the division. The administrator shall receive such salary as may be provided by law.

(2) Before entering upon the duties of his office the administrator shall give to the state a fidelity bond with one or more corporate sureties authorized to do business in this state in the sum fixed by the Director of Commerce. The premium for the bond shall be paid by the division.
[1963 c.580 §19]

184.137 Authority of administrator. The Administrator of the Economic Development Division shall have the power to:

(1) For the purpose of administration, with the approval of the Director of Commerce, organize and reorganize, as necessary, the division in the manner that he deems necessary to properly conduct the work of the division.

(2) Appoint all subordinate officers and employes of the division and prescribe their duties and fix their compensation, subject to the applicable provisions of the State Civil Service Law. Subject to any other applicable law regulating travel expenses, the officers and employes of the division shall be allowed such reasonable and necessary travel and other expenses as may be incurred in the performance of their duties.

(3) Require a fidelity bond of any officer or employe of the division who has charge of, handles or has access to any state money or property, and who is not otherwise required by law to give a bond. The amount of the bond shall be fixed by the administrator, except as otherwise provided by law, and the sureties shall be approved by him. The division shall pay the premium on the bond.
[1963 c.580 §20]

184.140 Advisory committees. To aid and advise the director in the performance of the functions of the division, the Director of Commerce may establish such advisory and technical committees as he considers necessary. Such committees may be continuing or temporary. The Director of Commerce shall determine the representation, membership, terms and organization of the committees and shall appoint their members. The director shall be an ex officio member of each committee. Members of the committees established pursuant to this section shall receive no compensation, but may, in the discretion of the Director of Commerce, receive payment for their actual and necessary expenditures while engaged in the performance of their official duties.

[1957 c.624 §4]

184.150 [1957 c.624 §5; 1967 c.397 §11; renumbered 184.010]

184.160 Industrial or business locations. The Economic Development Division shall:

(1) Gather and maintain information on available plant locations throughout the state.

(2) Process requests received by state agencies for information pertaining to industrial locations.

(3) Consult and advise with, and coordinate activities of and give technical assistance to, state and local organizations, including local development corporations, county, city or metropolitan-area committees, chambers of commerce, labor organizations and similar agencies interested in obtaining new industrial plants or commercial enterprises.

(4) Act as the state's official liaison agency between persons interested in locating industrial or business firms in the state and state and local groups seeking new industry or business. In such capacity, the division shall maintain the confidential nature of the negotiations it conducts as requested by persons contemplating location in the state.

[1957 c.624 §6]

184.170 Research and recommendations concerning state development. The Economic Development Division shall:

(1) Conduct research and make recommendations to the Director of Commerce for the purpose of guiding and accomplishing a coordinated and economically efficient development of the state. The division shall encourage and coordinate research on such subjects as labor, transportation, markets, power, state regulations affecting business, taxes and other factors influencing economic development. In respect to this activity the division shall, at the direction of the Director of Commerce, utilize and coordinate the research facilities of state agencies and encourage cooperation on the part of research agencies outside of state government.

(2) To the extent that its facilities permit, provide advice and technical assistance to Oregon business and labor.

(3) Bring to the attention of the Director of Commerce those significant problems which may be relieved by state action.

[1957 c.624 §7]

184.180 New-business development. The Economic Development Division shall:

(1) Collect and disseminate information regarding the advantages of developing new business in the state.

(2) Aid local communities in planning for and obtaining new business to locate therein.

[1957 c.624 §8]

184.190 Execution of development program. The Economic Development Division shall generally assist the Director of Commerce and the Governor, as either may require, in putting developmental programs, procedures and actions into effect and perform such other functions as the Director of Commerce or the Governor may direct to aid in the development of the state.

[1957 c.624 §9; 1967 c.397 §5]

184.195 [1961 c.315 §§1, 2, 3; 1967 c.397 §12; renumbered 184.040]

184.196 Acceptance and use of federal aid and other money and property. (1) The Economic Development Division may apply for, receive from the United States or any of its agencies, and disburse or supervise the disbursement of, federal aid for economic development research as authorized by ORS 184.105 to 184.210. The division also may disburse or supervise the disbursement of funds provided by the State of Oregon for expenditure as a condition of receiving the federal aid.

(2) The division may take by gift, devise or bequest or in any other lawful manner, money or property for economic development research as authorized by ORS 184.105 to 184.210.

(3) The administrator shall deposit money received pursuant to this section in a special fund with the State Treasurer as provided in ORS 293.265 to 293.275. The money shall be expended by the division for the purposes for which it is received.

[1967 c.397 §8]

184.198 Federal Economic Development Research Fund. There is created in the General Fund of the State Treasury a revolving fund known as the Federal Economic Development Research Fund. All moneys in such fund are appropriated continuously and, pending receipt by the State Treasurer of federal funds for the payment of federally financed economic development research projects administered by the division, shall be used by the division to pay the costs of completing such research projects. Upon notice that such federal funds have been received by the State Treasurer, the administrator shall prepare a claim against such funds for the amount advanced from the Federal Economic Development Research Fund for the purposes of this section, and the Secretary of State shall issue a warrant in payment of such claim, for credit to and reimbursement of such fund.
[1967 c.397 §9]

184.200 Reports required. The Economic Development Division shall submit to the Director of Commerce:

(1) An annual report for the Director of Commerce and the legislature on the activities, growth, progress, problems and costs of the various programs of the division.

(2) Periodic reports on the situation and trends in the economy of the state, with appropriate indicators of conditions and directions.

[1957 c.624 §10; 1967 c.397 §6]

184.210 Promotion of formation of state development credit corporations. The Economic Development Division shall encourage and promote the formation of state development credit corporations, as defined in ORS 63.210, where it determines that their formation is in the public interest. The Economic Development Division may consult with, advise and give technical assistance to persons interested in organizing a state development credit corporation.

[1959 c.660 §17]

[1963 c.580 §2]

184.530 Director of Commerce; appointment; confirmation. (1) The Department of Commerce shall be under the supervision of a Director of Commerce who shall be appointed by and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Governor.

(2) The appointment of the Director of Commerce shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Senators voting on the confirmation, a quorum being present. In case the Governor's choice of a director is not confirmed, the Governor shall make another appointment subject to the confirmation by the Senate as provided in this subsection.

(3) When an appointment to the office of Director of Commerce is made in the interim between legislative sessions, the Senate shall act through the Committee on Executive Appointments provided by ORS 171.560 in the manner provided in that section, and the director so appointed shall be subject to the confirmation of the Senate when it next convenes.

184.540 Authority of director. (1) Except as otherwise provided by law, the Director of Commerce shall coordinate all of the activities of the department, and shall have the power of general supervision over the administration of each division and professional licensing, advisory and administrative review agency within the department, and shall be directly responsible to the Governor therefor.

(2) The director may provide administrative facilities and services for the professional licensing, advisory and administrative review agencies established within the department, provided that the discretionary duties, advisory functions or review powers vested by law in such agencies shall be performed solely by the respective agencies. Such agencies shall use the administrative facilities and services so provided and shall pay to the director the cost thereof, as determined by the director. Moneys received by the director under this subsection shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to the Commerce Administration Account.

(3) Except as otherwise provided by law, the director may appoint subordinate officers and employes to assist him in carrying out the duties and responsibilities imposed upon the director. He may prescribe the duties and fix the compensation of such officers and employes, subject to the applicable provisions of the State Civil Service Law.

[1963 c.580 §5; 1965 c.597 §5]

184.550 Preparation and reporting of plans; administrative organization of department; deputy. (1) The Director of Commerce shall develop and report to the Governor on legislative, budgetary, and administrative programs to accomplish comprehensive, long-range, coordinated planning and policy formulation in the matters of public interest related to the department. To accomplish this end, the director may hold public hearings, consult with and use the services and cooperation of other state agencies, employ consultants and appoint advisory and technical committees to assist in the work.

(2) For the purpose of administration, the director shall review the organization of the department and report to the Governor on such changes as he deems necessary properly to segregate and conduct the work of the department.

(3) Whenever a power is granted to the director the power may be exercised by such officer or employe within the department as designated in writing by the director. Any such designation shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State.
[1963 c.580 §6]

184.560 Salary and expenses of director; bond. The Director of Commerce shall receive such salary as may be provided by law. In addition to his salary, the director shall, subject to the limitations otherwise provided by law, be reimbursed for all reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by him in the performance of his official duties. Before entering upon the duties of his office the director shall give to the state a fidelity bond with one or more corporate sureties authorized to do business in this state in the sum fixed by the Governor.
[1963 c.580 §4]

184.570 Commerce Administration Account. (1) There hereby is established in the General Fund of the State Treasury the Commerce Administration Account. Except as otherwise provided by law, all moneys appropriated or credited to the Commerce Administration Account hereby are appropriated continuously for and shall be used by the director for the purpose of carrying out the duties and responsibilities imposed upon him.

(2) The Department of Commerce shall be subject to the allotment system provided for in ORS 291.234 to 291.260.
[1963 c.580 §7; 1965 c.597 §6]
