COURTS

1.002 Administrative supervision by Supreme Court over other courts. The Supreme Court has general administrative authority and supervision over the courts of the state. The Supreme Court may make rules and orders necessary or appropriate to the exercise of its administrative authority and supervision, but this section does not authorize the Supreme Court to make rules of civil or criminal procedure. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall exercise such administrative authority and supervision in accordance with such rules and orders.

[1959 c.552 §1]

1.006 Duties of Chief Justice. To facilitate his exercise of administrative authority and supervision under ORS 1.002, the Chief Justice shall:

(1) Conduct studies, make recommendations and issue orders and directions concerning the administrative methods and activities, dockets, business and facilities of the courts of the state, other than the Supreme Court and municipal courts, and of the judges, clerks and other personnel of such courts.

(2) Require necessary or appropriate reports from the judges, clerks and other personnel of such courts.

(3) Collect, compile and publish statistical and other data relating to such courts and make reports on the business and condition of such courts.

(4) Take such other action as may be necessary or appropriate in the furtherance of the administration of justice.

[1959 c.552 §3]

1.010 Powers of courts in administration of court business and proceedings. Every court of justice has power:

(1) To preserve and enforce order in its immediate presence.

(2) To enforce order in the proceedings before it, or before a person or body empowered to conduct a judicial investigation under its authority.

(3) To provide for the orderly conduct of proceedings before it or its officers.

(4) To compel obedience to its judgments, decrees, orders and process, and to the orders of a judge out of court, in an action, suit or proceeding pending therein.

(5) To control, in furtherance of justice, the conduct of its ministerial officers, and of all other persons in any manner connected with a judicial proceeding before it, in every matter appertaining thereto.

(6) To compel the attendance of persons to testify in an action, suit or proceeding pending therein, in the cases and manner provided by statute.

(7) To administer oaths in an action, suit or proceeding pending therein, and in all other cases where it may be necessary in the exercise of its powers or the performance of its duties.

1.020 Contempt, punishment for. For the effectual exercise of the powers specified in ORS 1.010, the court may punish for contempt in the cases and the manner provided by statute.

1.025 Duty of court and court officers to require performance of duties relating to administration of justice; enforcement of duty by mandamus. (1) Where a duty is imposed by law upon a court, or upon a judicial officer, clerk, bailiff, sheriff, constable or other officer, which requires or prohibits the performance of an act or series of acts in matters relating to the administration of justice in a court, it is the duty of the judicial officer or officers of the court, and each of them, to require the officer upon whom the duty is imposed to perform or refrain from performing the act or series of acts.

(2) Matters relating to the administration of justice include, but are not limited to, the selection and empanelling of juries as provided in ORS chapters 10 and 132, the conduct of trials as provided in ORS chapter 17, the entry and docketing of judgments as provided in ORS chapter 18 and all other matters touching the conduct of proceedings in courts of this state.

(3) The duty imposed by subsection (1) of this section may be enforced by writ of mandamus.

[1957 c.565 §1]

1.030 Seal, what courts have; form; custody; affixing. (1) Each of the following courts, and no other, has a seal:

(a) The Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals.

(b) Each circuit court and the Oregon Tax Court.

(c) Each county court.

(d) Each district court.

(2) The seals shall have the arms of the state engraved in the center, with the following inscription surrounding the same:

(a) For the Supreme Court, "Supreme Court, State of Oregon."

(b) For the Court of Appeals, "Court of Appeals, State of Oregon."

(c) For the circuit court, "Circuit Court, — County, State of Oregon," inserting the name of the particular county.

(d) For the Oregon Tax Court, "Oregon Tax Court, State of Oregon."

(e) For the county court, "County Court, — County, State of Oregon," inserting the name of the particular county.

(f) For the district court, "District Court, — County, State of Oregon," inserting the name of the particular county.

(3) The clerk of the court shall keep the seal, and affix it to any process, transcript, certificate or other paper required by statute. [Amended by 1957 c.246 §1; 1961 c.533 §35; 1969 c.198 §16]

1.040 Sittings of court to be public; when may be private. The sittings of every court of justice are public, except that upon the agreement of the parties to a civil action, suit or proceeding, filed with the clerk or entered upon the journal, the court may direct the trial, or any other proceeding therein, to be private; upon such order being made, all persons shall be excluded, except the officers of the court, the parties, their witnesses and counsel.

1.050 Time for decision on submitted questions; certificate of compliance with requirement; penalty for false certificate. Any question submitted to any judge of any court of, or any justice of the peace in, any of the courts of this state, excepting the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals and the judges thereof, must be decided and the decision rendered within three months after submission, unless prevented by sickness or unavoidable casualty, or the time be extended by stipulation in writing signed by the counsel for the respective parties and filed with the judge before the expiration of said three months. This section is mandatory, and no officer shall sign or issue any warrant for the payment of the salary or any instalment of the salary of any such judge or justice of the peace unless the voucher for such warrant shall contain or be accompanied by a certificate of such judge or justice of the peace that all matters submitted to him for decision three months or more prior to the filing of said voucher have been decided as required herein; and, in case the time has been extended by stipulation in writing, or a decision has been prevented by sickness or unavoidable casualty, said certificate shall state the facts excusing the delay. The making and filing of a false certificate shall be just cause for complaint to the legislature and removal of said judge or justice of the peace.

[Amended by 1969 c.198 §17]

1.055 Term of court. (1) A term of court is a period of time appointed for the convenient transaction of the business of the court. The existence or nonexistence of a term of court has no effect on the duties and powers of the court.

(2) Notwithstanding that an act is authorized or required to be done before, during or after the expiration of a term of court, it may be done within a reasonable period of time.

[1959 c.638 §1]

1.060 Days for transaction of judicial business; business on holidays. The courts of justice may be held and judicial business transacted on any day, except that no court can be opened nor can any judicial business be transacted on any legal holiday in this state for any purpose other than:

(1) To give instructions to a jury then deliberating upon its verdict;

(2) To receive the verdict of a jury, or to discharge a jury in case of its inability to agree upon a verdict; or

(3) For the exercise of the powers of a magistrate in criminal actions or proceedings of a criminal nature.

1.070 When court deemed appointed for next judicial day. If a day appointed for holding a court, or to which it is adjourned, is a legal holiday, the court is deemed appointed for or adjourned to the next judicial day.

1.080 Place of holding court. Every court of justice shall sit at the place designated by law for that purpose, except as provided in ORS 1.090 and 1.100.

1.090 Trial elsewhere than at courthouse on agreement of parties. Upon agreement of the parties to a civil action, suit or proceeding, filed with the clerk or entered upon the journal, the court may direct that the trial or any other proceeding therein, be had elsewhere within the county than at the courthouse.

1.100 Place of holding court in case of calamity or danger. (1) A judge authorized to hold or preside at a court may, by an order filed with the clerk, and published as he may prescribe, direct that the court be held or continued at any other place in the county than that appointed, when war, pestilence or other public calamity, or the danger thereof, may render it necessary; and may, in the same manner, revoke the order, and in his discretion appoint another place in the county for holding the court.

(2) When a court is held at a place appointed as provided by this section, every person held or required to appear at the court shall appear at the place so appointed.

1.110 Adjournment or postponement when judge does not attend. If no judge attend on the day appointed for holding a court, before 4 p.m., the court shall stand adjourned until the next day at 9 a.m. In case a judge is unable to attend at the time provided by law for a regular term of court, or at the time specified for a special term, the judge may by an order made and signed anywhere in his district postpone such regular or special term until some future time.

[Amended by 1959 c.638 §2]

1.120 Proceeding unaffected by vacancy in office or failure of term. No action, suit or proceeding pending in a court of justice is affected by a vacancy in the office of any or all of the judges, or by the failure of a term thereof.

1.130 Power to adjourn proceedings. A court or judicial officer has power to adjourn any proceedings before it or him, from time to time, as may be necessary, unless otherwise expressly provided by statute.

1.140 Manner of addressing application or proceeding to court or judge. An application or other proceeding addressed to a court shall be addressed to it by its style as given by statute; an application or other proceeding addressed to a judicial officer shall be addressed to him by his name, without any other title than his style of office.

1.150 Proceedings to be in English; use of abbreviations. Every writing in any action, suit or proceeding in a court of justice of this state, or before a judicial officer, shall be in English; but common abbreviations may be used.

1.160 Means to carry jurisdiction into effect; adoption of suitable process or mode of proceeding. When jurisdiction is, by the constitution or by statute, conferred on a court or judicial officer, all the means to carry it into effect are also given; and in the exercise of the jurisdiction, if the course of proceeding is not specifically pointed out by the procedural statutes, any suitable process or mode of proceeding may be adopted which may appear most conformable to the spirit of the procedural statutes.

1.170 Order for accommodation or supplies for court or jury; expense as county charge. If the proper authority neglects to provide any court with rooms, furniture, fuel, lights and stationery, suitable and sufficient for the transaction of its business, and for any jury attending upon it, the court may order the sheriff to do so, at the place within the county designated by law for holding such court; and the expense incurred by the sheriff in carrying such order into effect, when ascertained and ordered to be paid by the court, is a charge upon the county.

JUDICIAL OFFICERS GENERALLY

1.210 Judicial officer defined. A judicial officer is a person authorized to act as a judge in a court of justice.

1.220 Judicial officer or partner thereof acting as attorney. Any judicial officer may act as an attorney in any action, suit or proceeding to which he is a party or in which he is directly interested. A judge of the county court or justice of the peace, otherwise authorized by law, may act as an attorney in any court other than the one of which he is judge, except in an action, suit or proceeding removed therefrom to another court for review, but no judicial officer shall, as attorney, institute or cause to be instituted any suit, action or proceeding, or act as attorney in any suit, action or proceeding with or without hire, in any court or otherwise, other than as in this section allowed. No judicial officer shall have a partner who shall practice law or act as attorney in the court over which he presides.

1.230 Powers of a judge out of court. A judge may exercise, out of court, all the powers expressly conferred upon a judge as distinguished from a court, and not otherwise.

1.240 Powers of judicial officers. Every judicial officer has power:

(1) To preserve and enforce order in his immediate presence, and in the proceedings before him, when he is performing a duty imposed upon him by statute.

(2) To compel obedience to his lawful orders, as provided by statute.

(3) To compel the attendance of persons to testify in a proceeding pending before him in the cases and manner provided by statute.

(4) To administer oaths in a proceeding pending before him, and in all other cases where it may be necessary, in the exercise of his powers and the performance of his duties.

1.250 Contempt, punishment for. For the effectual exercise of the powers specified in ORS 1.240, a judicial officer may punish for contempt, in the cases and manner provided by statute.

1.260 Powers of judges of Supreme Court, Court of Appeals, Tax Court and circuit courts; where may be exercised. The judges of the Supreme Court, the Court of Appeals, the Oregon Tax Court and the circuit courts have power in any part of the state:

(1) To take and certify:

(a) The proof and acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property, or any other written instrument authorized or required to be proved or acknowledged.

(b) The acknowledgment of satisfaction of a judgment in any court.

(c) An affidavit or deposition to be used in any court of justice or other tribunal of this state.

(2) To exercise any other power and perform any other duty conferred or imposed upon them by statute.

[Amended by 1963 c.423 §1; 1969 c.198 §18]

1.270 Powers of other judicial officers; where may be exercised. Every other judicial officer may, within the county, city, district or precinct in which he is chosen:

(1) Exercise the powers mentioned in subsection (1) of ORS 1.260.

(2) Exercise any other power and perform any other duty conferred or imposed upon him by statute.

1.280 Compliance with rules and orders of Supreme Court. The judges, clerks and other personnel of the courts of the state shall comply with all rules and orders made by the Supreme Court under ORS 1.002 and all orders and directions issued by the Chief Justice under ORS 1.006.

[1959 c.552 §4]

1.290 Leaves of absence. (1) As used in this section, unless the context requires otherwise, "judge" means any judge of the Supreme Court, the Court of Appeals, the Oregon Tax Court, any circuit court or any district court, but does not include any person appointed by the Supreme Court as judge pro tempore of any of those courts who does not hold the elective office of judge of any of those courts.

(2) Upon receipt of the written application of any judge, the Supreme Court may grant the judge a leave of absence without salary for a period of not more than one year. The Supreme Court may grant a leave of absence only if the court is satisfied that the administration of justice in Oregon will be enhanced by granting the leave. Application for a leave of absence is considered a waiver of salary by the applicant for the period of time he is absent under the leave granted by the court.

(3) A leave of absence shall be granted by order of the Supreme Court. The order shall state the maximum period of time for which the leave is granted. Promptly after the granting of the leave, the Clerk of the Supreme Court shall cause a certified copy of the order granting the leave to be sent to the Secretary of State and the Public Employees' Retirement Board.

(4) At the termination of his leave of absence under this section, unless he sooner dies or resigns, a judge shall resume the duties of his office and cause written notice of the resumption to be sent to the Supreme Court, the Secretary of State and the Public Employees' Retirement Board. The resumption and sending notice thereof constitutes a termination of the leave whether or not the full maximum period of time granted has expired.

(5) Absence on leave by a judge under this section does not create a vacancy in the office to which he was elected or appointed, nor is the judge subject to removal as a consequence thereof.

(6) Any period of time for which a judge is on leave of absence under this section shall be included in computing the length of his service for the purposes of ORS 1.310 to 1.380, if, within 30 days after the expiration of such period of time, the judge (if he is a judge whose salary is subject to deductions under ORS 1.360) shall cause to be deposited in the Judges' Retirement Fund an amount equal to that which would have been deducted from his salary under ORS 1.360 if he had received salary during the period of time he was on leave of absence.

(7) Within 30 days after the resumption of the duties of his office as provided in subsection (4) of this section, a judge whose salary is subject to deductions under ORS 1.360 shall cause to be deposited in the Judges' Retirement Fund an amount equal to that which would have been deducted from his salary under ORS 1.360 if he had received salary during the period of time he was on leave of absence. If the judge fails to deposit that amount within that time, the Secretary of State shall deduct that amount from the monthly salary received from the state by the judge until the full amount that the judge failed to deposit has been deducted, and pay that amount into the Judges' Retirement Fund. For the purposes of ORS 1.310 to 1.380, except as otherwise provided in this section, the amount deposited by the judge or deducted from his salary is considered a deduction under ORS 1.360. An amount equal to the amount deposited by the judge shall be drawn from the General Fund of the State Treasury and paid into the Judges' Retirement Fund, which amount hereby is appropriated out of the money in the General Fund not otherwise appropriated.

(8) Absence on leave under this section by a judge who is a member of the Public Employees' Retirement System under ORS 237.001 to 237.315 does not break the continuity of his membership in the system.
[1965 c.12 §1; 1969 c.198 §19]

RETIREMENT OF JUDGES

1.310 Involuntary retirement of judges for disability. (1) As used in this section:

(a) "Judge" includes any judge of the Supreme Court, the Court of Appeals, the Oregon Tax Court, or of any circuit or district court, of the State of Oregon.

(b) "Subject judge" means any judge whose alleged disability is involved in proceedings under this section.

(c) "Disabled" means so incapacitated physically or mentally as to be unable to discharge the duties of judicial office.

(d) "Chief Justice" means the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Oregon; except that, if the Chief Justice is the subject judge, then the term "Chief Justice" means the one of the remaining judges of the Supreme Court who has served the longest period of time as a judge of that court.

(e) "Resignation" has its usual meaning, but, with respect to a judge of the Supreme Court, the Court of Appeals, a circuit or a district court, or the Oregon Tax Court, it includes also the filing of a written application for retirement under ORS 1.330.

(2) Any judge who becomes disabled may be retired in the manner provided in this section. The Governor, the Judicial Council or the Board of Governors of the Oregon State Bar may file at any time with the Secretary of State a written request for an investigation to determine whether a judge named in such request is disabled. Upon receipt of such request, the Secretary of State shall transmit to the subject judge a certified copy of such request, with a notice to the effect that, unless such judge files his resignation within 45 days from the date of the notice, an investigation will be made to determine whether he is disabled. Such certified copy and notice shall be served on the subject judge, either by delivering them to him in person or by transmitting them by registered mail to him at his last residence address as shown in the records of the Secretary of State.

(3) If the subject judge fails to file his resignation within 45 days from the date of said notice, the Secretary of State, within 10 days after the expiration of that period, shall transmit to the Chief Justice, the Governor and the President of the Oregon State Bar certified copies of said request and notice, with his certificate to the effect:

(a) That he had served the notice and copy of the request on the subject judge as provided in subsection (2) of this section; and

(b) That the judge had not filed his resignation.

(4) Upon receipt of the certified copies and certificate referred to in subsection (3) of this section, the Chief Justice, the Governor and the President of the Oregon State Bar shall each appoint a member of a special commission, consisting of three active members of the Oregon State Bar, who shall make the requested investigation and, after hearing, determine whether the subject judge is disabled. The commission shall prepare an official record which shall include the testimony taken and the exhibits considered. If the subject judge refuses or is unable to attend, the commission may proceed with the hearing in his absence.

(5) If a majority of the members of the commission shall determine that the subject judge is in fact disabled, they shall make and sign written findings of fact upon which the determination is made and transmit them to the Secretary of State. If no appeal is filed, the office of such judge shall become vacant 10 days from the filing of such findings; and thereupon the Secretary of State shall certify to the Governor the existence of such vacancy. If a majority of the members of the commission do not find that the subject judge is disabled, they shall sign and file with the Secretary of State a written report to that effect, and thereupon the proceeding shall terminate. Such report, or a finding that the subject judge is disabled, shall be so filed with the Secretary of State within 45 days from the date of appointment of the commission, or within such further time as may be fixed by the Chief Justice.

(6) The member of the commission who is appointed by the Chief Justice shall be the chairman. The commission may prescribe rules of procedure for the conduct of the investigation and fix the time and place of the hearing, giving the subject judge due notice thereof. Any member of the commission may administer oaths, take depositions and issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and for the production of documents. If any person fails to comply with any such subpoena or refuses to testify on any matter deemed by the commission to be relevant and material, the circuit court for the county in which the hearing is held may, upon request of the commission, compel obedience in the manner provided in ORS 33.010 to 33.150. The fees and mileage allowance of witnesses, including experts, shall be fixed by the commission.

(7) The subject judge shall have the right to challenge peremptorily the first member of the commission appointed by each of the appointing officials. This right shall not extend, however, to any subsequent appointment made after such challenge.

(8) Any judge retired under the provisions of this section, who is eligible for retirement pay under the provisions of ORS

1.314 to 1.380, shall be entitled to such retirement pay as though he had retired voluntarily.

(9) No judge retired under the provisions of this section shall be appointed as judge pro tempore to serve upon any court of the State of Oregon.

(10) The subject judge may appeal to the Supreme Court from a determination by the commission that he is disabled, by filing a notice with the Secretary of State within 10 days after the date of filing of the written findings of fact by the commission. The Secretary of State shall thereupon notify the commission and the Chief Justice. The commission shall forthwith transmit the official record to the Supreme Court, which upon receipt of such record shall have full jurisdiction of the proceeding.

(11) The Supreme Court shall review the proceeding de novo on the record with authority to affirm, reverse or annul the determination. Prior to such final determination, remand may also be made to the commission for additional findings of fact. In the event that the Supreme Court reverses or annuls the determination of the commission, the proceeding shall thereupon terminate and notice to that effect shall be filed with the Secretary of State. If the determination of the commission is affirmed, a decision to that effect shall be filed with the Secretary of State and the office of the subject judge shall forthwith become vacant. Thereupon, the Secretary of State shall certify to the Governor the existence of such vacancy.

[Amended by 1961 c.568 §3; 1963 c.464 §5; 1965 c.394 §5; 1969 c.332 §6]

(1) As used in this section, "final average pay" means the average salary per calendar year paid to a judge:

(a) In five of the last 10 calendar years of service next preceding his termination and in which five years he was paid the highest salary; or

(b) If the number of last calendar years of service before he reaches the age of qualification for retirement is less than 10 and more than five, in five of those years in which he was paid the highest salary.

(2) Every judge or former judge who is qualified under ORS 1.310 to 1.330 for retirement pay shall be entitled to receive monthly during the period of his natural life out of the Judges' Retirement Fund, an amount equal to one-twelfth of 45 percent of his final average pay, to be paid him on or before the tenth day of each month following the date of such retirement. The first payment shall be computed on a pro rata basis from the date of retirement to the end of that month.

(3) Any retirement pay due a judge or former judge that is unpaid at the time of his death shall be paid to his surviving spouse or his next of kin in accordance with his directions in writing filed with the Public Employees' Retirement Board.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (5) and (6) of this section, the surviving spouse of any judge or former judge who at the time of his death was contributing to the Judges' Retirement Fund or was eligible to receive retirement pay from the fund, and who for a period of not less than six consecutive years or one full six-year term served as judge shall receive a monthly pension in an amount equal to one-twelfth of the amount set forth in the following schedule:

However, if the judge and his spouse have been married for less than 10 consecutive years and the surviving spouse is more than three years younger than the deceased judge, the pension shall be automatically adjusted to a pension determined by the Public Employees' Retirement Board to be actuarially equivalent to the unadjusted pension that would be payable to a surviving spouse not more than three years younger than the deceased judge.

(6) At any time after commencing contributions to the Judges' Retirement Fund but not later than 30 days before the date on which the first payment on account of retirement is due, a judge may elect to provide an addition to the pension to a surviving spouse provided under subsection (4) of this section, by selecting a reduced retirement benefit for himself. Such additional pension to the surviving spouse shall be actuarially equivalent to the reduction in the judge's retirement benefit and, in no event, when added to the pension provided under subsection (4) of this section, shall it exceed the reduced retirement benefit elected by the judge.

(7) The pension of the surviving spouse as provided in subsection (4) of this section shall be paid monthly. The first payment shall be made between the first and tenth days of the month following the date of death of the judge and a like monthly payment shall be paid on or before the tenth day of each month thereafter so long as the surviving spouse lives and remains unmarried.

(3) The contributions made as provided in ORS 1.318.

1.355 Nature of retirement fund; handling. (1) The Judges' Retirement Fund hereby is declared to be a trust fund for the uses and purposes set forth in ORS 1.310 to 1.380, and for no other use or purpose, except that this provision shall not be deemed to amend or impair the force or effect of any law of this state specifically authorizing the investment of moneys from the fund. For all purposes the Public Employes' Retirement Board established by ORS 237.251 hereby is declared to be the trustee of the fund.

(2) The State of Oregon has no proprietary interest in the fund or in the contributions made to the fund by the state. The state disclaims any right to reclaim such contributions and waives any right of reclamation it may have in such fund.

(3) The Public Employes' Retirement Board may accept gifts of money or other property from any source, given for the uses and purposes of the fund. Money so received shall be paid into the fund. Money or other property so received shall be used for the purposes for which received. Unless otherwise prescribed by the source from which the money or other property is received, such money shall be considered as income of the fund and such other property shall be retained, managed and disposed as are investments of the fund.

(4) All moneys paid into the fund shall be deposited with the State Treasurer, who shall be custodian of the fund and pay all warrants drawn on it in compliance with law. No such warrant shall be paid until the claim for which it is drawn is first approved by the executive secretary of the Public Employes' Retirement Board and otherwise audited and verified as required by law; provided, that the Public Employes' Retirement Board may direct that the executive secretary each month prepare, certify and transmit to the Secretary of State a roll of retirement and pension benefits, showing the names of the various beneficiaries and the amount due to each of them for the month; and the Secretary of State hereby is authorized and directed to audit such roll duly certified by the executive secretary and to draw his warrant on the State Treasurer for the aggregate amount thereof, payable to the executive secretary of the Public Employes' Retirement Board, who immediately shall pay over the money thereby received to the several beneficiaries thereto entitled as certified in such roll. In the absence of the executive secretary, these duties may be performed by his assistant designated by the Public Employes' Retirement Board.

(5) All assets of the Judges' Retirement Fund hereby are transferred to the Public Employes' Retirement Board.

(6) The Public Employes' Retirement Board shall keep a separate account for the assets and prorated earnings of the Judges' Retirement Fund, and for investment purposes the moneys in the Judges' Retirement Fund shall be commingled with those of the Public Employes' Retirement Fund and shall be invested in the same manner as moneys of the Public Employes' Retirement Fund are invested.

[1963 c.464 §2]

1.360 Salary deductions; duration; state appropriations for retirement fund. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) to (4) of this section, for the purpose of providing moneys in the Judges' Retirement Fund, seven percent shall be deducted by the Secretary of State from the monthly salary received from the state by each judge and paid into the fund by the Secretary of State. A sum equal to seven percent of the combined salaries of the judges shall be drawn from the General Fund of the State Treasury and paid monthly into the Judges' Retirement

Fund, which amount hereby is appropriated out of money in the General Fund not otherwise appropriated. Whenever there is insufficient money in the fund to meet retirement payments based on obligations vested as of September 2, 1963, the additional amount necessary shall be withdrawn from the General Fund and placed in the Judges' Retirement Fund. The deductions and withdrawals shall be made on or before the tenth day of each month. Upon the death of any judge either during his term of office or after his retirement, all his rights in the fund shall terminate and no right or interest therein shall pass to his estate. No right or interest in the fund of any surviving spouse entitled to a pension as provided in ORS 1.340 shall survive his death or remarriage.

(2) No deduction shall be made from the salary of any judge who, by reason of the age at which he became a judge, cannot become eligible for retirement pay under the provisions of subsection (2) of ORS 1.314, but neither such a judge nor his surviving spouse is entitled to any benefit under ORS 1.314 to 1.340.

(3) No deduction shall be made from the salary of any judge who is appointed to a court and who, by reason of the age at which he became a judge, cannot become eligible for retirement pay under the provisions of subsection (2) of ORS 1.314. (4) No deduction shall be made from the salary of any judge after he has contributed to the Judges' Retirement Fund for an aggregate period of 16 years.

(4) The schedules in subsections (1) and (4) of ORS 1.340 do not apply to pensions that may become payable to a surviving spouse of any judge retired prior to July 1, 1961, who dies after that date. In such case the pension to the surviving spouse shall be paid in accordance with the law in effect on June 30, 1961.

(6) In the calculation of any pension payable to a surviving spouse commenced between July 1, 1961, and September 2, 1963, that calculation will govern, whichever produces the larger monthly pension to the surviving spouse, under the provisions of law in effect on June 30, 1961, or under the schedule in subsection (4) of ORS 1.340.

(7) Nothing in chapter 332, Oregon Laws 1969, is intended to affect retirement pay of judges retired before June 3, 1969, or rights of the spouses of such judges to pensions accrued, or which may accrue after June 3, 1969, under existing or prior legislation.

(8) No judge who is contributing to the Judges' Retirement Fund on June 3, 1969, shall receive a lesser amount of retirement pay under chapter 332, Oregon Laws 1969, than he would have been entitled to receive upon retirement under ORS 1.314 to 1.380 prior to June 3, 1969.

[Amended by 1963 c.464 §9; subsection (7) enacted as 1969 c.332 §11; subsection (8) enacted as 1969 c.332 §17]

A district judge who elects to become a contributor to the Judges' Retirement Fund shall have his contribution to the Public Employees' Retirement System together with the matching funds of the State of Oregon transferred to the Judges' Retirement Fund as of the date of his election to contribute to the Judges' Retirement Fund. In the event the transferred contributions do not equal the amount which would have been paid into the Judges' Retirement Fund from the date he became a contributor to the Judges' Retirement Fund such difference between the transferred contributions and the amount he would have been required to pay under the Judges' Retirement Fund had he been a contributor throughout his years of service as a district court judge, based on salary and applicable rates of contribution during the period, shall be paid to the Judges' Retirement Fund by the district judge at the time he elects to take the benefits herein provided. In the event the transferred contributions are in excess of the amount required under the Judges' Retirement Fund, such excess shall be refunded to the district judge and to the State of Oregon on a pro rata basis. In preparing the report, the actuary shall investigate the mortality, disability, service and other experience of the members of the system, and shall make such recommendations as he deems advisable to facilitate administering it properly.
