EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT (Development Program)

184.010 State development program; consulting and coordinating with other agencies. The Governor shall:

(1) Prepare a comprehensive and general state development plan and program, in guide form, with recognition of needs and resources and of major geographic areas and economic segments and with delineation of significant program elements and of purposes, objectives and goals for development of the state.

(2) Consult and advise with, and bring together and review pertinent data, plans and programs and budgetary proposals of, state agencies, as pertinent to the comprehensive plan and to a coordinated program of action in carrying it out.

(3) Provide, through the Executive Department of the state, a center of coordination and a clearing house for research, planning, programing, basic data, public information, progress control, and reports regarding state development, and for stimulation and guidance in the use of the planning and programing processes.

(4) Conduct conservation and development research, and coordinate research by state agencies in the field of state development, using when feasible the resources and potentials of the state institutions of higher learning, and encouraging the cooperation of other research and developmental organizations.

(5) Consult and advise with and assist the localities and subdivisions of the state in their developmental planning, using when feasible the resources and potentials of the state institutions of higher learning.

(6) Provide contact and liaison with state agencies, municipalities and other public entities, other states and interstate bodies, industrial, commercial, educational, research and civic groups and others, in connection with state, local, regional and national planning and development.

[Formerly 184.150; 1969 c.80 §13]

184.020 Biennial report by Governor. The Governor shall submit to each biennial regular session of the Legislative Assembly a report and recommendations with respect to executive and legislative requirements for the improvement of economic, financial and administrative conditions for state development and for improvement of content, organization and procedure in the state development program.

[1967 c.397 §14]

184.030 Advisory and technical committees. To aid and advise the Governor in the performance of his duties under ORS 184.010 to 184.050, the Governor may establish such advisory and technical committees as he considers necessary. Such committees may be continuing or temporary. The Governor shall determine the representation, membership, terms and organization of the committees and shall appoint their members. The Governor shall be an ex officio member of each committee. Members of the committees appointed pursuant to this section shall receive no compensation, but in the discretion of the Governor may receive payment for their actual and necessary travel and other expenses while engaged in the performance of their official duties.

[1967 c.397 §15]

184.040 Acceptance and use of federal aid and other money and property. (1) The Governor may apply for, receive from the United States or any of its agencies, and disburse or supervise the disbursement of federal aid for planning and development in this state as authorized by ORS 184.010, 184.020 and 184.030. The Governor may also disburse or supervise the disbursement of funds provided by the State of Oregon for expenditure as a condition of receiving the federal aid.

(2) The Governor may take by gift, devise or bequest or in any other lawful manner, money or property for planning and development as authorized by ORS 184.010, 184.020 and 184.030.

(3) The Governor shall deposit money received pursuant to this section in a special fund with the State Treasurer as provided in ORS 293.265 to 293.275. The money shall be expended by the Governor for the purposes for which it is received.

[Formerly 184.195]

184.050 Federal Planning Revolving Fund. There is continued in the General Fund of the State Treasury a revolving fund known as the Federal Planning Revolving Fund. All moneys in the Federal Planning Revolving Fund are appropriated continuously and, pending receipt by the State Treasurer of federal funds for the payment of federally financed planning projects administered by the Governor, shall be used by the Governor to pay the costs of completing such planning projects. Upon notice that such federal funds have been received by the State Treasurer, the Governor shall prepare a claim against such funds for the amount advanced from the Federal Planning Revolving Fund for the purposes of this section, and the Secretary of State shall issue a warrant in payment of such claim, for credit to and reimbursement of the Federal Planning Revolving Fund.

[Formerly 184.220]

(Economic Development Division)

184.105 Definitions for ORS 184.105 to 184.210. As used in ORS 184.105 to 184.140, 184.160 to 184.190, 184.200 and 184.210, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Administrator" means the administrative head of the Economic Development Division in the Executive Department of the state.

(2) "Division" means the Economic Development Division of the Executive Department. [1963 c.580 §17; 1967 c.397 §2; 1969 c.80 §14]

184.110 [1957 c.624 §2, repealed by 1963 c.580 §103]

184.120 Policy. The Legislative Assembly recognizes that the welfare of the state and its people and its institutions depends upon a unified and coordinated program for the wise conservation, development and management of its interrelated and interdependent resources and for its efficient economic development, and that the full cooperation of state, local and national agencies is necessary to those ends. It is the purpose of ORS 184.105 to 184.210 to provide for such unified and coordinated management in the state.

[1957 c.624 §1, 1967 c.397 §3, 1969 c.80 §15]

184.125 Economic Development Division established; authority. (1) The Economic Development Division that heretofore has operated in the Department of Commerce is hereby transferred to the Executive Department.

(2) The division shall formulate and direct a program of economic development for the state. Through research, promotion and coordination of activities in the state, the division shall foster the most desirable growth and diversification of resources, agriculture, industry and commerce in the state. The division shall serve as a central coordinating agency and clearinghouse for activities and information concerning the resources and economy of the state.

(3) The division shall have no regulatory power over the activities of private persons. Its functions shall be solely advisory, coordinative and promotional.

[1963 c.580 §18, 1967 c.397 §4, 1969 c.80 §16]

184.130 [1957 c.624 §3, repealed by 1963 c.580 §103]

184.135 Administrator; appointment; bond. The division shall be under the supervision and control of an administrator who shall be appointed by the Director of the Executive Department with the approval of the Governor. The administrator shall hold his office at the pleasure of the director and shall be responsible for the performance of the functions of the division.

[1963 c.580 §19, 1969 c.80 §17]

184.137 Authority of administrator. The administrator may:

(1) For purposes of administration, and with the approval of the Director of the Executive Department, organize and reorganize the division in whatever manner he deems necessary to conduct the work of the division properly.

(2) With the approval of the Director of the Executive Department, appoint all subordinate officers and employes of the division, prescribe their duties and fix their compensation, subject to applicable provisions of the State Merit System Law. Subject to any other applicable law regulating travel expenses, the officers and employes of the division shall be allowed such reasonable and necessary travel and other expenses as may be incurred in the performance of their duties.

[1963 c.580 §20, 1969 c.80 §18]

184.140 Advisory committees. To aid and advise the administrator in the performance of the functions of the division, the administrator, with the consent of the Director of the Executive Department may establish such advisory and technical committees as he considers necessary. The committees may be continuing or temporary. The administrator shall, with the consent of the director, determine the representation, membership, terms, and organization of the committees. The administrator shall be an ex officio member of each committee. Members of the committees established pursuant to this section shall receive no compensation, but may, in the discretion of the administrator, receive payment for their actual and necessary expenditures while engaged in the performance of their official duties.

[1957 c.624 §4; 1969 c.80 §19]

184.150 [1957 c.624 §5; 1967 c.397 §11; renumbered 184.010]

184.160 Industrial or business locations. The division shall:

(1) Gather and maintain information on available plant locations throughout the state.

(2) Process requests received by state agencies for information pertaining to industrial locations.

(3) Consult and advise with, coordinate activities of, and give technical assistance to, state and local organizations, including local development corporations, county, city, and metropolitan-area committees, chambers of commerce, labor organizations and similar agencies interested in obtaining new industrial plants or commercial enterprises.

(4) Act as the state's official liaison agency between persons interested in locating industrial or business firms in the state, and state and local groups seeking new industry or business, maintaining the confidential nature of the negotiations it conducts as requested by persons contemplating location in the state.

[1957 c.624 §6; 1969 c.80 §20]

184.170 Research and recommendations concerning state development. The division shall:

(1) Conduct research and make recommendations to the Director of the Executive Department for guiding and accomplishing a coordinated and economically efficient development of the state.

(2) Encourage and coordinate research on such subjects as labor, transportation, markets, power, state regulations affecting business, taxes and other factors influencing economic development, utilize and coordinate the research facilities of state agencies and encourage cooperation on the part of research agencies outside of state government.

(3) Provide advice and technical assistance to Oregon business and labor.

(4) Bring to the attention of the Director of the Executive Department those significant problems which may be relieved by state action.

[1957 c.624 §7; 1969 c.80 §21]

184.180 New-business development. The division shall:

(1) Collect and disseminate information regarding the advantages of developing new business in the state.

(2) Aid local communities in planning for and obtaining new business to locate therein. [1957 c.624 §8; 1969 c.80 §22]

184.190 Execution of development program. The division shall:

(1) Generally assist the Director of the Executive Department and the Governor, as either may require, in putting developmental programs, procedures and actions into effect.

(2) Perform such other functions as the director or the Governor may direct to aid in the development of the state.

[1957 c.624 §9; 1967 c.397 §5; 1969 c.80 §23]

184.195 [1961 c.315 §§1, 2, 3; 1967 c.397 §12; renumbered 184.040]

184.196 Acceptance and use of federal aid and other money and property. (1) The division may apply for, receive from the United States or any of its agencies, and disburse or supervise the disbursement of, federal aid for economic development research as authorized by ORS 184.105 to 184.210. The division also may disburse or supervise the disbursement of funds provided by the State of Oregon for expenditure as a condition of receiving the federal aid.

(2) The division may take by gift, devise or bequest or in any other lawful manner, money or property for economic development research as authorized by ORS 184.105 to 184.210.

(3) The administrator shall deposit money received pursuant to this section in a special fund with the State Treasurer as provided in ORS 293.265 to 293.275. The money shall be expended by the division for the purposes for which it is received.

[1967 c.397 §8; 1969 c.80 §24]

184.198 Federal Economic Development Research Fund. There is created in the General Fund of the State Treasury a revolving fund known as the Federal Economic Development Research Fund. All moneys in such fund are appropriated continuously and, pending receipt by the State Treasurer of federal funds for the payment of federally financed economic development research projects administered by the division, shall be used by the division to pay the costs of completing such research projects. Upon notice that such federal funds have been received by the State Treasurer, the administrator shall prepare a claim against such funds for the amount advanced from the Federal Economic Development Research Fund for the purposes of this section, and the Secretary of State shall issue a warrant in payment of such claim, for credit to and reimbursement of such fund.

[1967 c.397 §9]

184.200 Reports required. The division shall submit to the Director of the Executive Department:

(1) An annual report on the activities, growth, progress, problems and costs of the various programs of the division.

(2) Periodic reports on the economy of the state, with appropriate indicators of conditions and directions.

[1957 c.624 §10; 1967 c.397 §6; 1969 c.80 §25]

184.210 Promotion of formation of state development credit corporations. The division shall encourage and promote the formation of state development credit corporations, as defined in ORS 63.210, where it determines that their formation is in the public interest. The division may consult with, advise and give technical assistance to persons interested in organizing a state development credit corporation.

[1959 c.660 §17; 1969 c.80 §26]

184.220 [1965 c.597 §3; 1967 c.397 §13; renumbered 184.050]

184.290 [1961 c. 137 §§1, 2, 3, 4, 5; 1961 c.716 §1; 1963 c.589 §1; renumbered 273.380]

(Generally)

184.305 Executive Department; transfer of authority from other agencies; divisions.

(1) By transformation of the Department of Finance that has operated under ORS chapter 291, chapter 80, Oregon Laws 1969, establishes in the executive-administrative branch of the government of the state a coordinative, directive department to be known as the Executive Department.

(2) Chapter 80, Oregon Laws 1969, transfers to the department:

(a) The functions of the Department of Emergency Services that has operated under ORS chapter 401;

(b) The Economic Development Division that has operated under ORS 184.105 to 184.210;

184.315 Director of Executive Department; appointment; compensation; bond. (1) The department shall be under the supervision and control of a director, who shall be responsible for the functions of the department. The Governor may, however, assume the office of director of the department whenever and for whatever time he deems advisable, but shall receive no increased compensation for doing so.

(2) The Governor shall appoint the director, who shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Governor. The person appointed as director shall be well qualified by training and experience to perform the functions of the office.

(3) An appointed director of the department shall receive such salary as is provided by law or, if not so provided, as is fixed by the Governor.

(4) Before entering upon the functions of his office, the director shall give to the state a fidelity bond with one or more corporate sureties authorized to do business in this state in the penal sum fixed by the Governor.

[Formerly 291.007]

184.325 Duties of director; administrative divisions; appointive power; exception.

(1) The Director of the Executive Department, with the approval of the Governor, shall organize and reorganize the department in the manner he considers necessary to conduct the work of the department properly.

(2) The functions of the department may be divided into administrative divisions or staff offices. Each division or office shall be under the supervision of a person appointed by the director, with the approval of the Governor. The appointee shall serve at the pleasure of the director, not be subject to the State Merit System Law, and be well qualified by technical training and experience in the functions he is to perform.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, the administrator of the Personnel Division shall be appointed and removed in the manner set forth in ORS 240.125 and 240.130.
[Formerly 291.005]

184.335 Deputy director; subordinate officers. (1) With the approval of the Governor, the director may appoint a deputy director who shall serve at the pleasure of the director, not be subject to the State Merit System Law, and have full authority to act for the director, subject to his control. The appointment of the deputy director shall be by written order, filed with the Secretary of State.

(2) Except as provided in ORS 291.005 and subsection (1) of this section, the director, subject to applicable provisions of the State Merit System Law, shall appoint all subordinate officers and employes of the department, prescribe their functions and fix their compensation.
[Formerly 291.009]

184.340 Rules. The department, with the approval of the Governor, may make reasonable rules and regulations that are necessary or proper for the administration of the laws that the department is charged with administering.
[Formerly 291.013]

184.345 Executive Department to provide services to certain divisions on reimbursable basis. The Executive Department shall provide such administrative and other services to the Corrections Division, the Mental Health Division and the Special Schools Division as such divisions and the department may agree on a reimbursable basis.
[1969 c.597 §268]

184.355 Institutional Services Division. (1) The Institutional Services Division is established in the Executive Department. The division shall be under the supervision of a person appointed in the manner provided in ORS 184.325.

(2) The Institutional Services Division may provide administrative facilities and services for the divisions listed in ORS 176.610. However, the discretionary duties, advisory functions or review powers vested by law in such divisions shall be performed solely by the respective divisions.

[1969 c.597 §5]

- (c) Oregon Board of Pilot Commissioners.
- (d) Real Estate Board.
- (e) State Banking Board.
- (f) State Board of Accountancy.
- (g) State Board of Architect Examiners.
- (h) State Board of Auctioneers.
- (i) State Board of Engineering Examiners.
- (j) State Board of Landscape Architect Examiners.

[1963 c.580 §2]

Note: The functions and duties of the Economic Development Division were transferred to the Executive Department. See 1969 c.80 §16.

184.530 Director of Commerce; appointment; confirmation. (1) The Department of Commerce shall be under the supervision of a Director of Commerce who shall be appointed by and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Governor.

(2) The appointment of the Director of Commerce shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate in the manner provided in ORS 171.570.

(3) When an appointment to the office of Director of Commerce is made in the interim between legislative sessions, the Senate shall act through the Committee on Executive Appointments provided by ORS 171.560 in the manner provided in that section, and the director so appointed shall be subject to the confirmation of the Senate when it next convenes.

[1963 c.580 §3; 1969 c.695 §3]

184.540 Authority of director. (1) Except as otherwise provided by law, the Director of Commerce shall coordinate all of the activities of the department, and shall have the power of general supervision over the administration of each division and professional licensing, advisory and administrative review agency within the department, and shall be directly responsible to the Governor therefor.

(2) The director may provide administrative facilities and services for the professional licensing, advisory and administrative review agencies established within the department, provided that the discretionary duties, advisory functions or review powers vested by law in such agencies shall be performed solely by the respective agencies. Such agencies shall use the administrative facilities and services so provided and shall pay to the director the cost thereof, as determined by the director. Moneys received by the director under this subsection shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to the Commerce Administration Account.

(3) Except as otherwise provided by law, the director may appoint subordinate officers and employes to assist him in carrying out the duties and responsibilities imposed upon the director. He may prescribe the duties and fix the compensation of such officers and employes, subject to the applicable provisions of the State Merit System Law.

[1963 c.580 §5, 1965 c.597 §5]

184.550 Preparation and reporting of plans; administrative organization of department; deputy. (1) The Director of Commerce shall develop and report to the Governor on legislative, budgetary, and administrative programs to accomplish comprehensive, long-range, coordinated planning and policy formulation in the matters of public interest related to the department. To accomplish this end, the director may hold public hearings, consult with and use the services and cooperation of other state agencies, employ consultants and appoint advisory and technical committees to assist in the work.

(2) For the purpose of administration, the director shall review the organization of the department and report to the Governor on such changes as he deems necessary properly to segregate and conduct the work of the department.

(3) Whenever a power is granted to the director the power may be exercised by such officer or employe within the department as designated in writing by the director. Any such designation shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

[1963 c.580 §6]

184.560 Salary and expenses of director; bond. The Director of Commerce shall receive such salary as may be provided by law. In addition to his salary, the director shall, subject to the limitations otherwise provided by law, be reimbursed for all reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by him in the performance of his official duties. Before entering upon the duties of his office the director shall give to the state a fidelity bond with one or more corporate sureties authorized to do business in this state in the sum fixed by the Governor.

[1963 c.580 §4]

184.570 Commerce Administration Account. (1) There hereby is established in the General Fund of the State Treasury the Commerce Administration Account. Except as otherwise provided by law, all moneys appropriated or credited to the Commerce Administration Account hereby are appropriated continuously for and shall be used by the director for the purpose of carrying out the duties and responsibilities imposed upon him.

(2) The Department of Commerce shall be subject to the allotment system provided for in ORS 291.234 to 291.260.

[1963 c.580 §7; 1965 c.597 §6]

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
(Generally)

184.610 Definitions for ORS 184.610 to 184.640. As used in ORS 184.610 to 184.640, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Transportation.

(2) "Director" means the Director of the Department of Transportation.
[1969 c.599 §1]

184.615 Department of Transportation; divisions. (1) The Department of Transportation is established.

(2) The Department of Transportation shall consist of the following administrative divisions:

- (a) Aeronautics Division.
- (b) Highway Division.
- (c) Motor Vehicles Division.
- (d) Ports Division.
- (e) Mass Transit Division.

[1969 c.599 §2]

184.620 Director of Transportation; appointment; confirmation. (1) The Department of Transportation shall be under the supervision of a Director of Transportation who shall be appointed by and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Governor.

(2) The appointment of the Director of Transportation shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate in the manner provided by ORS 171.570.

(3) If an appointment to the office of Director of Transportation is made in the interim between legislative sessions, the Senate shall act through the Committee on Executive Appointments provided by ORS 171.560 in the manner provided in that section, and the director so appointed is subject to the confirmation of the Senate when it next convenes.
[1969 c.599 §3; amended by 1969 c.599 §3a.]

184.625 Compensation and expenses of director; bond. The Director of Transportation shall receive such salary as may be provided by law. In addition to his salary, the director, subject to the limitations otherwise provided by law, shall be reimbursed for all reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by him in the performance of his official duties. Before entering upon the duties of his office the director shall give to the state a fidelity bond with one or more corporate sureties authorized to do business in this state in the sum fixed by the Governor.
[1969 c.599 §4]

184.630 Duties of director; appointive powers. (1) Except as otherwise provided by law, the Director of Transportation shall provide a research program with divisions within the department, using the staffs of such divisions for development of solutions to such needs as might arise.

(2) The director may provide administrative facilities and services for the agencies within the department, but the discretionary duties, advisory functions or review powers vested by law in such agencies shall be performed solely by the respective agencies.

(3) Except as otherwise provided by law, the director may appoint subordinate officers and employes to assist him in carrying out the duties and responsibilities imposed upon the director. He may prescribe the duties and fix the compensation of such officers and employes, subject to any applicable provisions of the State Merit System Law.
[1969 c.599 §5]

184.635 Reports to Governor; delegation of director's powers. (1) The Director of Transportation shall develop and report to the Governor on legislative, budgetary and administrative programs to accomplish comprehensive, long-range, coordinated planning and policy formulation in the matters of public interest related to the department. To accomplish this end, the director may hold public hearings, consult with and use the services and cooperation of other state agencies, employ consultants and appoint advisory and technical committees to assist in the work.

(2) For the purpose of administration, the director shall review the organization of the department and report to the Governor on such changes as he deems necessary properly to segregate and conduct the work of the department.

(3) Whenever a power is granted to the director the power may be exercised by such officer or employe within the department as designated in writing by the director. Any such designation shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State.
[1969 c.599 §6]

184.640 Transportation Administration Account; budget and payment for administrative expenses of department. (1) There is established in the General Fund of the State Treasury the Transportation Administration Account. Notwithstanding any other law, such amounts as may be necessary to pay the administrative expenses of the Department of Transportation shall be continuously credited to the Transportation Administration Account from the biennial appropriations, or transferred to such administration account from the accounts or funds of the divisions and other agencies within the department. Such amounts as may be requested quarterly by the director, with the approval of the Executive Department, shall be credited or transferred to the Transportation Administration Account from the biennial appropriations, accounts or funds of the divisions and other agencies within the department. The Department of Transportation is subject to the allotment system provided for in ORS 291.234 to 291.260.

(2) The amounts credited and transferred to the Transportation Administration Account shall not be greater than the total of any budget approved for the department by the Legislative Assembly and shall be determined by the costs of the administrative, supervisory and review services provided the respective divisions and agencies within the department. All moneys appropriated, credited or transferred to the Transportation Administration Account are appropriated continuously to pay the administrative expenses of the department.

[1969 c.599 §7]

(Mass Transit Division)

184.675 Definitions for ORS 184.680 to 184.695. As used in ORS 184.680 to 184.695, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Commissioners" means the commissioners of the Mass Transit Division.

(2) "Mass Transit Division" or "division" means the Mass Transit Division of the Department of Transportation.

[1969 c.599 §50]

184.680 Mass Transit Division; commissioners; appointment; term; vacancy; compensation and expenses. (1) The Mass Transit Division is established within the Department of Transportation. The division shall be under the supervision and control of three commissioners appointed by the Governor.

(2) The term of office of a commissioner is four years, but the commissioners serve at the pleasure of the Governor. Before the expiration of the term of a commissioner, the Governor shall appoint a successor to assume his duties on July 1 next following. A commissioner is eligible for reappointment. In case of a vacancy for any cause, the Governor shall make an appointment to become immediately effective for the unexpired term.

(3) A commissioner is entitled to compensation and expenses as provided in ORS 292.495.

[1969 c.599 §§51, 53; subsection (3) amended by 1969 c.599 §53a]

184.685 Purpose of division. The Mass Transit Division shall be the state-wide coordinating, planning and research agency for systems involving mass transportation of human beings in this state to insure the most orderly, efficient and economical development of such systems.

[1969 c.599 §57]

184.690 Chairman; quorum; meetings.

(1) The commissioners shall select from among their number a chairman and such other officers as they deem necessary, for such terms and with such duties and powers as the commissioners determine.

(2) A majority of the commissioners constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business.

(3) The commissioners shall meet at least once every month at a time and place determined by the commissioners. The commissioners shall also meet at such other times and places as are specified by the call of the chairman or of a majority of the commissioners.

[1969 c.599 §§54, 55]

184.695 Officers and employes; bonds; organization of division. (1) Subject to any applicable provisions of the State Merit System Law, the commissioners may appoint such subordinate officers and employes as are necessary to the accomplishment of the duties and powers assigned to the Mass Transit Division and prescribe their duties and fix their compensation.

(2) The commissioners may require a fidelity bond with one or more corporate sureties authorized to do business in this state of any officer or employe appointed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. The commissioners shall fix the amount of the bond.

(3) For the purpose of administration, the commissioners, with the approval of the Director of Transportation, may organize and reorganize the division in the manner they deem necessary to conduct properly the work of the division.
