RELATIVES' RESPONSIBILITY LAW

416.010 Definitions for ORS 416.010 to 416.260. For purposes of ORS 416.010 to 416.260:

(1) "Dependent" means any of those persons in addition to a spouse:

(a) Whom the relative has a legal obligation to support;

(b) Who received his chief support from the relative during the preceding calendar year;

(c) Who is under 18 years of age, or is 18 years or over and is regularly attending an institution of learning as a full-time student, or is 18 years or over but is not self-supporting due to a physical or mental handicap; and

(d) Who is under 18 years of age and whose gross income for the preceding calendar year was $600 or less, or is 18 years of age or over and whose gross income for the preceding calendar year was $1,200 or less and who is regularly attending an institution of learning as a full-time student.

(2) "Gross annual income" means the adjusted gross income plus federal income tax deductions of the relative, as determined by the state income tax return filed during the current year (or, if such return has not been filed or is not available in the files of the Department of Revenue, the return filed for the preceding year), less the amount paid by the responsible relative during the period covered by such state income tax return for medical and hospital expenses of the responsible relative, his spouse and those persons who are listed as dependents of the responsible relative on such state income tax return, but amounts paid for such medical and hospital expenses may be subtracted only to the extent that they were not included as part of the monthly contributions required by ORS 416.060. A separate income tax return shall constitute prima facie evidence of the gross income and number of dependents of the individual making it; a joint income tax return of husband and wife shall constitute prima facie evidence of the gross income and number of dependents of the husband or wife, or both.

(3) A "needy person" is one who is eligible for public assistance under the laws of the state.

(4) "Relative" or "relatives" mean the living husband, wife, father, mother, son or daughter 21 years of age or over of an applicant for or a recipient of public assistance.

(5) "Total cost" means the total amount of public assistance of any type furnished by the Public Welfare Division or the county departments to a recipient for a given period. [1961 c.605 §2; 1969 c.597 §250]

416.020 Investigation of financial condition of relatives of applicant for public assistance. (1) Upon making application for public assistance, each applicant shall provide the county department with the names and current addresses, to the extent known to the applicant, of the applicant's living relatives as defined in subsection (4) of ORS 416.010. The applicant shall agree to provide information to the county department under oath and shall consent to investigation by the county department on the applicant's behalf of any person whose income and financial condition is at issue.

(2) Upon receipt of an application for public assistance, each county department, in addition to duties otherwise imposed and acting without unnecessary delay and with diligence, shall investigate the facts relating to the income and financial condition of the applicant's living relatives. In making such investigation the county department shall give each of the applicant's relatives 18 years of age or over written notice of such application and the possibility of the relative's present or future liability under ORS 416.060. Such notice shall include the information that it is given pursuant to ORS 416.010 to 416.260 and a copy of such notice shall be sent to the applicant. Receipt of the notice by the relative is not a condition precedent to the imposition of liability under ORS 416.060 or the use of any remedy provided by law to enforce such liability. The county department may require statements under oath from the applicants and from any such person whose income and financial condition is at issue. A report containing the results of such investigation shall be promptly made to the Public Welfare Division.

[Formerly 411.410]

416.030 Certain relatives exempt from liability for support. (1) Upon receipt of the report of the investigation referred to in ORS 416.020, the Public Welfare Division may make such further investigation of the matter as it may deem necessary to ascertain the facts in relation thereto.

(2) No liability for the support of a needy person shall be imposed under the provisions of ORS 416.010 to 416.260 upon:

(a) A living relative of such needy person during any period when a court order or decree, entered in a proceeding other than a proceeding under ORS 179.610 to 179.770 or 416.010 to 416.260, is in effect, which requires the relative to pay a sum of money for the support of that person.

(b) The child of a needy person if, during the minority of the child, such person wilfully deserted or abandoned the child, or, by expulsion or cruelty, drove the child from the parental home, or, without good cause, was responsible for the child's being "dependent" as defined by subsection (2) of ORS 418.205.

[Formerly 411.420; amended by 1967 c.549 §7]

416.040 Annual financial statement; statement of recipient's relatives; effect of failure to file. (1) By April 15 of each year each relative of a recipient who received public assistance in the preceding calendar year shall file with the Public Welfare Division for the preceding year a sworn statement on a form provided by the division of the relative's gross annual income as defined in subsection (2) of ORS 416.010, along with such other information as the division considers necessary to assist in making a determination of the relative's future ability to contribute to the support of the applicant or recipient.

(2) The division may extend by 90 days

the time for filing of the statement required in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) If the responsible relative fails to file a statement by the date specified under subsection (1) or (2) of this section or files a return which is so contradictory to the report and investigation under ORS 416.020 and 416.030 as to appear not to have been made in good faith, the division may estimate the gross annual income of the relative upon the basis of the information available from the report, from investigation and from the Department of Revenue as provided in ORS 416.230.

(4) The statement referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall relate to such matters and information of the type referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of ORS 411.650 as may be prescribed by the division or required by the division in any case.

[1961 c.605 §6; subsection (4) enacted as 1963 c.499 §8]

416.050 Determination of relative's liability for support contributions. (1) Upon receipt of the statement required under ORS 416.040 or the reports under ORS 416.020 and 416.030, the division shall make a determination of the liability of the relative for contributions required by the relatives' contribution scale in ORS 416.060.

(2) In determining the ability to contribute, the division may consider the financial circumstances of the relative and, in unusual cases, may permit a contribution of less than the amount fixed in the relatives' contribution scale.

(3) If the relative fails to file a statement or files a contradictory statement as described in subsection (3) of ORS 416.040, the division shall, on the basis of its estimate of the relative's income, make a determination of the liability of the relative for contributions required by the relatives' contribution scale.

416.060 Relatives' contribution scale; contribution from other relatives. (1) The living relatives of any needy person are hereby made jointly and severally liable to such person for monthly contributions of money not to exceed total cost, in accordance with the following relatives' contribution scale:

(2) When any living relative is required to contribute according to the scale in subsection (1) of this section, he may compel contribution from any other living relative or relatives liable under ORS 416.010 to 416.260.

(3) If the relative and his spouse each has income with respect to the calendar year during which public assistance is paid and they jointly or severally owe a duty of support to one or more persons for whom the relative may not provide the chief support because of the combined income, the relative is still entitled to claim that number of dependents nearest the whole number obtained by dividing the relative's gross annual income by the combined gross annual income of the relative and his spouse and multiplying the quotient by the number of dependents for whose support they are jointly or severally liable.

[Formerly 411.425]

416.070 Grant of assistance as prima facie evidence of need; findings prima facie correct. (1) In all administrative and judicial proceedings under ORS 416.010 to 416.260, the grant of public assistance by the county commission or the Public Welfare Division to a recipient shall be prima facie evidence that such person does not have income or resources sufficient to provide himself with food, clothing, shelter and such other essentials as are necessary to sustain life and as are compatible with decency and good health.

(2) The findings of the examiner or referee, as reviewed by the division, and in the absence of any showing of bad faith by the division or the examiner or referee, shall be prima facie correct in any subsequent judicial proceedings.

[1961 c.605 §16]

416.080 Liability of relative does not cut off assistance; consent of recipient to recover from relative. The liability of a relative to contribute to the support of a recipient of public assistance established by ORS 416.060 is not grounds for denying or discontinuing public assistance to any person. However, by accepting such public assistance, the recipient thereof shall be deemed to consent to the recovery of an amount equal thereto from any responsible living relative by the division, as provided in ORS 416.260.

[Formerly 411.440 and then 411.428]

416.090 Needy person has cause of action against relatives for support. Each needy person in Oregon has a cause of action at law against any living relative or relatives referred to in ORS 416.020 for the monthly contribution to his support established by ORS 416.030 and 416.060. In any such action at law, judgment may be entered for all accumulated contributions for which defendant is liable under ORS 416.060.

[Formerly 411.450 and then 411.434]

416.100 Division is subrogated to right to prosecute needy person's cause of action. The Public Welfare Division shall be subrogated to the right of each needy person who is a recipient of public assistance in this state to prosecute an action at law arising under ORS 416.090 against any living relative of such recipient.

[Formerly 411.460 and then 411.438]

416.110 Time within which proceedings under ORS 416.100 to 416.140 must be commenced. (1) Any action or proceeding by the Public Welfare Division as provided in ORS 416.100 to 416.140 for the enforcement of any claims arising after January 1, 1959, shall be commenced within three years from the first day of the month during which the public assistance sought to be recovered by the division was paid to the needy person, and any warrant issued by the division for the enforcement of a final decision of the division shall be filed within one year from the date upon which such decision is rendered, or within one year from the date the circuit or Supreme Court decides an appeal from such decision.

(2) A proceeding commenced under ORS 416.120 to 416.140 shall be deemed to commence when the notice required by ORS 416.120 is delivered to the relative.

[Formerly 411.441]

416.120 Notice to relative of contribution due; hearing of relative's objections; records of hearing. (1) After having made a determination of liability of a relative pursuant to ORS 416.010 to 416.100, the Public Welfare Division may, in lieu of bringing an action at law on a theory of subrogation under ORS 416.100, give notice to the responsible relative by certified mail at his last-known address that a contribution pursuant to the scale provided in ORS 416.060 is due and payable to the division for aid given to the needy person and that the relative may request in writing within 30 days of mailing of the notice a hearing on objections to his financial responsibility at a time and place, in the county where the relative resides, as specified by the division.

(2) The hearing shall be held before an examiner or referee, appointed by the division, whose decision is subject to review by the division. The relative sought to be held responsible shall be given notice of the hearing by certified mail or personal service at least 20 days prior to the hearing.

(3) The relative sought to be held responsible shall be given opportunity at the hearing to present evidence as to why the determination of liability made under ORS 416.050 should be reduced or should not be required.

(4) A full and complete record of all documents and proceedings relating to the determination of and objection to liability of the relative shall be maintained by the division. The division shall provide that all testimony at any hearing upon such objection shall be recorded.

[Formerly 411.442; subsection (4) enacted as 1961 c.605 §15]

416.130 Decision after hearing; notice to relative. If the evidence at the hearing under ORS 416.120 or, in case the relative fails to appear at the hearing, the evidence pursuant to any investigation under ORS 416.020 and 416.030, does not disclose sufficient reason why, in the opinion of the division, the relative should not be held responsible in accordance with the contribution scale in ORS

416.060, the division shall notify the relative by certified mail at his last-known address of its final decision within 10 days after making such decision.

[Formerly 411.444]

416.140 Judicial review of decision; notice of appeal; transcript of proceedings. (1) Any relative affected by a final decision under ORS 416.130 shall be entitled to judicial review of the decision. Within 30 days after mailing of the decision of the division the relative may file a notice of appeal in the circuit court in the county where the relative resides or in the county where the division has its main office. A copy of the notice of appeal shall be served on the division by certified mail.

(2) Within 30 days after receipt of a notice of appeal, the division shall make available without cost to the relative a certified copy of a transcript of all documents, papers and testimony taken or used at any hearing under ORS 416.010 to 416.260, together with the findings and decision of the examiner or referee.

[Formerly 411.446]

416.150 Content of petition for appeal; introduction of additional evidence. (1) Within 30 days after the transcript is available the relative may file with the clerk of the circuit court in which he filed his notice of appeal a petition stating the nature of the relative's interest, the facts showing how the relative is affected by the final decision of the division and the ground or grounds upon which the relative contends the final decision should be reversed or modified. A copy of this petition shall be served by certified mail upon the division.

(2) The division shall within 20 days of the receipt of the petition provided in subsection (1) of this section file its reply, together with a certified copy of the same transcript made available to the relative under subsection (2) of ORS 416.140. The division shall send a copy of the reply to the relative by certified mail.

(3) Within 10 days after receipt of the reply, the relative shall file his reply and send a copy to the division by certified mail.

(4) If, before the date set for hearing, application is made to the court for leave to present additional evidence on the issues in the case, and it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that the additional evidence is material and that there were good and substantial reasons for failure to present it in the proceedings before the division, the court may order that the additional evidence be taken before the division upon such conditions as the court considers proper. The division may modify its findings and decision by reason of the additional evidence and shall, within a time to be fixed by the court, file with the reviewing court, to become a part of the record, the additional evidence together with any modifications or new findings or decisions, or its certificate that it elects to stand on its original findings and decision.

416.160 Procedure for judicial review of decision. (1) The review authorized by ORS 416.140 shall be conducted by the court without a jury as a suit in equity and shall be confined to the record, except that, in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the division, not shown in the record, testimony thereon may be taken in the court. The court shall, upon request, hear oral argument and receive written briefs.

(2) The court may adopt the findings of fact of the division and affirm the decision of the division; or it may reverse and set aside the decision of the division, or reverse and remand for further proceedings, after review of all the facts disclosed by the record, and any additional facts established under the provision of subsection (4) of ORS 416.150. The court shall thereupon enter its decree. In the case of reversal of the final decision of the division, the court shall make special findings of fact based upon evidence in the record and conclusions of law indicating clearly all respects in which the final decision of the division is wrong.

(3) If the decision of the division is sustained on appeal and an amount of money is held to be due the division from the relative, the circuit court shall enter a judgment for that amount. The division may sue on the judgment without issuance of the warrant required by ORS 416.170.

416.170 Issuance of warrant to collect contribution; filing; entry in judgment docket. (1) If the relative fails to appeal a final decision of the Public Welfare Division within the time specified in ORS 416.140 or if the court, on appeal, decides in favor of the division, the division may cause to have issued in its name by such person as it designates a warrant directed to the sheriff of any county of the state commanding him to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the relative found within his county, for the payment of the amount of the contribution and the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant to the division and pay to it the money collected by virtue thereof by a time to be therein specified, not less than 60 days from the date of the warrant.

(2) The sheriff shall, not later than five days after the receipt of the warrant, file with the clerk of his county a copy thereof. Thereupon, the clerk shall enter in the judgment docket, in the column for judgment debtors, the name of the relative mentioned in the warrant, and in appropriate columns the amount of the contribution due or portion thereof for which the warrant is issued and the date when such copy is filed.

[Formerly 411.448]

416.180 Lien of warrant; execution of warrant; effect of return of warrant unsatisfied. (1) The amount of a warrant docketed under ORS 416.170 shall become a lien upon the title to and interest in real property or personal property of the relative against whom it is issued in the same manner as a judgment duly docketed in the office of the county clerk. The sheriff shall then proceed upon the warrant in all respects, with like effect and in the same manner provided by law in respect to executions issued against property upon judgment of a court of record, and shall be entitled to the same fees for his services in executing the warrant, to be added to and collected as a part of the warrant liability.

(2) If a warrant is returned not satisfied in full, the Public Welfare Division shall have the same remedies to enforce the claim for contributions against the relative as if the people of the state had recovered judgment against the relative for the amount of the contribution.

[Formerly 411.452]

416.190 Release of lien when sale of property would not satisfy lien in whole or in part. (1) Any person having a lien upon or any interest in real estate against which the amount of the warrant provided for in ORS 416.170 has become a lien, notice of which has been recorded in accordance with the laws of this state prior to the filing of the warrant, may request the Public Welfare Division in writing to release the real estate from the lien of the warrant.

(2) If, upon such request, the division finds that a sale of the property would not result in satisfaction of the contributions due in whole or in part, the division shall execute a release of the lien as to such property and such release shall be conclusive evidence of the extinguishment of the lien as to that property.

(3) If the division fails to act upon a request for release of lien under this section within 60 days from the date of such request, any person having a lien upon or interest in the property against which the warrant has become a lien may make the division a party to any proceeding brought to enforce any interest in or lien upon such real property, and the determination of the court in such proceeding shall be conclusive and binding upon the division and the State of Oregon.

[Formerly 411.454]

416.200 Release of lien in other cases.

In addition to the release of lien provided for in ORS 416.190, the Public Welfare Division may execute releases in the following cases which releases shall be conclusive evidence of the extinguishment of the lien:

(1) If the division finds that the liability for the amount of the contribution, together with all costs in respect thereof has been satisfied; or

(2) If the division finds that the fair market value of that part of such property remaining subject to the lien is at least double the amount of the liability remaining unsatisfied in respect of such contribution and the amount of all prior liens upon such property; or

(3) If there is furnished to the division a bond, in such form and with such security as the division may deem sufficient, conditioned upon the payment of the amount of the warrant, together with all interest in respect thereof, within 60 days after the issuance of such release; or

(4) If there is paid to the division in partial satisfaction of the amount of the warrant an amount not less than the value, as determined by the division, of the interest of the State of Oregon in the part of the property to be so discharged. In determining such value, the division shall give consideration to the fair market value of the part of the property to be so discharged and to such liens thereon as have priority to the lien of the State of Oregon.

[Formerly 411.456]

416.210 Compromise agreements with relatives. ORS 416.060 and 416.120 to 416.250 shall not be construed to prevent the Public Welfare Division from entering into a compromise agreement with the responsible relative at any state of a proceeding under ORS 416.120 to 416.250.

[Formerly 411.458]

416.220 Support order by court; enforcement and modification of order. (1) In addition to the remedy provided in ORS 416.090, the circuit court of the county in which an applicant for or recipient of public assistance resides may, upon petition of the applicant or recipient, order that a relative pay an amount each month for the support of the applicant or recipient. Pending the final order, the court may enter such temporary order as may be necessary for support of the applicant or recipient. In making any support order under this section the court cannot exceed the amounts specified in ORS 416.060.

(2) An order of support entered under subsection (1) of this section shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings.

(3) If an applicant for or recipient of public assistance requires legal aid in exercising his rights under this section or under ORS 416.090, the Public Welfare Division, the county commission or the Welfare Recovery Division of the Department of Justice shall provide necessary legal aid.

(4) The court entering an order under subsection (1) of this section shall retain jurisdiction over the person and may modify its orders upon a showing that the conditions under which the original order was entered have changed so that the original order creates a hardship on the relative or on the person for whose benefit the order was made. The court may modify its orders upon the request of the relative, the person for whose benefit the order was made or the division. [1961 c.605 §19]

416.230 Certification of relative's annual income and number of dependents by Department of Revenue. (1) Whenever it appears necessary to the Public Welfare Division in any proceeding under ORS 416.010 to 416.260, or when the division has reason to believe that the affidavit of financial condition of a relative under ORS 416.020 was not made in good faith, the division may make a written request to the Department of Revenue, asking for a certificate of the gross annual income of the relative, as defined in subsection (2) of ORS 416.010. The request shall contain the name and address of the taxpayer and of the taxpayer's spouse and the name of the applicant for or recipient of public assistance and his relationship to the taxpayer.

(2) The Department of Revenue shall then certify to the division the gross annual income of the named taxpayer, as shown by the taxpayer's return filed during the current year, or, if such return is not available, the return for the preceding year. The Department of Revenue shall also, if the request so states, certify the names of all persons whom the taxpayer has claimed as dependents in computing his adjusted gross income. For purposes of proceedings under ORS 416.010 to 416.260 the certificate of the Department of Revenue shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of the facts asserted therein.

416.240 Proceeding against one relative not to preclude action against others. A proceeding under ORS 416.010 to 416.260 against any relative of a needy person is not an exclusive remedy of the Public Welfare Division and does not preclude the division from taking action against any other relatives believed to be financially able, if full recovery of contributions cannot be made from any one relative.

[Formerly 411.464]

416.250 Remedy of ORS 416.120 to 416.250 as additional remedy. ORS 416.120 to 416.250 is intended to be a remedy for collection of contributions from responsible relatives of needy persons additional to or as an alternative for the action provided in ORS 416.090, 416.100 and 416.260.

[Formerly 411.466]

The Public Welfare Division may, either in its own name or in the name of the recipient of public assistance to whose right of action it has been subrogated, commence and prosecute to final conclusion such legal proceedings as may be deemed necessary for the amount of the relatives' required contribution established by ORS 416.060. From the amount collected as a result of such legal proceedings or as a result of a warrant proceeding under ORS 416.120 to 416.210, the division shall deduct the full amount previously paid as public assistance under the laws of this state and the remainder thereof, after deducting the costs of any proceeding, shall be delivered to the recipient. The amount of any previously paid public assistance recovered in any proceeding shall be distributed by the division to the United States Government and to the Public Welfare Account, as their interests may appear. The division may request the legal services of the Attorney General in the prosecution of any action under this section or ORS 416.120 to 416.250.

416.270 Payments by relative based on estimated income for current year. (1) A relative referred to in ORS 416.010 may make monthly payments on his liability for the current year to the Public Welfare Division. The relative may compute his monthly payments by applying the table provided in ORS 416.060 to his estimated income for the current year. The moneys received by the division shall be paid into the Relative Liability Contribution Fund which hereby is created and shall be retained in that fund until a final determination in accordance with ORS 416.010 to 416.260 is made of the relative's liability for that year. The Relative Liability Contribution Fund hereby is continuously appropriated for the purposes of this section.

(2) In the event that the sum of these payments is greater than the liability of the relative for that year, as computed in accordance with ORS 416.010 to 416.260, the division shall apply the excess first upon any liability of the relative to the division remaining from prior years. If the excess exceeds any prior liability, the balance of the sum of the payments after the current and prior years' liability has been deducted, shall be retained in the Relative Liability Contribution Fund and credited against the relative's liability for the next year unless the relative elects, in writing, to receive the balance. If the relative so elects, the division shall pay the relative out of the Relative Liability Contribution Fund the balance of the sum of his payments after the relative's current and prior years' liability has been deducted.

(3) If the liability of the relative for the current year, as finally determined, in accordance with ORS 416.010 to 416.260, is greater than the sum of the payments made by him for that year, the division shall proceed to collect the remaining liability in accordance with the provisions of ORS 416.010 to 416.260.

(4) Any amount collected by the Public Welfare Division under this section which is retained in the Relative Liability Contribution Fund after the deduction of refunds, if any, shall be distributed to the United States Government, the county and to the Public Welfare Account as their interests may appear, except for any amount retained as a credit against the relative's liability for the next year which shall not be distributed until a final determination, in accordance with ORS 416.010 to 416.260, of the relative's liability for that year is made.
