GENERAL PROVISIONS

173.005 Personnel policies for employes of statutory committees. The appointing authority for regular employes of the Legislative Administration Committee, Legislative Counsel Committee or any other statutory committee of the Legislative Assembly holding regular positions in the same sense as those held by regular employes of those statutory committees, may, in his discretion, adopt and follow policies in regard to working hours, leaves of absence, vacations and sick and disability leave for those employes consistent with ORS 240.505 to 240.520 and applicable rules adopted pursuant thereto.

[1971 c.638 §15]

173.010 [Amended by 1953 c.625 §4; repealed by 1953 c.492 §16]

173.015 [1953 c.625 §4; repealed by 1953 c.492 §16]

173.020 [Repealed by 1953 c.492 §16]

173.030 [Amended by 1953 c.625 §4; repealed by 1953 c.492 §16]

173.040 [Repealed by 1953 c.492 §16]

173.050 [Amended by 1953 c.625 §4; repealed by 1953 c.492 §16]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL COMMITTEE

(Generally)

173.110 [1953 c.492 §1; repealed by 1969 c.256 §1 (173.111 enacted in lieu of 173.110)]

173.111 Legislative Counsel Committee and office of Legislative Counsel created. The Legislative Counsel Committee, referred to in ORS 173.111 to 173.250 as the committee, is established as a joint committee of the Legislative Assembly. The committee shall select a Legislative Counsel to serve as its executive officer.

[1969 c.256 §2 (enacted in lieu of 173.110); 1971 c.638 §4]

173.120 Legislative Counsel to be in attendance upon legislative sessions. The Legislative Counsel shall be in attendance upon all sessions of the Legislative Assembly.

[1953 c.492 §2]

173.130 Performance of legislative services. (1) The Legislative Counsel shall prepare or assist in the preparation of legislative measures when requested to do so by a member of the Legislative Assembly. Upon the written request of a state agency the Legislative Counsel may perform a similar service for the agency.

(2) The Legislative Counsel shall give such consideration to and service concerning any measure before the Legislative Assembly as circumstances will permit, and which is in any way requested by the House of Representatives or Senate, or any committee of the Legislative Assembly having the measure before it for consideration.

(3) The Legislative Counsel, pursuant to the policies and directions of the Legislative Counsel Committee and in conformity with any applicable rules of the House or Senate, shall perform or cause to be performed, as circumstances will permit, research service requested by any committee of the Legislative Assembly in connection with the performance of its functions. Research assignments made to the Legislative Counsel Committee by joint or concurrent resolution of the Legislative Assembly shall be given priority over other research requests received or initiated by the committee. The research service to be performed includes the administrative services incident to the accomplishment of the research requests or assignments.

[1953 c.492 §3; 1959 c.295 §2]

173.135 Participation in legal proceedings to protect legislative interests. When deemed necessary or advisable to protect the official interests of the Legislative Assembly, one or more legislative committees, or one or more members of the Legislative Assembly, the committee may direct the Legislative Counsel and his staff, or may retain any member of the Oregon State Bar, to appear in, commence, prosecute or defend any action, suit, matter, cause or proceeding in any court or agency of this state or of the United States. Expenses and costs incurred pursuant to this section may be paid by the committee from any funds available to the committee.

[1961 c.167 §32]

173.140 Preparation of initiative measures. The Legislative Counsel shall cooperate with the proponents of an initiative measure in its preparation when:

(1) Requested in writing so to do by 50 or more electors proposing the measure; and

(2) In the judgment of the committee there is reasonable probability that the measure will be submitted to the voters of the state under the laws relating to the submission of initiative measures.

[1953 c.492 §4]

173.150 Continuous revision program; publication and distribution of statute editions and other materials. (1) The committee, through the Legislative Counsel, shall formulate, supervise and execute plans and methods for:

(a) The revision, clarification, classification, arrangement, codification, annotation, indexing, printing, binding, publication, copy-righting, sale and distribution of the Oregon Revised Statutes, including index, replacement parts, annotations and supplements, and all editions thereof.

(b) The printing, binding, indexing, publication, copy-righting, sale and distribution of other materials the committee considers necessary or desirable to carry out its powers and duties.

(2) The committee shall determine when editions and publications shall be published, and shall fix the prices thereof.
[1953 c.492 §5; 1961 c.279 §1]

173.152 Free distribution of Oregon Revised Statutes and replacement parts; issuance to legislators for use during session. (1) The state officer or agency designated by law to distribute copies of Oregon Revised Statutes, including index and annotations, shall furnish, free of charge and in addition to distribution otherwise authorized:

(a) For each member of the Legislative Assembly who did not serve during the session immediately preceding, one set and, for as long as he remains a member, the current replacement parts therefor as issued. Such sets shall be furnished, for issuance to the members, to the state officer or agency designated in ORS 171.135.

(b) For each member of the Legislative Assembly who served during the session immediately preceding, one set for his official use during each session. Such sets shall be furnished, for issuance to the members, to the state officer or agency designated in ORS 171.135. The issuing officer or agency upon final adjournment of each session shall collect sets issued pursuant to this paragraph for reissue during subsequent sessions. Current replacement parts for these sets shall be furnished as issued.

(c) For each judgeship, the salary of which is paid by the state, one set and current replacement parts therefor as issued, for each county in which the judge regularly holds court. Sets and current replacement parts distributed pursuant to this paragraph shall be delivered by the recipients to their successors in office.

(2) (a) The costs of furnishing sets and replacement parts therefor to members of the Legislative Assembly shall be paid from the appropriations made for the payment of the expenses of the Legislative Assembly.

(b) The costs of furnishing sets and replacement parts therefor pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section shall be paid from the state appropriations made for the payment of the expenses of the various judgeships.

[Formerly 171.272; amended by 1963 c.420 §1; 1965 c.372 §1]

173.155 [1959 c.295 §1; repealed by 1963 c.292 §1 (ORS 173.310 to 173.340 enacted in lieu of ORS 173.155)]

173.160 Powers and duties of Legislative Counsel in preparing editions for publication. In preparing editions of the statutes for publication and distribution, the Legislative Counsel shall not alter the sense, meaning, effect or substance of any Act, but, within such limitations, may renumber sections and parts of sections of the Acts, change the wording of head-notes, rearrange sections, change reference numbers to agree with renumbered chapters, sections or other parts, substitute the proper subsection, section or chapter or other division numbers, strike out figures or words which are merely repetitious, change capitalization for the purpose of uniformity, and correct manifest clerical or typographical errors.

[1953 c.492 §6]

173.170 Legislative Counsel to certify that printed statutes are correct copies of enrolled bill; effects of certification. (1) When any edition of the statutes, or part or supplement designed to replace parts of or to supplement a previous edition and to bring such edition up to date, is published by the committee, the Legislative Counsel shall cause to be printed in the edition, part or supplement a certificate that he has compared each section in such edition, part or supplement with the original section in the enrolled bill, and that, with the exception of the changes in form permitted by ORS 173.160 and other changes specifically authorized by law, the sections in the published edition, part or supplement are correctly copied.

(2) Any edition, part or supplement certified as provided in subsection (1) of this section shall constitute prima facie evidence of the law in all courts and proceedings, and any section in such edition, part or supplement may be amended or repealed by amending or repealing such section of the edition, part or supplement without reference to the legislative Act from which it was derived. No compilation of the statute laws of Oregon not bearing such certificate, or a similar certificate of the Reviser of Statutes, shall be admissible as evidence of the law in any court or proceeding.

173.180 Type used in printing statutes may be preserved; uses of type. (1) In any contract for the printing of any editions of the statutes, provision may be made for preservation or purchase, on behalf of the state, of the type or plates from which the editions were printed, for use in producing future editions or publications.

(2) The committee may permit the use of such type or plates or material printed therewith for the production of pamphlets of particular portions of the statute laws requested by any public agency, under such terms and conditions as the committee considers reasonable.

173.190 [1953 c.492 §9; 1961 c.167 §29; repealed by 1969 c.256 §3 (173.191 enacted in lieu of 173.190)]

173.191 Membership; term; vacancies; chairman; expenses; advisory committees. (1) The Legislative Counsel Committee shall consist of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the President of the Senate, five members of the House appointed by the Speaker, and four members of the Senate appointed by the President. The Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate may, except when serving as Governor, each designate an alternate from time to time from among the members of his house to exercise his powers as a member of the committee.

(2) The term of a member of the committee shall expire upon the convening of the Legislative Assembly in regular session next following the member's appointment. Vacancies occurring in the membership of the committee shall be filled by appointment by the President or Speaker, as the case may be.

(3) The committee has a continuing existence and may meet, act and conduct its business during the sessions of the Legislative Assembly or any recess thereof, and in the interim period between sessions but the committee has no authority to affect the rules of either house.

(4) The committee shall select its own chairman who may, in addition to other acts authorized, approve disbursements for indebtedness or expenses.

(5) Members of the committee shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred or paid in the performance of their duties as members of the committee, such reimbursement to be made from funds appropriated for such purpose after submission of approved claims therefor.

(6) The committee may appoint advisory committees or subcommittees, which may include individuals other than members of the Legislative Assembly, and may reimburse the members of such committees and subcommittees for their actual and necessary travel and other expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

[1969 c.256 §4 (enacted in lieu of 173.190); 1971 c.638 §5]

173.200 Legislative Counsel. (1) The committee shall select the Legislative Counsel, who shall serve at the pleasure of the committee. The Legislative Counsel shall be a person authorized to practice law in the highest court of one of the states of the United States.

(2) The committee shall fix the annual salary of the Legislative Counsel. Subject to and in the manner otherwise provided by law, the Legislative Counsel shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred or paid by him in the performance of his duties.

173.210 Employment of staff; optional coverage under public employes' retirement laws. (1) Subject to the approval of the committee, the Legislative Counsel may employ and fix the compensation of such professional assistants and clerical and other employes as he deems necessary for the effective conduct of the work under his charge.

(2) Except as provided in this subsection an employe of the committee, which includes for the purposes of this subsection the Legislative Counsel, shall not be considered an "employe" as the term is defined in the public employes' retirement laws. However, an employe of the committee may at his option be considered an "employe" as defined in such laws. The option, once exercised by written notification directed to the Public Employes Retirement Board, may not be revoked subsequently, except as may otherwise be provided by law. Upon receipt of such notification by the board, an employe of the committee who would otherwise, but for the exemption provided in this subsection, be considered an "employe" as the term is defined in the public employes' retirement laws shall be so considered.

[1953 c.492 §11]

173.215 Effect of expiration of terms of committee members. (1) The expiration of the terms of members of the Legislative Counsel Committee upon the convening of the Legislative Assembly in regular session next following the commencement of their terms, as provided by ORS 173.191, does not affect the employment of any individual filling a position previously approved by the committee.

(2) After the convening of the Legislative Assembly in regular session and until such time as the newly appointed committee provides otherwise:

(a) The Legislative Counsel may employ and fix the compensation of individuals he deems necessary for the effective conduct of the work under his charge.

(b) Notwithstanding ORS 173.111 and 173.200, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, in case of a vacancy in the position of Legislative Counsel, may jointly select a Legislative Counsel having the qualifications set forth in ORS 173.200 to serve at their pleasure at a salary they jointly fix, not exceeding that last fixed by the committee. The President and Speaker may act in lieu of the committee under ORS 293.335 in designating the Legislative Counsel they select to approve voucher claims and in filing the statement of designation, and the provisions of ORS 293.335 shall apply as if the Legislative Counsel they select and so designate had been so designated by the committee.

[1965 c.113 §1; 1967 c.5 §1]

173.220 Location of Legislative Counsel's office. The permanent office of the Legislative Counsel shall be in the State Capitol, where he shall be provided with suitable and sufficient offices convenient to the chambers of the House and Senate.

[1953 c.492 §12]

173.230 Confidential nature of matters handled by committee's staff. Neither the Legislative Counsel nor any employe of the committee shall reveal to any person not an employe or a member of the committee the contents or nature of any matter before him in his official capacity, if the person bringing the matter before the committee or employe designates the matter as confidential. Matters not designated as confidential may only be revealed as prescribed by the rules of the committee.

173.240 Committee's staff prohibited from influencing legislation. Neither the Legislative Counsel nor any employe of the committee shall oppose, urge or attempt to influence legislation.

[1953 c.492 §14]

173.250 ORS Revolving Account. (1) The proceeds from the sale of any edition or publication made pursuant to ORS 173.150 shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of a revolving account for the use of the committee in publishing and distributing future editions or publications. The account, to be known as the ORS Revolving Account, shall be continuously appropriated for such purpose.

(2) There shall also be deposited to the credit of the ORS Revolving Account any moneys received through the sale of type metal or plates belonging to the committee or any moneys received by the committee in connection with the use of type or plates, or material printed therewith pursuant to ORS 173.180.

(3) The committee, from time to time, may cause to be transferred from the ORS Revolving Account to the General Fund such moneys as the committee may consider unnecessary for use in publishing and distributing future editions or publications.

(4) Any unexpended and unobligated balance in the ORS Revolving Account in excess of $125,000 as of July 1 of any odd-numbered year, as certified by the Legislative Counsel, shall be transferred from the account to the General Fund to be available for general governmental expenditures.

[1953 c.492 §15; 1957 c.60 §1; subsection (4) enacted as 1961 c.159 §2; 1969 c.256 §5]

(Substantive Law Revision Program)

173.310 Substantive law revision program; Law Improvement Committee; appointment; vacancy; tenure; expenses. (1) The Legislative Counsel Committee shall cause to be conducted a continuous substantive law revision program and shall establish the Law Improvement Committee to supervise the conduct of the program.

(2) The Law Improvement Committee shall consist of the chairman of the Legislative Counsel Committee and eight other members appointed by the chairman of the Legislative Counsel Committee, subject to approval by the Legislative Counsel Committee. Not less than four of the members shall be appointed from the membership of the Oregon State Bar committee on law revision, or from a standing bar committee with similar functions in the event there is no committee by that name. Four members shall initially be appointed for a term of two years and the other four members for a term of four years. All appointments thereafter shall be for four years, except that:

(a) A vacancy for any cause occurring before the expiration of a term shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term only; and

(b) All appointed members serve at the pleasure of the chairman of the Legislative Counsel Committee, subject to approval by the Legislative Counsel Committee. An appointed member is eligible for reappointment.

(3) A member of the Law Improvement Committee is entitled to compensation and expenses as provided in ORS 292.495.

[1963 c.292 §2 (173.310 to 173.340 enacted in lieu of 173.155); 1969 c.314 §10; 1971 c.638 §7]

173.320 Authority of Law Improvement Committee. Except as otherwise provided in ORS 173.310 to 173.340, the Law Improvement Committee has the duties and powers necessary to supervise the conduct of the continuous substantive law revision program, including but not limited to the following:

(1) To examine the Constitution, statutes and common law of the state for the purpose of discovering defects and anachronisms therein and recommending needed reforms.

(2) To receive and consider suggestions and proposed changes in the law from interested groups and individuals.

(3) To recommend from time to time such changes in the law as are considered necessary to modify or eliminate antiquated and inequitable rules of law and to bring the law of the state into harmony with modern conditions.

(4) To report recommendations with respect to changes in the law to the Legislative Assembly and, if considered desirable, to accompany such reports with proposed legislation designed to carry out such recommendations.

[1963 c.292 §3 (ORS 173.310 to 173.340 enacted in lieu of ORS 173.155)]

173.330 Legislative Counsel to furnish services. Subject to approval by the Legislative Counsel Committee, the Legislative Counsel shall furnish to the Law Improvement Committee such services of personnel and such other facilities as are necessary to enable the Law Improvement Committee to carry out its functions as provided by law.

[1963 c.292 §4 (ORS 173.310 to 173.340 enacted in lieu of ORS 173.155)]

173.340 Advisory committees; expenses. Subject to approval by the Legislative Counsel Committee, the Law Improvement Committee, from time to time, may appoint such advisory committees as are necessary to assist the Law Improvement Committee in carrying out its functions as provided by law. A member of an advisory committee shall receive no compensation for his services as a member; but, subject to any other applicable law regulating travel and other expenses for state officers, he shall receive his actual and necessary travel and other expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties, providing funds are appropriated therefor in the budget of the Legislative Counsel Committee.

[1963 c.292 §5 (ORS 173.310 to 173.340 enacted in lieu of ORS 173.155)]

173.350 Receipt and use of gifts. (1) The Law Improvement Committee established under ORS 173.310 may receive and use money and property from public and private donors, subject to any limitations imposed upon its use by the donor, as the committee determines proper to carry out its duties and powers.

(2) Unless otherwise provided by the donor, any money received by the Law Improvement Committee under subsection (1) of this section shall be deposited and disbursed through the Legislative Counsel Committee in the same manner as are state funds made available to the Law Improvement Committee.

[1965 c.397 §1]

LEGISLATIVE FISCAL OFFICER*173.410 Appointing authority for Legislative Fiscal Officer; selection of officer.

(1) As used in ORS 173.410, 173.420 and 173.450, "appointing authority" means the Joint Committee on Ways and Means during a session of the Legislative Assembly and the Emergency Board during the interim between sessions of the Legislative Assembly.

(2) The appointing authority shall select the Legislative Fiscal Officer who shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority and under its direction.

[1959 c.70 §1; 1971 c.679 §1]

173.420 Duties of Legislative Fiscal Officer. Subject to the procedures and priorities determined by the appointing authority, the Legislative Fiscal Officer shall:

(1) Ascertain facts and make recommendations to the Legislative Assembly concerning the Governor's budget report.

(2) Ascertain facts concerning state revenues and expenditures and make estimates concerning state revenues and expenditures.

(3) Ascertain facts and make recommendations concerning the fiscal implications of the organization and functions of the state and its agencies.

(4) Ascertain facts and make recommendations on such other matters as may be provided for by joint or concurrent resolution.

(5) Furnish such assistance in the performance of their duties as is requested by the House Taxation Committee, the Senate Taxation Committee and other legislative standing and interim committees and members of the Legislative Assembly.

[1959 c.70 §2; 1971 c.679 §2]

173.430 [1959 c.70 §11; 1961 c.167 §14; repealed by 1971 c.679 §7]

173.440 [1959 c.70 §§3, 4, 5; 1961 c.41 §1; 1961 c.167 §33a; repealed by 1971 c.679 §7]

173.450 Employment of staff; compensation and expenses of staff members. (1) Subject to the approval of the appointing authority, the Legislative Fiscal Officer may employ and fix the compensation of such professional assistants and clerical and other employes as he finds necessary for the effective conduct of the work under his charge.

(2) The appointing authority shall fix the salary of the Legislative Fiscal Officer.

(3) Subject to the limitations otherwise provided by law for expenses of state officers, the Legislative Fiscal Officer and members of his staff shall be reimbursed for all actual and necessary expenses incurred in performing their duties.

[1959 c.70 §§6, 7, 8; 1971 c.679 §3]

173.460 [1965 c. 113 §2; repealed by 1971 c.679 §7]

173.510 [1965 c.581 §1; repealed by 1971 c.679 §7]

173.520 [1965 c.581 §2; repealed by 1971 c.679 §7]

173.530 [1965 c.581 §4; repealed by 1971 c.679 §7]

173.540 [1965 c.581 §§6, 10; 1969 c.314 §11; repealed by 1971 c.679 §7]

173.550 [1965 c.581 §11; repealed by 1971 c.679 §7]

173.560 [1965 c.581 §12; repealed by 1971 c.679 §7]

173.570 [1965 c.581 §9; repealed by 1971 c.679 §7]

173.580 [1965 c.581 §7; repealed by 1971 c.679 §7]

173.590 [1965 c.581 §8; repealed by 1971 c.679 §7]

173.600 [1965 c.581 §5; repealed by 1971 c.679 §7]

LEGISLATIVE ADMINISTRATION COMMITTEE

173.710 Legislative Administration Committee and office of Legislative Administrator created. The Legislative Administration Committee hereby is established as a joint committee of the Legislative Assembly. The committee shall select a Legislative Administrator who shall serve at the pleasure of the committee and under its direction.

[1969 c.620 §1; 1971 c.638 §8]

173.720 Duties of committee. Subject to the procedures and priorities determined by the Legislative Administration Committee, the Legislative Administrator shall:

(1) Coordinate operations of the Senate and House of Representatives in order to assure proper timing and efficient work flow.

(2) Control the style of the legislative Journals and the form of joint publications of the Senate and House of Representatives.

(3) Review legislative organization, rules and procedure in cooperation with the Legislative Counsel with the intent of modernizing legislative operations.

(4) Conduct a continuing study of possible applications of technological changes and improvements, such as data processing and electronic equipment, to improving legislative procedures, and when considered advisable, make recommendations to adopt such applications.

(5) Arrange for and coordinate orientation conferences for members of the Legislative Assembly.

(6) Study and make recommendations on legislative working conditions, including members' compensation.

(7) Control all space and facilities within the State Capitol Building and such other space as is assigned to the Legislative Assembly.

(8) Exercise continuing supervision, coordination and support of clerical and technical services to legislative interim committees, including consideration of adequacy of staff and technical services for such committees.

(9) Perform service functions for the Legislative Assembly, including but not limited to accounting, interim printing and supplies.

(10) Provide research facilities and services to members of the Legislative Assembly and committees thereof that are not otherwise provided by the staff of the Legislative Counsel.

(11) Enter into such contracts as considered necessary to carry out the functions of the Legislative Administration Committee.

(12) Exercise continuing supervision and coordination of all supplies, materials, equipment and other property of the Legislative Assembly during the session and during the interim period between sessions.

(13) Coordinate the use of legislative supplies, materials, equipment and other property by legislative interim committees and by standing committees of the Legislative Assembly.

(14) Arrange for the rental by or loan to state agencies of legislative equipment not required for use of the Legislative Assembly or any committee thereof.

[1969 c.620 §3; 1971 c.638 §9]

173.730 Committee membership; status; term; expenses; chairman. (1) The Legislative Administration Committee shall consist of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the President of the Senate, five members of the House appointed by the Speaker, and four members of the Senate appointed by the President. The Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate may, except when serving as Governor, each designate an alternate from time to time from among the members of his house to exercise his powers as a member of the committee. No more than four House members of the committee shall be of the same political party. No more than three Senate members of the committee shall be of the same political party.

(2) The committee has a continuing existence and may meet, act and conduct its business during sessions of the Legislative Assembly or any recess thereof, and in the interim period between sessions.

(3) The term of a member shall expire upon the convening of the Legislative Assembly in regular session next following the commencement of the member's term. When a vacancy occurs in the membership of the committee in the interim between sessions, until such vacancy is filled, the membership of the committee shall be deemed not to include the vacant position for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present and a quorum is a majority of the remaining members.

(4) Members of the committee shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred or paid in the performance of their duties as members of the committee, such reimbursement to be made from funds appropriated for such purpose, after submission of approved voucher claims.

(5) The presiding officers shall alternate at succeeding meetings as chairman of the committee and vice chairman thereof. The chairman may, in addition to other acts authorized, approve voucher claims.

(6) Action of the committee shall be taken only upon the affirmative vote of the majority of members of the committee.

[1969 c.620 §2; 1971 c.638 §10]

173.740 Employment of staff; compensation and expenses of staff; staff prohibited from influencing legislation. (1) Subject to the approval of the Legislative Administration Committee, the Legislative Administrator may employ and fix the compensation of such assistants and clerks as he finds necessary for the effective conduct of the work under his charge.

(2) The Legislative Administration Committee shall fix the annual salary of the Legislative Administrator.

(3) Neither the Legislative Administrator nor any employe of the committee shall oppose, urge or attempt to influence any measure pending before the Legislative Assembly.

(4) Subject to the limitations otherwise provided by law for the expenses of state officers, the Legislative Administrator and members of his staff shall be reimbursed for all actual and necessary expenses incurred in performing their duties.

[1969 c.620 §4]

173.750 Effect of expiration of terms of committee members. The expiration of the terms of members of the Legislative Administration Committee upon the convening of the Legislative Assembly in regular session next following the commencement of their terms, as provided in ORS 173.730, does not affect the employment of any individual filling a position previously approved by the committee. After the convening of the Legislative Assembly in regular session and until such time as the newly appointed committee provides otherwise, the Legislative Administrator may employ and fix the compensation of individuals he deems necessary for the effective conduct of the work under his charge.
