180.040 Governor to fill vacancy by appointment; term of appointee. At any time when a vacancy may by any cause occur in the office of Attorney General, the Governor shall appoint a suitable person to be Attorney General, who shall hold his office until the next general election, when his successor shall be elected for a full term and shall qualify as prescribed in ORS 180.030.

180.050 Location of office. The Attorney General shall keep and attend his office at the capital of the state. The state shall provide and furnish the office.

(2) The money appropriated by subsection (1) of this section shall be transferred to an account in the General Fund in the State Treasury to be known as the Antitrust Revolving Account. All moneys in such revolving account are appropriated and constitute a continuous appropriation out of the General Fund for the purposes of this section. The creation of the revolving account shall not require an allotment or allocation of moneys pursuant to ORS 291.234 to 291.260.

(3) All sums of money received by the Department of Justice under a judgment, settlement or compromise, including damages, attorney fees, costs, disbursements and other recoveries, in actions and suits under the federal antitrust laws shall, upon receipt, be deposited with the State Treasurer. (2) The Emergency Board may authorize increases in the maximum allowable balance in the Antitrust Revolving Account to reflect the percentage credits thereto authorized by subsection (1) of this section. However, if by reason of such credits, the amount in the account exceeds such allowable maximum, the excess shall be credited to the General Fund.
