GENERAL PROVISIONS

316.002 Short title. This chapter may be cited as the Personal Income Tax Act of 1969. As used in this chapter, the term "this chapter" refers only to the Personal Income Tax Act of 1969.

[1969 c.493 §1]

316.005 [1953 c.304 §1; repealed by 1969 c.493 §99]

316.007 Policy. It is the intent of the Legislative Assembly, by the adoption of this chapter, in so far as possible, to make the Oregon personal income tax law identical in effect to the provisions of the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954 relating to the measurement of taxable income of individuals, estates and trusts, modified as necessary by the state's jurisdiction to tax; to achieve this result by the application of the various provisions of the federal Internal Revenue Code relating to the definition of income, exceptions and exclusions therefrom, deductions (business and personal), accounting methods, taxation of trusts, estates and partnerships, basis, depreciation and other pertinent provisions relating to gross income as defined therein, resulting in a final amount called "taxable income" in the Internal Revenue Code; and to impose a tax on residents of this state measured by taxable income wherever derived and to impose a tax on the income of nonresidents that is ascribable to sources within this state.

316.010 [1953 c.304 §2; 1953 c.552 §1; repealed by 1969 c.493 §99]

316.012 Terms have same meaning as in federal laws; effect of constitutional amendment. Any term used in this chapter has the same meaning as when used in a comparable context in the laws of the United States relating to federal income taxes, unless a different meaning is clearly required or the term is specifically defined in this chapter. Any reference in this chapter to the laws of the United States or to the Internal Revenue Code means the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and amendments thereto in effect on December 31, 1968, and other laws of the United States relating to federal income taxes in effect on December 31, 1968. However, if House Joint Resolution 3 (1969 regular session) is approved by vote of the people, any reference in this chapter to the laws of the United States relating to income taxes or to the Internal Revenue Code, after the effective date of the constitutional amendment approved in House Joint Resolution 3 (1969 regular session), means the laws of the United States relating to income taxes or the Internal Revenue Code as they may be in effect for the taxable year of the taxpayer, except where the Legislative Assembly has specifically provided otherwise.

Note: The amendment to the Oregon Constitution, proposed by House Joint Resolution 3 (1969 regular session), was adopted by the people on November 3, 1970, and is compiled as section 32, Article IV of the Oregon Constitution.

316.042 Amount of tax where joint return used. In the case of a joint return of husband and wife, pursuant to subsection (2) of ORS 316.122 or pursuant to ORS 316.367, the tax imposed by ORS 316.037 shall be twice the tax which would be imposed if the taxable income were cut in half. 316.047 Transitional provision to prevent doubling income or deductions. If any provision of the Internal Revenue Code or of this chapter requires that any amount be added to or deducted from federal gross income or the net income taxable under this chapter that previously had been added to or deducted from net income taxable under the Oregon law in effect prior to the taxpayer's taxable year as to which this chapter is first effective, then, in such event, appropriate adjustment shall be made to the net income for the year or years subject to this chapter so as to prohibit the double taxation or the double deduction of any such amount that previously had entered into the computation of taxable income. Differences such as the difference in basis of property used by the taxpayer for federal and Oregon income tax returns and on account of the treatment of operating losses shall be resolved by application of this principle. However, the department, in its audit of a return, shall not apply any adjustment under this section which, in its opinion, if applied would result in an increase or decrease of tax liability of less than $25. Where applicable, the provisions of ORS 314.275 shall be utilized.

COMPUTATION OF TAXABLE INCOME

(Generally)

316.055 [1953 c.304 §8; 1953 c.552 §3; 1957 (s.s.) c.15 §1; 1963 c.627 §3 (referred and rejected); repealed by 1969 c.493 §99]

316.062 Taxable income of resident. The entire taxable income of a resident of this state is his federal taxable income as defined in the laws of the United States, with the modifications, additions and subtractions provided in this chapter.

316.065 [1953 c.304 §10; repealed by 1959 c.593 §14 (referred and rejected); repealed by 1963 c.627 §23 (referred and rejected); repealed by 1969 c.493 §99]

However, the amount subtracted under this section shall be reduced by any interest on indebtedness incurred to carry the obligations or securities described in this section, and by any expenses incurred in the production of interest or dividend income described in this section to the extent that such expenses, including amortizable bond premiums, are deductible in determining federal taxable income.

(b) The amount of any federal income taxes actually paid by the taxpayer during the taxable year, less the amount of any refunds or abatement of federal taxes paid or credited to the taxpayer during the taxable year.

(c) Amounts received in the taxable year in compensation for personal services rendered in prior years, from a pension, annuity, retirement or similar fund under a public retirement system established by the United States, including the retirement system for the performance of service in the Armed Forces of the United States, or by this state or any municipal corporation or political subdivision of this state (but excluding the Public Employees' Retirement System established by ORS chapter 237). (d) The amount of any allowance for depletion in excess of the taxpayer's adjusted basis in the property depleted, deducted on the taxpayer's federal income tax return for the taxable year, pursuant to sections 613, 614 and 615, Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(3) In the case of amounts received from the retirement system for performance of service in the Armed Forces of the United States as described in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section the $2,400 exclusion shall be granted only to retirees age 65 or older and such exclusion is further reduced dollar for dollar to the extent of any earned income received during the taxable year. "Earned income" means salaries, wages, or professional fees and other amounts received as compensation for personal services rendered, past or present. In the case of a taxpayer engaged in a trade or business in which both personal services and capital are material income producing factors only 50 percent of the income from such trade or business

(Residents)

316.082 Credit for taxes paid another state. (1) A resident individual shall be allowed a credit against the tax otherwise due under this chapter for the amount of any income tax imposed on him for the taxable year by another state of the United States, a foreign country or the District of Columbia on income derived from sources therein and that is also subject to tax under this chapter.

(2) The credit provided under this section shall not exceed the proportion of the tax otherwise due under this chapter that the amount of the taxpayer's adjusted gross income derived from sources in the other taxing jurisdiction bears to his entire adjusted gross income as modified by this chapter.

(3) The department shall provide by regulation the procedure for obtaining credit provided by this section and the proof required.

(4) No credit allowed under this section or ORS 316.292 shall be applied in calculating tax due under this chapter if the tax upon which the credit is based has been claimed as a deduction, unless the tax is restored to income on the Oregon return.

316.087 Federal retirement income tax credit. A resident individual shall be allowed a credit against the tax otherwise due under this chapter in an amount equal to 25 percent of the retirement income tax credit the taxpayer is entitled to and claims as a credit on his federal income tax return for the same year to the extent that the income on which the credit is based or calculated is subject to tax under this chapter. If income on which the credit is based or calculated is subtracted in part under ORS 316.067, the credit shall be considered to have been based or calculated on the subtracted income first.

Note: See note under 316.067.

316.092 Credit for pollution control facility. (1) A credit against taxes imposed by this chapter for taxpayers owning a pollution control facility or facilities certified under ORS 449.635 shall be allowed if the taxpayer has not claimed an exemption therefor under ORS 307.405. The maximum credit allowed in any one tax year shall be five percent of the cost of the facility or facilities, but shall not exceed the tax liability of the taxpayer.

(2) To qualify for the credit the pollution control facility must be erected, constructed or installed on or after January 1, 1967, and on or before December 31, 1978.

(3) (a) The taxpayer who is allowed the credit must be the owner of the trade or business that utilizes Oregon property requiring a pollution control facility to prevent or minimize pollution or a person who, as a lessee or pursuant to an agreement, conducts the trade or business that operates or utilizes such property. As used in this paragraph, "owner" includes a contract purchaser; and

(b) The facility must be owned or leased during the tax year by the taxpayer claiming the credit and must have been in use and operation during said tax year.

(4) A credit under this section may be claimed by a taxpayer only in those tax years which begin on or after January 1, 1969, and on or before December 31, 1978, regardless of when the facility or facilities are erected, constructed or installed in the period specified in subsection (2) of this section. The maximum total credit allowable shall not exceed 50 percent of the cost of such facility or facilities.

(5) The credit provided by this section is in lieu of any depreciation or amortization deduction for the facility to which the taxpayer otherwise may be entitled under the provisions of the federal Internal Revenue Code in determining taxable income for the taxable year under the provisions of this chapter. The taxpayer's tax return under this chapter shall clearly show the adjustments thereto made necessary by this subsection and by ORS 314.250.

(6) Upon any sale, exchange, or other disposition of a facility, notice thereof shall be given to the Environmental Quality Commission who shall revoke the certification covering such facility as of the date of such disposition. The transferee may apply for a new certificate under ORS 449.625, but the tax credit available to such transferee shall be limited to the amount of credit not claimed by the transferor.

(7) Any tax credit otherwise allowable under this section which is not used by the taxpayer in a particular year may be carried forward and offset against the taxpayer's tax liability for the next succeeding tax year. Any credit remaining unused in such next succeeding tax year may be carried forward and used in the second succeeding tax year, and likewise, any credit not used in that second succeeding tax year may be carried forward and used in the third succeeding tax year, but may not be carried forward for any tax year thereafter. Credits may be carried forward to and used in a tax year beyond the years specified in subsection (4) of this section.

(8) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the taxpayer's adjusted basis for determining gain or loss shall be further decreased by any tax credits allowed under this section.

As used in this paragraph, "owner" includes a contract purchaser; and

(b) The facility must be owned or leased during the tax year by the taxpayer claiming the credit and must have been in use and operation during said tax year.

(4) A credit under this section may be claimed by a taxpayer only in those tax years which begin on or after January 1, 1967, and on or before December 31, 1978, regardless of when the facility or facilities are erected, constructed or installed in the period specified in subsection (2) of this section. The maximum total credit allowable shall not exceed:

(a) If the portion of the actual cost of the facility properly allocable to the prevention, control or reduction of air or water pollution is 80 percent or more, 50 percent of the cost of such facility or facilities.

(b) If the portion of the actual cost of the facility properly allocable to the prevention, control or reduction of air or water pollution is 60 percent or more and less than 80 percent, 40 percent of the cost of such facility or facilities.

(c) If the portion of the actual cost of the facility properly allocable to the prevention, control or reduction of air or water pollution is 40 percent or more and less than 60 percent, 30 percent of the cost of such facility or facilities.

(d) If the portion of the actual cost of the facility properly allocable to the prevention, control or reduction of air or water pollution is 20 percent or more and less than 40 percent, 20 percent of the cost of such facility or facilities.

(e) If the portion of the actual cost of the facility properly allocable to the prevention, control or reduction of air or water pollution is less than 20 percent, 10 percent of the cost of such facility or facilities.

(5) The credit provided by this section is in lieu of any depreciation or amortization deduction for the facility to which the taxpayer otherwise may be entitled under this chapter for such year to the extent of the highest percentage figure certified by the Environmental Quality Commission as the portion of the actual cost properly allocable to the prevention, control or reduction of air or water pollution.

(6) Upon any sale, exchange, or other disposition of a facility, notice thereof shall be given to the Environmental Quality Commission who shall revoke the certification covering such facility as of the date of such disposition. The transferee may apply for a new certificate under ORS 449.635, but the tax credit available to such transferee shall be limited to the amount of credit not claimed by the transferor.

(7) Any tax credit otherwise allowable under this section which is not used by the taxpayer in a particular year may be carried forward and offset against the taxpayer's tax liability for the next succeeding tax year. Any credit remaining unused in such next succeeding tax year may be carried forward and used in the second succeeding tax year, and likewise, any credit not used in that second succeeding tax year may be carried forward and used in the third succeeding tax year, but may not be carried forward for any tax year thereafter. Credits may be carried forward to and used in a tax year beyond the years specified in subsection (4) of this section.

(8) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the taxpayer's adjusted basis for determining gain or loss shall be further decreased by any tax credits allowed under this section.

The credit shall equal the least amount of the following:

(b) 50 percent of the total contribution for a maximum of $5 on a separate return; 50 percent of the total contribution for a maximum of $10 on a joint return.

(c) The tax liability of the taxpayer.

(Nonresidents)

316.117 Taxable income; deductions allowed. (1) The taxable income of a nonresident individual is his adjusted gross income attributable to sources within this state determined by ORS 316.127 less the deductions allowed by this section.

(2) A nonresident who claims the standard deduction as defined in section 141 of the Internal Revenue Code for federal purposes shall be allowed the deduction in the proportion provided in subsection (6) of this section.

(3) A nonresident taxpayer shall be entitled to claim the personal exemptions as defined in section 151 of the Internal Revenue Code in the proportion provided in subsection (6) of this section.

(4) A nonresident who itemizes deductions shall be allowed a deduction for the portion of items deductible under the Internal Revenue Code which bears the same proportion provided in subsection (6) of this section.

(5) A nonresident taxpayer shall be allowed to deduct the amount of any accrued federal income taxes as computed under ORS 316.072 in the proportion provided in subsection (6) of this section.

(6) The proportion for making the proration required under this section is the federal adjusted gross income of the taxpayer from Oregon sources divided by the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income from all sources. [1969 c.493 §21; 1971 c.672 §1]

Note: Section 3, chapter 672, Oregon Laws 1971 provides:

Sec. 3. The amendments to ORS 316.117 and 316.127 by sections 1 and 2 of this 1971 Act apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1970; however, if RCW 39.16.010 is not repealed at the first special or regular session of the legislature of the State of Washington occurring after June 10, 1971, the amendments to ORS 316.117 and 316.127 by sections 1 and 2 of this 1971 Act are repealed for taxable years beginning after December 31 of the year of the adjournment of such special or regular session.

316.122 Separate or joint federal returns for husband and wife. (1) If the federal taxable income of husband and wife (both nonresidents of this state) is determined on separate federal returns, their taxable incomes in this state shall be separately determined.

(2) If the federal taxable income of husband and wife (both nonresidents) is determined on a joint federal return, their tax shall be determined in this state on their joint taxable income.

(3) If either husband or wife is a nonresident and the other a resident, separate taxes shall be determined on their separate taxable incomes in this state on such forms as the department shall prescribe, unless both elect to determine their joint taxable income in this state as if both were residents. If a husband and wife (one being a resident, the other a nonresident) file a joint federal income tax return but determine their taxable income in this state separately, they shall compute their taxable incomes in this state as if their federal adjusted gross incomes had been determined separately.

316.125 [1953 c.304 §17; repealed by 1969 c.493 §99]

316.127 Income of nonresident from Oregon sources. (1) The adjusted gross income of a nonresident derived from sources within this state is the sum of the following:

(a) The net amount of items of income, gain, loss and deduction entering into his federal adjusted gross income that are derived from or connected with sources in this state including (A) his distributive share of partnership income and deductions and (B) his share of estate or trust income and deductions; and

(b) The portion of the modifications described in ORS 316.067 and 316.077 that relate to adjusted gross income derived from sources in this state, including any modifications attributable to him as a partner.

(2) Items of income, gain, loss and deduction derived from or connected with sources within this state are those items attributable to:

(a) The ownership or disposition of any interest in real or tangible personal property in this state; and

(b) A business, trade, profession or occupation carried on in this state.

(3) Income from intangible personal property, including annuities, dividends, interest and gains from the disposition of intangible personal property, constitutes income derived from sources within this state only to the extent that such income is from property employed in a business, trade, profession or occupation carried on in this state.

(4) Deductions with respect to capital losses, net long-term capital gains, and net operating losses shall be based solely on income, gains, losses and deductions derived from or connected with sources in this state, under regulations to be prescribed by the department, but otherwise shall be determined in the same manner as the corresponding federal deductions.

(5) For a nonresident individual who is a shareholder of a corporation that is an electing small business corporation for federal income tax purposes, the undistributed taxable income of such corporation does not constitute income derived from sources within this state and a net operating loss of such corporation does not constitute a loss or deduction connected with sources in this state.

(6) If a business, trade, profession or occupation is carried on partly within and partly without this state, the determination of net income derived from or connected with sources within this state shall be made by apportionment and allocation under ORS 314.605 to 314.670.

(7) Compensation paid by the United States for service in the Armed Forces of the United States performed by a nonresident does not constitute income derived from sources within this state.

316.162 Definitions for ORS 316.162 to 316.212. As used in ORS 316.162 to 316.212:

(1) "Number of withholding exemptions claimed" means the number of withholding exemptions claimed in a withholding exemption certificate in effect under ORS 316.182, except that if no such certificate is in effect, the number of withholding exemptions claimed is considered to be zero.

(2) "Wages" means remuneration for services performed by an employe for his employer, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash, except that "wages" does not include remuneration paid:

(a) For active service in the Armed Forces of the United States as to which no withholding is required by the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) To an employe of a common carrier when such employe is not a resident of Oregon as defined in ORS 316.027 and regularly performs services both within and without the State of Oregon.

(c) For domestic service in a private home, a local college club or a local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority.

(d) For casual labor not in the course of the employer's trade or business.

(e) To an employe whose services to the employer consist solely of labor in connection with the planting, cultivating or harvesting of seasonal agricultural crops if the total amount paid to such employe is less than $150 annually.

(f) To seamen who are exempt from garnishment, attachment or execution under title 46 of the United States Code.

(g) To persons temporarily employed as emergency forest fire fighters.

(h) To employes' trusts exempt from tax under provisions of the federal Internal Revenue Code.

(3) "Employer" means:

(a) A person who is in such relation to another person that he may control the work of that other person and direct the manner in which it is to be done; or

(b) An officer or employe of a corporation, or a member or employe of a partnership, who as such officer, employe or member is under a duty to perform the acts required of employers by ORS 316.167, 316.182, 316.197, 316.202 and 316.207.

(4) The application required by paragraph (i) of subsection (2) of this section shall contain the name of the employe, his permanent address, his social security number and such other information which the department deems necessary.

Note: The 1971 amendment to ORS 316.162 applies to tax years beginning after December 31, 1970. See 1971 c.690 §3.

316.165 [1953 c.304 §19; repealed by 1969 c.493 §99]

316.167 Withholding of tax required.

(1) Every employer at the time of the payment of wages to any employe shall deduct and retain from such wages an amount determined, at the employer's election, either (a) by a "percentage method" withholding table or (b) by "wage bracket" withholding tables, prepared and furnished under the rules and regulations of the department. However, in the case of wages paid to an employe whose services to the employer consist solely of labor in connection with the planting, cultivating or harvesting of seasonal agricultural crops, the amount withheld shall be one percent of the total wages paid without regard to any withholding exemptions.

(2) Except in the case of an agricultural employe, the amount withheld shall be computed on the basis of the total amount of the wages and the number of withholding exemptions claimed by the employe, without deduction for any amount withheld.

316.170 [1953 c.304 §20; repealed by 1969 c.493 §99]

316.172 Tax withholding tables to be prepared by department. (1) The department shall prepare a table for use with the percentage method that provides for the deduction and withholding of a tax equal to a specific percent (to be determined by the department) of the amount by which the wages for a given payroll period (daily, weekly, biweekly, semi-monthly, monthly, quarterly, semiannually or annually, as the case may be) exceed the number of withholding exemptions claimed, multiplied by the amount of one such exemption for each payroll period (such amount being determined by the department for each such period). The determinations of the department shall result, so far as is practicable, in withholding from the employe a sum substantially equivalent to the amount of the tax that the employe will be required to pay under this chapter upon such wages. To accomplish this purpose, the department may make special provision for employes who are in the state for limited periods of time.

(2) The department shall prepare tables for use in computing withholding of tax by wage brackets. The wage brackets shall be graduated so that the amount withheld is, as far as practicable, substantially equivalent to the amount of the tax that the employe will be required to pay under this chapter upon such wages. The amounts in the withholding tables shall be computed to the nearest tenth of a dollar upon the basis of the median wage of each wage bracket.

316.175 [1953 c.304 §21; repealed by 1969 c.493 §99]

316.177 Withholding exemptions. An employe shall be entitled to the same number of withholding exemptions as the number of withholding exemptions to which he is entitled for federal income tax withholding purposes. An employer may rely upon the number of federal withholding exemptions claimed by the employe, except where the employe claims a different number of withholding exemptions in this state.

316.180 [1953 c.304 §22; repealed by 1969 c.493 §99]

316.182 Exemption certificate. An employer shall use the exemption certificate filed by the employe with the employer under the income tax withholding provisions of the Internal Revenue Code for determining the number of withholding exemptions to be used in computing the tax to be withheld under ORS 316.167 and 316.172. However, the department may require such exemption certificate to be filed on a form prescribed by the department in any circumstance where the department finds that the exemption certificate filed under the Internal Revenue Code does not properly reflect the number of withholding exemptions allowable under this chapter, except no exemption certificate need be procured from an employe whose wages consist of wages as defined in paragraph (e) of subsection (2) of ORS 316.162.

316.185 [1953 c.304 §23; 1955 c.129 §1; subsection (5) derived from 1955 c.129 §2; 1965 c.26 §4; repealed by 1969 c.493 §99]

316.187 Amount withheld is in payment of employee's tax. The amounts deducted from the wages of an employe during any calendar year in accordance with ORS 316.167 and 316.172 shall be considered to be in part payment of the tax on such employe's income for his taxable year which begins within such calendar year, and the return made by the employer pursuant to ORS 316.202 shall be accepted by the department as evidence in favor of the employe of the amounts so deducted from his wages.

316.190 [Amended by 1953 c.304 §24; 1955 c.92 §1; subsection (3) derived from 1955 c.92 §2; repealed by 1969 c.493 §99]

316.192 Refunds to employes. (1) If the total amount deducted under ORS 316.167 and 316.172 exceeds the amount of the tax on the employe's entire income as computed under this chapter, or when his income is not taxable under this chapter, the department, after examining or auditing the annual return filed by the employe in accordance with ORS 314.385, shall refund the amount of the excess deducted, with interest thereon as provided by law. No refund shall be made to an employe who fails to file such return within two years after the due date of the return in respect of which the tax withheld might have been credited. If the excess tax deducted is less than $1, no refund shall be made and in no event shall the excess be allowed as a credit against any tax accruing on a return filed for a year subsequent to the year during which such excess was withheld.

(2) The department may make separate refunds of withheld taxes upon request by a husband or wife who has filed a joint return, the refund payable to each spouse being proportioned to the gross earnings of each shown by the information returns filed by the employer or otherwise shown to the satisfaction of the department. If a taxpayer entitled to a refund under this section dies, the department may issue a draft for payment of such refund under the terms and conditions set out in ORS 293.490 to 293.500, exercising the same powers and subject to the same restrictions pursuant to which the State Treasurer is authorized to pay the amounts of warrants, checks or orders under those statutes.

Note: See note under ORS 314.405.

316.195 [1953 c.304 §25; repealed by 1969 c.493 §99]

316.197 Payment to department by employer. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, each employer quarterly, on or before the last day of April, July, October and January, shall pay over to the department the amount required by ORS 316.167 and 316.172 to be deducted and retained from the wages paid to any employe during the preceding three months.

(2) If the amount of taxes required to be deducted and retained from wages by any employer, pursuant to ORS 316.167 and 316.172, amounts to $100 or more during the first or second month of the calendar quarter, the employer shall pay such amount over to the department on or before the 15th day of the following month. Amounts deducted and retained in the third month and any amounts deducted but not paid to the department in the second or third month of each calendar quarter shall be paid to the department on or before the last day of the month following the end of such quarter.

(3) Every amount so paid over shall be accounted for as part of the collections under this chapter. No employe has any right of action against his employer in respect of any moneys deducted from his wages and paid over in compliance or intended compliance with this section.

316.200 [1953 c.304 §26; 1965 c.26 §5; repealed by 1969 c.493 §99]

316.202 Reports by employer; effect of failure to report. (1) With each payment made by him to the department, every employer shall deliver to the department, on a return in the form prescribed by the department showing the total amount of wages, salaries, bonuses or other emoluments paid to his employes, the amount deducted therefrom in accordance with ORS 316.167 and 316.172, and supply such other information as the department may require. The employer is charged with the duty of advising the employe of the amount of moneys withheld, in accordance with such regulations as the department may prescribe, using printed forms furnished or approved by the department for such purpose.

(2) The employer shall make an annual return to the department on forms provided or approved by it, summarizing the total compensation paid and the tax withheld for each employe during the calendar year and shall file the same with the department before

February 16 of the year following that for which report is made. Failure to file the annual report without reasonable excuse on or before the 30th day after notice has been given to the employer of his failure subjects the employer to a penalty of $100, except that if filing is made within 10 months from the date of notice, the penalty shall be reduced by $10 for each unexpired month during the 10-months' period.

316.205 [1953 c.304 §27; repealed by 1957 c.632 §1 (314.280 enacted in lieu of 316.205 and 317.180)]

316.207 Liability for tax; warrant for collection. (1) Every employer who deducts and retains any amount under ORS 316.167 and 316.172 shall hold the same in trust for the State of Oregon and for the payment thereof to the department in the manner and at the time provided in ORS 316.167 and 316.172.

(2) At any time the employer fails to remit any amount withheld, the department may enforce collection by the issuance of a distraint warrant for the collection of the delinquent amount and all penalties, interest and collection charges accrued thereon. Such warrant shall be issued, docketed and proceeded upon in the same manner and shall have the same force and effect as is prescribed with respect to warrants for the collection of delinquent income taxes.

316.210 [1953 c.304 §28; repealed by 1957 c.632 §1 (314.285 enacted in lieu of 316.210 and 317.185)]

316.212 Application of penalties, interest and jeopardy assessment; employer as taxpayer. The provisions of the income tax laws in ORS chapter 314 and this chapter, relating to penalties, interest, misdemeanors and jeopardy assessments, apply to employers subject to the provisions of ORS 316.162 to 316.212, and for these purposes any amount deducted or required to be deducted and remitted to the department under ORS 316.162 to 316.212 is considered the tax of the employer and with respect to such amount he is considered as a taxpayer.

ACCOUNTING PERIODS AND METHODS OF ACCOUNTING

316.215 Period for computation of taxable income. (1) For purposes of the tax imposed by this chapter, a taxpayer's taxable year shall be the same as his taxable year for federal income tax purposes.

(2) If a taxpayer's taxable year is changed for federal income tax purposes, his taxable year for purposes of the tax imposed by this chapter shall be similarly changed. If a change in taxable year results in a taxable period of less than 12 months, the standard deduction and the deduction for personal exemption allowed by the Internal Revenue Code shall be prorated under regulations prescribed by the department.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2) of this section, if the department terminates the taxpayer's taxable year under ORS 314.440 (relating to tax in jeopardy), the tax shall be computed for the period determined by such action.

316.217 Accounting method. (1) For purposes of the tax imposed by this chapter, a taxpayer's method of accounting shall be the same as his method of accounting for federal income tax purposes. If no method of accounting has been regularly used by the taxpayer, taxable income for purposes of this chapter shall be computed under such method that in the opinion of the department fairly reflects income.

(2) If a taxpayer's method of accounting is changed for federal income tax purposes, his method of accounting for purposes of this chapter shall similarly be changed and used in the first return filed after such change is effective. ORS 314.275 applies to the degree applicable.

316.222 Adjustments to prevent duplications or omissions. In computing a taxpayer's taxable income for any taxable year under a method of accounting different from the method under which the taxpayer's taxable income for the previous year was computed, there shall be taken into account those adjustments which are determined, under regulations prescribed by the department, to be necessary solely by reason of the change in order to prevent amounts from being duplicated or omitted.

316.227 Effect of accounting change.

(1) If a taxpayer's method of accounting is changed, other than from an accrual to an instalment method, any additional tax that results from adjustments determined to be necessary solely by reason of the change shall not be greater than if such adjustments were ratably allocated and included for the taxable year of the change and the preceding taxable years, not in excess of two, during which the taxpayer used the method of accounting from which the change is made, under ORS 314.275.

(2) If a taxpayer's method of accounting is changed from an accrual to an instalment method, any additional tax for the year of such change of method and for any subsequent year that is attributable to the receipt of instalment payments properly accrued in a prior year, shall be reduced by the portion of tax for any prior taxable year attributable to the accrual of such instalment payments, under regulations prescribed by the department.

(2) The credit under this section shall not reduce the tax otherwise due from the beneficiary under this chapter to an amount less than would have been due if the accumula-

(Nonresident Estates and Trusts)

(1) Items of income, gain, loss and deduction mean those derived from or connected with sources in this state.

(2) Items of income, gain, loss and deduction entering into the definition of federal distributable net income include such items from another estate or trust of which the first estate or trust is a beneficiary.

(3) The source of items of income, gain, loss or deduction shall be determined under regulations prescribed by the department in accordance with the general rules in ORS 316.127 as if the estate or trust were a nonresident individual.

(4) The taxable income of a nonresident estate or trust consists of:

(a) Its share of items of income, gain, loss and deduction that enter into the federal definition of distributable net income;

(b) Increased or reduced by the amount of any items of income, gain, loss or deduction that are recognized for federal income tax purposes but excluded from the federal definition of distributable net income of the estate or trust;

316.312 Determination of Oregon share of income. (1) The share of a nonresident estate or trust of items of income, gain, loss and deduction entering into the definition of distributable net income and the share for purpose of ORS 316.127 of a nonresident beneficiary of any estate or trust in estate or trust income, gain, loss and deduction shall be determined as follows:

(a) To the amount of items of income, gain, loss and deduction that enter into the definition of distributable net income there shall be added or subtracted, as the case may be, the modifications described in ORS 316.067 and 316.077 to the extent they relate to items of income, gain, loss and deduction that also enter into the definition of distributable net income. No modification shall be made under this section that has the effect of duplicating an item already reflected in the definition of distributable net income.

(b) The amount determined under paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be allocated among the estate or trust and its beneficiaries (including, solely for the purpose of this allocation, resident beneficiaries) in proportion to their respective shares of federal distributable net income. The amounts so allocated have the same character as for federal income tax purposes. If an item entering into the computation of such amounts is not characterized for federal income tax purposes, it has the same character as if realized directly from the source from which realized by the estate or trust, or incurred in the same manner as incurred by the estate or trust.

(c) If the estate or trust has no federal distributable net income for the taxable year, the share of each beneficiary in the net amount determined under paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be in proportion to his share of the estate or trust income for such year, under state law or the terms of the instrument, that is required to be distributed currently and any other amounts of such income distributed in such year. Any balance of such net amount shall be allocated to the estate or trust.

(2) The department may by regulation establish such other method or methods of determining the respective shares of the beneficiaries and of the estate or trust in its income derived from sources in this state, and in the modifications related thereto, as may be appropriate and equitable.

PARTNERS AND PARTNERSHIPS

316.342 Partnership not taxable. A partnership as such is not subject to the tax imposed by this chapter. Persons carrying on business as partners are liable for the tax imposed by this chapter only in their separate or individual capacities.

316.345 [1953 c.304 §46; 1953 c.552 §10; 1959 c.593 §5 (referred and rejected); 1963 c.627 §9 (referred and rejected); 1965 c.337 §1; repealed by 1969 c.493 §99]

316.347 Partnership income has same character as under federal law. (1) Each item of partnership income, gain, loss or deduction has the same character for a partner under this chapter as it has for federal income tax purposes. If an item is not characterized for federal income tax purposes, it has the same character for a partner as if realized directly from the source from which realized by the partnership or incurred in the same manner as incurred by the partnership.

(2) If a partner's distributive share of an item of partnership income, gain, loss or deduction is determined for federal income tax purposes by a special provision in the partnership agreement with respect to such item, and the principal purpose of such provision is the avoidance or evasion of tax under this chapter, the partner's distributive share of such item and any modification required with respect thereto shall be determined in accordance with his distributive share of the taxable income or loss of the partnership generally

(that is, exclusive of those items requiring separate computation under section 702 of the Internal Revenue Code).

[1969 c.493 §52]

316.350 [1953 c.304 §47; repealed by 1969 c.493 §99]

316.352 Income of nonresident partner.

(1) In determining the adjusted gross income of a nonresident partner of any partnership, there shall be included only that part derived from or connected with sources in this state of the partner's distributive share of items of partnership income, gain, loss and deduction entering into his federal adjusted gross income, as such part is determined under regulations prescribed by the department in accordance with the general rules in ORS 316.127.

(2) In determining the sources of a nonresident partner's income, no effect shall be given to a provision in the partnership agreement which:

(a) Characterizes payments to the partner as being for services or for the use of capital, or allocated to the partner, as income or gain from sources outside this state, a greater proportion of his distributive share of partnership income or gain than the ratio of partnership income or gain from sources outside this state to partnership income or gain from all sources, except as authorized in subsection (4) of this section; or

(b) Allocates to the partner a greater proportion of a partnership item of loss or deduction connected with sources in this state than his proportionate share, for federal income tax purposes, of partnership loss or deduction generally, except as authorized in subsection (4) of this section.

(3) Any modification described in ORS 316.067 and 316.077 that relates to an item of partnership income, gain, loss or deduction, shall be made in accordance with the partner's distributive share, for federal income tax purposes of the item to which the modification relates, but limited to the portion of such item derived from or connected with sources in this state.

(4) The department may, on application, authorize the use of such other methods of determining a nonresident partner's portion of partnership items derived from or connected with sources in this state, and the modifications related thereto, as may be appropriate and equitable, on such terms and conditions as it may require.

(5) A nonresident partner's distributive share of items of income, gain, loss or deduc-tion shall be determined under subsection (1) of ORS 316.347. The character of partnership items for a nonresident partner shall also be determined under subsection (1) of ORS 316.347. The effect of a special provision in a partnership agreement, other than a provision referred to in subsection (2) of this section, having as a principal purpose the avoidance or evasion of tax under this chapter, shall be determined under subsection (2) of ORS 316.347.

316.367 Joint return by husband and wife. (1) A husband and wife may make a joint return with respect to the tax imposed by this chapter even though one of the spouses has neither gross income nor deductions, except that:

(a) No joint return shall be made under this chapter if the spouses are not permitted to file a joint federal income tax return;

(b) If the federal income tax liability of either spouse is determined on a separate federal return, their income tax liabilities under this chapter shall be determined on separate returns;

(c) If the federal income tax liabilities of husband and wife, other than a husband and wife described in subsection (2) of this section, are determined on a joint federal return, they shall file a joint return under this chapter and their tax liabilities shall be joint and several; and

(d) If neither spouse is required to file a federal income tax return and either or both are required to file an income tax return under this chapter, they may elect to file separate or joint returns and pursuant to such election their liabilities shall be separate or joint and several.

(2) If either husband or wife is a resident and the other is a nonresident, they shall file separate income tax returns in this state on such forms as may be required by the department, in which event their tax liabilities shall be separate; but they may elect to determine their joint taxable income as if both were residents and, in such case, their liabilities shall be joint and several.

316.372 Minor to file return; unpaid tax assessable against parent. A minor shall file his own return and include therein all items of income, including income attributable to his personal services, and such income shall not be included on the return of his parent. All expenditures by the parent or the minor attributable to such income are considered to have been paid or incurred by the minor. However, any tax assessed against the minor, to the extent, attributable to income from personal services, if not paid by the minor, for all purposes shall be considered as having also been properly assessed against the parent. For the purposes of this section the term "parent" includes an individual who is entitled to the services of a minor by reason of having parental rights and duties in respect of such minor.

316.387 Final account of a fiduciary; tax settlement. (1) No final account of a fiduciary shall be allowed by any court unless the account shows, and the judge of the court finds, that all taxes imposed by this chapter upon the fiduciary that have been payable have been paid, and that all taxes that may become due are secured by bond, deposit or other security acceptable to the department. No order closing an estate shall be entered unless the fiduciary files with the clerk of the court the department's certificate of release, or shows that 60 days have elapsed since the mailing to the department of a request for such release and that the department has not filed any objection to the final account.

(2) For the purpose of facilitating the settlement and distribution of estates held by fiduciaries, the department, on behalf of the state, may agree upon the amount of taxes at any time due or to become due from such fiduciaries under this chapter with respect to a tax return or returns of or for a decedent individual or an estate or trust, and payment in accordance with such agreement shall be in full satisfaction of the taxes to which the agreement relates.

316.397 Change of status from resident to nonresident. The taxable income of an individual who changes his status during his taxable year from resident to nonresident or from nonresident to resident shall be determined as provided in this chapter for residents and for nonresidents as if the individual's taxable year for federal income tax purposes were limited to the period of his resident and nonresident status respectively. For purposes of making the computation required by this section, the personal exemptions and itemized deductions, exclusive of Oregon state income taxes as provided in subsection (2) of ORS 316.067, or standard deduction deducted on his federal tax return and the federal tax deduction shall be allowed in each period in the proportion that the federal adjusted gross income of the taxpayer from Oregon sources bears to the total federal adjusted gross income from all sources. If the numerator of the fraction is greater than the denominator, the proportion of 100 percent shall be used in the prorations required by this section.

316.406 [1959 c.591 §21; repealed by 1965 c.410 §7]

316.407 Time and place for filing returns and paying tax. (1) The income tax return required by this chapter shall be filed with the department on or before the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the taxpayer's taxable year. A person required to make and file a return under this chapter, without assessment, notice or demand, shall pay any tax due thereon to the Department of Revenue on or before the date fixed for filing such return (determined without regard to any extension of time for filing the return).

(2) The tax may be paid in four instalments, each consisting of one-fourth of the total amount of the tax. The first instalment shall be paid to the department at the time fixed by law for filing the return. The second instalment shall be paid on or before three months thereafter. The third instalment shall be paid on or before six months thereafter. The fourth instalment shall be paid on or before nine months thereafter. However, if the income consists wholly or in part of wages, salaries, bonus or other emoluments for services as an employe, the tax shall be paid in instalments of not less than one-quarter of the amount of the tax remaining after crediting the total amount deducted from such wages, salary, bonus or other emoluments, pursuant to ORS 316.167. Taxes paid in instalments bear interest at the rate of one percent per month for each month or fraction of a month during which the tax or instalment remains unpaid, computed from the due date of the return to date of payment.

(3) If any instalment is not paid by the due date thereof, the department may, at its option, declare the entire unpaid balance of the tax immediately due and take such action as may be necessary to enforce collection thereof. If, at the request of the taxpayer, the time for filing the return is extended, interest at the rate of two-thirds of one percent per month or fraction of a month, from the time when the return was originally required to be filed to the time of payment, shall be added and paid, except that the interest rate shall be one percent per month where payment is made by instalments under subsection (2) of this section.

(4) If the total amount of the tax is $25 or less, the whole amount of the tax shall be paid at the time of filing the return.

(5) The tax may be paid with uncertified check during such time and under such regulations as the department shall prescribe, but if a check so received is not paid by the bank on which it is drawn the taxpayer by whom such check is tendered remains liable for the payment of the tax and for all legal penalties the same as if the check had not been tendered.

The department may, in its discretion, promulgate regulations or instructions that permit taxpayers to submit specified excerpts from federal returns in lieu of submitting copies of the entire federal return.

and addresses of the individuals (whether residents or nonresidents) who would be entitled to share in the net income, if distributed, and the amount of the distributive share of each individual, and such other pertinent information as the department may prescribe by regulations and instructions. Such return shall be filed on or before the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of each taxable year. For purposes of this section, "taxable year" means a year or period which would be a taxable year of the partnership if it were subject to tax under this chapter.

316.472 Tax treatment of common trust fund; information return required. (1) The tax treatment of common trust funds and participants therein, under this chapter, is governed by the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

The return shall be made at such time as is designated by the department.

(c) Consist of expenses, other than those described in paragraph (b) of this subsection, paid or incurred by the taxpayer, in connection with the performance by him of services as an employe, under a reimbursement or other expense allowance arrangement with his employer.
