(1) "Child" means a person within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court as provided in subsection (1) of ORS 419.476.

(2) "Counselor" means a juvenile department counselor.

(3) "Court" means the juvenile court.

(4) "Detention" or "detention facility" means a facility suitable for the safekeeping of a child who is taken into temporary custody pending investigation and disposition where the circumstances are such that he must be kept in secure custody.

(5) "Guardian" means guardian of the person and not guardian of the estate.

(6) "Resides" or "residence," when used in reference to the residence of a child, means the place where the child himself is actually living and not the legal residence or domicile of his parent or guardian.

(7) "Shelter care" means a home or other facility suitable for the safekeeping of a child who is taken into temporary custody pending investigation and disposition where the circumstances are such that he does not need to be kept in secure custody. [1959 c.432 §1]

419.474 Court of general and equitable jurisdiction; official name of juvenile court; liberal construction to achieve child's welfare. (1) The juvenile court is a court of record and exercises jurisdiction as a court of general and equitable jurisdiction and not as a court of limited or inferior jurisdiction. It is called "The _____ Court of _____ County, Juvenile Department."

(2) The provisions of ORS 419.472 to 419.587 shall be liberally construed to the end that a child coming within the jurisdiction of the court may receive such care, guidance and control, preferably in his own home, as will lead to the child's welfare and the best interests of the public, and that when a child is removed from the control of his parents the court may secure for him care that best meets the needs of the child.

[Subsection (1) enacted as 1959 c.432 §3(1); subsection (2) enacted as 1959 c.432 §57]

419.476 Children within jurisdiction of juvenile court. (1) The juvenile court has exclusive original jurisdiction in any case involving a person who is under 18 years of age and:

(a) Who has committed an act which is a violation, or which if done by an adult would constitute a violation, of a law or ordinance of the United States or a state, county or city; or

(b) Who is beyond the control of his parents, guardian or other person having his custody; or

(c) Whose behavior, condition or circumstances are such as to endanger his own welfare or the welfare of others; or

(d) Who is dependent for care and support on a public or private child-caring agency that needs the services of the court in planning for his best interests; or

(e) Either his parents or any other person having his custody have abandoned him, failed to provide him with the support or education required by law, subjected him to cruelty or depravity or to unexplained physical injury or failed to provide him with the care, guidance and protection necessary for his physical, mental or emotional well-being; or

(f) Who has run away from his home.

(2) The court shall have jurisdiction under subsection (1) of this section even though the child is receiving adequate care from the person having his physical custody.

(3) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section do not prevent a court of competent jurisdiction from entertaining a civil action or suit involving a child.

[Subsection (1) enacted as 1959 c.432 §2; subsection (3) enacted as 1959 c.432 §3 (2); 1963 c.496 §1; 1971 c.451 §17]

419.478 Transfer of proceeding to juvenile court. If during the pendency of a proceeding in any court other than a juvenile court it is ascertained that the age of the person who is the subject of the proceeding is such that the matter is within the exclusive jurisdiction of the juvenile court, it is the duty of the court in which the proceeding is pending forthwith to transfer the proceeding, together with all the papers, documents and testimony connected therewith, to the juvenile court of the county in which the proceeding is pending.

[1959 c.432 §4]

419.480 Venue of juvenile proceeding; transferability of proceeding. A juvenile proceeding shall be commenced in the county in which the child resides or is found. The proceeding is transferable as provided in ORS 419.545 to 419.557.

[1959 c.432 §5]

419.482 Petition or information that child is in juvenile court's jurisdiction; preliminary inquiry concerning action to be taken by court; court action. (1) Any person may file a petition in the juvenile court alleging that a child named therein is within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in subsection (1) of ORS 419.476.

(2) If any person informs the court that a child is or appears to be within its jurisdiction, as provided in subsection (1) of ORS 419.476, a preliminary inquiry shall be made to determine whether the interests of the child or the public require that further action be taken. Upon the basis of the preliminary inquiry, the court may:

(a) Make such informal recommendations to the child and his parent or person having his custody as are appropriate in the circumstances;

(b) Direct that a petition be filed; or

(c) Direct that a juvenile motor vehicle offense be handled as provided in ORS 419.535 to 419.541.

(3) At any time after a petition is filed, the court may make an order providing for temporary custody of the child.

(4) At any time after a petition is filed, the court in the circumstances set forth in ORS 419.533 may remand the case to the appropriate court handling criminal actions, or to municipal court.

(5) The court may dismiss the petition at any stage of the proceedings.

[1959 c.432 §6]

419.484 Title of petition, contents. (1) The petition and all subsequent court documents in the proceeding shall be entitled, "In the matter of _____, a child." The petition shall be in writing and verified. When the petition is filed by a peace officer, counselor or employe of the Public Welfare Division or the Children's Services Division, it may be verified upon the information and belief of the petitioner and may be filed without prior direction or authorization of the court. When the petition is filed pursuant to direction of the court as provided in subsection (2) of ORS 419.482, it may be upon information and belief. In other cases, the petition shall be on the personal knowledge of the petitioner.

(2) The petition shall set forth in ordinary and concise language such of the following facts as are known and indicate any which are now known:

(a) The name, age and residence of the child.

(b) The facts which bring the child within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in subsection (1) of ORS 419.476.

(c) The name and residence of the child's parents; if the child has no parents or the names and residences of both parents are unknown, then the name and address of his guardian, if he has a guardian.

(d) The name and residence of the person having physical custody of the child.

(3) A certified copy of the petition shall be served, together with the summons, upon all persons upon whom summons are served under ORS 419.486.

[1959 c.432 §7; 1969 c.274 §3; 1971 c.151 §1]

419.486 Issuance of summons, contents, to whom issued. (1) Promptly after the petition is filed, there shall be an investigation of the circumstances concerning the child. No later than 60 days after the petition is filed, summons may be issued.

(2) The summons shall be signed by a counselor or some other person acting under the direction of the court and shall contain the name of the court, the title of the proceeding and, except for a published summons, a brief statement of the substance of the facts required by paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of ORS 419.484. Summons published as provided in paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of ORS 419.488 shall contain the name of the court, the title of the proceeding and the statement mentioned in that paragraph.

(3) The summons shall require the person or persons who have physical custody of the child to appear personally and bring the child before the court at the time and place stated in the summons. The time for the hearing on the petition shall be fixed at a reasonable time, not less than 24 hours, after the issuance of the summons. If it appears to the court that the welfare of the child or of the public requires that the child immediately be taken into custody, the court may endorse an order on the summons directing the officer serving it to take the child into custody.

(4) If the child is not in the physical custody of both parents, or the child's only living parent, or, if both parents are dead, the child's guardian, then summons shall also be issued to the parent or parents or guardian, as the case may be, notifying him or them that he or they may appear personally before the court at the time and place stated in the summons, to the end that both parents or the guardian, or both, may be brought before the court.

(5) If the child is 12 years of age or older, a certified copy of the summons shall be served upon the child.

(6) Summons may be issued requiring the appearance of any person whose presence the court deems necessary.

[1959 c.432 §8; 1969 c.274 §4]

419.488 Service of summons and process; travel expenses of person summoned.

(1) Summons or other process issuing from the juvenile court may be served without further indorsement in any county of the state by an officer of the county in which the proceeding is pending, by an officer of the county in which the person to be served is found or by any person authorized by the court to serve the process. Except as otherwise provided in ORS 419.472 to 419.587, the provisions of law applicable to summons in civil cases apply to summons issued from juvenile court.

(2) If the parent, parents or guardian required to be summoned as provided in subsection (4) of ORS 419.486 cannot be found within the state, summons may be served on him or them in any of the following ways:

(a) If the address of the parent or guardian is known, by sending him a copy of the summons by registered mail with a return receipt to be signed by the addressee only.

(b) By personal service outside the state in the manner provided in ORS 15.110.

(c) If, after reasonable inquiry, the whereabouts of the parent or guardian cannot be ascertained, by publishing a summons in a newspaper having general circulation in the county in which the proceeding is pending. In lieu of the brief statement of facts required by subsection (2) of ORS 419.486, the published summons shall simply state that a proceeding concerning the child is pending in the court and an order making an adjudication will be entered therein. The summons shall be published once a week for a period of three weeks, making three publications in all. If the names of one or both parents or the guardian are unknown, he or they may be summoned as "The parent(s) or guardian of (naming or describing the child), found (stating the address or place where the child was found)."

(3) Service as provided in this section shall vest the court with jurisdiction over the parents or guardian in the same manner and to the same extent as if the person served were served personally within this state.

(4) The court may authorize payment of travel expenses of any person summoned, as provided in ORS 139.140.

[1959 c.432 §9; 1969 c.591 §298]

419.490 Compliance with summons; issuance of warrant of arrest. (1) No person required to appear as provided in ORS 419.486 shall without reasonable cause fail to appear or, where directed in the summons, to bring the child before the court.

(2) If the summons cannot be served, if the person to whom the summons is directed fails to obey it or if it appears to the court that the summons will be ineffectual, the court may direct issuance of a warrant of arrest against the person summoned or against the child.

[1959 c.432 §10]

419.492 Power of court to proceed when child is before court; exceptions. If the child is before the court, the court has jurisdiction to proceed with the case notwithstanding the failure to serve summons upon any person required to be served by ORS 419.486, except that:

(1) No order entered pursuant to ORS 419.523 may be entered unless ORS 419.525 is complied with.

(2) No order for support as provided in ORS 419.513 may be entered against a person unless that person is served as provided in subsection (1) of ORS 419.488.

(3) If it appears to the court that a parent or guardian required to be served by ORS 419.486 was not served as provided in ORS 419.488, or was served on such short notice that he did not have a reasonable opportunity to appear at the time fixed, the court shall, upon petition by the parent or guardian, reopen the case for full consideration.

[1959 c.432 §11]

419.494 Appointment of person to appear in behalf of child. In any proceeding the court may appoint some suitable person to appear in behalf of the child.

[1959 c.432 §12]

419.496 Hearing on each case separately at special session of court; exceptions. Juvenile court hearings shall be held at a special session of the court for that purpose and each case shall be heard separately, except that two or more cases may be heard together in the following instances:

(1) Proceedings consolidated as provided in ORS 419.559.

(2) Cases involving violations of motor vehicle laws or ordinances where none of the cases involves death or serious injury to persons.

(3) Cases arising in whole or in part out of a single transaction or series of related transactions.

[1959 c.432 §13]

419.498 Conduct of hearing; court-appointed attorney; witnesses. (1) The hearing shall be held informally by the court without a jury and may be continued from time to time. Unless the child or his parents otherwise request, the general public shall be excluded and only such persons admitted as the judge finds have a proper interest in the case or the work of the court. The judge may exclude the public during any portion of the hearing in which it appears that the presence of the public may embarrass a witness or party or otherwise prejudice the reception of trustworthy evidence. With the consent of the child or his parents, at any stage of the proceeding the court may separately interview the child or one of his parents.

(2) If the child, his parent or guardian requests an attorney but is without sufficient financial means to employ an attorney, the court shall appoint an attorney to represent him. The court may appoint an attorney to represent the child in any case. An attorney appointed pursuant to this subsection shall be paid a reasonable fee fixed by the court, to be paid in the same manner as fees for attorneys appointed in criminal cases in the circuit court.

(3) Witnesses or other persons necessary for the conduct of the hearing may be subpoenaed. The child, his parents, guardian or any person appearing in his behalf may have compulsory attendance of witnesses in his or their behalf in the same manner as provided in ORS 139.050 to 139.140. The form of the subpoena shall be substantially as provided in subsection (3) of ORS 139.070, but shall describe the action as a "juvenile court proceeding" and the appearance as on behalf of "the court," "the child," and so on, as the case may be.

(4) Stenographic notes or other report of the hearings shall be taken only when required by the court.

[1959 c.432 §14]

419.500 Proof of court's jurisdiction over child; amendment of petition; admissibility of certain evidence. (1) The facts alleged in the petition showing the child to be within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in subsection (1) of ORS 419.476, unless admitted, must be established by a preponderance of competent evidence. However, in the adjudicative phase of a hearing where a finding of jurisdiction may result in institutionalization under subsection (1) of ORS 419.509, the facts must be established beyond a reasonable doubt. The practice of a parent who chooses for himself or his child treatment by prayer or spiritual means alone shall not be construed as a failure to provide physical care within the meaning of ORS 419.472 to 419.587 but shall not prevent a court of competent jurisdiction from exercising that jurisdiction under paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of ORS 419.476. The court, on motion of an interested party or on its own motion, may at any time direct that the petition be amended. If the amendment results in a substantial departure from the facts originally alleged, the court shall grant such continuance as the interests of justice may require.

(2) For the purpose of determining proper disposition of the child, testimony, reports or other material relating to the child's mental, physical and social history and prognosis may be received by the court without regard to their competency or relevancy under the rules of evidence.

419.506 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.507 Child as ward of the court; court's authority over child; Children's Services Division's authority over child. A child found to be within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in subsection (1) of ORS 419.476, may be made a ward of the court. Where a child has been found to be within its jurisdiction, and when the court determines it would be in the best interest and welfare of the child, the court may:

(1) Place the child on probation or under protective supervision. The court may direct that the child remain in the legal custody of his parents or other person with whom he is living or may direct that the child be placed in the legal custody of some relative or some person maintaining a foster home approved by the court, or in a child care center or a youth care center authorized to accept the child. The court may specify particular requirements to be observed during the probation or protective supervision consistent with recognized juvenile court practice, including but not limited to restrictions on visitation by the child's parents, restrictions on the child's associates, occupation and activities, restrictions on and requirements to be observed by the person having the child's legal custody and requirements for visitation by and consultation with a juvenile counselor or other suitable counselor. Restitution for property taken, damaged or destroyed by the child may be required as a condition of probation.

(2) Place the child in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division for care, placement and supervision.

(a) The division may place the child in a child care center authorized to accept the child.

(b) If the child has been placed in the custody of the Children's Services Division, the court shall make no commitment directly to any residential facility, but shall cause the child to be delivered into the custody of the Children's Services Division at the time and place fixed by rules of the division. No child so committed shall be placed in the Oregon State Penitentiary or the Oregon State Correctional Institution.

(c) Uniform commitment blanks, in a form approved by the Administrator of the Children's Services Division, shall be used by all courts for placing children in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division.

(d) To insure effective planning for children, the Children's Services Division shall take into consideration recommendations and information provided by the committing court before placement in any facility certified by the Children's Services Division.

(3) If there is an interstate compact or agreement or an informal arrangement with another state permitting the child to reside in another state while on probation or under protective supervision, or to be placed in an institution or with an agency in another state, place the child on probation or under protective supervision in such other state, or, subject to ORS 419.509, place the child in an institution in such other state in accordance with the compact, agreement or arrangement.

(4) In the circumstances set forth in ORS 419.533, remand the child to the appropriate court handling criminal actions, or to municipal court.

(5) As used in this section, "child care center" means a residential facility for the care and supervision of children which meets the certification requirements under ORS 418.225, and is annually certified under the provisions of ORS 418.240.

(6) "Youth care center" has the meaning given it in ORS 420.855.

(7) The juvenile court shall retain wardship and the Children's Services Division shall retain legal custody of the child committed to it regardless of the physical placement of the child by the Children's Services Division.

[1959 c.432 §17; 1963 c.81 §1; 1965 c.616 §88; 1969 c.679 §1; 1971 c.401 §91; 1971 c.698 §2]

419.508 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.509 Limitation on division's authority to place child in certain institutions. (1) A child placed in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division shall be placed in a juvenile training school or in a private institution operated as a training school for children requiring secure custody in the following cases and no other:

(a) The child is found to be within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court by reason of a ground set forth in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) of ORS 419.476, or the behavior of the child is found to be such as to endanger his own welfare or that of others; and

(b) The juvenile court having jurisdiction so orders.

(2) No child shall be transferred or returned after discharge to a facility described in subsection (1) of this section, except upon court order under this chapter.

(3) Nothing in subsection (2) of this section shall be deemed to prohibit return of a child to a facility described in subsection (1) of this section, in the discretion of the Children's Services Division, if the child has been released from the facility on temporary or indefinite parole, or to prohibit transfer of a child from one such facility to another. [1959 c.432 §18; 1963 c.344 §1; 1969 c.679 §2; 1971 c.105 §1; 1971 c.401 §92; 1971 c.698 §3]

419.510 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.511 Probation, protective supervision or institutionalization; special care or treatment; guardianship of child's person. (1) The duration of any disposition made pursuant to subsections (1) to (3) of ORS 419.507 shall be fixed by the court and may be for an indefinite period. Any placement in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division shall be for an indefinite period. However, in cases under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of ORS 419.476, the period shall not exceed the maximum period of institutionalization or commitment authorized if the act had been committed by an adult. The period of any disposition shall not extend beyond the date on which the child becomes 21 years of age.

(2) The court may, in lieu of or in addition to any disposition under subsections (1) to (3) of ORS 419.507, direct that the child be examined or treated by a physician, psychiatrist or psychologist, or receive other special care or treatment and for such purpose may place the child in a hospital or other suitable facility.

(3) When the court grants legal custody to the Children's Services Division, it shall also grant guardianship of the child's person to the division, to remain in effect solely during the time that the child remains in the legal custody of the division. However, the administrator of the division may authorize the superintendent of the juvenile training school, as defined in ORS 420.005, in which the child is placed, if any, to exercise the duties and authority of a guardian of the child under ORS 419.521 and to determine parole and final release under ORS 420.045. In all other cases the court may grant guardianship of the child's person to some suitable person where it appears necessary to do so in the interests of the child or to a private institution or agency to which the child is committed.

(4) Unless guardianship is granted as provided in subsection (3) of this section, the court as an incident of its wardship over the child shall have the duties and authority of the guardian as provided in subsection (1) of ORS 419.521.

419.512 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.513 Obligation to support child within court's jurisdiction. The court may, after a hearing on the matter, require the parents or other person legally obligated to support a child found to be within the jurisdiction of the court to pay toward the child's support such amounts at such intervals as the court may direct. The court, in determining the amount to be paid, shall give due regard to the cost of maintaining the child, the financial resources of the parent or other person and the other financial demands on the resources of the parent or other person. Unless otherwise ordered, the amounts so required to be paid shall be paid to the county clerk for transmission to the person, institution or agency having legal custody of the child.

[1959 c.432 §20]

419.514 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.515 Enforcement of order of support. (1) An order of support entered pursuant to ORS 419.513 may be enforced by execution or in the manner provided by law for the enforcement of the decrees of a court of equity.

(2) In addition to the remedies provided in subsection (1) of this section, the court may issue an order to any employer, trustee or financial agency or custodian of the parents, or either of them, or other person legally obligated to support the child, directing that the employer, trustee, agent or custodian withhold and pay over to the court money due or to become due the parent or other person legally obligated to support the child in an amount not in excess of the lesser of the following:

(a) The amount ordered to be paid for the child's support.

(b) One-fourth of the amount due or becoming due the parent or other person at each regular or usual pay day or day of disbursement.

(3) An order pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall be treated in the same manner as a notice of garnishment.

(4) No property of the child's parents, or either of them, or other person legally obligated to support the child is exempt from levy and sale or other process to enforce collection of the amounts ordered by the court to be paid toward the support of the child.

[1959 c.432 §21]

419.516 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.517 Contempt proceeding upon failure to comply with any juvenile court order. In case of failure to comply with any order of the juvenile court, the court may proceed for contempt of court against the person failing to comply.
[1959 c.432 §22]

419.518 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.519 Duties and powers of person having legal custody of child within court's jurisdiction. A person, agency or institution having legal custody of a child has the following duties and authority:

(1) To have physical custody and control of the child.

(2) To supply the child with food, clothing, shelter and incidental necessities.

(3) To provide the child with care, education and discipline.

(4) To authorize ordinary medical, dental, psychiatric, psychological, hygienic or other remedial care and treatment for the child, and, in an emergency where the child's safety appears urgently to require it, to authorize surgery or other extraordinary care.

(5) To make such reports and to supply such information to the court as the court may from time to time require.
[1959 c.432 §23]

419.520 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.521 Duties and powers of guardians appointed by juvenile court. (1) A person, agency or institution having guardianship of a child by reason of appointment by the juvenile court has the duties and authority of a general guardian of the person of the child, including but not limited to the following:

(a) To authorize surgery for the child, but this authority does not prevent the person having legal custody of the child from acting pursuant to subsection (4) of ORS 419.519.

(b) To authorize the child to enlist in the Armed Forces.

(c) To consent to the child's marriage.

(d) When the child has been committed pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of ORS 419.527, to consent to the adoption of the child.

(e) To make other decisions concerning the child of substantial legal significance.

(f) To make such reports and to supply such information to the court as the court may from time to time require.

(2) A person appointed guardian of the child by the juvenile court is guardian of the child's person only, and not of his estate, unless that person is appointed guardian of the child's estate in a guardianship proceeding as provided in ORS 126.006 to 126.565.
[1959 c.432 §§24, 25; 1961 c.344 §105]

419.522 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.523 Termination of parental rights; grounds. (1) The parental rights of the parents of a child within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court as provided in subsection (1) of ORS 419.476 may be terminated as provided in this section and ORS 419.525. The rights of one parent may be terminated without affecting the rights of the other parent.

(2) The rights of the parent or parents may be terminated as provided in subsection (1) of this section if the court finds that the parent or parents:

(a) Are unfit by reason of conduct or condition seriously detrimental to the child; or

(b) Have wilfully deserted or neglected without just and sufficient cause to provide proper care and maintenance for the child for one year. In determining whether the parent has wilfully deserted or neglected without just and sufficient cause to provide proper care and maintenance for the child, the court may disregard incidental visitations, communications and contributions.
[1959 c.432 §26; 1963 c.152 §1]

419.524 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.525 Termination of parental rights; procedure. (1) An order pursuant to ORS 419.523 may be made only after service of summons, as provided in ORS 419.488 on the parent or parents. The summons shall contain a statement to the effect that the rights of the parent or parents are proposed to be terminated in the proceeding. The statement may be made in the summons originally issued in the proceeding or in separate summons issued at any subsequent stage of the proceeding.

(2) A hearing shall be held by the court on the question of terminating the rights of the parent or parents. No such hearing shall be held any earlier than 10 days after service or final publication of the summons. The facts on the basis of which the rights of the parents are terminated, unless admitted, must be established by a preponderance of competent evidence and a stenographic or other report authorized by ORS 8.340 shall be taken of the hearing.

(3) Unless there is an appeal from the order terminating the rights of the parent or parents, the order permanently terminates all rights of the parent or parents whose rights are terminated and the parent or parents have no standing to appear as such in any legal proceeding concerning the child.

[1959 c.432 §27]

419.526 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.527 Court's powers after termination of parental rights; consent to child's adoption. (1) After the entry of an order terminating the rights of the parent or parents of the child, the court may:

(a) Place the child in the legal custody and guardianship of a public or private institution or agency authorized to consent in loco parentis to the adoption of children. An order pursuant to this paragraph is a "permanent commitment" for the purposes of ORS 109.305, 109.310 to 109.330 and 109.345 to 109.390; or

(b) Make any order directing disposition of the child which it is empowered to make under ORS 419.472 to 419.587.

(2) If the rights of only one parent have been terminated, the authority to consent to the adoption of the child as provided in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section is effective only with respect to the parent whose rights have been terminated.

[1959 c.432 §28]

419.528 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.529 Court's power to modify or set aside its orders; hearing. (1) Except as provided in this section, the court may modify or set aside any order made by it upon such notice and with such hearing as the court may direct.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, notice and a hearing as provided in ORS 419.486 to 419.505 shall be granted in any case where the effect of modifying or setting aside the order will or may be to deprive a parent of the legal custody of the child, to place the child in an institution or agency or to transfer the child from one institution or agency to another. However, the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to a parent whose rights have been terminated under ORS 419.523 and 419.525 or whose child has been permanently committed by order of the court unless an appeal from such order is pending.

(3) Notice and a hearing as provided in subsection (2) of this section are not required where the effect of modifying or setting aside the order will be to transfer the child from one foster home to another.

(4) No order pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of ORS 419.527 may be set aside or modified during the pendency of a proceeding for the adoption of the child, nor after a petition for adoption has been granted.

[1959 c.432 §29; 1963 c.496 §2]

419.530 [Renumbered 419.308 and then 418.570]

419.531 Termination of court's wardship over child. The court's wardship over a child brought before it continues until whichever of the following occurs first:

(1) The court dismisses the petition concerning the child or remands the case to the appropriate court handling criminal actions, or to municipal court. If the court has wardship of a child based upon a prior petition, remanding the child to the court handling criminal actions, or to municipal court in connection with a subsequent violation of a law or ordinance relating to the use or operation of a motor vehicle does not terminate the wardship, unless the court so orders.

(2) The court transfers jurisdiction over the child as provided in ORS 419.545 or subsection (2) of ORS 419.549.

(3) The court by order terminates its wardship.

(4) A decree of adoption of the child is entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(5) The child becomes 21 years of age.

[1959 c.432 §30]

419.532 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.533 Remanding of child to another court. (1) A child may be remanded to a circuit, district, justice or municipal court of competent jurisdiction for disposition as an adult if:

(a) The child is at the time of the remand 16 years of age or older; and

(b) The child committed or is alleged to have committed a criminal offense or a violation of a municipal ordinance; and

(c) The juvenile court determines that retaining jurisdiction will not serve the best interests of the child and the public.

(2) The juvenile court may enter an order directing that all cases involving violation of law or ordinance relating to the use or operation of a motor vehicle, boating laws or game laws be remanded to criminal or municipal court, subject to the following conditions:

(a) That the criminal or municipal court prior to hearing a case, other than a case involving a parking violation, in which the defendant is or appears to be under 18 years of age notify the juvenile court of that fact; and

(b) That the juvenile court may direct that any such case be remanded to the juvenile court for further proceedings.

(3) After the juvenile court has entered an order remanding a child to an adult court for doing an act which is a violation or which if done by an adult would constitute a violation of a law or ordinance of the United States or a state, county or city, the court may enter a subsequent order providing that in all future cases involving the same child, the child shall be remanded to the appropriate court without further proceedings under subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(4) The juvenile court may at any time direct that the subsequent order entered under subsection (3) of this section shall be vacated or that a pending case be remanded to the juvenile court for further proceedings. [1959 c.432 §31; 1971 c.199 §3; subsections (3) and (4) enacted as 1971 c.199 §2]

419.534 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.535 Handling of motor vehicle, boating or game offenses. If the preliminary inquiry pursuant to ORS 419.482 discloses that the child's conduct consists, or is alleged to consist, of a violation of a law or ordinance relating to the use or operation of a motor vehicle, boating laws or game laws and it appears to the court that the nature of the offense and the child's background are such that a proceeding as provided in ORS 419.484 to 419.527 is not warranted, the court may handle the case as provided in ORS 419.537 to 419.541.

[1959 c.432 §32; 1971 c.199 §4]

419.536 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.537 Petition and summons. (1) A petition relating to motor vehicle, boating or game offenses shall be filed as provided in ORS 419.482 and 419.484.

(2) Summons as provided in subsection (1) of ORS 419.486 shall be issued to the parent or other person having physical custody of the child, requiring him to appear with the child before the court at the time and place stated in the summons.

(3) The summons may be served as provided in ORS 419.488 or by mailing a copy thereof to the parent or other person having physical custody of the child. If the summons is served personally, a warrant may be issued as provided in ORS 419.490.

419.539 Hearing and finding. A hearing shall be held as provided in ORS 419.496 to 419.500. At the termination of the hearing, if the court finds the matters alleged in the petition to be true, it may enter an order finding the child to be a juvenile motor vehicle offender or a boating law offender or a game law offender and may dispose of the case as provided in subsections (1) and (2) of ORS 419.541.
