PROOF OF FUTURE RESPONSIBILITY GENERALLY

486.405 [Repealed by 1955 c.429 §51]

486.410 [Repealed by 1955 c.429 §51]

486.411 Methods of proving future responsibility. Proof of future responsibility may be given by filing with the division for the benefit of the person required to furnish such proof:

(1) A certificate of insurance issued by an insurance carrier doing business in this state, showing that the insured has procured and that there is in effect a motor vehicle liability policy for the limits of future responsibility either (a) designating by explicit description or by appropriate reference all motor vehicles with respect to which coverage is granted thereby and insuring the named insured and all other persons using any such motor vehicle with his consent against loss from the liabilities imposed by law for damages arising out of the ownership, operation, use or maintenance of any such motor vehicle; or (b) insuring such person against such loss arising out of the use by him of any motor vehicle not owned by him;

(2) A bond conditioned for the paying in behalf of the principal, the limits of future responsibility;

(3) A certificate of the State Treasurer that such person has deposited with him the sum of $25,000 in cash or in securities such as may legally be purchased by fiduciaries or for trust funds of a market value of $25,000; or

(4) Evidence that such person holds a valid certificate of self-insurance issued by the division.

486.415 [Repealed by 1955 c.429 §51]

486.416 Proof furnished for employe or relative. The owner of a motor vehicle may give proof of future responsibility on behalf of his employe or a member of his immediate family or household in lieu of the furnishing of proof by such person. The furnishing of such proof permits such person to operate only a motor vehicle covered by the proof, and the division shall indorse appropriate restrictions on the face of his license.

[1955 c.429 §15]

486.420 [Repealed by 1955 c.429 §51]

486.421 Substituting proof. At the request of a person who has filed proof of future responsibility, it shall be returned to him upon his substituting other adequate proof of future responsibility.

[1955 c.429 §16]

486.425 [Repealed by 1955 c.429 §51]

486.426 Furnishing new proof when proof is inadequate. Whenever any proof of future responsibility no longer meets the requirements of this chapter, the division shall require the furnishing of other proof meeting such requirements. If such proof is not so furnished the division shall suspend the license and registration or the nonresident's operating privilege of the person required to furnish it.

[1955 c.429 §17]

486.430 [Repealed by 1955 c.429 §51]

486.431 When filing of proof is waived. (1) Proof of future responsibility shall be returned to the person entitled thereto and the requirement of the filing thereof shall be waived:

(a) In the event of the death of the person on whose behalf such proof was filed;

(b) In the event the person surrenders his license and registration to the division; or

(c) At any time after five years from the date such proof was required when, during the one-year period preceding the request, the division has not received record of a conviction or a forfeiture of bail which would require or permit the suspension or revocation of the license or registration of the person by or for whom such proof was furnished.

(2) The division shall not release or waive such proof if any action for damages which may result in a judgment is then pending, nor in the event any judgment is outstanding and unsatisfied. An affidavit of the applicant of the nonexistence of such facts is sufficient evidence thereof in the absence of evidence to the contrary in the records of the division.

(3) If the division has released or waived any proof upon behalf of a person who has surrendered his license and registration and such person thereafter applies for a license or registration, the application shall be refused unless the applicant reestablishes such proof for the remainder of such five-year period.

(1) The division shall not accept any certificate or certificates unless all vehicles are covered that are registered in the name of or operated by the person furnishing such proof, except vehicles in storage, the current license plates and registration cards for which have been surrendered to the division.

(2) A licensee who causes a certificate or certificates of insurance to be tendered as proof of financial responsibility shall file with the division a statement that the certificate or certificates cover all vehicles registered in his name. The division may rely upon the accuracy of the information in a statement as to the extent of the coverage unless and until the division has reason to believe that the information is erroneous.

(b) Executes and delivers to the division an agreement in writing that such bond or policy shall be deemed to conform to the laws of this state relating to such bond or insurance policy.

(2) If any insurance company or surety company not authorized to transact business in this state which has qualified to furnish proof of future responsibility, defaults in any of its undertakings or agreements, the division shall not thereafter accept as proof any certificate of such carrier whether theretofore filed or thereafter tendered as proof, so long as such default continues.

Every vehicle liability policy for which a certificate of insurance is given to prove future responsibility shall state the name and address of the named insured, the coverage afforded by the policy, the premium charged therefor, the policy period, and the limits of liability, and shall contain an agreement or indorsement which provides that the insurance is provided thereunder in accordance with the coverage defined in this chapter as respects bodily injury and death or property damage, or both, and is subject to all the provisions of this chapter.

[1955 c.429 §23]

486.545 [Repealed by 1955 c.429 §51]

486.546 Liabilities which need not be covered. The vehicle liability policy need not insure any liability under any workmen's compensation law; nor any liability on account of bodily injury to or death of an employe of the insured while engaged in the employment, other than domestic, of the insured, or while engaged in the operation, maintenance or repair of a vehicle; nor any liability for damage to property owned by, rented to, in charge of, or transported by the insured.

486.550 [Repealed by 1955 c.429 §51]

486.551 When insurer's liability accrues; nonforfeiture provisions. The liability of an insurance carrier with respect to the insurance policy required by this chapter to prove future responsibility shall become absolute whenever injury or damage covered by the vehicle liability policy occurs. The policy may not be canceled or annulled as to such liability by any agreement between the insurance carrier and the insured after the occurrence of the injury or damage. No statement made by the insured or on his behalf and in violation of the policy shall defeat or void the policy. The provisions of this section are not applicable to policies of vehicle liability insurance other than those required in connection with proof of future responsibility.

[1955 c.429 §28]

486.555 [Repealed by 1955 c.429 §51]

(1) The policy, the written application therefor, if any, and any rider or indorsement which does not conflict with the provisions of this chapter shall constitute the entire contract between the parties.

(2) The satisfaction by the insured of a judgment for injury or damage shall not be a condition precedent to the right or duty of the insurance carrier to make payment on account of such injury or damage.

(3) Any binder issued pending the issuance of a vehicle liability policy shall be deemed to fulfill the requirements for such a policy.

[1955 c.429 §25]

486.560 [Repealed by 1955 c.429 §51]

486.561 Insurer's right to provide for reimbursement and proration. Any vehicle liability policy may provide that the insured shall reimburse the insurance carrier for any payment the insurance carrier would not have been obligated to make under the terms of the policy except for the provisions of this chapter and it may further provide for the prorating of the insurance thereunder with other valid and collectible insurance.

[1955 c.429 §26]

486.564 Insurer's right to settle claims. The insurance carrier shall have the right to settle any claim covered by the policy, and if such settlement is made in good faith, the amount thereof shall be deductible from the limits of liability specified in respect to a vehicle liability policy.

With respect to a policy which grants such excess or additional coverage the term "vehicle liability policy" shall apply only to that part of the coverage which is required by this chapter. The requirements for a vehicle liability policy may be fulfilled by the policies of one or more insurance carriers which policies together meet such requirements.

(b) A person is duly qualified under the laws of the State of Oregon or under an ordinance of a city of this state to act as a self-insurer and is acting as such and files an application for a certificate of self-insurance.

(2) As a part of his application, each applicant must agree to pay the same amounts with respect to accident occurring while the certificate is in force that an insurer would be obligated to pay under the vehicle liability policy for which the certificate of insurance provided by this chapter may be given.

[1955 c.429 §34]

486.575 Cancellation of self-insurance. Upon not less than five days' notice and a hearing held pursuant to such notice, the division may upon reasonable grounds cancel a certificate of self-insurance. Failure to pay any judgment within 30 days after it has become final shall constitute a reasonable ground for such cancellation.
