After the 30-day period has lapsed, three appraisers shall be appointed to fix the value of the shares of all the dissenting stockholders who do not accept the value as fixed by the merger agreement. One appraiser shall be selected by the vote of the owners of two-thirds of the shares involved at a meeting called by the superintendent on 10 days' notice, one selected by the board of directors of the resulting bank and the third selected by the two so chosen. The amount of the sale and the time and manner of payments may be agreed to by the board of directors.

(2) In addition to the requirements in subsection (1) of this section, if the sale is of all or any substantial part of the assets of the institution, the institution may sell only to another institution or national bank and notice of the proposed sale and all the terms of the sale shall be mailed to all the stockholders of the selling institution within 20 days after the board of directors' meeting at which the sale and its terms were proposed. One appraiser shall be selected by the vote of the owners of two-thirds of the shares involved at a meeting called by the superintendent on 10 days' notice, one selected by the board of directors of the institution and one selected by the two so chosen. The valuation agreed upon by any two appraisers governs, and all stockholders involved are bound by the agreed upon value. If any necessary appraiser is not appointed within 60 days after the receipt of the written demand for payment or if the appraisal is not completed within 90 days after receipt of the written demand for payment, the superintendent shall cause an appraisal to be made. 711.620 Suspending or restricting payment of liabilities; duration. (1) The superintendent may order a bank to suspend or restrict the payment of its liabilities to depositors and other creditors except as provided in ORS 711.620 to 711.670, if the action is necessary for the protection of the depositors and other creditors of the bank and is in the public interest.

(2) The order of the superintendent is effective upon receipt by the bank of written or telegraphic notice thereof signed by the superintendent and shall continue in effect until released or modified by the written order of the superintendent. The suspension and restriction shall not exceed a period of 90 days, but may be extended for further periods not to exceed 90 days each upon the written order of the superintendent.

711.625 Taking possession of bank by superintendent; powers of superintendent; expenses. (1) When the order mentioned in ORS 711.620 takes effect, the superintendent shall immediately take possession of the books, records and assets of the bank, and take whatever action is necessary to conserve the assets of the bank pending further disposition of its business.

(2) While the superintendent is in possession of a bank, he shall have all the powers given to the superintendent in connection with insolvent banks, and the rights of interested parties shall, subject to ORS 711.620 to 711.670, be the same as if the superintendent had taken possession of the bank because of insolvency.

(3) All expenses of the superintendent while in possession of the bank shall be paid out of the assets of the bank and shall be a lien on the assets prior to any other lien.

[1973 c.797 §294]

711.630 Pro rata withdrawals by depositors. While the bank is in the possession of the superintendent under ORS 711.625, he may set aside and make available for withdrawal by depositors on a ratable basis such amounts as in his opinion may safely be used for the purpose.

[1973 c.797 §295]

711.635 Receiving new deposits; segregation. (1) While the bank is in the possession of the superintendent under ORS 711.625, the bank may accept deposits but the deposits shall not be subject to any limitation as to payment or withdrawal.

(2) Deposits received after the superintendent takes possession and the amounts released for payment to depositors under ORS 711.630, shall be segregated and held and used solely to meet the deposit liability and the pro rata amount so released. They shall not be used to liquidate any indebtedness of the bank existing at the time the superintendent took possession, or any subsequent indebtedness incurred in liquidating any indebtedness of the bank existing at the time the superintendent took possession.

(3) Deposits received while the bank is in the possession of the superintendent shall be kept on hand in cash, invested in direct obligations of the United States or deposited with an approved reserve depository.

711.640 Termination of suspension or restriction on payment of liabilities. (1) The superintendent may, by order, on a date fixed by the order and at least 10 days after the date of the order, terminate the suspension or restriction on payment of liabilities of the bank designated in the order.

(2) Immediately upon the termination of the suspension or restriction on payment of liabilities of the bank designated in the order, the superintendent shall surrender possession of the assets and properties of the bank to the proper officers of the bank. The receipt of the officers operates as a full release of the superintendent.

[1973 c.797 §297]

711.645 Notice of termination of suspension or restriction on payment of liabilities. (1) At least 10 days before the date on which the suspension or restriction on the payment of liabilities is terminated, the superintendent shall cause a notice to be published in a newspaper circulated in the city, town or county in which the principal office of the bank is located. Only one publication of the notice is required.

(2) The notice shall specify:

(a) The date on which the suspension or restriction on the payment of liabilities will be removed;

(b) That the provisions of ORS 711.635 pertaining to the segregation of deposits will not be effective after that date; and

(c) That the segregated deposits after the removal of the restriction or suspension will be general deposits.

(3) On or before the date of the publication of the notice, the superintendent shall mail, postage prepaid, to each depositor in the bank whose deposit has been segregated as provided by ORS 711.635 a copy of the notice addressed to the last-known address of each depositor as shown by the records of the bank.

(4) The superintendent shall hand a copy of the notice to every depositor making a deposit in the bank after the date of the newspaper publication and up to the time the suspension or restriction on the payment of liabilities of the bank is removed.

[1973 c.797 §298]

711.650 Deposits to remain segregated until termination notice has been given. If the superintendent removes the restrictions or suspensions on the payment of liabilities of any bank and surrenders possession of the assets and properties of the bank to the proper officers of the bank, before the 10 days' notice provided for by ORS 711.645 has been given, the bank shall keep deposits segregated under ORS 711.635 separate and apart from its other assets until the notice has been given by the bank in the manner provided in ORS 711.645. After the notice has been given, the segregated deposits shall become general deposits and may be mingled with the other assets of the bank and the provisions of ORS 711.635 with respect to segregation of deposits shall no longer apply.

[1973 c.797 §299]

711.655 Use of suspended deposits to pay indebtedness of depositor. Nothing in ORS 711.620 to 711.670 prevents the assignment of a suspended deposit liability or the application of all or a part of a suspended deposit to payment at maturity of any indebtedness of the depositor to the bank which existed at the time the suspension became effective, but a deposit liability subsequently assigned may not be so applied.

[1973 c.797 §300]

711.660 Assignment or transfer of capital stock invalid while payment of liabilities suspended or restricted. While the payment of the liabilities of any bank is suspended or restricted under ORS 711.620, an assignment or transfer of the capital stock of the bank is invalid.

[1973 c.797 §301]

711.665 Suspension or restriction of liability payment not evidence of insolvency. An order of the superintendent under ORS 711.620 to 711.670 or the taking possession of the assets and properties of a bank by the superintendent under ORS 711.620 to 711.670 is not an act of insolvency of the bank and does not raise any presumption of insolvency.

[1973 c.797 §302]

711.670 Compliance with ORS 711.620 to 711.670 as a defense to depositor's action. Compliance with the terms and conditions of ORS 711.620 to 711.670 and orders and rules promulgated as a result of ORS 711.620 to 711.670 is a complete defense to any suit or action brought by any depositor or creditor against a bank with respect to any deposit or contract liability.

[1973 c.797 §303]

PENALTIES

711.990 Penalties. Violation of ORS 711.415 knowingly is a Class C felony.
