(1) A juvenile who is a student at a juvenile training school may apply for commitment to an institution for the mentally ill or mentally deficient. The application may be made on behalf of the juvenile by his parent or legal guardian.

(2) Within 72 hours after receipt of the application, the superintendent of the juvenile training school shall cause the juvenile to be examined by one or more qualified persons at the school and shall request the examination of the juvenile by one or more qualified persons employed by the Mental Health Division. The examination conducted by the Mental Health Division shall take place within 72 hours after receipt of the request from the superintendent. (b) If the superintendent finds that the examiners disagree, he shall notify the applicant that the application for voluntary commitment has been denied.

(4) Except when a period of longer hospitalization has been imposed as a condition of admission, pursuant to rules of the Mental Health Division, no student at a juvenile training school voluntarily admitted to any state institution for the mentally ill or mentally deficient under this section shall be detained therein more than 72 hours after he is at least 18 years of age and has given notice in writing of his desire to be returned to juvenile training school. That certificate shall be transmitted to the juvenile court of the county in which the state institution to which the proposed transfer and commitment is to be made. The court may require that any other records helpful to its determination of the juvenile's mental condition be forwarded to the court, including records of the juvenile court which committed the juvenile to the juvenile training school.

(3) The juvenile court shall hold a preliminary hearing to determine whether probable cause exists to believe that the juvenile is mentally ill or mentally deficient. Upon the showing of probable cause, the court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether to commit the juvenile. Prior to such hearing, the court shall be advised of any treatment or drugs being administered to the juvenile which might substantially affect his ability to participate in the hearing. Notice of the hearing shall be given to the juvenile, his parents and his legal guardian.

(4) The court shall advise the juvenile of his rights, the reasons he has been brought before the court, the nature of the proceedings and the possible results thereof.
