9.020 [Amended by 1971 c 103 §1, repealed by 1973 c 114 §5]

9.025 Board of governors; number; eligibility; term; effect of membership. (1) The Oregon State Bar shall be governed by a board of governors consisting of 12 active members of the Oregon State Bar, each of whom shall, on appointment, on nomination, on election and during the full term for which he was appointed or elected, maintain his principal office in the region of this state in which the active members of the Oregon State Bar eligible to vote in his election maintain their principal offices.

(2) For the purpose of eligibility for nomination and to vote in the election of a member of the board of governors, and for appointment to the board of governors, the State of Oregon is divided into six regions, constituted as follows:

(5) The term of any member of the board of governors shall terminate on the date:

(a) Of the death or resignation of the member; or

(b) Of the termination of his active membership in the Oregon State Bar for any reason; or

(c) When he discontinues to maintain his principal office in the region in which he maintained it at the time of his appointment or election; or

(d) When he assumes office as a judge of a municipal, state or federal court, or fills a full-time judicial office.

(6) No member of the board of governors shall be eligible, during his term of office, for service pro tempore as a judge of any municipal, state or federal court.

[1973 c.114 §1]

9.030 Voting rights; eligibility of members for board. Members shall vote in and be eligible for nomination and election to the board of governors from the region in which they maintain their principal offices.

[Amended by 1971 c.103 §2; 1973 c.114 §2]

9.040 Election of governors. The election of governors shall be held on the third Monday of August of each year. Nomination shall be by petition signed by at least 10 members entitled to vote for such nominee. Election shall be by ballot. Nominating petitions shall be filed with the secretary of the state bar at least 30 days before the election. The secretary shall mail ballots containing the nominations for the office of governor in each region to every active member in such region, on or before the first day of August preceding such election. Ballots shall be deposited in person or by mail with the secretary on or before the day of the election. The secretary, with two assistants to be selected by him, shall canvass the votes and record the result thereof. The candidate in each region receiving the highest vote shall be declared elected, except that, in region five, the candidate receiving the highest vote and the candidate receiving the next highest vote shall be declared elected. The balloting shall be so conducted that only active members can vote, and the secrecy of the ballot shall be preserved.

[Amended by 1973 c.114 §3]

9.050 Recall of governors. Upon petition signed by 25 percent of the members in any region for the recall of any governor elected from that region, the secretary shall serve notice forthwith on such governor of the filing of the petition; and, if he does not resign within 10 days from the date of such service, the secretary shall mail ballots to each member of the bar within the region, submitting the question whether such governor shall be recalled. If a majority of the members voting at such election vote in favor of the recall, then the governor shall be recalled.

[Amended by 1973 c.114 §4]

9.060 Vacancies; election of officers. A president, vice president, secretary and treasurer shall be elected by the governors each year immediately following the annual election of governors and before the newly elected governors have qualified. The president and vice president shall be elected from among the board members. All officers shall continue in office until their successors are elected and qualify. Vacancies in the board of governors, or in any of the offices, shall be filled by the board by appointment for the remainder of the term. The secretary, the treasurer and such other assistants as the board may require, may be selected from within or without the membership of the board, and shall be paid such compensation as the board shall determine. All officers shall take office immediately upon their election.

9.070 Duties of officers; bonds of secretary and treasurer; deposit and disbursement of fees. The president shall preside at all meetings of the state bar and of the board of governors, and in his absence or inability to act the vice president shall preside. Other duties of the president and vice president and the duties of the secretary and treasurer shall be such as the board of governors may prescribe. The secretary and the treasurer shall each give bond, with some qualified surety company as surety, in such amount as the board shall fix, conditioned for the faithful accounting for all money received by them in their official capacities. All fees shall be paid into the treasury of the state bar, and when so paid shall become part of its funds and shall be disbursed only on order of the board of governors.

9.080 Function of board; duties generally; professional liability fund; quorum; status of employes of Oregon State Bar. (1) The state bar shall be governed by the board of governors, except as provided in ORS 9.130. The board is charged with the executive functions of the state bar and shall at all times direct its power to the advancement of the science of jurisprudence and the improvement of the administration of justice. It shall have the authority to adopt, alter, amend and repeal bylaws and to adopt new bylaws containing provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the state bar not inconsistent with law. The board shall have the authority to require all active members of the state bar engaged in the private practice of law in Oregon to carry professional liability insurance and shall be empowered either by itself, or in conjunction with other bar organizations, to do whatever is necessary and convenient to implement this provision, including the authority to own, organize and sponsor any insurance organization authorized under the laws of the State of Oregon and to establish a lawyer's professional liability fund. This fund shall pay, on behalf of members of the Oregon State Bar in the private practice of law, all sums as may be provided under such plan which any member shall become legally obligated to pay as money damages because of any claim made against such member as a result of any act or omission of such member in rendering or failing to render professional services for others in the member's capacity as an attorney or caused by any other person for whose acts or omissions the member is legally responsible. The board shall have the authority to assess all attorneys in the private practice of law for contributions to such fund. Any fund so established shall not be subject to the Insurance Code of the State of Oregon.

(2) The board may appoint such committees, officers and employes as it deems necessary or proper and fix and pay their compensation and necessary expenses. At any meeting of the board, two-thirds of the total number of members then in office shall constitute a quorum. It shall promote and encourage voluntary county or other local bar associations.

(3) Except as provided in this subsection, an employe of the state bar shall not be considered an "employe" as the term is defined in the public employes' retirement laws. However, an employe of the state bar may, at his option, for the purpose of becoming a member of the Public Employes' Retirement System, be considered an "employe" as the term is defined in the public employes' retirement laws. The option, once exercised by written notification directed to the Public Employes' Retirement Board, may not be revoked subsequently, except as may otherwise be provided by law. Upon receipt of such notification by the Public Employes' Retirement Board, an employe of the state bar who would otherwise, but for the exemption provided in this subsection, be considered an "employe," as the term is defined in the public employes' retirement laws, shall be so considered. The state bar and its employes shall be exempt from the provisions of the State Merit System Law. No member of the state bar shall be considered an "employe" as the term is defined in the public employes' retirement laws, the unemployment compensation laws and the State Merit System Law solely by reason of his membership in the state bar.

(4) As used in this section, an attorney is not engaged in the private practice of law if he is a full-time employe of a corporation other than a corporation incorporated under ORS chapter 58, the state, an agency or department thereof, a county, city, special district or any other public or municipal corporation or any instrumentality thereof. However, an attorney who practices law outside of his full-time employment is engaged in the private practice of law.

[Amended by 1955 c 463 §2; 1975 c 641 §3, 1977 c 527 §1]

9.090 Appropriation and disbursement of funds; compensation and expenses of board members. The board may make appropriations and disbursements from the funds of the state bar and pay all necessary expenses. Members of the board are entitled to compensation and expenses as provided in ORS 292.495.

[Amended by 1969 c 314 §5]

9.100 Statement of receipts and expenditures. The board shall have prepared annually an itemized statement showing the total amount of receipts and expenditures of the state bar for the 12 months preceding. Such statement shall be certified promptly under oath by the president and treasurer to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

9.110 Rules and regulations; quorum at bar meetings; special bar meetings. The board may formulate and declare rules and regulations necessary or expedient for carrying out the functions of the state bar and shall fix the manner and time of calling special meetings of the state bar. The board shall, however, call a special meeting of the state bar when so requested in writing by no fewer than 50 voting members from each of the regions specified in ORS 9.025. A quorum at any regular or special meeting of the state bar shall consist of 100 members.

[Amended by 1975 c 641 §4]

9.120 Annual meetings of bar; reports and recommendations. An annual meeting of the bar shall be held at a time and place fixed by the board of governors. At the annual meeting, reports of the proceedings by the board since the last annual meeting, reports of other officers and committees and recommendations of the board shall be received.

9.130 Authority of bar members at meetings. At any meeting of the state bar the members present, by a majority vote, may modify or rescind any action or decision of the board of governors and also may instruct the board as to future action, and the board shall be bound by any such action of the bar. The right of the bar to direct, modify or rescind an act of the board shall not include power to invalidate payments previously made under the direction of the board, and shall not apply to those powers of the board which are subject to the control or approval of or review by the Supreme Court, except as provided in ORS 9.490.

MEMBERSHIP IN THE BAR

9.160 Practice of law by persons other than active members. Except for the right reserved to litigants by ORS 9.320 to prosecute or defend a cause in person, no person shall practice law or represent himself as qualified to practice law unless he is an active member of the Oregon State Bar.

9.180 Classes of membership. All persons admitted to practice law in this state thereby shall become active members of the Oregon State Bar. Every member shall be an active member unless, at his request, or for reasons prescribed by statute or the rules of the Supreme Court, he is enrolled as an inactive member. An inactive member may, on compliance with the rules of the Supreme Court and payment of all required fees, again become an active member. Inactive members shall not hold office or vote, but they shall have such other privileges as the board of governors may provide.
[Amended by 1961 c 499 §1]

9.190 [Amended by 1957 c.271 §1, 1961 c.138 §1, part renumbered 9 200(2); repealed by 1969 c 602 §1 (9 191 enacted in lieu of 9 190)]

9.191 Annual membership fees; assessments. The annual membership fees to be paid by members of the state bar on or before February 1 of each year shall be established by the board, and notice thereof shall be published and distributed to the membership on or before August 15 of the preceding year. Any increase in annual membership fees over the amount established for the preceding year must be approved by a majority of members voting thereon at the annual meeting of the members. In establishing annual membership fees, the board shall consider and be guided by the anticipated financial needs of the state bar for the year for which the fees are established, time periods of membership and active or inactive status of members. Annual membership fees may include any amount assessed under any plan for legal liability insurance for attorneys engaged in the private practice of law as provided in ORS 9.080. No annual membership fees shall be required or assessed by the board for members who have been admitted to practice law in Oregon for 50 years or more except that such member shall be required to pay any amount assessed under any plan for legal liability coverage if such member is in the private practice of law.

[1969 c.602 §2 (enacted in lieu of 9 190); 1973 c 21 §1, 1975 c 641 §5, 1977 c 527 §2]

9.200 Effect of failure to pay membership fees; reinstatement. (1) Any member of the bar in default in payment of membership fees for a period of 90 days, shall, after 60 days' written notice of his delinquency, be suspended from membership in the bar. The notice of delinquency shall be sent by the secretary of the bar, by registered or certified mail, to the member in default at his last-known post-office address. Failure to pay the fees within 60 days after the date of the deposit of the notice in the post office shall automatically suspend the delinquent member. The names of all members suspended from membership for nonpayment of fees shall be certified by the secretary of the bar to the Clerk of the Supreme Court and to each of the judges of the circuit and district courts of the state.

(2) An active member delinquent in the payment of such fees shall not be entitled to vote.

(3) A member suspended for delinquency in payment of membership fees shall be reinstated only on compliance with the rules of the Supreme Court and payment of all required fees.

[Amended by 1957 c 271 §1; 1961 c 499 §2, subsection (2) formerly part of 9 190]

9.210 Examining committee; fees of applicants for admission to practice. With the approval of the Supreme Court, the board may appoint a committee to examine applicants and recommend to the Supreme Court for admission to practice law those who fulfill the requirements prescribed by law and the rules of the Supreme Court. With the approval of the Supreme Court the board may fix and collect fees to be paid by applicants for admission, which fees shall be paid into the treasury of the state bar.

9.220 General requirements for admission. An applicant for admission as attorney must apply to the Supreme Court and show that he or she:

(1) Is a citizen of the United States, except as provided in ORS 9.230, and of this state, and at least 18 years old, which proof may be made by the applicant's affidavit.

(2) Is a person of good moral character, which may be proved by any evidence satisfactory to the court.

(3) Has the requisite learning and ability, which must be shown by the examination of the applicant, by the judges, or under their direction, in open court, at the term at which the application is made, except as provided in ORS 9.210.

[Amended by 1973 c 827 §2]

9.230 Admission of aliens. Any alien who has duly declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States, and has become a resident of this state, may be admitted as an attorney with the same powers and privileges as though he were a citizen of the United States. It shall be sufficient if in his application for admission he shows that he has declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States; but if within six months after he is entitled to become a citizen of the United States he fails to become a citizen, his admission shall be void.

9.240 Appearance of attorneys licensed in other jurisdictions. An attorney of the highest court of record in any other state or country may appear, if associated with an active member of the Oregon State Bar, as counsel for a party in a particular action, suit or proceeding then pending in court, or before a judicial officer of this state.

[Amended by 1961 c 499 §3]

9.250 Oath of qualified applicant; order for admission. If an applicant for admission as an attorney is found qualified, the court shall administer an oath to the applicant, to support the Constitution and laws of the United States and of this state, and to faithfully and honestly demean himself in office. The court shall then direct an order to be entered to the effect that the applicant is a citizen of the United States or has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and is a citizen of this state, of the age of 18 years, of good moral character, and possesses the requisite learning and ability to practice as an attorney in all the courts of this state, and has taken the oath of office. Upon the entry of the order, he is entitled to practice as such attorney.

[Amended by 1973 c 827 §3]

9.260 Resignation of attorney. An attorney may at any time file in the office of the secretary of the Oregon State Bar a written resignation. After filing a resignation he is not entitled to the rights nor subject to the disabilities or prohibitions incident to that relation, except that he is still subject to the power of the court in respect to matters arising while he was an attorney.

[Amended by 1953 c 604 §1]

9.270 Forwarding copy of resignation to State Court Administrator; re-admission to practice. The secretary of the Oregon State Bar shall immediately forward a copy thereof to the State Court Administrator, who shall file it in his office. An attorney who has resigned may be readmitted to practice only on compliance with the rules of the Supreme Court.

[Amended by 1953 c 604 §1, 1961 c 499 §4, 1971 c 193 §17]

ATTORNEY AND CLIENT RELATIONSHIP

9.310 Attorney defined; counsel. An attorney is a person authorized to represent a party in the written proceedings in any action, suit or proceeding, in any stage thereof. An attorney, other than the one who represents the party in the written proceedings, may also represent a party in court, or before a judicial officer, in which case he is known as counsel, and his authority is limited to the matters that transpire in the court or before such officer at the time.

9.320 Necessity for employment of attorney; effect of employment. Any action, suit, or proceeding may be prosecuted or defended by a party in person, or by attorney, except that the state or a corporation appears by attorney in all cases, unless otherwise specifically provided by law. Where a party appears by attorney, the written proceedings must be in the name of the attorney, who is the sole representative of his client as between him and the adverse party, except as provided in ORS 9.310.

[Amended by 1975 c 451 §171]

9.330 Authority of an attorney. An attorney has authority to bind his client in any of the proceedings in an action, suit or proceeding, by his agreement, filed with the clerk or entered upon the journal of the court; and he also has authority to receive money or property claimed by his client in an action, suit or proceeding, during the pendency thereof, or within three years after judgment or decree, and upon the payment or delivery thereof to discharge the claim or acknowledge satisfaction of the judgment or decree. This section does not prevent a party from employing a new attorney to issue execution upon a judgment or decree, or to take other proceedings prescribed by law for its enforcement, and when he does so, the authority of the former attorney ceases.

9.340 Challenge by party of attorney's authority to appear for him. If it is alleged by a party for whom an attorney appears that he does so without authority, and the allegation is verified by the affidavit of the party, the court may, if it finds the allegation true, at any stage of the proceedings relieve the party for whom the attorney has assumed to appear from the consequences of the attorney's acts.

9.350 Challenge of attorney's authority to appear for adverse party. The court or judge thereof may, on motion of either party and on showing reasonable grounds therefor, require the attorney for an adverse party to prove the authority under which he appears, and until he does so, may stay all proceedings by him on behalf of the party for whom he assumes to appear.

9.360 Compelling delivery by attorney of money or papers. When an attorney refuses to deliver over money or papers to a person from whom or for whom he has received them in the course of professional employment, he may be required by an order of the court in which a judicial proceeding was prosecuted or defended, or if none were prosecuted or defended, then by an order of the circuit court or judge thereof for the county where such attorney resides or may be found, to do so within a specified time, or show cause why he should not be punished for a contempt.

9.370 Compelling delivery when attorney claims lien. If an attorney claims a lien, under the provisions of ORS 87.440, upon the money or papers subject to delivery under ORS 9.360, the court shall:

(1) Impose, as a condition of making the order, the requirement that the client give security, in form and amount to be directed, to satisfy the lien when determined in an action or suit; or

(2) Summarily inquire into the facts on which the claim of a lien is founded, and determine the same; or

(3) Direct the trial of the controversy by a jury, or refer it, and upon the verdict or report, determine the same as in other cases.

[Amended by 1975 c.648 §70]

9.380 Mode of changing attorneys. The attorney in an action, suit, or proceeding, may be changed, or the relationship of attorney and client terminated, as follows:

(1) Before judgment, decree or final determination, upon the consent of the attorney filed with the clerk or entered upon the journal; or,

(2) At any time, upon the order of the court or judge thereof, based on the application of the client or the attorney, for good and sufficient cause.

9.390 Notice of change. When an attorney is changed as provided in ORS 9.380, written notice of the change and of the substitution of a new attorney, or of the appearance of the party in person, shall be given to the adverse party. Until then he is bound to recognize the former attorney.

PROFESSIONAL ETHICS; DISCIPLINE OF ATTORNEYS

9.460 Duties of attorneys. An attorney shall:

(1) Support the Constitution and laws of the United States and of this state;

(2) Maintain the respect due to courts and judicial officers;

(3) Counsel or maintain such actions, suits, or proceedings or defenses only as may appear to him legal and just, except the defense of a person charged with a public offense;

(4) Employ, for the purpose of maintaining the causes confided to him, such means only as are consistent with truth, and never seek to mislead the court or jury by any artifice or false statement of law or fact;

(5) Maintain inviolate the confidence, and at every peril to himself, preserve the secrets of his clients;

(6) Abstain from all offensive personality, and advance no fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a party or witness, unless required by the justice of the cause with which he is charged;

(7) Not encourage the commencement or continuance of an action, suit or proceeding from any motives of passion or interest; and,

(8) Never reject, for any consideration personal to himself, the cause of the defenseless or the oppressed.

9.470 [Repealed by 1965 c.353 §2]

9.480 Grounds for disbarment, suspension or reprimand. The Supreme Court may disbar, suspend or reprimand a member of the bar whenever, upon proper proceedings for that purpose, it appears to the court that:

(1) He has committed an act or carried on a course of conduct of such nature that, if he were applying for admission to the bar, his application should be denied; or

(2) He has been convicted in any jurisdiction of an offense which is a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or a felony under the laws of this state, or is punishable by death or imprisonment under the laws of the United States, in any of which cases the record of his conviction shall be conclusive evidence; or

(3) He has wilfully disobeyed an order of a court requiring him to do or forbear an act connected with his profession; or
