(b) Consult with and advise cities, corporations or firms operating or intending to construct water supply systems, concerning the most appropriate domestic water supply sources, the best practical methods of assuring the purity thereof or of disposing of their drainage or sewage. In so doing, the division shall consider the present and prospective needs and interests of other cities, corporations or firms which may be affected by the action.

(2) Any community or public water supply system or any domestic water supply source, the tentative plans for which have been approved by the division according to the rules adopted under ORS 448.225 at the time of the approval, and which does not threaten to cause a public health hazard, shall not be subject to rules which may be adopted under ORS 448.245 after the date of approval. However, extensions, modifications, or alterations of these systems must comply with all rules adopted under ORS 448.245 and in effect at the time the extension, modification or alteration is approved pursuant to subsections (1) and (3) of ORS 448.225.

[Formerly 449.223; 1975 c.254 §4]

(a) The person or governmental unit operating a community, public, public utility or municipal water supply system declares that the time required for compliance under ORS 448.220 causes or is likely to cause a system to supply water that is not adequate or that is a public health hazard.

(b) The assistant director or his authorized representative determines that the time required for compliance under ORS 448.220 causes or is likely to cause a system to supply water that is not adequate or that is a public health hazard.

(2) Within 30 days after remedy of an emergency, the person or governmental unit operating a community, public, public utility or municipal water supply system pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall comply with all rules of the division adopted pursuant to subsection (2) of ORS 448.220.

However, if the proposed plan calls for completion of the project in a series of successive phases over a period of years, the approval under subsection (1) of this section applies to the entire project.

(5) Before operating a community or public water supply system for which tentative plans have been approved, final plans shall be submitted and approved by the division, either as originally submitted or as modified to meet requirements in effect at the time of tentative approval pursuant to this section.

(6) Within 21 days after receipt of the final plans the division shall approve the final plans for the community or public water supply system as long as any modifications or alterations of the approved tentative plans meet the requirements pursuant to this section. Approval of the final plans by the division shall constitute approval of the community or public water supply system.
