(2) The presiding circuit court judge of the judicial district may order the return, removal, substitution or destruction of exhibits offered or received in any case in which final judgment was entered in that judicial district.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section shall not apply in cases involving the determination of water rights, records and exhibits of which shall be permanently retained.

(4) In cases of criminal convictions and in cases involving the remand of a child to an adult court under ORS 419.533 where the child subsequently was convicted of the offense which was the basis of the remand order, subsection (1) of this section shall not apply until the passage of 20 years after conviction or the death of the defendant, whichever occurs first.

Whenever requested, the clerk or court administrator shall search the records and files, and give a certificate thereof according to the nature of the inquiry. [Amended by 1971 c.193 §16; 1979 c.833 §2]

7.140 Substitution of copy of lost record. If the record of any judgment, decree or other proceeding of any judicial court of this state, or any part of the record of any judicial proceeding, is lost or destroyed, any party or person interested may, on application, by petition in writing under oath to the court and on showing to its satisfaction that the record has been lost or destroyed without fault or neglect of the applicant, obtain an order from the court authorizing the defect to be supplied by a certified copy of the original record when it can be obtained. The certified copy shall have the same effect as the original record.

7.150 Order of restoration when no copy available. If the loss or destruction of any record or part thereof as mentioned in ORS 7.140 has happened and the defect cannot be supplied as therein provided, any party or person interested may make a written application to the court, to which the record belonged, verified by affidavit showing its loss or destruction and that certified copies cannot be obtained by the applicant. It shall also show the substance of the record and that its loss or destruction occurred without the fault or neglect of the applicant. Thereupon the court shall cause the application to be entered of record in the court, and due notice of it shall be given as in actions at law, that it will be heard by the court. If, upon the hearing, the court shall be satisfied that the statements contained in the written application are true, it shall make an order reciting what was the substance and effect of the lost or destroyed record. This order shall be entered of record in the court, and have the same effect which the original record would have had so far as concerns the applicant and the persons who shall have been notified as herein provided. For this purpose he may cause citations to be issued to any parties designated by him, and he may compel the attendance in court of witnesses whose testimony may be necessary to the establishment of the record or part thereof. He may also compel the production of written or documentary evidence which he deems necessary in determining the true import and effect of the original record, will, paper or other document belonging to the files of the court. He may also make orders and decrees establishing the original record, will, paper, document or proceeding, or its substance, as to him shall seem just and proper. The judge may make all rules and regulations governing the proceedings for the restoration as in his judgment will best secure the rights and protect the interest of all parties concerned.

7.170 When copy of higher court record may be filed in lower court; effect when original is lost or destroyed. In case of the loss or destruction of the original record of any cause removed to the Supreme Court or to the Court of Appeals, a certified copy of the record of the cause remaining in the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals may be filed in the court from which the cause was removed, on motion of any interested party or person.
