128.005 Definitions for ORS 128.003 to 128.051 and 128.065. As used in ORS 128.003 to 128.051 and 128.065:

(1) "Trust" means an express trust created by a trust instrument, including a will, whereby a trustee has the duty to administer a trust asset for the benefit of a named or otherwise described income or principal beneficiary, or both; "trust" does not include a resulting or constructive trust, a business trust which provides for certificates to be issued to the beneficiary, an investment trust, a voting trust, a security instrument, a trust created by the judgment or decree of a court, a liquidation trust, or a trust for the primary purpose of paying dividends, interests, interest coupons, salaries, wages, pensions or profits, or employe benefits of any kind, an instrument wherein a person is nominee or escrowee for another, a trust created in deposits in any financial institution, or other trust the nature of which does not admit of general trust administration.

(2) "Trustee" means an original, added, or successor trustee and includes the state, or any agency thereof, when it is acting as the trustee of a trust as defined in this section.

128.007 Powers of trustee conferred by trust or by law. (1) The trustee has all powers conferred upon him by the provisions of ORS 128.003 to 128.051 and 128.065 except as is otherwise provided by statute. However, the trust instrument may confer powers in addition to those conferred under ORS 128.003 to 128.051 and 128.065 or, by specific reference, prohibit the exercise of any power conferred under ORS 128.003 to 128.051 and 128.065.

(2) An instrument which is not a trust under subsection (1) of section 1 of ORS 128.005 may incorporate any part of ORS 128.003 to 128.051 and 128.065 by reference.

[1977 c.614 §2]

128.009 Powers of trustee. (1) From time of creation of the trust until final distribution of the assets of the trust, a trustee has the power to perform, without court authorization, every act which a prudent man would perform for the purposes of the trust including but not limited to the powers specified in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) In the exercise of his powers including the powers granted by ORS 128.003 to 128.051 and 128.065, a trustee has a duty to act with due regard to his obligation as a fiduciary.

(3) A trustee has the power, subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section:

(a) To collect, hold, and retain trust assets received from a trustor until, in the judgment of the trustee, disposition of the assets should be made;

(b) To receive additions to the assets of the trust;

(r) To borrow money to be repaid from trust assets or otherwise; to advance money for the protection of the trust, and for all expenses, losses, and liability sustained in the administration of the trust or because of the holding or ownership of any trust assets, for which advances with any interest the trustee has a lien on the trust assets as against the beneficiary;

[1977 c.614 §3]

128.010 [Renumbered 128.055]

128.015 Transfer of trustee's office; resignation of trustee. Unless otherwise provided in the trust instrument, while continuing to act as a trustee, the trustee shall not transfer his office to another or delegate the entire administration of the trust to a cotrustee or another. Upon approval of a court of competent jurisdiction a trustee may resign. [1977 c.614 §4]

128.020 [Amended by 1969 c.267 §1; renumbered 128.057]

128.021 Power of court to relieve trustee from restrictions on trustee's power. ORS 128.003 to 128.051 and 128.065 do not affect the power of a court of competent jurisdiction for cause shown and upon petition of the trustee or affected beneficiary and upon appropriate notice to the affected parties to relieve a trustee from any restrictions on his power that would otherwise be placed upon him by the trust or by ORS 128.003 to 128.051

and 128.065. [1977 c.614 §5]

128.025 [1969 c.267 §3; renumbered 128.061]

128.026 Powers of joint trustees; liability. (1) Any power vested in three or more trustees may be exercised by a majority, but a trustee who has not joined in exercising a power is not liable to the beneficiaries or to others for the consequences of the exercise; and a dissenting trustee is not liable for the consequences of an act in which he joins at the direction of the majority of the trustees, if he expressed his dissent in writing to any of his cotrustees at or before the time of the joinder.

(2) If two or more trustees are appointed to perform a trust, and if any of them is unable or refuses to accept the appointment, or, having accepted, ceases to be a trustee, the surviving or remaining trustees shall perform the trust and succeed to all the powers, duties, and discretionary authority given to the trustees jointly.

(3) This section does not excuse a cotrustee from liability for failure either to participate in the administration of the trust or to attempt to prevent a breach of trust. [1977 c.614 §6]

128.030 [Amended by 1977 c.614 §13; renumbered 128.065]

128.031 Protection of third persons dealing with trustee. With respect to a third person dealing with a trustee or assisting a trustee in the conduct of a transaction, the existence of trust powers and their proper exercise by the trustee may be assumed without inquiry. The third person is not bound to inquire whether the trustee has power to act or is properly exercising the power; and a third person, without actual knowledge that the trustee is exceeding his powers or improperly exercising them, is fully protected in dealing with the trustee as if the trustee possessed and properly exercised the powers he purports to exercise. A third person is not bound to assure the proper application of trust assets paid or delivered to the trustee. [1977 c.614 §7]

128.035 Application of ORS 128.003 to 128.051. Except as specifically provided in the trust, the provisions of ORS 128.003 to 128.051 and 128.065 apply to any trust established before or after October 4, 1977, and to any trust asset acquired by the trustee before or after October 4, 1977. [1977 c.614 §8]

128.040 [Repealed by 1977 c.614 §14]

128.041 Uniformity of interpretation. ORS 128.003 to 128.051 and 128.065 shall be construed to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it. [1977 c.614 §9]

128.045 Severability. If any provision of ORS 128.005 to 128.051 and 128.065 or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of ORS 128.005 to 128.051 and 128.065 which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of ORS 128.005 to 128.051 and 128.065 are severable. [1977 c.614 §11]

128.050 [Repealed by 1977 c.614 §14]

128.051 Judicial review of certain acts of trustee; remedy for payment of excessive compensation. On petition of an interested person, after notice to all interested persons, the propriety of employment of any person by a trustee including any attorney, auditor, investment advisor or other specialized agent or assistant, the reasonableness of the compensation of any person so employed, or the reasonableness of the compensation determined by the trustee for his own services, may be reviewed by the court. Any person who has received excessive compensation from a trust for services rendered may be ordered to make appropriate refunds. [1977 c.614 §12]

DUTIES OF TRUSTEES AND FIDUCIARIES GENERALLY

128.055 Accountability for faithful execution of trust. All trustees residing or transacting business in Oregon are accountable for the faithful execution of the trust imposed upon them, according to the terms of the trust. [Formerly 128.010]

128.057 Investments by fiduciaries; standard of prudent person. (1) In acquiring, investing, reinvesting, exchanging, retaining, selling and managing property for the benefit of another, a fiduciary shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing, which persons of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income as well as the probable safety of their capital. Within the limitations of the foregoing standard, a fiduciary is authorized to acquire and retain every kind of property, real, personal or mixed, and every kind of investment, specifically including, but not by way of limitation, bonds, debentures, and other corporate or government obligations, preferred or common stocks, interests in common trust funds, securities of any open-end or closed-end management type investment company or investment trust, and, subject to subsection (3) of this section, contracts of life insurance, which persons of prudence, discretion and intelligence acquire or retain for their own account.

(2) "Contracts of life insurance," as used in this section, means contracts of life insurance as defined by ORS 731.170 and issued by authorized insurers as defined by ORS 731.066.

(3) A fiduciary shall not invest more than 25 percent of the fiduciary property in such contracts of life insurance unless the fiduciary has express authority from the trustor to do so. [Amended by 1969 c.267 §1; formerly 128.020; 1979 c.382 §1]

128.060 [Amended by 1973 c.827 §19; repealed by 1977 c.614 §14]

128.065 Deviation from instrument as to fiduciary's duties and powers not authorized. Nothing contained in ORS 128.057 to 128.065 authorizes any departure from, or variation of, the express terms or limitations set forth in any will, agreement, court order or other instrument creating or defining the fiduciary's duties and powers, but the terms "legal investment" or "authorized investment" or words of similar import, as used in any such instrument, shall mean any investment which is permitted by the terms of ORS 128.057. [Formerly 128.030]

128.070 [Repealed by 1973 c.506 §46]

128.075 [1973 c.367 §16; renumbered 128.595]

128.080 [Amended by 1973 c.177 §2; repealed by 1973 c.506 §46]

128.085 Limitations on trustee's administration of "private foundation" trust. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the governing instrument or any law of this state, the trustee of a trust which is a "private foundation" as defined in section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (including nonexempt charitable trusts as defined in section 4947 (a) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) shall not engage in any act of self dealing as defined in section 4941 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; shall distribute its income and, when necessary, amounts from principal at such time and in such manner as not to subject the trust to the taxes on failure to distribute income imposed by section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject the trust to the taxes on investments which jeopardize charitable purpose imposed by section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; and shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. [1971 c.197 §1]

128.090 Limitations on trustee's administration of "split-interest" trust. (1) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the governing instrument or any law of this state, the trustee of a trust which is a "split-interest trust" as defined in section 4947 (a) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, shall not engage in any act of self dealing as defined in section 4941 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, unless the trust is one exempted from the requirements of section 4943 by section 4947 (b) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; shall not make any investment in such manner as to subject the trust to the taxes on investments which jeopardize charitable purpose imposed by section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, unless the trust is one exempted from the requirements of section 4944 by section 4947 (b) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; and shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(2) This section shall not apply with respect to:

(a) Any amounts payable under the terms of a trust to income beneficiaries, unless a deduction was allowed under section 170 (f) (2) (B), section 2055 (e) (2) (B), or section 2522 (c) (2) (B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(b) Any amounts in trust other than amounts for which a deduction was allowed under section 170, section 545 (b) (2), section 556 (b) (2), section 642 (c), section 2055, section 2106 (a) (2) or section 2522 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, if such other amounts are segregated from amounts for which no deduction was allowable; or

(c) Any amounts transferred in trust before May 27, 1969. [1971 c.197 §2]

128.095 Trustee may amend governing instrument of "private foundation" or "split-interest" trust with prior consent of Attorney General and benefited organizations. The trustee of a trust which is a private foundation to which ORS 128.085 applies or a split-interest trust to which ORS 128.090 applies may, with the prior consent of the Attorney General, amend the terms of the governing instrument to the extent necessary (1) to assure conformity of the governing instrument with the requirements for exemption from the taxes imposed by sections 4941 to 4945 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, including amendments which broaden, extend, reduce or limit the charitable purposes for which the trust is administered, or (2) to terminate the status of the trust as a private foundation in a manner described in section 507 (b) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. Prior to giving his consent, the Attorney General shall determine that the proposed amendments are necessary or appropriate to achieve the charitable purposes of the trust. If the trust is for the exclusive benefit of one or more charitable organizations, the trustee shall also obtain the prior consent of such organizations prior to amending the terms of the governing instrument in the manner set forth in this section. [1971 c.197 §3]

128.100 Authority of fiduciary to deposit securities in clearing corporation. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any fiduciary holding securities in his fiduciary capacity, any bank or trust company holding securities as a custodian or managing agent, and any bank or trust company holding securities as custodian for a fiduciary is authorized to deposit or arrange for the deposit of the securities in a clearing corporation as defined in subsection (4) of ORS 78.1020. When the securities are deposited, certificates representing securities of the same class of the same issuer may be merged and held in bulk in the name of the nominee of the clearing corporation with any other securities of the same class deposited in the clearing corporation by any person regardless of the ownership of the securities, and certificates of small denomination may be merged into one or more certificates of larger denomination. The records of the fiduciary and the records of the bank or trust company acting as custodian, as managing agent or as custodian for a fiduciary shall at all times show the name of the party for whose account the securities are deposited. Ownership of, and other interests in, the securities may be transferred by book-keeping entry on the books of the clearing corporation without physical delivery of certificates representing the securities. A bank or trust company depositing securities pursuant to this section shall be subject to the rules and regulations as, in the case of state-chartered institutions, the state Superintendent of Banks and, in the case of national banking associations, the comptroller of the currency may from time to time issue. A bank or a trust company acting as custodian for a fiduciary shall, on demand by the fiduciary, certify in writing to the fiduciary the securities deposited by the bank or trust company in the clearing corporation for the account of the fiduciary. A fiduciary shall, on demand by any party to a judicial proceeding for the settlement of the fiduciary's account or on demand by the attorney for the party, certify in writing to the party the securities deposited by the fiduciary in the clearing corporation for its account as the fiduciary.

(2) This section shall apply to any fiduciary holding securities in his fiduciary capacity, and to any bank or trust company holding securities as a custodian, managing agent or custodian for a fiduciary, acting on October 5, 1973, or who thereafter may act regardless of the date of the agreement, instrument or court order by which it is appointed and regardless of whether or not the fiduciary, custodian, managing agent or custodian for a fiduciary owns capital stock of the clearing corporation. [1973 c 365 §§1, 2]

SUITS TO AUTHORIZE DEALING WITH TRUST PROPERTY

128.110 Suit for decree authorizing dealing with trust property. When any trust in real or personal property, or both, has been or shall be created by will, deed or otherwise, and the trustee or trustees, or any person interested in the trust or any person interested in the property embraced in the trust upon the termination thereof, whether such latter interest is by way of a vested or contingent remainder, executory devise, conditional limitation, shifting use or of any other nature, deems it for the interest of all persons who are or may become interested in the property that the same or any part thereof should be sold, mortgaged, improved, exchanged, leased or otherwise dealt with in any other manner, such party or parties may commence a suit for the purpose of obtaining a decree for the sale, mortgaging, leasing, improving, exchanging of or otherwise dealing with the property, or any portion thereof. Any court with jurisdiction to grant equitable remedies in a county in which any of such trust property may be situated shall have jurisdiction to hear the cause of suit and enter the proper decree. [Amended by 1979 c.284 §108]

128.120 Parties. All persons who are living at the time of the commencement of the suit, and who are interested, whether as trustees or beneficiaries, in the property under the trust, or who have any vested, contingent, executory or reversionary interest therein at the termination of the trust, shall be made parties defendant, except those who are made parties plaintiff. In determining who are interested parties within the meaning of this section, all persons living at the commencement of the suit who at that time have any apparent interest in the property shall be included, but any person whose name, identity or existence is unknown to the person instituting the proceedings may be made a party and served as provided in ORS 128.140. The provisions of this section shall apply to all subsequent proceedings in the same suit to obtain subsequent decrees therein.

128.130 Summons; form. The summons in the suit shall be in the usual form, and in addition it shall contain the following notice as and for the statement required by ORCP 7 D.(6)(b): "The object of this suit is to obtain a decree authorizing the trustees of the trust set forth in the complaint herein to sell, mortgage, lease, exchange, improve or otherwise deal with the property embraced in the trust, in accordance with the prayer of the complaint." [Amended by 1979 c. 284 §109]

128.140 Publication against unknown heirs or parties; conclusiveness of judgment. (1) Any person who may be a necessary or proper party to the suit within the meaning of ORS 128.110 to 128.270, whose name, identity or existence is unknown to the party or parties instituting proceedings thereunder, may be made a party and served by publication as provided in this section. Any such parties shall be designated in the title of the suit as "other unknown parties who have or claim some title, estate, lien or interest in the property described in the complaint herein." If such unknown parties are the heirs of any deceased person, they may be proceeded against under the name and title of "the unknown heirs of (naming the deceased)."

(2) Upon presenting an affidavit to the court or judge, showing to his satisfaction that the heirs of such deceased person or such unknown persons may be proper parties to the suit or action, and that their names, identity or existence cannot with the use of reasonable diligence be ascertained, the court or judge may grant an order that service of the summons be made on the unknown heirs or unknown persons by publication thereof in the same manner as in suits against nonresident defendants.

(3) All unknown heirs of deceased persons and all unknown persons or parties so served by publication shall have the same rights as are provided by law in case of all other defendants upon whom service is made by publication, and the suit shall proceed against such unknown heirs or unknown person or parties in the same manner and with like effect as against defendants who are named, upon whom service is made by publication, and any such unknown heirs or unknown person or parties who have or claim any right, estate, lien or interest in the property in controversy shall be bound and concluded by the judgment or decree in the suit as effectually as if the suit were brought against the defendant by his or her name and constructive service of summons obtained.

128.150 Decree binding on persons born during suit. All interested persons who are born subsequent to the commencement of the suit shall be deemed parties to the suit by being represented therein by the defendants served, and shall be bound by any decree or decrees therein as fully as if made parties and duly served with process therein.

128.160 Authority conferrable on trustee; continuing jurisdiction of court. The court in the suit has jurisdiction to authorize the trustee to sell, mortgage, lease, improve, exchange or otherwise deal with the property, or any part thereof, whether such power is or is not given to the trustee in the instrument creating the trust, and the court may authorize the trustee to use the proceeds of any sale, mortgage or lease, or other trust funds or property, for the purpose of improving property belonging to the trust estate, or for paying liens upon any part of the trust estate, or for the purpose of reinvesting the proceeds or funds in other property, or for other purposes which may appear beneficial to all concerned. Any additional property so acquired shall be held under the trust and the instrument creating the same for the benefit of all persons interested. All the proceeds or property shall continue to be under the supervision of the court, which may from time to time make such orders and decrees in the suit as may be needed to enable the trustees to deal with the trust property or funds with all the powers of owners, keeping in view the full protection of the interests of all persons, living or unborn, in the property embraced in the trust.

128.170 When relief to be granted.

The court shall grant the relief prayed for in the complaint whenever it appears that it is for the best interests of the trust estate, and all persons in any manner interested therein, to grant such relief.

128.180 Contents of decree; security by trustee. The court may in its decree embody such directions relating to the use or investment of the proceeds of the sale or mortgage and such provisions relating to the improvement of any of the trust property as shall seem to it to be most beneficial to all persons interested in the property. It may also require the trustee to give security in case it deems such security necessary for the protection of those interested in the property. When security is so required, it shall be only in such amount as may seem necessary.

128.190 Provision for retaining jurisdiction. The court may by a provision inserted in the decree retain jurisdiction over all the parties and over all the trust property, and may from time to time, upon application made as provided in ORS 128.200 make such further decrees in the suit touching the selling, mortgaging, exchanging, improving, leasing or other dealing with the property belonging to the estate as shall seem to be for the best interest of all persons interested in the property.

128.200 Application for supplemental decree. Any person who is a party to the suit may from time to time apply to the court for an additional decree therein to authorize the further selling, mortgaging, improving, exchanging, leasing or other dealing with the trust property. For this purpose he shall file a complaint in the suit, setting forth the facts showing the need or desirability of the additional selling, mortgaging, improving, exchanging, leasing or other dealing with the property. All the allegations of the original and subsequent complaints and all other proceedings in the suit, including the previous decree or decrees down to the time of filing the new complaint, shall constitute a part of the subsequent complaint without being realleged therein, it being sufficient to set forth therein by reference the filing of such complaint or complaints and the rendering of such former decree or decrees. Jurisdiction over all the other parties to the suit to render such additional decree shall be obtained in the same manner provided for securing jurisdiction originally in the suit.

128.210 Proceedings. After the service of the summons to obtain a supplemental decree, the proceedings shall continue in all respects the same as the proceedings to obtain the original decree in the suit.

128.220 Additional parties. Any person who is born, or whose interest has become apparent since the original commencement of the suit, and who would have been a necessary party if then living, or if his interest had then been apparent, shall, if living at the time of the subsequent application for power to sell, mortgage, exchange, improve, lease or otherwise deal with additional property, upon his own application or upon the application of any party to the suit, be made a party to the suit by order of court, and shall thereafter be entitled to all the rights of the other parties to the suit, including the service of a summons upon him in case he is not made a party upon his own application.

128.230 Protection of persons under instrument executed pursuant to decree. The grantee, mortgagee, lessee or other party whose instrument is executed under the authority of the decree in a suit pursuant to ORS 128.110 to 128.270 shall be fully protected thereunder without reference to the proper application of any of the moneys or other consideration paid by him under such instrument, and such instrument shall be as effective as if executed by the creator of the trust, and by all the parties to the suit, including unknown parties served as provided in ORS

128.140, and by all persons represented by any such parties.

128.240 Report and confirmation of dealings with trust property. The court shall by order make such provisions for the reporting to the court of the terms of any proposed sale, mortgage, exchange, lease or improvement of or other dealing with the property and for the confirmation thereof as may be necessary for the protection of all interests in the property, and no such proposed sale, mortgage, lease, exchange, improvement or other dealing with the property shall be executed or concluded until the confirmation thereof by the court.

128.250 Substance and procedure for suits regarding dealings with trust property. All provisions of law relating to the commencement of and procedure in an action not triable by right to a jury, including the procedure to obtain jurisdiction of the parties, shall apply to the suits authorized by ORS 128.110 to 128.270, except as otherwise provided in ORS 128.110 to 128.270. [Amended by 1979 c 284 §110]

128.260 Remedy as cumulative. The remedy provided by ORS 128.110 to 128.270 is cumulative and does not limit or abrogate any inherent power of a court with jurisdiction to grant equitable remedies, including the inherent power to authorize the sale, mortgage, exchange, improvement or lease of or otherwise dealing with trust property, or in any manner limit any lawful power, express or implied, conferred upon the trustee by the will, deed or other instrument creating such trust, to sell, mortgage, exchange, improve, lease or otherwise deal with the trust property, or any part thereof. [Amended by 1979 c 284 §111]

128.270 Undertaking when suit instituted by party other than trustee; costs and disbursements. Any person, firm or corporation, other than the trustee, instituting proceedings under any of the provisions of ORS 128.110 to 128.270, shall contemporaneously with the filing of the proceedings, file an undertaking with one or more sureties to the effect that he will, if unsuccessful, pay all costs or disbursements that may be decreed against him therein; and if such person, firm or corporation is unsuccessful in the proceedings, the court shall tax the costs and disbursements of the proceedings, together with reasonable attorney's fees, against the unsuccessful party or parties and the surety or sureties on such undertaking.

UNIFORM MANAGEMENT OF INSTITUTIONAL FUNDS ACT

128.310 Short title. ORS 128.310 to 128.355 may be cited as the "Uniform Management of Institutional Funds Act." [1975 c.707 §11]

128.315 Definitions for ORS 128.310 to 128.355. As used in ORS 128.310 to 128.355:

(1) "Institution" means an incorporated or unincorporated nonpublic organization organized and operated exclusively for educational, religious, charitable, or other eleemosynary purposes.

(2) "Institutional fund" means a fund held by an institution for its exclusive use, benefit or purposes, but does not include (a) a fund held for an institution by a trustee that is not an institution or (b) a fund in which a beneficiary that is not an institution has an interest, other than possible rights that could arise upon violation or failure of the purposes of the fund.

(3) "Endowment fund" means an institutional fund, or any part thereof, not wholly expendable by the institution on a current basis under the terms of the applicable gift instrument.

(4) "Governing board" means the body responsible for the management of an institution or of an institutional fund.

(5) "Historic dollar value" means the aggregate fair value in dollars of (a) an endowment fund at the time it became an endowment fund, (b) each subsequent donation to the fund at the time it is made and (c) each accumulation made pursuant to a direction in the applicable gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The determination of historic dollar value made in good faith by the institution is conclusive.

(6) "Gift instrument" means a will, deed, grant, conveyance, agreement, memorandum, writing or other governing document (including the terms of any institutional solicitations from which an institutional fund resulted) under which property is transferred to or held by an institution as an institutional fund. [1975 c.707 §2]

128.320 Amount of expenditure for uses and purposes of fund. The governing board may appropriate for expenditure for the uses and purposes for which an endowment fund is established so much of the net appreciation, realized and unrealized, in the fair value of the assets of an endowment fund over the historic dollar value of the fund as is prudent under the standard established by ORS 128.340. This section does not limit the authority of the governing board to expend funds as permitted under other law, the terms of the applicable gift instrument, or the charger of the institution. [1975 c.707 §3]

128.325 When ORS 128.320 not applicable; limit on implying net appreciation restriction. ORS 128.320 does not apply if the applicable gift instrument indicates the donor's intention that net appreciation shall not be expended. A restriction upon the expenditure of net appreciation may not be implied from a designation of a gift as an endowment, or from a direction or authorization in the applicable gift instrument to use only "income," "interest," "dividends," or "rents, issues or profits," or "to preserve the principal intact," or a direction which contains other words of similar import. This rule of construction applies to gift instruments executed or in effect before or after September 13, 1975. [1975 c.707 §4]

128.330 Power of governing board to invest and retain property of fund. In addition to an investment otherwise authorized by law or by the applicable gift instrument, and without restriction to investments a fiduciary may make, the governing board, subject to any specific limitations set forth in the applicable gift instrument or in the applicable law other than law relating to investments by a fiduciary, may:

(1) Invest and reinvest an institutional fund in any real or personal property deemed advisable by the governing board, whether or not it produces a current return, including mortgages, stocks, bonds, debentures and other securities of profit or nonprofit corporations, shares in or obligations of associations, partnerships or individuals and obligations of any government or subdivision or instrumentality thereof;

(2) Retain property contributed by a donor to an institutional fund for as long as the governing board deems advisable;

(3) Include all or any part of an institutional fund in any pooled or common fund maintained by the institution; and

(4) Invest all or any part of an institutional fund in any other pooled or common fund available for investment, including shares or interests in regulated investment companies, mutual funds, common trust funds, investment partnerships, real estate investment trusts or similar organizations in which funds are commingled and investment determinations are made by persons other than the governing board. [1975 c.707 §5]

128.335 Authority of governing board to delegate power. The governing board may:

(1) Delegate to its committees, officers or employes of the institution or the fund or agents, including investment counsel, the authority to act in place of the board in investment and reinvestment of institutional funds;

(2) Contract with independent investment advisors, investment counsel or managers, banks or trust companies, so to act; and

(3) Authorize the payment of compensation for investment advisory or management services. [1975 c.707 §6]

128.340 Standard of care for investment and delegation of duties. In the administration of the powers to appropriate appreciation, to make and retain investments and to delegate investment management of institutional funds, members of a governing board shall exercise ordinary business care and prudence under the facts and circumstances prevailing at the time of the action or decision. In so doing they shall consider long and short term needs of the institution in carrying out its education, religious, charitable or other eleemosynary purposes, its present and anticipated financial requirements, expected total return on its investments, price level trends and general economic conditions. [1975 c.707 §7]

128.345 Release of restriction on fund with consent of donor by application to court; notice to Attorney General; limit on extent of release. (1) With the written consent of the donor, the governing board may release, in whole or in part, a restriction imposed by the applicable gift instrument on the use or investment of an institutional fund.

(2) If written consent of the donor cannot be obtained by reason of his death, disability, unavailability or impossibility of identification, the governing board may apply in the name of the institution to the appropriate circuit court for release of a restriction imposed by the applicable gift instrument on the use or investment of an institutional fund. The Attorney General shall be notified of the application and shall be given an opportunity to be heard. If the court finds that the restriction is obsolete, inappropriate or impracticable, it may by order release the restriction in whole or in part. A release under this subsection may not change an endowment fund to a fund that is not an endowment fund.

(3) A release under this section may not allow a fund to be used for purposes other than educational, religious, charitable or other eleemosynary purposes of the institution affected.

(4) This section does not limit the application of the doctrine of cy pres. [1975 c.707 §8]

128.350 Uniformity of interpretation. ORS 128.310 to 128.355 shall be so applied and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law with respect to the subject of ORS 128.310 to 128.355 among those states which enact it. [1975 c.707 §10]

128.355 Severability. If any provision of ORS 128.310 to 128.355 or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of ORS 128.310 to 128.355 which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of ORS 128.310 to 128.355 are declared severable. [1975 c 707 §9]

PREARRANGED FUNERAL PLANS AS TRUSTS

128.410 Payments made under prearranged funeral plans as trust funds. Whenever an agreement not governed by the provisions of ORS 750.005 to 750.065 is made with any person for the final disposition of a dead human body, wherein the delivery of personal property to be used under a prearranged funeral plan, or the furnishing of any personal property including burial vaults or professional services of a person, firm or corporation in connection therewith, is not immediately required, all payments and proceeds made by any person, referred to in this section as the trustor, under the agreement, including interest thereon, shall be and remain trust funds in the name of the person, firm or corporation, herein named trustee, upon a trust for the benefit of the estate of the person for whom such prearranged funeral plan is made, revocable or irrevocable at the option of the trustor, until the death of the person for the benefit of whose estate the funds were paid.

[1953 c.639 §1; 1955 c.524 §1; 1959 c.691 §1; 1965 c.611 §14; 1967 c.359 §681; 1979 c.661 §1]

(c) Such endowment care cemetery deposits a bond with the State Treasurer in the amount of $10,000 with a corporate or personal surety. Such personal surety shall submit a sworn financial statement as of the date of the bond and annually thereafter as long as the bond is in effect to insure the availability of the total amount of the sale price when required. [1959 c 691 §2; 1967 c 359 §682]

128.415 Deposit of trust funds. (1) All such trust funds shall be deposited by the person, firm or corporation with a financial institution in the State of Oregon carrying deposit insurance, within 30 days after receipt thereof, and shall be held in a separate account in the name of the depositor followed by the words "trustee of funeral plan trust," in trust for the person for whom such prearranged funeral plan is made until said trust fund is released under any of the following conditions:

benefits and such death benefits shall be paid to such trustee and be held and disposed of by him as provided in a trust agreement made by the designator during his lifetime. It shall not be necessary to the validity of any such trust agreement or declaration of trust that it have a trust corpus other than the right of the trustee to receive such death benefits as beneficiary. [1971 c.182 §2]

128.480 Creation of death benefits trust by will; disposition of death benefits upon probate of will. A trustee named by will may be designated as beneficiary of death benefits, if the designation is made in accordance with the provisions of the policy, contract, plan, trust or other governing instrument. Upon probate of the will, the death benefits shall be payable to the trustee to be held and disposed of under the term of the designator's last will in the same manner as other testamentary trusts are administered; but if no qualified trustee claims the death benefits within one year after the death of the designator or if satisfactory evidence is furnished within such one-year period showing that no trustee can qualify to receive such death benefits, payment thereof may be made, unless the designator has otherwise provided, by the obligor to the personal representative of the designator or to those thereafter entitled, and the obligor shall be discharged from liability. [1971 c.182 §4]

128.500 Commingling with other trust assets. Death benefits so held in trust may be commingled with any other assets which may properly become a part of such trust. [1971 c.182 §5]

(4) After the reporting date, if no report has been filed, the commissioner shall send to the business trust a final notice advising that no report has been filed and it is, therefore, assumed that the business trust is no longer active and that the name thereof shall become available, unless a report is filed within 30 days after the mailing of such final notice. The commissioner does not need to send the final notice to any business trust which has previously notified him that it does not intend to file the report. The final notice shall be sent by certified mail with return receipt requested.

(5) Not less than 30 days after the date of mailing of the final notice provided for by subsection (4) of this section, the commissioner may assume and note on his records that the business trust is inactive. [1963 c.583 §7; 1971 c.589 §6]

128.670 Filing of reports; fees; authority of Attorney General relating to reports.

(1) Except as otherwise provided, every charitable corporation and trustee subject to ORS 128.610 to 128.750 shall, in addition to filing copies of the instruments previously required, file with the Attorney General periodic written reports, under oath, setting forth information as to the nature of the assets held for charitable purposes and the administration thereof by the corporation or trustee.

(2) The Attorney General may classify trusts and other relationships concerning property held for a charitable purpose as to purpose, nature of assets, duration of the trust or other relationship, amount of assets, amounts to be devoted to charitable purposes, nature of trustee, or otherwise, and may establish different rules for the different classes as to time and nature of the reports required to the ends that:

(a) He shall receive reasonably current, periodic reports as to all charitable trusts or other relationships of a similar nature, which will enable him to ascertain whether they are being properly administered; and

(b) Periodic reports shall not unreasonably add to the expense of the administration of charitable trusts and similar relationships.

(3) The Attorney General may suspend the filing of reports as to a particular charitable trust or relationship for a reasonable, specifically designated time upon written application of the trustee filed with the Attorney General and after the Attorney General has filed in the register of charitable trusts a written statement that the interests of the beneficiaries will not be prejudiced thereby and that periodic reports are not required for proper supervision by his office.

(4) A copy of an account filed by the trustee in any court having jurisdiction of the trust or other relationship, if the account substantially complies with the rules and regulations of the Attorney General, may be filed as a report required by this section.

(5) The first report for a trust or similar relationship hereafter established, unless the filing thereof is suspended as provided in subsection (3) of this section, shall be filed not later than four months and 15 days following the close of the first calendar or fiscal year in which any part of the income or principal is authorized or required to be applied to a charitable purpose. Subsequent annual reports shall be submitted not later than four months and 15 days following the close of each calendar or fiscal year adopted by the charitable corporation or trustee.

(6) The Attorney General shall make rules and regulations as to the time for filing reports, the contents thereof, and the manner of executing and filing them. He may make additional rules and amend existing regulations as necessary for the proper administration of this section.

(7) Each charitable corporation, trustee, or other charitable organization filing a report required by this section shall pay to the Department of Justice, with such report, a fee based on the total amount of its income and receipts during the time covered by the report, as follows:

(a) $5, if less than $10,000, or if it received no income and receipts during the time covered by the report;

(b) $10, if $10,000 or more but less than $50,000;

(c) $20, if $50,000 or more but less than $100,000;

(e) $200, if $500,000 or more but less than $1,000,000;

(f) $250, if $1,000,000 or more.

(8) (a) If the fee prescribed by subsection (7) of this section is not paid when due or if the charitable corporation or trustee fails to file a report by the date due, a penalty charge of an additional $5 shall be paid to the Department of Justice.

(b) The Attorney General may at any time after a fee or report is delinquent give written notice by certified mail to the charitable corporation, trustee or other charitable organization of the delinquency, requiring it to correct the delinquency and informing it of his authority to impose an additional penalty if it fails to do so within a specified number of days thereafter, but not less than 10. Thereafter, unless the fee, including the penalty charge prescribed by paragraph (a) of this subsection, or the report, or both, are filed within the specified number of days, the Attorney General may impose an additional penalty, not exceeding $100, if the total income and receipts of the charitable corporation, trustee or other charitable organization during the time for which the report or fee is required was less than $100,000, and not exceeding twice the amount of the fee prescribed by subsection (7) of this section in all other cases, giving notice by certified mail. The notice of imposition of penalty shall state that the charitable corporation, trustee or other charitable organization shall, upon its written request received within 10 days, be entitled to a contested case hearing before the Attorney General or his designee to dispute the imposition of the penalty or to submit evidence in mitigation. The hearing shall be held and the Attorney General's order may be appealed in accordance with the procedure for contested cases provided in ORS 183.310 to 183.500, but the order shall be reversed or modified only if the court finds that the Attorney General lacked authority to impose the penalty or the amount of the penalty imposed was unconscionable in the circumstances.

(c) The Attorney General may file a certified copy of his original notice assessing an additional penalty, or of his order entered after hearing, with the clerk of any circuit court in the state, after expiration of the time to request a hearing, or expiration of the time in which to appeal, or after final determination of the matter on appeal, whichever is appropriate, and such notice or order shall be docketed in the judgment docket and may be enforced in the same manner as a judgment.

(9) All fees and penalties received by the Department of Justice under subsections (7) and (8) of this section shall be paid over to the State Treasurer monthly for deposit in the General Fund in the Department of Justice Operating Account created under the provisions of ORS 180.180. Amounts deposited in the General Fund pursuant to this subsection are continuously appropriated to the Attorney General to pay the expenses of his office in administering the Uniform Supervision of Trustees for Charitable Purposes Act. [1963 c.583 §8; 1971 c.589 §7; 1973 c.506 §40; 1973 c.775 §4; 1975 c.388 §5]

He may require any agent, trustee, fiduciary, beneficiary, institution, association or corporation, or other person to appear, at a named time and place, in the county designated by the Attorney General, where the person resides or is found, to give information under oath and to produce books, memoranda, papers, documents of title, and evidence of assets, liabilities, receipts or disbursements in the possession or control of the person ordered to appear. [1963 c.583 §10; 1971 c.589 §8]

128.690 Order for attendance by Attorney General; effect. When the Attorney General requires the attendance of any person, as provided in ORS 128.680, he shall issue an order setting forth the time when and the place where attendance is required and shall cause the same to be delivered to or sent by registered or certified mail to the person at least 14 days before the date fixed for attendance. Such order shall have the same force and effect as a subpoena and, upon application of the Attorney General, obedience to the order may be enforced by any court having jurisdiction of charitable trusts in the county where the trust may be in existence or administered or the person receiving it resides or is found, in the same manner as though the notice were a subpoena. The court, after hearing, for cause, and upon application of any person aggrieved by the order, shall have the right to alter, amend, revise, suspend or postpone all or any part of its provisions. [1963 c.583 §11]

Wilful failure to comply with an order of any court having jurisdiction of charitable trusts requiring an accounting by a charitable corporation or trustee shall constitute grounds for removal of the officers of such charitable corporation or of such trustee and the appointment by the court of successor officers or trustee. The powers and duties of the Attorney General provided in ORS 128.610 to 128.750, 128.805 to 128.845 and subsections (2), (3) and (4) of 128.990 are in addition to his existing powers and duties.

(4) of 128.990 shall impair or restrict the jurisdiction of any court with respect to any of the matters covered by it, except that no court shall have jurisdiction to modify or terminate any trust of property for charitable purposes unless the Attorney General is a party to the proceedings. [1963 c.583 §13; 1971 c.589 §9]

128.720 Copies of certain documents and notice to be provided Attorney General. Every person who offers for probate any instrument which establishes a testamentary trust of property for charitable purposes or who records in any county any inter vivos transfer of property for charitable purposes shall furnish a copy of such document to the Attorney General. Upon filing the final account and petition for decree of distribution of any estate through which a residuary testamentary trust for charitable purposes is established, the personal representative shall mail a copy thereof, and a copy of the notice fixing the time for filing objections thereto, to the Attorney General not less than 20 days before the time fixed in the notice. The custodian of the records of a court having jurisdiction of probate matters or of charitable trusts shall furnish such copies of papers, records and files of his office relating to the subject of ORS 128.610 to 128.750 as the Attorney General requires. [1963 c.583 §16; 1971 c.589 §11]

ney General or any other governmental agency or office.

(2) Any written or oral statement made in connection with a solicitation subject to ORS 128.805, that the person or organization conducting the solicitation is registered or has filed, will file or is required to file any report with the Attorney General, or any statement of similar import, shall be immediately followed by a statement of equal prominence that such registration or report in no way constitutes or implies any indorsement, sanction or approval of the solicitation, its purposes, the manner in which it is conducted or the person or organization conducting it, by the Attorney General or any other governmental agency or officer.
