345.100 Bonds. (1) No vocational school shall be issued a license or have its license renewed until the applicant:

(b) Files with the office of the superintendent a bond in the penal sum of $2,500 and running to the State of Oregon. The bond shall be executed by two good and sufficient personal sureties to be approved by the superintendent, or by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state, approved as to form and substance by the superintendent, and conditioned that the applicant shall fulfill and perform all its contracts with its students, enrollees or subscribers and conduct its business in accordance with the requirements of ORS 345.010 to 345.450, subsection (1) of 345.990 and ORS 345.992 to 345.997 and all rules promulgated thereunder.

(2) Every application for an agent's license shall be accompanied by a bond running to the State of Oregon. It shall be executed by two good and sufficient personal sureties to be approved by the superintendent, or by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state, approved as to form and substance by the superintendent, and conditioned that the applicant shall perform his duties and conduct his business in accordance with the requirements of ORS 345.010 to 345.450, subsection (1) of 345.990 and ORS 345.992 to 345.997 and all rules promulgated thereunder, and further, that any person, including his employer, may sue and recover on such bond of such agent for any loss or damage sustained, resulting from any defalcation or fraud of such agent.

(a) For an agent representing a vocational school domiciled in Oregon, the bond shall be in the amount of $1,000.

(b) For an agent representing a vocational school domiciled outside the State of Oregon, the bond shall be in the amount of $2,500.

[Amended by 1961 c.268 §11; 1975 c.478 §10]

345.110 Filing bond; suing on bond; attorney fee. Every bond given under ORS 345.100, after approval thereof, shall be filed and held in the office of the superintendent. Any person injured in or by any of the manners, means or respects referred to in ORS 345.100, by any vocational school or agent thereof, shall have the right in his own name to commence action against the vocational school or agent, or both, and such sureties, for the recovery of any damages sustained by him by reason of any such injury. In any such action, the court shall, upon entering judgment for the plaintiff, allow such additional sum as it may adjudge reasonable as attorney fees therein. [Amended by 1975 c.478 §11]

345.113 Contract for student loan generally not negotiable. (1) In any contract for the provision of instruction or training or other services by a vocational school on credit entered into between a vocational school and a student, or between a lending institution which regularly loans money to students of a particular vocational school and a prospective student of that vocational school, such contract, note or any instrument or evidence of indebtedness of the student shall have printed on the face thereof the words "Student Loan." Such contract, note, instrument or evidence of indebtedness with the words "Student Loan" printed thereon shall not be a negotiable instrument within the meaning of ORS chapter 73. However, this section shall have no force or effect on the negotiability of any contract, promissory note, instrument or other evidence of indebtedness owned or guaranteed or insured by any state or federal government-tal agency even though the contract, note, instrument or other evidence of indebtedness contains the wording required by this subsection.

(2) Notwithstanding the absence of such notice on a contract, note, instrument or evidence of indebtedness arising out of a contract for the provision of training or instruction or other services by a vocational school, an assignee of the rights of the vocational school or lending institution as described in subsection (1) of this section is subject to all claims and defenses of the student against the vocational school or lending institution arising out of the contract for provision of vocational instruction or training or other services. Any agreement to the contrary shall be of no force or effect in limiting the rights of a student under this section. The assignee's liability under this section shall not exceed the amount owing to the assignee at the time the claim or defense is asserted against the assignee. The restrictions imposed by this subsection shall not apply with respect to any promissory note, contract, instrument or other evidence of indebtedness owned or guaranteed or insured by any state or federal governmental agency even though said note, contract, instrument or other evidence of indebtedness shall contain the words required by subsection (1) of this section.

(3) An assignee of a student loan who in good faith enforces a security interest in property held by the student shall not be liable to such student for punitive damages in an action for wrongful repossession. The fact that a vocational school misrepresented the nature of the training or instruction or other services shall not, of itself, make an assignee's repossession wrongful. [1975 c.478 §28]

345.115 Refund schedule as part of tuition contract; effect of failure to comply. (1) The tuition contract entered into between a person and a vocational school for the purpose of obtaining instruction or training shall contain a schedule for the refund of tuition, deposits and fees when the person does not complete the course or program of instruction or training which was the subject of the contract. No action or suit may be brought by a vocational school or its assigns on a contract that does not contain this refund schedule, but this provision shall not limit the vocational school's right to defend any action or suit brought by any person on a contract which does not contain such a schedule.

(2) The refund schedule required by subsection (1) of this section shall be established by the superintendent in consultation with the advisory committee appointed under ORS 345.330. In establishing the refund schedule, the superintendent shall consider:

(a) The reasonable, obligated and fixed costs of the vocational school, including but not limited to rent, personnel and nonreturnable supplies.

(b) The method of instruction.

(c) The reasonable value of services performed prior to cancellation of the course or program.

(3) The superintendent may establish refund schedules for vocational school courses or programs requiring attendance of students, enrollees or subscribers which are different from those established for vocational school courses or programs in which instruction is offered by correspondence, when the difference in services performed necessitates separate schedules.

(4) Nothing in this section is intended to prevent a vocational school from requiring an advance deposit of tuition on behalf of the person intending to enroll in a course or program offered by or through the vocational school. [1965 c.409 §2; 1967 c.67 §16; 1975 c.478 §12]

345.117 Address of state department as part of contract. A contract entered into between a vocational school domiciled in this state and a resident of this state shall have printed or stamped upon it: "Any inquiry a student may have regarding this contract may be made in writing to the school (name and address), or to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Department of Education, 942 Lancaster Drive N. E., Salem, Oregon 97310, (or its subsequent address)." [1975 c.478 §22]

345.120 Investigations; suspension or revocation of licenses. (1) The superintendent may, on his own motion, for cause, and shall, on the verified complaint in writing of any person, which alone, or together with evidence presented in connection therewith, in his judgment makes out a prima facie case, investigate the actions of any vocational school or agent, or any person who assumes to act in either such capacity within this state.

(2) The superintendent may suspend or revoke any license issued under ORS 345.010 to 345.450, subsection (1) of 345.990 and ORS 345.992 to 345.997 when the licensee has obtained a license by misrepresentation, or when the licensee, in having done, or having attempted or purported to have done, any of the business licensed, was found after a contested case hearing under ORS 183.310 to 183.500 to have:

(a) Violated ORS 345.010 to 345.450, subsection (1) of 345.990 and ORS 345.992 to 345.997 or any rule adopted pursuant thereto.

(b) Entered into a contract which violates ORS 345.115.

(c) Ceased to engage in the business authorized by the license.

(d) Wilfully used or employed any method, act or practice declared unlawful by ORS 646.608. [Amended by 1965 c 409 §3; 1975 c.478 §13]

345.160 [Repealed by 1975 c 478 §29]

345.170 [Repealed by 1975 c.478 §29]

345.180 [Repealed by 1975 c 478 §29]

345.190 [Repealed by 1975 c.478 §29 and by 1975 c.759 §17]

345.200 [Repealed by 1975 c.478 §29 and by 1975 c.759 §17]

345.210 Suit by vocational school; allegation and proof of license. (1) No vocational school shall bring or maintain any suit or action in any court in or of this state for a cause of suit or action arising out of the doing of business by it as such in this state, without alleging and proving that it had complied with the applicable licensing provisions of ORS 345.010 to 345.450, subsection (1) of 345.990 and ORS 345.992 to 345.997 at the time such cause of suit or action arose.

(2) A vocational school bringing or maintaining suit or action under subsection (1) of this section must allege and prove that the business out of which the cause of suit or action arises was done through a licensed agent if the school's agents are required to be licensed under ORS 345.010 to 345.450, subsection (1) of 345.990 and ORS 345.992 to 345.997. [Amended by 1975 c.478 §14]

345.220 [Amended by 1961 c.268 §12, 1965 c.529 §14, repealed by 1975 c.478 §29]

345.230 Jurisdiction of courts; remedies are additional. The remedies provided in ORS 345.010 to 345.450, subsection (1) of 345.990 and ORS 345.992 to 345.997 are in addition to, and not exclusive of, any other remedies provided by law. [Amended by 1975 c.478 §15; 1975 c.759 §17a]

345.240 Discrimination prohibited. (1) No vocational, professional or trade school licensed under the provisions of any law of the State of Oregon shall refuse admission to or discriminate in admission against or discriminate in giving instruction to any person otherwise qualified, on the ground of such person's race, color, sex, marital status, religion or national origin.

(2) As used in this section and ORS 345.250, "license" includes a permit, certification of registration or any other form of approval required in order for a vocational, professional or trade school to operate.

[Amended by 1957 c 724 §11; 1973 c.714 §4]

345.250 Action upon violation of ORS 345.240. The appropriate state agency charged with the licensing of any vocational, professional or trade school may suspend or revoke the license of the school upon submission to it of proof that the school has violated ORS 345.240. A certified copy of a finding by the Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries under ORS 659.060 that the school has violated ORS 345.240 may be deemed adequate proof of a violation of ORS 345.240. Before an order of suspension or revocation is made, notice of complaint shall be given and a hearing held in substantially the same manner as the manner of suspension or revocation of the license for any other reason. An appeal may be taken from the order of suspension or revocation in substantially the same manner as an appeal from any other order of suspension or revocation of the license by the agency. [Amended by 1957 c.724 §12]

(Standards)

345.310 [1965 c.529 §2; repealed by 1975 c.478 §29]

345.320 Purpose. (1) The Legislative Assembly finds that vocational schools are capable of increasing the educational opportunities available in this state or to residents of this state and of making a contribution to the social and economic progress of the people of this state. Vocational schools offer different approaches to education than do public schools and are often able to provide vocational and placement assistance not otherwise available.

(2) It is the purpose of ORS 341.455, 345.010 to 345.230, 345.320 to 345.370 and

345.990 to 345.997 to provide for the protection, education and welfare of the citizens of this state, its vocational schools and its students, by establishing minimum standards concerning quality of education, ethical and business practices, health and safety and fiscal responsibility, and protecting against substandard, transient, unethical, deceptive or fraudulent practices. [1965 c.529 §3; 1975 c.478 §2]

345.325 Minimum standards required; content. (1) The board shall adopt by rule minimum standards for the licensing of vocational schools under ORS 345.010 to 345.450, subsection (1) of 345.990 and ORS 345.992 to 345.997.

(2) In establishing the standards required by subsection (1) of this section, the board shall adopt rules reasonably calculated to assure:

(a) That the quality and content of each course or program of instruction, training or study are such as may reasonably and adequately achieve the stated objective for which the course or program is offered.

(b) That the vocational school has adequate space, equipment, instructional materials and personnel to provide instruction and training of good quality.

(c) That the education and experience of directors, administrators, supervisors and instructors are such as may reasonably insure that the students will receive instruction and training consistent with the objectives of the course or program of study.

(d) That the vocational school provides students and other interested persons with a catalog or brochure containing information describing the courses and programs offered, course and program objectives, length of courses and programs, schedule of tuition, fees and all other charges and expenses necessary for completion of the course or program, cancellation and refund policies, and such other material facts concerning the vocational school and the course or program of instruction and training as are reasonably likely to affect the decision of the student to enroll therein, together with any other disclosures specified by the superintendent or defined in the rules; and that such information is provided to prospective students prior to enrollment.

(e) That upon satisfactory completion of instruction and training, the student is given appropriate educational credentials by the vocational school, indicating that the course or program or courses or programs of instruction and training have been satisfactorily completed by the student.

(f) That adequate records are maintained by the vocational school to show attendance, progress or grades; that copies of these records are available to the student upon the request of the student; that satisfactory standards are enforced relating to attendance, progress and performance and that adequate provision is made for the continuing maintenance of records if the school were to cease operation.

(g) That the vocational school is maintained and operated in compliance with all pertinent ordinances and laws, including rules adopted pursuant thereto, relative to the safety and health of all persons upon the premises.
