9.025 Board of governors; number; eligibility; term; effect of membership. (1) The Oregon State Bar shall be governed by a board of governors consisting of 15 members. Twelve of the members shall be active members of the Oregon State Bar, who on appointment, on nomination, on election and during the full term for which the member was appointed or elected, maintain the principal office of law practice in the region of this state in which the active members of the Oregon State Bar eligible to vote in the election at which the member was elected maintain their principal offices. Three of the members shall be appointed by the board of governors from among the public. They shall be residents of this state and shall not be active or inactive members of the Oregon State Bar.

(2) For the purpose of eligibility for nomination and to vote in the election of a member of the board of governors who is an elective member, and for appointment to the board of governors, the State of Oregon is divided into six regions, constituted as follows:

(a) Of the termination of active membership in the Oregon State Bar by the member for any reason;

(b) When the member discontinues to maintain the principal office of practice in the region in which it was maintained at the time of the appointment or election of the member; or

(c) When the member assumes office as a judge of a municipal, state or federal court, or fills a full-time judicial office.

(6) No member of the board of governors shall be eligible, during the term of office, for service pro tempore as a judge of any municipal, state or federal court. [1973 c 114 §1, 1981 c 193 §3]

Nominating petitions shall be filed with the executive director of the bar at least 30 days before the election. The executive director shall mail ballots, containing the nominations for the office of governor in each region, to every eligible active member in such region, on or before the first day of August preceding such election. Ballots shall be deposited in person or by mail with the executive director on or before the day of the election. The executive director, with two assistants to be selected by the executive director, shall canvass the votes and record the result thereof. The candidate in each region receiving the highest vote shall be declared elected, except that, in region five, the candidate receiving the highest vote and the candidate receiving the next highest vote shall be declared elected. The balloting shall be so conducted that only eligible active members can vote, and the secrecy of the ballot shall be preserved. [Amended by 1973 c 114 §3, 1979 c 252 §15]

9.050 Recall of governors. On petition signed by 25 percent of the members in any region for the recall of any governor elected from that region, the executive director shall serve notice forthwith on such governor of the filing of the petition; and, if the governor does not resign within 10 days from the date of such service, the executive director shall mail ballots to each active member of the bar within the region eligible to vote, submitting the question whether such governor shall be recalled. If a majority of the members voting at such election vote in favor of the recall, then the governor shall be recalled. [Amended by 1973 c 114 §4; 1979 c 252 §16]

9.060 Vacancies; election of officers. A president, vice president, secretary and treasurer shall be elected by the governors each year immediately following the annual election of governors and before the newly elected governors have qualified. The president and vice president shall be elected from among the board members. All officers shall continue in office until their successors are elected and qualify. Vacancies in the board of governors, or in any of the offices, shall be filled by the board by appointment for the remainder of the term. The secretary, the treasurer and such other assistants as the board may require, may be selected from within or without the membership of the board, and shall be paid such compensation as the board shall determine. All officers shall take office immediately upon their election.

9.070 Duties of officers; bonds of secretary and treasurer; deposit and disbursement of fees. (1) The president shall preside at all meetings of the state bar and of the board of governors, and in the absence or inability to act of the president, the vice president shall preside. However, the board of governors may designate another member of the bar to preside at meetings of the state bar. Other duties of the president and vice president and the duties of the secretary and treasurer shall be such as the board of governors may prescribe.

(2) The secretary and the treasurer shall each give bond, with some qualified surety company as surety, in such amount as the board shall fix, conditioned for the faithful accounting for all money received by them in their official capacities.

(3) All fees shall be paid into the treasury of the state bar, and when so paid shall become part of its funds and shall be disbursed only on order of the board of governors.

[Amended by 1981 c 193 §4]

9.080 Function of board; duties generally; professional liability fund; quorum; status of employes of Oregon State Bar. (1) The state bar shall be governed by the board of governors, except as provided in ORS 9.130. The board is charged with the executive functions of the state bar and shall at all times direct its power to the advancement of the science of jurisprudence and the improvement of the administration of justice. It shall have the authority to adopt, alter, amend and repeal bylaws and to adopt new bylaws containing provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the state bar not inconsistent with law.

(2) (a) The board shall have the authority to require all active members of the state bar engaged in the private practice of law in Oregon to carry professional liability insurance and shall be empowered, either by itself or in conjunction with other bar organizations, to do whatever is necessary and convenient to implement this provision, including the authority to own, organize and sponsor any insurance organization authorized under the laws of the State of Oregon and to establish a lawyer's professional liability fund. This fund shall pay, on behalf of members of the state bar in the private practice of law, all sums as may be provided under such plan which any member shall become legally obligated to pay as money damages because of any claim made against such member as a result of any act or omission of such member in rendering or failing to render professional services for others in the member's capacity as an attorney or caused by any other person for whose acts or omissions the member is legally responsible. The board shall have the authority to assess each member of the state bar in the private practice of law whose principal office is in Oregon for contributions to such fund, and to establish definitions of coverage to be provided by such fund. Any fund so established shall not be subject to the Insurance

Code of the State of Oregon. Records of a claim against the fund are exempt from disclosure under ORS 192.410 to 192.500.

(b) For purposes of paragraph (a) of this subsection, an attorney is not engaged in the private practice of law if the attorney is a full-time employe of a corporation other than a corporation incorporated under ORS chapter 58, the state, an agency or department thereof, a county, city, special district or any other public or municipal corporation or any instrumentality thereof. However, an attorney who practices law outside of the attorney's full-time employment is engaged in the private practice of law.

(3) The board may appoint such committees, officers and employes as it deems necessary or proper and fix and pay their compensation and necessary expenses. At any meeting of the board, two-thirds of the total number of members then in office shall constitute a quorum. It shall promote and encourage voluntary county or other local bar associations.

(4) Except as provided in this subsection, an employe of the state bar shall not be considered an "employe" as the term is defined in the public employes' retirement laws. However, an employe of the state bar may, at the option of the employe, for the purpose of becoming a member of the Public Employes' Retirement System, be considered an "employe" as the term is defined in the public employes' retirement laws. The option, once exercised by written notification directed to the Public Employes' Retirement Board, may not be revoked subsequently, except as may otherwise be provided by law. Upon receipt of such notification by the Public Employes' Retirement Board, an employe of the state bar who would otherwise, but for the exemption provided in this subsection, be considered an "employe," as the term is defined in the public employes' retirement laws, shall be so considered. The state bar and its employes shall be exempt from the provisions of the State Personnel Relations Law. No member of the state bar shall be considered an "employe" as the term is defined in the public employes' retirement laws, the unemployment compensation laws and the State Personnel Relations Law solely by reason of membership in the state bar. [Amended by 1955 c 463 §2; 1975 c.641 §3, 1977 c 527 §1; 1979 c 508 §1]

9.090 Appropriation and disbursement of funds. The board may make appropriations and disbursements from the funds of the bar and pay all necessary expenses. [Amended by 1969 c 314 §5, 1979 c.252 §17]

9.100 Statement of receipts and expenditures. The board shall have prepared annually an itemized statement showing the total amount of receipts and expenditures of the state bar for the 12 months preceding. Such statement shall be certified promptly under oath by the president and treasurer to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

9.110 Rules; special meetings; quorum at bar meetings. The board may formulate and declare rules necessary or expedient for carrying out the functions of the state bar and shall fix the manner and time of calling special meetings of the state bar. The board shall, however, call a special meeting of the state bar when so requested in writing by no fewer than 50 voting members from each of the regions specified in ORS 9.025. A quorum at any regular or special meeting of the state bar shall consist of 200 active members. [Amended by 1975 c 641 §4; 1981 c 193 §5]

9.120 Annual meetings of bar; reports and recommendations. An annual meeting of the bar shall be held at a time and place fixed by the board of governors. At the annual meeting, reports of the proceedings by the board since the last annual meeting, reports of other officers and committees and recommendations of the board shall be received.

9.130 Authority of bar members at meetings. At any meeting of the state bar, the active members present, by a majority vote, may modify or rescind any action or decision of the board of governors and also may instruct the board as to future action, and the board shall be bound by any such action of the bar. The right of the bar to direct, modify or rescind an act of the board shall not include power to invalidate payments previously made under the direction of the board, shall not include power to direct, modify or rescind any assessment by the board for contributions to a professional liability fund under ORS 9.080 (2), and shall not apply to those powers of the board which are subject to the control or approval of or review by the Supreme Court, except as provided in ORS 9.490. [Amended by 1979 c 508 §2, 1981 c 193 §2]

MEMBERSHIP IN THE BAR

9.160 Practice of law by persons other than active members. Except for the right reserved to litigants by ORS 9.320 to prosecute or defend a cause in person, no person shall practice law or represent himself as qualified to practice law unless he is an active member of the Oregon State Bar.

9.180 Classes of membership. All persons admitted to practice law in this state thereby shall become active members of the bar. Every member shall be an active member unless, at the member's request, or for reasons prescribed by statute, the rules of the Supreme Court, or the rules of procedure, the member is enrolled as an inactive member. An inactive member may, on compliance with the rules of the Supreme Court and the rules of procedure and payment of all required fees, again become an active member. Inactive members shall not hold office or vote, but they shall have such other privileges as the board may provide. [Amended by 1961 c 499 §1, 1979 c 252 §18]

9.190 [Amended by 1957 c 271 §1, 1961 c 138 §1; part renumbered 9 200 (2); repealed by 1969 c 602 §1 (9 191 enacted in lieu of 9 190)]

9.191 Annual membership fees; professional liability assessments. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the annual membership fees to be paid by members of the state bar on or before February 1 of each year shall be established by the board, and notice thereof shall be published and distributed to the membership on or before August 15 of the preceding year. Any increase in annual membership fees over the amount established for the preceding year must be approved by a majority of members voting thereon at the annual meeting of the members.

(2) The annual membership fees for the year of admission to be paid by persons admitted to practice law in this state after February 1 of that year shall be established by the board.

(3) In establishing annual membership fees, the board shall consider and be guided by the anticipated financial needs of the state bar for the year for which the fees are established, time periods of membership and active or inactive status of members. Annual membership fees may include any amount assessed under any plan for professional liability insurance for attorneys engaged in the private practice of law in Oregon as provided in ORS 9.080 (2). No annual membership fees shall be required or assessed by the board for members who have been admitted to practice law in Oregon for 50 years or more except that such member shall be required to pay any amount assessed under any plan for professional liability insurance if such member is in the private practice of law in Oregon. [1969 c 602 §2 (enacted in lieu of 9 190), 1973 c 21 §1, 1975 c.641 §5; 1977 c 527 §2, 1979 c 508 §3]

9.200 Effect of failure to pay membership fees; reinstatement. (1) Any member in default in payment of membership fees established under ORS 9.191 (1) for a period of 90 days, or any person in default in payment of membership fees established under ORS 9.191 (2) for a period of 30 days after admission or as otherwise provided by the board, or any member in default in payment of assessed contributions to a professional liability fund under ORS 9.080 (2) for a period of 30 days, shall, after 60 days' written notice of the delinquency, be suspended from membership in the bar. The notice of delinquency shall be sent by the executive director, by registered or certified mail, to the member in default at the last-known post-office address of the member. Failure to pay the fees or contributions within 60 days after the date of the deposit of the notice in the post office shall automatically suspend the delinquent member. The names of all members suspended from membership for nonpayment of fees or contributions shall be certified by the executive director to the State Court Administrator and to each of the judges of the Court of Appeals, circuit, tax and district courts of the state.

(2) An active member delinquent in the payment of such fees or contributions shall not be entitled to vote.

(3) A member suspended for delinquency in payment of such fees or contributions shall be reinstated only on compliance with the rules of the Supreme Court and the rules of procedure and payment of all required fees or contributions. [Amended by 1957 c.271 §1; 1961 c 499 §2, subsection (2) formerly part of 9 190; 1979 c 508 §4a]

9.210 Board of bar examiners; fees of applicants for admission to bar. The Supreme Court shall appoint 12 members of the Oregon State Bar to a board of bar examiners. The Supreme Court shall also appoint two public members to the board who are not active or inactive members of the Oregon State Bar. The board shall examine applicants and recommend to the Supreme Court for admission to practice law those who fulfill the requirements prescribed by law and the rules of the Supreme Court. With the approval of the Supreme Court, the board may fix and collect fees to be paid by applicants for admission, which fees shall be paid into the treasury of the bar. [Amended by 1979 c.252 §20; 1981 c 193 §6]

9.220 General requirements for admission. An applicant for admission as attorney must apply to the Supreme Court and show that the applicant:

(1) Is a resident of this state, and at least 18 years old, which proof may be made by the applicant's affidavit.

(2)(a) Is a person of good moral character.

(b) For purposes of this section and ORS 9.025, 9.070, 9.110, 9.130, 9.210, 9.250, 9.480 and 9.595, "good moral character" means conduct not restricted to those acts that reflect moral turpitude, but rather extending to acts and conduct which would cause a reasonable person to have substantial doubts about the individual's honesty, fairness and respect for the rights of others and for the laws of the state and the nation. The conduct in question should be rationally connected to the applicant's fitness to practice law.

(3) Has the requisite learning and ability, which must be shown by the examination of the applicant, by the judges, or under their direction, in open court, at the term at which the application is made, except as provided in ORS 9.210. However, no rule shall establish any maximum on the number of times an applicant may apply for and take the bar examination whenever presented if the reason for refusing admission to practice law is failure to pass the bar examination. [Amended by 1973 c 827 §2, 1981 c 193 §7]

9.230 [Repealed by 1981 c 193 §12]

9.240 Appearance of attorneys licensed in other jurisdictions. An attorney of the highest court of record in any other state or country may appear, if associated with an active member of the Oregon State Bar, as counsel for a party in a particular action, suit or proceeding then pending in court, or before a judicial officer of this state. [Amended by 1961 c.499 §3]

9.250 Oath of qualified applicant; order for admission. If an applicant for admission as an attorney is found qualified, the court shall administer an oath to the applicant, that in the practice of law the applicant will support the Constitution and laws of the United States and of this state, and be of faithful and honest demeanor in office. The court shall then direct an order to be entered to the effect that the applicant is a resident of this state, of the age of 18 years, of good moral character, and possesses the requisite learning and ability to practice as an attorney in all the courts of this state, and has taken the oath of office. Upon the entry of the order, the applicant is entitled to practice as such attorney. [Amended by 1973 c 827 §3, 1981 c 193 §8]

9.260 Resignation of attorney. An attorney may, at any time, file in the office of the executive director a written resignation. After filing a resignation, the attorney is not entitled to the rights nor subject to the disabilities or prohibitions incident to that relation, except that the attorney is still subject to the power of the court in respect to matters arising prior to the resignation of the attorney. [Amended by 1953 c 604 §1, 1979 c 252 §21]

9.270 Forwarding copy of resignation to State Court Administrator; readmission to practice. The executive director shall immediately forward a copy thereof to the State Court Administrator, who shall file it in the office of the State Court Administrator. An attorney who has resigned may be readmitted to practice only on compliance with the rules of the Supreme Court and rules of procedure [Amended by 1953 c 604 §1, 1961 c 499 §4, 1971 c 193 §17, 1979 c 252 §22]

ATTORNEY AND CLIENT RELATIONSHIP

9.310 Attorney defined; counsel. An attorney is a person authorized to represent a party in the written proceedings in any action, suit or proceeding, in any stage thereof. An attorney, other than the one who represents the party in the written proceedings, may also represent a party in court, or before a judicial officer, in which case he is known as counsel, and his authority is limited to the matters that transpire in the court or before such officer at the time.

9.320 Necessity for employment of attorney; effect of employment. Any action, suit, or proceeding may be prosecuted or defended by a party in person, or by attorney, except that the state or a corporation appears by attorney in all cases, unless otherwise specifically provided by law. Where a party appears by attorney, the written proceedings must be in the name of the attorney, who is the sole representative of his client as between him and the adverse party, except as provided in ORS 9.310. [Amended by 1975 c 451 §171]

9.330 Authority of an attorney. An attorney has authority to bind his client in any of the proceedings in an action, suit or proceeding, by his agreement, filed with the clerk or entered upon the journal of the court; and he also has authority to receive money or property claimed by his client in an action, suit or proceeding, during the pendency thereof, or within three years after judgment or decree, and upon the payment or delivery thereof to discharge the claim or acknowledge satisfaction of the judgment or decree. This section does not prevent a party from employing a new attorney to issue execution upon a judgment or decree, or to take other proceedings prescribed by law for its enforcement, and when he does so, the authority of the former attorney ceases.

9.340 Challenge by party of attorney's authority to appear for party. If it is alleged by a party for whom an attorney appears that he does so without authority, and the allegation is verified by the affidavit of the party, the court may, if it finds the allegation true, at any stage of the proceedings relieve the party for whom the attorney has assumed to appear from the consequences of the attorney's acts

9.350 Challenge of attorney's authority to appear for adverse party. The court or judge thereof may, on motion of either party and on showing reasonable grounds therefor, require the attorney for an adverse party to prove the authority under which he appears, and until he does so, may stay all proceedings by him on behalf of the party for whom he assumes to appear.

9.360 Compelling delivery by attorney of money or papers. When an attorney refuses to deliver over money or papers to a person from whom or for whom he has received them in the course of professional employment, he may be required by an order of the court in which a judicial proceeding was prosecuted or defended, or if none were prosecuted or defended, then by an order of the circuit court or judge thereof for the county where such attorney resides or may be found, to do so within a specified time, or show cause why he should not be punished for a contempt.

9.370 Compelling delivery when attorney claims lien. If an attorney claims a lien, under the provisions of ORS 87.440, upon the money or papers subject to delivery under ORS 9.360, the court shall:

(1) Impose, as a condition of making the order, the requirement that the client give security, in form and amount to be directed, to satisfy the lien when determined in an action or suit; or

(2) Summarily inquire into the facts on which the claim of a lien is founded, and determine the same; or

(3) Direct the trial of the controversy by a jury, or refer it, and upon the verdict or report, determine the same as in other cases.

[Amended by 1975 c.648 §70]
