For this purpose, the rule may require adjusting or staggering terms of board members. [Formerly 259 235; 1981 c 173 §36]

255.335 Regular election dates; terms of board members; organizational meeting. (1) The regular district election shall be held by each district, that is not a school district, for the purpose of electing members of the district board to succeed a member whose term expires the following June 30 and to elect members to fill any vacancy which then may exist. The election shall be held in each such district in each odd-numbered year on the last Tuesday in March.

(2) Each school district not described in subsection (3) of this section shall hold the regular district election annually as provided in this subsection. A district shall not conduct more than one election of board members in any year. A district may hold the regular district election:

(a) On the last Tuesday in March;

(b) When the district initially submits its tax levy to the voters on a date specified in ORS 255.345 (1) (a) to (c) in an odd-numbered year or on a date specified in ORS 255.345 (1) (a) or (c) in an even-numbered year; or

(c) On the last Tuesday in June in an even-numbered year if the school district holds an election on a proposed levy at the immediately preceding primary election.

(3) A school district having a population of 300,000 or more, according to the latest federal decennial census, shall hold the regular district election in each odd-numbered year on the last Tuesday in March.

(4) The first regular district election in a district shall be held on the regular district election date next following the year in which the first members of the district board were elected or appointed.

(5) The term of a board member elected at the regular district election shall commence on the first day of July next following the election.

(6) Each district board shall hold a regular organizational meeting following the regular district election and not later than the last day of July of that year. [Formerly 259 240; 1981 c 639 §8]

255.345 Special election dates. (1) Except as provided in ORS 255.355 and subsection (2) of this section, a special election called by a district election authority shall not be held on any date other than:

- (a) The last Tuesday in March;
- (b) The third Tuesday in May;
- (c) The last Tuesday in June;
- (d) The second Tuesday in August;
- (e) The third Tuesday in September; or
- (f) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

(2) A special election may be held on a date other than that provided in subsection (1) of this section, if the district election authority by resolution finds that an election sooner than the next available election date is required on a measure to finance repairs to property damaged by fire, vandalism or a natural disaster.

(3) As used in this section, "district election authority" means the body or officer authorized or required to call an election for a public corporation formed under, and deriving its powers solely from, the statutes of this state, but does not include a city or county. [Formerly 259.260, 1981 c 639 §9]

255.355 Special election for school levy; petition for election; notice. (1) A school district board may call a special election on a proposed levy to be held on a date other than a date specified in ORS 255.345, if it receives a petition described in subsection (2) of this section, or if the requirements of subsection (3) of this section are satisfied.

(2) The petition shall request that an election on a proposed levy be held, and shall contain signatures of electors of the district in a number not less than 10 percent of the number who voted at the last election held on the proposed levy. The signatures on the petition shall be verified by the election officer not later than the fifth day after the petition is filed with the officer. The petition shall not be accepted for filing unless the petition contains not less than 100 percent of the number of signatures required by this subsection.

(3) Whenever a school district board finds that as a result of the defeat of a proposed levy submitted to the voters of the district a school closure will occur, the board may call the special election if:

(a) There is no date specified in ORS 255.345 that permits an election before the closure; and

(b) The Superintendent of Public Instruction concurs in writing with the finding of the board that a closure will otherwise occur.

(4) In the event of a special election called under this section, requirements relating to notice and sample ballots shall be waived. Notice of the election shall be given to district voters by the most reasonable and expeditious means under the circumstances, including but not limited to single publication of a sample ballot in a newspaper of general circulation in the district, radio announcements, posting at the schools of the district or notifying households in the district by means of handouts to students or others.

(5) The proposed levy submitted to district voters at an election called under this section shall not be greater than the proposed levy defeated by the voters at the immediately preceding election. [Formerly 259 265]
