419.472 Definitions for ORS 419.472 to 419.597, 419.800 to 419.840. As used in ORS 419.472 to 419.597, 419.800 to 419.840, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Child" means a person within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court as provided in ORS 419.476 (1).

(2) "Counselor" means a juvenile department counselor.

(3) "Court" means the juvenile court.

(4) "Detention" or "detention facility" means a facility suitable for the safekeeping of a child who is taken into temporary custody pending investigation and disposition where the circumstances are such that the child must be kept in secure custody.

(5) "Guardian" means guardian of the person and not guardian of the estate.

(6) "Resides" or "residence," when used in reference to the residence of a child, means the place where the child himself is actually living and not the legal residence or domicile of the parent or guardian.

(7) "Shelter care" means a home or other facility suitable for the safekeeping of a child who is taken into temporary custody pending investigation and disposition where the circumstances are such that the child does not need to be kept in secure custody.

(8) "Surrogate" means a person appointed by the court to protect the child's right to receive procedural safeguards with respect to the provision of free appropriate public education. [1959 c 432 §1, 1979 c.836 §8]

419.474 Court of general and equitable jurisdiction; official name of juvenile court; liberal construction to achieve child's welfare. (1) The juvenile court is a court of record and exercises jurisdiction as a court of general and equitable jurisdiction and not as a court of limited or inferior jurisdiction. It is called "The _____ Court of _____ County, Juvenile Department."

(2) The provisions of ORS 419.472 to 419.597, 419.800 to 419.840 shall be liberally construed to the end that a child coming within the jurisdiction of the court may receive such care, guidance and control, preferably in his own home, as will lead to the child's welfare and the best interest of the public, and that when a child is removed from the control of his parents the court may secure for him care that best meets the needs of the child.

[Subsection (1) enacted as 1959 c.432 §3(1), subsection (2) enacted as 1959 c 432 §57]

419.476 Children within jurisdiction of juvenile court. (1) The juvenile court has exclusive original jurisdiction in any case involving a person who is under 18 years of age and:

(a) Who has committed an act which is a violation, or which if done by an adult would constitute a violation, of a law or ordinance of the United States or a state, county or city; or

(b) Who is beyond the control of his parents, guardian or other person having his custody; or

(c) Whose behavior, condition or circumstances are such as to endanger his own welfare or the welfare of others; or

(e) Either his parents or any other person having his custody have abandoned him, failed to provide him with the support or education required by law, subjected him to cruelty or depravity or to unexplained physical injury or failed to provide him with the care, guidance and protection necessary for his physical, mental or emotional well-being; or

(f) Who has run away from his home; or

(g) Who has filed a petition for emancipation pursuant to ORS 109.550 to 109.565, 419.710, 482.270, 482.905 and this section.

(2) The court shall have jurisdiction under subsection (1) of this section even though the child is receiving adequate care from the person having his physical custody.

(3) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section do not prevent a court of competent jurisdiction from entertaining a civil action or suit involving a child.

(4) The court shall have no further jurisdiction as provided in subsection (1) of this section after a minor has been emancipated pursuant to ORS 109.550 to 109.565.

[Subsection (1) enacted as 1959 c 432 §2; subsection (3) enacted as 1959 c 432 §3 (2), 1963 c.496 §1, 1971 c.451 §17, 1977 c 525 §6]

(b) Thereafter flees from this state.

(2) The child described in subsection (1) of this section may be proceeded against in the manner provided in ORS 133.743 to 133.857.

(3) Upon the return of the child described in subsection (1) of this section to this state by extradition or otherwise, any proceedings against the child shall be commenced in the same manner as provided in ORS 419.472 to 419.591.

(4) If a child described in subsection (1) of this section has fled to a state which has adopted the Rendition Amendment to the Interstate Compact on Juveniles, the return of the child shall be sought in accordance with the provisions of that compact. [1979 c.288 §2]

419.478 Transfer of proceeding to juvenile court. If during the pendency of a proceeding in any court other than a juvenile court it is ascertained that the age of the person who is the subject of the proceeding is such that the matter is within the exclusive jurisdiction of the juvenile court, it is the duty of the court in which the proceeding is pending forthwith to transfer the proceeding, together with all the papers, documents and testimony connected therewith, to the juvenile court of the county in which the proceeding is pending. [1959 c 432 §4]

419.479 Venue for proceeding. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (2), (3), (5) and (6) of this section, a juvenile proceeding shall commence in the county where the child resides.

(2) If the proceeding is based on allegations of jurisdiction under ORS 419.476 (1)(a), (b) or (c), the proceeding may also commence in the county in which the alleged act or behavior took place.

(3) If the proceeding is based on allegations of jurisdiction under ORS 419.476 (1)(d), (e), (f) or (g), the proceedings may also commence in the county where the child is present when the proceeding begins.

(4) If a proceeding is initiated in a court of a county other than the county in which the child resides, that court, on its own motion or on the motion of a party made at any time prior to disposition, shall transfer the proceeding to the court of the county of the child's residence for such further proceeding as the receiving court finds proper. A like transfer may be made if the residence of the child changes during the proceeding, or if the child has been adjudicated within the jurisdiction of the court where the proceeding is initiated on grounds specified in ORS 419.476 (1)(a) or (c) and other proceedings involving the child are pending in the county of the child's residence. Certified copies of the court records pertaining to the immediate proceeding shall accompany the case on transfer.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of ORS 34.320, an application for a writ of habeas corpus brought by or on behalf of a person who has been committed or placed in a juvenile training school which attacks the validity of the order of commitment shall be brought in the county in which the court that entered the order of commitment is located.

(6) A termination of parent-child relationship proceeding may be commenced in the county where the child has been held previously to be within the jurisdiction of the court or where the child resides or is found. [1979 c 275 §2]

419.482 Petition or information that child is in juvenile court's jurisdiction; preliminary inquiry concerning action to be taken by court; court action. (1) Any person may file a petition in the juvenile court alleging that a child named therein is within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in ORS 419.476 (1).

(2) If any person informs the court that a child is or appears to be within its jurisdiction, as provided in ORS 419.476 (1), a preliminary inquiry shall be made to determine whether the interests of the child or the public require that further action be taken. Upon the basis of the preliminary inquiry, the court may:

(a) Make such informal recommendations to the child and his parent or person having his custody as are appropriate in the circumstances;

(b) Direct that a petition be filed; or

(c) Direct that a juvenile motor vehicle offense be handled as provided in ORS 419.535 to 419.541.

(3) At any time after a petition is filed, the court may make an order providing for temporary custody of the child.

(4) At any time after a petition is filed, the court in the circumstances set forth in ORS 419.533 may remand the case to the appropriate court handling criminal actions, or to municipal court.

(5) The court may dismiss the petition at any stage of the proceedings. [1959 c 432 §6]

419.484 Title of petition, contents, service. (1) The petition and all subsequent court documents in the proceeding shall be entitled, "In the matter of _____, a child." The petition shall be in writing and verified. When the petition is filed by a peace officer, counselor or employe of the Adult and Family Services Division or the Children's Services Division, it may be verified upon the information and belief of the petitioner and may be filed without prior direction or authorization of the court. When the petition is filed pursuant to direction of the court as provided in ORS 419.482 (2), it may be upon information and belief. In other cases, the petition shall be on the personal knowledge of the petitioner.

(2) The petition shall set forth in ordinary and concise language such of the following facts as are known and indicate any which are now known:

(a) The name, age and residence of the child.

(b) The facts which bring the child within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in ORS 419.476 (1).

(c) The name and residence of the child's parents; if the child has no parents or the names and residences of both parents are unknown, then the name and address of his guardian, if he has a guardian.

(d) The name and residence of the person having physical custody of the child.

(3) A certified copy of the petition shall be served, together with the summons, upon all persons upon whom summons are served under ORS 419.486. [1959 c.432 §7, 1969 c.274 §3; 1971 c.151 §1]

419.486 Issuance of summons, contents, to whom issued. (1) Promptly after the petition is filed, there shall be an investigation of the circumstances concerning the child. No later than 60 days after the petition is filed, summons may be issued.

(2) The summons shall be signed by a counselor or some other person acting under the direction of the court and shall contain the name of the court, the title of the proceeding and, except for a published summons, a brief statement of the substance of the facts required by ORS 419.484 (2)(b). Summons published as provided in ORS 419.488 (2)(c) shall contain the name of the court, the title of the proceeding and the statement mentioned in that paragraph.

(3) The summons shall require the person or persons who have physical custody of the child to appear personally and bring the child before the court at the time and place stated in the summons. The time for the hearing on the petition shall be fixed at a reasonable time, not less than 24 hours, after the issuance of the summons. If it appears to the court that the welfare of the child or of the public requires that the child immediately be taken into custody, the court may indorse an order on the summons directing the officer serving it to take the child into custody.

(4) If the child is not in the physical custody of both parents, or the child's only living parent, or, if both parents are dead, the child's guardian, then summons shall also be issued to the parent or parents or guardian, as the case may be, notifying him or them that he or they may appear personally before the court at the time and place stated in the summons, to the end that both parents or the guardian, or both, may be brought before the court.

(5) If the child is 12 years of age or older, a certified copy of the summons shall be served upon the child.

(6) Summons may be issued requiring the appearance of any person whose presence the court deems necessary. [1959 c.432 §8; 1969 c 274 §4]

419.488 Service of summons and process; travel expenses of person summoned. (1) Summons or other process issuing from the juvenile court may be served without further indorsement in any county of the state by an officer of the county in which the proceeding is pending, by an officer of the county in which the person to be served is found or by any person authorized by the court to serve the process. Except as otherwise provided in ORS 419.472 to 419.597, 419.800 to 419.840 and 419.990 (2), the provisions of law or the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure applicable to summons in civil cases apply to summons issued from juvenile court.

(2) If any parent or guardian required to be summoned as provided in ORS 419.486 (4) cannot be found within the state, summons may be served on the parent or guardian in any of the following ways:

(a) If the address of the parent or guardian is known, by sending the parent or guardian a copy of the summons by registered mail with a return receipt to be signed by the addressee only.

(b) By personal service outside the state.

(c) If, after reasonable inquiry, the whereabouts of the parent or guardian cannot be ascertained, by publishing a summons in a newspaper having general circulation in the county in which the proceeding is pending. In lieu of the brief statement of facts required by ORS 419.486 (2), the published summons shall simply state that a proceeding concerning the child is pending in the court and an order making an adjudication will be entered therein. The summons shall be published once a week for a period of three weeks, making three publications in all. If the names of one or both parents or the guardian are unknown, they may be summoned as "The parent(s) or guardian of (naming or describing the child), found (stating the address or place where the child was found)."

(3) Service as provided in this section shall vest the court with jurisdiction over the parents or guardian in the same manner and to the same extent as if the person served were served personally within this state.

(4) The court may authorize payment of travel expenses of any person summoned, as provided in ORS 136.603. [1959 c.432 §9; 1969 c 591 §298, 1979 c.284 §141]

419.490 Compliance with summons; issuance of warrant of arrest. (1) No person required to appear as provided in ORS 419.486 shall without reasonable cause fail to appear or, where directed in the summons, to bring the child before the court.

(2) If the summons cannot be served, if the person to whom the summons is directed fails to obey it or if it appears to the court that the summons will be ineffectual, the court may direct issuance of a warrant of arrest against the person summoned or against the child. [1959 c.432 §10]

419.492 Power of court to proceed when child is before court; exceptions. If the child is before the court, the court has jurisdiction to proceed with the case notwithstanding the failure to serve summons upon any person required to be served by ORS 419.486, except that:

(1) No order entered pursuant to ORS 419.523 may be entered unless ORS 419.525 is complied with.

(2) No order for support as provided in ORS 419.513 may be entered against a person unless that person is served as provided in ORS 419.488 (1).

(3) If it appears to the court that a parent or guardian required to be served by ORS 419.486 was not served as provided in ORS 419.488, or was served on such short notice that he did not have a reasonable opportunity to appear at the time fixed, the court shall, upon petition by the parent or guardian, reopen the case for full consideration. [1959 c 432 §11]

419.494 Appointment of person to appear in behalf of child. In any proceeding the court may appoint some suitable person to appear in behalf of the child. [1959 c 432 §12]

419.496 Hearing on each case separately at special session of court; exceptions. Juvenile court hearings shall be held at a special session of the court for that purpose and each case shall be heard separately, except that two or more cases may be heard together in the following instances:

(1) Proceedings consolidated as provided in ORS 419.559.

(2) Cases involving violations of motor vehicle laws or ordinances where none of the cases involves death or serious injury to persons.

(3) Cases arising in whole or in part out of a single transaction or series of related transactions. [1959 c.432 §13]

419.498 Conduct of hearing; court-appointed counsel; payment of counsel costs; witnesses. (1) The hearing shall be held informally by the court without a jury and may be continued from time to time. Unless the child or parents otherwise request, the general public shall be excluded and only such persons admitted as the judge finds have a proper interest in the case or the work of the court. The judge may exclude the public during any portion of the hearing in which it appears that the presence of the public may embarrass a witness or party or otherwise prejudice the reception of trustworthy evidence. With the consent of the child or parents, at any stage of the proceeding the court may separately interview the child or one of the parents.

(2)(a) If the child, the parent or guardian requests counsel but is without sufficient financial means to employ suitable counsel possessing skills and experience commensurate with the nature of the petition and the complexity of the case, the court shall appoint suitable counsel to represent the child. The court may appoint suitable counsel to represent the child in any case. Counsel appointed by the court shall be paid compensation determined, as provided in ORS 135.055, by the court.

(b) Where the court appoints counsel to represent the child, it may require the parent, if able, or guardian of the estate, if the estate is able, to pay compensation for counsel and reasonable expenses of investigation, preparation and presentation. The test of the parent's or estate's ability to pay such compensation and expenses shall be the same test as applied to appointment of counsel for defendants under ORS 135.050. The court's order of payment shall be enforceable in the same manner as an order of support under ORS 419.515.

(c) Where the court appoints counsel and the child, parent or guardian is without sufficient financial means to employ counsel, the compensation for counsel and reasonable expenses of investigation, preparation and presentation paid or incurred shall be allowed and paid as provided in ORS 135.055.

(3) Witnesses or other persons necessary for the conduct of the hearing may be subpoenaed. The child, parents, guardian or any person appearing in the child's behalf may have compulsory attendance of witnesses in the child's or their behalf in the same manner as provided in ORS 136.567 to 136.603. The form of the subpoena shall be substantially as provided in ORS 136.575 (4) or (6), but shall describe the action as a "juvenile court proceeding" and the appearance as on behalf of "the court," "the child," and so on, as the case may be.

(4) In addition to the subpoena available under subsection (3) of this section, when the petition alleges that the child is within the jurisdiction of the court by reason of a ground set forth in ORS 419.476 (1)(a), the child or any person appearing in behalf of the child or the state may secure the attendance of out-of-state witnesses in the same manner as provided in ORS 136.623 to 136.637.

(5) Stenographic notes or other report of the hearings shall be taken only when required by the court. [1959 c 432 §14; 1973 c 455 §1; 1979 c.583 §1; 1979 c.867 §8; 1981 c.174 §3]

Note: The amendments to 419.498 by section 65, chapter 3, Oregon Laws 1981 (special session), become operative January 1, 1983. See section 5, chapter 3, Oregon Laws 1981 (special session). 419.498, as amended, is set forth for the users' convenience.

419.498. (1) The hearing shall be held informally by the court without a jury and may be continued from time to time. Unless the child or parents otherwise request, the general public shall be excluded and only such persons admitted as the judge finds have a proper interest in the case or the work of the court. The judge may exclude the public during any portion of the hearing in which it appears that the presence of the public may embarrass a witness or party or otherwise prejudice the reception of trustworthy evidence. With the consent of the child or parents, at any stage of the proceeding the court may separately interview the child or one of the parents

(2)(a) If the child, the parent or guardian requests counsel but is without sufficient financial means to employ suitable counsel possessing skills and experience commensurate with the nature of the petition and the complexity of the case, the court shall appoint suitable counsel to represent the child. The court may appoint suitable counsel to represent the child in any case. Counsel appointed by the court shall be paid compensation determined, as provided in ORS 135.055, by the court

(b) Where the court appoints counsel to represent the child, it may require the parent, if able, or guardian of the estate, if the estate is able, to pay compensation for counsel and reasonable expenses of investigation, preparation and presentation. The test of the parent's or estate's ability to pay such compensation and expenses shall be the same test as applied to appointment of counsel for defendants under ORS 135.050. The court's order of payment shall be enforceable in the same manner as an order of support under ORS 419.515.

(c) Where the court appoints counsel and the child, parent or guardian is without sufficient financial means to employ counsel, the compensation for counsel and reasonable expenses of investigation, preparation and presentation paid or incurred shall be allowed and paid as provided in ORS 135.055

(3) Witnesses or other persons necessary for the conduct of the hearing may be subpoenaed. The child, parents, guardian or any person appearing in the child's behalf may have compulsory attendance of witnesses in the child's or their behalf in the same manner as provided in ORS 136.567 to 136.603. The form of the subpoena shall be substantially as provided in ORS 136.575 (4) or (6), but shall describe the action as a "juvenile court proceeding" and the appearance as on behalf of "the court," "the child," and so on, as the case may be.

(4) In addition to the subpoena available under subsection (3) of this section, when the petition alleges that the child is within the jurisdiction of the court by reason of a ground set forth in ORS 419.476 (1)(a), the child or any person appearing in behalf of the child or the state may secure the attendance of out-of-state witnesses in the same manner as provided in ORS 136.623 to 136.637.

(5) The per diem fees and mileage due to a witness in a hearing in the circuit court who is entitled thereto at public expense shall be paid by the state in the manner provided in ORS 136.602

(6) Stenographic notes or other report of the hearings shall be taken only when required by the court.

419.500 Proof of court's jurisdiction over child; amendment of petition; admissibility of certain evidence. (1) The facts alleged in the petition showing the child to be within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in ORS 419.476 (1), unless admitted, must be established by a preponderance of competent evidence. However, in the adjudicative phase of a hearing where a finding of jurisdiction may result in institutionalization under ORS 419.509 (1), the facts must be established beyond a reasonable doubt. The practice of a parent who chooses for himself or his child treatment by prayer or spiritual means alone shall not be construed as a failure to provide physical care within the meaning of ORS 419.472 to 419.597, 419.800 to 419.840 and 419.990 (2) but shall not prevent a court of competent jurisdiction from exercising that jurisdiction under ORS 419.476 (1)(c). The court, on motion of an interested party or on its own motion, may at any time direct that the petition be amended. If the amendment results in a substantial departure from the facts originally alleged, the court shall grant such continuance as the interests of justice may require.

(2) For the purpose of determining proper disposition of the child, testimony, reports or other material relating to the child's mental, physical and social history and prognosis may be received by the court without regard to their competency or relevancy under the rules of evidence. 419.502 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419.504 [Amended by 1955 c 3 §1; repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419.505 Order directing disposition of case. At the termination of the hearing or hearings in the proceeding, the court shall enter an appropriate order directing the disposition to be made of the case. [1959 c 432 §16]

419.506 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419.507 Child as ward of the court; court's authority over child; Children's Services Division's authority over child; plan for medical care or special treatment; court authority to place child in detention.

(1) A child found to be within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in ORS 419.476 (1), may be made a ward of the court. Where a child has been found to be within its jurisdiction, and when the court determines it would be in the best interest and welfare of the child, the court may:

(a) Place the child on probation or under protective supervision. The court may direct that the child remain in the legal custody of his parents or other person with whom he is living or may direct that the child be placed in the legal custody of some relative or some person maintaining a foster home approved by the court, or in a child care center or a youth care center authorized to accept the child. The court may specify particular requirements to be observed during the probation or protective supervision consistent with recognized juvenile court practice, including but not limited to restrictions on visitation by the child's parents, restrictions on the child's associates, occupation and activities, restrictions on and requirements to be observed by the person having the child's legal custody and requirements for visitation by and consultation with a juvenile counselor or other suitable counselor. Restitution for property taken, damaged or destroyed by the child may be required as a condition of probation.

(b) Place the child in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division for care, placement and supervision.

(A) The division may place the child in a child care center authorized to accept the child.

(B) If the child has been placed in the custody of the Children's Services Division, the court shall make no commitment directly to any residential facility, but shall cause the child to be delivered into the custody of the Children's Services Division at the time and place fixed by rules of the division. No child so committed shall be placed in the Oregon State Penitentiary or the Oregon State Correctional Institution or the Oregon Women's Correctional Center.

(C) Uniform commitment blanks, in a form approved by the Assistant Director for Children's Services, shall be used by all courts for placing children in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division.

(D) To insure effective planning for children, the Children's Services Division shall take into consideration recommendations and information provided by the committing court before placement in any facility certified by the Children's Services Division.

(E) Whenever a child who is in need of medical care or other special treatment by reason of his physical or mental condition is placed in the custody of the Children's Services Division by the juvenile court, the division shall prepare a plan for care or treatment within 14 days after assuming custody of the child. The court may indicate in general terms the type of care which it regards as initially appropriate. A copy of the plan, including a time schedule for its implementation, shall be sent to the juvenile court which committed the child to the division. The court may at any time request regular progress reports on implementation of the plan. The division shall notify the court when the plan is implemented, and shall report to the court concerning the progress of the child annually thereafter. If the plan is subsequently revised, the division shall notify the court of the revisions and the reasons therefor.

(F) Commitment of a child to the Children's Services Division does not terminate the court's continuing jurisdiction to protect the rights of the child or his parents or guardians.

(c) If there is an interstate compact or agreement or an informal arrangement with another state permitting the child to reside in another state while on probation or under protective supervision, or to be placed in an institution or with an agency in another state, place the child on probation or under protective supervision in such other state, or, subject to ORS 419.509, place the child in an institution in such other state in accordance with the compact, agreement or arrangement.

(d) In the circumstances set forth in ORS 419.533, remand the child to the appropriate court handling criminal actions, or to municipal court.

(2) As used in subsection (1) of this section:

(a) "Child care center" means a residential facility for the care and supervision of children which meets the certification requirements under ORS 418.225, and is annually certified under the provisions of ORS 418.240.

(b) "Youth care center" has the meaning given it in ORS 420.855.

(3) The juvenile court shall retain wardship and the Children's Services Division shall retain legal custody of the child committed to it regardless of the physical placement of the child by the Children's Services Division.

(4)(a) Pursuant to hearing, the juvenile court may order a child 12 years of age or older placed in a detention facility for children for a specific period of time not to exceed eight days, in addition to time already spent in the facility, when:

(A) The child has been found to be within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court by reason of having committed an act which would be a crime if committed by an adult; or

(B) The child has been placed on formal probation for an act which would be a crime if committed by an adult, and has been found to have violated a condition of that probation.

(b) The juvenile court shall not place a child in a detention facility for children under subsection (1) of this section unless the facility:

(A) Houses children in a room or ward screened from the sight and sound of adults who may be detained in the facility; and

(B) Is staffed by juvenile department employees.

(c) In no case may the court order, pursuant to this section, that a child under 14 years of age be placed in any detention facility in which adults are detained or imprisoned.

[1959 c.432 §17, 1963 c.81 §1, 1965 c.616 §88; 1969 c.679 §1, 1971 c.401 §91; 1971 c.698 §2, 1973 c.495 §1; 1975 c.662 §7, subsection (4) enacted as 1981 c.648 §2]

419.508 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419.509 Limitation on division's authority to place child in certain institutions. (1) A child placed in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division shall be placed in a juvenile training school or in a private institution operated as a training school for children requiring secure custody in the following cases and no other:

(a) The child is found to be within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court by reason of a ground set forth in ORS 419.476 (1)(a); and

(b) The juvenile court having jurisdiction so orders.

(2) No child shall be transferred or returned after discharge to a facility described in subsection (1) of this section, except upon court order under ORS 419.472 to 419.597, 419.800 to 419.840 and 419.990 (2).

(3) Nothing in subsection (2) of this section shall be deemed to prohibit return of a child to a facility described in subsection (1) of this section, in the discretion of the Children's Services Division, if the child has been released from the facility on temporary or indefinite parole, or to prohibit transfer of a child from one such facility to another. [1959 c.432 §18; 1963 c.344 §1; 1969 c.679 §2, 1971 c.105 §1; 1971 c.401 §92; 1971 c.698 §3; 1975 c.718 §3]

419.510 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.511 Probation, protective supervision or institutionalization; special care or treatment; guardianship of child. (1) The duration of any disposition made pursuant to ORS 419.507 (1)(a) to (c) shall be fixed by the court and may be for an indefinite period. Any placement in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division shall be for an indefinite period. However, in cases under ORS 419.476 (1)(a), the period shall not exceed the maximum period of institutionalization or commitment authorized if the act had been committed by an adult. The period of any disposition shall not extend beyond the date on which the child becomes 21 years of age.

(2) The court may, in lieu of or in addition to any disposition under ORS 419.507 (1)(a) to (c), direct that the child be examined or treated by a physician, psychiatrist or psychologist, or receive other special care or treatment and for that purpose may place the child in a hospital or other suitable facility.

(3) When the court grants legal custody to the Children's Services Division, it shall also grant guardianship of the child to the division, to remain in effect solely while the child remains in the legal custody of the division. However, the assistant director of the division may authorize the superintendent of the juvenile training school, as defined in ORS 420.005, in which the child is placed, if any, to exercise the duties and authority of a guardian of the child under ORS 419.521 and to determine parole and final release under ORS 420.045. In all other cases the court may grant guardianship of the child to some suitable person if it appears necessary to do so in the interests of the child or to a private institution or agency to which the child is committed.

(4) Unless guardianship is granted as provided in subsection (3) of this section, the court as an incident of its wardship over the child shall have the duties and authority of the guardian as provided in ORS 419.521 (1).

[1959 c.432 §19; 1963 c.344 §2, 1965 c.616 §89, 1969 c.679 §3; 1971 c.401 §93, 1971 c.571 §1; 1973 c.823 §135]

419.512 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.513 Obligation to support child within court's jurisdiction. (1) The court may, after a hearing on the matter, require the parents or other person legally obligated to support a child found to be within the jurisdiction of the court to pay toward the child's support such amounts at such intervals as the court may direct. The court, in determining the amount to be paid, shall give due regard to the cost of maintaining the child, the financial resources of the parent or other person and the other financial demands on the resources of the parent or other person. Unless otherwise ordered, the amounts so required to be paid shall be paid to the county clerk for transmission to the person, institution or agency having legal custody of the child.

(2) When a child is in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division pursuant to ORS 419.507 (1) to (3) and such child is the beneficiary of an existing order of support in a decree of dissolution or other order and the division is required to provide financial assistance for the care and support of such child, the Children's Services Division shall be assignee of and subrogated to such child's proportionate share of any such support obligation including sums which have accrued whether or not the support or decree provides for separate monthly amounts for the support of each of two or more children or a single monthly gross payment for the benefit of two or more children, up to the amount of assistance provided by the division. [1959 c.432 §20, 1979 c.343 §5]

419.515 Enforcement of order of support. (1) An order of support entered pursuant to ORS 419.513 may be enforced by execution or in the manner provided by law for the enforcement of a judgment granting an equitable remedy.

(2) In addition to the remedies provided in subsection (1) of this section, the court may issue an order to any employer, trustee or financial agency or custodian of the parents, or either of them, or other person legally obligated to support the child, directing that the employer, trustee, agent or custodian withhold and pay over to the court money due or to become due the parent or other person legally obligated to support the child in an amount not in excess of the lesser of the following:

(a) The amount ordered to be paid for the child's support.

(b) One-fourth of the amount due or becoming due the parent or other person at each regular or usual pay day or day of disbursement.

(3) An order pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall be treated in the same manner as a notice of garnishment.

419.520 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

child by reason of appointment by the court has the duties and authority of a guardian of the child, including but not limited to the following:

(a) To authorize surgery for the child, but this authority does not prevent the person having legal custody of the child from acting under ORS 419.519 (4).

(b) To authorize the child to enlist in the Armed Forces.

(c) To consent to the child's marriage.

(d) When the child has been committed under ORS 419.527 (1)(a), to consent to the adoption of the child.

(e) To make other decisions concerning the child of substantial legal significance.

419.523 Termination of parental rights; grounds. (1) The parental rights of the parents of a child within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court as provided in ORS 419.476 (1) may be terminated as provided in this section and ORS 419.525. The rights of one parent may be terminated without affecting the rights of the other parent.

(2) The rights of the parent or parents may be terminated as provided in subsection (1) of this section if the court finds that the parent or parents are unfit by reason of conduct or condition seriously detrimental to the child and integration of the child into the home of the parent or parents is improbable in the foreseeable future due to conduct or conditions not likely to change. In determining such conduct and conditions, the court shall consider but is not limited to the following:

(a) Emotional illness, mental illness or mental deficiency of the parent of such duration as to render it impossible to care for the child for extended periods of time.

(b) Conduct toward any child of an abusive, cruel or sexual nature.

(c) Addictive use of intoxicating liquors or controlled substances.

(d) Physical neglect of the child.

(e) Lack of effort of the parent to adjust the circumstances of the parent, conduct, or conditions to make the return of the child possible or failure of the parent to effect a lasting adjustment after reasonable efforts by available social agencies for such extended duration of time that it appears reasonable that no lasting adjustment can be effected.

(3) The rights of the parent or parents may be terminated as provided in subsection (1) of this section if the court finds that the parent or parents have failed or neglected without reasonable and lawful cause to provide for the basic physical and psychological needs of the child for one year prior to the filing of a petition. In determining such failure or neglect, the court shall consider but is not limited to one or more of the following:

(a) Failure to provide care or pay a reasonable portion of substitute physical care and maintenance if custody is lodged with others.

(b) Failure to maintain regular visitation or other contact with the child which was designed and implemented in a plan to reunite the child with the parent.

(c) Failure to contact or communicate with the child or with the custodian of the child. In making this determination, the court may disregard incidental visitations, communications or contributions.

(4) The rights of the parent or parents may be terminated as provided in subsection (1) of this section if the court finds that the parent or parents have abandoned the child or the child was left under circumstances such that the identity of the parent or parents of the child was unknown and could not be ascertained, despite diligent searching, and the parent or parents have not come forward to claim the child within six months following the finding of the child. [1959 c 432 §26, 1963 c.152 §1, 1973 c.804 §1, 1979 c 744 §21]

419.524 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419.525 Termination of parental rights; procedure. (1) An order pursuant to ORS 419.523 may be made only after service of summons, as provided in ORS 419.488 on the parent or parents. The summons shall contain a statement to the effect that the rights of the parent or parents are proposed to be terminated in the proceeding. The statement may be made in the summons originally issued in the proceeding or in separate summons issued at any subsequent stage of the proceeding.

(2) A hearing shall be held by the court on the question of terminating the rights of the parent or parents. No such hearing shall be held any earlier than 10 days after service or final publication of the summons. The facts on the basis of which the rights of the parents are terminated, unless admitted, must be established by a preponderance of competent evidence and a stenographic or other report authorized by ORS 8.340 shall be taken of the hearing.

(3) Unless there is an appeal from the order terminating the rights of the parent or parents, the order permanently terminates all rights of the parent or parents whose rights are terminated and the parent or parents have no standing to appear as such in any legal proceeding concerning the child. [1959 c.432 §27]

419.527 Court's powers after termination of parental rights; consent to child's adoption. (1) After the entry of an order terminating the rights of the parent or parents of the child, the court may:

(a) Place the child in the legal custody and guardianship of a public or private institution or agency authorized to consent in loco parentis to the adoption of children. An order pursuant to this paragraph is a "permanent commitment" for the purposes of ORS 109.305, 109.310 to 109.330 and 109.345 to 109.390; or

(b) Make any order directing disposition of the child which it is empowered to make under ORS 419.472 to 419.597, 419.800 to 419.840 and 419.990 (2).

(2) If the rights of only one parent have been terminated, the authority to consent to the adoption of the child as provided in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section is effective only with respect to the parent whose rights have been terminated. [1959 c 432 §28]

419.528 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419.529 Court's power to modify or set aside its orders; hearing. (1) Except as provided in this section, the court may modify or set aside any order made by it upon such notice and with such hearing as the court may direct.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, notice and a hearing as provided in ORS 419.486 to 419.505 shall be granted in any case where the effect of modifying or setting aside the order will or may be to deprive a parent of the legal custody of the child, to place the child in an institution or agency or to transfer the child from one institution or agency to another. However, the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to a parent whose rights have been terminated under ORS 419.523 and 419.525 or whose child has been permanently committed by order of the court unless an appeal from such order is pending.

(3) Notice and a hearing as provided in subsection (2) of this section are not required where the effect of modifying or setting aside the order will be to transfer the child from one foster home to another.

(4) No order pursuant to ORS 419.527 (1)(a) may be set aside or modified during the pendency of a proceeding for the adoption of the child, nor after a petition for adoption has been granted. [1959 c.432 §29, 1963 c.496 §2]

419.530 [Renumbered 419.308 and then 418.570]

419.531 Termination of court's wardship over child. The court's wardship over a child brought before it continues until whichever of the following occurs first:

(1) The court dismisses the petition concerning the child or remands the case to the appropriate court handling criminal actions, or to municipal court. If the court has wardship of a child based upon a prior petition, remanding the child to the court handling criminal actions, or to municipal court in connection with a subsequent violation of a law or ordinance relating to the use or operation of a motor vehicle does not terminate the wardship, unless the court so orders.

(2) The court transfers jurisdiction over the child as provided in ORS 419.479, 419.547 or 419.549.

(3) The court by order terminates its wardship.

(4) A decree of adoption of the child is entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(5) The child becomes 21 years of age. [1959 c.432 §30, 1979 c.275 §3]

419.532 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.533 Remanding of child to another court. (1) A child may be remanded to a circuit, district, justice or municipal court of competent jurisdiction for disposition as an adult if:

(a) The child is at the time of the remand 16 years of age or older;

(b) The child committed or is alleged to have committed a criminal offense or a violation of a municipal ordinance; and

(c) The juvenile court determines that retaining jurisdiction will not serve the best interests of the child because the child is not amenable to rehabilitation in facilities or programs available to the court.

(2) The juvenile court shall make a specific, detailed, written finding of fact to support any determination under paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The juvenile court may enter an order directing that all cases involving violation of law or ordinance relating to the use or operation of a motor vehicle, boating laws or game laws be remanded to criminal or municipal court, subject to the following conditions:

(a) That the criminal or municipal court prior to hearing a case, other than a case involving a parking violation, in which the defendant is or appears to be under 18 years of age notify the juvenile court of that fact; and

(b) That the juvenile court may direct that any such case be remanded to the juvenile court for further proceedings.

(4) After the juvenile court has entered an order remanding a child to an adult court for doing an act which is a violation or which if done by an adult would constitute a violation of a law or ordinance of the United States or a state, county or city, the court may enter a subsequent order providing that in all future cases involving the same child, the child shall be remanded to the appropriate court without further proceedings under subsections (1) and (3) of this section except that a finding under subsection (2) of this section must be reviewed and renewed before the case can be remanded.

(5) The juvenile court may at any time direct that the subsequent order entered under subsection (4) of this section shall be vacated or that a pending case be remanded to the juvenile court for further proceedings. The court may make such a direction on any case but shall do so and require a pending case to be remanded to the juvenile court if it cannot support the finding required under subsection (2) of this section. [1959 c.432 §31; 1971 c.199 §3; subsections (3) and (4) enacted as 1971 c.199 §2, 1975 c.596 §1]

419.535 Handling of motor vehicle, boating or game offenses. If the preliminary inquiry pursuant to ORS 419.482 discloses that the child's conduct consists, or is alleged to consist, of a violation of a law or ordinance relating to the use or operation of a motor vehicle, boating laws or game laws and it appears to the court that the nature of the offense and the child's background are such that a proceeding as provided in ORS 419.484 to 419.527 is not warranted, the court may handle the case as provided in ORS 419.537 to 419.541. [1959 c 432 §32, 1971 c 199 §4]

419.536 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419.537 Petition and summons. (1) A petition relating to motor vehicle, boating or games offenses shall be filed as provided in ORS 419.482 and 419.484.

(3) The summons may be served as provided in ORS 419.488 or by mailing a copy thereof to the parent or other person having physical custody of the child. If the summons is served personally, a warrant may be issued as provided in ORS 419.490. [1959 c 432 §33, 1971 c 199 §5]

419.539 Hearing and finding. A hearing shall be held as provided in ORS 419.496 to 419.500. At the termination of the hearing, if the court finds the matters alleged in the petition to be true, it may enter an order finding the child to be a juvenile motor vehicle offender or a boating law offender or a game law offender and may dispose of the case as provided in ORS 419.541 (1) and (2). [1959 c 432 §34, 1971 c 199 §6]

419.540 [Repealed by 1959 c.432 §59]

419.541 Disposition of juvenile offenders. (1) The court may recommend suspension of a child's operator's license or driving permit, and may order the child to attend a traffic school or driver training program operated under auspices of the police, the public schools or other qualified body, where the court finds in a proceeding under ORS 419.484 to 419.527 or a proceeding under ORS 419.535 to 419.539 that the child:

(a) Violated a law or ordinance relating to the privilege of operating a motor vehicle or to the operation of a motor vehicle; or

(b) Operated a motor vehicle in the course of violating a law or ordinance; or

(c) Violated a law or ordinance in the course of attempting to obtain a motor vehicle, motor vehicle parts or accessories or motor vehicle fuel.

(2) The court may recommend suspension of operator's license or permit for a period of up to one year from the date of the recommendation.

(3) In a proceeding under ORS 419.484 to 419.527, the juvenile court may recommend suspension of the child's license or permit and may direct the child to attend traffic or driving school as provided in subsection (1) of this section in addition to or in lieu of any other disposition of the motor vehicle case.

(4) In a proceeding under ORS 419.484 to 419.527, the juvenile court may suspend a hunting or fishing license or permit where a game violation is involved and may make such other recommendations where a boating violation is involved. [1959 c.432 §35, 1971 c 199 §7]

419.546 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419.547 Disposition of transferable case. Where a juvenile court proceeding is pending in a county other than the county in which the child resides and the case is transferable under ORS 419.479 or 419.549, the juvenile court of the county in which the child resides may authorize the court in which the case is pending to proceed with the case in either of the following ways where it will facilitate disposition of the case without adverse effect on the interests of the child:

(1) To hear, determine and dispose of the case in its entirety; or

(2) Prior to transferring the case, to conduct a hearing into the facts alleged to bring the child within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, to determine the facts and to certify its findings to the juvenile court of the county in which the child resides. [1959 c.432 §38, 1979 c 275 §4]

(1) To conduct a hearing into the facts alleged to bring the child within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, to determine the facts and to certify its findings to the court in which the case is pending.

(2) To assume jurisdiction over the case and administer probation or protection supervision of the child, where the court in which the proceeding is pending:

(a) Finds that the child has moved to the other county or orders as part of its disposition of the proceeding that legal custody of the child be given to a person residing in the other county; and

(b) Is advised that the court of the other county will accept jurisdiction of the case. The cost of administering probation or protective supervision of the child shall be paid by the county accepting jurisdiction, unless the transferring and receiving counties otherwise agree. The cost of transporting the child shall be paid by the county transferring jurisdiction, unless the transferring and receiving counties otherwise agree. [1959 c.432 §39]

419.550 [Repealed by 1957 c.413 §2]

Where the juvenile court of one county is authorized by the juvenile court of another county to conduct a hearing into facts as provided in ORS 419.547 (2) or 419.549 (1), the facts so found and certified may be taken as established by the court of the county authorizing the hearing and, if adopted by written order of the latter court, form a part of its record in the case. [1959 c 432 §40]

419.554 [Repealed by 1955 c 491 §9]

419.555 [1959 c.432 §41; repealed by 1979 c.275 §6]

419.556 [Repealed by 1955 c 491 §9]

[1959 c 432 §42; 1965 c 151 §1, 1979 c 275 §5]

419.559 Consolidation of proceedings in juvenile court. Any proceeding in which the juvenile court is given exclusive jurisdiction may be consolidated with any other proceeding where:

(1) Each of the proceedings to be consolidated relate, in whole or in part, to the same child or other person under 18 years of age, or to children or other persons under 18 years of age who have at least one parent in common; and

(2) The proceedings involve the same or related issues of fact; and

(3) The consolidation will not impair any constitutional right of a party to any of the proceedings. [1959 c 432 §43, 1963 c.82 §1]

(1) Except as provided in ORS 419.578, any person whose right or duties are adversely affected by a final order of the juvenile court may appeal therefrom. An appeal from a circuit court shall be taken to the Court of Appeals, and an appeal from a county court shall be taken to the circuit court.

(2) Where the proceeding is in the circuit court, including juvenile court, and no stenographic transcript of the proceedings was kept, the court, on motion made not later than 15 days after the entry of the court's order, shall grant a rehearing and shall direct that a stenographic transcript of the proceedings be kept. However, the court shall not grant a rehearing in a case barred by ORS 419.578 without the consent of the child affected by such case. The time for taking an appeal shall run from the date of the court's order entered after the rehearing.

(3) The appeal may be taken by filing an informal notice of appeal with the clerk of the juvenile court. The notice shall be filed not later than 30 days after the entry of the court's order. On appeal from the county court, the circuit court shall hear the matter de novo and its order shall be appealable to the Court of Appeals in the same manner as if the proceeding had been commenced in the circuit court.

(4) An appeal to the Court of Appeals shall be conducted in the same manner as an appeal in an equity suit and shall be advanced on the court's docket in the same manner as appeals in criminal cases.

(5) Unless otherwise ordered by the appellate court, the filing or pendency of an appeal does not suspend the order of the juvenile court nor shall it discharge the child from the custody of the person, institution or agency in whose custody the child may have been placed; nor shall it preclude the trial court after notice and hearing from entering such further temporary order relating to the child's custody pending final disposition of the appeal as it finds necessary by reason only of matters transpiring subsequent to the order appealed from. Certified copies of any such order shall be filed by the clerk of the juvenile court forthwith with the clerk of the Court of Appeals. [1959 c 432 §44, 1969 c.198 §80; 1973 c 649 §1; 1979 c 588 §3]

(1) If the child, parent or guardian is shown to be without sufficient financial means to employ suitable counsel possessing skills and experience commensurate with the nature and complexity of the case to represent the person in an appeal as provided in ORS 419.561, the court, upon request of the person or upon its own motion, shall appoint suitable counsel to represent the person. Counsel appointed by the court shall be paid compensation determined, as provided in ORS 135.055, by the appellate court.

(2) Where the court appoints counsel to represent the child, it may require the parent, if able, or guardian of the estate, if the estate is able, to pay compensation for counsel and costs and expenses necessary to the appeal. The test of the parent's or estate's ability to pay such compensation, costs and expenses shall be the same test as applied to appointment of counsel for defendants under ORS 135.050. The court's order of payment shall be enforceable in the same manner as an order of support under ORS 419.515.

(3) Where the court appoints counsel and the child, parent or guardian is without sufficient financial means to employ counsel, the compensation for counsel and costs and expenses necessary to the appeal shall be allowed and paid as provided in ORS 138.500.

(1) The clerk of the court shall keep a record of each case, including therein the summons and other process, the petition and all other papers in the nature of pleadings, motions, orders of the court and other papers filed with the court, but excluding reports and other material relating to the child's history and prognosis. The record of the case shall be withheld from public inspection but shall be open to inspection by the child, parent, guardian or surrogate and their attorneys. The attorneys are entitled to copies of the record of the case.

(2) Reports and other material relating to the child's history and prognosis are privileged and, except at the request of the child, shall not be disclosed directly or indirectly to anyone other than the judge of the juvenile court, those acting under the judge's direction and to the attorneys of record for the child or the child's parent, guardian or surrogate. The attorneys are entitled to examine and obtain copies of any reports or other material relating to the child's history and prognosis. Any attorney who examines or obtains copies of such reports or materials shall be responsible for preserving their confidentiality and shall return the copies to the court upon the conclusion of the attorney's involvement in the case.

(3) No information appearing in the record of the case or in reports or other material relating to the child's history or prognosis may be disclosed to any person not described in subsection (2) of this section without the consent of the court, except for purposes of evaluating the child's eligibility for special education as provided in ORS chapter 343, and no such information may be used in evidence in any proceeding to establish criminal or civil liability against the child, whether such proceeding occurs after the child has reached 18 years of age or otherwise, except for the following purposes:

(a) In connection with a presentence investigation after the guilt of the child has been admitted or established in a criminal court.

(b) In connection with a proceeding in another juvenile court concerning the child or an appeal from the juvenile court.

(4) If the court finds that the child or parent is without financial means to purchase all or a necessary part of the transcript of the evidence or proceedings, the court shall order upon motion the transcript or part thereof to be furnished. The transcript or part thereof furnished under this subsection shall be paid for in the same manner as furnished transcripts are paid for in criminal cases.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the name of the juvenile, the basis for the juvenile court's jurisdiction over the juvenile, the date, time and place of any juvenile court proceeding in which the juvenile is involved and that portion of the juvenile court order providing for the legal disposition of the juvenile where jurisdiction is based on ORS 419.476 (1)(a) or (g) shall not be confidential.

[1959 c 432 §46; subsection (4) enacted as 1969 c 274 §2; 1971 c 24 §1, 1979 c.836 §13, 1981 c.524 §1]

(1) The juvenile court of each county shall designate the place or places in the county or at a reasonably short distance outside the county in which children are to be placed in detention or shelter care when taken into temporary custody. A child taken into temporary custody shall be placed in shelter care rather than detention unless the person placing the child in detention has reason to believe that the child will be found to be within the jurisdiction of the court by reason of ORS 419.476 (1)(a) or (f) or the behavior of the child immediately endangers the physical welfare of the child or of another.

(2) No child shall be detained at any time in a police station, jail, prison or other place where adults are detained, except as follows:

(3) Except for a child detained in jail pursuant to a remand to the court handling criminal actions or to a municipal court, children detained in jail as provided in subsection (2) of this section shall be placed in a separate room or ward screened from the sight and sound of the adults being detained therein.

(4) Inspection of juvenile detention facilities, including jails or lockups where juveniles are detained, and enforcement of those juvenile detention standards contained in this section or otherwise established by statute, shall be conducted in the same manner as provided in ORS 169.070 and 169.080. [1959 c 432 §50, 1975 c 718 §1; 1979 c.338 §1, 1981 c 648 §3]

419.576 Reports by agencies having guardianship or legal custody of child; hearing by court to review condition and circumstances of child. (1) Any public or private agency having guardianship or legal custody of a child pursuant to court order shall file reports on the child with the juvenile court which entered the original order concerning the child or, where no such order exists, with the juvenile court of the county of the child's residence in the following circumstances:

(a) Where the child has been placed with the agency as the result of a court order and remains under agency care for six consecutive months except for a child who has been committed to a state juvenile training school; or

(b) Where the child has been surrendered for adoption or the parents' rights have been terminated and the agency has not physically placed the child for adoption or initiated adoption proceedings within six months of receiving the child.

(2) The reports required by subsection (1) of this section shall be filed by the agency at the end of the initial six-month period and annually thereafter. The agency shall file reports more frequently if the court so orders. The reports shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) A description of the problems or offenses which necessitated the placement of the child with the agency;

(b) A description of the type and an analysis of the effectiveness of the care, treatment and supervision that the agency has provided for the child, together with a list of all placements made since the child has been in the guardianship or legal custody of an agency and the length of time the child has spent in each placement;

(c) A description of agency efforts to return the child to the parental home or find permanent placement for the child, including, where applicable, efforts to assist the parents in remedying factors which contributed to the removal of the child from the home;

(d) A proposed treatment plan or proposed continuation or modification of an existing treatment plan, including, where applicable, terms of visitation to be allowed and expected of parents and a description of efforts expected of the child and the parents to remedy factors which have prevented the return of the child to the parental home; and

(e) If continued foster care is recommended, a proposed timetable for the child's return home or other permanent placement or a justification of why extended foster care is necessary.

(3) Notwithstanding the requirements of subsection (2) of this section, annual reports need not contain information contained in prior reports.

(4) Upon receiving any report required by this section, the court may hold a hearing to review the child's condition and circumstances and to determine if the court should continue jurisdiction over the child or order modifications in the care, placement and supervision of the child. The court shall hold a hearing:

(a) In all cases under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section where the parents' rights have been terminated; or

(b) If requested by the child, the attorney for the child, if any, the parents or the public or private agency having guardianship or legal custody of the child within 30 days of receipt of the notice provided in subsection (6) of this section.

(5) The hearing provided in subsection (4) of this section shall be conducted in the manner provided in ORS 419.498, except that the court may receive testimony and reports as provided in ORS 419.500 (2). At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall enter findings of fact if the decision is to continue the child in foster care. Such findings shall specifically state:

(a) Why continued care is necessary as opposed to returning the child to the child's home or prompt action to secure another permanent placement; or

(b) The expected timetable for return or other permanent placement.

(6) Except where a child has been surrendered for adoption or the parents' rights have been terminated, the court shall send a copy of the report required by this section to the parents of the child and shall notify the parents either that a hearing will be held or that the parents may request a hearing at which time they may ask for modifications in the care, treatment and supervision of the child. If the court finds that informing the parents of the identity and location of the foster parents of the child is not in the child's best interest, the court may order such information deleted from the report before sending the report to the parents.

(7) Where a child has been surrendered for adoption and the agency has not physically placed the child for adoption or initiated adoption proceedings within six months of receiving the child, the agency shall file a petition alleging that the child comes within the jurisdiction of the court.

(8) Any decision of the court made pursuant to the hearing provided in subsection (4) of this section shall be a final order for the purposes of ORS 419.561 and 419.563. [1979 c 502 §2, 1981 c 777 §1]

419.577 Disposition of child taken into temporary custody and not released by peace officer; report to court or counselor; release or detention of child by court. (c) Deliver the child to the county in which the child resides as provided in ORS 419.579.

(2) Except where the child is taken into custody pursuant to an order of the court, the peace officer or other person taking the child into custody shall promptly file with the court or a counselor a brief written report stating:

(a) The child's name, age and address; and

(b) The reason why the child was not released.

(3) Pending further disposition of the case, the court may release the child to the custody of a parent or other responsible person or may order that the child remain in detention or shelter care subject to further order. No child shall be held in detention more than 24 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and judicial holidays, except on order of the court nor for more than 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and judicial holidays, except on order of the court made pursuant to a hearing on the matter of detention and upon a finding of probable cause as to the court's jurisdiction. No child shall be held or placed in detention on order of the court, except pursuant to subsection (5), (6), (7), (8) or (9) of this section.

(4) Notice of the hearing required by subsection (3) of this section shall be given to the child and, if any can be found, to a parent or the guardian of the child or to any other person responsible for the child. The notice shall state the time, place and purpose of the hearing. If a parent, the guardian or other person cannot be found and personally notified prior to the hearing, a written notice thereof shall be left at the residence, if known, of a parent, the guardian or other person.

(5) Prior to an adjudication of the merits, the court may order that the child be held or placed in detention only:

(a) When a petition has been filed alleging that the child is within the jurisdiction of the court by reason of ORS 419.476 (1)(a); or

(b) When a petition has been filed alleging that the child is within the jurisdiction of the court by reason of ORS 419.476 (1)(f); or

(c) When the court makes a written finding that the behavior of the child immediately endangers the physical welfare of the child or of another.

(6) (a) Unless otherwise authorized under this subsection, no child shall be detained under paragraph (a) of subsection (5) of this section unless the court determines that no means less restrictive of the child's liberty gives reasonable assurance that the child will attend the adjudicative hearing. The court shall state in writing the basis for its detention determination, and the evidence relied on in reaching that determination. The child shall have the opportunity to rebut evidence received by the court concerning the detention determination and to present evidence on behalf of the child.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection, the court may detain a child if probable cause exists to believe the child committed an act involving serious physical injury to another person, the use of forcible compulsion, the use or threatened immediate use of a deadly or dangerous weapon, or arson in the first degree.

(7) No child shall be detained under paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection (5) of this section for more than 72 hours.

(8) (a) Subsequent to an adjudication of the merits, the court may order that the child be held or placed in detention pending placement only if the child has been found to be within the jurisdiction of the court by reason of a ground set forth in ORS 419.476 (1)(a).

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection, a child who has admitted a petition alleging runaway at an original hearing or a child whose behavior immediately endangers the child's own physical welfare or that of another may be detained pending placement for a period not longer than 72 hours.

(9) Notwithstanding subsections (5) to (8) of this section, the court may order that a child who resides in another state be held or placed in detention if the court has reason to believe the child has run away from home.

(10) Nothing in this section requires separate hearings on the issues of probable cause and detention. [1959 c 432 §51; 1969 c 274 §5, 1975 c 718 §2; 1981 c 887 §1]

Except as provided in ORS 153.585 (1), proceedings in adult criminal court and other juvenile court adjudicatory proceedings based on an act alleged in a petition or citation to have been committed by a child or allegations arising out of the same conduct are barred when the juvenile court judge or referee has begun taking evidence in an adjudicatory hearing or has accepted a child's admission or answer of no contest to the allegations of the petition or citation. This section shall not prevent appeal of any preadjudicatory order of the court which could be appealed in a criminal case, including, but not limited to, an order suppressing evidence. [1979 c 588 §2]

In such event, the person to whom he is delivered shall assume temporary custody of the child and shall proceed as provided in ORS 419.573 to 419.577.

(2) Where a child is released or delivered as provided in subsection (1) of this section, the jurisdiction of the juvenile court of the county in which he resides shall attach from the time the child is taken into custody. [1959 c 432 §52]

A person appointed referee shall be qualified by training and experience in the handling of juvenile matters, shall have such further qualifications as may be prescribed by law and shall hold office as such at the pleasure of the judge. The judge may fix reasonable compensation for the referee, to be paid by the county.

(2) The judge may direct that any case, or all cases of a class designated by him, shall be processed or heard in the first instance by a referee in the manner provided for the hearing of cases by the court. Upon conclusion of the hearing in each case the referee shall transmit to the judge his findings, recommendations or order in writing.

(3) Where the referee conducts a hearing, the child, his parent, guardian or other person appearing on his behalf and the petitioner, shall be notified of the referee's findings, recommendations or order, together with a notice to the effect that a rehearing shall be had before a judge if requested within 10 days. A rehearing before a judge of the juvenile court may be determined on the same evidence introduced before the referee if a stenographic transcript of the proceedings was kept; provided, however, in any case, additional evidence may be presented.

(4) All orders of a referee shall become immediately effective, subject to the right of review provided in this section, and shall continue in full force and effect until vacated or modified upon rehearing by order of a judge of the juvenile court. Any order entered by a referee shall become a final order of the juvenile court upon expiration of 10 days following its entry, unless a rehearing is ordered or requested.

(5) The judge of the juvenile court, or in counties having more than one judge of the juvenile court, the presiding judge of the juvenile court may establish requirements that any or all orders of referees must be expressly approved by a judge of the juvenile court before becoming effective.

(6) A judge of the juvenile court may, on his own motion, order a rehearing of any matter heard before a referee.

(8) All rehearings of matters heard before a referee shall be before a judge of the juvenile court and shall be conducted de novo.

An informal disposition agreement may be entered into when a child has been referred to a county juvenile department, and a juvenile department counselor has probable cause to believe that the child may be found to be within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court for one or more of the acts specified in ORS 419.476 (1)(a), (b) or (f) or 419.476 (1)(c) when the child's own behavior is such as to endanger the child's welfare or the welfare of others. [1979 c.339 §1]

419.635 Nature of agreement; contents; terms. (1) An informal disposition agreement is a voluntary contract between a child described in ORS 419.630 and a juvenile department counselor whereby the child agrees to fulfill certain conditions in exchange for not having a petition filed against the child.

(2) An informal disposition agreement may require restitution to be made for damage or injury, participation in or referral to counseling, a period of community service, drug or alcohol education or treatment, vocational training or any other legal activity which in the opinion of the counselor would be beneficial to the child. [1979 c 339 §2]

petition with the juvenile court, and an adjudicatory hearing may be held. [1979 c.339 §4]

419.650 Modifying agreement in lieu of revocation. Notwithstanding the provisions of ORS 419.645, if the juvenile department counselor has reasonable cause to believe that the child has failed to carry out the terms of the informal disposition agreement or has committed a subsequent offense, in lieu of revoking the agreement, the counselor may modify the terms of the agreement and extend the period of the agreement for an additional six months from the date on which the modification was made with the consent of the child and the child's counsel, if any.
