GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

497.002 "Resident" and "nonresident" defined. Except as provided in ORS 497.006, as used in this chapter:

(1) "Resident" means a person who has resided in this state at least six consecutive months immediately prior to the date of making application for a license, tag or permit issued by the commission. Temporary absence from the state for a purpose other than establishing residency outside the state shall not be considered in determining whether a person meets the residency requirements of this subsection.

(2) "Nonresident" means any person other than a resident [1973 c 723 §41]

497.006 Certain persons as residents for licensing purposes. (1) The following persons shall be considered resident persons for the purpose of purchasing licenses, tags and permits issued by the commission:

(a) Members of the Armed Forces of the United States who furnish to the commission evidence satisfactory to the commission that the person is permanently assigned to active duty in this state.

(b) Aliens who furnish to the commission evidence satisfactory to the commission that the person is attending a school in this state pursuant to a foreign student exchange program.

(2) A person who furnishes to the commission evidence satisfactory to the commission that the person is enrolled in this state in the job corps or a work-training program under the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 (42 USC §§2701 to 2749), shall be considered a resident for the purpose of obtaining an angling license [1973 c 723 §42]

497.010 [Repealed by 1973 c 723 §130]

497.012 Validity of licenses on Snake River. (1) Angling, hunting or trapping in the waters of the Snake River or on the islands of the Snake River, where the river forms the boundary line between the State of Oregon and the State of Idaho, by a holder of either a valid Oregon or Idaho license therefor in accordance with the laws and rules of the respective states is lawful.

(2) Nothing in this section is intended to authorize:

(a) The holder of an Oregon license to angle, hunt or trap on the shoreline, sloughs or tributaries on the Idaho side of the Snake River.

(b) The holder of an Idaho license to angle, hunt or trap on the shoreline, sloughs or tributaries on the Oregon side of the Snake River. [1973 c 723 §43]

497.015 [1971 c 530 §2; repealed by 1973 c 723 §130]

497.016 Term of licenses, tags and permits. Unless otherwise provided by law, all licenses, tags and permits issued by the commission shall be valid for such period of time as the commission prescribes. [1973 c 723 §44, 1981 c 445 §1]

497.020 [Repealed by 1973 c 723 §130]

497.022 Issuance of licenses, tags or permits by commission agents; fees. (1) The commission may appoint agents to issue any of the licenses, tags or permits the commission is authorized by law to issue. The commission shall prescribe the procedure for the issuance of such licenses, tags and permits. Agents of the commission shall issue licenses, tags and permits in accordance with the prescribed procedure and shall charge and collect the fees prescribed by law therefor.

(2) In addition to the fees prescribed by law for the issuance of a license, tag or permit, the issuing agent shall charge and collect 50 cents for each license, tag or permit. If the agent is a county clerk, the agent shall deposit such additional fees in the general fund of the county for which the agent is the clerk. Agents other than county clerks may retain such additional fees for their license, tag or permit issuance service.

(3) If the commission finds that an agent appointed pursuant to this section has violated any of the provisions of law or the procedures prescribed by the commission for the issuance of licenses, tags or permits or the collection and disposition of fees therefrom, the commission may revoke the authority of the agent to issue licenses, tags and permits, or may suspend such authority for such time as the commission considers appropriate. [1973 c 723 §45; 1975 c.183 §1, 1981 c.445 §2]

497.026 Disposition of funds by license agents. (1) Any agent appointed by the commission to issue licenses, tags or permits shall forward to the commission, on or before the 10th day of each month, all moneys belonging to the state accruing from the issuance of licenses, tags and permits during the preceding month.

(2) No agent appointed by the commission to issue licenses, tags or permits shall fail to remit to the commission moneys received from the issuance of licenses, tags and permits in the manner required by this section. [1973 c 723 §46, 1975 c 85 §1]

497.030 [Repealed by 1973 c 723 §130]

497.032 Duplicate licenses, tags and permits; fee. If a license, tag or permit issued by the commission is lost, destroyed or stolen, the holder thereof may submit to the commission a certificate stating that the license, tag or permit has been lost, stolen or destroyed, together with a fee of $1 for each such license, tag or permit. Upon receipt of the certificate and appropriate fees, the commission shall issue to the person a duplicate license, tag or permit that may be used in lieu of the lost, destroyed or stolen licenses, tags or permits. [1973 c 723 §47, 1981 c 445 §3]

497.036 Inspection of licenses, tags, permits and wildlife. The holder of any license, tag or permit to guide, angle, hunt or trap must consent to the inspection of any such license, tag or permit and any wildlife taken pursuant to such license, tag or permit:

(1) By any employe of the commission or any person authorized to enforce the wildlife laws.

(2) By the owner, or the agent of the owner, of any land upon which the license, tag or permit holder is guiding, angling, hunting or trapping. [1973 c 723 §48, 1981 c 445 §4]

497.040 [Amended by 1959 c 272 §1, repealed by 1973 c 723 §130]

497.050 [Amended by 1967 c 523 §7, repealed by 1973 c 723 §130]

497.060 [Repealed by 1973 c 723 §130]

497.070 [Repealed by 1959 c 341 §2]

LICENSE, TAG AND PERMIT REQUIREMENTS AND FEES

497.071 Dedication of certain license, tag and permit fee increases. The Legislative Assembly finds it imperative that the wildlife resources of the State of Oregon be augmented to a level sufficient to provide Oregonians the recreational benefits of hunting and angling, an abundance of wildlife, and the reasonable expectation that their efforts will result in the taking of game or fish. The intent of this legislation is to provide adequate revenue to the State Fish and Wildlife Commission whereby game mammal herds and game fish populations may be increased for the benefit of Oregon hunters and anglers. Concomitant with the purposes for which the Legislative Assembly approves this legislation, the State Fish and Wildlife Commission is directed to expend the revenues created by this section and ORS 497.102 to 497.132 in achieving wildlife management objectives including, but not limited to the following:

(1) Habitat management.

(2) Predator control.

(3) Replenishment of fish and game populations.

(4) Reduction of the anadromous bag limit.

(5) Adjustment of seasons and deadlines to protect returning anadromous adults.

(6) Supplemental wildlife feeding.

(7) Protection of game mammals and game birds with characteristics of high reproductive potential.

(8) Enforcement of closings necessitated by herd or population depletion.

(9) Expansion of the road and access closure program when necessary to reduce hunting pressure in specific areas. [1975 c 454 §1]

497.072 [1955 c 216 §1, repealed by 1959 c 341 §2]

497.075 General license, tag and permit requirements; exemptions. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2), (3) and (4) of this section, no person shall angle for, hunt or trap, or assist another in angling for, hunting or trapping, any wildlife unless he has in his possession such valid licenses, tags and permits therefor as the commission issues.

(2) An angling license is not required:

(a) Of a person to angle for any fish that is not a game fish.

(b) Of a person younger than 14 years of age. However, each such person who angles for salmon or steelhead trout must have in his possession a valid salmon-steelhead tag while so angling.

(c) Of a resident person to angle on his own land. However, each such person who angles for salmon or steelhead trout must have in his possession a valid salmon-steelhead tag while so angling.

(d) Of a resident person to angle on land owned by a member of his immediate family and upon which he resides. However, each such person who angles for salmon or steelhead trout must have in his possession a valid salmon-steelhead tag while so angling.

(3) A hunting license is not required:

(a) Of a person younger than 14 years of age to hunt wildlife, except those species for which a tag or permit is required by the wildlife laws or by any rule promulgated pursuant thereto.

(b) Of a resident person to hunt wildlife, except those species of wildlife for which a tag or permit is required by the wildlife laws or by any rule promulgated pursuant thereto, on land upon which he resides and is owned by him or a member of his immediate family.

(c) Of a person who holds a valid trapping license to take, by any means involving the use of a weapon, fur-bearing mammals during authorized trapping seasons or predators.

(d) Of a person to take wildlife pursuant to ORS 498.012, notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection.

(4) A trapping license is not required:

(a) Of a resident person to trap fur-bearing mammals or predators, except those species for which a tag or permit is required by the wildlife laws or any rule promulgated pursuant thereto, on land upon which he resides and is owned by him or a member of his immediate family.

(b) Of a person younger than 14 years of age to trap fur-bearing mammals or predators, except those species for which a tag or permit is required by the wildlife laws or by any rule promulgated pursuant thereto.

(c) Of a person to trap wildlife that is not protected by the wildlife laws or the laws of the United States. [1973 c 723 §49, 1975 c 214 §1]

497.080 [Repealed by 1973 c 723 §130]

497.090 [Repealed by 1965 c 295 §3]

497.100 [1959 c 692 §§2, 3(1), (3), 1961 c 536 §2, 1971 c 446 §5, repealed by 1973 c 723 §130]

497.102 Hunting license and permit fees. (1) The commission is authorized to issue, upon application, to persons desiring to hunt wildlife the following licenses and permits and shall charge therefor the following fees:

(a) Resident annual hunting license to hunt wildlife, $8.

(b) Nonresident annual hunting license to hunt wildlife, $75.

(c) Nonresident annual hunting license to hunt game birds only, $50.

(d) Resident annual juvenile hunting license for persons 14 through 17 years of age to hunt wildlife except those species for which a game mammal tag or permit is required by the wildlife laws or by any rule promulgated pursuant thereto, $2.

(e) Resident pioneer hunting license to hunt wildlife for persons 65 years of age or older who have resided in the state for not less than 50 years prior to the date of application, $1.

(f) Resident senior citizen hunting license to hunt wildlife for persons 70 years of age or older who have resided in the state for not less than five years prior to the date of application, free.

(g) Resident disabled war veteran hunting license to hunt wildlife for persons who have resided in the state for not less than one year immediately prior to the date of application and who file with the commission written proof that the last official certification of record by the United States Veterans Administration or any branch of the Armed Forces of the United States shows the person to be at least 25 percent disabled, free.

(h) Annual private hunting preserve permit to hunt privately owned hunting preserve game birds, $3.

(i) Resident annual hunting license to hunt fur-bearing mammals, $5.

(j) Nonresident annual hunting license to hunt fur-bearing mammals, $75

(2) The hunting preserve permit referred to in paragraph (h) of subsection (1) of this section is in lieu of the hunting licenses required by the wildlife laws.

(3) The license to hunt fur-bearing mammals referred to in paragraphs (i) and (j) of subsection (1) of this section is in addition to and not in lieu of the hunting license required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of this section. [1973 c 723 §50, 1975 c 454 §2, 1979 c 218 §1, 1979 c 377 §1a, 1979 c 774 §2c, 1981 c 445 §5]

497.110 [Amended by 1955 c 358 §1, 1967 c 278 §1, 1971 c 446 §6, repealed by 1973 c 723 §130]

497.112 Hunting tag fees and restrictions. (1) The commission is authorized to issue, upon application, to persons desiring to hunt wildlife the following tags and shall charge therefor the following fees

(a) Resident annual elk tag to hunt elk, $15.

(b) Nonresident annual elk tag to hunt elk, $105.

(c) Special annual elk tag for holders of pioneer or disabled veteran hunting licenses to hunt elk, $2.50.

(h) Resident annual mountain sheep tag to hunt mountain sheep, $25.

(i) Resident annual mountain goat tag to hunt mountain goat, $35.

(j) Resident annual cougar tag to hunt cougar, $20.

(k) Nonresident annual cougar tag to hunt cougar, $150.

(L) Resident annual antelope tag to hunt antelope, $10.

(m) Nonresident annual antelope tag to hunt antelope, $125.

(2) The tags referred to in subsection (1) of this section are in addition to and not in lieu of the hunting licenses required by law.

(3) The commission may, at the time of issue only, indorse upon the tags referred to in subsection (1) of this section an appropriate designation indicating whether it is for a game animal to be taken with bow and arrow or with firearms, at the choice of the applicant. The commission may prescribe by rule that the holder of such a tag shall not be authorized to take the game animal by any other means than the tag so indorsed.

(4) A person who is a nonresident is not eligible to obtain a tag to hunt mountain sheep or mountain goat. A person is not eligible to obtain, in a lifetime, more than one tag issued by the commission to hunt mountain sheep and one tag issued by the commission to hunt mountain goat. [1973 c.723 §53; 1975 c.454 §3, 1975 c.487 §1a, 1979 c.715 §1, 1981 c.445 §6]

Sec. 4. (1) An individual who desires to obtain an ocean charter vessel license shall make written application therefor to the commission. The application shall include a full description of the vessel the applicant proposes to use for ocean charter activities and a copy of all licenses and other documentation required by the United States Coast Guard for ocean use of the vessel

(2) The fee for an ocean charter vessel license is:

(a) For vessels owned by residents of this state, $25

(b) For vessels owned by persons who reside in a state that requires Oregon residents to pay a license fee in excess of $100 to operate an ocean charter vessel in that state such fee in excess of $100 as is charged Oregon residents to operate an ocean charter vessel in the state where the nonresident applicant resides

(c) For all vessels owned by nonresidents other than those described in paragraph (b) of this subsection, $100

(3) Notwithstanding ORS 497 400, a license issued pursuant to this section is transferable to a replacement vessel of the license holder and is transferable to the purchaser of the vessel when the vessel is sold

Sec. 5. (1) There is established the Ocean Charter Vessel Advisory Committee. The committee shall consist of five members appointed by the commission after consultation with the ocean charter vessel industry. The term of a member of the committee is four years

(2) A member of the committee shall receive no compensation for services as a member

(3) The committee shall select such officers, for such terms and with such duties as the committee considers necessary for the performance of those offices

(4) The committee shall meet at such times and places as may be determined by the chairperson or by a majority of the members of the committee

Sec. 6. Notwithstanding the term of office specified in section 5 of this 1979 Act, of the members first appointed to the Ocean Charter Vessel Advisory Committee

(1) Two members shall serve for terms of four years from the date of appointment

(2) Two members shall serve for terms of three years from the date of appointment

(3) One member shall serve for a term of two years from the date of appointment

Sec. 7. The duty of the Ocean Charter Vessel Advisory Committee is to act in an advisory capacity to the commission on all matters affecting ocean charter vessel activities. Such matters include advice on the administration of any regulatory plan to limit the number of ocean charter vessels authorized to operate that may be required by or pursuant to the laws of this state or of the United States

Sec. 8. (1) No ocean charter vessel operator shall take any person as a passenger without first determining that the person has the required licenses for ocean angling

(2) Every ocean charter vessel operator shall make every reasonable effort to prevent passengers on the vessel from violating any of the provisions of the wildlife laws

(3) No ocean charter vessel operator, or employe of the operator, shall angle for any vessel passenger. No person shall knowingly accept from an ocean charter vessel operator, or the operator's employe, any fish unlawfully taken by the operator, or the operator's employe

(4) An ocean charter vessel operator is responsible for the acts or omissions of the operator's employes acting within the scope of their employment

Sec. 9. When an individual who holds an ocean charter vessel license is convicted of a violation of any of the wildlife laws or rules or forfeits bail in connection with such a violation, committed while on the vessel, the commission may revoke the individual's ocean charter vessel license for the remainder of the license year and may refuse issuance of an ocean charter vessel license to that individual for a period not to exceed one year from the date of the conviction or bail forfeiture

Sec. 10. This Act takes effect January 1, 1980

Sec. 11. This Act is repealed January 1, 1988

497.208 [Formerly 497 760, repealed by 1979 c 615 §4]

Note: 497 208 is repealed effective July 1, 1982. See section 4, chapter 615, Oregon Laws 1979 497 208 (1979 Replacement Part) is set forth for the users' convenience

497.208. (1) No person shall act as a guide for any person without first determining that such person has the proper licenses for the trapping, hunting or angling he expects to do

(2) Every guide, or his employe, shall use every reasonable effort to prevent any guided person from violating any of the provisions of the wildlife laws

(3) No guide, or his employe, shall angle for, hunt or trap any wildlife for any guided person or party, but any guide holding the licenses, tags and permits required by law may angle for, hunt or trap wildlife for his personal use in accordance with the provisions of the wildlife laws and rules promulgated pursuant thereto. No person shall knowingly accept from a guide, or his employe, any wildlife unlawfully taken by the guide, or his employe

(4) No licensed guide shall fail to report to the commission any violations of the wildlife laws and rules promulgated pursuant thereto

(5) A guide is responsible for the acts or omissions of his employes acting within the scope of their employment [Formerly 497 760, repealed by 1979 c 615 §4]

(1) No person shall engage in the business of operating a private hunting preserve for the hunting of privately owned or propagated game birds unless he first obtains from the commission a private hunting preserve license.

(2) The commission shall issue a private hunting preserve license to an applicant therefor if the commission finds that the operation of the preserve will meet the following requirements:

(a) The preserve contains not more than 640 acres and is on one continuous tract of land owned by the applicant or leased by him for a period of at least five years.

(b) The preserve is located at least three miles from any other licensed private hunting preserve.

(c) No portion of the preserve is located closer than one-half mile to any park, wilderness area, refuge or wildlife management area operated by any agency of the state or Federal Government.

(d) The exterior boundaries of the preserve are clearly marked in such manner as the commission prescribes.

(e) The preserve has facilities to propagate or hold not less than 500 of each wildlife species to be released for hunting.

(f) The applicant will not prevent or attempt to prevent public hunting on lands adjacent to the preserve.

(3) The commission, by rule, shall prescribe the time, manner and place of hunting on private preserves, the wildlife species to be hunted, requirements for the care and marking of wildlife raised on the preserve, the release of wildlife received from another state, the procedures for marking indigenous wildlife incidentally taken on the preserve and the fees therefor, and record keeping and reporting procedures.

(4) No person shall hunt on a private hunting preserve unless he first obtains from the commission a hunting license or a private hunting preserve permit. [1973 c 723 §63]

497.250 [Amended by 1959 c 692 §11, repealed by 1973 c 723 §130]

497.290 [Amended by 1971 c 658 §25, repealed by 1973 c 723 §130]

SPECIAL PERMITS

497.298 Scientific taking permit. (1) Any person desiring to take wildlife for scientific purposes shall first obtain from the commission a scientific taking permit. The commission, by rule, shall prescribe a procedure for applying for permits and the form thereof, and shall prescribe the terms and conditions of taking wildlife under the permit to insure that wildlife taken pursuant to the permit will be used only for scientific purposes.

(2) No person who holds a scientific taking permit shall violate any of the terms or conditions of the permit.

(3) As used in this section, "scientific purposes" means the study or examination of wildlife for the acquisition of knowledge thereof. [1973 c 723 §65]

497.308 Wildlife holding and habitat removal permits. (1) No person shall remove from its natural habitat or acquire and hold in captivity any live wildlife in violation of the wildlife laws or of any rule promulgated pursuant thereto.

(2) The commission may promulgate rules to carry out the provisions of subsection (1) of this section that include but are not limited to:

(a) Providing for the issuance and form of permits for the holding or removal from habitat of wildlife.

(b) Prescribing the wildlife species for which holding or habitat removal permits are required.

(c) Prescribing the terms and conditions of holding wildlife and removing wildlife from habitat to insure the humane care and treatment of the wildlife.

(3) No person to whom a wildlife holding or removal from habitat permit has been issued shall violate any of the terms or conditions thereof. [1973 c 723 §66]

497.312 Special restrictions on holding coyotes. (1) Any rules promulgated by the commission pursuant to ORS 497.308 that authorize the acquisition and holding in captivity of a coyote must require, among other matters.

(a) That the holder of the permit obtain for the animal rabies inoculations;

(b) That the animal must at all times wear an identification tag issued by the commission;

(c) That the holder of the permit notify the commission upon the death or the sale, transfer, removal from the state or other disposition of the animal;

(d) That the holder of the permit not abandon the animal; and

(e) That the holder of the permit cause the animal to be neutered.

(2) The holder of a permit referred to in subsection (1) of this section is subject to the same liability and other requirements of ORS 609.140 to 609.190 as provided for dogs.

(3) The holder of any permit referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall at all times be able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the commission that he has physical custody of the animal or evidence of the death or other disposition of the animal in compliance with the provisions of this section and ORS 497.308.

(4) Nothing in this section or in ORS 497.308 authorizes the acquisition and holding in captivity of any coyote not held in captivity at the State Fish and Wildlife Facility at Pendleton before September 10, 1976, or held pursuant to a scientific taking permit issued pursuant to ORS 497.298. [1977 c 247 §2]

497.318 Revocation of scientific taking or wildlife holding and habitat removal permits. In accordance with any applicable provision of ORS 183.310 to 183.550, the commission may revoke a permit issued pursuant to ORS 497.298 or 497.308 if the commission determines that the holder of the permit has violated any of the terms or conditions thereof. Revocation of a permit is in addition to and not in lieu of any other penalty provided by law for violation of the terms or conditions of the permit. [1973 c 723 §67]

JUVENILE RESTRICTIONS

497.350 Hunting restriction, generally. (1) No person younger than 12 years of age shall hunt antelope, black bear, cougar, deer, elk, mountain goat, mountain sheep or moose.

(2) No person younger than 14 years of age shall hunt with a firearm or bow and arrow unless he is accompanied by an adult, or is hunting on land owned by his parent or legal guardian. [1973 c.723 §68]

497.360 Hunter safety certificate; training program. (1) No person younger than 18 years of age shall hunt wildlife, except on his own land or land owned by his parent or legal guardian, unless he has in his possession a certificate, issued by the commission or by an agency of another state, stating that the person has satisfactorily completed a course prescribed or approved by the commission in the safe handling of lawful hunting weapons.

(2) The commission, by rule, shall prescribe and administer a hunter safety training program to provide instruction in the safe handling of lawful hunting weapons. The program may also include instruction on wildlife and natural resource conservation, first aid and survival and such other subjects as the commission considers desirable to promote good outdoor conduct and respect for the rights and property of others. The commission may cooperate and enter into agreements with other public or private agencies and individuals in carrying out the provisions of this subsection. The Department of State Police and the Department of Education are directed to cooperate with the commission in carrying out the provisions of this section. [1973 c 723 §69]

LICENSE VIOLATIONS AND PENALTIES

497.400 Prohibitions. No person shall.

(1) Apply for, obtain or possess for personal use or for the use of any other person more licenses, tags or permits issued by the commission than are authorized for personal use during the current year by the wildlife laws and rules promulgated pursuant thereto.

(2) Alter, borrow, loan or transfer to another person any license, tag or permit issued by the commission.

(3) In applying for a license, tag or permit issued by the commission, knowingly make any false statement of any information required by the application regarding the person in whose name the license, tag or permit is to be issued.

(4) Possess any license, tag or permit that has been altered, borrowed, loaned or transferred or for which any false statements were knowingly made in applying therefor.

(5) Apply for or obtain any license, tag or permit issued by the commission when civil damages due pursuant to ORS 496.705 have not been paid. [1973 c 723 §70, 1981 c 108 §2]

497.410 [Amended by 1959 c 692 §12, 1971 c 446 §8, repealed by 1973 c 723 §130]

497.415 Revocation or denial of licenses, tags and permits for wildlife law violations or certain bail forfeitures in connection therewith. (1) Except as provided in ORS 497.425 and 497.435, when any person is convicted of a violation of law or any rule promulgated pursuant thereto, or forfeits bail in connection with such violation as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the court in which such person is convicted or in which bail is forfeited may order the commission to revoke such of the licenses, tags and permits issued to that person pursuant to the wildlife laws as the court considers appropriate. Revocation of licenses, tags and permits is in addition to and not in lieu of other penalties provided by law.

(2) The license, tag and permit revocation provisions of subsection (1) of this section apply to the following persons:

(a) Any person who is convicted of a violation of the wildlife laws, or any rule promulgated pursuant thereto, or who forfeits bail in connection with any such offense when bail has been set in the amount of $50 or more.

(b) Any person who is convicted of a violation of ORS 164.245, 164.255, 164.265, 164.345, 164.354 or 164.365 committed while the person was angling, hunting or trapping, or who forfeits bail in connection with any such offense when bail has been set in the amount of $50 or more.

(c) Any person who is convicted of a violation of ORS 166.630 or 166.638 committed while hunting, or who forfeits bail in connection with any such offense when bail has been set in the amount of $50 or more.

(3) When a court orders the revocation of a license, tag or permit pursuant to this section, ORS 497.425 or 497.435, the court shall take up any such licenses, tags and permits and forward them, together with a copy of the revocation order, to the commission. Upon receipt thereof, the commission shall cause revocation of the appropriate licenses, tags and permits in accordance with the court order.

(4) No person who has had a license, tag or permit revoked pursuant to this section or ORS 497.425 for the first time shall apply for or obtain another such license, tag or permit for the period of 24 months from the date the court ordered the revocation. Upon having a license, tag or permit revoked for a second time pursuant to this section or ORS 497.425, no person shall apply for or obtain another such license, tag or permit for the period of three years. Upon having a license, tag or permit revoked for a third or subsequent time pursuant to this section or ORS 497.425, no person shall apply for or obtain another such license, tag or permit for the period of five years.

(5) If a person convicted of conduct described in subsection (2) of this section does not possess at the time of conviction those licenses, tags and permits issued pursuant to the wildlife laws that the court would have revoked pursuant to this section, the court shall specify by order those licenses, tags and permits that would have been revoked and shall forward a copy of the order to the commission. No person who is the subject of such a court order shall apply for, possess or obtain another such license, tag or permit for the period of 24 months from the date of the order. Upon being the subject of a court order under this subsection for a second time, no person shall apply for or obtain another such license, tag or permit for the period of three years. Upon being the subject of a court order under this subsection for a third or subsequent time, no person shall apply for or obtain another such license, tag or permit for the period of five years.
