A limited license may be suspended or revoked, or the licensee may be reprimanded, by the commissioner on the grounds set out in ORS 696.301. The form of this agreement is subject to the approval of the commissioner. Signed copies of such agreement shall be filed with the broker, organization or other appraiser involved and with the commissioner.

(b) Upon the filing of such agreement, surrender of the individual real estate appraiser's license and payment of the prescribed fee, the commissioner shall issue to such appraiser a license which shall designate such appraiser as being licensed as a real estate appraiser to act on behalf of the broker, organization or other appraiser.

(c) If such agreement is terminated, evidence of the termination shall be filed with such broker, organization or other appraiser and the commissioner which shall entitle the real estate appraiser to reapply for an individual license or to enter into such agreement with another broker, organization or appraiser. So far as applicable the provisions of this chapter relating to real estate brokers shall apply to a real estate appraiser.

(5) Upon written application, the commissioner may issue a written waiver of license to any person, as to the real estate appraisal activity of such person in the State of Oregon done in order to give an opinion concerning taxation in any administrative hearing or court proceeding. The form of this agreement is subject to the approval of the commissioner. The real estate broker shall file signed copies of the agreement with the other broker or the organization and with the commissioner. Before an associate broker's license may be issued, the applicant must also surrender to the commissioner for inactivation the applicant's license as a real estate broker. The license shall remain inactive as long as the associate broker's license is outstanding and effective, and shall be reissued upon inactivation of the associate broker's license and compliance with the other provisions of ORS 696.010 to 696.495 and 696.710 to 696.730 relating to brokers.

696.174 License renewal date; effect of failure to make timely renewal; continued education required. (1) Each license as a real estate broker, or real estate salesperson may be renewed by the commissioner upon the payment by the licensee of the registration or renewal fee specified in ORS 696.270, with a complete renewal application and evidence of completion of educational requirements as provided in subsection (4) of this section. The completed application, fee, and evidence of educational requirements shall be delivered to the commissioner on or before the expiration date of the license.

(2) If the licensee fails to renew the license in the manner set forth in subsection (1) of this section on or before the expiration date of the license, the commissioner may accept a late payment, subject to such conditions as the commissioner may require. However, during the period beginning on the day following the expiration date of the license and ending on the date of renewal of the license the rights of the licensee under such license and the rights of each associate broker and salesperson engaged by the licensee shall be suspended, and during such suspension it is unlawful for any of such licensees to do or attempt or offer to engage in any professional real estate activity.

(3) The license of an associate broker or salesperson suspended as provided for in subsection (2) of this section may be reissued to the same broker or a new broker without fee if reissued during the same license period in which it was granted and on receipt of the associate broker's or salesperson's original license.

(4) To qualify an active license for renewal, the real estate licensee must present evidence of attendance during the preceding two license years of 24 clock-hours of real estate oriented educational sessions approved by the Real Estate Division. The division shall maintain a list of approved sessions. The commissioner may waive these requirements for any licensee who submits satisfactory evidence of inability to attend such sessions because of health or other circumstances beyond the licensee's control. [1969 c 674 §11, 1973 c 416 §6; 1977 c 649 §25; 1981 c 617 §9]

(2) The place of business shall be specified in the application for license, and designated in the license. No license issued under ORS 696.010 to 696.490 and 696.710 to 696.730 authorizes the licensee to transact business from any office other than that designated in the license, unless notice in writing is given to the commissioner prior to any such change of business location, designating the new location of such office, at which time the broker shall send in the broker's license and the licenses of the licensee agents with the fee required by ORS 696.270 for each new license. The commissioner forthwith shall issue a new license for the new location for the unexpired period. The change of a business location without notification to the commissioner is grounds for revocation of licenses previously issued.

(3) If a broker desires to establish one or more branch offices, the broker shall notify the commissioner, giving the location thereof, and pay the fee required by ORS 696.270 for each branch office to be established, whereupon the commissioner may issue a license therefor. Branch office signs shall conform with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section and the designation "Branch Office" shall be included. Each office, whether main or branch, shall be under the management of a licensee in the broker category as specified in ORS 696.025 who shall conduct and supervise the business of the office. A broker may conduct and supervise the business of more than one office, whether main or branch. The license of an associate real estate broker managing an office shall state that the broker is associated with or the agent of, as the case may be, the broker licensed to establish the office. Salespersons who were authorized to and were managing a "Branch Office" for a broker on October 5, 1973, may continue such management.

Before the broker returns the license of a salesperson to the commissioner he shall make a reasonable attempt to give the salesperson notice of his intent to do so.

The license of a salesperson becomes inactive as provided in ORS 696.224 (1).

(2) While his license is being held by the commissioner as an inactive license, the licensee shall not engage in, or carry on, or advertise or hold himself out as engaging in professional real estate activity within this state.

696.255 Nonresident license equivalent to appointment of commissioner as agent for service of process; service on commissioner. (1) The acceptance by a nonresident of a real estate license, whether or not issued under ORS 696.250, shall be considered equivalent to an appointment by the nonresident of the commissioner as the nonresident licensee's true and lawful attorney, upon whom may be served any lawful summons, process or pleading in any action or suit against the nonresident licensee in any court of this state, arising out of any business done by the nonresident licensee as a real estate licensee in this state. The acceptance shall be considered equivalent to an agreement by the nonresident licensee that any summons, process or pleading so served shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served on the nonresident licensee personally in this state.

(2) If it appears by the certificate of the sheriff of the county in which an action or suit has been filed against a nonresident licensee, that the defendant cannot be found in this state, service of any summons, process or pleading in the action or suit may be made by leaving a copy thereof, with a fee of $2, in the hands of the commissioner or in the commissioner's office. Such service shall be sufficient and valid personal service upon the defendant; provided that:

(a) Notice of the service and copy of the summons, process or pleading is sent forthwith by registered mail by the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney to the defendant, at the most recent address furnished to the commissioner by the nonresident licensee or to the nonresident licensee's last-known address; and

(b) The affidavit of the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney of the mailing is appended to the summons, process or pleading and entered as a part of the return thereof.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, personal service outside of the state in accordance with the statutes relating to personal service of summons outside of the state shall relieve the plaintiff from the mailing requirement under this section.

(4) Any summons served as provided in this section shall require the defendant to appear and answer the complaint within four weeks after receipt thereof by the commissioner.

(5) The fee of $2 paid by the plaintiff to the commissioner shall be taxed as costs in favor of the plaintiff if the plaintiff prevails in the action.

(6) The commissioner shall keep a record of each summons, process or pleading served upon the commissioner under this section, showing the day and hour of service. [1981 c 617 §12a]

However, a licensed real estate broker may pay a finder's fee or a share of the commission on a cooperative sale where such payment is made to a licensed real estate broker in another state provided that the state in which that broker is licensed has a law permitting real estate brokers to cooperate with real estate brokers in this state and that such nonresident real estate broker does not conduct in this state any of the negotiations for which a fee, compensation or commission is paid. No real estate salesperson or associate real estate broker shall be engaged by, or accept compensation from, any person other than the real estate broker under whom the salesperson or associate broker is licensed at the time, and no real estate broker shall make payment to the salesperson or associate broker of another real estate broker except through the real estate broker with whom such real estate salesperson or associate broker is licensed. Nothing in this section prevents payment of a commission or fee earned by such real estate salesperson or associate broker while licensed, because of change of affiliation or inactivation of the salesperson's or associate broker's license.

696.310 Intracompany supervision and control; effect of revocation on licensed associates. (1) All designated real estate brokers of a real estate organization shall have equal supervisory control over and shall be equally responsible for the conduct of other designated real estate brokers, or the associate real estate brokers or real estate salespersons licensed with such real estate organization, or other employees employed by such real estate organization.

(2) The real estate organization may, by appropriate internal action or agreement, provide for the management and control over the activities of the real estate organization and delegate the area of management functions or responsibilities as among the designated brokers of such real estate organization.

(3) An act constituting a violation of any of the provisions of ORS 696.010 to 696.490 and 696.710 to 696.730 or of any rule adopted thereunder by any licensee is not cause for the suspension or revocation of a license of any real estate licensee associated with or engaged by such licensee, unless it appears to the satisfaction of the commissioner that such associated or engaged real estate licensee had guilty knowledge of the act. A course of dealing shown to have been persistently and consistently followed by any real estate licensee shall constitute prima facie evidence of such knowledge upon the part of any real estate licensee associated with or engaged by that licensee. In the event of the revocation or suspension of the license issued to any member of a partnership or to any officer of an association or corporation, the license issued to such partnership, association or corporation shall be revoked by the commissioner, unless, within a time fixed by the commissioner, where a partnership, the member whose license has been suspended or revoked agrees to and does terminate any control over the professional real estate activity of the partnership during the member's suspension period or until the member's license is reinstated, or, where an association or corporation, the officer whose license has been suspended or revoked agrees to and does terminate any control over the professional real estate activity of the association or corporation during the officer's suspension period or until the officer's license is reinstated. However, such member or officer may retain an ownership interest in the partnership, association or corporation during and may reassume control over the professional real estate activity of the partnership, association or corporation following termination of the member's or officer's suspension or the reinstatement of the member's or officer's license. [Amended by 1977 c 649 §42, 1981 c 617 §15]

[1977 c 649 §7, 1981 c.617 §15a]

696.320 Effect of suspension or revocation of broker license on salespersons and associate brokers. (2) Notwithstanding any provisions of the Oregon Real Estate License Law to the contrary, an associate real estate broker or real estate salesperson licensed to make real estate appraisals may receive compensation directly from clients for a real estate appraisal, if:

(a) The real estate broker with whom, or real estate organization with which such real estate licensee is licensed has filed with the commissioner written approval of such practice; and

(b) The licensee in each instance notifies the subject real estate broker or real estate organization in writing of all such activity engaged in, and fees charged and collected. [1977 c.649 §4]

696.350 [Repealed by 1971 c 734 §21]

(1) Any real estate broker who contracts for or collects an advance fee from any other person, referred to in this section as the "principal," shall deposit any such amount or amounts, when collected in a trust account with a bank or other recognized depository. Such funds are trust funds and not the funds of the agent. Amounts may be withdrawn therefrom for the benefit of the agent only when actually expended for the benefit of the principal or five days after the verified accounts mentioned in this section have been mailed to the principal.

(2) The commissioner may issue such rules as he deems necessary to regulate the method of accounting, and to accomplish the purpose of the provisions of this subsection relating to advance fees including, but not limited to, establishing forms for and determining information to be included in such accountings. Each principal shall be furnished a verified copy of such accountings not less frequently than once each calendar quarter and when the contract has been completely performed by the licensee. The Real Estate Commissioner shall be furnished a verified copy of any account or all accounts on his demand therefor. [1977 c 649 §6]

696.359 Authorization for another to control broker's business; commissioner's approval; duration; extension; filing. (1) A real estate broker or designated real estate broker, for a period not to exceed 45 days, may authorize an associate real estate broker or real estate salesperson, licensed with such broker, or another real estate broker or designated broker not licensed with the authorizing broker, to control and supervise the professional real estate activity conducted by or through the authorizing broker during the absence of the authorizing broker. The commissioner, upon written request by the broker, may grant an extension of the 45-day period. Both the authorizing broker and the broker, associate broker or salesperson authorized to act in the absence of the authorizing broker shall have joint responsibility for all professional real estate activity conducted during the authorizing broker's absence.

(2) A copy of the written authorization, signed by the authorizing broker and the broker, associate broker or salesperson accepting supervisory responsibility under subsection (1) of this section, shall be filed with the commissioner prior to the effective date of such authorization. The commissioner may allow a later filing for good cause shown. [1981 c 617 §39]

696.360 [Amended by 1967 c.206 §2; repealed by 1971 c 734 §21]

Nothing contained in ORS 696.010 to 696.495 and 696.710 to 696.785 and 696.990 prevents the establishment of an independent contractor relationship between real estate licensees or requires the establishment of an employer-employe relationship. The escrow agent shall accompany each application for a branch office license with evidence that the liability amount of the required surety bond, or the amount of deposit or combination thereof has been increased in a sum equal to $10,000 for each additional business location. However, no escrow agent shall be required to furnish a surety bond, deposit or combination thereof greater than $200,000.

(3) At the time of filing an application for an escrow agent's license or for any renewal thereof, the applicant shall satisfy the commissioner that the applicant has obtained a fidelity bond providing coverage in the amount of $200,000 on the officers and employes of the applicant to be engaged in escrow transactions for the applicant. (f) May be canceled by the insurer upon delivery of 30-day written notice to the commissioner and to the escrow agent.

(4) The commissioner shall, within 30 days, after the written request of 10 or more licensed escrow agents or of an organization representing 10 or more licensed escrow agents, hold a public hearing to determine whether the fidelity bond coverage required by subsection (3) of this section is reasonably available to a substantial number of licensed escrow agents. If both the commissioner and the Insurance Commissioner find that such bond coverage is not reasonably available, the commissioner shall waive the fidelity bond requirements of subsection (3) of this section for a period not to extend beyond the expiration of 90 days following the adjournment of the next succeeding regular session of the Legislative Assembly. (2) The deposit shall be accepted and held by the State Treasurer for the faithful performance of escrow activity by the escrow agent. No claimant or judgment creditor or the escrow agent shall have the right to attach or levy upon any of the assets or securities held on deposit.

(3) The commissioner, by order, shall have discretion to authorize the State Treasurer to use such deposit, as follows:

- (b) For use in the liquidation of the escrow agent under the provisions of ORS 696.555; or
- (c) To release any or all of such deposit to the escrow agent when, in the opinion of the commissioner, such deposit is no longer necessary to protect the public.

(4) The commissioner shall waive the requirement of the surety bond or deposit for any escrow agent who demonstrates to the commissioner's satisfaction that the capital and surplus or net worth, of such escrow agent as of the end of the previous business accounting year of the agent is equal to, or greater than, the average month-end balance of custodial funds held by such agent during the previous business accounting year. 696.535 Grounds for refusal, suspension or revocation of licenses; records and reports. (1) The commissioner may refuse to license any escrow agent, or may suspend or revoke any license, by entering an order to that effect, with the commissioner's findings in respect thereto, if upon examination into the affairs of the applicant or licensee, either in the performance of routine duties, or upon field examination, or upon hearing, it is determined that the applicant or licensee:

(j) Has been convicted of a felony or any misdemeanor that is substantially related to the escrow agent's competency or trustworthiness to engage in the business of an escrow agent.

(2) It is sufficient cause for refusal or revocation of a license in case of a partnership or corporation or any unincorporated association, if any member of a partnership or any officer or director of the corporation or association has been guilty of any act or omission which would be cause for refusing or revoking the registration of an individual agent.

(3) All escrow agents shall keep and maintain at all times in their principal places of business, complete and suitable records of all escrow transactions made by them, together with books, papers and data clearly reflecting the financial condition of the business of such agents. (3) The provisions of this section and of any other section relating to the examination of the affairs of an escrow agent shall extend to an escrow agent whose license has expired or been revoked or suspended, if in the judgment of the commissioner, such agent has violated any condition of the license or any provisions of ORS 696.505 to 696.585.

(1) The commissioner may investigate either upon complaint or otherwise whenever it appears that an escrow agent has violated ORS 696.505 to 696.585 or that any person is engaging in the escrow business without being licensed under the provisions of ORS 696.505 to 696.585.

(2) If upon investigation it appears that such agent is so conducting business or an unlicensed person is engaged in the escrow business the commissioner may, in addition to any other remedies, bring action in the name and on behalf of the State of Oregon against such person and any other person acting in violation of ORS 696.505 to 696.585, to enjoin such person and such other person from continuing any act in violation of ORS 696.505 to 696.585.

(3) The circuit court of any county of this state is vested with jurisdiction to restrain illegal practices or transactions and may grant injunctions to prevent and restrain such illegal practices or transactions, in addition to the penalties and other remedies provided in ORS 696.505 to 696.585. The court shall have power, during the pendency of the proceedings before it to issue such preliminary restraining orders as may appear to be just and proper; and the findings of the commissioner shall be deemed to be prima facie evidence and sufficient ground, in the discretion of the court, for the issue ex parte of a preliminary restraining order.

(4) In any such court proceedings the commissioner may apply for and on due showing be entitled to have issued the court's subpoena requiring forthwith the appearance of any defendant and employes of the defendant and the production of documents, books and records as may appear necessary for the hearing of such petition, to testify and give evidence concerning the acts or conduct or things complained of in such application for injunction. Should the board of directors or any officer or person in charge of the offices of such agent refuse to permit the commissioner to take possession, the commissioner shall communicate the fact to the Attorney General, whereupon it shall become the duty of the Attorney General at once to institute such proceedings as may be necessary to place the commissioner in immediate possession of the property of the agent. The commissioner thereupon shall make or have made an inventory of the assets and known liabilities of the agent. The commissioner shall file one copy of the inventory in the commissioner's office and one copy in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the principal office of the agent is located, and shall mail one copy to each stockholder of the agent at the stockholder's last-known address, if by the exercise of reasonable diligence it can be determined. The clerk of the court with whom the copy of the inventory is filed shall file it as any other case or proceeding pending in the court and shall give it a docket number.

(2) The officers, directors or stockholders of the agent may have 60 days from the date when the commissioner takes possession of the property, business and assets, to make good any deficit which may exist. The inventory made by the commissioner and all claims filed by creditors shall be open at all reasonable times for inspection and any action taken by the receiver upon any of the claims shall be subject to the approval of the court before whom the cause is pending. (3) If the court is satisfied from reading the commissioner's petition that the facts therein alleged, if established, warrant such receivership action, the court shall issue such order to show cause. The court may at such time, without notice, issue a temporary injunction restraining such licensee, or any of the licensee's officers, directors, stockholders, members, agents or employes, from the transaction of any professional real estate activity, or the waste or disposition of any such assets until further order of the court.
