46.040 Criminal jurisdiction; concurrent jurisdiction with circuit and municipal courts. District courts shall have the same criminal and quasi-criminal jurisdiction as justices' courts, and shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit courts of all misdemeanors committed or triable in their respective counties where the punishment prescribed does not exceed one year's imprisonment in the county jail or a fine of $3,000, or both such fine and imprisonment. District courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction with municipal courts of all violations of the charter and ordinances of any city wholly or in part within their respective counties, committed or triable within their respective counties. (2) All fees, fines, bail forfeitures and other moneys collected and received by a district court in matters, causes and proceedings with respect to all violations over which such district court is granted judicial jurisdiction by subsection (1) of this section shall be collected, handled and disposed of by the clerk of such district court as otherwise provided by law for moneys collected and received by such district court. [1971 c.633 §2]

46.047 Application of state statutes to municipal ordinance. When an offense defined by municipal ordinance is tried in district court, it shall be subject to the same statutes and procedures that govern the trial and appeal of a like offense defined by a statute of this state. [1975 c.611 §15]

(a) For the recovery of money or damages only when the amount claimed does not exceed $3,000. When, in such a case arising out of contract, the ends of justice demand that an account be taken or that the contract be reformed or canceled, the district court shall have jurisdiction to decree such accounting, reformation or cancellation.

(b) For the recovery of specific personal property when the value of the property claimed and the damages for the detention do not exceed $3,000.

(c) For the recovery of any penalty or forfeiture, whether given by statute or arising out of contract, not exceeding $3,000.

(d) To give judgment without trial upon the confession of the defendant for any of the causes of action specified in this section, except for a penalty or forfeiture imposed by statute.

(e) To hear and determine actions of forcible entry and detainer.

(f) To enforce, marshal and foreclose liens upon personal property where the amount claimed for such liens does not exceed $3,000, and to render personal judgment therein in favor of any party.

(g) Actions and proceedings of interpleader and in the nature thereof, when the amount of money or the value of the property involved does not exceed $3,000.

(h) Actions and proceedings, whether legal or equitable, to preserve the property or rights of any party to an action of which the court has jurisdiction, and to enforce the collection of its own judgments, including all actions and proceedings in the nature of creditors' bills, and, in aid of execution, to subject the interest of a judgment debtor in personal property to the payment of such judgment. District courts shall not have jurisdiction to appoint receivers.

(2) The jurisdiction granted the district court in subsection (1) of this section does not affect the jurisdiction of any justice court, and in a county with no district court, the circuit court has jurisdiction to hear all matters otherwise assigned to the district court.

(3) Whenever an action or proceeding is brought in a district court, the court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine, preserve and enforce all rights involved therein, including all cases in equity when pleaded as defensive matter, and to exercise all legal and equitable remedies necessary or proper for complete determination of the rights of the parties, subject to the limitations imposed by this section.

(4) Whenever it shall appear from the pleadings in any cause that the title to real property is in dispute, the court shall order the pleading raising that question stricken, unless within five days the party who has raised such issue shall file with the clerk of the district court a written motion for the transfer of the cause to the circuit court, accompanied by the tender of the costs of such transfer.

(5) For purposes of this section, the amount claimed, value of property, damages or any amount in controversy does not include any amount claimed as costs and disbursements or attorney fees as defined by ORCP 68A. [Amended by 1957 c.661 §1; 1965 c.495 §1; 1975 c.611 §18; 1983 c.149 §1]

46.063 Court of Appeals to decide jurisdictional disputes. (1) In any case where there is a dispute as to whether jurisdiction is in district court or some other court, the court before which the matter is pending shall refer the question to the Court of Appeals which shall decide the question of jurisdiction in a summary manner. The decision of the Court of Appeals on a question of jurisdiction shall be final.

(2) No case filed in any trial court shall be dismissed solely for having been filed in the wrong court, but shall be considered timely filed in the court determined by the Court of Appeals to have jurisdiction. [1975 c.611 §10]

Note: 46.063 was enacted into law by the Legislative Assembly but was not added to or made a part of 46.060 to 46.080 by legislative action. See Preface to Oregon Revised Statutes for further explanation.

46.065 [1965 c.495 §3; repealed by 1975 c.611 §24]

46.070 Jurisdiction of counterclaims. In all actions instituted in a district court a defendant shall have the right to plead a counterclaim in excess of the jurisdiction of the court. If a defendant has pleaded a counterclaim in excess of the jurisdiction of the district court, the court shall strike the counterclaim and proceed to try the cause as though it had never been filed, unless the defendant files with his counterclaim a motion requesting the cause to be transferred to the circuit court accompanied by the tender of the costs of such transfer. In any action instituted in a district court wherein the amount claimed by the plaintiff is not in excess of its jurisdiction and the amount claimed by the defendant by way of counterclaim is not in excess of its jurisdiction, the district court shall have jurisdiction of such cause notwithstanding the combined amounts of such claim and counterclaim exceed the sum of $3,000. [Amended by 1965 c.495 §2; 1975 c.611 §19]

46.075 Procedure when case transferred to circuit court; additional pleadings; costs. (1) The district court shall order the transfer to the circuit court of every cause authorized by this chapter to be so transferred. Within 10 days therefrom the clerk of the district court shall file with the clerk of the circuit court a transcript of the cause including all the material entries in the docket of the district court and all of the original papers relating to the case. Thereupon the district court shall proceed no further with the cause. The case shall be considered transferred to the circuit court which shall then have jurisdiction to try and determine the cause.

(2) The responding party shall have 10 days after the final date allowed for the transcript to be filed in the circuit court within which to plead further. If the district clerk fails to file a transcript within the time specified, a judge of the circuit court may order him to do so within a specified time.

(3) If the moving party prevails in the circuit court, the costs of transfer borne by him may be taxed as costs. [1965 c.495 §4]

46.080 Jurisdiction in ancillary, supplemental and incidental proceedings. In civil actions the district courts shall have jurisdiction, as in like cases in the circuit courts, in every ancillary, incidental and supplemental proceeding, before and after judgment, including the provisional remedies of attachment and delivery of personal property claimed in the action as well as interpleader, trial of rights of personal property, and exemption, aid of execution, revival and renewal of judgment, the direction of references, and the taking of accounts where necessary to preserve the property or rights of any party to an action of which the district court has jurisdiction. All affidavits, orders and undertakings for such provisional, ancillary or supplemental proceedings are to be filed with the clerk of the district court, and such process is to be issued by the clerk and may be made returnable before the judge of the court, or, where the court has more than one judge, before any of the judges. Supplemental process against the personal property of the judgment debtor may be issued by the clerk of the district court to the sheriff of any county in this state. A writ of attachment or an order for the delivery of personal property claimed in the action may be served and executed by any person authorized to serve a summons. [Amended by 1957 c.661 §2; 1981 c.898 §39]

46.082 Real property not subject to writ of attachment. Real property or any interest therein cannot be attached upon a writ of attachment in a civil action in a district court. [1977 c.876 §5]

46.084 Title to real property not affected by action. While the title to real property may be controverted or questioned in an action in district court, the judgment in said action shall in no way affect or determine title between the parties or otherwise. [1977 c.876 §6]

46.090 [Amended by 1955 c.664 §1; 1957 c.661 §3; repealed by 1977 c.876 §12] county courts and the judges thereof, except juvenile court jurisdiction, authority, powers, functions and duties and the jurisdiction, authority, powers, functions and duties exercisable in the transaction of county business, are transferred to the district courts and the judges thereof:

(1) In Benton, Clatsop, Curry, Deschutes, Hood River, Lincoln, Linn, Polk, Umatilla, Wasco, Washington and Yamhill Counties.

(2) In any county for which a county charter providing for such transfer is adopted under ORS 203.710 to 203.770, to the extent that the judicial jurisdiction, authority, powers, functions and duties were not previously transferred as provided by law. [1955 c.540 §1; 1957 c.403 §1; 1965 c.510 §15; 1967 c.534 §12; 1969 c.591 §272]

46.094 Transfer of pending matters. All matters, causes and proceedings relating to such jurisdiction pending in the county court when jurisdiction is transferred to the district court under ORS 46.092 are transferred to the district court. [1955 c.540 §2; 1957 c.403 §2]

46.096 Application of laws governing county courts to district courts exercising jurisdiction formerly vested in county courts. The district courts and the judges thereof to which jurisdiction is transferred under ORS 46.092 shall be governed by the existing laws relating to the transferred jurisdiction, in so far as they may be applicable, as though the district courts and judges thereof had originally been referred to in such existing laws. [1955 c.540 §3; 1957 c.403 §3]

46.250 Appeal to Court of Appeals.

(1) Any party to a judgment or decree in a civil action or proceeding, including those relating to a traffic infraction, in a district court, other than a judgment or decree given by confession or for want of an answer or a judgment in the small claims department, may appeal therefrom to the Court of Appeals. The plaintiff may appeal from a judgment or decree given by confession or for want of an answer where the judgment or decree is not in accordance with the relief demanded in the complaint. Except for a traffic infraction case, an appeal may be taken only when the amount of money or the value of the property involved, exclusive of costs and disbursements, is more than $250. The party appealing is known as the appellant and the adverse party as the respondent, but the title of the action or proceeding is not thereby changed.

(2) For the purpose of appeal therefrom, the following are considered judgments or decrees of a district court:

(a) An order affecting a substantial right and which in effect determines the action or proceeding so as to prevent a judgment or decree therein.

(b) An order affecting a substantial right and made in an action or proceeding after judgment or decree.

(c) An order setting aside a judgment and granting a new trial.

(3) An appeal shall be taken by filing a written notice with the Clerk of the Court of Appeals within 30 days after the entry of the judgment or decree. Where any party has filed a motion for a new trial or for a judgment notwithstanding the verdict, the notice shall be filed within 30 days from the earlier of either the date of entry of the order disposing of the motion or the date the motion is considered denied. The notice shall be served on the adverse party, or his attorney, and the original notice with proof of service indorsed thereon filed with the Clerk of the Court of Appeals. A copy of the notice shall be served on the clerk of the district court. A written acknowledgment of service by the respondent or his attorney indorsed on the notice of appeal shall be sufficient proof of service.

(4) (a) Concurrent with the filing of the notice, the appellant shall file an undertaking with the clerk of the district court. The undertaking must be given with one or more sureties to the effect the appellant will pay all damages, costs and disbursements that may be awarded against him on appeal. The undertaking does not stay the proceedings unless it further provides that the appellant will satisfy any judgment that may be against him on appeal. Within five days after the filing of the undertaking the adverse party or his attorney may except in district court to the sufficiency of the sureties in the undertaking or he shall be considered to have waived his right thereto.

(b) The court may waive, reduce or limit the undertaking provided for in this section upon a showing of good cause, including indigency, and on such terms as shall be just and equitable.

(5) Immediately upon service of the copy of the notice of appeal the clerk of the district court shall notify the district court reporter who shall authenticate and deposit the transcript with the clerk.

(6) Except as otherwise required by this chapter, an appeal taken from district court shall be in accordance with and subject to the provisions of ORS 19.005 to 19.026 and 19.029 to 19.200. [Amended by 1975 c.611 §20; 1977 c.416 §7; 1979 c.562 §34]

(2) The district court, at any time before the record of the case is filed as provided in ORS 46.250, may dismiss the appeal on motion based upon stipulation of the parties. If the dismissal is ordered by the district court, the clerk shall send a certified copy of the order to the Clerk of the Court of Appeals. [1975 c.611 §5]

46.255 Power of Court of Appeals on appeals from district courts. (1) Upon an appeal under ORS 46.250 from a district court, the Court of Appeals may affirm, reverse or modify the judgment or decree appealed from or may order a new trial.

(2) The decision of the Court of Appeals shall include its judgment, shall state the disposition of the judgment, order or determination appealed from, and may provide for final disposition of the cause. The date of the filing of the decision shall be deemed to be the date of entry of the judgment, except that the judgment of the Court of Appeals shall be stayed until the expiration of the time provided in ORS 2.520 for filing a petition for review to the Supreme Court and thereafter as provided in the rules of the Supreme Court, and the judgment of the Supreme Court shall be stayed in accordance with the rules of the Supreme Court. The State Court Administrator shall mail a copy of the appellate court decision, or such part thereof as may be required by the rules of the Supreme Court, to the court below as soon as possible after the date when the decision is no longer stayed.

(3) If a new trial is ordered, upon the receipt of the decision by the clerk of the district court, the decision shall be entered in the docket of the district court and thereafter the cause is considered pending for trial in the district court, according to the direction of the Court of Appeals. If a new trial is not ordered, upon receipt of the decision by the clerk of the district court, a judgment or decree shall be entered in the docket, according to the direction of the Court of Appeals, in like manner and with like effect as if the judgment or decree was given in the district court.

(4) If judgment or decree is given against the appellant, it shall be entered against the sureties of the appellant also, in like manner and with like effect, according to the nature and extent of their undertaking.

(5) Except as provided in ORS 18.350, an appeal does not discharge the lien of a judgment or decree and, unless it is reversed, the lien thereof is merged and continued in the affirmed or modified judgment or decree given on appeal, from the time the judgment or decree attains lien status.

(6) Unless otherwise ordered by the Court of Appeals, the original papers relating to the cause and the appeal filed with the Clerk of the Court of Appeals shall be returned to the clerk of the district court after the appeal has been disposed of, but transcripts shall remain on file with the Clerk of the Court of Appeals. [1975 c.611 §6; 1981 c.178 §3]

46.270 Dismissal of civil cases; notice required. The clerk of every district court shall mail a notice to each of the attorneys of record in every civil action, suit or proceeding in their respective courts in which no proceedings have been had or papers filed for a period of more than one year, unless the court has sent an earlier notice on its own motion. The notice shall state that each such case will be dismissed by the court for want of prosecution 60 days from the date of mailing the notice, unless, on or before the expiration of the 60 days, application, either oral or written, be made to the court and good cause shown why it should be continued as a pending case. If such application is not made or good cause is not shown, the court shall dismiss each such case. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prevent the dismissing at any time, for want of prosecution, of any suit, action or proceeding upon motion of any party thereto. [Amended by 1971 c.224 §2]

46.274 Filing and docketing transcript of judgment in circuit court; contents of transcript; filing fee. When a judgment is given in a district court in favor of anyone for the sum of $10 or more, exclusive of costs or disbursements, the party in whose favor the judgment is given may at any time when the judgment is enforceable, by paying a fee of $5, file with the clerk of the circuit court for the county wherein the judgment is given a certified transcript of those entries made in the docket of the district court in respect to the action, suit or proceeding in which the judgment was entered that are required by ORS 46.740 (1), (3), (5), (8), (9), (10), (11) and (12). Thereupon the clerk shall docket in the judgment docket of the circuit court the judgment given in the district court.

(1) From the time of docketing in the judgment docket of the circuit court of a judgment of the district court the judgment shall be a lien upon the real property of the defendant as if it were a judgment of the circuit court where it is docketed. The docketing in the judgment docket of the circuit court of a judgment given in the district court shall not thereby extend the lien of the judgment more than 10 years from the original entry of the judgment in the district court.

(2) Whenever a judgment of the district court which was docketed pursuant to ORS 46.274 is renewed by the district court, the lien established in subsection (1) of this section is automatically extended 10 years from the date of the renewal order.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, the lien created by docketing a district court judgment in the docket of the circuit court after the renewal of such judgment by the district court shall extend for 10 years from the date of the renewal order. [1955 c.664 §3; 1969 c.438 §2]

46.278 Execution of judgment not issued against real property until judgment docketed in circuit court. Execution to enforce a judgment in a district court must not be issued against or levied upon the real property of the defendant; but when a judgment given by a district court has been duly docketed in the circuit court, thereafter it may be enforced as a judgment of such circuit court. [1977 c.876 §8]

46.280 Rules of court; filing with State Court Administrator; effect of failure to file; fees. (1) A district court may

(1) The defendant in an action in the small claims department may assert as a counterclaim any claim that, on the date of issuance of notice pursuant to ORS 46.445, the defendant may have against the plaintiff and that arises out of the same transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the claim filed by the plaintiff.

(2) If the amount or value of the counterclaim exceeds $1,000, the court shall strike the counterclaim and proceed to hear and dispose of the case as though the counterclaim had not been asserted unless the defendant files with the

After the transfer the plaintiff's claim will not be limited to the amount stated in the claim filed with the small claims department, though it must involve the same controversy.

(3) If the amount or value of the counterclaim exceeds that specified in subsection (2) of this section, but does not exceed the jurisdictional limit of the district court for a counterclaim, and the defendant files a motion requesting transfer and an amount to pay the costs of transfer as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the case shall be transferred to the district court. The clerk of the court shall notify the plaintiff and defendant, by mail, of the transfer. The notice to the plaintiff shall contain a copy of the counterclaim and shall instruct the plaintiff to file with the court and serve by mail on the defendant, within 20 days following the mailing of the notice, a reply to the counterclaim and, if the plaintiff proposes to increase the amount of the claim originally filed with the small claims department, an amended claim for the increased amount. Proof of service on the defendant of the plaintiff's reply and amended claim may be made by certificate of the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney attached to the reply and amended claim filed with the court. The defendant is not required to answer an amended claim of the plaintiff. If the defendant prevails in the district court, the costs of transfer paid by the defendant may be taxed as costs and disbursements.

(4) If the amount or value of the counterclaim exceeds the jurisdictional limit of the district court for a counterclaim and the defendant files a motion requesting transfer and an amount to pay the costs of transfer as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the case shall be transferred to the circuit court and be governed as provided in ORS 46.075. The clerk of the district court shall notify the plaintiff and defendant, by mail within 10 days following the order of transfer, of the transfer. (3) If the defendant claims the right to a jury trial, the clerk shall notify the plaintiff to file a formal complaint within 20 days following the mailing of such notice. The notice shall instruct the plaintiff to serve a summons and copy of the complaint by mail on the defendant at the designated address of the defendant. Proof of service of the summons and complaint copy may be made by certificate of the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney attached to the complaint prior to its filing. The plaintiff's claim in such formal complaint is not limited to the amount stated in the claim filed in the small claims department but it must involve the same controversy. The defendant shall have 10 days in which to move, plead or otherwise appear following the day on which the summons and copy of the complaint would be delivered to the defendant in due course of mail. Thereafter, the cause shall proceed as other causes in the district court, and fees and costs shall be charged and collected as provided in ORS 46.210 and 46.221 for other cases tried in district court. (3) If the plaintiff fails within the time provided to file a formal complaint pursuant to ORS 46.465 (3), the clerk shall dismiss the case without prejudice.
