106.020 Prohibited and void marriages. The following marriages are prohibited; and, if solemnized within this state, are absolutely void:

(1) When either party thereto had a wife or husband living at the time of such marriage.

(2) When the parties thereto are first cousins or any nearer of kin to each other, whether of the whole or half blood, computing by the rules of the civil law.

106.030 Voidable marriages. When either party to a marriage is incapable of making such contract or consenting thereto for want of legal age or sufficient understanding, or when the consent of either party is obtained by force or fraud, such marriage shall be void from the time it is so declared by decree of a court having jurisdiction thereof.

106.040 [Repealed by 1953 c.143 §9]

106.041 Necessity for marriage license; application. (1) All persons wishing to enter into a marriage contract shall obtain a license therefor from the county clerk upon application, directed to any person or religious organization or congregation authorized by ORS 106.120 to solemnize marriages, and authorizing such person, organization or congregation to join together as husband and wife the persons named in the license.

(2) No license shall be issued by the county clerk until the provisions of this section, ORS 106.050 and 106.060 are complied with.

(3) Each applicant for marriage license shall file with the county clerk from whom the license is sought a written application for the license on forms provided for this purpose by the Health Division which shall set forth certain statistical data regarding age, place of birth, sex, race, occupation, residence and previous marital status of the applicant and, if required, the name and address of the affiant under ORS 106.050. Note: 106.045 was enacted into law by the Legislative Assembly but was not added to or made a part of ORS chapter 106 or any series therein by legislative action. See Preface to Oregon Revised Statutes for further explanation.

The applicant for a marriage license must file with the county clerk an affidavit of some person other than either of the parties seeking the license showing the facts specified in ORS 106.060 or any of them that may be necessary to be shown in the particular case, except the consent of the parent or guardian required by ORS 106.060 shall not be part of the affidavit. The affidavit is sufficient authority to the clerk, so far as the facts stated therein, for issuing the license. [Amended by 1965 c.467 §1; 1969 c.242 §1]

If either party has no parent or guardian resident within this state and either party has resided within the county in which application is made for the six months immediately preceding the application, the license may issue, if otherwise proper, without the consent of the nonresident parent or guardian. solemnize marriages, and who has filed for record with the county clerk of the county in which the minister resides or in which the marriage is solemnized, evidence satisfactory to the county clerk that the minister has been so authorized. In the case of a nonresident minister, such filing shall be in any county in which the minister performs any marriage ceremony, but no minister shall be required to file such evidence of authority in more than one county.

(2) The evidence of authority, if approved by the county clerk, shall be recorded by the county clerk in a book called "Authority to Solemnize Marriages," for which the county clerk shall charge a fee for recording and indexing as set by ORS 205.320. Whenever any minister who has filed such evidence of authority with one county clerk solemnizes any marriage in any other county, the minister shall attach to or indorse upon the certificate required by ORS 106.170, a statement over the minister's signature showing place of residence and the county clerk with whom evidence of authority to solemnize marriages is recorded. A marriage solemnized before any person professing to be a judicial officer of this state, a county clerk or a minister of any church or congregation therein is not void, nor shall the validity thereof be in any way affected, on account of any want of power or authority in such person, if such person was acting at the time in the office or the capacity of a person authorized to solemnize marriage and if such marriage is consummated with the belief on the part of the persons so married, or either of them, that they have been lawfully joined in marriage. (2) All marriages, to which there are no legal impediments, solemnized before or in any religious organization or congregation according to the established ritual or form commonly practiced therein, are valid. In such case, a certificate containing the particulars specified in ORS 106.160 shall be made and filed for record by the person presiding or officiating in such religious organization or congregation, in like manner and with like effect as in ordinary cases. [Amended by 1979 c.724 §5]

(2) The form shall be of such size and appearance as to emphasize the importance of the event which it evidences and the significance of the pioneer heritage of this state.

(3) In carrying out the duties imposed by subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the Assistant Director for Health shall consult with the county clerks and may authorize a competition among graphic artists to prepare the form to be prescribed. [1975 c.277 §§1, 2]
