(3) When two or more proposed wards or protected persons are children of a common parent, are parent and child, or are husband and wife, the proceedings may be consolidated, but may be terminated with respect to less than all the wards or protected persons in the same manner as in the case of a proceeding concerning one person. [1973 c.823 §4]

126.020 [1961 c.344 §4; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.025 Payment or delivery for benefit of minor. (1) A person under a duty to pay or deliver money or personal property to a minor may pay or deliver the money or property, in amounts not exceeding $10,000 per year, to:

(a) A person having the care and custody of the minor with whom the minor resides;

(b) A guardian of the minor; or

(c) A financial institution incident to a deposit in a federally insured savings account in the sole name of the minor and giving notice of the deposit to the minor.

(3) The persons, except the minor or a financial institution under paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section, receiving money or property for a minor, shall apply the money to the support and education of the minor, and shall not pay themselves except by way of reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses for goods and services necessary for the minor's support. Excess sums shall be preserved for future support of the minor and the balance not so used and the property received for the minor shall be turned over to the minor when the minor attains majority.

(4) Persons who pay or deliver money or personal property under this section are not responsible for the proper application of the money or property. [1973 c.823 §5; 1981 c.175 §1]

126.030 Delegation of certain powers by parent or guardian. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a parent or a guardian of a minor or incapacitated person, by a properly executed power of attorney, may delegate to another person, for a period not exceeding six months, any of the powers of the parent or guardian regarding care, custody or property of the minor child or ward, except the power to consent to marriage or adoption of a minor ward.

(2) A parent or a guardian of a minor child may delegate the powers designated in subsection (1) of this section to a school administrator for a period not exceeding 12 months. [1973 c.823 §6; 1981 c.872 §1]

126.035 Preference in appointing guardian. The parents of a minor, or either of them, if qualified and suitable, shall be preferred over all others for appointment as guardian for the minor. Subject to this preference, the court shall appoint as guardian for a minor or incapacitated person the qualified person most suitable who is willing to serve, having due regard, among other factors, to:

(1) Any request for the appointment as guardian for an incapacitated person contained in a written instrument executed by the incapacitated person while competent.

(2) Any request for the appointment as guardian for a minor or incapacitated person contained in a will or other written instrument executed by a parent of the minor or incapacitated person.

126.070 Procedure for appointment of guardian of minor. (1) Notice for the appointment of a guardian of a minor shall be given by the petitioner as required under ORS 126.007 to:

(a) The minor, if he is 14 years of age or older;

(b) The person who has had the principal care and custody of the minor during the 60 days preceding the date of the petition; and

(c) Any living parent of the minor.

(2) If the court finds that a qualified person seeks appointment, venue is proper, the required notices have been given and the welfare and best interests of the minor will be served by the requested appointment, the court shall make the appointment. In other cases the court may dismiss the proceedings or make any other disposition of the matter that will best serve the interests of the minor.

(3) If necessary, the court may appoint a temporary guardian, with the status of an ordinary guardian of a minor, but the authority of a temporary guardian shall not last longer than six months.

(4) If, at any time in the proceeding, the court determines that the interests of the minor are or may be inadequately represented, it may appoint an attorney to represent the minor, giving consideration to the preference of the minor if the minor is 14 years of age or older.

126.075 Effect of accepting appointment to be guardian of minor; notice of proceedings to guardian. (1) By accepting appointment, a guardian whether a resident or nonresident of this state, submits personally to the jurisdiction of the court in any proceeding relating to the guardianship that may be instituted by any interested person.

(2) Notice of any proceeding shall be delivered to the guardian, or mailed to him by ordinary mail at his address as listed in the court records and to his address as then known to the petitioner. [1973 c.823 §12]

126.080 Powers and duties of guardian of minor. (1) A guardian of a minor has the powers and responsibilities of a parent who has not been deprived of custody of his minor and unemancipated child, except that a guardian is not legally obligated to provide from his own funds for the ward and is not liable to third persons by reason of the parental relationship for acts of the ward. In particular, and without qualifying the foregoing, a guardian:

(a) Shall take reasonable care of his ward's personal effects and begin protective proceedings if necessary to protect other property of the ward.

(b) May receive money payable for the support of the ward to the ward's parent, guardian or custodian under the terms of any statutory benefit or insurance system, or any private contract, devise, trust, conservatorship or custodianship.

(c) May receive money or property of the ward paid or delivered by virtue of ORS 126.025.

(d) May institute proceedings to compel the performance by any person of a duty to support the ward or to pay sums for the welfare of the ward.

(e) Shall facilitate the ward's educational, social, or other activities and authorize medical or other professional care, treatment or advice. A guardian is not liable by reason of this consent for injury to the ward resulting from the negligence or acts of third persons unless it would have been illegal for a parent to have consented.

(f) May consent to the marriage or adoption of his ward.

(g) Shall report the condition of his ward and of the ward's estate which has been subject to his possession or control, as ordered by court on petition of any person interested in the minor's welfare or as required by court rule.

(h) May prosecute claims of the ward, including those for his personal injury.

(2) Any money or property received under paragraphs (b), (c), (d) and (h) of subsection (1) of this section shall be applied to the ward's current needs for support, care and education. The guardian shall exercise due care to conserve any excess for the ward's future needs unless a conservator has been appointed for the estate of the ward, in which case excess shall be paid over at least annually to the conservator. Money or property so received by the guardian is not to be used for compensation for his services except as approved by order of the court or as determined by a duly appointed conservator other than the guardian. [1973 c.823 §13; 1977 c.211 §3]

126.085 Effect of and termination of appointment. (1) A guardian's authority and responsibility terminate upon the death, resignation or removal of the guardian or upon the minor's death, adoption, marriage or attainment of majority. Termination does not affect his liability for prior acts or his responsibility to account for, or to discharge obligations from, funds and assets of his ward.

(2) Resignation of a guardian does not terminate the guardianship until it has been approved by the court. [1973 c.823 §14]

126.090 Authority of court in state where minor ward resides; notice to other court. (1) A court in the state where the ward resides has concurrent jurisdiction with the court which appointed the guardian regarding resignation, removal, accounting and other proceedings relating to the guardianship.

(2) If a court in the state where the ward resides is not the court in which acceptance of appointment is filed, the court in which proceedings subsequent to appointment are begun shall in all appropriate cases notify the other court, and after consultation with that court determine whether to retain jurisdiction or transfer the proceedings to the other court, whichever is in the best interests of the ward. A copy of any order accepting a resignation or removing a guardian shall be sent to the court in which acceptance of appointment is filed. [1973 c.823 §15]

126.095 Petition for removal or resignation; appointment of counsel for ward.

(1) A person interested in the welfare of a ward or the ward, if 14 years of age or older, may petition for removal of a guardian on the ground that removal would be in the best interest of the ward. A guardian may petition for permission to resign. A petition for removal or for permission to resign may, but need not, include a request for appointment of a successor guardian.

(2) After notice of a petition for removal or for permission to resign and hearing upon objections to the petition, if any, the court may terminate the guardianship and make any further order that may be appropriate.

(3) If, at any time in the proceeding, the court determines that the interests of the ward, are, or may be, inadequately represented, it may appoint an attorney to represent the minor, giving consideration to the preference of the minor if the minor is 14 years of age or older.

[1973 c.823 §16]

(Guardians of Incapacitated Persons)

126.100 Venue in proceedings for guardianship of incapacitated person. The venue for guardianship proceedings for an incapacitated person is in the place where the incapacitated person resides or is present. If the incapacitated person is admitted to an institution under order of a court, venue is also in the county in which that court sits. [1973 c.823 §17]

126.103 Procedure for appointment of guardian for incapacitated person. (1) The incapacitated person or any person interested in the welfare of the incapacitated person may petition for a finding of incapacity and appointment of a guardian. The petition shall:

(a) State the name, age and present residence address of the proposed ward;

(b) State the name, age and address of the proposed guardian and the relationship of the proposed guardian to the proposed ward;

(c) Allege the proposed ward's lack of capacity in one or more areas that require the assistance of an appointed guardian; and

(d) State the factual information on which the allegation made pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection is based, and the names and addresses of all persons known to the petitioner who have direct knowledge regarding the allegation.

(2) Upon the filing of a petition, notice shall be given as required under ORS 126.007. On hearing of objections to the petition, if any, the court may appoint an attorney to represent the alleged incapacitated person in the proceeding unless the person has counsel chosen by the person.

(3) The person alleged to be incapacitated may be examined by a physician or psychologist, who shall submit a report in writing to the court.

(4) The court shall direct a visitor to interview the person seeking appointment as guardian, the physician or psychologist examining the alleged incapacitated person, the person or officer of the institution having the care, custody or control of the alleged incapacitated person and the alleged incapacitated person at the present residence of the person. The visitor shall submit a report in writing to the court.

(5) Upon hearing of objections to the petition, if any, the person alleged to be incapacitated may be present in person, to see or hear all evidence bearing upon the condition of the person. The alleged incapacitated person may be present by counsel, to present evidence, to cross-examine witnesses, including the court-appointed physician or psychologist and the visitor. The issue may be determined at a closed hearing if the person alleged to be incapacitated or counsel for the person so requests. [1973 c.823 §18; 1983 c.535 §3]

126.105 [Repealed by 1961 c.344 §109]

Before the date so specified the conservator shall execute and file in the proceedings a new bond, with sufficient surety or sureties, in the same amount and upon the same conditions. If the conservator fails to do so, his authority as conservator shall cease on the effective date of termination of the obligation of the surety on his bonds, the letters of conservatorship shall thereupon be canceled and he shall make and file his final account.

(2) The court may at any time increase or reduce the amount of the bond required of a conservator for the protection of the protected person and the estate of the protected person, either upon its own motion or upon the motion of the conservator or any interested person. [1973 c.823 §45]

(2) By accepting appointment, a conservator submits personally to the jurisdiction of the court in any proceeding relating to the estate.

(3) Notice of any proceeding shall be given to the conservator, or mailed to him by registered or certified mail at his address as listed in the petition for appointment or as thereafter reported to the court and to his address as then known to the petitioner. [1973 c.823 §46]

126.253 Letters of conservatorship. When a conservator has filed a bond, if one is required, and his name, residence and post-office address as provided in ORS 126.237 to 126.247, the court shall cause to be issued letters of conservatorship to the conservator.  [1973 c.823 §55]

126.260 [1961 c.344 §33; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.267 Death, resignation or removal of conservator. The court may remove a conservator for cause, upon notice and hearing, or accept the resignation of a conservator. After his death, resignation or removal, the court may appoint another conservator. A conservator so appointed succeeds to the title and powers of his predecessor. [1973 c.823 §49]

126.270 [1961 c.344 §35; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.273 Petitions subsequent to appointment of conservator. (1) Any interested person or other person interested in the welfare of a person for whom a conservator has been appointed may file a petition for an order:

- (a) Requiring bond or security or additional bond or security, or reducing bond;
- (b) Requiring an accounting for the administration of the trust;
- (c) Directing distribution;
- (d) Removing the conservator and appointing a temporary or successor conservator; or
- (e) Granting other appropriate relief.

(2) A conservator may petition the appointing court for instructions concerning his fiduciary responsibility. [1973 c.823 §50]

126.275 [1961 c.344 §36; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.277 Filing of inventory required; supplemental inventory. (1) Within 90 days after the date of his appointment, unless a longer time is granted by the court, a conservator shall file in the protective proceeding an inventory of all the property of the estate of the protected person that has come into his possession or knowledge. The inventory shall show the estimates by the conservator of the respective true cash values as of the date of the protective order.

(2) Whenever any property of the estate of the protected person, not included in the inventory, comes into the possession or knowledge of the conservator, he shall either file in the protective proceeding a supplemental inventory within 30 days after the date of receiving possession or knowledge, or include the property in his next accounting. [1973 c.823 §§51, 52]

126.280 [1961 c.344 §37; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.283 Conservator's accounting to court. (1) Within 30 days after each anniversary of his appointment, unless the court by order provides otherwise or after the death of the protected person or the termination of his minority or disability, a conservator shall account to the court for the administration of the protected estate.

(2) The conservator shall provide a copy of each accounting to:

(a) The protected person if he is 14 years of age or older and has capacity to understand it;

(b) The guardian of the protected person, if any; and

(c) The personal representative of the protected person, if any.

(3) Subject to appeal or vacation within the time permitted, an order, made upon notice and hearing, allowing an intermediate account of a conservator, adjudicates as to his liabilities concerning the matters considered in connection therewith. An order, made upon notice and hearing, allowing a final account adjudicates as to all previously unsettled liabilities of the conservator to the protected person or his successors relating to the conservatorship.

(4) In connection with any account, the court may require a conservator to submit to a physical check of the estate in his control, to be made in any manner the court may specify. [1973 c.823 §53]

126.285 [1961 c.344 §38; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.287 Conservator's accounting to protected person. Notwithstanding ORS 126.283, if the protected person recovers from his disability or is a minor who attains the age of majority a conservator may settle his account of the estate of the protected person with the protected person without filing a report with the court. The protected person shall give a receipt to the conservator for the property delivered to the protected person. The protected person shall file with the court a copy of the receipt issued by the protected person to the conservator. When the receipt is filed, the court shall terminate the protective order. [1973 c.823 §54]

126.290 [1961 c.344 §39; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.293 Power of conservator over property of protected person. A conservator shall take possession of all the property of substantial value of the protected person, and of rents, income, issues and profits therefrom whether accruing before or after the appointment of the conservator, and of the proceeds from the sale, mortgage, lease or other disposition thereof. However, the conservator may permit the protected person to have possession and control of property and funds for living requirements as appropriate to the needs and capacities of the protected person. The title to all property of the protected person is in the protected person and not in the conservator. [1973 c.823 §56]

126.295 [1961 c.344 §40; 1969 c.591 §238; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.297 Certain transactions voidable. Any sale or encumbrance to a conservator, his spouse, agent or attorney, or any corporation or trust in which he has a substantial beneficial interest, or any transaction which is affected by a substantial conflict of interest is voidable unless the transaction is approved by the court after notice as required under ORS 126.007 to interested persons and others as directed by the court and a hearing of objections, if any. [1973 c.823 §57]

126.300 [1961 c.344 §41; repealed by 1969 c.591 §305]

126.303 Status of persons dealing with conservator. (1) A person who in good faith either assists a conservator or deals with the conservator for value in any transaction other than those requiring a court order as provided in ORS 126.203 to 126.217, is protected as if the conservator properly exercised the power. The fact that a person knowingly deals with a conservator does not alone require the person to inquire into the existence of a power or the propriety of its exercise, except that restrictions on powers of conservators which are indorsed on letters as provided in ORS 126.343 are effective as to third persons. A person is not required to see to the proper application of estate assets paid or delivered to a conservator.

(2) The protection provided under subsection (1) of this section:

(a) Extends to instances in which some procedural irregularity or jurisdictional defect occurs in proceedings leading to the issuance of letters.

(b) Is not substituted for that provided by comparable provisions of the laws relating to commercial transactions and laws simplifying transfers of securities by fiduciaries.

(3) A person who holds property in which the protected person has an interest, or who is indebted either to the protected person, or to the protected person and others, may deal with the conservator with respect to the property or debt to the same extent that such person could deal with the protected person were the protected person not under disability. [1973 c.823 §58; 1981 c.906 §1]

126.306 [1961 c.344 §42; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.307 Conservator of estate of minor has duties and powers of guardian. A conservator has the powers conferred in ORS 126.313 and any additional powers conferred by law on trustees in this state. In addition, a conservator of the estate of a minor under the age of 18 years, as to whom no one has parental rights, has the duties and powers of a guardian of a minor described in ORS 126.080 until the minor attains the age of 18 or marries, but the parental rights so conferred on a conservator do not preclude appointment of a guardian as provided under ORS 126.060 to 126.095. [1973 c.823 §59]

126.310 [Repealed by 1961 c.344 §109]

126.311 [1961 c.344 §43; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.313 Powers of conservator. A conservator, acting reasonably in efforts to accomplish the purpose for which he was appointed, may act without court authorization or confirmation, to:

(1) Collect, hold and retain assets of the estate including land wherever situated, until, in his judgment, disposition of the assets should be made, and the assets may be retained even though they include an asset in which he is personally interested;

(2) Receive additions to the estate;

(3) Continue or participate in the operation of any business or other enterprise;

(4) Acquire an undivided interest in an estate asset in which the conservator, in any fiduciary capacity, holds an undivided interest;

(5) Invest and reinvest estate assets and funds as would a trustee;

(8) Make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures, to demolish any improvements, to raze existing or erect new party walls or buildings;

(9) Subdivide, develop, or dedicate land to public use; to make or obtain the vacation of plats and adjust boundaries; to adjust differences in valuation on exchange or to partition by giving or receiving considerations, and to dedicate easements to public use without consideration;

(10) Enter for any purpose into a lease as lessor or lessee with or without option to purchase or renew for a term within or extending beyond the term of the conservatorship;

(11) Enter into a lease or arrangement for exploration and removal of minerals or other natural resources or enter into a pooling or unitization agreement;

(12) Grant an option involving disposition of an estate asset, to take an option for the acquisition of any asset;

(13) Vote a security, in person or by general or limited proxy;

(14) Pay calls, assessments, and any other sums chargeable or accruing against or on account of securities;

(15) Sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights, to consent, directly or through a committee or other agent, to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution, or liquidation of a corporation or other business enterprise;

(16) Hold a security in the name of a nominee or in other form without disclosure of the conservatorship so that title to the security may pass by delivery, but the conservator is liable for any act of the nominee in connection with the stock so held;

(17) Insure the assets of the estate against damage or loss, and the conservator against liability with respect to third persons;

(18) Borrow money to be repaid from estate assets or otherwise and mortgage or pledge property of the protected person as security therefor, to advance money for the protection of the estate or the protected person, and for all expenses, losses, and liability sustained in the administration of the estate or because of the holding or ownership of any estate assets and the conservator has a lien on the estate as against the protected person for advances so made;

(19) Pay or contest any claim, to settle a claim by or against the estate or the protected person by compromise, arbitration, or otherwise, and to release, in whole or in part, any claim belonging to the estate to the extent that the claim is uncollectible;

(20) Pay taxes, assessments, compensation of the conservator, and other expenses incurred in the collection, care, administration and protection of the estate;

(21) Allocate items of income or expense to either income or principal, including creation of reserves out of income for depreciation, obsolescence, or amortization, or for depletion in mineral or timber properties;

(22) Pay any sum distributable to a protected person or a dependent of the protected person by paying the sum to the distributee or by paying the sum for the use of the distributee either to his guardian or if none, to a relative or other person with custody of his person;

(23) Employ persons, including attorneys, auditors, investment advisers, or agents, even though they are associated with the conservator to advise or assist him in the performance of his administrative duties, to act upon their recommendation without independent investigation, and instead of acting personally, to employ one or more agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary;

(24) Prosecute or defend actions, claims or proceedings in any jurisdiction for the protection of estate assets and of the conservator in the performance of his duties;

(25) Prosecute claims of the protected person including those for his personal injury; and

(26) Execute and deliver all instruments which will accomplish or facilitate the exercise of the powers vested in the conservator. [1973 c.823 §60; 1975 c.226 §1; 1977 c.211 §2]

126.315 [Repealed by 1961 c.344 §109]

126.316 [1961 c.344 §44; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.317 Duties and powers of conservator to pay expenses of protected person and dependents. A conservator may expend or distribute income or principal of the estate without court authorization or confirmation for the support, education, care or benefit of the protected person and his dependents if the conservator:

(1) Considers recommendations relating to the appropriate standard of support, education and benefit for the protected person made by a parent or guardian, if any. He may not be surcharged for sums paid to persons or organizations actually furnishing support, education or care to the protected person pursuant to the recommendations of a parent or guardian of the protected person unless:

(a) The conservator knows that the parent or guardian is deriving personal financial benefit therefrom, including relief from any personal duty of support; or

(b) The recommendations are clearly not in the best interests of the protected person.

(2) Expends or distributes sums reasonably necessary for the support, education, care or benefit of the protected person with due regard to:

(a) The size of the estate, the probable duration of the conservatorship and the likelihood that the protected person, at some future time, may be fully able to manage his affairs and the estate which has been conserved for him;

(b) The accustomed standard of living of the protected person and members of his household; and

(c) Other funds or sources used for the support of the protected person.

(3) Expends funds of the estate for the support of persons legally dependent on the protected person, others who are members of the protected person's household who are unable to support themselves, and who are in need of support and other persons who were receiving support from the protected person before the appointment of the conservator. [1973 c.823 §61]

126.320 [Amended by 1957 c.237 §1; repealed by 1961 c.344 §109]

126.321 [1961 c.344 §45; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.323 Power of conservator to reimburse for expenditures; advances for services. Funds expended under ORS 126.317 may be paid by the conservator to any person, including the protected person to reimburse for expenditures which the conservator might have made, or in advance for services to be rendered to the protected person when it is reasonable to expect that they will be performed and where advance payments are customary or reasonably necessary under the circumstances. [1973 c.823 §62]

126.325 [Amended by 1953 c.102 §2; 1957 c.662 §2; repealed by 1961 c.344 §109]

126.327 Power of conservator to make gifts. If the estate is ample to provide for the purposes implicit in the distributions authorized under ORS 126.317, a conservator for a protected person may make gifts in a reasonable amount to charity and other objects as the protected person might have been expected to make. [1973 c.823 §63]

126.330 [Repealed by 1961 c.344 §109]

126.333 Payment of funds to protected person upon attainment of majority or cessation of disability. When a minor who has not been adjudged disabled under ORS 126.157 (2) attains his majority or when a conservator is satisfied that a protected person's disability, other than minority, has ceased, the conservator, after meeting all prior claims and expenses of administration, shall pay over and distribute all funds and properties to the former minor or protected person as soon as possible. [1973 c.823 §64]

126.337 Powers and duties of conservator on death of protected person. (1) If a protected person dies, the conservator shall deliver to the court for safekeeping any will of the deceased protected person which may have come into his possession, inform the executor or a beneficiary named therein that he has done so, and retain the estate for delivery to the personal representative of the decedent or other persons entitled thereto.

(2) If after 40 days from the death of the protected person a person has not been appointed personal representative and an application or petition for appointment is not before the court, the conservator may apply to exercise the powers and duties of a personal representative so that he may proceed to administer and distribute the decedent's estate without additional or further appointment.

(3) Upon application for an order granting the powers of a personal representative to a conservator, after notice to any person demanding notice under ORS 126.193 and to any person nominated executor in any will of which the applicant is aware, the court may, upon determining that there is no objection, order the conferral of the power and indorse the letters of the conservator to note that the formerly protected person is deceased and that the conservator has acquired all of the powers and duties of a personal representative. The making and entry of an order under this subsection shall have the effect of an order of appointment of a personal representative as provided in ORS chapters 113 to 116 except that estate in the name of the conservator, after administration, may be distributed to the decedent's successors without prior retransfer to the conservator as personal representative. [1973 c.823 §65; 1975 c.245 §2]

126.338 [1965 c.402 §4; 1969 c.591 §239; 1969 c.597 §§16, 277; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

Subject to the restrictions in ORS 126.217 (2) the court may confer on a conservator at the time of appointment or later, in addition to the powers conferred on him by ORS 126.307 to 126.337, any power which the court itself could exercise under ORS 126.213 and 126.217. The court may, at the time of appointment or later, limit the powers of a conservator otherwise conferred by ORS 126.307 to 126.337, or previously conferred by the court, and may at any time relieve him of any limitation. If the court limits any power conferred on the conservator by ORS 126.307 to 126.337, the limitation shall be indorsed upon his letters of appointment. [1973 c.823 §66]

The conservator may examine the will of the protected person. [1973 c.823 §67]

(1) A conservator shall pay from the estate claims against the estate and against the protected person arising before or after the conservatorship upon their presentation, allowance and maturity. Claims which become absolute at an uncertain time or upon the happening of an uncertain event shall not be allowed. The conservator may allow claims against the estate of a protected person in part and disallow them in the remaining part.

(2) A claim may be presented by either of the following methods:

(a) The claimant may deliver or mail to the conservator or the attorney for the conservator a written statement of the claim stating its basis, the name and address of the claimant and of the claimant's attorney if the claimant is represented by an attorney in respect to the claim and the amount claimed;

(b) The claimant may file the claim with the clerk of the court in which the proceeding is pending, so headed as to identify the protected person and the clerk's number of the proceeding, and deliver or mail a copy of the statement to the conservator or his attorney.

(3) If the conservator disallows the claim in whole or in part, or if the conservator finds that the claim is valid but not due, he shall notify the claimant or his attorney in writing of his disallowance or finding.

(4) The presentation of a claim and any defect in form or substance may be waived by the conservator or by the court if the claim, properly stated, is a valid and absolute obligation of the estate.

(5) The conservator may reconsider any claim previously rejected or allowed, or may compromise any claim against the estate of a protected person, including contingent, unliquidated and unmatured claims. [1973 c.823 §§68, 69, 72]

126.355 [Repealed by 1961 c.344 §109]

126.357 Enforcement of claim against estate or protected person. (1) An action upon a claim shall not be brought until the claim is disallowed or 60 days have elapsed from the date of its presentment without allowance and payment.

(2) A creditor of the protected person or his estate whose claim is secured shall not exercise remedies against the collateral until at least 30 days after the claim is presented and after notice to the conservator or his attorney, that he intends to exercise remedies against the collateral, but the court may shorten the period for cause.

(3) The conservator may convey the collateral to the secured creditor in satisfaction or partial satisfaction of the claim if the secured creditor agrees to accept the conveyance in satisfaction or partial satisfaction of the debt. [1973 c.823 §§70, 71]

126.360 [Repealed by 1961 c.344 §109]

126.363 Notice of claim to conservator. If a proceeding is pending against a protected person at the time of appointment of a conservator or is initiated against the protected person thereafter, the moving party must give notice of the proceeding to the conservator if the outcome is to constitute a claim against the estate. [1973 c.823 §73]

(a) File in the conservatorship proceeding a request for a summary determination of the claim by the court, with proof of service of a copy upon the conservator or his attorney; or

(b) Commence a separate action against the conservator on the claim in a court of competent jurisdiction. The action shall proceed and be tried as any other action.

(2) If the claimant requests a summary hearing, the conservator may, within 30 days after service of the request, notify the claimant in writing that if he desires to prove the claim he must commence a separate action against the conservator within 60 days after service of the notice. If the claimant fails to commence an action against the conservator within that time, the claim is barred.

(3) Neither party may appeal from an order allowing or disallowing in whole or in part a claim which has been considered upon a summary hearing. [1973 c.823 §74]

126.370 [Repealed by 1961 c.344 §109]

126.373 Effect of presentation of claim on statute of limitations. (1) The presentation of a claim tolls any statute of limitation until 30 days after the claim is disallowed or if the claim is not allowed or disallowed within 60 days after it is presented until 90 days after it is presented.

(2) The filing of a request for a summary determination of a claim which has been disallowed in whole or in part is, in the application of statutes of limitation, the commencement of an action. [1973 c.823 §75]

126.377 Preferences of claims. If it appears that the estate in conservatorship is likely to be exhausted before all claims are paid, preference is to be given to claims for the care, maintenance and education of the protected person or his dependents and claims for expenses of administration. [1973 c.823 §76]

(Miscellaneous)

126.383 Liability of conservator. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the contract, a conservator is not individually liable on a contract properly entered into in his fiduciary capacity in the course of administration of the estate unless he fails to reveal his representative capacity and identify the estate in the contract.

(2) The conservator is individually liable for obligations arising from ownership or control of property of the estate or for torts committed in the course of administration of the estate only if he is personally at fault.

(3) Claims based on contracts entered into by a conservator in his fiduciary capacity, on obligations arising from ownership or control of the estate, or on torts committed in the course of administration of the estate may be asserted against the estate by proceeding against the conservator in his fiduciary capacity, whether or not the conservator is individually liable.

(4) Any question of liability between the estate and the conservator individually may be determined in a proceeding for accounting, surcharge, or indemnification, or other appropriate proceeding or action. [1973 c.823 §77]

126.387 Termination of conservatorship. (1) The protected person, his personal representative, the conservator or any other interested person may petition the court to terminate the conservatorship. A protected person seeking termination is entitled to the same rights and procedures as in an original proceeding for a protective order.

The recipient of the property so delivered shall give a receipt therefor to the conservator. The receipt is a release and acquittance to the conservator as to the property so delivered. The conservator shall file in the protective proceeding proper receipts or other evidence satisfactory to the court showing such delivery. (1) When a principal designates another his attorney-in-fact or agent by a power of attorney in writing and the writing does not contain words which otherwise limit the period of time of its effectiveness, the

(2) All acts done by the attorney-in-fact or agent under the power of attorney during any period of disability or incompetence of the principal at law shall have the same effect and shall insure to the benefit of and bind the principal as though the principal were not disabled or incompetent.

(3) If a conservator is appointed thereafter for the principal, the attorney-in-fact or agent, during the continuation of that appointment, shall account to the conservator rather than to the principal. 126.413 Power of attorney not revoked until death or disability known. (1) The death of any principal who has executed a power of attorney in writing does not revoke or terminate the agency as to the attorney-in-fact or agent who, without actual knowledge of the death of the principal, acts in good faith under the power of attorney or agency. Any action so taken, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, binds the principal and his heirs, devisees and personal representatives.

(2) An affidavit, executed by the attorney-in-fact or agent stating that he did not have, at the time of doing an act under the power of attorney, actual knowledge of the revocation or termination of the power of attorney by death, is, in the absence of fraud, conclusive proof of the nonrevocation or nontermination of the power at that time. If the exercise of the power requires execution and delivery of any instrument which is recordable, the affidavit when authenticated for record is likewise recordable.

(3) This section shall not be construed to alter or affect any provision for revocation or termination contained in the power of attorney. [1973 c.823 §83]
