A registered collection agency has a property right in any claim or account assigned to the agency in writing for collection. (a) Collect the claim or account;

(b) Compromise or accept settlement of the claim or account;

(c) Bring and maintain a civil suit or action to recover the amount owing from the claim or account; and

(d) With prior written approval of the assignor, transfer or forward the claim or account to another collection agency for collection.

(2) Except as may be otherwise provided in writing between the assignor of the claim or account and the registered collection agency, the assignor may withdraw the claim or account from the agency at any time without condition or charge.

(3) No collection agency is entitled to bring or maintain any civil suit or action involving the collection of a claim or account on behalf of its customers in any courts of this state without alleging and proving that it is duly registered under ORS 697.015 and 697.031. A registration certificate or a certification of registration by the director for any designated time period shall be received by the court as prima facie evidence of the collection agency's registration for the time period designated. The provisions of ORS 697.015 and 697.031 are exclusive and no political subdivision or agency of this state may require of a collection agency any registration, license or fee for any collection agency duly registered under ORS 697.015 and 697.031. Nothing in this section limits the authority of any political subdivision to levy and collect a general and nondiscriminatory license or registration fee upon all businesses in the political subdivision or to levy a tax based upon the business conducted by any registered collection agency within the political subdivision. [1981 c.85 §8]

697.055 [1975 c.364 §37; 1977 c.185 §9; repealed by 1981 c.85 §17]

697.058 Agency records; trust accounts; reporting requirements; payment of cost of audit. (1) Every collection agency shall keep a record of all sums collected by it, and of all disbursements made by it, and shall maintain and keep all such records and all customers' funds within this state. Collection agencies shall maintain accounting records of collections for and payments to customers for a period of six years from the date of the last entry thereon.

Collection agencies shall keep other records for a period of two years from the date of the last entry thereon. No collection agency, or any employe thereof, shall intentionally make any false entry in any collection agency record or intentionally mutilate, destroy or otherwise dispose of any such record within the time limits provided in this section.

(2) No collection agency shall commingle the money of customers with other moneys, but shall maintain a separate trust account in this state for customers' funds and shall keep funds in such trust account until disbursed to the customer.

(3) Every collection agency which requires customers to pay an amount for services prior to the time that the services are rendered shall maintain a separate trust account in this state for prepayments and shall keep prepayment funds in the trust account for 180 days or until the services for which prepayment is made are performed, whichever occurs first.

(4) Every collection agency, within 30 days after the close of each calendar or fiscal month, shall report and pay to its customers the net proceeds due and payable of all collections made during that calendar or fiscal month. When the net proceeds are less than $5 at the end of any calendar or fiscal month, payments may be deferred for a period not to exceed three months.

(5) Upon the director's own motion or upon receipt of a complaint by a customer of the collection agency, the director may audit the collection agency's trust accounts with respect to any violation by the collection agency of this section. If the director finds any discrepancy in the trust accounts, the director also may audit the operating account of the collection agency. The collection agency shall pay the reasonable cost of an audit under this section, as determined by the director.

(6) If a collection agency does not pay the cost of the audit determined under subsection (5) of this section, the director may assign the delinquent account to the Department of Revenue for collection in the manner that other debts are collected under ORS 293.250. [1981 c.85 §9; 1983 c.69 §2]

697.060 [Repealed by 1959 c.525 §36]

697.061 [1959 c.525 §5; 1963 c.558 §4; 1963 c.580 §59; 1973 c.547 §4; 1975 c.364 §7; repealed by 1981 c.85 §17]

697.070 [Amended by 1959 c.525 §6; 1961 c.686 §1; 1969 c.373 §7; 1971 c.119 §3; 1973 c.547 §5; 1974 s.s. c.25 §4; 1975 c.364 §8; 1977 c.873 §21; repealed by 1981 c.85 §17]

697.075 Nonresident registrant; director as agent for service; method of service. The acceptance, by a nonresident, of a registration as a collection agency under ORS 697.031 shall be deemed equivalent to an appointment by such nonresident of the director as the nonresident's true and lawful attorney, upon whom may be served any lawful summons, process or pleading in any action or suit against the nonresident in any court of this state, arising out of any business done by the nonresident as a collection agency in this state, and such acceptance shall be deemed equivalent to an agreement by the nonresident that any summons, process or pleading so served shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served on the nonresident personally in this state. If it appears by the certificate of the sheriff of the county in which any action or suit has been filed against the nonresident registrant, that the defendant cannot be found in this state, services of any summons, process or pleading in the action or suit may be made leaving a copy thereof, with a fee of $2, in the hands of the director or in the director's office. Such service shall be sufficient and valid personal service upon the defendant; provided that notice of such service and copy of the summons, process or pleading is sent forthwith by registered mail by the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney to the defendant, at the most recent address furnished to the director by the nonresident registrant or to the registrant's last-known address, and the affidavit of the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney of such mailing is appended to the summons, process or pleading and entered as a part of the return thereof. However, personal service outside of the state in accordance with the statutes relating to personal service of summons outside of the state shall relieve the plaintiff from such mailing requirement. Any summons served as provided in this section shall require the defendant to appear and answer the complaint within four weeks after receipt thereof by the director. The fee of $2 paid by the plaintiff to the director shall be taxed as costs in favor of the plaintiff if the plaintiff prevails in the action. The director shall keep a record of each summons, process or pleading served upon the director under this section, showing the day and hour of service. [1981 c.85 §16]

697.080 [Amended by 1959 c.525 §7; 1963 c.558 §5; 1969 c.373 §8, 1975 c.364 §9; repealed by 1981 c.85 §17]

697.085 Rulemaking. In accordance with applicable provisions of ORS 183.310 to 183.550, the director may adopt rules for the administration and enforcement of ORS 697.005 to 697.095. [1983 c.69 §5]

697.090 [Repealed by 1959 c.525 §36]

(1) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, a person who violates any provision of ORS 697.015 or 697.058 or any rule adopted under ORS 697.031 or 697.085 is subject to forfeiture and payment of a civil penalty to the Department of Commerce in an amount of not more than $1,000 for each offense.

(2) A civil penalty under this section shall be determined and assessed by the director in a contested case proceeding under ORS 183.310 to 183.550.

(3) If a person against whom a civil penalty is assessed under this section does not pay the civil penalty within 60 days after the order assessing the penalty becomes final, the order shall have the same effect as a judgment of a court of record and the director may file and execute upon this order in the same manner as the judgment of a court of record in this state.

(4) All penalties recovered shall be deposited in the General Fund in accordance with ORS 670.335. [1983 c.69 §4]

697.098 Collection Agency Account. There is established in the General Fund of the State Treasury the Collection Agency Account. Except as otherwise provided by law, all moneys received by the Director of Commerce pursuant to laws regulating collection agencies shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to the account. All moneys in the account are appropriated continuously to carry out the provisions of laws regulating collection agencies. [1981 c.267 §2]

(1) When the director determines that any person has engaged in, is engaging in or is about to engage in any act or practice which the director believes is in violation of ORS 697.612 or any provision of ORS 697.652 to 697.702, the director may bring suit in the name of the State of Oregon in any circuit court of this state to enjoin the acts or practices. If the director prevails, the director shall recover court costs and a reasonable attorney fee to be fixed by the court. Upon a proper showing, the court shall grant a permanent or temporary injunction or restraining order and may appoint a receiver or conservator for the defendant or the defendant's assets. The court shall not require the director to post a bond.

(2) The director may include in any suit authorized by subsection (1) of this section a claim for damages on behalf of any other person injured by any act or practice against which an injunction or restraining order is sought. the person by private civil action or suit, whether by class action or otherwise, would be so burdensome or expensive as to be impracticable.

If the debt consolidating agency does not pay the claim as required by this subsection, the director shall order the claim paid out of the bond or deposit filed under ORS 697.642.

(1) If any claim in an amount of more than $200 is filed with the director against a debt consolidating agency under ORS 697.782, the debt consolidating agency may remove the claim from the director's determination by filing within 20 days of the debt consolidating agency's receipt of notice of the claim, a request with the director to remove the claim.

(2) Upon receipt of a request to remove a claim under subsection (1) of this section, the director shall:

(a) Discontinue hearings procedures under ORS 697.782; and

(b) Notify the person filing the claim that the director cannot determine the claim but that the person may file the claim in an appropriate court of this state.

(3) If a court of this state awards damages on a claim against a debt consolidating agency to the person bringing the suit or action, the court shall award reasonable costs, expert witness fees and attorney fees at trial and on appeal to the

(a) A claim determined by the director under ORS 697.782 is filed when the claim is first filed with and accepted by the director.

(b) A claim based on a determination by a court is filed when evidence of liability under a final determination by a court is filed with the director.

(2) If a claim filed with the director is made part of an action filed in a court before final determination of the claim by the director:

(a) The director shall dismiss the claim and discontinue any hearing on the claim; and

(b) The claim shall have priority under this section based on the time the final determination of the court is filed with the director.

(6) If the order is not appealed, the amount of the penalty is payable within 10 days after the order is entered. If the order is appealed and is sustained, the amount of the penalty is payable within 10 days after the court decision. The order, if not appealed or if sustained on appeal, shall constitute a judgment and may be filed in accordance with ORS 18.320 to 18.370. Execu-

(7) The payment or tendering of payment of a civil penalty imposed under this section shall not relieve the obligation of a person to comply with the applicable statute or rule.

(8) All penalties recovered under this section shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to the General Fund and are available for general governmental expenses. [1983 c.17 §24a]

697.842 Disposition of moneys received by director.
