723.006 "Credit union" defined. A credit union is a cooperative, nonprofit association, incorporated under the laws of this state, for the purposes of encouraging thrift among its members, creating a source of credit at a fair and reasonable rate of interest and providing an opportunity for its members to use and control their own money in order to improve their economic and social condition. (2) The incorporators shall execute in duplicate articles of incorporation and agree to the terms thereof, which articles shall state:

(a) The name, which shall include the words "credit union" and which shall not be the same as that of any other existing credit union in this state, and the location where the proposed credit union is to have its principal place of business.

(b) The term of its existence, which may be perpetual.

(c) The par value of the shares of the credit union, which shall be in $5 multiples, of not less than $5, nor more than $25.

(3) The superintendent may prescribe rules and regulations for the administration of ORS 317.920, 723.002 to 723.816 and 723.832 to 723.992.

(4) The superintendent shall from time to time issue rules and regulations prescribing the minimum amount of surety bond coverage and casualty, liability and fire insurance required of credit unions in relation to their assets or to the money and other personal property involved, or their exposure to risk. [1975 c.652 §11]

723.104 Investigation of fitness of applicants for employment; rejection of applicants and dismissal of employes. The superintendent may investigate the honesty and general fitness of any person before employing the person in the division as a special assistant, deputy, examiner or other employe of the division. Notwithstanding the State Personnel Relations Law, the superintendent may reject any applicant or dismiss any officer or employe if any of the reasons stated in ORS 723.014 apply to the applicant or other person. [1977 c.135 §43]

723.106 Reports. (1) Credit unions shall report to the superintendent annually on or before January 31 of each year on forms supplied by him for that purpose. Additional reports may be required.

723.112 Examinations; fees. (1) The superintendent shall annually examine or cause to be examined each credit union. Each credit union and all of its officers and agents shall be required to give to representatives of the superintendent full access to all books, papers, securities, records and other sources of information under their control; and for the purpose of such examination the representatives may subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, compel the giving of testimony and require the submission of documents.

(2) A report of such examination shall be forwarded to the executive officer of each credit union within 60 days after completion. The report shall contain comments relative to the management of the affairs of the credit union and also as to the general condition of its assets. Within 45 days after the receipt of such report, the directors and committeemen shall meet to consider matters contained in the report and shall report in writing to the superintendent as to the manner in which the credit union shall comply with the superintendent's recommendations.

(3)(a) Subject to paragraphs (b) to (d) of this subsection, and subsections (4) and (5) of this section, each credit union shall pay to the superintendent each year such fees as the superintendent finds and determines to be necessary, with the amount of all other fees paid or payable to the superintendent by credit unions in the current calendar year, to defray the costs of supervision and examination.

However, if, in any calendar year, the superintendent increases the fee charged under this paragraph so that it constitutes a greater percentage of the credit union's assets in excess of $5 million than the percentage used in the previous calendar year, the State Banking Board shall review the superintendent's finding and determination that the increase is necessary. In addition, if, in any biennium, the superintendent intends to increase the fee charged under this subsection by decreasing the denominator of the fraction used to determine the fee by an amount greater than 10, the superintendent must obtain the approval of the Legislative Assembly, or the Emergency Board when the Legislative Assembly is not in session, before the increased fee is effective.

(d) In addition thereto, the credit union shall pay a branch fee based on the actual cost of each branch examination, or the sum of $25, whichever is larger.

(4) The superintendent may, as it may appear to him advisable and subject to review by the State Banking Board, reduce the fees to be collected for supervision and examination of credit unions.

(5) Whenever any extra attention is devoted to the affairs of a credit union by the superintendent, as may be considered by him to be necessary or expedient or as may be requested by the credit union, the fee for such extra service shall be the actual cost thereof. [1975 c.652 §13; 1977 c.135 §45]

(3) A photostatic or photographic reproduction of any credit union records shall be admissible as evidence of transactions with the credit union. [1975 c.652 §14]

Such bond shall be approved by the superintendent who may require such additional amounts as he deems necessary for credit unions with assets in excess of $2 million.

(2) All bond claims shall be reported to the superintendent. [1975 c.652 §15]

723.631 Regular reserve; reserve for loan losses. (1) At the end of each accounting period, the gross earnings of the credit union shall be determined. From this amount the credit union shall set aside as a regular reserve for contingencies five percent of gross income until the regular reserve equals two percent of the total outstanding loans.

(2) In addition to the regular reserve required in subsection (1) of this section, a credit union shall establish a reserve for loan losses. The credit union shall allocate sufficient funds each month to the reserve for loan losses in an amount at least equal to the credit union's best estimate of the losses the credit union expects to sustain in the liquidation of currently outstanding loans. [1981 c.192 §38 (enacted in lieu of 723.632)]

723.632 [1975 c.652 §65; 1979 c.88 §35; repealed by 1981 c.192 §37 (723.631 enacted in lieu of 723.632)]

723.636 Use of regular reserve. The regular reserve established under ORS 723.631 (1), shall belong to the credit union and shall be used to meet losses except those resulting from an excess of expenses over income and shall not be distributed except on liquidation of the credit union, or in accordance with a plan approved by the superintendent. [1975 c.652 §66; 1981 c.192 §39]

723.642 [1975 c.652 §67; 1977 c.628 §4; repealed by 1981 c.192 §46]

723.646 Special reserves; purpose. (1) In addition to the regular reserve established under ORS 723.631, special reserves to protect the interest of members shall be established, as provided in this section:

(a) When required by regulation; or

(b) When found by the board of directors of the credit union or by the superintendent (or if the members' accounts are insured by the National Credit Union Administration, the Administrator of the National Credit Union Administration), in any special case, to be necessary for that purpose.

(2) A credit union required to have a special reserve shall place in the reserve, before payment of each dividend, at least five percent of the expected net earnings of the credit union after the dividend payment or two percent of the gross earnings of the credit union before the dividend payment, whichever is greater, until the special reserve equals five percent of all share, savings and deposit accounts of the credit union. Thereafter, the credit union shall make regular contributions to the special reserve in order to maintain the special reserve at five percent of all share, savings and deposit accounts of the credit union.

(3) The special reserve shall be maintained in one or more of the following forms:

(4) Special reserves belong to the credit union and shall be used to provide liquidity for the credit union. A credit union may not pay regular or special dividends from the special reserve. [1975 c.652 §68; 1981 c.192 §40]

CHANGE IN CORPORATE STATUS

723.672 Suspension. (1) If it appears that any credit union is bankrupt or insolvent, or that it has wilfully violated ORS 317.920, 723.002 to 723.816 and 723.832 to 723.992, or is operating in an unsafe or unsound manner, the superintendent shall issue an order temporarily suspending the credit union's operations for not less than 30 nor more than 60 days. The board of directors shall be given notice by registered mail of such suspension, and a list of the specific violations of ORS 317.920, 723.002 to 723.816 and 723.832 to 723.992.

(2) Upon receipt of such suspension notice, the credit union shall cease all operations, except those authorized by the superintendent. The board of directors shall then file with the superintendent a reply to the suspension notice, and may request a hearing to present a plan of corrective actions proposed if it desires to continue operations. The board may request that the credit union be declared insolvent and a liquidating agent be appointed.

(3) Upon receipt from the suspended credit union of evidence that the conditions causing the order of suspension have been corrected, the superintendent may revoke the suspension notice and permit the credit union to resume normal operations.

(4) If the superintendent, after issuing notice of suspension and providing an opportunity for a hearing, rejects the credit union's plan to continue operations, he may then revoke the credit union's charter, appoint a liquidating agent and liquidate the credit union. The credit union may request the appropriate court to stay execution of such action. Involuntary liquidation may not be ordered prior to the conclusion of suspension procedures outlined in this section.

(5) If, within the suspension period, the credit union fails to answer the suspension notice or request a hearing, the superintendent may then revoke the credit union's charter, appoint a liquidating agent and liquidate the credit union.

723.676 Liquidation. (1) A credit union may elect to dissolve voluntarily and liquidate its affairs in the manner prescribed in this section.

(2) The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending the credit union be dissolved voluntarily and directing that the question of liquidation be submitted to the members.

(3) Within 10 days after the board of directors decides to submit the question of liquidation to the members, the president shall notify the superintendent thereof in writing setting forth the reasons for the proposed action. Within 10 days after the members act on the question of liquidation, the president shall notify the superintendent in writing as to whether or not the members approved the proposed liquidation.

(4) As soon as the board of directors decides to submit the question of liquidation to the members, payment on shares, withdrawal of shares, making any transfer of shares to loans and interest, making investments of any kind and granting loans shall be suspended pending action by members on the proposal to liquidate. On approval by the members of such proposal, all such business transactions shall be permanently discontinued. Necessary expenses of operation shall, however, continue to be paid on authorization of the board of directors or liquidating agent during the period of liquidation.

(5) For a credit union to enter voluntary liquidation, approval by a majority of the members in writing or by a two-thirds majority of the members present at a regular or special meeting of the members is required. Where authorization for liquidation is to be obtained at a meeting of the members, notice in writing shall be given to each member by first class mail to the member's last-known address at least 10 days prior to such meeting.

(6) A liquidating credit union shall continue in existence for the purpose of discharging its debts, collecting and distributing its assets and doing all acts required in order to wind up its business and may sue and be sued for the purpose of enforcing such debts and obligations until its affairs are fully adjusted.

(7) The board of directors or the liquidating agent shall use the assets of the credit union to pay: First, expenses incidental to liquidating including any surety bond that may be required; and, second, any liability due nonmembers. Assets then remaining shall be distributed to the members proportionately to the shares and deposits held by each member as of the date dissolution was voted.

(8) As soon as the board of directors or the liquidating agent determines that all assets from which there is a reasonable expectancy of realization have been liquidated and distributed as set forth in this section, they shall execute a certificate of dissolution on a form prescribed by the superintendent and file the same, together with all pertinent books and records of the liquidating credit union, with the superintendent, whereupon such credit union shall be dissolved. [1975 c.652 §70]

723.682 Merger. (1) Any credit union chartered and domiciled in this state may, with the approval of the superintendent, merge with another credit union under the existing charter of the other credit union, if domiciled in this state, pursuant to any plan agreed upon by the majority of each board of directors of each credit union joining in the merger, and approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the merging credit union present at a meeting of its members duly called for such purpose.

(2) After agreement by the directors and approval by the members of the merging credit union, the president and secretary of the credit union shall execute a certificate of merger, which shall set forth all of the following:

(a) The time and place of the meeting of the board of directors at which the plan was agreed upon.

(b) The vote in favor of the adoption of the plan.

(c) A copy of the resolution or other action by which the plan was agreed upon.

(d) The time and place of the meeting of the members at which the plan agreed upon was approved.

(e) The vote by which the plan was approved by the members.

(3) Such certificate and a copy of the plan of merger agreed upon shall be forwarded to the superintendent, certified by him, and returned to both credit unions within 30 days.

(4) Upon return of the certificate from the superintendent, all property, property rights, and members' interest of the merged credit union shall vest in the surviving credit union without deed, indorsement or other instrument of transfer, and all debts, obligations and liabilities of the merged credit union shall be deemed to have been assumed by the surviving credit union under whose charter the merger was affected. The rights and privileges of the members of the merged credit union shall remain intact.

(5) This section shall be construed, whenever possible, to permit a credit union chartered under the laws of any other state or of the United States to merge with one chartered under the laws of this state, or to permit one chartered under the laws of this state to merge with one chartered under the laws of any other state or of the United States, provided such credit unions are domiciled in this state. [1975 c.652 §71]

723.686 Conversion of charter. (1) A credit union chartered under the laws of this state may be converted to a credit union chartered under the laws of the United States, subject to the approval of the superintendent.

(2) A credit union chartered under the laws of the United States may convert to a credit union chartered under the laws of this state. To effect such a conversion, a credit union must comply with all the requirements of the jurisdiction under which it was originally chartered and the requirements of the superintendent and file proof of such compliance with the superintendent. [1975 c.652 §72]

(1) It shall be exempt from the regular reserve requirements of ORS 723.631, but shall be required to establish and maintain an equity reserve which shall be used as provided under ORS 723.636. At the close of each accounting period there shall be set aside to the equity reserve a portion of the gross income for such period as follows:

Except with respect to the obligations of the United States, its agencies and instrumentalities, the obligations shall be rated in one of the four highest grades by a recognized investment service organization that has been engaged regularly and continuously for a period of not less than 10 years in rating such obligations.
