69.150. ORS 69.150 to 69 530 may be cited as the Uniform Limited Partnership Act.

69.160. A limited partnership is a partnership formed by two or more persons under ORS 69 180, having as members one or more general partners and one or more limited partners. A limited partner as such shall not be bound by the obligations of the partnership.

CORPORATIONS AND PARTNERSHIPS

69.170. A limited partnership may carry on any business which a partnership without limited partners may carry on

69.180. (1) Two or more persons desiring to form a limited partnership shall:

(a) Sign and verify a certificate, which shall state:

(A) The name of the partnership which shall be written in the alphabet used to write the English language, and may include numerals and incidental punctuation;

(B) A mailing address to which the Corporation Commissioner may mail notices as required by this chapter,

(C) The street address of the initial registered office of the limited partnership and the name of the limited partnership's initial registered agent who shall be amenable to service of process at the address;

(D) That the undersigned general partners each designate the initial registered agent of the limited partnership and any successor registered agent as the personal registered agent and attorney of the general partners upon whom any process, notice or demand which arises out of the conduct of the partnership affairs and which is required or permitted by law to be served upon a general partner, may be served,

(E) The name and address of each member, general and limited partners being respectively designated;

(F) The term for which the partnership is to exist,

(G) The amount of cash and a description of the agreed value of the other property contributed by each limited partner,

(H) The additional contributions, if any, agreed to be made by each limited partner and the times at which or events on the happening of which they shall be made;

(I) The time, if agreed upon, when the contribution of each limited partner is to be returned;

(J) The share of the profits or other compensation by way of income which each limited partner shall receive by reason of the limited partner's contribution,

(K) The right, if given, of a limited partner to substitute an assignee as contributor in the limited partner's place, and the terms and conditions of the substitution;

(L) The right, if given, of the partners to admit additional limited partners;

(M) The right, if given, of one or more of the limited partners to priority over other limited partners, as to contributions or as to compensation by way of income, and the nature of such priority;

(N) The right, if given, of the remaining general partner or partners to continue the business on the death, retirement or insanity of a general partner;

(O) The right, if given, of a limited partner to demand and receive property other than cash in return for the limited partner's contribution;

(P) The right, if given, of a limited partner to vote upon any of the matters described by ORS 69.280 (2) and the vote required for election or removal of general partners, or to cause other action to be effective as to the limited partnership;

(Q) The right, if given, of a general partner to exercise a power of attorney to sign on behalf of a limited partner a certificate of limited partnership or amendments thereto, and

(R) Any other identifying information that the Corporation Commissioner by rule may require.

(b) Submit for filing one copy of such certificate to the Corporation Division.

(2) The second copy of the certificate shall be kept in the files of the partnership. The Corporation Division shall be paid a filing fee of $50 and the annual fee specified in ORS 69.510 (5)(a) upon submission of the copy and the commissioner shall issue a receipt therefor. The receipt shall be prima facie evidence of the filing.

(3) A limited partnership is formed if there has been substantial compliance in good faith with the requirements of subsection (1) of this section.

69.190. After the formation of a limited partnership, additional limited partners may be admitted upon filing an amendment to the original certificate in accordance with ORS 69.410.

69.200. (1) The surname of a limited partner shall not appear in the partnership name, unless:

(a) It is also the surname of a general partner, or

(b) Prior to the time when the limited partner became such, the business had been carried on under a name in which his surname appeared.

(2) A limited partner whose name appears in a partnership name contrary to subsection (1) of this section is liable as a general partner to partnership creditors who extend credit to the partnership without actual knowledge that he is not a general partner

69.210 (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the Corporation Commissioner shall not accept for filing a certificate of limited partnership containing a partnership name which is not distinguishable on the records of the division from any corporate or other limited partnership name, including any reserved name or registered corporate name or assumed business name of active record with the division.

(2) The Corporation Commissioner may accept for filing a certificate of limited partnership containing a name that otherwise may not be accepted under subsection (1) of this section if the applicant submits for filing to the Corporation Division a certified copy of a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction that finds that the applicant has a prior or concurrent right to use the limited partnership name in this state

(3) Nothing in this section shall abrogate or limit the law as to unfair competition or unfair trade practices or derogate from the common law, the principles of equity or the statutes of this state or of the United States with respect to the right to acquire and to protect trade names.

69.230. If there are several limited partners, the partners may agree that one or more of the limited partners shall have a priority over other limited partners as to the return of their contributions, as to their compensation by way of income or as to any other matter. If such an agreement is made, it shall be stated in the certificate and, in the absence of such a statement, all the limited partners shall stand upon equal footing.

69.240. (1) A limited partner shall have the same rights as a general partner to:

LIMITED PARTNERSHIPS

(a) Have the partnership books kept at the principal place of business of the partnership, and at all times to inspect and copy any of them.

(b) Have on demand true and full information of all things affecting the partnership, and a formal account of partnership affairs, whenever circumstances render it just and reasonable.

(c) Have dissolution and winding up by decree of court.

(2) A limited partner shall have the right to receive a share of the profits or other compensation by way of income, and to the return of his contribution as provided by ORS 69.270 and 69.320

69.251. Except as provided in the partnership agreement, a general partner or a limited partner may lend money to and transact other business with the partnership and, subject to the provisions of ORS chapter 95 on fraudulent conveyances and other applicable law, has the same rights and obligations with respect to the partnership as a person who is not a partner.

69.260. (1) A limited partner is liable to the partnership:

(a) For the difference between his contribution as actually made, and that stated in the certificate as having been made; and

(b) For any unpaid contribution which he agreed in the certificate to make in the future at the time and on the conditions stated in the certificate.

(2) A limited partner holds as trustee for the partnership:

(a) Specific property stated in the certificate as contributed by him, but which was not contributed or which has been wrongfully returned; and

(b) Money or other property wrongfully paid or conveyed to him on account of his contribution.

(3) The liabilities of a limited partner as set forth by this section can be waived or compromised only by the consent of all partners; but a waiver or compromise shall not affect the right of a creditor of a partnership who extended credit, or whose claim arose after the filing and before a cancellation or amendment of the certificate, to enforce such liabilities.

(4) When a partner has rightfully received the return in whole or in part of the capital of his contribution, he is nevertheless liable to the partnership for any sum, not in excess of such return with interest, necessary to discharge its liabilities to all creditors who extended credit or whose claims arose before such return.

69.270. A limited partner may receive from the partnership the share of the profits or the compensation by way of income stated in the certificate. However, such a payment shall not be made unless, after the payment is made, whether from the property of the partnership or that of a general partner, the partnership assets are in excess of all liabilities of the partnership, except liabilities to limited partners on account of their contributions and to general partners.

69.280. (1) A limited partner shall not become liable as a general partner unless, in addition to the exercise of rights and powers as a limited partner, the limited partner takes part in the control of the business.

(2) A limited partner shall not be considered as taking part in the control of the business by virtue of possessing or exercising a power, specified in the certificate or partnership agreement, to vote upon matters affecting the basic structure of the partnership, including the following matters or others of a similar nature:

(a) The dissolution and winding up of the partnership;

(b) The sale, exchange, lease, mortgage, pledge or other transfer of all or substantially all the assets of the partnership other than in the ordinary course of business;

(c) Incurring of indebtedness by the partnership other than in the ordinary course of business;

(d) A change in the nature of the business of the partnership;

(e) The election or removal of a general partner;

(f) The amendment of the partnership agreement; or

(g) The continuation of the partnership as provided in ORS 69.360.

(3) A limited partner does not participate in the control of the business within the meaning of subsection (1) of this section solely by participating in a derivative action as provided in ORS 69.475.

(4) The statement of powers set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section shall not be construed as exclusive or as indicating that any other powers possessed or exercised by a limited partner shall be sufficient to cause the limited partner to be considered taking part in the control of the business within the meaning of subsection (1) of this section.

69.290. The interest of a limited partner in the partnership is personal property.

69.300. (1) The interest of a limited partner is assignable.

(2) A substituted limited partner is a person admitted to all the rights of a limited partner who has died or who has assigned his interest in the partnership.

(3) An assignee, who does not become a substituted limited partner, has no right to require any information or account of the partnership transactions, to inspect the partnership books or to vote on any of the matters as to which a limited partner would be entitled to vote pursuant to ORS 69.280 and the certificate of limited partnership. He is entitled to receive only the share of the profits or other compensation by way of income, or the return of his contribution, to which his assignor would otherwise be entitled.

(4) An assignee shall have the right to become a substituted limited partner if all the partners (except the assignor) consent thereto or if the assignor, being empowered to do so by the certificate, gives the assignee that right.

(5) An assignee becomes a substituted limited partner when the certificate is appropriately amended in accordance with ORS 69.410.

(6) The substituted limited partner has all the rights and powers, and is subject to all the restrictions and liabilities of his assignor, except those liabilities of which he was ignorant at the time he became a limited partner and which could not be ascertained from the certificate.

(7) The substitution of the assignee as a limited partner does not release the assignor from liability to the partnership under ORS 69.260 and 69.390.

CORPORATIONS AND PARTNERSHIPS

69.311. The contribution of a partner may be in cash, property or services rendered or a promissory note or other obligation to contribute cash or property.

69.320. (1) A limited partner shall not receive from a general partner or out of partnership property any part of his contribution until:

(a) All liabilities of the partnership, except liabilities to general partners and to limited partners on account of their contributions, have been paid or there remains property of the partnership sufficient to pay them;

(b) The consent of all partners is obtained, unless the return of the contribution may be rightfully demanded under subsection (2) of this section; and

(c) The certificate is canceled or so amended as to set forth the withdrawal or reduction

(2) A limited partner may rightfully demand the return of his contribution:

(a) On the dissolution of a partnership,

(b) When the date specified in the certificate for its return has arrived, or

(c) After he has given six months' notice in writing to all other partners, if no time is specified in the certificate either for the return of the contribution or for the dissolution of the partnership.

(3) In the absence of any statement in the certificate, to the contrary or of the consent of all partners, a limited partner, irrespective of the nature of his contribution, has the right to demand and receive only cash in return for his contribution

(4) A limited partner may have the partnership dissolved and its affairs wound up when:

(a) He rightfully but unsuccessfully demands the return of his contribution, or

(b) The other liabilities of the partnership have not been paid, or the partnership property is insufficient for their payment, as required by paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section, and the limited partner would otherwise be entitled to the return of his contribution.

69.330. (1) On the death of a limited partner, his executor or administrator shall have all the rights of a limited partner for the purpose of settling his estate, and such power as the deceased had to constitute his assignee a substituted limited partner.

(2) The estate of a deceased limited partner shall be liable for all his liabilities as a limited partner.

69.340. A person who has contributed to the capital of a business conducted by a person or partnership, erroneously believing that he has become a limited partner in a limited partnership, is not, by reason of his exercise of the rights of a limited partner, a general partner with the person or in the partnership carrying on the business. Furthermore, he is not bound by the obligations of such person or partnership. However, this section does not apply unless, on ascertaining the mistake, he promptly renounces his interest in the profits of the business or other compensation by way of income from his contribution.

69.350. (1) A general partner shall have all the rights and powers and be subject to all the restrictions and liabilities of a partner in a partnership without limited partners, except that, without the written consent or ratification of the specific act by all the limited partners, a general partner or all of the general partners have no authority to.

(a) Do any act in contravention of the certificate.

(b) Do any act which would make it impossible to carry on the ordinary business of the partnership.

(c) Confess a judgment against the partnership.

(d) Possess partnership property, or assign their rights in specific partnership property, for other than a partnership purpose.

(e) Admit a person as a general partner.

(f) Admit a person as a limited partner, unless the right so to do is given in the certificate

(g) Continue the business with partnership property on the death, retirement or insanity of a general partner, unless the right so to do is given in the certificate.

(2) In the event of the removal or failure of reelection of a general partner, pursuant to the vote of the limited partners in accordance with the certificate, such general partner shall cease to be liable as such upon:

(a) The filing of an amended certificate of limited partnership as provided by ORS 69.400 and 69.410; and

(b) Compliance by the partnership or the partner with all of the requirements of notice and publication of a former partner in a partnership without limited partners. [1971 c.594 §10]

69.360. The retirement, death or insanity of a general partner dissolves the partnership, unless the business is continued by the remaining general partners

(1) Under a right so to do stated in the certificate, or

(2) With the consent of all partners.

69.365. (1) If the sole general partner is a domestic corporation which has been voluntarily or involuntarily dissolved, the limited partnership shall become inactive at the time of the general partner's dissolution.

(2) If the sole general partner is a foreign corporation and its certificate of authority is revoked, the limited partnership shall become inactive at the time of the revocation of the certificate of authority.

(3) Any limited partnership becoming inactive under this section shall become active by filing with the Corporation Commissioner a certificate of limited partnership designating a substituted general partner

(4) This section applies to both domestic and foreign limited partnerships.

69.370. (1) A person may be a general partner and a limited partner in the same partnership at the same time

(2) A person who is a general, and also at the same time a limited partner, shall have all the rights and powers and be subject to all the restrictions of a general partner; except that, in respect to his contribution, he shall have the rights against the other partners which he would have had if he were not also a general partner.

69.380. A partner, unless he is a general partner, is not a proper party to proceedings by or against a partnership, except where the object is to enforce a right or liability of a limited partner against or to the partnership.

69.390. (1) If the certificate contains a false statement, one who suffers loss by reliance on such statement may hold liable any party to the certificate who:

(a) Knew the statement to be false at the time he signed the certificate; or

(b) Learned of the falsity subsequent to signing but with sufficient time before such reliance to enable the party to cause the certificate to be canceled or amended or a petition to be filed for cancellation or amendment of the certificate as provided by ORS 69.410 (3).

(2) Any corporate officer signing the certificate on behalf of the corporation shall also be liable personally as provided by paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of this section. Such officer shall have the right to petition for cancellation or amendment as though he were a partner

69.400. (1) The certificate shall be canceled when the partnership is dissolved or all limited partners cease to be such

(2) A certificate shall be amended when.

(a) There is a change in the name of the partnership or in the amount or character of the contribution of any limited partner

(b) A person is substituted as a limited partner.

(c) An additional limited partner is admitted.

(d) A person is admitted as a general partner.

(e) A general partner retires, dies or becomes insane, and the business is continued under ORS 69.360.

(f) There is a change in the character of the business of the partnership

(g) There is a false or erroneous statement in the certificate.

(h) There is a change in the time as stated in the certificate for the dissolution of the partnership or for the return of a contribution.

(i) A time is fixed for the dissolution of the partnership, or the return of a contribution, no time having been specified in the certificate.

(j) The partners desire to make a change in any other statement in the certificate in order that it shall accurately represent the agreement between them

69.410. (1) The writing to amend a certificate shall:

(a) Conform to the requirements of ORS 69.180 (1)(a) as far as necessary to set forth clearly the change in the certificate which it is desired to make, and

(b) Be signed and verified by all partners. An amendment substituting a limited partner or adding a limited or general partner shall be signed also by the partners to be substituted or added. When a limited partner is to be substituted, the amendment shall also be signed by the assigning limited partner

(2) The writing to cancel a certificate shall be signed by all partners

(3) A person desiring the cancellation or amendment of a certificate, if any partner designated in subsections (1) and (2)

of this section as a partner who must execute the writing refuses to do so, may petition the circuit court to direct a cancellation or amendment of the certificate.

(4) If the court finds that the petitioner has a right to have the writing executed by a partner who refuses to do so, it shall order the Corporation Commissioner to record the cancellation or amendment of the certificate. If in addition the certificate is to be amended, the court shall also cause to be filed for record in such office a certified copy of its decree setting forth the amendment.

(5) A certificate is amended or canceled when there is filed for record in the office of the Corporation Commissioner:

(a) A writing in accordance with subsection (1) or (2) of this section; or

(b) A certified copy of a court order in accordance with subsection (4) of this section.

(6) After the certificate is amended in accordance with this section, the amended certificate shall thereafter be for all purposes the certificate provided for by ORS 69.150 to 69.530 and 648.005

(7) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section, if the partnership certificate permits and the partnership has 10 or more limited partners immediately prior to the event requiring amendment of the certificate under ORS 69.150 to 69.200 and 69.230 to 69.470, the writing to amend the certificate:

(a) May be signed by a general partner and by the partner to be substituted or added in the case of an amendment substituting a limited partner or adding a limited or general partner,

(b) Shall be signed also by the assigning limited partner when a limited partner is to be substituted; and

(c) May be signed by any general partner, if the amendment reflects the retirement, death or insanity of a general partner and the business is continued under ORS 69.360

69.420. (1) On due application to a court of competent jurisdiction by any creditor of a limited partner, the court may charge the interest of the indebted limited partner with payment of the unsatisfied amount of such claim; and may appoint a receiver, and make all other orders, directions and inquiries which the circumstances of the case may require.

(2) The interest of a limited partner if so charged may be redeemed with the separate property of such limited partner or any general partner, but may not be redeemed with partnership property.

(3) The remedies conferred by subsection (1) of this section shall not be considered exclusive of others which may exist

(4) Nothing in ORS 69.150 to 69.200 and 69.230 to 69.470 is intended to deprive a limited partner of his statutory exemption.

69.431. (1) Upon the winding up of the partnership, the assets shall be distributed in the following order:

(a) To creditors, including partners who are creditors, to the extent permitted by law, in satisfaction of liabilities of the partnership other than liabilities for distributions to partners.

(b) To partners and former partners in satisfaction of liabilities for distributions, unless otherwise provided in the partnership agreement

CORPORATIONS AND PARTNERSHIPS

(c) To limited partners for the return of their contributions, unless otherwise provided in the partnership agreement.

(d) To general partners for the return of their contributions, unless otherwise provided in the partnership agreement.
