369 020 Designation of county market roads as ways of public easement 369 025 County market road within city

369 010 [Repealed by 1983 c 327 §16]

369.020 Designation of county market roads as ways of public easement. On or before January 1, 1974, county courts of the respective counties or city councils of the respective cities may take action to designate former "county market roads" as ways of public easement. If no designation is made, such roads shall become a part of the respective county or city road systems as of that date [1973 c 240 §2 (enacted in lieu of 369 110, 369 120, 369 130, 369 140, 369 150, 369 160, 369 170, 369 180, 369 190, 369 200, 369 220, 369 230, 369 240, 369 250, 369 260, 369 270, 369 280 and 369 290)]

369.025 County market road within city. Notwithstanding ORS 369 020 or any action pursuant thereto, a road within a city that was a designated county market road prior to January 1, 1974, shall be on the county road system until the county surrenders jurisdiction over the road within a city and the city accepts the county order and offer of surrender in the manner prescribed in ORS 373 270 [1975 c 362 §1]
