(a) The stocks are acquired for the purpose of strengthening the institution's capital structure or the elimination of undesirable assets.

(b) The aggregate amount of the stocks carried on the books as an asset is not in excess of 20 percent of the institution's unimpaired capital and surplus.

(2) An institution carrying the capital stock of another corporation shall not make a loan, directly or indirectly, to the corporation unless the obligation is fully secured.

(4) The book value of the asset shall be amortized in the manner provided in ORS 708.410 for the reduction of the book value of real estate other than banking premises.

(5) This section is not applicable to any stock that may be acquired in connection with the insurance of deposits or stock that may be purchased as a part of any transaction in which an institution borrows from the United States or an agency of the United States. This section does not repeal or in any way limit or modify ORS 711.470. [Formerly 708.035]

708.082 Obligations; limitation on amount or security. The limitations provided by law as to amount or security upon obligations to an institution of any person are not applicable to that portion of any loan made by an institution which is insured or secured or covered by guaranties or by commitments or agreements to take over or purchase, made by any Federal Reserve Bank, the United States, any agency of the United States or any corporation wholly owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the United States. RESERVE REQUIREMENTS AND RESERVE DEPOSITORY BANKS

708.100 Reserve requirements. (1) An institution shall have on hand at all times an amount in reserve equal to 15 percent of the total demand deposits and five percent of the total time deposits. The amount shall be held on hand in lawful money of the United States or in money on deposit in reserve institutions approved by the division, including the Federal Reserve Bank, and payable on demand or evidenced by certificates of deposits which mature in one year or less, or in federal funds sold to reserve banks approved by the division. The reserve required on time deposits may be in the form of unpledged direct obligations of the United States Government or its agencies, in bankers' acceptances, in bonds of the State of Oregon or any county or school district or other municipal corporation of this state that mature within one year. An institution shall not be required to maintain any reserve on deposits of the United States. Cash items shall not be considered as part of the reserve of an institution, excepting unrepresented checks on other solvent banking institutions, foreign institutions or national banking associations or on any other solvent business organization with the authority to issue checks received in the regular course of business and payable forthwith. The method of computing reserves and the forms to be used shall be prescribed by the supervisor. For the purposes of this subsection, "direct obligations of the United States" include obligations of the Federal Farm Credit Bank, Federal Home Loan Bank, Federal Housing Administration, Federal Intermediate Credit Bank, Federal Land Bank, Federal National Mortgage Association and public housing agencies, and other such obligations backed by the full faith and credit of the United States or guaranteed for payment under a pledge of annual contributions sufficient to provide for the payment of all principal and interest instalments when due.

(2) If an unanticipated reserve deficiency exists at the close of any banking day due to necessary delayed posting of cash items or the clearance of large cash items without notification, the institution shall eliminate the reserve deficiency within three banking days. If a deficiency is not eliminated within the three-day period, the institution is subject to a penalty to be assessed and collected by the supervisor at the time of the examination of the institution or more frequently, as determined by the supervisor.

The penalty shall be assessed on the basis of average daily deficiencies from the expiration of the three-day period until the deficiency is eliminated at a rate of two percent per annum above the lowest rate applicable to borrowings by a member bank from its Federal Reserve Bank on the first day of the calendar month in which the deficiency first occurs. The penalty may be recovered as provided in ORS 706.980. All moneys received by the supervisor under this subsection shall be deposited with the State Treasurer to be credited as provided in ORS 705.240.

(3) Upon instruction of the supervisor an institution shall replace with acceptable reserves any reserves classified by the supervisor as substandard. [1973 c.797 §115; 1975 c.544 §11; 1981 c.7 §1; 1985 c.762 §40]

(2) If an institution or an extranational institution is not a member of the Federal Reserve System, compliance by the institution or extranational institution with Regulation D of the Federal Reserve Board as required by the Monetary Control Act of 1980 relieves the institution or extranational institution from compliance with ORS 708.100 and 708.116. [1973 c.797 §116, 1981 c.7 §2]

708.110 [Amended by 1973 c.797 §119; renumbered 708.136]

708.116 Reserve requirements; change by Banking Section of the Financial Institutions Division. If the supervisor determines that the maintenance of sound banking practices or the prevention of injurious credit expansion or contraction make it advisable, the supervisor may by rule, as provided in ORS 183.310, 183.315, 183.330, 183.335 and 183.341 to 183.410, change the reserve requirements established under ORS 708.100. The reserves required under the rule shall not be less than 50 percent nor more than 200 percent of the amount of the reserves required under ORS 708.100. [1973 c.797 §117]

708.120 [Repealed by 1973 c.797 §428]

[Formerly 708.105]

708.136 Deficiency in reserve; notice for correction. If the reserve of an institution is found by the supervisor to be less than the amount required under ORS 708.100 and 708.116, the supervisor shall notify the institution to make good the reserve. [Formerly 708.110]

708.146 Deposit of reserve funds in approved reserve depositories; approval of depositories; conditions. (1) A bank shall not deposit any of its reserve funds in any other bank, national bank, foreign or extranational institution except a Federal Reserve Bank, unless the bank, national bank, foreign or extranational institution has been approved as a reserve depository by the supervisor and a majority of the directors of the depositing bank.

(2) A bank, national bank, foreign or extranational institution applying for approval as a reserve depository and approved reserve depositories shall furnish the supervisor with the information the supervisor may require to evaluate the bank, national bank, foreign or extranational institution as a reserve depository.

(3) A bank, national bank, foreign or extranational institution shall not be approved by the supervisor as a reserve depository unless it has an unimpaired paid-up capital and surplus of $1 million or more.

(4) The supervisor may deny an application or cancel any appointment as a reserve depository.

(5) The restrictions of subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to deposits which are fully insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. [Formerly 708.115; 1983 c.37 §7]

[Amended by 1973 c.797 §124]

708.220 Limitation on borrowing money and collateral. If the value of the assets pledged is more than 25 percent greater than the amount borrowed or if the amount borrowed is greater than the capital and surplus of the bank, the transaction shall first be approved in writing by the supervisor. If the approval of the supervisor is not obtained, the loan is not invalid or illegal as to the lender.

(2) Any pledge of collateral to any depositor or creditor not permitted by law, or in excess of the amount prescribed in subsection (1) of this section, is void as to that portion of the collateral pledged which is excessive or illegal. In case of liquidation the illegal or excessive collateral shall be returned to the supervisor upon demand without the prior payment of the debt it was intended

The supervisor by rule may adopt conditions and restrictions on the kinds of indebtedness that may qualify under this paragraph.

(c) Any other kind of indebtedness that the supervisor declares by rule not to be subject to subsections (3) and (4) of this section.

(10) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section, the directors of an institution need not first approve a loan to a person named in that subsection unless the loan, when aggregated with all other loans to that person and to all related interests of that person, as defined by rule, exceeds the higher of $25,000 or five percent of the institution's capital and unimpaired surplus. In no event shall an institution make a loan to a person named in subsection (3) of this section in an amount which, when aggregated with all other loans to that person and all related interests of that person, exceeds $500,000, except by complying with subsections (3) and (4) of this section. The definition of "related interest" for purposes of this subsection shall be consistent with the definition of that term by rule under ORS 706.655. [Amended by 1963 c 502 §4, 1973 c 797 §169; 1975 c 544 §19; 1981 c 192 §11a; 1983 c 37 §19; 1985 c.786 §37]

officer, director or employe. Any officer, director or employe of an institution who knowingly or negligently loans the funds of the institution in a dishonest or unlawful manner or permits the funds of the institution to be so loaned, is liable for the full amount of the loan and for all damages which the institution, its stockholders or any other person has sustained in consequence thereof. The liability for the loan continues until the loan, with interest, is paid in full without loss to the institution. The amount of the liability may be collected by suit or action without first attempting to collect from the debtor. [Amended by 1973 c.797 §171]

708.475 Reporting certain transactions to board. An officer, director or employe of an institution shall not conceal from or fail to report to the board of directors of the institution any transaction occurring between the regular meetings of the board of directors involving:

The amount of the refund shall not be less than the total interest contracted for to maturity, less the greater of:

(a) Ten percent of the amount financed or $75, whichever is less; or

(b) The interest earned to the instalment due date nearest the date of prepayment, computed by applying the simple interest rate of the loan to the actual principal balances outstanding, for the periods of time the balances were actually outstanding. For purposes of rebate computations under this paragraph, the instalment due date preceding the date of prepayment shall be considered to be nearest if prepayment occurs 15 days or less after that instalment date. If prepayment occurs more than 15 days after the preceding instalment due date, the next succeeding instalment due date shall be considered to be nearest to the date of prepayment. In determining the simple interest rate, the lender may apply to the scheduled payments the actuarial method, by which each scheduled payment is applied first to accrued and unpaid interest and any amount remaining is applied to reduction of the principal balance.

(3) Any instalment of an instalment loan or payment under an open-end credit arrangement that is not paid when due shall continue to bear interest until paid. In addition, if the instalment or payment is not paid when due, the instalment or payment may bear a late charge of not greater than five percent of the amount of the instalment or payment, or $5, whichever is more. However, except for loans secured by real property, the lender may impose a late charge only if:

(a) The instalment or payment is not received by the lender within 15 days after the due date, or if the 15-day period expires on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, by the end of the next business day;

(b) At least seven days before the lender imposes the charge, the lender mails to the borrower a notice stating that a charge will be imposed if the instalment or payment is not received by the lender by the end of the 15-day period; and

(a) Holds funds pledged by or on behalf of the borrower in an amount sufficient to cover at all times the prior lien; and

The bank making the loan shall require sufficient guaranty from the contractor, builder or owner for the completion of the construction in accordance with the plans and specifications and within the estimated contract price for the construction. [Amended by 1973 c.797 §176]

(1) "Account" means a contract of deposit of funds between a depositor and a financial institution, and includes a checking account, savings account, certificate of deposit and share account.

(2) "Beneficiary" means a person named in a trust account as one for whom a party to the account is named as trustee.

(3) "Financial institution" means any organization authorized to do business under state or federal laws relating to financial institutions, including, without limitation, banks and trust companies, savings banks, building and loan associations, savings and loan companies or associations, and credit unions.

(4) "Joint account" means an account payable on request to one or more of two or more parties whether or not mention is made of any right of survivorship.

(5) A "multiple-party account" is any of the following types of account: A joint account, a P.O.D. account or a trust account. It does not include accounts established for deposit of funds of a partnership, joint venture or other association for business purposes, or accounts controlled by one or more persons as the duly authorized agent or trustee for a corporation, unincorporated association, charitable or civic organization or a regular fiduciary or trust account where the relationship is established other than by deposit agreement.

(6) "Net contribution" of a party to a joint account as of any given time is the sum of all deposits thereto made by or for the party, less all withdrawals made by or for the person that have not been paid to or applied to the use of any other party, plus a pro rata share of any interest or dividends included in the current balance. The term includes, in addition, any proceeds of deposit life insurance added to the account by reason of the death of the party whose net contribution is in question.

(7) "Party" means a person who, by the terms of the account, has a present right, subject to request, to payment from a multiple-party account. A P.O.D. payee or beneficiary of a trust account is a party only after the account becomes payable to the payee or beneficiary by reason of the payee's or beneficiary's surviving the original party or trustee. Unless the context requires otherwise, it includes a guardian, conservator, personal representative or assignee, including an attaching creditor, of a party. It also includes a person identified as a trustee of an account for another whether or not a beneficiary is named, but it does not include any named beneficiary unless the named beneficiary has a present right of withdrawal.

(8) "Payment" of sums on deposit includes withdrawal, payment on check or other directive of a party, and any pledge of sums on deposit by a party and any setoff, or reduction or other disposition of all or part of an account pursuant to a pledge.

(9) "P.O.D. account" means an account payable on request to one person during the lifetime of the person and on the death of the person to one or more P.O.D. payees, or to one or more persons during their lifetimes and on the death of all of them to one or more P.O.D. payees.

(10) "P.O.D. payee" means a person designated on a P.O.D. account as one to whom the account is payable on request after the death of one or more persons.

(11) "Request" means a proper request for withdrawal, or a check or order for payment, that complies with all conditions of the account, including special requirements concerning necessary signatures and regulations of the financial institution; but if the financial institution conditions withdrawal or payment on advance notice, for purposes of ORS 708.600 to 708.656 the request for withdrawal or payment is treated as immediately effective and a notice of intent to withdraw is treated as a request for withdrawal.

(12) "Sums on deposit" means the balance payable on a multiple-party account including interest, dividends, and in addition any deposit life insurance proceeds added to the account by reason of the death of a party.

(13) "Trust account" means an account in the name of one or more parties as trustee for one or more beneficiaries where the relationship is established by the form of the account and the deposit agreement with the financial institution, and there is no subject of the trust other than the sums on deposit in the account. It is not essential that payment to the beneficiary be mentioned in the deposit agreement. A trust account does not include a regular trust account under a testamentary trust or a trust agreement that has significance apart from the account, or a fiduciary account arising from a fiduciary relation such as attorney-client.

(14) "Withdrawal" includes payment to a third person pursuant to check or other directive of a party. [1977 c.555 §1]

708.605 [Repealed by 1973 c.797 §428]

708.606 Application of ORS 708.611 to 708.621; liability and setoff rights of financial institutions. The provisions of ORS 708.611 to 708.621 concerning beneficial ownership as between parties, or as between parties and P.O.D. payees or beneficiaries of multiple-party accounts, are relevant only to controversies between those persons and their creditors and other successors, and have no bearing on the power of withdrawal of those persons as determined by the terms of account contracts. The provisions of ORS 708.631 to 708.656 govern the liability of financial institutions that make payments pursuant thereto, and their setoff rights. [1977 c.555 §2]

708.610 [Repealed by 1973 c.797 §428]

708.611 Ownership of multiple-party accounts. (1) A joint account belongs, during the lifetime of all parties, to the parties in proportion to the net contributions by each to the sums on deposit, unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a different intent.

(2) A P.O.D. account belongs to the original party during the lifetime of the party and not to the P.O.D. payee or payees. If two or more persons are named as original parties, during their lifetimes rights as between them are governed by subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Unless a contrary intent is manifested by the terms of the account or the deposit agreement or there is other clear and convincing evidence of an irrevocable trust, a trust account belongs beneficially to the trustee during the lifetime of the trustee. If two or more parties are named as trustee on the account, during their lifetimes beneficial rights as between them are governed by subsection (1) of this section. If there is an irrevocable trust, the account belongs beneficially to the beneficiary. [1977 c.555 §3]

Note: See note under 708.600.

708.615 [Repealed by 1973 c.797 §428]

708.616 Multiple-party accounts; disposition of deposit upon death of party or trustee; effect of will. (1) Sums remaining on deposit at the death of a party to a joint account belong to the surviving party or parties as against the estate of the decedent, unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a different intention at the time the account is created. If there are two or more surviving parties, their respective ownerships during their lifetimes shall be in proportion to their previous ownership interests under ORS 708.611 augmented by an equal share for each survivor of any interest the decedent may have owned in the account immediately before death; and the right of survivorship continues between the surviving parties.

(2) If the account is a P.O.D. account:

(a) On death of one of two or more original parties, the rights to any sums remaining on deposit are governed by subsection (1) of this section.

(b) On death of the sole original party or the survivor of two or more original parties, any sums remaining on deposit belong to the P.O.D. payee or payees, if surviving, or to the survivor of them if one or more die before the original party. If two or more P.O.D. payees survive, there is no right of survivorship in the event of death of a P.O.D. payee thereafter unless the terms of the account or deposit agreement expressly provide for survivorship between them.

(3) If the account is a trust account:

(a) On death of one of two or more trustees, the rights to any sums remaining on deposit are governed by subsection (1) of this section.

(b) On death of the sole trustee or the survivor of two or more trustees, any sums remaining on deposit belong to the person or persons named as beneficiaries, if surviving, or to the survivor of them if one or more die before the trustee, unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a contrary intent. If two or more beneficiaries survive, there is no right of survivorship in event of death of any beneficiary thereafter unless the terms of the account or deposit agreement expressly provide for survivorship between them.

(4) In other cases, the death of any party to a multiple-party account has no effect on beneficial ownership of the account other than to transfer the rights of the decedent as part of the estate of the decedent.

(5) A right of survivorship arising from the express terms of the account or under this section, a beneficiary designation in a trust account, or a P.O.D. payee designation, cannot be changed by will. [1977 c.555 §4]

Note: See note under 708.600

708.620 [Amended by 1963 c.580 §84; repealed by 1973 c.797 §428]

708.621 Right of survivorship based on form of account; alteration of form of account. The provisions of ORS 708.616 as to rights of survivorship are determined by the form of the account at the death of a party. The form of an account may be altered by written order given by a party to the financial institution to change the form of the account or to stop or vary payment under the terms of the account. The order must be signed by a party, received by the financial institution during the party's lifetime, and not countermanded by other written order of the same party during the lifetime of the party. [1977 c.555 §5]

Note: See note under 708.600

708.625 [Repealed by 1973 c.797 §428]

708.626 Transfer of moneys upon death of depositor or trustee is not testamentary disposition. Any transfers resulting from the application of ORS 708.616 are effective by reason of the account contracts involved and ORS 708.616, and are not to be considered as testamentary or subject to administration in the estate of a deceased party. [1977 c.555 §6]

Note: See note under 708.600

708.630 [Repealed by 1973 c.797 §428]

708.631 Payment of deposit in multiple-party account to one or more parties; institution not required to determine source or use of funds in account. Financial institutions may enter into multiple-party accounts to the same extent that they may enter into single-party accounts. Any multiple-party account may be paid, on request, to any one or more of the parties. A financial institution shall not be required to inquire as to the source of funds received for deposit to a multiple-party account, or to inquire as to the proposed application of any sum withdrawn from an account, for purposes of establishing net contributions. [1977 c.555 §7]

Note: See note under 708.600.

708.635 [Repealed by 1973 c.797 §428]

708.636 Joint account; payment to any party to account; payment to others. Any sums in a joint account may be paid, on request, to any party without regard to whether any other party is incapacitated or deceased at the time the payment is demanded; but payment may not be made to the personal representative or heirs of a deceased party unless proofs of death are presented to the financial institution showing that the decedent was the last surviving party or unless there is no right of survivorship under ORS 708.616. [1977 c.555 §8]

Note: See note under 708.600.

708.640 [Repealed by 1973 c.797 §428]

708.641 P.O.D. account; payment to any original party; payment to others. Any P.O.D. account may be paid, on request, to any original party to the account. Payment may be made, on request, to the P.O.D. payee or to the personal representative or heirs of a deceased P.O.D. payee upon presentation to the financial institution of proof of death showing that the P.O.D. payee survived all persons named as original parties. Payment may be made to the personal representative or heirs of a deceased original party if proof of death is presented to the financial institution showing that the decedent was the survivor of all other persons named on the account either as an original party or as P.O.D. payee. [1977 c.555 §9]

Note: See note under 708.600.

708.645 [Repealed by 1973 c.797 §428]

708.646 Trust account; payment to any trustee; payment to others. Any trust account may be paid, on request, to any trustee. Unless the financial institution has received written notice that the beneficiary has a vested interest not dependent upon the beneficiary's surviving the trustee, payment may be made to the personal representative or heirs of a deceased trustee if proof of death is presented to the financial institution showing that the decedent was the survivor of all other persons named on the account either as trustee or beneficiary. Payment may be made, on request, to the beneficiary upon presentation to the financial institution of proof of death showing that the beneficiary or beneficiaries survived all persons named as trustees. [1977 c.555 §10]

Note: See note under 708.600

708.650 [Repealed by 1973 c.797 §428]

708.651 Discharge of institution from liability for payments made; conditions.

Payment made pursuant to ORS 708.631, 708.636, 708.641 or 708.646 discharges the financial institution from all claims for amounts so paid whether or not the payment is consistent with the beneficial ownership of the account as between parties, P.O.D. payees, or beneficiaries, or their successors. The protection given by this section does not extend to payments made after a financial institution has received written notice from any party able to request present payment to the effect that withdrawals in accordance with the terms of the account should not be permitted. Unless the notice is withdrawn by the person giving it, the successor of any deceased party must concur in any demand for withdrawal if the financial institution is to be protected under this section. No other notice or any other information shown to have been available to a financial institution shall affect its right to the protection provided by this section. The protection provided by this section shall have no bearing on the rights of parties in disputes between themselves or their successors concerning the beneficial ownership of funds in, or withdrawn from, multiple-party accounts. [1977 c.555 §11]

Note: See note under 708.600.

708.655 [Repealed by 1973 c.797 §428]

708.656 Right of institution to setoff; amount. Without qualifying any other statutory right to setoff or lien and subject to any contractual provision, if a party to a multiple-party account is indebted to a financial institution, the financial institution has a right to setoff against the account in which the party has or had immediately before the death of the party a present right of withdrawal. The amount of the account subject to setoff is that proportion to which the debtor is, or was immediately before the death of the debtor, beneficially entitled, and in the absence of proof of net contributions, to an equal share with all parties having present rights of withdrawal. [1977 c.555 §12]

Note: See note under 708.600.

708.660 [Repealed by 1973 c.797 §428]

708.661 Designation of agent for account; powers of agent. Nothing in ORS 708.600 to 708.661, 716.024, 723.426 or 723.432 shall preclude a party to an account from adding the name of another person to such an account with the designation "agent." Such agent shall have no present or future interest in the sums on deposit in such account, but the financial institution may honor requests for payment from such account by such agent, unless the principal is deceased at the time the payment is requested and the financial institution has actual knowledge of such death. Payments from such account by such financial institution at the request of such agent shall discharge such financial institution from all claims for amounts so paid. [1977 c.555 §14]

Note: See note under 708.600.
