713.010 Application of Bank Act to foreign and extranational institutions; when deposit insurance required. (1) Every foreign institution and extranational institution doing business in this state is subject to all the provisions of the Bank Act. However, when there is a conflict between the provisions of this chapter and the provisions of another chapter of the Bank Act, the provisions of this chapter control.

(2) The Bank Act does not apply to any foreign or extranational copartnership, firm, joint stock company, association or corporation engaged in the business of loaning money on mortgage security which does not accept deposits or receive from citizens or residents of this state property or money in trust on deposit or for investment. [Amended by 1965 c.170 §2; 1967 c.333 §1; 1973 c.797 §307; 1975 c 725 §8; 1979 c.88 §13]

713.012 Limitation on authority to act as fiduciary. (1) A foreign institution or extranational institution shall not hold real or personal property in trust in this state or act in a fiduciary capacity except as provided in this section.

(2) A corporation qualified to act as a trust company in the state of its domicile and a national bank authorized by the appropriate authorities of the United States to act in a fiduciary capacity, whether or not the national bank is authorized to transact business in this state, may acquire, hold and transfer real or personal property in this state as trustee to secure indebtedness issued under the terms of a mortgage, deed of trust, security agreements or financing statements filed or recorded in this state.

(3) A corporation qualified to act as a trust company in the state of its domicile and a national bank authorized by the appropriate authorities of the United States to act in a fiduciary capacity, whether or not the national bank is authorized to transact business in this state, may invest collective investment funds without qualifying to do business in Oregon if the funds consist solely of assets of retirement, pension, profit sharing, stock bonus or other trusts which are exempt from federal income taxation under the federal Internal Revenue Code, and if the funds are lawfully held in trust, in real or personal property in the state. A corporation authorized under this subsection to invest trust funds in property in this state may hold title to the property as trustee and exercise all rights and remedies with regard to such property as any other trustee.

(4) Subsection (3) of this section applies to all property acquired prior to January 1, 1985, by a corporation or national bank authorized to hold property in trust under this section. On and after January 1, 1985, subsection (3) of this section applies to a corporation or national bank permitted to hold property in trust in Oregon under subsection (3) of this section only if the state of its incorporation or domicile permits banks incorporated under the laws of Oregon or national banks domiciled in Oregon to hold title to property in trust in that state as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) The prohibitions contained in this section do not apply to any national bank, foreign institution or extranational institution having a branch office in this state and lawfully doing a trust business on December 31, 1964. [1973 c 797 §308, 1975 c 725 §9; 1979 c 362 §1; 1981 c.192 §22; 1983 c 37 §22]

713.016 When deposit insurance required; acceptance of deposits. (1) A foreign institution shall not accept deposits in this state unless the deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. This subsection does not apply to any foreign institution having a branch office in this state and lawfully doing a banking business on December 31, 1966, or to extranational institutions.

(2) Unless it complies with the requirements of ORS 713.025, an extranational institution shall not accept deposits in this state. This subsection and ORS 713.025 do not apply to any extranational institution having a branch office in this state and lawfully doing a banking business on December 31, 1966. [1973 c.797 §309; 1975 c.725 §10]

713.020 Application of corporation laws. (1) Every foreign institution and extranational institution, doing business in this state, other than the loaning of money on mortgage security or performing those functions described in ORS 713.012 (2), shall, in addition to the requirements of the Bank Act, comply with ORS 57.655 to 57.745, except that all declarations, powers of attorney, articles of incorporation, annual reports and all other papers required in ORS 57.655 to 57.745 to be filed with the Corporation Commissioner shall be filed with the supervisor and all filing fees, annual license fees and moneys payable to the Corporation Commissioner shall be paid by the foreign institution or extranational institution to the supervisor.

(2) The supervisor shall issue to a foreign institution or extranational institution the certificate of authority to transact business in this state, provided for in ORS 57.675 to 57.685. [Amended by 1965 c.170 §3; 1973 c.797 §310; 1975 c.725 §11; 1983 c.37 §23]

713.025 Assets requirement for extranational institutions. (1) Every extranational institution with one or more offices in this state shall maintain in this state assets equal to the amount of deposit liabilities of the extranational institution payable at or through its offices in this state.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) "Assets" include currency, bonds, notes, debentures, drafts, bills of exchange or other evidences of indebtedness owed by persons in the United States and collectible in the United States in currency of the United States or, with prior approval of the supervisor, in currency freely convertible into currency of the United States, but do not include prepaid expenses, customers' liability on acceptances and amounts due from other offices, agencies or branches of and wholly owned subsidiaries of the parent institution. For purposes of this section, assets may also include any assets held in a manner approved by the supervisor.

(b) "Deposit liabilities" include the total amount of deposits in offices of the extranational institution in this state but do not include accrued expenses, amounts due to other offices, agencies or branches of and wholly owned subsidiaries of the parent extranational institution, acceptances outstanding and borrowings.

(3) The supervisor shall determine the value of the assets maintained for the purposes of this section and shall value marketable securities according to accepted principles of accounting. [1975 c.725 §3]

If at the close of any banking day an extranational institution does not have in this state the assets required to be maintained under ORS 713.025, the managing officer in charge of the extranational institution shall immediately notify the supervisor and the main office of the parent institution of the deficit. The extranational institution shall have three banking days to eliminate the deficiency. 713.040 [Repealed by 1973 c.797 §428]

713.045 Distribution of assets of extranational institution by supervisor after insolvency or liquidation. (1) If an extranational institution whose deposit liabilities are not insured to any extent by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, becomes insolvent or goes into voluntary or involuntary liquidation or cannot otherwise pay its deposit liabilities, the assets required to be maintained under ORS 713.025 shall become the property of the supervisor, free of any liens and other claims and shall be held by the supervisor in trust and applied in the order of priority established in ORS 711.520.

(2) The amount available for distribution to the depositors under subsection (1) of this section shall be allocated to the depositors by dividing the total amount of cash to be distributed by the total number of depositors. The amount so determined shall be the basic distribution allocable to each depositor, however, any one depositor shall not receive an amount in excess of the depositor's account balances or $20,000 whichever is the lesser.

(3) If any cash remains after the basic distribution, the supervisor shall on a similar basis continue to compute the amount to be paid to those depositors for whom the first basic distribution would not permit payment in full.

(4) As used in this section, the term "depositor" has the meaning ascribed to it in ORS 711.515. [1975 c.725 §5]
