723.582 Share and deposit insurance.

(1) Each credit union shall secure insurance on shares and deposits from the National Credit Union Administration under the Federal Credit Union Act or its successor, or from any other governmental entity that provides such insurance and is approved by the supervisor. Any one share of a member, as designated in the bylaws of the credit union, may be excluded from the requirement for insurance.

(2) The supervisor may make available condition and examination reports to the Administrator of the National Credit Union Administration and may accept any report of examination made by such administrator. The supervisor may appoint the Administrator of the National Credit Union Administration as liquidating agent of an insured credit union. [1975 c.652 §62, 1977 c.549 §1; 1985 c.801 §9]

INVESTMENTS

723.602 Investment of funds. Funds not used in loans to members may be invested:

RESERVE ALLOCATIONS

723.631 Regular reserve; reserve for loan losses. (1) At the end of each accounting period, the gross earnings of the credit union shall be determined. From this amount the credit union shall set aside as a regular reserve for contingencies five percent of gross income until the regular reserve equals two percent of the total outstanding loans.

(2) In addition to the regular reserve required in subsection (1) of this section, a credit union shall establish a reserve for loan losses. The credit union shall allocate sufficient funds each month to the reserve for loan losses in an amount at least equal to the credit union's best estimate of the losses the credit union expects to sustain in the liquidation of currently outstanding loans. [1981 c.192 §38 (enacted in lieu of 723.632)]

723.632 [1975 c.652 §65; 1979 c.88 §35; repealed by 1981 c.192 §37 (723.631 enacted in lieu of 723.362)]

723.636 Use of regular reserve. The regular reserve established under ORS 723.631 (1), shall belong to the credit union and shall be used to meet losses except those resulting from an excess of expenses over income and shall not be distributed except on liquidation of the credit union, or in accordance with a plan approved by the supervisor. [1975 c.652 §66; 1981 c.192 §39]

723.642 [1975 c.652 §67; 1977 c.628 §4; repealed by 1981 c.192 §46]

723.646 Special reserves; purpose. (1) In addition to the regular reserve established under ORS 723.631, special reserves to protect the interest of members shall be established, as provided in this section:

(a) When required by regulation; or

(b) When found by the board of directors of the credit union or by the supervisor (or if the members' accounts are insured by the National Credit Union Administration, the Administrator of the National Credit Union Administration), in any special case, to be necessary for that purpose.

(2) A credit union required to have a special reserve shall place in the reserve, before payment of each dividend, at least five percent of the expected net earnings of the credit union after the dividend payment or two percent of the gross earnings of the credit union before the dividend payment, whichever is greater, until the special reserve equals five percent of all share, savings and deposit accounts of the credit union. Thereafter, the credit union shall make regular contributions to the special reserve in order to maintain the special reserve at five percent of all share, savings and deposit accounts of the credit union.

(3) The special reserve shall be maintained in one or more of the following forms:

(a) Cash;

(b) Deposits with a Federal Reserve Bank;

(c) Deposits with maturities of one year or less in corporate central credit unions;

(d) Deposits in federally insured banks or savings and loan associations with remaining maturities of one year or less;

(e) Common trust investments or similar investments in funds of securities authorized for credit unions;

(f) Shares in the National Credit Union Administration's Central Liquidity Facility; or

(g) Obligations of the United States or an agency thereof which mature in one year or less, if the obligations are fully guaranteed as to principal.

(4) Special reserves belong to the credit union and shall be used to provide liquidity for the credit union. A credit union may not pay regular or special dividends from the special reserve. [1975 c.652 §68; 1981 c.192 §40]

CHANGE IN CORPORATE STATUS

723.672 Suspension. (1) If it appears that any credit union is bankrupt or insolvent, or that it has wilfully violated any provision of this chapter, or is operating in an unsafe or unsound manner, the supervisor shall issue an order temporarily suspending the credit union's operations for not less than 30 nor more than 60 days. The board of directors shall be given notice by registered mail of such suspension, and a list of the specific violations of this chapter.

(2) Upon receipt of the suspension notice, the credit union shall cease all operations, except those authorized by the supervisor. The board of directors shall then file with the supervisor a reply to the suspension notice, and may request a hearing to present a plan of corrective actions proposed if it desires to continue operations. The board may request that the credit union be declared insolvent and a liquidating agent be appointed.

(3) Upon receipt from the suspended credit union of evidence that the conditions causing the order of suspension have been corrected, the supervisor may revoke the suspension notice and permit the credit union to resume normal operations.

(4) If the supervisor, after issuing notice of suspension and providing an opportunity for a hearing, rejects the credit union's plan to continue operations, the supervisor may then revoke the credit union's charter, appoint a liquidating agent and liquidate the credit union. The credit union may request the appropriate court to stay execution of such action. Involuntary liquidation may not be ordered prior to the conclusion of suspension procedures outlined in this section.

(5) If, within the suspension period, the credit union fails to answer the suspension notice or request a hearing, the supervisor may then revoke the credit union's charter, appoint a liquidating agent and liquidate the credit union. [1975 c.652 §69; 1985 c.762 §99]

723.676 Liquidation. (1) A credit union may elect to dissolve voluntarily and liquidate its affairs in the manner prescribed in this section.

(2) The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending the credit union be dissolved voluntarily and directing that the question of liquidation be submitted to the members.

(3) Within 10 days after the board of directors decides to submit the question of liquidation to the members, the president shall notify the supervisor thereof in writing setting forth the reasons for the proposed action. Within 10 days after the members act on the question of liquidation, the president shall notify the supervisor in writing as to whether or not the members approved the proposed liquidation.

(4) As soon as the board of directors decides to submit the question of liquidation to the members, payment on shares, withdrawal of shares, making any transfer of shares to loans and interest, making investments of any kind and granting loans shall be suspended pending action by members on the proposal to liquidate. On approval by the members of such proposal, all such business transactions shall be permanently discontinued. Necessary expenses of operation shall, however, continue to be paid on authorization of the board of directors or liquidating agent during the period of liquidation.

(5) For a credit union to enter voluntary liquidation, approval by a majority of the members in writing or by a two-thirds majority of the members present at a regular or special meeting of the members is required. Where authorization for liquidation is to be obtained at a meeting of the members, notice in writing shall be given to each member by first class mail to the member's last-known address at least 10 days prior to such meeting.

(6) A liquidating credit union shall continue in existence for the purpose of discharging its debts, collecting and distributing its assets and doing all acts required in order to wind up its business and may sue and be sued for the purpose of enforcing such debts and obligations until its affairs are fully adjusted.

(7) The board of directors or the liquidating agent shall use the assets of the credit union to pay: First, expenses incidental to liquidating including any surety bond that may be required; and, second, any liability due nonmembers. Assets then remaining shall be distributed to the members proportionately to the shares and deposits held by each member as of the date dissolution was voted.

(8) As soon as the board of directors or the liquidating agent determines that all assets from which there is a reasonable expectancy of realization have been liquidated and distributed as set forth in this section, they shall execute a certificate of dissolution on a form prescribed by the supervisor and file the same, together with all pertinent books and records of the liquidating credit union, with the supervisor, whereupon such credit union shall be dissolved. [1975 c.652 §70]

723.682 Merger. (1) Any credit union chartered and domiciled in this state may, with the approval of the supervisor, merge with another credit union under the existing charter of the other credit union, if domiciled in this state, pursuant to any plan agreed upon by the majority of each board of directors of each credit union joining in the merger, and approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the merging credit union present at a meeting of its members duly called for such purpose.

(2) After agreement by the directors and approval by the members of the merging credit union, the president and secretary of the credit union shall execute a certificate of merger, which shall set forth all of the following:

(a) The time and place of the meeting of the board of directors at which the plan was agreed upon.

(b) The vote in favor of the adoption of the plan.

(c) A copy of the resolution or other action by which the plan was agreed upon.

(d) The time and place of the meeting of the members at which the plan agreed upon was approved.

(e) The vote by which the plan was approved by the members.

(3) Such certificate and a copy of the plan of merger agreed upon shall be forwarded to the supervisor, certified by the supervisor, and returned to both credit unions within 30 days.

(4) Upon return of the certificate from the supervisor, all property, property rights, and members' interest of the merged credit union shall vest in the surviving credit union without deed, indorsement or other instrument of transfer, and all debts, obligations and liabilities of the merged credit union shall be deemed to have been assumed by the surviving credit union under whose charter the merger was affected. The rights and privileges of the members of the merged credit union shall remain intact.

(5) This section shall be construed, whenever possible, to permit a credit union chartered under the laws of any other state or of the United States to merge with one chartered under the laws of this state, or to permit one chartered under the laws of this state to merge with one chartered under the laws of any other state or of the United States, provided such credit unions are domiciled in this state. [1975 c.652 §71]

723.686 Conversion of charter. (1) A credit union chartered under the laws of this state may be converted to a credit union chartered under the laws of the United States, subject to the approval of the supervisor.

(2) A credit union chartered under the laws of the United States may convert to a credit union chartered under the laws of this state. To effect such a conversion, a credit union must comply with all the requirements of the jurisdiction under which it was originally chartered and the requirements of the supervisor and file proof of such compliance with the supervisor. [1975 c.652 §72]

CENTRAL CREDIT UNIONS

723.702 Organization, name. Any central credit union may be organized and operated under this chapter and shall be subject to all provisions of this chapter not inconsistent with ORS 723.702 to 723.730. 723.712 Voting representative. Each credit union becoming a member of such central credit union may designate one person to be its voting representative in the central credit union, which person shall be designated by the board of directors of the member credit union. Such voting representative shall be eligible to hold office in the central credit union as if such person were a member of the central credit union. [1975 c.652 §75]

723.716 Additional rights and powers.

(1) A central credit union shall have all of the rights and powers of any other credit union organized under this chapter and the additional rights and powers specified in this section, notwithstanding any limitations or restrictions found elsewhere in this chapter.

A corporate central credit union shall have all the powers, rights and obligations imposed upon or granted central credit unions under this chapter, except:

(1) It shall be exempt from the regular reserve requirements of ORS 723.631, but shall be required to establish and maintain an equity reserve which shall be used as provided by rules adopted by the supervisor. The aggregate total of the investment securities and corporate bonds held by the corporate central credit union shall not exceed 15 percent of the shares, undivided earnings and reserves of the corporate central credit union.
