RELATIVES' RESPONSIBILITY LAW

416.010 Definitions for ORS 416.010 to 416 260. For purposes of ORS 416 010 to 416 260

(1) "Dependent" means any of those persons in addition to a spouse

(a) Whom the relative has a legal obligation to support,

(b) Who received chief support from the relative during the preceding calendar year,

(c) Who is under 18 years of age, or is 18 years or over and is regularly attending an institution of learning as a full-time student, or is 18 years or over but is not self-supporting due to a physical or mental handicap, and

(d) Who is under 18 years of age and whose gross income for the preceding calendar year was $600 or less, or is 18 years of age or over and whose gross income for the preceding calendar year was $1,200 or less and who is regularly attending an institution of learning as a full-time student

(2) "Gross annual income" means the adjusted gross income as defined by the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, as determined by the appropriate state or federal income tax return filed for the subject year (or, if such return has not been filed or is not available in the files of the Department of Revenue, the return filed for the preceding year) plus any nontaxable interest, excluded income, or exempt income not included in the adjusted gross income of the relative, less the amount paid by the responsible relative during the period covered by such state income tax return for medical and hospital expenses of the responsible relative, the spouse and those persons who are listed as dependents of the responsible relative on such income tax return, but amounts paid for such medical and hospital expenses may be subtracted only to the extent that they were not included as part of the monthly contributions required by ORS 416 061. A separate income tax return shall constitute prima facie evidence of the gross income and number of dependents of the individual making it, a joint income tax return of husband and wife shall constitute prima facie evidence of the gross income and number of dependents of the husband or wife, or both

(3) A "needy person" is one who is eligible for public assistance under the laws of the state

(4) "Relative" or "relatives" mean the living husband, wife, father, mother, son or daughter 21 years of age or over of an applicant for or a recipient of public assistance

(5) "Total cost" means the total amount of public assistance of any type furnished by the Adult and Family Services Division to a recipient for a given period [1961 c 605 §2 1969 c 597 §250 1971 c 407 §1]

416.020 Investigation of financial condition of relatives of applicant for public assistance. (1) Upon making application for public assistance, each applicant shall provide the Adult and Family Services Division with the names and current addresses, to the extent known to the applicant, of the applicant's living relatives as defined in ORS 416 010 (4). The applicant shall agree to provide information under oath and shall consent to investigation on the applicant's behalf of any person whose income and financial condition is at issue

(2) Upon receipt of an application for public assistance, the division, in addition to duties otherwise imposed and acting without unnecessary delay and with diligence, shall investigate the facts relating to the income and financial condition of the applicant's living relatives. In making such investigation the division shall give each of the applicant's relatives 18 years of age or over written notice of such application and the possibility of the relative's present or future liability under ORS 416 061. Such notice shall include the information that it is given pursuant to ORS 416 010 to 416 260 and a copy of such notice shall be sent to the applicant. No liability for support of a needy person will be imposed prior to the mailing of written notice to the relative's last-known address. Receipt of the notice by the relative is not a condition precedent to the imposition of liability under ORS 416 061 or the use of any remedy provided by law to enforce such liability. The division may require statements under oath from the applicants and from any such person whose income and financial condition is at issue. The results of such investigation shall be filed at the headquarters office of the Adult and Family Services Division [Formerly 411 410, 1971 c 480 §3, 1971 c 779 §49]

416.030 Certain relatives exempt from liability for support. (1) Upon receipt of the report of the investigation referred to in ORS 416 020, the Adult and Family Services Division may make such further investigation of the matter as it may deem necessary to ascertain the facts in relation thereto

(2) No liability for the support of a needy person shall be imposed under the provisions of ORS 416 010 to 416 260 upon

(a) A living relative of such needy person during any period when a court order or decree, entered in a proceeding other than a proceeding under ORS 416 010 to 416.260, is in effect, which requires the relative to pay a sum of money for the support of that person

(b) A living relative of such needy person during any period when the relative is subject to or exempt from support under ORS 179.610 to 179 770

(c) The child of a needy person if, during the minority of the child, such person wilfully deserted or abandoned the child, or, by expulsion or cruelty, drove the child from the parental home, or, without good cause, was responsible for the child's being "dependent" as defined by ORS 418 205 (2)

(d) The child of a needy person, if, during the minority of the child, such person is committed by order of the court to a state institution for the mentally ill or mentally deficient [Formerly 411 420, 1967 c 549 §7, 1971 c 125 §1, 1971 c 750 §5]

416.035 Exemption of relatives whose liability under other law terminated. Notwithstanding any other provisions of ORS 416 010 to 416.260, no liability shall be imposed upon any relative for the support of a needy person after such relative's responsibility therefor has been or would have been terminated under the provisions of ORS 179 635 (1971 Replacement Part) had such needy person continued to be a resident of a state institution for the mentally deficient [1971 c 750 §2]

416.040 Annual financial statement; statement of recipient's relatives; effect of failure to file. (1) By April 15 of each year each relative of a recipient who received public assistance in the preceding calendar year shall file with the Adult and Family Services Division for the preceding year a sworn statement on a form provided by the division of the relative's gross annual income as defined in ORS 416 010 (2), along with such other information as the division considers necessary to assist in making a determination of the relative's future ability to contribute to the support of the applicant or recipient

(2) The division may extend by 90 days the time for filing of the statement required in subsection (1) of this section

(3) If the responsible relative fails to file a statement by the date specified under subsection (1) or (2) of this section or files a return which is so contradictory to the report and investigation

under ORS 416 020 and 416 030 as to appear not to have been made in good faith, the division may estimate the gross annual income of the relative upon the basis of the information available from the report, from investigation and from the Department of Revenue as provided in ORS 416 230 (1977 Replacement Part)

(4) The statement referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall relate to such matters and information of the type referred to in ORS 411 650 (1)(a) and (b) as may be prescribed by the division or required by the division in any case [1961 c 605 §6, subsection (4) enacted as 1963 c 499 §8]

416.050 Determination of relative's liability for support contributions. (1) Upon receipt of the statement required under ORS 416 040 or the reports under ORS 416 020 and 416 030, the division shall make a determination of the liability of the relative for contributions required by the relatives' contribution scale in ORS 416 061

(2) In determining the ability to contribute, the division may consider the financial circumstances of the relative and, in unusual cases, may permit a contribution of less than the amount fixed in the relatives' contribution scale

(3) If the relative fails to file a statement or files a contradictory statement as described in ORS 416 040 (3), the division shall, on the basis of its estimate of the relative's income, make a determination of the liability of the relative for contributions required by the relatives' contribution scale [1961 c 605 §7]

416.055 Proration of liability among liable relatives. Whenever there is more than one relative who is determined liable for contribution under the scale in ORS 416 061, or determined liable as a result of any proceeding under ORS 416 120 and 416 130 and the total individual liability of such relatives exceeds total cost, the payments required of such relatives shall be prorated among such relatives Each such relative shall be liable to the extent that the ratio of the liability of the relative bears to the total liability of all such relatives [1971 c 480 §2]

416 060 [Formerly 411 425, repealed by 1971 c 651 §1 (416 061 enacted in lieu of 416 060)]

416.061 Monthly liability schedule; contribution from other relatives. (1) The living relatives of any needy person are hereby made liable to such person for monthly contributions of money not to exceed total cost in accordance with the following relatives' contribution scale.

If the relative so elects, the division shall pay the relative out of the Relative Liability Contribution Fund the balance of the sum of payments of the relative after the relative's current and prior years' liability has been deducted.

(3) If the liability of the relative for the current year, as finally determined, in accordance with ORS 416 010 to 416 260, is greater than the sum of the payments made by the relative for that year, the division shall proceed to collect the remaining liability in accordance with the provisions of ORS 416 010 to 416 260.

(4) Any amount collected by the Adult and Family Services Division under this section

416.430 Establishing paternity of child; certification of paternity issue to circuit court. (1) The administrator may establish paternity of a child in the course of a support proceeding under ORS 416 400 to 416.470 when both parents sign sworn statements that paternity has not been legally established and that the male parent is the father of the child. The administrator may enter an order which establishes paternity.

(2) If the parent fails to file a response denying paternity and requesting a hearing within the time period allowed in ORS 416 415 (2), then the administrator, without further notice to the parent, may enter an order, in accordance with ORS 416 415 (8), which declares and establishes the parent as the legal father of the child.

(3) Any order entered pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section establishes legal paternity for all purposes. The Vital Statistics Unit of the Health Division of the Department of Human Resources shall prepare a new birth certificate in the new name, if any, of the child. The original birth certificate shall be sealed and filed and may be opened only upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) If paternity is alleged under ORS 416 415 (3) and a written response denying paternity and requesting a hearing is received within the time period allowed in ORS 416 415 (2), or if the administrator determines that there is a valid issue with respect to paternity of the child, the administrator shall certify the matter to the circuit court for a determination based upon the contents of the file and any evidence which may be produced at trial. The proceedings in court shall for all purposes be deemed suits in equity, but either party shall have the right to trial by jury on the issue of paternity. Unless otherwise specifically provided by statute, the proceedings shall be conducted pursuant to the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure. The provisions of ORS 109 145 to 109.230 apply to proceedings certified to court by the administrator pursuant to this section [1979 c 431 §7, 1983 c 709 §44, 1985 c 671 §38]

416.435 Certification of order to circuit or juvenile court; trial. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, when a response denying paternity and requesting a hearing is received pursuant to ORS 416 415, or paternity is a valid issue as determined by the administrator under ORS 416 430, the certification to the circuit court shall be to the court in the judicial district where the parent or dependent child resides.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, if there is an Oregon juvenile court case regarding the dependent child, the matter may be certified to the county which has jurisdiction of the juvenile court case

(3) The certification shall include true copies of the notice and finding of financial responsibility, the return of service, the denial of paternity and request for hearing and any other relevant papers

(4) The court shall set the matter for trial and notify the parties of the time and place of trial

(5) The circuit court shall consider as a guide the scale and formula provided for in ORS 416 420 in establishing the monthly support and the amount of state debt accrued and accruing [1979 c 421 §6, 1985 c 671 §39]

Upon receipt, the clerk shall docket the order in the circuit court judgment docket. Upon docketing, the order shall have all the force, effect and attributes of a docketed order or decree of the circuit court, including but not limited to lien effect, ability to be renewed pursuant to ORS 18 360, and ability to be enforced by supplementary proceedings, contempt of court proceedings, writs of execution and writs of garnishment [1979 c 421 §9, 1983 c 696 §20, 1985 c 671 §39a]

416.445 Enforcement of financial responsibility order. (1) In addition to any other remedy provided by law for the enforcement of support, if an order has been entered by the administrator and an arrearage exists on the payments required, the administrator may upon the application of the party holding the support rights, issue an order directing any employer or trustee, including but not limited to a conservator, of the parent to withhold and pay over to the department or the clerk of the court, whichever is appropriate, money due or to become due such parent in an amount not to exceed

(a) One-fourth of the disposable earnings as defined in ORS 23 175 due or becoming due the parent at each pay period, until

(b) An order entered pursuant to this section may be served on the employer or trustee or the employer or trustee's registered agent, bookkeeper, accountant, person responsible for payroll or local office manager in the manner prescribed for the service of summons in a civil action or may be served by any type of mail which requests a return receipt or other written acknowledgment of receipt and is addressed to one of the persons listed above

(c) The department shall notify any employer or trustee upon whom such an order has been served whenever all arrearages and fees have been paid in full, and whenever for any other reason the amount required to be withheld and paid over to the department under the order as to future pay periods is to be reduced

(d) If the parent's support obligation is required to be paid monthly and the parent's pay periods are at more frequent intervals, the employer or trustee may at the request of the parent and with the consent of the division withhold and pay over to the department, after all arrearages and fees have been paid in full, an equal amount at each pay period cumulatively sufficient to pay the monthly support obligation, otherwise the full amount of the obligation shall be withheld and paid from the parent's first pay periods each month, consistent with subsection (1) of this section

(3) An order issued under subsection (1) of this section shall be a continuing order and shall remain in effect and be binding upon any employer or trustee upon whom it is served until further order of the administrator

(4) An order to withhold issued and served pursuant to this section shall have priority over any execution or garnishment subsequently served upon any employer or trustee of the parent

(5) No employer or trustee who complies with an order entered pursuant to this section or with the notice provided for in paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section shall be liable to the parent or to any other person claiming rights derived from the parent for wrongful withholding

416.450 Preventing transfer of assets to evade compliance with order. If at any time subsequent to service, receipt or refusal of a notice pursuant to ORS 416 415, and prior to the entry of an order, the administrator reasonably believes that the parent is about to transfer, encumber, convey, sell, remove, secrete, waste or otherwise dispose of property which could be made subject to collection action to satisfy the state debt, the administrator may certify the matter to the circuit court, accompanied by a legal description of the property in question, in order to obtain a temporary restraining order directing that such property not be transferred, encumbered, conveyed, sold, removed, secreted, wasted or otherwise disposed of pending entry of a support order by the circuit court. The administrator shall, in such cases, file in the case record an affidavit stating the reasons upon which such belief is founded. If the parent furnishes a good and sufficient bond satisfactory to the court, the temporary restraining order shall be vacated. 416.460 Supreme Court to provide for expeditious proceedings. The Supreme Court by administrative order shall provide, where necessary, for expeditious hearings on all matters referred to the circuit court pursuant to ORS 416 435 or 416 450 [1979 c 421 §13]

416.465 Relief from compliance with order. The court may, upon such terms as may be just at any time within one year after notice thereof, relieve a parent from an administrative order taken against that parent because of mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect [1979 c 421 §15]
