(5) Where the court finds that preventive or reunification efforts have not been reasonable, but further preventive or reunification efforts could not permit the child to remain without jeopardy at home, the court may authorize or continue the removal of the child [1987 c 809 §8]

Sec 9 (1) Any public or private agency having guardianship or legal custody of a child pursuant to court order shall file reports on the child with the juvenile court which entered the original order concerning the child or, where no such order exists, with the juvenile court of the county of the child's residence in the following circumstances

(a) Where the child has been placed with the agency as a result of a court order and prior to, or as soon as practicable after the agency places the child in any placement including, but not limited to, the child's home, shelter care, substitute care or a child care center, unless the court has previously received a report or treatment plan indicating the actual physical placement of the child,

(b) Where the child has been placed with the agency as the result of a court order and remains under agency care for six consecutive months from date of initial placement except for a child who has been committed to a state juvenile training school, or

(c) Where the child has been surrendered for adoption or the parents' rights have been terminated and the agency has not physically placed the child for adoption or initiated adoption proceedings within six months of receiving the child

(2) The reports required by paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (1) of this section shall be filed by the agency at the end of the initial six-month period and no less frequently than each six months thereafter. The agency shall file reports more frequently if the court so orders. The reports shall include, but not be limited to

(a) A description of the problems or offenses which necessitated the placement of the child with the agency,

(b) A description of the type and an analysis of the effectiveness of the care, treatment and supervision that the agency has provided for the child, together with a list of all placements made since the child has been in the guardianship or legal custody of an agency and the length of time the child has spent in each placement,

(c) A description of agency efforts to return the child to the parental home or find permanent placement for the child, including, where applicable, efforts to assist the parents in remedying factors which contributed to the removal of the child from the home,

(d) A proposed treatment plan or proposed continuation or modification of an existing treatment plan, including, where applicable, terms of visitation to be allowed and

expected of parents and a description of efforts expected of the child and the parents to remedy factors which have prevented the return of the child to the parental home, and

(e) If continued substitute care is recommended, a proposed timetable for the child's return home or other permanent placement or a justification of why extended substitute care is necessary

(3) The following apply to reports required under this section

(a) Notwithstanding the requirements of subsection (2) of this section, reports following the initial report need not contain information contained in prior reports

(b) Notwithstanding the requirements under subsection (1) of this section that reports be filed with the court, any report after the initial report that is required by subsection (2) of this section on a child whose case is being regularly reviewed by a local citizen review board shall be filed with that local citizen review board rather than the court

(4) Upon receiving any report required by this section, the court may hold a hearing to review the child's condition and circumstances and to determine if the court should continue jurisdiction over the child or order modifications in the care, placement and supervision of the child. The court shall hold a hearing

(a) In all cases under paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section where the parents' rights have been terminated, or

(b) If requested by the child, the attorney for the child, if any, the parents or the public or private agency having guardianship or legal custody of the child within 30 days of receipt of the notice provided in subsection (6) of this section

(5) The hearing provided in subsection (4) of this section shall be conducted in the manner provided in ORS 419 498, except that the court may receive testimony and reports as provided in ORS 419 500 (2). At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall enter findings of fact if the decision is to continue the child in substitute care. Such findings shall specifically state

(a) Why continued care is necessary as opposed to returning the child to the child's home or prompt action to secure another permanent placement, or

(b) The expected timetable for return or other permanent placement

(6) Except where a child has been surrendered for adoption or the parents' rights have been terminated, the court shall send a copy of the report required by this section to the parents of the child and shall notify the parents either that a hearing will be held or that the parents may request a hearing at which time they may ask for modifications in the care, treatment and supervision of the child. If the court finds that informing the parents of the identity and location of the foster parents of the child is not in the child's best interest, the court may order such information deleted from the report before sending the report to the parents

(7) Where a child has been surrendered for adoption and the agency has not physically placed the child for adoption or initiated adoption proceedings within six months of receiving the child, the agency shall file a petition alleging that the child comes within the jurisdiction of the court

(8) Any decision of the court made pursuant to the hearing provided in subsection (4) of this section shall be a final order for the purposes of ORS 419 561 and 419 563 [1987 c 809 §9]

(Generally)

419.474 Court of general and equitable jurisdiction; official name of juvenile court; liberal construction to achieve child's welfare. (1) The juvenile court is a court of record and exercises jurisdiction as a court of general and equitable jurisdiction and not as a court of limited or inferior jurisdiction. It is called "The ——— Court of ——— County, Juvenile Department"

(2) The provisions of ORS 419 472 to 419 597, 419 800 to 419 839 shall be liberally construed to the end that a child coming within the jurisdiction of the court may receive such care, guidance and control, preferably in the child's own home, as will lead to the child's welfare and the best interest of the public, and that when a child is removed from the control of the parents of the child the court may secure for the child care that best meets the needs of the child [Subsection (1) enacted as 1959 c 432 §3(1), subsection (2) enacted as 1959 c 432 §57]

(f) Who has run away from the home of the person, or

(g) Who has filed a petition for emancipation pursuant to ORS 109 550 to 109 565, 419 710 and this section

(2) The court shall have jurisdiction under subsection (1) of this section even though the child is receiving adequate care from the person having physical custody of the child

(3) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section do not prevent a court of competent jurisdiction from entertaining a civil action or suit involving a child

(4) The court shall have no further jurisdiction as provided in subsection (1) of this section after a minor has been emancipated pursuant to ORS 109 550 to 109 565 [Subsection (1) enacted as 1959 c 432 §2, subsection (3) enacted as 1959 c 432 §3 (2), 1963 c 496 §1, 1971 c 451 §17, 1977 c 525 §6, 1983 c 338 §926]

(4) If a child described in subsection (1) of this section has fled to a state which has adopted the Rendition Amendment to the Interstate Compact on Juveniles, the return of the child shall be sought in accordance with the provisions of that compact [1979 c 288 §2]

419.478 Transfer of proceeding to juvenile court. If during the pendency of a proceeding in any court other than a juvenile court it is ascertained that the age of the person who is the subject of the proceeding is such that the matter is within the exclusive jurisdiction of the juvenile court, it is the duty of the court in which the proceeding is pending forthwith to transfer the proceeding, together with all the papers, documents and testimony connected therewith, to the juvenile court of the county in which the proceeding is pending [1959 c 432 §4]

(4)(a) If a proceeding is initiated in a court of a county other than the county in which the child resides, that court, on its own motion or on the motion of a party made at any time prior to disposition, shall transfer the proceeding to the court of the county of the child's residence for such further proceeding as the receiving court finds proper. A like transfer may be made if the residence of the child changes during the proceeding, or if the child has been adjudicated within the jurisdiction of the court where the proceeding is initiated on grounds specified in ORS 419 476 (1)(a) or (c) and other proceedings involving the child are pending in the county of the child's residence. Certified copies of the court records pertaining to the immediate proceeding shall accompany the case on transfer

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection, if a child has no ascertainable residence in any county in this state, the court of the county wherein a proceeding is initiated may adjudicate any petition under ORS 419 476 (1)(a)

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of ORS 34 320, an application for a writ of habeas corpus brought by or on behalf of a person who has been committed or placed in a juvenile training school which attacks the validity of the order of commitment shall be brought in the county in which the court that entered the order of commitment is located

(6) A termination of parent-child relationship proceeding may be commenced in the county where the child has been held previously to be within the jurisdiction of the court or where the child resides or is found [1979 c 275 §2, 1983 c 815 §12]

419 480 [1959 c 432 §5, repealed by 1979 c 275 §6]

(1) Any person may file a petition in the juvenile court alleging that a child named therein is within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in ORS 419.476 (1).

(2) If any person informs the court that a child is or appears to be within its jurisdiction, as provided in ORS 419 476 (1), a preliminary inquiry shall be made to determine whether the interests of the child or the public require that further action be taken. Upon the basis of the preliminary inquiry, the court may

(a) Make such informal recommendations to the child and the parent of this child or person having custody of the child as are appropriate in the circumstances,

(b) Direct that a petition be filed, or

(c) Direct that a juvenile motor vehicle offense be handled as provided in ORS 809 370 or that boating or game offenses be handled as provided in ORS 419 535 to 419 541

(3) At any time after a petition is filed, the court may make an order providing for temporary custody of the child

(4) At any time after a petition is filed, the court in the circumstances set forth in ORS 419 533 may remand the case to the appropriate court handling criminal actions, or to municipal court

(5) The court may dismiss the petition at any stage of the proceedings [1959 c 432 §6, 1983 c 507 §3, 1985 c 16 §462]

419.484 Title of petition; contents; service. (1) The petition and all subsequent court documents in the proceeding shall be entitled, "In the matter of ———, a child." The petition shall be in writing and verified. When the petition is filed by a peace officer, counselor or employe of the Adult and Family Services Division or the Children's Services Division, it may be verified upon the information and belief of the petitioner and may be filed without prior direction or authorization of the court. When the petition is filed pursuant to direction of the court as provided in ORS 419 482 (2), it may be upon information and belief. In other cases, the petition shall be on the personal knowledge of the petitioner

(2) The petition shall set forth in ordinary and concise language such of the following facts as are known and indicate any which are not known

(a) The name, age and residence of the child

(b) The facts which bring the child within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in ORS 419.476 (1)

(c) The name and residence of the child's parents, if the child has no parents or the names and residences of both parents are unknown, then the name and address of the child's guardian, if the child has a guardian

(d) The name and residence of the person having physical custody of the child

(3) A petition alleging jurisdiction under ORS 419 476 (1)(a) shall set forth in addition the name and city of residence if known of any person who was physically injured or who suffered loss of or damage to property as a result of the conduct alleged

(4) A certified copy of the petition shall be served, together with the summons, upon all persons upon whom summons are served under ORS 419 486 [1959 c 432 §7, 1969 c 274 §3, 1971 c 151 §1, 1983 c 740 §143, 1983 c 815 §17]

419.486 Issuance of summons; contents; to whom issued. (1) Promptly after the petition is filed, there shall be an investigation of the circumstances concerning the child. No later than 60 days after the petition is filed, summons may be issued

(2) The summons shall be signed by a counselor or some other person acting under the direction of the court and shall contain the name of the court, the title of the proceeding and, except for a published summons, a brief statement of the substance of the facts required by ORS 419 484 (2)(b). The summons shall also include a notice that the parent or other person legally obligated to support the child may be required to pay, at some future date, for all or a portion of the support of the child, including the cost of out-of-home placement, depending upon the ability of the parent to pay support. Summons published as provided in ORS 419 488 (2)(c) shall contain the name of the court, the title of the proceeding and the statement mentioned in that paragraph

(3) The summons shall require the person or persons who have physical custody of the child to appear personally and bring the child before the court at the time and place stated in the summons. The time for the hearing on the petition shall be fixed at a reasonable time, not less than 24 hours, after the issuance of the summons. If it appears to the court that the welfare of the child or of the public requires that the child immediately be taken into custody, the court may indorse an order on the summons directing the officer serving it to take the child into custody.

(4) If the child is not in the physical custody of both parents, or the child's only living parent, or; if both parents are dead, the child's guardian, then summons shall also be issued to the parent or parents or guardian, as the case may be, notifying that such person or persons may appear personally before the court at the time and place stated in the summons, to the end that both parents or the guardian, or both, may be brought before the court.

(5) If the child is 12 years of age or older, a certified copy of the summons shall be served upon the child

(6) Summons may be issued requiring the appearance of any person whose presence the court deems necessary. When a summons is issued to a child pursuant to a petition alleging jurisdiction under ORS 419 476 (1)(a), a copy of the summons shall be mailed to all victims whose names appear on the petition pursuant to ORS 419.484 (3). The copy of the summons shall be accompanied by a notice that the victim may be present for the child's appearance before the court and is entitled to request and receive notification of future hearings before the court in regard to the particular case. The copy of the summons shall also be accompanied by a notice informing the victim of the provisions of ORS 30 765 [1959 c 432 §8, 1969 c 274 §4, 1983 c 815 §18, 1985 c 515 §1]

419.488 Service of summons and process; travel expenses of party summoned.

(1) Summons or other process issuing from the juvenile court may be served without further indorsement in any county of the state by an officer of the county in which the proceeding is pending, by an officer of the county in which the person to be served is found or by any person authorized by the court to serve the process. Except as otherwise provided in ORS 419 472 to 419 597, 419 800 to 419 839 and 419 990 (2), the provisions of law or the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure applicable to summons in civil cases apply to summons issued from juvenile court

(2) If any parent or guardian required to be summoned as provided in ORS 419 486 (4) cannot be found within the state, summons may be served on the parent or guardian in any of the following ways

(a) If the address of the parent or guardian is known, by sending the parent or guardian a copy of the summons by registered mail with a return receipt to be signed by the addressee only.

(b) By personal service outside the state

(c) If, after reasonable inquiry, the whereabouts of the parent or guardian cannot be ascertained, by publishing a summons in a newspaper having general circulation in the county in which the proceeding is pending. In lieu of the brief statement of facts required by ORS 419 486 (2), the published summons shall simply state that a proceeding concerning the child is pending in the court and an order making an adjudication will be entered therein. The summons shall be published once a week for a period of three weeks, making three publications in all. If the names of one or both parents or the guardian are unknown, they may be summoned as "The parent(s) or guardian of (naming or describing the child), found (stating the address or place where the child was found) "

(3) Service as provided in this section shall vest the court with jurisdiction over the parents or guardian in the same manner and to the same extent as if the person served were served personally within this state.

(4) The court may authorize payment of travel expenses of any party summoned. Except as provided in this subsection, responsibility for the payment of the cost of service of summons or other process on any party, and for payment of travel expenses so authorized, shall be borne by the party issuing the summons or requesting the court to issue the summons. When the Children's Services Division issues the summons or requests the court to issue the summons, responsibility for such payment shall be borne by the county. [1959 c 432 §9, 1969 c 591 §298, 1979 c 284 §141, 1987 c 606 §7]

419.490 Compliance with summons; issuance of warrant of arrest. (1) No person required to appear as provided in ORS 419 486 shall without reasonable cause fail to appear or, where directed in the summons, to bring the child before the court.

(2) If the summons cannot be served, if the person to whom the summons is directed fails to obey it or if it appears to the court that the summons will be ineffectual, the court may direct issuance of a warrant of arrest against the person summoned or against the child. [1959 c 432 §10]

419.492 Power of court to proceed when child is before court; exceptions. If the child is before the court, the court has jurisdiction to proceed with the case notwithstanding the failure to serve summons upon any person required to be served by ORS 419 486, except that

(1) No order entered pursuant to ORS 419 523 may be entered unless ORS 419 525 is complied with.

(2) No order for support as provided in ORS 419 513 may be entered against a person unless that person is served as provided in ORS 419 488 (1)

(3) If it appears to the court that a parent or guardian required to be served by ORS 419 486

was not served as provided in ORS 419 488, or was served on such short notice that the parent or guardian did not have a reasonable opportunity to appear at the time fixed, the court shall, upon petition by the parent or guardian, reopen the case for full consideration. [1959 c 432 §11]

419.494 Appointment of person to appear in behalf of child. In any proceeding the court may appoint some suitable person to appear in behalf of the child. [1959 c 432 §12]

419.496 Hearing on each case separately at special session of court; exceptions. Juvenile court hearings shall be held at a special session of the court for that purpose and each case shall be heard separately, except that two or more cases may be heard together in the following instances:

(1) Proceedings consolidated as provided in ORS 419 559.

(2) Cases involving violations of motor vehicle laws or ordinances where none of the cases involves death or serious injury to persons.

(3) Cases arising in whole or in part out of a single transaction or series of related transactions. [1959 c 432 §13]

419.498 Conduct of hearing; court-appointed counsel; witnesses; payment of costs. (1) The hearing shall be held informally by the court without a jury and may be continued from time to time. During the hearing of a case filed pursuant to ORS 419 476 (1)(b) to (e) the court, on its own motion or upon the motion of a party, may take testimony from or confer with any child appearing as a witness and may exclude from the conference the child's parents and other persons if the court finds such action would be likely to be in the best interests of the child. However, the court shall permit an attorney for each party to attend the conference, and the conference shall be reported.

(2)(a) If the child, the parent or guardian requests counsel but is without sufficient financial means to employ suitable counsel possessing skills and experience commensurate with the nature of the petition and the complexity of the case, the court may appoint suitable counsel to represent the child. Whenever requested to do so, the court shall appoint counsel to represent the child in every case filed pursuant to ORS 419 476 (1)(b) to (g). Whenever requested to do so, the court shall appoint counsel to represent the child in every case filed pursuant to ORS 419 476 (1)(a) in which the child would be entitled to court appointed counsel if the child were an adult charged with the same offense.

(b) Where the court appoints counsel to represent the child, it may require the parent, if able, or guardian of the estate, if the estate is able, to pay compensation for counsel and reasonable expenses of investigation, preparation and presentation. The test of the parent's or estate's ability to pay such compensation and expenses shall be the same test as applied to appointment of counsel for defendants under ORS 135 050. The court's order of payment shall be enforceable in the same manner as an order of support under ORS 419 515.

(c) Where the court appoints counsel for the child and the child, parent or guardian is without sufficient financial means to employ counsel, the compensation for counsel and reasonable expenses of investigation, preparation and presentation paid or incurred shall be allowed and paid as provided in ORS 135 055.

(d) Counsel shall be appointed for the parent or legal guardian whenever the nature of the proceedings and due process so require, and when the parent or legal guardian has been determined by the court eligible to receive court-appointed counsel under the standard in ORS 135 050. In deciding whether to appoint counsel under this section, the court shall consider the following factors:

(A) The duration and degree of invasiveness of the interference with the parent-child relationship that possibly could result from the proceeding,

(B) The complexity of the issues and evidence,

(C) The nature of allegations and evidence contested by the parent or legal guardian, and

(D) The effect the facts found or the disposition in the proceeding may have on later proceedings or events, including but not limited to, termination of parental rights or criminal proceedings.

(e) Appointment of counsel for the child or parent is subject to ORS 135 055, 151 410 to 151 480 and applicable contracts entered into by the State Court Administrator under ORS 151 460.

(3) Witnesses or other persons necessary for the conduct of the hearing may be subpoenaed. The child, parents, guardian or any person appearing in the child's behalf may have compulsory attendance of witnesses in the child's or their behalf in the same manner as provided in ORS 136 567 to 136 603. The form of the subpoena shall be substantially as provided in ORS 136 575 (4) or (6), but shall describe the action as a "juvenile court proceeding" and the appearance as on behalf of "the court," "the child," and so on, as the case may be.

(4) In addition to the subpoena available under subsection (3) of this section, when the petition alleges that the child is within the jurisdiction of the court by reason of a ground set forth in ORS 419 476 (1)(a), the child or any person appearing in behalf of the child or the state may secure the attendance of out-of-state witnesses in the same manner as provided in ORS 136 623 to 136 637.

(5) Witnesses subpoenaed to give testimony shall receive the same fees as are paid in criminal cases. Except as provided by this subsection, responsibility for the per diem and mileage fees of any witness, and travel expenses if so ordered by the court, shall be borne by the party who subpoenas the witness or requests the court to subpoena the witness. If the witness was subpoenaed to appear on behalf of the Children's Services Division, responsibility for per diem, mileage fees and travel expenses shall be borne by the county. If the witness was subpoenaed by more than one party, the witness shall be paid by the party who first subpoenas the witness. The court may then, thereafter, order that the costs be distributed equally among all parties who subpoenaed the witness and that the original payor of the costs be reimbursed accordingly. When the witness has been subpoenaed on behalf of an indigent party who is represented by court-appointed counsel, the fees and costs allowed for that witness shall be paid pursuant to ORS 135 055.

(6) Stenographic notes or other report of the hearings shall be taken only when required by the court. [1959 c 432 §14, 1973 c 455 §1, 1979 c 583 §1, 1979 c 867 §8, 1981 c 174 §3, 1981 s s c 3 §65, 1983 c 369 §4, 1983 c 401 §3, 1983 c 815 §19, 1987 c 606 §8, 1987 c 803 §22, 1987 c 892 §7]

419.500 Proof of court's jurisdiction over child; amendment of petition; admissibility of certain evidence. (1) The facts alleged in the petition showing the child to be within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in ORS 419 476 (1), unless admitted, must be established by a preponderance of competent evidence. However, in the adjudicative phase of a hearing where a finding of jurisdiction may result in institutionalization under ORS 419 509 (1), the facts must be established beyond a reasonable doubt. The practice of a parent who chooses for the parent or the child of the parent treatment by prayer or spiritual means alone shall not be construed as a failure to provide physical care within the meaning of ORS 419 472 to 419 597, 419 800 to 419 839 and 419 990 (2) but shall not prevent a court of competent jurisdiction from exercising that jurisdiction under ORS 419 476 (1)(c) The court, on motion of an interested party or on its own motion, may at any time direct that the petition be amended If the amendment results in a substantial departure from the facts originally alleged, the court shall grant such continuance as the interests of justice may require

(2) For the purpose of determining proper disposition of the child, testimony, reports or other material relating to the child's mental, physical and social history and prognosis may be received by the court without regard to their competency or relevancy under the rules of evidence [1959 c 432 §§15, 80, 1965 c 524 §1, 1971 c 31 §1]

419.502 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419.503 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419.504 [Amended by 1955 c 3 §1, repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419.505 Order directing disposition of case. At the termination of the hearing or hearings in the proceeding, the court shall enter an appropriate order directing the disposition to be made of the case [1959 c 432 §16, 1987 c 809 §5]

Note. See notes under 419 472 and 419 600

419.506 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419.507 Authority over child; plan for medical care or special treatment; authority to place child in detention. (1) A child found to be within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in ORS 419 476 (1), may be made a ward of the court Where a child has been found to be within its jurisdiction, and when the court determines it would be in the best interest and welfare of the child, the court may

(a) Place the child on probation or under protective supervision The court may direct that the child remain in the legal custody of the child's parents or other person with whom the child is living, or the court may direct that the child be placed in the legal custody of some relative or some person maintaining a foster home approved by the court, or in a child care center or a youth care center authorized to accept the child The court may specify particular requirements to be observed during the probation or protective supervision consistent with recognized juvenile court practice, including but not limited to restrictions on visitation by the child's parents, restrictions on the child's associates, occupation and activities, restrictions on and requirements to be observed by the person having the child's legal custody, requirements that the child pay any penalty assessed under ORS 147 259 (7), and requirements for visitation by and consultation with a juvenile counselor or other suitable counselor Restitution for physical injury inflicted upon a person by the child and for property taken, damaged or destroyed by the child may be required as a condition of probation Restitution does not limit or impair the right of a victim to sue in a civil action for damages suffered, nor shall the fact of consultation by the victim be admissible in such civil action to prove consent or agreement by the victim However, the court shall credit any restitution paid by the child to a victim against any judgment in favor of the victim in such civil action Before setting the amount of such restitution, the court shall notify the person upon whom the physical injury was inflicted or the owner of the property taken, damaged or destroyed and give such person an opportunity to be heard on the issue of restitution In determining whether or not to order restitution or a penalty assessed under ORS 147 259 (7), the court shall take into account

(A) The financial resources of the child and the burden that payment of restitution will impose, with due regard to the other obligations of the child,

(B) The present and future ability of the child to pay restitution on an instalment basis or on other conditions to be fixed by the court, and

(C) The rehabilitative effect on the child of the payment of restitution and the method of payment

(b) Place the child in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division for care, placement and supervision The court may specify the particular type of care, supervision or services to be provided by Children's Services Division to children placed in the division's custody and to the parents or guardians of such children, but the actual planning and provision of such care, supervision or services shall be the responsibility of Children's Services Division The following provisions shall apply

(A) The division may place the child in a child care center authorized to accept the child

(B) If the child has been placed in the custody of the Children's Services Division, the court shall make no commitment directly to any residential facility, but shall cause the child to be delivered into the custody of the Children's Services Division at the time and place fixed by rules of the division No child so committed shall be placed in a Department of Corrections institution

(C) Uniform commitment blanks, in a form approved by the Assistant Director for Children's Services, shall be used by all courts for placing children in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division

(D) To insure effective planning for children, the Children's Services Division shall take into consideration recommendations and information provided by the committing court before placement in any facility

(E) Whenever a child who is in need of medical care or other special treatment by reason of physical or mental condition is placed in the custody of the Children's Services Division by the juvenile court, the division shall prepare a plan for care or treatment within 14 days after assuming custody of the child. The court may indicate in general terms the type of care which it regards as initially appropriate. A copy of the plan, including a time schedule for its implementation, shall be sent to the juvenile court which committed the child to the division. The court may at any time request regular progress reports on implementation of the plan. The division shall notify the court when the plan is implemented, and shall report to the court concerning the progress of the child annually thereafter. If the plan is subsequently revised, the division shall notify the court of the revisions and the reasons therefor.

(F) Commitment of a child to the Children's Services Division does not terminate the court's continuing jurisdiction to protect the rights of the child or the child's parents or guardians. Notwithstanding subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, if upon review of a placement of a child made by Children's Services Division, the court determines that the placement is so inappropriate as to violate the rights of the child or the child's parents or guardians the court may direct Children's Services Division to place the child in a type of residential placement, but the actual planning and placement of the child shall be the responsibility of Children's Services Division. Nothing in this subparagraph affects any contractual right of a private agency to refuse or terminate a placement.

(G) If the child has been placed in custody of the Children's Services Division on probation or for placement at a juvenile training school, the court may order that the child pay restitution, as provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection, and any penalty assessed under ORS 147.259 (7). In determining whether or not to order restitution or payment of a penalty assessed under ORS 147.259 (7) and, if so, the conditions of payment, the court shall take into consideration the availability to the child of paid employment during such time as the child may be committed to a juvenile training school.

(c) If there is an interstate compact or agreement or an informal arrangement with another state permitting the child to reside in another state while on probation or under protective supervision, or to be placed in an institution or with an agency in another state, place the child on probation or under protective supervision in such other state, or, subject to ORS 419.509, place the child in an institution in such other state in accordance with the compact, agreement or arrangement.

(d) In the circumstances set forth in ORS 419.533, remand the child to the appropriate court handling criminal actions, or to municipal court.

(2) As used in subsection (1) of this section

(a) "Child care center" means a residential facility for the care and supervision of children that is licensed under the provisions of ORS 418.240.

(b) "Community service" has the meaning given it in ORS 137.126.

(c) "Restitution" has the meaning given it in ORS 137.103.

(d) "Youth care center" has the meaning given it in ORS 420.855.

(3) The juvenile court shall retain wardship and the Children's Services Division shall retain legal custody of the child committed to it regardless of the physical placement of the child by the Children's Services Division.

(4)(a) Pursuant to hearing, the juvenile court may order a child 12 years of age or older placed in a detention facility for children for a specific period of time not to exceed eight days, in addition to time already spent in the facility, when

(A) The child has been found to be within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court by reason of having committed an act which would be a crime if committed by an adult,

(B) The child has been placed on formal probation for an act which would be a crime if committed by an adult, and has been found to have violated a condition of that probation, or

(C) The child has been found to be within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court by reason of having escaped from a juvenile detention facility as defined in ORS 419.472 or 419.602, after having been placed in the facility pursuant to the filing of a petition alleging that the child has committed an act which would be a crime if committed by an adult or the offense described in ORS 419 580

(b) The juvenile court shall not place a child in a detention facility for children under paragraph (a) of this subsection unless the facility

(A) Houses children in a room or ward screened from the sight and sound of adults who may be detained in the facility, and

(B) Is staffed by juvenile department employees.

(c) In no case may the court order, pursuant to this section, that a child under 14 years of age be placed in any detention facility in which adults are detained or imprisoned

(5) In circumstances under which, if the child were an adult, a fine not exceeding a certain amount could be imposed under the Oregon Criminal Code, the court may impose such a fine upon the child. In determining whether to impose a fine and, if so, then in what amount, the court shall consider whether the child will be able to pay a fine and whether payment of a fine is likely to have a rehabilitative effect on the child. Fines ordered paid under this subsection shall be collected by the clerk of the court

(6) The court may order a child to perform appropriate community service for a number of hours not to exceed that which could be required under ORS 137.129 if the child were an adult

(7) Upon agreement of the child, the child's parent or guardian and the victim of the child's conduct, the court may order a child within the court's jurisdiction under ORS 419 476 (1)(a) to perform personal service for the victim as a condition of probation. Contact with a victim to determine whether the victim is willing to agree to such personal service shall be by a person to be designated by the court and shall not be by the child. The victim shall be advised by such person of any prior findings of juvenile court jurisdiction of the child under ORS 419 476 (1)(a). The court shall specify the nature and length of the service as the court finds appropriate. Personal service performed pursuant to the order shall constitute full or partial satisfaction of any restitution ordered by the court, as provided by agreement prior to the making of the order. However, in no case shall the child, pursuant to this subsection, perform more hours of personal service than would be indicated by dividing the victim's monetary loss by the legal minimum wage

(8) A parent or legal guardian of any child found to be within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in ORS 419 476 (1), if such parent or guardian was served with summons under ORS

419 486 prior to the adjudication, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the court for purposes of this subsection. The court may order the parent or guardian to assist the court in any reasonable manner in providing appropriate education or counseling for the child. If the court finds that a deficiency in parenting skills has significantly contributed to the circumstances bringing the child within the jurisdiction of the court, the court may order the parent or guardian to participate in educational or counseling programs, if it finds such participation would be consistent with the best interests of the child, as are reasonably directed toward improvement of parenting skills. The court may order such participation either with the child or separately.

(9) If the juvenile court remands a child to another court under ORS 419 533 (1), (2) and (5) for disposition as an adult, the juvenile court nevertheless may retain jurisdiction over the child's parents or guardians under subsection (8) of this section. However, if the court enters an order of remand under ORS 419 533 (6), jurisdiction over the parents or guardians under subsection (8) of this section shall terminate [1959 c 432 §17, 1963 c 81 §1, 1965 c 616 §88, 1969 c 679 §1, 1971 c 401 §91, 1971 c 698 §2, 1973 c 495 §1, 1975 c 662 §7, subsection (4) enacted as 1981 c 648 §2, 1983 c 510 §17, 1983 c 815 §5, 1985 c 824 §1, 1987 c 94 §135, 1987 c 320 §158, 1987 c 665 §1a, 1987 c 778 §1, 1987 c 892 §5]

419.509 Limitation on division's authority to place child in certain institutions. (1) A child placed in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division shall be placed in a juvenile training school or in a private institution operated as a training school for children requiring secure custody in the following cases and no other

(a) The child is found to be within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court by reason of a ground set forth in ORS 419 476 (1)(a), and

(b) The juvenile court having jurisdiction so orders

(2) No child under 12 years of age shall be placed in a juvenile training school

(3) No child shall be transferred or returned after discharge to a facility described in subsection (1) of this section, except upon court order under ORS 419 472 to 419.597, 419 800 to 419.839 and 419 990 (2)

(4) Nothing in subsection (3) of this section shall be deemed to prohibit return of a child to a facility described in subsection (1) of this section, in the discretion of the Children's Services Division, if the child has been released from the facility on temporary or indefinite parole, or to prohibit transfer of a child from one such facility to another [1959 c 432 §18, 1963 c 344 §1, 1969 c 679 §2, 1971 c 105 §1, 1971 c 401 §92, 1971 c 698 §3, 1975 c 718 §3, 1983 c 815 §3]

419 510 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419.511 Probation, protective supervision or institutionalization; special care or treatment; guardianship of child. (1) The duration of any disposition made pursuant to ORS 419 507 (1)(a) to (c) shall be fixed by the court and may be for an indefinite period. Any placement in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division shall be for an indefinite period. However, in cases under ORS 419 476 (1)(a), the period of any disposition made pursuant to ORS 419 507 (1)(a) to (c) shall not exceed the maximum period of institutionalization or commitment authorized if the act had been committed by an adult. The period of any disposition shall not extend beyond the date on which the child becomes 21 years of age.

(2) In any case under ORS 419 476 (1)(a) the court, notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, may place the child on probation to the court for a period not to exceed five years. However, the period of probation shall not extend beyond the date on which the child becomes 21 years of age.

(3) The court may, in lieu of or in addition to any disposition under ORS 419 507 (1)(a) to (c), direct that the child be examined or treated by a physician, psychiatrist or psychologist, or receive other special care or treatment and for that purpose may place the child in a hospital or other suitable facility.

(4) When the court grants legal custody to the Children's Services Division, it shall also grant guardianship of the child to the division, to remain in effect solely while the child remains in the legal custody of the division. However, the assistant director of the division may authorize the superintendent of the juvenile training school, as defined in ORS 420 005, in which the child is placed, if any, to exercise the duties and authority of a guardian of the child under ORS 419 521 and to determine parole and final release under ORS 420 045. In all other cases the court may grant guardianship of the child to some suitable person if it appears necessary to do so in the interests of the child or to a private institution or agency to which the child is committed.

(5) Unless guardianship is granted as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the court as an incident of its wardship over the child shall have the duties and authority of the guardian as provided in ORS 419 521 (1) [1959 c 432 §19, 1963 c 344 §2, 1965 c 616 §89, 1969 c 679 §3, 1971 c 401 §93, 1971 c 571 §1, 1973 c 823 §135, 1983 c 815 §4]

The court, in determining the amount to be paid, shall give due regard to the cost of maintaining the child, the financial resources of the parent or other person and the other financial demands on the resources of the parent or other person. Unless otherwise ordered, the amounts so required to be paid shall be paid to the Department of Human Resources or the county clerk, whichever is appropriate, for transmission to the person, institution or agency having legal custody of the child.

(2) Any order for support entered pursuant to subsection (1) of this section for a child in the care and custody of the Children's Services Division may be made contingent upon the child residing in a state financed or supported residence, shelter or other facility or institution. A certificate signed by the Assistant Director for Children's Services or the attorney for the assistant director shall be sufficient to establish such periods of residence and to satisfy the order for periods of nonresidence.

(3) When a child is in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division pursuant to ORS 419 507 (1) to (3) and such child is the beneficiary of an existing order of support in a decree of dissolution or other order and the division is required to provide financial assistance for the care and support of such child, the Children's Services Division shall be assignee of and subrogated to such child's proportionate share of any such support obligation including sums which have accrued whether or not the support order or decree provides for separate monthly amounts for the support of each of two or more children or a single monthly gross payment for the benefit of two or more children, up to the amount of assistance provided by the division [1959 c 432 §20, 1979 c 343 §5, 1983 c 761 §14, 1985 c 610 §9]

(4) Unless there is an appeal from the order terminating the rights of the parent or parents, the order permanently terminates all rights of the parent or parents whose rights are terminated and the parent or parents have no standing to appear as such in any legal proceeding concerning the child. [1959 c 432 §27, 1985 c 820 §1, 1987 c 803 §21]

(1) The court dismisses the petition concerning the child or remands the case to the appropriate court handling criminal actions, or to municipal court. If the court has wardship of a child based upon a prior petition, remanding the child to the court handling criminal actions, or to municipal court in connection with a subsequent violation of a law or ordinance relating to the use or operation of a motor vehicle does not terminate the wardship, unless the court so orders

(d) The juvenile court, after considering the following criteria, determines by a preponderance of the evidence that retaining jurisdiction will not serve the best interests of the child and of society and therefore is not justified

(A) The amenability of the child to treatment and rehabilitation given the techniques, facilities and personnel for rehabilitation available to the juvenile court and to the criminal court which would have jurisdiction after transfer,

(B) The protection required by the community, given the seriousness of the offense alleged,

(C) The aggressive, violent, premeditated or wilful manner in which the offense was alleged to have been committed,

(D) The previous history of the child, including

(i) Prior treatment efforts and out-of-home placements, and

(ii) The physical, emotional and mental health of the child,

(E) The child's prior record of acts which would be crimes if committed by an adult;

(F) The gravity of the loss, damage or injury caused or attempted during the offense,

(G) The prosecutive merit of the case against the child, and

(H) The desirability of disposing of all cases in one trial if there were adult cooffenders

(2) The juvenile court shall make a specific, detailed, written finding of fact to support any determination under paragraphs (c) and (d) of subsection (1) of this section

(3) A person under 16 years of age shall not be remanded for disposition as an adult under subsection (1) of this section unless the child is represented by counsel during the remand proceedings and is alleged to have committed an act or acts that if committed by an adult would constitute one or more of the following crimes

(a) Murder or any aggravated form thereof under ORS 163 095 or 163 115, or an attempt to commit murder or aggravated murder,

(b) Manslaughter in the first degree under ORS 163 118,

(c) Assault in the first degree under ORS 163 185,

(d) Rape in the first degree under ORS 163 375 (1)(a),

(e) Sodomy in the first degree under ORS 163 405 (1)(a), or

(f) Robbery in the first degree under ORS 164 415

(4)(a) When a person is remanded for prosecution as an adult, the person shall be remanded only on the actual charges justifying the remand under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section or subsection (3) of this section, as the case may be. Any charges not remandable shall remain within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, even if they arise out of the same act or transaction

(b) Notwithstanding that the juvenile court has remanded the case under this section, the court of remand shall return the case to the juvenile court unless an accusatory instrument is filed in the court of remand alleging, in the case of a person under 16 years of age, a crime listed in subsection (3) of this section or, in the case of any other person, a crime listed in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section. Also in the case of a remanded person, when a trial has been held in the court of remand upon an accusatory instrument alleging a crime listed in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section or subsection (3) of this section, as the case may be, and the person is found guilty of any lesser included offense that is not itself a remandable offense, the trial court shall not sentence the defendant therein, but the trial court shall order a presentence report to be made in the case, shall set forth in a memorandum such observations as the court may make regarding the case, and shall then return the case to the juvenile court in order that the juvenile court make disposition in the case based upon the guilty finding in the court of remand. Disposition shall be as if the juvenile court itself had found the child to be in its jurisdiction pursuant to ORS 419 476 (1)(a). The records and consequences of the case shall, in all respects, be as if the juvenile court itself had found the child to be in its jurisdiction pursuant to ORS 419 476 (1)(a).

(c) Nothing in this section applies to a remand under subsection (5) or (6) of this section

(5) The juvenile court may enter an order directing that all cases involving violation of law or ordinance relating to the use or operation of a motor vehicle, boating laws or game laws be remanded to criminal or municipal court, subject to the following conditions

(a) That the criminal or municipal court prior to hearing a case, other than a case involving a parking violation, in which the defendant is or appears to be under 18 years of age notify the juvenile court of that fact, and

(b) That the juvenile court may direct that any such case be remanded to the juvenile court for further proceedings

(6) After the juvenile court has entered an order remanding a child to an adult court under subsection (1) of this section, the court may, if the child is 16 years of age or older, enter a subsequent order providing that in all future cases involving the same child, the child shall be remanded to the appropriate court without further proceedings under subsections (1) and (5) of this section except that a finding under subsection (2) of this section must be reviewed and renewed before the case can be remanded

(7) The juvenile court may at any time direct that the subsequent order entered under subsection (6) of this section shall be vacated or that a pending case be remanded to the juvenile court for further proceedings. The court may make such a direction on any case but shall do so and require a pending case to be remanded to the juvenile court if it cannot support the finding required under subsection (2) of this section [1959 c 432 §31, 1971 c 199 §3, subsections (3) and (4) enacted as 1971 c 199 §2, 1975 c 596 §1, 1985 c 631 §1]

419.535 Handling of motor vehicle, boating or game offenses. If the preliminary inquiry pursuant to ORS 419 482 discloses that the child's conduct consists, or is alleged to consist, of a violation of a law or ordinance relating to the use or operation of a motor vehicle, boating laws or game laws and it appears to the court that the nature of the offense and the child's background are such that a proceeding as provided in ORS 419 484 to 419 527 is not warranted, the court may handle

(1) Cases involving boating laws or game laws as provided in ORS 419 537 to 419 541

(2) Cases involving the use or operation of a motor vehicle as provided under ORS 809 370 [1959 c 432 §32, 1971 c 199 §4, 1983 c 507 §4, 1985 c 16 §463]

419.537 Petition and summons. (1) A petition relating to boating or game offenses shall be filed as provided in ORS 419 482 and 419 484. Motor vehicle offenses are subject to ORS 809 370

(2) Summons as provided in ORS 419 486 (1) shall be issued to the parent or other person having physical custody of the child, requiring the parent or other person to appear with the child before the court at the time and place stated in the summons.

(3) The summons may be served as provided in ORS 419 488 or by mailing a copy thereof to the parent or other person having physical custody of the child. If the summons is served personally, a warrant may be issued as provided in ORS 419 490 [1959 c 432 §33, 1971 c 199 §5, 1983 c 507 §5, 1985 c 16 §464]

419.539 Hearing and finding. A hearing shall be held as provided in ORS 419 496 to 419 500. At the termination of the hearing, if the court finds the matters alleged in the petition to be true, it may enter an order finding the child to be a juvenile

(1) Motor vehicle offender and dispose of the case as provided in ORS 809 370, or

(2) Boating law offender or a game law offender and may dispose of the case as provided in ORS 419 541 [1959 c 432 §34, 1971 c 199 §6, 1983 c 507 §6, 1985 c 16 §465]

419 544 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419 545 [1959 c 432 §37, repealed by 1979 c 275 §6]

419.547 Disposition of transferable case. Where a juvenile court proceeding is pending in a county other than the county in which the child resides and the case is transferable under ORS 419 479 or 419 549, the juvenile court of the county in which the child resides may authorize the court in which the case is pending to proceed with the case in either of the following ways where it will facilitate disposition of the case without adverse effect on the interests of the child

(1) To hear, determine and dispose of the case in its entirety, or

(2) Prior to transferring the case, to conduct a hearing into the facts alleged to bring the child within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, to determine the facts and to certify its findings to the juvenile court of the county in which the child resides [1959 c 432 §38, 1979 c 275 §4]

419 548 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

(1) To conduct a hearing into the facts alleged to bring the child within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, to determine the facts and to certify its findings to the court in which the case is pending

(2) To assume jurisdiction over the case and administer probation or protection supervision of the child, where the court in which the proceeding is pending

(a) Finds that the child has moved to the other county or orders as part of its disposition of the proceeding that legal custody of the child be given to a person residing in the other county, and

(b) Is advised that the court of the other county will accept jurisdiction of the case. The cost of administering probation or protective supervision of the child shall be paid by the county accepting jurisdiction, unless the transferring and receiving counties otherwise agree. The cost of transporting the child shall be paid by the county transferring jurisdiction, unless the transferring and receiving counties otherwise agree. [1959 c 432 §39]

[1959 c 432 §40]

419 554 [Repealed by 1955 c 491 §9]

419 555 [1959 c 432 §41, repealed by 1979 c 275 §6]

[1959 c 432 §42, 1965 c 151 §1, 1979 c 275 §5]

An appeal from a circuit court shall be taken to the Court of Appeals, and an appeal from a county court shall be taken to the circuit court.

(2) Where the proceeding is in the circuit court, including juvenile court, and no stenographic transcript of the proceedings was kept, the court, on motion made not later than 15 days after the entry of the court's order, shall grant a rehearing and shall direct that a stenographic transcript of the proceedings be kept. However, the court shall not grant a rehearing in a case barred by ORS 419 578 without the consent of the child affected by such case. The time for taking an appeal shall run from the date of the court's order entered after the rehearing.

(3) The appeal may be taken by filing an informal notice of appeal with the clerk of the juvenile court. The notice shall be filed not later than 30 days after the entry of the court's order. (4) An appeal to the Court of Appeals shall be conducted in the same manner as an appeal in an equity suit and shall be advanced on the court's docket in the same manner as appeals in criminal cases.

(5) Except as provided in subsection (7) of this section or when otherwise ordered by the appellate court, the filing or pendency of an appeal does not suspend the order of the juvenile court nor shall it discharge the child from the custody of the person, institution or agency in whose custody the child may have been placed, nor shall it preclude the trial court after notice and hearing from entering such further temporary order relating to the child's custody pending final disposition of the appeal as it finds necessary by reason only of matters transpiring subsequent to the order appealed from. Certified copies of any such order shall be filed by the clerk of the juvenile court forthwith with the clerk of the Court of Appeals.

(6) The state may take an appeal from the order of a juvenile court judge or referee from

(a) An order made prior to an adjudicatory hearing dismissing or setting aside a delinquency petition,

(b) An order made after an adjudicatory hearing in which the juvenile is found to be within the jurisdiction of the court, setting aside the petition for delinquency,

(c) An order made prior to an adjudicatory hearing suppressing or limiting evidence or refusing to suppress or limit evidence, or

(d) An order made prior to an adjudicatory hearing for the return or restoration of things seized

(7) If the state pursuant to subsection (6) of this section appeals a preadjudicatory order, and the child is in detention in the same proceeding pursuant to ORS 419 577, the juvenile court may release the child, and shall consider release of the child from detention during the pendency of the appeal in accordance with the following provisions

(a) When the child is charged with an act which would be murder if committed by an adult, release shall be denied when the proof is evident or the presumption strong that the child committed the act

(b) The child shall be released upon the child's personal recognizance unless release criteria show to the satisfaction of the juvenile court that the child would not be likely to appear before the court as ordered upon later appearance dates and that such a release is therefore unwarranted Release criteria shall include the following

(A) The child's education and employment status and history and financial condition,

(B) The nature and extent of the child's family relationships,

(C) The child's past and present residences,

(D) Names of persons who agree to assist the child in attending court at the proper time,

(E) The nature of the current petition,

(F) The child's prior juvenile court record, if any, and, if the child has previously been released pending trial, whether the child appeared as required,

(G) Any facts indicating the possibility of violations of law if the child is released without regulations,

(H) Any facts tending to indicate that the child has strong ties to the community, and

(I) Any other facts tending to indicate the likelihood of the child's appearing before the court as ordered upon later appearance dates

(c) Upon a finding that release of the child on the child's personal recognizance is unwarranted, the juvenile court shall impose conditional release The court may impose upon the released child one or more of the following conditions, but shall impose the least onerous condition reasonably likely to assure the child's later appearance

(A) Release of the child into the care of a parent or other responsible person or organization for supervising the child and assisting the child in appearing in court The supervisor shall notify the court immediately in the event that the child breaches the conditional release

(B) Reasonable regulations on the activities, movements, associations and residences of the child

(C) Any other reasonable restriction designed to assure the child's appearance [1959 c 432 §44, 1969 c 198 §80, 1973 c 649 §1, 1979 c 588 §3, 1983 c 815 §14]

419 562 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419.563 Court-appointed counsel on appeal; district attorney or Attorney General to represent state.

(1) If the child, parent or guardian is shown to be without sufficient financial means to employ suitable counsel possessing skills and experience commensurate with the nature and complexity of the case to represent the person in an appeal as provided in ORS 419 561, the court, upon request of the person or upon its own motion, shall appoint suitable counsel to represent the person Counsel appointed by the court shall be paid compensation determined by the appellate court as provided in ORS 135 055 if the circuit court is the appellate court or as provided in ORS 138 500 if the Court of Appeals or Supreme Court is the appellate court

(2) Where the court appoints counsel to represent the child, it may require the parent, if able, or guardian of the estate, if the estate is able, to pay compensation for counsel and costs and expenses necessary to the appeal The test of the parent's or estate's ability to pay such compensation, costs and expenses shall be the same test as applied to appointment of counsel for defendants under ORS 135 050 The court's order of payment shall be enforceable in the same manner as an order of support under ORS 419 515

(3) Where the court appoints counsel and the child, parent or guardian is without sufficient financial means to employ counsel, the compensation for counsel and costs and expenses necessary to the appeal shall be allowed and paid as provided in ORS 135 055 if the circuit court is the appellate court or as provided in ORS 138 500 if the Court of Appeals or Supreme Court is the appellate court

(4) The district attorney or Attorney General shall represent the state in the appeal [1959 c 432

§45, 1969 c 409 §1, 1977 c 335 §1, 1979 c 867 §9 1985 c 502 §24]

419 564 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419 565 [1957 c 276 §1 repealed by 1959 c 652 §24]

The record of the case shall be withheld from public inspection but shall be open to inspection by the child, parent, guardian or surrogate and their attorneys. The attorneys are entitled to copies of the record of the case.

(2) Reports and other material relating to the child's history and prognosis are privileged and, except at the request of the child, shall not be disclosed directly or indirectly to anyone other than the judge of the juvenile court, those acting under the judge's direction and to the attorneys of record for the child or the child's parent, guardian or surrogate. The attorneys are entitled to examine and obtain copies of any reports or other material relating to the child's history and prognosis. Any attorney who examines or obtains copies of such reports or materials shall be responsible for preserving their confidentiality and shall return the copies to the court upon the conclusion of the attorney's involvement in the case.

(3) No information appearing in the record of the case or in reports or other material relating to the child's history or prognosis may be disclosed to any person not described in subsection (2) of this section without the consent of the court, except for purposes of evaluating the child's eligibility for special education as provided in ORS chapter 343, and no such information may be used in evidence in any proceeding to establish criminal or civil liability against the child, whether such proceeding occurs after the child has reached 18 years of age or otherwise, except for the following purposes:

(a) In connection with a presentence investigation after the guilt of the child has been admitted or established in a criminal court.

(b) In connection with a proceeding in another juvenile court concerning the child or an appeal from the juvenile court.

(4) If the court finds that the child or parent is without financial means to purchase all or a necessary part of the transcript of the evidence or proceedings, the court shall order upon motion the transcript or part thereof to be furnished. The transcript or part thereof furnished under this subsection shall be paid for in the same manner as furnished transcripts are paid for in criminal cases.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the name of the juvenile, the basis for the juvenile court's jurisdiction over the juvenile, the date, time and place of any juvenile court proceeding in which the juvenile is involved and that portion of the juvenile court order providing for the legal disposition of the juvenile where jurisdiction is based on ORS 419 476 (1)(a) or (g) shall not be confidential. [1959 c 432 §46, subsection (4) enacted as 1969 c 274 §2, 1971 c 24 §1, 1979 c 836 §13, 1981 c 524 §1]

419 568 [Renumbered 419 618]

(2) In lieu of taking a child into custody, a peace officer may issue a citation to a child for the same offenses and under the same circumstances that a citation may be issued to an adult. Unless the citation is issued for violation of law or ordinance for which an order has been entered pursuant to ORS 419 533 (5), the citation is returnable to the juvenile court of the county in which the citation is issued. Law enforcement agencies in a county, in consultation with the juvenile court of the county, may develop a form for citations issued pursuant to this subsection.

419 572 [Repealed by 1959 c 432 §59]

419.573 Procedure for temporary custody; release of child to parent. This section establishes procedures that a person must follow who takes a child into temporary custody under ORS 419 569. The person must comply with the following.

(1) As soon as practicable after the child is taken into custody, the person taking the child into custody shall notify the child's parent, guardian or other person responsible for the child.

(2) The person taking the child into custody shall release the child to the custody of the child's parent or other responsible person in this state, except in the following cases:

(a) Where the court has issued a warrant of arrest against the child.

(b) Where the person taking the child into custody has probable cause to believe that the welfare of the child or others may be immediately endangered by the release of the child.

(3) If a child taken into temporary custody is not released as provided in subsection (2) of this section and the juvenile court for the county has not established the alternative procedure authorized in subsection (4) of this section, the person taking the child into custody shall, without unnecessary delay, do one of the following:

(a) Take the child before the court or a person appointed by the court to effect disposition under ORS 419 577.

(c) Deliver the child to the county in which the child resides as provided in ORS 419 579.

(4) The juvenile court may establish, as an alternative to the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, that if a child taken into temporary custody is not released as provided in subsection (2) of this section, procedures shall be followed that comply with the following:

(a) The person taking the child into custody may communicate, by telecommunications or otherwise, with the person appointed by the court to effect disposition under ORS 419 577.

(b) After interviewing the person taking the child into custody and obtaining such other information as is considered necessary, the person appointed by the court under ORS 419 577 to effect disposition may exercise the authority granted under that section and shall, in such case, direct that the person taking the child into custody release the child or deliver the child in accordance with such direction.

(c) The person taking the child into custody shall comply with the direction of the person appointed by the court to effect disposition.

(5) Except where the child is taken into custody pursuant to an order of the court, the person taking the child into custody shall promptly file with the court or a counselor a brief written report stating all of the following:

(a) The child's name, age and address.

(b) The name and address of the person having legal or physical custody of the child.

(c) Efforts to notify the person having legal or physical custody of the child and the results of those efforts.

419.575 Place of detention or shelter care while child in temporary custody. (1)

The juvenile court of each county shall designate the place or places in which children are to be placed in detention or shelter care when taken into temporary custody. If the county is adjacent to another state, the court may designate a place or places in the adjoining state where children, pursuant to an agreement between such place or places and the juvenile department of the county, may be placed in detention when taken into custody. A county juvenile department shall not enter into an agreement with an out-of-state place for detention of juveniles, as provided in this section, unless the place or places conform to standards of this state for such a place and unless the agreement includes a provision that the place be subject to inspection by officers of this state under subsection (4) of this section

(2) No child shall be detained at any time in a police station, jail, prison or other place where adults are detained, except as follows:

(a) A child may be detained in a police station for up to three hours when necessary to obtain the child's name, age, residence and other identifying information

(b) A child remanded under ORS 419 533 (1) or (6) to the court handling criminal actions or to municipal court may be detained in a jail or other place where adults are detained, except that any such person under 16 years of age shall, prior to conviction or after conviction but prior to execution of sentence, be detained, if at all, in a facility used by the county for the detention of children

(3) No child remanded to the court handling criminal actions or to municipal court pursuant to a standing order of the juvenile court under ORS 419 533 (5), including a child accused of nonpayment of fines, shall be detained in a jail or other place where adults are detained

However, a juvenile court judge or referee must determine that the child is eligible for detention under ORS 419 599 and that appropriate alternative methods of controlling the child's behavior are unavailable. A child detained under this subsection shall have the right to a hearing as provided in ORS 419 600

(5) Inspection of juvenile detention facilities, including jails or lockups where juveniles are detained, and enforcement of those juvenile detention standards contained in this section or otherwise established by statute, shall be conducted in the same manner as provided in ORS 169 070 and 169 080 [1959 c 432 §50, 1975 c 718 §1, 1979 c 338 §1, 1981 c 648 §3, 1985 c 500 §13, 1985 c 618 §3a, 1985 c 631 §4]

419.576 Reports by agencies having guardianship or legal custody of child; hearing to review condition and circumstances of child. (1) Any public or private agency having guardianship or legal custody of a child pursuant to court order shall file reports on the child with the juvenile court which entered the original order concerning the child or, where no such order exists, with the juvenile court of the county of the child's residence in the following circumstances

(a) Where the child has been placed with the agency as a result of a court order and prior to, or as soon as practicable after the agency places the child in any placement including, but not limited to, the child's home, shelter care, foster care or a child care center, unless the court has previously received a report or treatment plan indicating the actual physical placement of the child,

(b) Where the child has been placed with the agency as the result of a court order and remains under agency care for six consecutive months from date of initial placement, except for a child who has been committed to a state juvenile training school, or

(c) Where the child has been surrendered for adoption or the parents' rights have been terminated and the agency has not physically placed the child for adoption or initiated adoption proceedings within six months of receiving the child

(2) The reports required by paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (1) of this section shall be filed by the agency at the end of the initial six-month period and annually thereafter. The agency shall file reports more frequently if the court so orders. The reports shall include, but not be limited to

(a) A description of the problems or offenses which necessitated the placement of the child with the agency,

(b) A description of the type and an analysis of the effectiveness of the care, treatment and supervision that the agency has provided for the child, together with a list of all placements made since the child has been in the guardianship or legal custody of an agency and the length of time the child has spent in each placement,

(c) A description of agency efforts to return the child to the parental home or find permanent placement for the child, including, where applicable, efforts to assist the parents in remedying factors which contributed to the removal of the child from the home,

(d) A proposed treatment plan or proposed continuation or modification of an existing treatment plan, including, where applicable, terms of visitation to be allowed and expected of parents and a description of efforts expected of the child and the parents to remedy factors which have prevented the return of the child to the parental home, and

(e) If continued foster care is recommended, a proposed timetable for the child's return home or other permanent placement or a justification of why extended foster care is necessary

(3) Notwithstanding the requirements of subsection (2) of this section, annual reports need not contain information contained in prior reports

(4) Upon receiving any report required by this section, the court may hold a hearing to review the child's condition and circumstances and to determine if the court should continue jurisdiction over the child or order modifications in the care, placement and supervision of the child. The court shall hold a hearing

(a) In all cases under paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section where the parents' rights have been terminated, or

(b) If requested by the child, the attorney for the child, if any, the parents or the public or private agency having guardianship or legal custody of the child within 30 days of receipt of the notice provided in subsection (6) of this section.

(5) The hearing provided in subsection (4) of this section shall be conducted in the manner provided in ORS 419 498, except that the court may receive testimony and reports as provided in ORS 419 500 (2). At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall enter findings of fact if the decision is to continue the child in foster care. Such findings shall specifically state

(a) Why continued care is necessary as opposed to returning the child to the child's home or prompt action to secure another permanent placement, or

(b) The expected timetable for return or other permanent placement

(6) Except where a child has been surrendered for adoption or the parents' rights have been terminated, the court shall send a copy of the report required by this section to the parents of the child and shall notify the parents either that a hearing will be held or that the parents may request a hearing at which time they may ask for modifications in the care, treatment and supervision of the child. If the court finds that informing the parents of the identity and location of the foster parents of the child is not in the child's best interest, the court may order such information deleted from the report before sending the report to the parents

(7) Where a child has been surrendered for adoption and the agency has not physically placed the child for adoption or initiated adoption proceedings within six months of receiving the child, the agency shall file a petition alleging that the child comes within the jurisdiction of the court

(8) Any decision of the court made pursuant to the hearing provided in subsection (4) of this section shall be a final order for the purposes of

ORS 419 561 and 419 563 [1979 c 502 §2, 1981 c 777 §1, 1983 c 815 §6, 1987 c 809 §6]

419.577 Disposition of child taken into temporary custody; report to court; release or detention of child by court. This section establishes the authority and procedures that apply to a person designated by a court to effect disposition of a child taken into temporary custody or brought before the court under ORS 419 573. The person shall comply with the following

(1) The person may do any of the following when the person has taken custody of a child or has authority to effect disposition of a child taken into custody

(a) Release the child to the custody of a parent or other responsible person

(b) Release the child on the child's own recognizance when appropriate. In determining whether it is appropriate to release a person under this paragraph, the person shall apply the criteria contained in ORS 419 561 (7)(b)

(c) Upon a finding that release of the child on the child's own recognizance is unwarranted, or upon order of the court or if probable cause exists to believe the child may be detained under ORS 419 507 (4), 419 599 or 419 600, release the child in accordance with ORS 419 561 (7)(c), subject to such conditions as will insure the child's safety and the child's appearance in court

(d) Subject to ORS 419 575, place the child in shelter care or detention. The child shall be placed in shelter care rather than detention, unless the person has probable cause to believe that the court will be able to detain the child under ORS 419.507 (4), 419.599 or 419 600.

(e) Pursuant to order of the court, hold, retain or place the child in detention or shelter care subject to further order

(f) Exercise authority to detain the child as provided in paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of this section

(2) If the child is released under subsection (1) of this section, the person releasing the child shall inform the juvenile court, which may review the release as provided in ORS 419 600

(3) The following provisions apply to this section

(a) No child shall be held in detention or shelter care more than 24 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and judicial holidays, except on order of the court made pursuant to a hearing under ORS 419 600.

(b) When the child is taken into temporary custody pursuant to ORS 419 569 and placed in shelter care, a parent or child shall be given the opportunity to present evidence to the court at the hearings specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection, and at any subsequent review hearing, that the child can be returned home without further danger of suffering physical injury or emotional harm, endangering or harming others, or not remaining within the reach of the court process prior to adjudication. At the hearing

(A) The court shall determine, where applicable, whether the division has made reasonable efforts to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the home, and

(B) In determining whether a child shall be removed or continued out of home, the court shall consider whether the provision of reasonable and available services can prevent or eliminate the need to separate the family

(c) If a parent, guardian or other person responsible for the child cannot be found or will not take responsibility for the child, no appropriate shelter care space is available and the child cannot be released safely on recognizance or conditionally, a child who is accused of an act which would be a crime if committed by an adult may be detained for a period of time not exceeding 24 hours from the time the child first is taken into custody to allow the juvenile department counselor or other person designated by the juvenile court to develop a release plan to insure the child's safety and appearance in court. Such detention shall conform to the limitations of ORS 419 575 (2) [1959 c 432 §51, 1969 c 274 §5, 1975 c 718 §2, 1981 c 887 §1, 1983 c 815 §15, 1985 c 618 §§4, 4a, 1987 c 892 §6]

419.578 Adult court proceedings and collateral juvenile proceedings barred upon taking of evidence at juvenile adjudicatory hearing. Except as provided in ORS 153 585 (1), proceedings in adult criminal court and other juvenile court adjudicatory proceedings based on an act alleged in a petition or citation to have been committed by a child or allegations arising out of the same conduct are barred when the juvenile court judge or referee has begun taking evidence in an adjudicatory hearing or has accepted a child's admission or answer of no contest to the allegations of the petition or citation. This section shall not prevent appeal of any preadjudicatory order of the court which could be appealed in a criminal case, including, but not limited to, an order suppressing evidence [1979 c 588 §2]

419.579 When jurisdiction acquired; disposition of child residing in another county when taken into temporary custody; time when court of child's residence acquires jurisdiction. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the jurisdiction of the juvenile court of the county in which a child is taken into temporary custody shall attach from the time the child is taken into custody

(2) Where a child residing in some other county is taken into temporary custody the child may be

(a) Released to the child's parent or other responsible person in this state as provided in ORS 419 573 (2)

(b) Delivered to a peace officer or juvenile counselor in the county in which the child resides, if such delivery can be made without unnecessary delay. In such event, the person to whom the child is delivered shall assume temporary custody of the child and shall proceed as provided in ORS 419 573 to 419 600

(3) Where a child is released or delivered as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the jurisdiction of the juvenile court of the county in which the child resides shall attach from the time the child is taken into custody [1959 c 432 §52, 1985 c 618 §8]

419.580 Confinement in detention facility after escape. Any child 12 years of age or older, alleged to be within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court by reason of having committed an act which would be a crime if committed by an adult, who escapes from a juvenile detention facility as defined in ORS 419 472 or 419 602 after having been placed in the facility pursuant to the filing of a petition alleging that the child has committed an act which would be a crime if committed by an adult commits a violation punishable by placement in a detention facility for children for a specific period of time not to exceed eight days, in addition to time already spent in the facility, when such punishment is ordered by the juvenile court pursuant to ORS, 419 507 (4) [1983 c 815 §11]

Note: 419 580 was added to and made a part of ORS chapter 419 but was not added to or made a part of any series therein by legislative action. See Preface to Oregon Revised Statutes for further explanation

A rehearing before a judge of the juvenile court may be determined on the same evidence introduced before the referee if a stenographic transcript of the proceedings was kept, but, in any case, additional evidence may be presented.

(4) All orders of a referee shall become immediately effective, subject to the right of review provided in this section, and shall continue in full force and effect until vacated or modified upon rehearing by order of a judge of the juvenile court. Any order entered by a referee shall become a final order of the juvenile court upon expiration of 10 days following its entry, unless a rehearing is ordered or requested.

(5) The judge of the juvenile court, or in counties having more than one judge of the juvenile court, the presiding judge of the juvenile court may establish requirements that any or all orders of referees must be expressly approved by a judge of the juvenile court before becoming effective.

(7) At any time prior to the expiration of 10 days after notice of the order and findings of a referee, a child, the parent, guardian or other person appearing in behalf of the child or the petitioner may apply to the juvenile court for a rehearing. The application may be directed to all or to any specified part of the order or findings.

(8) All rehearings of matters heard before a referee shall be before a judge of the juvenile court and shall be conducted de novo [1959 c 432 §53, 1969 c 274 §6, 1981 ss c 3 §4]

(3) In any case within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court pursuant to ORS 419.476 (1)(a) in which the child caused another person any physical injury or any loss of or damage to property, the court shall consider restitution to the victim to be of high priority. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that the obligation to make such restitution is in the best interest of the child as well as of the victim and society [1983 c 815 §16, subsections (1) and (2) enacted by 1987 c 665 §2]

Note 419.582 was enacted into law by the Legislative Assembly but was not added to or made a part of ORS chapter 419 or any series therein by legislative action. See Preface to Oregon Revised Statutes for further explanation.

This preliminary evaluation of handicapping conditions shall not constitute a final determination of the child's eligibility for special education but shall be used as the basis for appointing a surrogate to protect the child's due process rights pursuant to ORS chapter 343. [1979 c 836 §10]

(B) There is probable cause to believe the child has violated the conditions of that probation, and

(C) Any of the following circumstances is present:

(i) No means less restrictive of the child's liberty gives reasonable assurance that the child will attend a hearing on the violation of probation,

(ii) The child's behavior immediately endangers the physical welfare of another person, or

(iii) The juvenile court or its authorized representative has reasonable cause to believe that other available preventive measures including but not limited to additional conditions of probation, increased security and monitoring of the child's behavior, community service and alternative community placement have been tried, or if tried, would not adequately assure that the child would conform the child's conduct, pending the probation violation hearing, to conditions imposed by the court to protect the best interests of the child or the community, or

(b) The child is not on probation but is subject to conditions of release pending adjudication of a petition alleging that the child is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court pursuant to ORS 419 476 (1)(a) and there is probable cause to believe the child has violated a condition of release

(2) Any placement of a child in detention pursuant to this section shall be subject to judicial review in accordance with the provisions of ORS 419 577 (3)(a) [1985 c 612 §3, 1987 c 892 §1]

Note ORS 419 598 was enacted into law by the Legislative Assembly but was not added to or made a part of ORS chapter 419 or any series therein by legislative action. See Preface to Oregon Revised Statutes for further explanation.

419.599 Grounds for detention before adjudication. This section establishes, for purposes of ORS 419 577 and 419 600, when a child may be held or placed in detention before an adjudication on the merits. First, it must be determined that probable cause exists to believe that the child is within the jurisdiction of the court by reason of ORS 419 476 (1)(a). Finally, it must be determined that one or more of the following apply to the child:

(5) The child is charged with committing an act against property that would be chargeable as a felony if committed by an adult and one or more of the following apply:

(a) The child is already detained or has been released pursuant to a hearing on the matter of detention in connection with another delinquency proceeding

(b) The child has wilfully failed to appear at one or more juvenile court proceedings and the court makes such determination on demonstrable evidence

(c) The court finds probable cause to believe that the child has recently demonstrated violent conduct resulting in physical injury to another person, as "physical injury" is defined in ORS 161 015. For purposes of this paragraph, the court may consider the current incident

(d) The child has one or more adjudications that determined that the child committed an offense against property that would be chargeable as a felony if committed by an adult

(6) The child is charged with an act of violence, other than one enumerated in subsection (2) of this section, that would be a felony if committed by an adult and one or more of the following apply:

(a) The child is already detained or has been released pursuant to a hearing on the matter of detention in connection with another delinquency proceeding

(b) The child has wilfully failed to appear at one or more juvenile court proceedings and the court makes such determination on demonstrable evidence

(d) The child has one or more adjudications that determined that the child committed an offense against property that would be chargeable as a felony if committed by an adult

(7) The child is charged with an act that involves intentional physical injury to another, as "physical injury" is defined in ORS 161 015, and one or more of the following apply:

(a) The child is already detained or has been released pursuant to a hearing on the matter of detention in connection with another delinquency proceeding

(b) The child has wilfully failed to appear at one or more juvenile court proceedings and the court makes such determination on demonstrable evidence

(c) The court finds probable cause to believe that the child has, within six months previous to the current incident, demonstrated a separate act of violent conduct resulting in physical injury to another person, as "physical injury" is defined in ORS 161 015

(d) The child has one or more adjudications that determined that the child committed an offense against property that would be chargeable as a felony if committed by an adult

(8) The child resides in another state and the court has reasonable information that the child has run away from home. A court is not required to make the first two findings under this section for purposes of this subsection [1985 c 618 §7]

419.600 Procedure for detention before adjudication. This section establishes the procedures for a court to order a child held or placed in detention or shelter care before an adjudication on the merits. The procedures and requirements of this section do not apply to a child ordered detained under ORS 419 507 (4) or 419 580. All of the following apply

(1) A court may order that a child be held or placed in detention under ORS 419 599 only when petition has been filed alleging that the child is within the jurisdiction of the court by reason of ORS 419 476 (1)(a)

(2) The court may review any release of a child under ORS 419.577. A review under this subsection may be ex parte on the next judicial day and may confirm or revoke the release or modify the conditions of release. Any revocation of release shall be in accordance with this section and ORS 419 599. (Informal Disposition Agreements)

419.630 Conditions for informal disposition agreement. An informal disposition agreement may be entered into when a child has been referred to a county juvenile department, and a juvenile department counselor has probable cause to believe that the child may be found to be within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court for one or more of the acts specified in ORS 419 476 (1)(a), (b) or (f) or 419 476 (1)(c) when the child's own behavior is such as to endanger the child's welfare or the welfare of others [1979 c 339 §1]

419.635 Nature of agreement; contents; terms. (1) An informal disposition agreement is a voluntary contract between a child described in ORS 419 630 and a juvenile department whereby the child agrees to fulfill certain conditions in exchange for not having a petition filed against the child

(2) An informal disposition agreement may require participation in or referral to counseling, a period of community service, drug or alcohol education or treatment, vocational training or any other legal activity which in the opinion of the counselor would be beneficial to the child

(3) An informal disposition may require that the child make restitution to any person who was physically injured or who suffered loss of or damage to property as a result of the conduct alleged. Before setting the amount of restitution, the juvenile department shall consult with the victim concerning the amount of damage. Restitution does not limit or impair the right of a victim to sue in a civil action for damages suffered, nor shall the fact of consultation by the victim be admissible in such civil action to prove consent or agreement by the victim. However, the court shall credit any restitution paid by the child to a victim against any judgment in favor of the victim in such civil action [1979 c 339 §2, 1983 c 815 §20]

(6) Not require admission of guilt or be used as evidence of guilt,

(7) Be executed in writing and expressed in language understandable to the persons involved,

(8) Be signed by the juvenile department, the child, the child's parent or parents or legal guardian, and the child's counsel, if any, and

(9) Become part of the child's juvenile department record. [1979 c 339 §3, 1983 c 815 §21]

419.645 Revocation of agreement; hearing. If an informal disposition agreement is revoked pursuant to ORS 419 640 (3) or (4), the juvenile department shall either extend the agreement pursuant to ORS 419 650 or file a petition with the juvenile court, and an adjudicatory hearing may be held [1979 c 339 §4, 1983 c 815 §22]

419.650 Modifying agreement in lieu of revocation. If the juvenile department has reasonable cause to believe that the child has failed to carry out the terms of the informal disposition agreement or has committed a subsequent offense, in lieu of revoking the agreement, the department may modify the terms of the agreement and extend the period of the agreement for an additional six months from the date on which the modification was made with the consent of the child and the child's counsel, if any. [1979 c 339 §5, 1983 c 815 §23]
