Except as specifically provided in this section, the cost of the record shall not be taxed to the complainant or any intervening party [1971 c 655 §57]

The court may affirm, modify, reverse or remand the order.

(2) Errors in procedure shall not be cause for reversal or remand unless the court finds that substantial rights of the plaintiff were prejudiced thereby. In the case of a modification or reversal the court shall make special findings of fact based upon evidence in the record and conclusions of law indicating clearly all respects in which the commission's order is erroneous [1971 c 655 §60, 1979 c 284 §197]

756.600 Procedure when new evidence introduced in suit to set aside order. (1) If, upon the trial of a suit, application is made to the court for leave to present additional evidence, and it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that the additional evidence is material and that there were good and substantial reasons for failure to present it in the proceeding before the commission, the court may order that the additional evidence be taken by the commission and shall stay further proceedings in the suit for such time as the court considers appropriate.

(2) Upon taking such evidence the commission shall consider it and may alter, modify, amend or rescind the order in the proceeding or the findings of fact and conclusions of law with reference thereto. The commission shall report action on such additional evidence to such court within such time as the court may provide and with such report shall transmit the evidence so taken, unless the commission has rescinded the order.

(3) If the commission rescinds the order complained of, the suit shall be dismissed. If the commission alters, modifies or amends the order, findings of fact or conclusions of law, such altered, modified or amended order, findings of fact or conclusions of law shall take the place of the original, and the judgment or decree shall be rendered in the suit as though the order, findings of fact or conclusions of law as so changed had been made in the first instance. If the original order, findings of fact or conclusions of law are not rescinded or changed by the commission, judgment or decree shall be rendered upon the original order, findings of fact or conclusions of law [Amended by 1971 c 655 §61]

756.610 Appeal to Court of Appeals. (1)

Where an appeal is taken the cause shall, on the return of the papers to the Court of Appeals, immediately be placed on the calendar of the then pending term and shall be assigned and brought to a hearing in the same manner as other causes on the calendar, but shall have precedence over civil causes of a different nature pending in the Court of Appeals.

(2) A judgment or decree of the Court of Appeals may be reviewed in the manner provided in ORS 2 520 [Amended by 1971 c 655 §62]
